THE MESSAGE.

Official Organ of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Indiana.

"NOT BY MIGHT NOR BY POWER, BUT BY MY SPIRIT."

VOL. I. No. 1.

INDIANAPOLIS, DECEMBER, 1896.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION, $35 PER YEAR.

OFFICIAL COMMUNICATION.

TO THE W. C. T. U. MEMBERSHIP OF IND.:—
In compliance with a duty placed upon your Central Committee by action taken at our recent State Convention the following information and propositions are submitted to our White Ribbon Comrades for consideration and action.

The conditions to be considered have grown out of the action of the Convention.

The following resolution with motion to adopt was offered by Mrs. Bates, President of Morgan County, and seconded by Miss Lenore Ayers, Supt. of the newspaper department of the Organizer:

WHEREAS, The subscription list of the past ten years shows that this organization has failed to give adequate support to the Organizer, therefore,

Resolved, That the Organizer Publishing Company be released from further obligation in publishing this paper as the official organ of the W. C. T. U.

After a thorough discussion the motion was adopted by a large vote of the Convention.

By a subsequent action of the Convention the Central Committee was authorized to make provision for a State W. C. T. U. paper provided this could be done "without incurring a debt to the State" and provided further by action of the Post Executive that such an annual subscription list be secured as will insure against said debt.

Realizing the great need of having the Union Signal, our World's and National paper in the hands of the W. C. T. U. members as well as having a medium of communication in our State, the Central Committee decided to plan for the issuing of a small monthly paper at the lowest price possible. In accordance with these conditions at a meeting of the said committee held Nov. 6th, 1896; an offer obtained from the Organizer Publishing Company for printing a four page monthly paper received favorable consideration.

By mutual consent it was decided that in order to make the establishment of such a paper possible at a very low price (without any funds on hands) the committee would divide among its members the work of editing and managing. Accordingly the following arrangements were made for editing:

First page, Official, Mrs. McWhirter; Second page, Departments, Mrs. Vayhinger; Third page, Hadley School, Trustees; Fourth page, Local and County Unions, Mrs. Balch. Supervising editor, Cor. Sec'y, Mrs. Balch. The Treasurer, Mrs. Whitson, to have charge of the business management.

Thus with the gratuitous services of the committee there will be no expense for services except for hiring a mailing clerk and the delivery of papers from printing office.

Cash must be paid for the printing in order to get it done at low figures and cash for postage.

The opinion of the committee is that if the paper is established at a low price and meets the demands of the work it will be sustained. We therefore submit to you this sample copy of "THE MESSAGE," our possible State organ, at a subscription price of thirty-five cents per single annual subscription and twenty-five cents per annual subscription in clubs of twelve or more.

Upon careful estimate we find that to sustain this paper under the present conditions a subscription representing a fair per cent of the membership in the State will be necessary.

For another year at this subscription price fully 3000 annual subscribers will be necessary for financial independence.

We have said our possible State organ advisedly, for the little paper you hold in your hand is not possible at the club rates named, unless a fair proportion of our members take it. If the paper is generally taken by our membership it will be a happy, cheerful, independent little MESSAGE, borne about on its own wings wafting good tidings to all.

The Convention and Post-executive have very carefully placed limitations for your committee, saying in substance, Publish a paper without incurring a debt to the State. Do not proceed with this work until a sufficient paid subscription list has been secured.

So we await your action. It remains with you, dear co-workers, to say by your effort, whether or not this shall be the last issue of "THE MESSAGE".

Inasmuch as we all appreciate the necessity of having a means of communication, will we not go to work at once and labor earnestly to secure a club or a subscription list equal to the membership of each local Union. Send subscription list and money by Jan. 15th, 1897, to our State Treasurer, Mrs. Amanda T. Whitson, 1745 N. Meridian St., Indianapolis, Ind.

Will not the County and Local Presidents start the work, having planned to have it prosecuted in a prompt and systematic manner?

If the required subscription list is not received, the money forwarded for subscriptions will be subject to the order of local Union or individual sending it.

Trusting that even the approaching Holiday season may not delay action or divert us from this important work.

By order of the Central Committee,
MRS. LUELLA F. MCWHIRTER, Pres.
MRS. MATTIE O. CAMMACK, Sec'y.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

DEAR SISTERS:—The news from the field is most encouraging. I am rejoicing because of the broadening of our work and the widening of its influence. The National Convention at St. Louis was most inspiring. Every State and Territory, except Alaska, I believe, was represented. How I longed to have all the Indiana white ribboners, so loyal and true, see and feel the influence of that most wonderful Convention. That could not be; but I am glad to know that forty-two Indiana members, besides the fourteen voting delegates were in attendance. Badges were furnished to all delegates. For our Indiana visitors we provided what proved to be an insufficient number of white ribbon badges with the word "Indiana" printed in large letters. The sight of an "Indiana" badge in the immense Convention among so many thousands of people caused a peculiarly pleasant sensation to a Hoosier. The St. Louis Y. W. C. A. building was headquarters for the Indiana visitors.

In those beautiful autumn days the bands of ribbon white with loving tenderness were wound closer around our hearts and friendships made that will last forever.

We returned with renewed consecration to the cause, and greater determination to push the conflict for God and Home, for Purity and Prohibition.

In this busy time pardon me if I take this means of expressing my sincere gratitude to the many friends who have sent me loving messages and pledges of loyalty to the work.

For the State Treasurer, Mrs. Whitson, I bespeak the same kind consideration and loyal support that you extended for three years to me. Mrs. Whitson's great heart and self-sacrificing nature are fully consecrated to the W. C. T. U. By her fine executive and financial ability, she will, by your support, lead Indiana in financial victory.

Hoping that at noon each day you will remember to ask our Father to bless our State work and workers.

I am faithfully,
LUELLA F. MCWHIRTER.

FROM THE SECRETARY.

WHITE RIBBON COMRADES:—"As having nothing, and yet possessing all things."

Organization comes first in the order of our service. There are over seven hundred towns in our State of over one hundred inhabitants who do not know our gospel. Shall we go ever and possess these towns? Yes, it would be a great task for one or two persons, but if each County President will gather about her, her executive committee and plan for her county, calling on the Superintendent of Organization for the State, and the State Organizer for such help as they may need, this wise division of labor will make it a small matter. While in executive council, lay hold of the financial part of the work and settle it, by planning for each Union to give a certain sum for this one important business. The money to be made by Suffrage, W. C. T. U. or Demorest Contests, personal solicitation, honorary membership dues, free will offerings, any way except to feed the stomach except according to the laws of health. I give you my right hand to do one woman's best to possess the land. Every one who responds, amen, count me there too. Write me a postal card.

MARY E. BALCH.

TREASURER'S LETTER.

DEAR COUNTY AND LOCAL TREASURERS:—It is with pleasure I greet you, dear sisters, through this, the first issue of THE MESSAGE. Many of you are strangers to me except through the common tie that binds all W. C. T. U's together. It is a pleasure to me to write to personal friends. It is a greater pleasure to receive the return message. So I've decided to write you all a personal letter some time in the near future and as I receive the replies be they business or otherwise, may I not consider you all my personal friends banded together to work with untiring energy to make our special line of work the most successful of our any?

To insure success in any line of work, promptness is very necessary. The Report Blanks were mailed to you Dec. 1st; if you have not received them please notify me at once and others will be sent by return mail.

Wishing you all the greatest success in the collection of dues for this quarter,

I am sincerely yours,
AMANDA T. WHITSON, State Treasurer.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

LOCAL SUPERINTENDENT'S.

DEAR SISTERS:—There is no part of the great W. C. T. U. machinery more important than the departments. They are the great arms which reach out among outsiders and do the work which makes better public sentiment. How important that these arms be long and strong and quick to seize every opportunity to do this work. Have you many of these strong arms in your Union? If not, you are not doing all it is your privilege to do. If you have a department which is accomplishing nothing, it is because something is wrong with your local superintendent of that department. If you can not possibly stir her up to do something, change at once. If you are a local superintendent, remember that you virtually promised when you accepted the place, to do something and do it to the best of your ability; and do not try to underestimate your ability. We can do much better than we think we can, if we but have push and heart for the work, and are ready to grasp the opportunity when it comes.

The work of the past year was crippled because some local superintendents did not do their duty. Let us do better this year and keep an accurate account of what we do, and then REPORT.

CULLA VAYHINGER.

MEDAL WORK.

This department may become a financial helper to all the others if they choose to avail themselves of its aid. It may be the right hand of power to the Narcotic Department if each Narcotic local superintendent will hold a Narcotic Contest. The Woman Suffrage Contests are logically a part of the Suffrage Department. It naturally seems akin to the L. T. L. and no work that the children may engage in will produce better results. Please read the medal report in the Minutes of 1896 and take note of the premiums offered. United effort will make this year's record to surpass all others. Will we try? Order all supplies from the State Superintendent and write her for full particulars and rules.

MARY E. BALCH, State Sup't.
56 Central Ave., Indianapolis.

UNFERMENTED WINE.

Christ, our passover, was sacrificed for us, therefore let us keep the feast, dear co-workers.

We are greatly encouraged in this work, so many churches are awakened to the importance of keeping the Lord's table free from alcoholic wine. Let us press the work in this department until every denomination in our State shall banish the fermented wine from the sacrament. Let your reports show how many churches are free from this evil.

Yours for the work,

MRS. J. R. WOOD.

56 Central Ave., Indianapolis.

HEALTH, HEREDITY AND PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The best safe-guard against sin and intemperance is a healthy body.

The desires for strong drink and evil doing are abnormal desires.

Daily attention to proper food, baths, fresh air, and above all exercise, should be the program of every W. C. T. U. worker. Exercise that will send the blood to all parts of the body to feed and nourish each part.

Headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, dyspepsia, biliousness, etc., could be kept away by proper exercise.

It will be the effort of the Physical Culture department, to secure such laws as will require systematic exercises taught in all our public schools, so that we will have healthy, vigorous boys and girls, strong enough to conquer temptations as they occur along life's pathway.

Many are the examples of vigorous old men and women who have taken the proper exercise throughout life. We need young people at seventy-five years. We can have them in the future years if the laws of health are practiced now.

Do not let a meeting pass without doing something to better the health of our W. C. T. U. members. Talk health, read about it, lecture on the subject, agitate it in all ways possible.

Yours for a better life through health,

CLARA AGNES BOYD, State Supt.
Rockville, Ind.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Joseph Cook says "The Sabbath is the only pillar of fire that can lead us out of communism, socialism, and the political dangers of universal suffrage." Col. Forney wrote to his paper in Philadelphia from Paris, "This is Paris on Sunday. When that day of rest is dishonored in America as it is here, freedom will have gone from us forever." Rev. Wilbur Crafts says: "America must restore her Sabbath or she is ruined." Sabbath desecration, impurity and intemperance are so closely related that it is impossible to strike effectively at the latter two without also striking at the first one. One of the most cunning devices which satan uses to deaden conscience, to paralyze all the activities of Christians and to neutralize all the blessed influences of the Sabbath, is the Sunday newspaper. If each Union in Indiana would appoint a good superintendent of Sabbath Observance and she would work against the Sunday paper in every way possible, the sale of papers would decrease wonderfully before next Convention.

Have a public meeting with papers on the evil effects of the Sunday paper and follow it up with a pledge not to buy, read or in any way patronize it. Let us all unite this year in a crusade against the Sunday paper.

For literature on Sabbath Observance, send to Mrs. J. C. Bateham, Williamsburg, Ky.

MRS. CULLA VAYHINGER,
State Sup't.

Y'S AT STATE CONVENTION.

The Y Conference held at 8 o'clock on Saturday morning of State Convention was most interesting, especially the discussion on, "Why are so few Christian girls in the Temperance Ranks," and "What girls know of the injurious effects of the tobacco habit."

Resolved, that we earnestly and prayerfully fight narcotics throughout the State this year.

Our assessment is to be $3.00, the same as last year.

Miss Pearl Ennis, of Martinsville Y, is to act as our Fellowship Secretary instead of Mrs. Prewitt, who resigned.

Saturday evening, Oct. 24th, was Y night, and 7:30 found the First Presbyterian Church filled with a large and appreciative audience, the State Secretary presiding. After reading the 23rd Psalm, prayer was offered by Mrs. Rice, and a solo, "If I were a Voice," was sung by Miss Lenore Ayers, of Indianapolis. Recitations were given by Miss Alen Anderson and Miss Gertrude Judd, of Anderson; also a beautiful duet "All for Jesus," by Mrs. Charlotte Techemacher and Mrs. Margaret Emison, of Vincennes.

The State Secretary gave a summary of the Y work in the State including a report of personal work done by her during her six month's secretaryship for the Y Branch, showing some very encouraging figures for a year of "hard times."

The address of the evening was delivered by Mrs. Helen G. Rice, of Boston, in an earnest, impressive manner. Collection speech by Miss Georgiona Moser, of Loogootee, was responded to in a substantial manner. Thus closed remarkable and profitable meetings of the Y. W. C. T. U.

L. T. L. LETTER.

Rah! Rah! Rah!
We clover blossoms are a-field.
Why? Saloons must die.
Hear their knell!

Hurrah for Indiana for '97!

As the State Convention deemed me worthy of re-election, you find me re-consecrated and very desirous that this year's work may be successful. In order to do this each local leader must co-operate to the best of her ability along every line. We want to raise our full amount of dues, report all special work done, organize new Legions and come to the next Convention with a grand increase.

Let us not neglect our dear young people. Those Legions that have seniors should form their pledged members into a class for graduation and be ready by the L. T. L. Convention in July.

We want this convention to be a grand success and it may be if each local leader does her duty.

I will send out quarterly report blanks soon and hope they will be returned promptly and well filled. The prizes offered last year will be continued this year as follows:

To the Legions sending dues to the amount of three dollars, I will send the Young Crusader one year free. To the Legions sending dues to the amount of five dollars, two copies for one year, and to the Legion sending the greatest amount over five dollars a banner to be presented at the next W. C. T. U. State Convention.

Seymour L. T. L. received the $3 prize last year. Who will be next?

Let us go to work as never before and pray daily, yes hourly, for God's blessing upon the young people of Indiana.

Write to me for any information concerning L. T. L. work.

Sec'y L. T. L. Branch.

HADLEY INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS, HADLEY, IND.

ADMISSION OF GIRLS TO THE SCHOOL.

To some it may seem unnecessary to have any more to say on this subject, but the experience of the committee that has had charge of this department deem it important to briefly and plainly explain some things that do not appear to be understood.

The school is designed to teach a class of girls work that will enable them to earn an honest living. While the idea of work is at the foundation of the plan, it does not mean drudgery, but noble and elevating labor. First of all each girl is expected to learn housekeeping systematically and thoroughly. If a girl's health or disposition makes this impracticable, she will be removed. This is now plainly stated, that in the future no girl may be sent who expects to spend her time to prepare for a milliner, dress-maker or music teacher. After becoming proficient in cooking and every department of housekeeping, laundry and dairy work, fruit culture, gardening and poultry-raising, with some knowledge of farming, and having completed the common school course as far as the eighth grade, she will have completed a course in the Industrial School and will be entitled to a certificate from the Board of Trustees and will be honorably dismissed.

At the opening of the school girls were admitted from ten to eighteen years of age. The experience of the Trustees and Superintendent has proved this to be unsatisfactory. In cases where older girls have entered the school habits were so fixed that it has been much more difficult to train them to neatness, order and obedience than those of a younger class. They are more restless under necessary restraint and become anxious to leave before they are prepared to take positions of responsibility with credit to themselves or honor to the school. Some of the older girls now are anxious to go out and earn their own living. While they have made some improvement, most of them have not done as much as they had the opportunity of doing toward preparing for places where they could command good wages. If they are determined to leave we have no legal claim on them to hold them longer, but the Unions that placed them in the school must take the responsibility of removing them, the Board cannot turn them over to other parties; that must be done by the authority of the Unions whose wards they are.

It was decided by unanimous vote of the Board at its meeting in November to fix the age for admission from six to twelve years. This in no way affects those who are in the school or who have applications already filed.

It is the earnest request of the Board that great care be exercised in selecting girls for places in the school. Not every girl who needs a home and education is eligible. It is not the design of the donors to take children in order to relieve parents of the care and expense of training them. The work has already been hampered and burdened by having girls sent who will never prepare themselves for creditable work. The school can not do good work with poor material. Be careful to select good material and the teachers will do their best to fashion it into characters of beauty and usefulness. According to the present plan, the Unions that send girls to the school are to supply them with books and clothing and pay doctor's bills. One other provision seems necessary; when for any reason a pupil leaves the school, such girl should be removed from the neighborhood, if the Board for good reason deems it best. Friends of the work can readily see why this arrangement should be strictly complied with for the good of the girls and the interest of the school.

Again let me say, let no inducements be presented to girls or their friends to give the impression that this school is a young ladies' boarding-school where the fine arts are taught. It is simply a home where poor, dependent girls are received to be cared for and taught in common branches of school education, and also taught what every woman, rich or poor, should know, to make a home attractive and comfortable without extravagance and waste. Every girl will be expected to learn the simple art of keeping a kitchen in order as well as the more public reception room. Music, needlework and the nice things that most girls like to do, will come in as time and means will allow, and best of all they will have the motherly care and sympathy so much needed during the period when they are passing from childhood to womanhood. The idea of instruction in the principles of Christian religion though mentioned last is intended to permeate the life of the home and school so when the pupils go out to take their places in this busy, suffering, sinful world, they will be prepared to exert a healthful, Christ-like influence in whatever community they may be placed.

The Hadley Industrial School is an institution which appeals to the fatherhood as well as the motherhood of our entire State. I heard a woman remark. "Well, that Industrial School belongs to the W. C. T. U. and they ought to support it without calling on other people."

That is an entirely mistaken idea. It was instituted in the interests, for the defense, and uplifting of the girlhood of the State, without regard to organization, class or sect. The women of the W. C. T. U. are simply the custodians of this beneficence, and the unprotected girlhood of the State is its beneficiary. To-day a mother holds in her arms her precious daughter, glad in the thought that her encircling care protects her sweet innocence from the want and danger outside of it. To-morrow all her possessions may have been swept away, and, the faithful mother may pass out into the unknown. Will it not bring to her last hour infinite relief to know there is a place where her loved child will still receive sheltering care and loving protection?

The flood of immorality is sweeping across the thresholds of even our best protected homes. Its terrible contagion is unspeakably worse than diphtheria or scarlet fever. If we can rise no higher than the thought of "me" and "mine," we ought, for our own protection to shield other innocent girlhood from the ravages of this foul devourer, whose rapacity is only increased by feeding it. Let us, then, open not only our purses but our hearts as well, toward this wall of protection around innocence and virtue, for Himself, his hungering neighbor, and Me."

Most of the W. C. T. U. who receive this paper have read the article published in the Phalanx of Nov. 19th, with reference to the plan for securing funds for the Hadley Industrial School. County Presidents are desired ascertain as soon as possible what the county desires to contribute for the support of the school this year and report to Mrs. Ella B. Wright, Greensburg, Ind.

It cannot reasonably be expected that all County Presidents can at once visit every local Union in their respective counties and learn what each wishes to contribute, within the limit of the time named. But cannot every County President who cannot herself visit all her local Unions, call at once a meeting of her executive, give to it the plan adopted at State Convention, discuss ways of prosecuting the work, appoint a time for reporting to her, etc., and thus set the ball so vigorously rolling that reports will roll into the Treasurer of Trustees, Mrs. Wright, by the time named, Jan. 1st, 1897? In this way there will be that division of labor spoken of which we firmly believe will bring about the results we all so much desire, viz: a fund which will pay all our obligations, stop interest and carry on the work of the school.

One County President has very promptly pledged $100 from her county on the new plan. Let all report just as promptly as they can to our Treasurer, that the Trustees may have a basis for planning the work for the best interests of the school.

The intelligence and tact of local Unions can be depended on for plans best adapted to any particular locality for securing funds when the work is begun in earnest.

At the Convention the delegates seemed ready with recommendation which have proven successful.

One was that a meeting having a well prepared program be held in the interest of the school and a collection be taken.

If only five dollars were realized, it would be worth doing. We need to acquaint people with our work and should not be too delicate in asking aid for a work in which worthy people are interested. One county raised about $200 by the use of the dollar box plan. This plan is commendable from the standpoint of the great number it sets to light work securing small donations.

The trustees will continue to furnish boxes free to those ordering them. Some have succeeded admirably by the birthday plan of giving a penny for each year of one's life. Some are proposing to hold an election and vote yes or no on the suffrage question and give the proceeds (5 cents for each vote cast) to the school. A good sum may be realized in this way if the election is well advertised. Also sentiment will be made and a knowledge of how to cast a ballot will be gained.

Last but not by any means least, those who decided to hold a Suffrage or a Prohibition contest and give the proceeds to the school are on the highway to a two-fold good, that of coining sentiment and coining money.

This is practically true of all the methods suggested. If you tax your local treasury for other than local work you may endanger the life of the Union.

If you go to work with a will on some well thought out plan you will verify the adage that "activity is the price of life." Will you help your local Unions to take on new life by this activity?

"To give is to live,
To deny is to die."

It is said of savage people "Their wants are few and easily supplied," but with us it is not so, especially of the Hadley School. The wants are not so many but it seems very hard to get the supply. We do need a large cooking stove or range and we need it very much. An article was put in the Phalanx and as yet it has met with no response. I think now I will appeal to some generous hearted man and wait patiently and hopefully, and I will add prayerfully, for an answer. Yes, a wagon and harness for one horse also. Friends, we mean what we say; this is not written to fill up but is genuine. We need these articles very much and have been waiting a long time for money to buy them. Now, we do not cringingly beg for them but ask for them, knowing there are those abundantly able to furnish them.

County and Local Unions.

"No chain is stronger than its weakest link."

COUNTIES.

Bartholomew will have our Gospel presented to their Teachers' Association by a professor from the Normal.

Clark County can't go to sleep, some one keeps it awake with medal contests at Utica.

Steuben County held its convention in the Christian Church at Angola, Dec. 2nd and 3rd. They advertised with a very neat program, and the subject matter was well arranged and must have proved helpful to Unions and individual workers.

Dearborn County held an executive session at Dillsboro, Dec. 3rd. Mrs. Cammack was present and then spent the remainder of the week in other parts of the county.

A county that works early in the year to organize will certainly make the best record.

LaPorte County held its convention in Michigan City and the day turned out to be one, when the rain did nothing but pour down. Officers elected as follows: President, Mrs. Dr. Paxton, LaPorte; Cor. Sec'y, Mrs. L. J. Harrison, 705 Tipton St., LaPorte; Rec. Sec'y, Mrs. Whitney, Michigan City; Treas., Mrs. India Worthily, Michigan City. They are prosecuting with energy work against the cigarette. Have gone to work very systematically with a petition, their physicians signing first, then teachers, lawyers, etc. They wish it to become universal over the State that State legislation may be secured.

Tippecanoe met in convention Nov. 10th. Mrs. A. L. Green, West LaFayette, President; Mrs. M. V. Bennett, Cor. Sec'y.

UNIONS.

Mrs. John Boner, of Wheatfield, engages in the medal work.

Burkett is active in medal contests.

Alexandria wants to head the list for greatest number of contests and legions.

Hobart Union has taken a new name. It is now the Frances Willard Union and has started on the year's work with sundry good resolutions.

Martinsville will surely excel for it has Mrs. Ada Lindsay Squires, a remarkably fine elocutionist. Her little daughter is proving a prodigy in this work. They give their services to the cause with marked success.

Point Isabel has been heard from and they are at work with the intention of bringing the State to the front.

East Chicago, Ind., is having good seed sown and that is reasonable assurance that some day their will be a harvest.

West Indianapolis is healthy and active, putting forth well directed effort.

Shelbyville has made some changes in her officers and reported the changes that means so much.

Francesville has a class of boys drilling to compete for the Demorest Silver Medal. Britty Grant the Superintendent, will give every other Superintendent something to do if they outstrip her in this department. She has made a splendid beginning for 1897.

Center Union meets the first Wednesday of each month. As the members are scattered in the country it will very likely solve the problem, "Can Country Unions be made to live?"

Frankfort's last regular meeting day was stormy; met in the home of our Jail and Prison Sup't; 22 present and 4 visitors. Mrs. Condon having charge of the prayer meetings is meeting with wonderful success. Souls are coming to Christ. Our membership is growing and we are wonderfully encouraged.

The Irvington Union anticipated the time of its December meeting by one week in order to have it occur the day before Thanksgiving, as an opportune time to make a general neighborhood donation to the Door of Hope in the City. Many ladies in our place have become interested in this philanthropy who are not members of our Union, so much so that an ineffectual effort has been made here to establish an auxiliary to the Door of Hope. Its members being pledged to give a stipulated amount monthly to this work. There was a goodly supply of store packages of staple articles of food, beside cans of fruit, glasses of jelly, jars of mince-meat from the pantry with vegetables and fruit from the garden and orchard, yes and butter from the dairy; also a few warm garments were liberally contributed. Some money was added to this. Then one of our members, Mrs. DeSett, offered to take this work as a separate department, collecting the monthly dues to such an auxiliary as had been proposed, thus making it a part of the regular Union work. Miss Mary Teas read an ably prepared paper on "Modern Philanthropy", containing many practical suggestions to us, as well as those engaged in it as a fashionable pastime, or to relieve spasmodic twinges of conscience. We greatly regret that we are about to lose one of our most valued and charter members, Mrs. Ada N. Tuly, who removes to North Indianapolis soon. She has wide experience and her heart is truly in W. C. T. U. work. Mrs. Harriet Newlin returns to us to our great joy and we welcome the opportunity to hold our next meeting in her home January 6th. Remember us, our latch string is always out.

LaPorte Union gives an annual chrysanthemum supper. It occurred this year Nov. 9th.

The Methodist church of Irvington, observed "Universal Temperance Day" last Sunday grandly. Mrs. McWhirter, State President, was invited to make an address on the W. C. T. U. work and the President of the Irvington Union was invited to the platform also. Mrs. McWhirter's address on "The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Its inception and aims," was very fine indeed, keeping the rapt attention of the audience for nearly an hour. It was accurate, clear and the plea she gave for all to claim the privilege to help in this glorious work seemed quite irresistible. In the evening there was a crowded house to hear the services conducted by members of the Murphy League by invitation of the church and pastor. God bless every such church and pastor!

PERSONAL.

DEAR MRS. BALCH:—The Club wishes to express its high appreciation of Mrs. Allen's lecture; and our only regret is that the political excitement occasioned the absence of some that would have been benefited and delighted by the instruction given.

Respectfully yours,

ANNIE B. FORD, Sec'y.

Mrs. Allen will take dates along the Wabash R. R. after Dec. 16th, as she is crossing the State.

Mrs. Ellen K. Denny is still absent at work in Prescott, Arizona. She writes with much interest concerning our work at home.

REPORTS.

Ida T. Copper, County Cor. Sec'y of Shelby County, sent a very fine report for their Loyal Temperance Legion for the State Minutes. It came too late for those pages and we give a brief summary here. Sixty-five paid members; enrolled membership, 75; five are studying for diplomas. In answer to the question give special methods, "Eternal Vigilance." This would be a comprehensive answer for all departments of work. This Legion reads the Crusader, Organizer and Union Signal. Grounded in the faith. Moneys received from all sources, $4 40; total expended, $2.00; L. T. L. dues paid, $1.00. The children are being trained to earn their own money for temperance work. In answer to what entertainments have you given, the answer, "A Black-bird Pie." I do not know what that is, I hope Mrs. Copper will tell us.

On political rally day our North Manchester Union served dinner and supper in a vacant business room, and cleared over twenty dollars. One of our series of parlor meetings recently held in the home of Mrs. Straw, by serving ice cream and cake and an admission fee to the Antiquarian—a room filled with antique relics—we cleared ten dollars. With these and other receipts we have been able to pay for stock in the "Organizer Publishing Company"—fifteen dollars. Mrs. Mary Wood-Allen, for lecture and afternoon meeting, thirteen dollars. Hadley Industrial School, our annual fee, three dollars. Railroad expenses of the delegates to our State Convention and for the purchase of a new banner, and now enjoy being out of debt with money in the treasury. We have also an order and money in for eleven copies of the State Minutes, and hold ourselves in readiness to canvass for subscribers to our forthcoming new State paper as soon as the advice to do so reaches us.

Yours,
BESSIE STRAW.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

One of our most generous and loyal sends 60 cents for additional copies of the Union Signal Convention number, also a plan for selling them at 5 cents. Parlor meetings with friends especially invited. People read what they pay for rather than what is given to them, says this good brother. This parlor meeting gives opportunity for an enthusiastic talk about the Convention. How many will try the plan.

Let every Union circulate the following Petition at once:

PETITION.

To the Honorable Bodies of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Indiana:

We, the undersigned citizens of the United States and the State of Indiana, recognizing the evil effects resulting from the pernicious habit of cigarette smoking by the youth of our State, and the impracticability of regulating the sale of cigarettes within our State, respectfully petition your honorable bodies to enact a law to entirely prohibit the manufacture and sale of cigarettes within the State of Indiana, either by any company, partnership, association or individual, and that you affix to such law a sufficient penalty, for violation, to ensure enforcement of the same.

THE MESSAGE.

"NOT BY MIGHT NOR BY POWER, BUT BY MY SPIRIT."

VOL. I. No 2.

INDIANAPOLIS, JANUARY, 1897.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION, $35 PER YEAR.

CIGARETTES.

Parents, educators and physicians are outspoken against the use of the cigarette, especially by the young. Surely there is just cause for this.

The Internal Revenue Department and the printed statement of tobacco journals indicate that billions of cigarettes are manufactured annually. They are sold at such a low rate that they can be purchased by a child for a few pennies.

There is a great profit in the cigarette business and largely for this reason it is carried on in its present enormous proportions. The American Tobacco Trust claims that in one year it made a clear profit of $4,000,000 from the sale of cigarettes. In Indiana we have a law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to children.

Stumps of cigars, and quids of tobacco raked out of spittoons and gutters, mixed with plantation leaves, fuller's earth, alum, etc., are used for making cigarettes. This is prepared for use by adding opium, Havana flavoring made from the tonca bean, which contains a deadly poison, brandy and rum and other drugs.

The paper used, is imitation of rice paper, for as that is expensive a substitute is used which is so cheap that a thousand cigarettes can be wrapped in two cents worth of it.

This wrapping paper is made from the filthy scrapings of rag-pickers; these are bleached with lime and then treated with a preparation of arsenic and lead, to give the appearance of rice paper.

The use of cigarettes poisons the blood, irritates the mucus membranes of the mouth and throat, affects the heart, the ear, the eye, weakens the bones, stunts the growth and creates a thirst that only a stimulating beverage will quench.

The accomplished cigarette smoker is not content with a regular puff; but he draws the smoke into the depths of his lungs, holds it there a moment and then expels it through his mouth and nose. The poison is thus allowed to penetrate every portion of the lung cavity and by absorption is taken into the blood.

Physicians who have made this a special study declare that cigarette smoking is another form of the opium habit!!

Urge your neighbors and friends to help in a crusade against the cigarette. We need much help to save child-life from the pitfalls that commercial interests are digging and that greed is encouraging.

Be up and doing! Let every person who is interested in securing an anti-cigarette law for Indiana, write a letter to the member of the Legislature representing his or her District, urging him to vote for the measure. Personal letters carry weight with them—write to-day. To-morrow seek a friend of yours who voted for the Senator and Representative and get him to write also. If we secure an anti-cigarette law every white ribboner must help.

So swiftly has the past year come and gone that we can scarcely realize that a twelve months has been recorded with those that have gone before. The year has been one of earnest, painstaking endeavor on the part of the State. Many well laid plans that were made in the beginning of the year have been carried out, and others, for lack of co-operation and means are held in obedience.

As we have gone out over the State, helping hands, warm hearts and hospitable homes have been open to us.

For the world has awakened to the fact that woman's work and woman's prayers are essential factors in the onward march of civilization, progress and Christianity.

We are very thankful that our work has progressed in place of going backwards. The list of delinquent Unions are surprisingly small when we consider the closeness of the times. Many of the newly organized Unions bid fair to outstrip some of their older sisters in good work and contributions to our affiliated interests. "He who climbs, sees," so says Frances Willard, and as we travelled the State last year we saw great unbroken forests of sin and intemperance. The world has not been won, yet, to total abstinence, and we need never hope to enjoy the blessedness of prohibition until a greater number of the human family are tee-totalers.

We, who so long ago passed the a, b, c, of our reformation have little patience with the women that must still be taught the first principles of our work. "Let us not despise the day of small things" but take the pledge in our hand and go about winning the youth of our State to total abstinence and the home from all appearance of evil.

If we would "bruise the head of the serpent" a voice must go out from the home with no uncertain sound.

The destroying serpent is coiled in many, many homes in Indiana to day, and when there lurks more surely to destroy than when found in less enticing places. So, let every "woman teach her neighbor" the safer way. Many homes are in utter darkness concerning the nature and power of strong drink and we who have the light are duty bound to carry this light into benighted homes to elevate and save. Will we do it?

Some city Unions divide their members into twelve sections, each section entertaining and serving light refreshments once during the year. A fine being imposed upon the section if more than two articles of food is served. Small Unions carrying out the same plan by entertaining once in three months.

LOOKING FORWARD TO OUR 1897 REPORTS.

The local Superintendents need a list of questions from the State Superintendent, concise and suggestive, that they may be at work.

Knowing what they are expected to report will assist very much in having the work done, and the material for the report at hand. State Superintendents will please prepare these for the February issue of THE MESSAGE. Every department must have the necessary space if it takes all the paper.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

DEAR SISTERS:—Through the efforts of our efficient State Superintendent of Narcotics, Mrs. Fannie Calkins, we are all permitted to help wage a war against the deadly cigarette.

Thousands of copies of a petition to the Senate and House of Representatives of Indiana praying for a law to prohibit the manufacture and sale of cigarettes within our State, have been sent into the Unions. From many Unions we learn of the great efforts made to secure signatures. Goshen reported having 800 a week ago. If your Union has not received copies of petition, send to Mrs. Calkins for them immediately.

The Christian Endeavor will take active steps in regard to the petition and appoint committees for this special work.

From the State Headquarters of the Epworth League in this city, 6,000 copies of the anti-cigarette petition is being sent into the Chapters of Indiana.

Members of the Y. M. C. A. of this city will lobby for our bill which will be presented by Mr. Reynolds, of Wayne Co., State Organizer of Good Citizenship Leagues. This good man will do what he can for the measure.

Please request all ministers of all denominations to observe Jan. 17th, as Narcotic Day. Especial attention being given to the injurious effects of the cigarette. E. A. King, of Newport, Ky., has published a valuable leaflet, "The Cigarette and the Youth." Price, 5 cents; 25 cents per dozen. Send postage stamps to him for copies and supply your ministers. Also send to the W. T. P. A. for leaflets on the subject.

At noon of each day remember to pray for the W. C. T. U. of your own community, the State, National and Worlds. During the session of the Legislature especially pray for the success of the anti-cigarette bill and for a curfew law. If arrangements can be let each Union of the State give a children's entertainment, entitled, "The Trial of Prince Nicotine." The plan is given in Crusader Series No. 3, price, 10 cents. Sold by the W. T. P. A., The Temple, Chicago, Ills. If the plan as given is a little too long, shorten it. Let this entertainment be given just as soon as it can be arranged for. If we secure the needed legislation against the destruction of the children by nicotine, opium, etc., we must arouse our communities on the subject. As soon as you decide that you will give the entertainment, decide when and where and begin advertising. If the children sell tickets the receipts will be good; everybody is interested in a children's entertainment. Then, too, the children are fine mediums of advertising, whenever they attend rehearsal their friends and neighbors know about it. Get the available boys out of a Sunday-school and if possible get the whole Sunday-school interested. Don't delay, but attend to this immediately.

Let me urge each person who reads this letter to write a letter to their Representative and plead for support of the anti-cigarette bill and for a curfew law.

Send me word if your town has the curfew law. We will make an effort to secure a law for the State.

Yours for the better protection of the children,
LUELLA F. MCWHIRTER.

NOTICE.

Arrangements have been made by which we can furnish the Union Signal and THE MESSAGE for $1.10 per year.

Secure as many subscriptions to the two papers as possible. Every local Union officer is urged to take both papers. No county officer can afford to be without them. Any person subscribing in a club for the MESSAGE can have the Union Signal by adding 85 cents, provided it is sent in with the club.

DEPARTMENT OF NARCOTICS.

DEAR SISTER:—I have sent copies of the petition to "Entirely prohibit the manufacture and sale of cigarettes within the State of Indiana" to every County President and Narcotic Superintendent whose address I could get. Please circulate it diligently. When the space for names is full paste on more paper and send in thousands of names. When working for the S. T. I. Law, I found that when I could show yards of names, people signed much more readily. Let us put forth our utmost strength in the effort to get this law. If we have lectures let us have them on Narcotics. Miss Lenore Ayers, Mrs. Lena M. Beck, Miss Lodie E. Reed, to whom we owe the S. T. I. Law, and Mrs. Mattie O. Cammack with her instructive charts, are all prepared to give very efficient help on this line.

Visit your Senators and Representatives and ask them to vote for this law. Ask your ministers to preach against Narcotics, and to support our Petition. Hold Narcotic Contests; medals, $1.25, books, 10 cents a copy. Write the Superintendent of this work for books and medal; send money with the order to Mary E. Balch, 56 Central Avenue, Indianapolis, Ind., and in every way agitate the question.

Mrs. Orpha James, of Brazil, Clay Co., carries a separate paper for the boys to sign.

Please report your progress. So many counties have not answered the personal letters which I sent them that I am afraid they are not trying for this law.

Our State President has been giving me very efficient aid with our Cigarette Petition, and she has kindly consented to do all she can while the bill is pending. It is impossible for me to be away from my home so long. Return Petitions to my address not later than Jan. 11th.

And now, dear sisters, let us pray earnestly that God will bless our labors and our beloved President in her work. The victory surely is ours if we do all we can then trust Him.

FANNIE CALKINS,
Portland, Ind. State Sup't Narcotics.

FRANCHISE PLAN.

I.—ORGANIZATION.

Let the W. C. T. U. throughout the different counties appoint County and Local Superintendents of Franchise work. Local Superintendents organize as a branch; interest women outside the W. C. T. U. Set up Political Science study classes. Have a committee on current news; National—political and congressional; State—judicial and legislative; Educational—personal. Study Civil Government, Legal Status of Woman. Have lectures, hold contests and parlor meetings. Debates on suffrage. These will make a profitable variety for public or private meetings.

Offer prizes in the schools. Secure a Woman's Day in the Summer Assemblies.

Let us use all our privileges while we pave the way for more. By all means use the press. Arrange with the Press Sup't to supply her with Suffrage Items. Judiciously give out Suffrage Literature and so prepare the way for Legislative work.

Address State Sup't for books, papers, and leaflets, also for medals. State Superintendent's address, 56 Central Ave., Indianapolis, Ind.

W. C. T. U. medals, $1.25 each; Cooper, $2.50. Send money with orders. Address State Sup't of Suffrage for what ever help or assistance you may be in need of as to the way to work and how to accomplish it.

M. A. TOMPKINS, State Sup't.
309 S. Main St., Elkhart, Ind.

To the Honorable bodies of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Indiana:

We, the undersigned members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, realizing the utter indifference and carelessness of town and city officers in enforcing the laws of the State against saloon-keepers for violation of said laws, respectfully petition your Honorable bodies to enact a law that a stipulated amount of the fines assessed against a saloon-keeper for violation of law, be allowed to any person or persons bringing evidence of such violation of law before the court.

Committee on Petition,

MRS. M. E. ANDERSON,
MRS. FANNIE GAGE.

Any one can cut this out and circulate it or can appeal by letter to our law makers. It is the thought of Grand View Union. This legislation might make the Nicholson law of more service.

MOTHER'S MEETINGS.

DEAR SUP'TS OF MOTHER'S MEETINGS:—Doubtless you have noticed in the Union Signal of Dec. 24th, the call for Mother's Meetings; to be held on our new Red Letter Day, "Mother's Day," Jan. 3rd. As it was impossible for your Sup't to communicate with you until the MESSAGE should come to you, it has been decided to have Mother's Day one month later this year, which will be Feb. 3rd. In the future I hope we may observe the day at the proper time, and in the very best way possible, for surely there is no department in which the work should be more thoroughly done. Our great organization is sometimes called "Organized Mother-love." This Red Letter day represents Madam Willard's birthday; we should carry out the plan of the Union Signal by reading selections from "A Great Mother" and from the "New Crusade." No mother should be without this valuable little paper and by sending to your Superintendent you can have it at 35 cents a year.

Should it be impossible for your Union to obtain either of these readings, send to our W. T. P. A., The Temple, Chicago, and get a leaflet on "Obedience", price, 2 cents each. To you all I would say, make your meeting spiritual and give plenty of time for devotional service. There is no mother who ought to hesitate for one moment to speak or pray in a Mother's Meeting. How shall we expect our children to be Christians if we ourselves take not up the cross and follow Him.

Should any Union be so unfortunate as not to have a Superintendent of Mother's Meetings, I hope the President of such a Union will see to it that this Mother's Day is observed by her Union.

Yours for Mother's Day,
MARTHA L. GIPE.

MERCY DEPARTMENT.

I hope in this glad new year which has just been ushered in that my white ribbon sisters will take up the work of this department with renewed zeal, and prayerful consecration. Let us see how good a record we can make for '97. I wish to especially recommend the Angell Prize Contest work, to help educate public sentiment along humane lines, and as an especially excellent way for Unions to make some money to help out their work. If any Union wishes to have a contest, please appoint a Mercy Sup't, who can write to me for the necessary information and I am sure it will be less work and greater pay than any thing else a union can do. I want every one of my Sup'ts to have at least one contest during this year. Now is the time to begin, sisters. Don't wait but let me hear from you at once and I am quite sure when you learn the particulars, you will decide at once to have a contest. Wishing you all a happy New Year, and plenty of successful work, I am

Yours for the work of mercy,
MRS. LOU E. RALL.

No. 23 Salamonie Ave.

FLOWER MISSION WORK.

DEAR SUP'TS:—Through the columns of the MESSAGE I wish to extend to you all the greetings of the New Year. Let us each and every one make for this year a resolution to push the Flower Mission work. That will mean that thousands of darkened homes and darkened lives will be opened to the sunshine of Christ's love through simple, inexpensive flowers offered with a kindly word and sympathetic look. The work covers not only the giving of flowers but of books and all other things which the circumstances may demand.

At the end of the year a list of questions corresponding to the ones to be given in February issue of MESSAGE will be sent to each Superintendent and the answers to these questions will constitute the report of the Superintendents. Now, it would be a most excellent plan for each local Sup't to carry to each meeting a permanently bound note book so she can put down immediately the report of that meeting as far as it concerns the Flower Mission work. Then when the time comes for the final report blank to be filled out, the matter will be a very easy and accurate one.

Let the effort especially be made to enlist the help of children's societies. They will be found eager to assist not only in gathering the flowers but also in distributing them.

With effort consecrated and wisely directed our eyes will be opened to the possibilities of doing much good and we will find opportunities on every side.

Yours for much Flower Mission work,
REBA TUSLEY.

PARLIAMENTARY USAGE.

In Miss Ayres' drill at the State Convention, but one Superintendent answered unhesitatingly in how many ways a motion could be amended. Probably all could have applied the different ways of amending, but were not sufficiently grounded to answer promptly. My plan of work for the year is the thorough study of the subsidiary motions. Begin the drill, with how to obtain the floor and state the motion; then fully understand why, when and how. "To lay the motion on the table", to call "The previous question", "To post-pone to a certain day" and so on, which motions are debatable, how many votes, and what majority carries, ect. In organized counties local Superintendents should report to the county Sup't, (she may be the Co. Pres't) and she to me. In unorganized counties directly to me. Our best text-books are Mrs. Lillian Cole Bethel's, Compendium, 25 cents. Neeley's Practice, 10 cents; and our standard, or W. C. T. U. authority, Roberts' Rules of Order, 75 cents.

MRS. E. D. HARDY, State Sup't.
Goodland, Ind.

CHRISTMAS BOXES AND OTHER DONATIONS.

We gratefully acknowledge many useful and beautiful donations to the School and to the girls individually.

Francesville Union a most liberal box of fruit, bed linen, towels, etc.

Mill Creek Union, canned fruit, granulated sugar and onion sets. Will not others send us garden seeds of approved varieties?

A box unmarked contained delicious fruit, jams, jellies, etc. One freight bill was marked Goshen and we suspect it came from there. Will not all who so kindly favor us also do us the favor to write and send us a list of the things included in the box, giving weight of packages of groceries, etc.?

Our neighbors are very neighborly. Our dear aged friend, Lydia Wheeler, contributed three gallons excellent plum butter. Hannah Hadley, apples and preserves. Our benefactors, Addison and Martha Hadley who are ever mindful of their numerous family have provided a barrel of excellent molasses, apples, meat, etc. Mrs. Susan Hadley, a fine lot of cabbage. Mrs. Fannie Rogers, always neighborly, apples and boiled cider.

Columbia City Junior Christian Endeavor, dolls for the smaller girls.

Through solicitation of Miss Hadley, a beautiful and convenient desk for our Superintendent, from the New York store, Indianapolis.

Through solicitation of Mrs. Potter, glass and hardware for a poultry house, donated by Francke & Schindler.

Christmas decorations from Knox & Co., a "high toned" eight inch gong from Francke & Schindler.

A pretty quilt from Madison. A barrel of flower from J. W. Baen & Son, merchant miller of Lyons, Ohio, father of our Superintendent.

Mr. Hawkins & Son, near Danville, a liberal donation of apples, meal, etc.

Plainfield Union, apples, canned fruit, pickles, soap and tablets for the girls.

Mrs. Mattie Hadley Chandler made a useful needle-book for each of them.

And now, do our friends wonder what more we can ask or wish? Well, we still badly need the buggy and harness we have been asking for so long. A few more blankets and spreads (not sheets), sheets 2½ yards long as many sent us are too short for our cots.

And our treasurer, Mrs. Ella B. Wright, of Greensburg, could use a little more money if she had it, to pay our obligations and keep things going. Will not other local Unions promptly report the amount of their free will offerings as per our plan of State Convention?

HADLEY, IND., Dec. 30th, 1896.

DEAR MAMMA POTTER—As we have had such a pleasant Christmas, I wish you to know of our enjoyment. Our lovely Sup't, left for Greensburg to spend vacation at her sister's Mrs. Wright, and to meet her aged parents. And our "Wandering Jew", Miss Mary Hadley, came to help us have a Happy Christmas. You know we call her "Carnation" when she is with us. We are always glad when she comes to teach us new and useful things. A short program was prepared by the girls, the object was to show why we observe Christmas. The girls marched into the chapel to music leaving me in the living room at the piano to come in last. But what greeted our eyes on entering the chapel? A Christmas Tree. After the opening song Miss Anna Spitzer, who was presiding read the 2nd chapter of Matt. and Miss Hadley led us in prayer. We then sang "Scatter Sunshine", looking anxiously at the tree. But we were not to know what was lodged in its branches until our program was carried out. (Wonderful things which Santa Claus left us.) A song by the three smaller girls and recitations followed by remarks from Miss Hadley and "Dear Aunt Nan". It would make my letter tedious to tell you of all the pretty and useful presents we received. The girls gave gifts to one another, dainty little things which they made themselves, but our dear sister Mary Hicks, was the only one unselfish enough to make a present for all. Many presents were sent by friends and relatives, which was placed on the tree. Also a beautiful quilt, boxes of provision and bed linen were sent by the dear White Ribboners, whom we all have learned to love so much. We are glad the H. I. S. students can belong to the Y. Miss Hadley gave a lovely and useful present to all. On Christmas Day, Miss Brazier, the guardian of little May came, she assisted Miss Hadley in repairing the badly worn upholstering which was donated, and you should see the beautiful results that were brought to light. Miss Hadley searched in the rag-bag and found some old scraps, which she sewed together and presented us with a fine foot-stool. On Monday Mrs. Molsinger brought us such a sweet little sister only eleven years old. I will make my letter to long if I tell you all. Believing this Christmas will be a bright spot in the memory of every student, I remain with much love,

 Your "Daisy" (Coral).

A few words more on admission of girls to Hadley Industrial School.

There seems to be a wrong notion with regard to the admission and dismissal of girls. Some have the idea a girl can be put in the school and taken from it at the pleasure or convenience of Unions or patrons, and this has given rise to some very unpleasant complications. Some rules have been passed on by the Board of Trustees which we hope are plain enough for any one to comprehend.

The age for admission for the future is from six to twelve years. The committee on admission will take the girl on trial for not more than three months. If she is considered eligible a written agreement must then be signed by parent or guardian giving her to the care of the Board of Trustees for such time as shall be deemed best for the child; and she shall not be removed until the expiration of such time, unless something transpires which makes such removal necessary for the interest of the school. It will readily be seen by all right minded people that no lasting good can be accomplished while any one who may desire it can take a girl from the school. Past experience has convinced the Board that its authority must be acknowledged and sustained or the benefits of the Home will be measurably destroyed. We trust the Board will be composed of women who desire only the good of the children placed under its care. Any parent or guardian can at any time confer with members of the committee respecting the welfare of the child. No mercenary consideration can induce any one to become a member of the Board. Time, thought and care are given without remuneration and the only reward for such expenditure is the consciousness of having done something toward turning the feet of some little ones into the path of virtue and usefulness.

We are glad to note that some friends have been generous toward the Home. Francke & Schindler have donated a gong, much needed in the house, and hardware necessary to build a poultry house. The New York store has given a nice desk for the use of the Superintendent. We would be grateful to any who feel like helping pay for the poultry house so we need not draw on the treasury for it. We mean to make poultry business pay.

LECTURE BUREAU.

Indiana has the opportunity of making eighteen dates at $10 each with entertainment for Mrs. Ella A. Boole, Sec'y Young Woman's granch N. Y. State, for the last of February and the first of March. I can furnish you press notice's to satisfy the most critical. There is one Francis E. Willard; and only one Ella A. Boole.

Mrs. Ella A. Boole, A. M., wife of the Rev. Dr. W. H. Boole, conducted a week's series of temperance meetings in the city of Utica, under the auspices of a union of the Christian Endeavor societies of the city. These meetings were unusual in their design and purpose; for they were not of the general order of gospel temperance meetings at which the pledge is offered to drinking men, but for the purpose of arousing the Christian Churches to the earnest, prayerful consideration of their duties as highminded citizens, against the legalized liquor traffic. To this end Mrs. Boole gave appropriate lectures, afternoons and evenings, urging that the solemn official declarations of the various Protestant denominations against all forms and grades of license, and especially in favor of "total legal prohibition, as the only true remedy for the evils of intemperance." The meetings were held in the various churches, and were crowded to the doors, beyond seating capacity, by enthusiastic audiences of the best class of citizens. All the pastors were in the work. The spirit of the eloquent lady speaker was thoroughly religious, her charming, womanly bearing, her rich voice, and intense spiritual devotion, were so evident as to win the admiration of all hearers, and constrained their convictions. The meetings were a "new departure" in the temperance movement. Many of her hearers at Utica pronounced her the equal of her husband, the well-known pulpit and platform orator, Dr. Boole.—Buffalo, N. Y., Christian Advocate.

Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, one of our National Organizers and Lecturers is in our State and will fill dates for a short time at $25 per week or $5 per lecture with expenses and entertainment.

We are at liberty to make dates during the winter months, for Mrs. Emma Cranmer, Honorary President of South Dakota. $5 and collections with entertainment.

Our Ex-president Mrs. L. M. Beck, Bloomington, is ready to fill dates at her usual prices. Mrs. Julia A. Trish, Warsaw, will work in the Bureau at $1 per day and expenses.

Mrs. Ellen Denny, expects to be in Indiana from this on, call her at county seats in the interest of jail and prison work, according to our plan of work.

OUR ANNUAL REPORTS.

Experience is a wise teacher. Advertizing to the amount of $14.50 from Marion county and $15 from Grant, went just so far towards paying for the Annual Reports. A few more counties like minded, would have cashed the bill, without drawing on our State treasury, and there would have been money to pay department appropriations at the beginning of the year. Advertizing and one railroad pass to St Louis paid for our State programmes.

Our annual reports cost 26 $\frac{2}{3}$  cents a copy. You buy them for 10 cents and 4 cents postage. An order for 7 copies and over will be sent by express; the Union ordering will pay express charges. If you owe for the minutes please remit at once, and include the postage.

The unions ordered 1700 copies of the convention number of the Union Signal at 3 cents a copy, that was the issue of December 3rd. Then there were 1700 copies of the December 10th number sent to the Unions absolutely free. Total receipts $51.24. Total expenses $60.92. The deficit $9.68 is a present from the State to the Unions, and the W. T. P. A. who sent out the second 1700 free of any charges except the transportation.

SUMMER ASSEMBLIES.

We have six in the State. If we could begin this early to plan for, and use one and the same National Speaker at these six points, we might save all the way from five to ten dollars on each address, have our work better advertized, more time to provide the means, etc. Will the local management correspond with me in regard to this?

SPRING CONVENTIONS.

It is not too early to begin to plan for these if we want to use other talent than our home folks, and as these meetings are in part Institutes it is almost a necessity that we do have help and make these gatherings a power. Plan early and work out your plans.

ALTON FLOWER MISSION AND CHARITY WORK.

Six bouquets sent to the sick with text cards attached; five dinners sent to the sick, fruit three times; three bouquets for funerals. On Thanksgiving the W. C. T. U. gave, and had donated as a thanks offering to the poor and sick: Two pounds of coffee, two pounds of crackers, 20 cents worth of tea, one package of soda, one package of rolled oats, twelve pounds of sugar, three pounds of rice, one peck of apples, two loaves of bread, one cake, five half-gallon cans of fruit, two glasses of jelly, three calico dresses and made by the Union, one pair of child's shoes, one cap for boy, one pair of suspenders, and 80 cents cash.

MRS. IDA HARRISON,
Superintendent.

The Central Committee wishes to make the mid-year Executive Committee meeting of great value to our work and the workers. We usually pay our money to the railroad and arrange to leave our homes for a one day's session, and content ourselves with attending to the actual business in a very hurried manner, with no time for the discussion of best methods of organization and department work. Let us extend the time and make it a two day's meeting, beginning at 1 p. m., Tuesday, March 16th and closing at noon Tuesday the 18th. An outline program in THE MESSAGE of February will enable every member of the committee to come prepared for the best results, if preparation and due deliberation will produce them.

The night meetings should be for the general public. Tuesday night's program by our own women and Wednesday night an address by the best National speaker available. Possibly Mrs. Ella A. Boole.

Invitations from the towns near the center of the State are expected. The town getting the benefit of this gathering will be expected to entertain the delegates, possibly fifty or more and provide the building. The collections at the evening meetings will go to the State treasury, as the State will be responsible for the National speaker.

The distinguishing features by which the speakers will be selected for the first evening of the mid-year Executive meeting will be as follows:

County President representing counties having held at least one Executive Committee meeting.	Reporting largest No. of public meetings.
" " " active Department Sup'ts.
" " " Y Unions.
" " " L. T. L's.
" " " Contests.
" " " active W. T. P. A. agents.
" " " subscription to Union Signal and THE MESSAGE .
" " " signature to anti-cigarette petition.

" every General Officer of every Union as subscribers to the Union Signal and THE MESSAGE.

PERSONAL.

My Quarterly Reports made me say out loud Praise the Lord, as they came in so promptly, so well filled and such nice letters with them. The secretaries are under promise to do their best. Guess which county had 99 delegates at its last county convention?

Mrs. Allie Anderson is having crowded houses at Star City, 66 signed the abstinence pledge; one half at least were voters. Her monthly report blank gives 21 addresses, 13 womens meetings, 149 house visits, 15 towns visited, 4 counties; one New Union, five re-organized and one Y.

Hannah C. Albertson, Canton, is speaking in Sunday-school and church services and holding contests. She is one of the faithful; abundant in labors.

Ella J. Davis, Richmond, our State Evangelist, is reporting the National Convention and finds the people receive it with great relish and we add, it must be with profit.

Buffalo, N. Y., entertains our next National Convention. 20,000 members are to be secured this year. Not a very large stint if every member does her part of the work.

Think of it. Talk about it. Tell your friends. The Union Signal and the MESSAGE for $1.10. Your minister can have them for 75 cents. Three thousand copies of this issue of THE MESSAGE; two thousand in the first. A name for the Union Signal and THE MESSAGE will count one in your club of twelve.

Mattie O. Cammack has been at work in her own county since her return from her two day's trip to Dearborn county.

Mary E. Wright, of Greensburg, sold Convention numbers of the Union Signal. Profits used in Christmas gifts.

Eunice Wilson, Grant County, is reporting National Convention.

Orange County reports two saloons closed with a prospect of others doing likewise.

Harrodsburg has a soliciting committee to solicit new members. They hold parlor socials with literary programs. Their first contest this year will be held soon.

Valparaiso reports interest increasing with a prospect of new members. Had a very interesting lecture on Social Purity.

Henry County Treasurer reports much interest in the Hadley Industrial School and will send money to aid in this great work.

Many counties are having good success in circulating the Cigarette Petition. Let's keep it going.

Spiceland Union is planning printed programs for the year.

Vanderburg County promises active work in securing new members and will push medal work.

All members present at the last meeting of Walnut Ridge Union promised to bring in one more sheaf during this quarter. They will make an effort to secure as many honoraries as they have active members. Will take up medal work and report results in another issue of THE MESSAGE.

South Bend Union will supply all ministers of their city with the Union Signal. Will not all other Unions do likewise. Subscription price to ministers only 50 cents:

Mapleton, Marion County, will organize an L. T. L., Friday, Jan. 8th. A Suffrage Contest will be held in the near future.

Mrs. Vella Lewis, President Stuben County writes that she expects many subscribers for THE MESSAGE and Union Signal under the new club rate of $1.10 for both.

FEBRUARY 1ST, 1897.

To-day we enter upon the second quarter of our W. C. T. U. year, and I cannot refrain from saying to my White Ribbon Comrades, Happy Greeting. The fetters of winter are beginning to give way; and as I look from my window I see the birds are flying to and fro in the maples and beginning to chatter (planing their work.) As I look at my letter files I am reminded that many of us have been quite busily engaged chattering through the mails and through the press during the zero weather—about Organization, Industrial School work, Legislative work, etc., planning and doing our work.

But the most interesting chatter which has been coming to me recently is from County Presidents about Normal Institutes, and what I may have failed to fully answer at an earlier date I hope now to answer through "THE MESSAGE" as it seems destined to take a broader flight.

You will remember that a modification of the Institute Plan of last year was adopted at our last State Convention which allows any county to hold an Institute in joint session with another county or with other counties at some point agreed upon. Such counties as prefer this plan should confer together early, taking into consideration also the time and place of holding their Semi-Annual Conventions.

Now a few words about the Program. The one-half day allowed for Semi-Annual Convention last year proved too short a time in some cases. This year a full day is allowed. The evening session following can be used quite successfully (as it was last year) for holding a Contest with 10 cts. admission, and the proceeds can be used to defray the expense of the Institute.

Another feature of the Program is fewer subjects, and longer time for discussion. The first topic—The Six Essentials, etc., well understood and practically carried out will give such effective W. C. T. U. work throughout the state as we have never had. Can we not this year have a general study of the program before the Institute opens? For this first topic every member is requested to make a brief written statement of what she regards the six leading essentials of a successful union and bring two copies of it with her to the Institute. One copy to be retained by herself and the other handed to the chair. Also please have pencils and tablets on hands this time at the first meeting.

With but few exceptions County Presidents have been chosen as Superintendents of Institute Work. Many of these are already at work dividing liberal things for the coming Institute. In a few counties where no choice has been made the President is requested to act. She can call her Executive her aid.

Now as to available workers for the Program. No part of it last year was more satisfactory than that carried out by local workers and we trust many more bright, helpful women will be developed this year. Also we are glad to announce that some of our ablest national workers will be available for the earlier Institutes at least, Mrs. Ella Boole of N. Y., and others. For dates and terms see "THE MESSAGE." All of the State Officers will plan to assist in the work if called in due time and Superintendents of Departments whose help is desired should be called upon promptly that they may give their best service. All who can favor the Institute work are requested to send their terms to THE MESSAGE if they have not already done so.

Terms for State Officers are as follows: For the President, Vice-President and Recording Secretary each $5.00 and expenses. Cor. Sec'y $3.00 and expenses. For the Treasurers, expenses only. Traveling expenses, as last year, will probably mean in almost every case not more than a round trip ticket from Indianapolis. In many cases it was made to mean much less than this, and this can be done again if counties near together make consecutive dates for one or more workers and notify the Secretary, Mrs. Balch, who will plan the best route possible if you address her promptly. Later we hope to have her in the field.

Much depends upon local arrangements—place of meeting, entertainment, music and especially the advertisement which should be by enthusiastic announcement and through local and county papers with program insert d, at least two weeks before Institute opens. I have tried to answer questions proposed by those new in the work it may be at the expense of being tedious to those experienced but will most cheerfully continue to do so for those who wish to confer further in its interests.

For the best results order of the W. T. P. A. and have on hands at Institute Department and other literature. It will cost you but a trifle as compared with the gain. Especially will you need as many copies as you have persons in attendance, of the Bible Reading on program, "The Christian Warfare."

MARY HADLEY, Sup't.

LEGISLATIVE WORK.

Much time and energy has been spent in an effort to secure some much needed legislation.

Representative Thomas, of Rushville, introduced a bill to raise the age of consent from 14 years to 18 years. This passed the House after being amended to 16 years. This bill met with strong opposition, several expressed themselves as fearful that such a law would encourage blackmail (?) after the close of the discussion and the adjournment of the House our friend and brother S. J. was in the elevator with several members of the House and heard one of them say to another, "I couldn't vote for that Bill, if we had such a law I'd be in jail half of my time."

I sent out two hundred communications on this subject to as many ministers urging them to send memorials from churches and personal letters to the House and Senate urging the passage of this Bill. Unless there is effective work done now this will not get through the Senate. We have felt the need of the influence of our educators against the cigarette. Believing them to be better informed and more interested in the subject than any other class. I sent personal letters to nearly all of our college Presidents and to five hundred Sup'ts and Principals of City Schools asking for their co-operation and help. Many of them have sent personal letters to members of Legislature and memorials from their corps of teachers to the Senate and House.

The Senate passed the Shively license cigarette bill, and afterward passed the McCord prohibitory bill. The House had nearly a dozen cigarette bills one of which was the Reynolds bill (same as the McCord Senate bill.) These were all referred to Rights and Privileges Committee which reported a substitute for the Reynolds bill. This substitute is prohibitory, restricting the sale to minors (under 21 years) with a penalty of a fine for first offence, fine and imprisonment for second offence. Time for discussion of the bill was set for 2 p.m. Monday, February 1st. Announcements to this effect were sent to our City White Ribboners and to many ministers to read in Sunday services. Notwithstanding the snow storm, at the appointed time the galleries and all available seats in the House were filled with those interested in an anti-cigarette law. That morning almost every member of the House had received a petition with a long roll of names attached. When the subject was mentioned Representative East, of Monroe and Brown Counties, arose and unrolled a list of voters' names 13 feet long also containing many women's names, following him in quick succession were about sixty members standing and unrolling long lists from their counties, the longest being 79 feet of voters' names. The total length of lists of voters' names being nearly 700 feet. The oldest members of the House say that they never saw such a sight in the House so convincing in regard to the desires of the people. (The Indianapolis Journal does not mention this occurrence.)

Much enthusiasm prevailed. Representative East, of Bloomington, offered a strong amendment, making it the especial duty of the Prosecuting Attorneys to enforce this law. Amendment carried after a powerful speech by Representative East. The Bill as amended passed the House under the suspension of rules with only three negative votes. The objections to the original bill as expressed by many were that the Inter State Commerce law would make an entire prohibitory law inoperative, stating that to make it restrictive to minors it would be operative and effective.

If the Senate passes the substitute Reynolds Bill 167, it will be far better than our present law; better for the cause than a license law. Its enforcement and penalty provisions are good.

All persons who read this article are urged to send personal appeals to the Senators to pass the Thomas Age of Consent Bill No. 201, which has passed the House. The victory is not won push on the fight against cigarettes. The Tennessee Legislature has just passed a prohibitory cigarette law.

Yours for Humanity,
LUELLA F. McWHIRTER.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

DEAR SUPERINTENDENTS:—Now one page of this paper is all our own. It is for our use to further the interest in our work. I have sent cards to every State Superintendent asking for an article at once. They have been put in, as nearly as possible, in the order in which they came to me. There are just fifteen of you who have not responded to this invitation, as yet. Will you not do so at once? At any time you may have anything which you wish to bring before the local workers write it out and send to me in time and I will get it before them as soon as possible. Let's keep our page full of useful thoughts.

Yours for service,
CULLA J. VAYHINGER.

NARCOTICS.

DEAR SISTERS:—We wish to thank you all for your hearty co-operation in the cigarette petition work. At this writing (Jan. 28), forty-seven counties have sent in signatures. Total number, 16,700. Elkhart heads the list with 2,758 names; 1978 of them voters. Grant is second, Shelby third. We cannot say too much in praise of our State President, Mrs. McWhirter. Always alert; through slush, and cold, and snow; often in weariness and pain, she has never failed to be in the place where she could do the most for our cause. May God bless her. The other State officers, too, have done what they could; and Mrs. Mary Sims and Mrs. J. B. Hand have proven themselves a host.

Will county superintendents answer the following questions at the end of the year. If you have no superintendent let the President please answer for her.

Report of.....County for the year ending Sept. 10, 1897.

1. Give name and P. O. of Supt.
2. No. of signatures to cigarette petition.
3. No. of churches and other assemblies endorsing the petition.

A solid silver League Badge, enameled in red, may be had for $1.75 a dozen.

PLEDGE.

Abstaining myself from all narcotic, I promise to use my influence to induce all girls and boys to do the same.

The very best way is to organize the League in the day school under the control of the teachers. Get the girls to join, and then set them to work to bring in the boys.

Yours for work,

FANNIE CALKINS, Supt. Narcotics,
Portland Indiana.

DEPARTMENT OF MERCY.

DEAR SISTER:—I have prepared a list of questions for the help of Superintendents in my Department, which I think will serve as a guide to those who do not know just what to do. Please cut them out and keep them for future reference. If you have no Superintendent of Mercy, will you not hold three or four meetings during the year in the interest of this work and report to me? Make a public meeting of it, and show by your addresses, papers, recitations and songs how closely allied is the W. C. T. U. with the work of humane education. I should much prefer a superintendent, but where one cannot possibly be found try the other plan, and by writing to me for information I will help you all I can. Let me have some good work to report next convention. I will give addresses, in the next MESSAGE, where literature can be obtained, so all take the MESSAGE and let us help each other.

1. Have the State laws, against cruelty been published in newspapers and otherwise?
2. Have any remonstrances been made against cruelty toward children or animals?
3. Have you distributed literature, and what kind?
4. Have any arrests for cruelty been made through your efforts, or that of any W.C.T.U. woman?
5. Have any Bands of Mercy been organized in S. School, public school, L. T. L's, Epworth League's or Christian Endeavor Societies? If so, how many members?
6. Have any efforts been made to secure the co-operation of teachers, Sunday or day school superintendents, or ministers?
7. Have any sermon against cruelty been preached?
8. Has literature on vivisection been given to physicians, editors of newspapers, or others?
9. Have any articles been written for the press? Any public addresses made?
10. Have any signers been obtained to anti vivisection petitions, or to the bird pledge, against wearing birds and egret plumes on hats or bonnets?
11. Do you provide humane literature for prisoners?
12. Have you urged at conventions personally or by letter the adoption of this Department by all local unions?

MRS. LOU RAILL.

Huntington Ind.

PEACE AND ARBITRATION.

In the Department of Peace and Arbitration Local and County Superintendents are requested to keep such records as will enable them to answer to the following queries when reports are due.

1. How many Local Unions in your County have Peace and Arbitration Department?
2. How many pages of Literature distributed?
3. Have you held Peace Contests?
4. What other meetings held?
5. No. of ministers who have preached Peace through your invitation.
6. What Press Work done for this Department.
7. Amount of money contributed and expended in this Department?
8. By what means do you consider that most interest has been awakened in the subject of Peace and Arbitration?

DEAR LOCAL UNIONS:—As a part of our work for the first quarter of this year of 1897, it is hereby suggested that each Union promptly appoint, (if this has not already been done), a Superintendent of Peace and Arbitration, and that this Superintendent make it her business "to have and to hold" during this first quarter, one Peace Contest, the contestants being adults, and one Peace and Temperance Entertainment by the children, this in connection with the L. T. L. if suitable. Arrange programs that shall be at once profitable and entertaining, inviting some outside the W. C. T. U. to take part in the contest. Offer an appropriate prize and the public will not object to paying an admission fee, which may net at least a small sum to aid in carrying on the work through the year.

Further suggestions or aid will be gladly given to as many as will promptly take up the work of this department if they will write me. Rom. 14:19.

H. LAVINIA BAILEY, Sup't.

HADLEY INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS, HADLEY, IND.

MRS. FRANCES A. POTTER, President,
444 N. East St., Indianapolis.
MRS. PHEBE R. CURREN, Secretary,
200 College Ave., Indianapolis.
MRS. ELLA B. WRIGHT, Treasurer, Greensburg.
MISS MARY HADLEY, Lecturer,
Bloomington, Parke County.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL NOTES.

We are glad the MESSAGE goes to you again and we hope you are ready, and anxious to hear more of the Industrial School. We have some things to tell that we consider cheering and as usual we inform you of the needs of the work. First we have a beginning for a poultry house. Now right here let me suggest something. If the poultry business is properly handled, and there is no reason why it should not be, it will be a source of income to the school with less expense than any other work that can be done on the farm. My suggestion. Let some individual, Union or County found this industry, pay one hundred dollars and have it credited as a memorial. We have a small beginning—a rough house, too small, but a shelter for nearly all of the fowls. The ground is there for houses and yards, the fowls will cost nothing but feed; what is needed are the houses and fencing; for the gardens and fruit must be protected. Friends think and I believe you will do something. If this could be started right it would go a good way toward supplying the needs of the school and there would be fewer calls for money.

FURNACES.

On the twenty-eighth of January, one of the coldest days of the winter, the man who put the furnaces in the Hadley School building accompanied by a reliable architect went to Hadley and thoroughly examined the heating of the building. I am glad to say that the furnaces in the judgment of the architect are very satisfactory, also what has been considered a defect in the dry air closets has been remedied and they now work well. But this was also added to the reports of both gentlemen. The furnaces should be attended to by one person and the superintendent and girls should not be required to do it as the work is too heavy for a woman's strength. This, however, will be provided for in the future now that we have the assurance that the furnaces are reliable.

OUR FAMILY.

We are proud of our little girls. They promise to do fair work in the Home and Public School. Their teachers, we believe, are doing their utmost on their part and the pupils are happy and interested in their studies.

One of our eighth grade girls on her examination has ninety-four per cent; nearly all of the younger ones are doing equally well.

OUR HELPERS

Our patient, painstaking women who for months have carried on the work in the Home under many privations and discouragements deserve commendation. With reference to their work they can truly say, "I will not be burdensome to you; for I seek not yours but you." Though the Board is not under obligation to report through the paper their contract with the superintendent yet to correct false reports that have been circulated with regard to the salary paid her we will state, Mrs. Hannes, your superintendent receives fifteen dollars ($15.00) per month for her services.

NEEDS.

We hear by the by that there is a harness on the way to the Home or Farm for which we are grateful. How about the one horse wagon. We trust that will come by the time the harness gets here. We need garden seeds and always money to use judiciously for many things. Most of all we need your care and thought and the little or much you can do to make your adopted child comfortable.

Right here let me say we thank those who have so promptly responded to the request lately sent out in regard to funds, telling what they are expecting to do. Dear sisters, staunch and true we really believe you will make an effort to relieve your work of this burden of debt. Will it frighten or discourage you to say two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) is all we need to clear off all debts from the Hadley School. Take your pencil and paper, your conscience, your generous heart and your means and by these figure out what your part is in the matter. Sisters, I make this appeal to you and ask you to put yourself in my place. Time after time for over two years these bills are sent in with the request to settle. I with other members of the Board have given time and money for this work and this goes freely but it hurts me to be asked if the W. C. T. U. can't pay this small bill. I would advise you, women, lend your paper to your gentlemen friends and perhaps their interest will be awakened and their purses will be opened to relieve you.

Yours in loving service,
FRANCES A. POTTER.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

DEAR SUPERINTENDENTS:—I have written to Mrs. Stella B. Irvine, our National Superintendent for suggestions and plans of work, also sent for literature, which I, in turn, will give to you as I learn your names and addresses. It is the duty of the Co. Sup't. to confer with the president or secretary of every local Union, and secure the appointment of a local superintendent in each. To present the work at County Sunday-school Conventions, at W. C. T. U. meetings, and to have a general oversight over the county. The local Sup't shall supervise the work in the various Sunday-schools of her town confer, with the Sunday-school Superintendents and secure some efficient woman for Temperance Secretary in each school, who will co-operate with her and the Sunday-school superintendent in introducing and maintaining thorough and systematic work. Much depends upon this Secretary, for it is through her you will get your reports, and thus know what is being done.

1. Sunday-school membership.
2. Pledged Sunday-school membership.
3. Pages of temperance literature used in Sunday-school; books in Sunday-school libraries, pages of literature used in department work.
5. Concerts, addresses and mass-meetings.
4. What do you consider the greatest need of this department?
6. To what extent was the fourth Sunday of Nov., 1896, our universal Temperance Sunday, observed in your town. In your county?

Plan to have this day observed by all Sunday-schools, Epworth Leagues and Christian Endeavor Societies, ask your minister to preach temperance sermons.

See that the Quarterly Temperance lessons are taught. Watch the Union Signal for communication from our National Superintendent. Mrs. Ingalls' advice at the National Convention was, "Work for the Children." Is not this an open door to them?

To do effective work we must pray, read, study, work and report. I will gladly answer all letters received.

Yours for temperance teaching in the Sunday-schools.

ALICE G. GEARY,
State Sup't.

UNFERMENTED WINE.

DEAR SISTERS:—Through our paper THE MESSAGE I hope to reach all the county and local Unions and interest them in this department. Instead of blanks I send through the paper the following questions to be answered during the year.

1. Have you a superintendent of this Department?
2. Do any of the churches in your vicinity use the fermented wine at the Lord's table?
3. Have you visited the ministers' meetings and brought this subject before them?
4. Have you asked them to preach on this subject at least one sermon?
5. Have you given special attention to unorganized districts by visiting them?
6. Do you report to the State superintendent all that is done in this department?
7. Will you through out the year do all you can to banish fermented wine from our Lord's table?

Hoping these questions may find many at work for God and humanity.

I am yours in the work,
J. R. WOOD,

56 Central Ave., Indianapolis.

FRANCHISE DEPARTMENT.

DEAR FELLOW WORKERS:—I send out this early, 14 questions that you may be the better prepared to answer them about September 20.

Let us have a thorough energetic soulful plowing and sowing of Indiana with franchise sentiment all this year, brought about by using the several different methods recommended in the "Franchise Plan" printed in THE MESSAGE of January.

1. Name and address of Superintendent.
2. Have you a political science study class?
3. Have you used the course of study proposed in the Plan of Work?
4. Number of lectures on Suffrage.
5. Number of Contests.

6. No. of parlor meetings.
7. No. of prizes in public schools.
8. No. of Suffrage days in Summer Assemblies.
9. No. of pages of literature distributed.
10. No. of Medals awarded.
11. No. of Suffrage papers taken.
12. Have you used the press?
13. No. of items furnished.
14. Can you see any advance in Suffrage sentiment?

If you have done any other suffrage work please report.

M. A. TOMPKINS, State Sup't.

PHYSICAL CULTURE DEPARTMENT.

Suggestions to County Superintendents for work in county and through Local Unions.

1. Secure the assistance of some wide awake woman in each Union who will make this her special effort.
2. Arrange a department reading, for one regular meeting of the local Union, each month. These can be prepared from the department package of literature, which can be purchased of the National Superintendent. Send postage stamp for list. Helpful articles are to be found in daily papers and periodicals. Let the first "Reading" include "The connection of Physical Education with Temperance."

3. Enlist the Unions in the county to secure the services of some competent specialist, for a course of lessons and lectures. An engagement at several points will secure better terms. Arrange classes for both children and adults. With proper effort the Board of Education may decide to pay the expense of a "Teacher's Class."

4. Seek out some capable woman in each county, advising that she take the four weeks special course at Columbia School of Oratory to be conducted under W. C. T. U. auspices from July 6-31, 1897.

With classes promised among the Unions (or service, in some shape, in the county) the moderate expense incurred need not be a hindrance. For full information, address Miss Mary A. Blood, Director Columbia School of Oratory, Chicago.

5. Secure place for this subject (to be followed with discussion) on the County W. C. T. U. Convention programs. The Department Literature will aid here. At these County Conventions, "five minute respite exercise," each session, under the direction of some specialist, or member having taken the brief course, will rest the delegates, and give some practical information.

6. Interest the Y. P. S. C. E. and Epworth Leagues, in the Gospel of Sound Bodies. Ask that this be made the theme of some Union meeting of these societies.

7. Petition the "Executive" of the County Teachers' Institutes, to employ a Physical Instructor for their next session. Said instructor can, also, take charge of Physiology, or Elocution. Even one evening lecture by a competent specialist, will be helpful.

8. We need the co-operation of physicians. Ask them to consider and discuss this question at the next sessions of their Medical Associations (District, County and Local,) suggesting a topic: "The Relation of systematic physical training to the health of the people, from the physicians' standpoint."

9. Improve every opportunity to distribute pertinent literature. This can be found in the department supply. "Is American Stamina Declining," by Dr. Blaikie, N. Y., should be read by every one.

10. Enlist Boards of Education to test the sight and hearing of children in the public schools. Teachers can be instructed sufficiently to assist with these examinations, making the expense slight. These physical defects in many cases, account for sluggish pupils, and deficient work, and can be largely remedied, leading to better physical conditions generally.

11. Some health magazine should find its way regularly into every home. We recommend the following: (a) "Good Health" conducted by Dr. J. H. Kellogg, Battle Creek, Michigan. Price, $1.75 including a new book—"The Household Monitor." (b) "The Health Magazine," published at Washington. Price, $1.00. (c) Life and Health, Price, $1.00. The Gazette Publishing Company, Broadway, N. Y.

12. The publication of these suggestions in our State W. C. T. U. will be of service in our work. They come from the National Superintendent of Physical Culture.

Let us abide by the above suggestions and see if Indiana will surpass any other state in good work done for the health of its people.

Yours for service,
CLARA AGNES BOYD, State Sup't.
Rockville, Ind.

FAIRS.

It may seem a little premature to talk about fairs now, but experience has proved that a little thought in advance brings its own reward. It will be the purpose of fair department to secure laws and by-laws requiring teetotal absence of intoxicants from grounds and buildings. Oppose the many side attractions that are too frequently allowed on fair grounds. In counties where immoral practices prevail, such as gambling, horse racing etc., try to co-operate with the board in bringing the tone of the fairs to a higher moral sentiment.

Have attractive booths with an abundance of temperance literature for free distribution, refreshment stands, or dining hall, check-stand, rest room, ice water furnished free from barrels, with Woman's Christian Temperance Union inscribed. At each of these places have persons who are well acquainted with the people (and who are not easily tired) hand out literature done with such care that the recipients will feel that a favor is being conferred upon them, and will appreciate it accordingly. Let there be no stint of temperance literature.

Dear co-workers, let us consecrate ourselves to this work God has given us to do, and prove true what we have sung, "You may count on Indiana till stars fade from the blue." Not only making this Dep't. a financial success, but aid in spreading the pure gospel of temperance. Write to me for any information concerning fair work.

1. Did you strive to secure the best class of agriculturists on your county board?
  2. Does your county prohibit the sale of intoxicants on fair ground?
  3. Have you any woman on agricultural or directors board?
  4. Was your Union represented at county fair?
  5. How many Unions were represented?
  6. Mention Unions?
  7. Did your Union provide a temperance program?
  8. Was it carried out?
  9. How many pages of literature distributed?
  10. How many Union Signals?
  11. How many MESSAGES?
  12. How many meals, or luncheons did you serve?
  13. What revenue did you realize?
  14. Did you furnish ice water free?
  15. Did you have some one with a subscription book to take names for the Union Signal, and our own State paper? Mention result?
  16. How many addresses by women?
  17. How many signatures to the pledge?
  18. Did you have check stand?
  19. How many potted plants contributed? By whom?
  20. How many sold? What revenue?
  21. Did your Union contribute to the State fair?
  22. Did you have "Souvenir side table," where small favors were sold at reasonable prices?

ORPHANS' HOMES.

This department has for its aim the bettering of the conditions of dependent children, thereby aiding them to a higher standing in life in the years to come. The law of our State (Indiana) is reasonably good, and if taken advantage of properly will be well, not only to the child but to the community that supports the Home. The principal of the County Homes is Christian, it being the right, God given, that each County support its own dependents. The failure in so doing is local, and not State, which is just, and the fault can be more easily rectified.

Let us stand by our law as it is and not fail in instructing our law makers, our Representatives to do as the people wish, in our present Legislature. Let us work and pray for protection in this matter. Yours for the care of dependent children,

IDA R. BENHEN,

State Sup't. Orphan Homes.

INDIANA'S SONG.

TUNE: "ANNIE LAURIE."

To be sung at all County Institutes.

Indiana's heard the bugle,
O army, tried and true,
She is marching, she is coming,
To pledge her faith anew.
To pledge her faith anew
To live or die with you,
You may count on Indiana
Till stars fade from the blue.

We are thankful to say to our readers and the Unions that the MESSAGE has come to stay. You may look for it the first week in every month. It is a financial success, but when you read this, remember the success lies in the fact of having all the work done gratuitously. Financial success is one thing—there is another point to be gained, if it is a success as a helper in our work; it must be in the hands of our entire membership. Hence the solicitation for subscribers must continue with just as much vigor as before this word was sent out to you. Dear sister, continue to send in your clubs.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

DEAR CO-WORKERS:—The Legislature has been very busy with matters of financial interest to communities and corporations until it has no time for the consideration of moral questions.

I am making a directory of local Unions for my own use and will be very thankful to the County Presidents that have not sent me the names of their local Union officers, to do so at once. I need them.

We are nearing the close of the second Quarter of this W. C. T. U. year. Does your secretaries' book show that advancement has been made in the work of the departments? If not, why not?

If you are an officer or superintendent of a department in a Union fill your place to the very best of your ability. That is all God expects of you. Have as many of your members paid dues as paid during the same time last year? Look at the lists and see what progress your Union is making.

We need the efforts of many more Christian women to help us in this warfare against the liquor traffic.

The active ministers in every community, where there is a Union, should be furnished with the Union Signal and THE MESSAGE. These two papers will be sent to ministers for seventy-five cents per year. Send names and money to Mrs. A. T. Whitson, our State Treasurer, 1745 N. Meridian Street, Indianapolis.

Some of the ministers are not in sympathy with us. We need their influence and help. When they are informed upon the work of the National and Worlds' Unions and upon our State work we believe they will become interested. We have an appeal in a Christian man or woman and must not fail to keep this constantly in mind. As a man thinks so is he, as a man reads so he thinks. We must furnish the reading to many of those whom we desire to think as we do.

Treasurers, be ever faithful in collecting dues and reporting promptly. The standing of your Union in the County and State depends largely upon your efforts.

May the Lord bless the work of the Unions and give our members increased faithfulness and zeal.

Faithfully,
L. F. MCWHIRTER.

Miss Marie C. Brehm, National Superintendent of Franchise, has just completed a three weeks' tour through our State.

She gave more than a week's work each to Morgan and Marion Counties, two days in Clinton and one in Boone. Her meetings all along the line have been very successful, increasing the membership, reviving discouraged Unions and greatly strengthening all W. C. T. U. workers.

Where she entered or immediately followed revival services, her work was especially gratifying as were the several parlor meetings held during her stay with us.

On the 22nd of February the fourth anniversary of the Mapleton Union, Miss Brehm addressed about seventy ladies and a few gentlemen at a parlor meeting held at the home of your State Treasurer.

Her address was well suited to the occasion, linking the Washingtonian Movement, with the present, showing the great advancement all along the line, not only in creating public sentiment against the rum-power but in creating a sentiment which will completely emancipate the womanhood of this country; enabling her to stand where God ever intended she should stand by the side of man.

The President of the Union took charge of the programme. The home was tastefully decorated. The inspiring letters W. C. T. U. looked down upon the interested audience from the draperies about the doors; and hatchets here and there were emblematical of the historic occasion.

Light refreshments were served consisting of cream, cake and cookie hatchets made especially for the occasion. The favors given were little wooden hatchets gilded and tied with white ribbon.

Engagements elsewhere will occupy her entire time from now until the 25th of May when she will again be available for work in Indiana for three weeks only.

Any County or Union desiring her services will please notify the Corresponding Secretary at an early date as she can only hold those dates open for a short time.

Yours for an active campaign against the rum power.

AMANDA T. WHITSON.

LECTURE BUREAU.

With much thought and careful planing we have desired to save travel which means time and money for the speakers and the Unions. We have corresponded with some of our very best on the platform, and they have considered the money pressure of the times and have given only living prices. Will the Unions remember they created the Bureau to do this work because we needed these speakers; and answer the letters written to them just as soon as it is possible or your secretary cannot do the work you gave her to do, and get it well done. Mrs. Boole, of New York, in Central, Eastern and North Eastern Indiana, beginning as is now planned at Greensburg the 17th of March at our Executive Meeting. I have now five positive dates, five probable ones, and fifty letters unanswered. I must have fifteen dates. We get her for $11 a lecture and entertainment. Mrs. Cramner, of South Dakota, in April at $5 a lecture and expenses one way from the last place and entertainment. She will be in Central, Western and North Western Indiana and begin in Lake County. Unions in this locality write for this sister. She will give a parliamentary drill in the afternoon when she speaks at night if desired, she makes a specialty of Christian citizenship.

In Southern Indiana Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp, of Kentucky, and Mrs. Addie N. Fields, of Illinois. Mrs. Beauchamp is our National Recording Secretary and makes a strong plea for our cause that is hard to resist. She will surely build the membership of the Unions and enthruse those all already enlisted.

Mrs. Fields makes the L. T. L. work her special line and she has a world-wide reputation in this department. Mrs. Beauchamp has $10 and expenses and entertainment per lecture; no reduction.

Mrs. Fields $5 per lecture, or $15 per week, $50 by the month with expenses and entertainment; work to begin in April. Will our sisters write us from this locality and secure these most worthy helpers, and please answer letters as promptly as possible.

M. E. BALCH.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP AT $25.

So reads the State constitution. What think you of putting the concentrated energy of the State to work on this part of the constitution, using the money where most needed, for organization?

If a Union makes a life membership, would you allow it to put $5 in its own treasury and send the $20 to the State; and the same rule apply to the county? If the State works up one, all the money to go to the State treasury? If an individual gives one, it shall all go to the State, unless the person wishes their Union to have $5.

The State to furnish a handsome certificate, framed ready to hang up where all may see its utility, and not have it stored away in some dark closet for mice to speculate over. How many life membership by the time of the mid-year meeting?

Will our County Presidents come prepared to act on this plan and arrange the details for the best good of all concerned at our March meeting. A fund for organization in the State would organize it if properly used.

MOTHER'S MEETINGS.

No doubt you noticed in the last issue of THE MESSAGE that the mothers' department was not represented, this was because all the superintendents responded to the call, to represent their work so that there were more articles than our young child, the MESSAGE could contain, and some one was obliged to wait, it was only natural that the "Mothers" should do so. While we are one month late with our questions. I trust we shall not be late when reporting time comes, but shall redouble our energies, so that in the five months left us we may accomplish much.

Yours for home and mother,
MARTHA L. GIPE.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

TO STATE SUPERINTENDENTS.

DEAR SITTERS:—There are still fourteen of you who have sent no word for your department, for the MESSAGE. Have you anything to say? If you have anything please send your manuscript to me at once. Those of you who have already written, may have some special plans or information which you wish to bring before the local workers. If so, send it. This page is yours, and you surely have enough to say to keep it well filled. Do not put off writing any longer. Please attend to it at once.

Yours Sincerely,
CULLA VEYHINGER.

EVANGELISTIC.

The State Superintendent of Evangelistic work wishes to touch the hand and heart of every county and local superintendent, and in fact every member of the W. C. T. U. and say let's be about our work with an earnestness and zeal that means success, that means helpfulness. Realizing as we do, that on the spirituality of our membership, especially the leaders, depends to a great extent the proper progress and development of the work; we must not let this line of work lag or weaken. Then, first, let every member see that her own experience is all that it ought to be, so she shall be able to help others.

Let local and county superintendents hold Evangelistic Conferences of two or three days in which there will be sermons, Bible-readings, discussions of W. C. T. U. work, house to house visitations and kindred topics. Distribute appropriate literature in a kindly manner, interesting the people and inducing them to read. Each union should appoint a superintendent. Where a union feels that they do not have a woman who can take the place, let the union hold one or two meetings during the year in the interest of the department, that would be much better than no effort. Send to Miss Greenwood, 151 Remsen St., Brooklyn, N. Y. for her little volume "Hints and Hints," price 10 cents.

The State Superintendent will be glad to go anywhere to help the work along, on any line, if the ladies will notify her when and where to go. Terms, expenses and collections. She really wants to be helpful as possible and invites correspondence, ask questions, make suggestions, talk freely, let's get acquainted, and above all may every one ask the Lord "what wilt thou have me do," and then do!

Yours in His name,
ELLA J. DAVIS,
State Supt.

Richmond Ind., Kinsey St.

MOTHERS' MEETINGS.

Always hold your meeting in a home; never in a hall or church.

Open meeting by singing some selection from White Ribbon Hymnal. Have some good mother, in whom everyone has confidence, lead devotional exercises; they should be spiritual, and in keeping with the subject.

Before commencing the literary part of program another song, either a solo or duet, or by the entire meeting.

A paper on one of the twelve subjects given, or if desirable select one of your own. After the paper, time should be given for discussion. This should be full of interest and not too long; never let a meeting drag.

If possible, at the close of the meeting serve light refreshments, such as coffee and wafers, or tea, or chocolate with wafers or cake; any light, inexpensive article. The object of this is to keep the mothers together in social intercourse for a short time. This is a good way to have new members feel at home and all will go from the meeting feeling they know and love each other better. A mite collection can be taken for expenses, which will be light.

1. How many mothers' meetings have you held during year?
2. Have you a child-culture circle? If so, with what results?
3. How many subscribers to The New Crusade?
4. How many of Dr. Mary Wood Allen's books have you circulated among the mothers of your community?
5. Do you read selections from "A Great Mother?"
6. Do you find mothers' meetings a help to the Union, both in increasing the numbers and interest?
7. State some of the results of holding mothers' meetings?

LIST OF TOPICS.

1. Woman's influence in the home, church, community.
  2. How much time ought a woman to give, outside of her home?
  3. Woman's work; how can she simplify it? Woman's leisure; how ought she to spend it?
  4. The mother as a reflector.
  5. Confidential relations; what to tell our children about life.
  6. Early religious training of children; the influence on children when they know they are the special subject of prayer.
  7. Foundation of character building; obedience; the rights of a child; best methods of securing truthfulness; best methods of securing reverence.
  8. Dangers to our girls; dangers to our boys.
  9. Reasons for condemning dancing, card playing, and theater going.
  10. Children's parties; how to make them pleasant; how to make home attractive.
  11. How to influence our children to feel their responsibility in the home; how to keep children employed during vacation.
  12. How far should a father instruct his children? Intemperance in the home; narcotics.
- Hoping you will have at least one mothers' meeting a month, I have given you material for twelve meetings.
- Leaflets and books which will aid you in discussing these subjects can be had by sending to the W. T. P. A., Temple, Chicago.

PURITY IN LITERATURE AND ART.

DEAR SISTERS:—You can help make this department of work a success this year if each one will do their part. It has been my thought to bring this work before each union in the State, and if there has been no superintendent appointed for this branch ask that the president of each local union appoint to this work a woman who will consecrate herself wholly to God for fitness to do what the work requires. If we stop to think for only a moment of the need of purity in the literature we read, the pictures which are brought before us daily, of the homes where the word pure is unknown, of the children brought into life, through channels of impurity, we need not question the importance of this work. And this is why we need women who will hold conference day by day with Our Father, seeking wisdom and guidance, such as He only can give to fit us for this work. Then let each local superintendent work in every way to bring our work into recognition, and send to the State Supt. for needed literature, to gain the information and plan of work as adopted by the National Superintendent. By having a local superintendent for each union in the different counties, these superintendents could unite into a Co. organization, appoint a secretary, and then report the work done by each local supt. to the secretary, and she could at the end of each quarter send in report to State superintendent of the work done in her county during the quarter, and when at the close of the year these reports are sent in to the National superintendent, we can see and know just what work has been accomplished, and thus work in a systematic manner, so that the report of our work may make a correct showing at the next National.

We have received a very earnest appeal from Dr. Mary Wood Allen, to urge upon our local and county superintendents this work this coming year.

If the local superintendents will write us and send one cent stamps, we will furnish each one with a circular for the books, for this department, and on which if ordered through us, will be made a liberal discount. We make this statement, through instructions received from the National Superintendent of Purity. Daily I pray for this work, that the Lord will make me acceptable unto Him, and then acceptable unto those who need help in this line of work.

How many will agree to do likewise? Let us remember "The prayers of the righteous availeth much."

HARRIET M. AULT,
State Supt.

Plymouth, Ind.

Y DEPARTMENT.

DEAR Y'S:—As this is my first letter to you this new year, I trust it is not too late to wish you a glad and happy "New Year," may it be a memorable one in the history of each Y. W. C. T. U. of our grand State. May you be more consecrated to the work, more charitable with one another, and above all more prayerful to God for success in winning young men and women to temperate lives in all things and pure ones.

Martinsville Y is always wide awake and let me cull a few secrets from a letter, which I think will show us wherein lies their success.

1. They decided to supply their treasury with free-will offerings by their members.
2. Endeavor to increase their membership by changing their time of meeting in order to get new honoraries.
3. Do what they can toward getting subscriptions for the MESSAGE.
4. Every Y meeting is a parlor meeting held at 7:30 at the homes of the members, devoting an hour to business, literary and musical program, and the rest of the evening is spent socially.
5. And very important, please take note. Our dues are collected promptly. I think this will help a good many Y readers who are constantly asking how shall we conduct our meeting etc, saving much time in writing.

Anderson Y is doing what she can to circulate the Petition for signatures against the manufacture and sale of cigarettes within the State of Indiana.

Reports are coming in very slowly from other Y unions in the State but hope they find all they can do in all lines of temperance work.

Mrs. Allie Anderson organized a Y at Winamac, Pulaski Co., December 12th, 1896, with seven regular members, and we rejoice that good work goes on.

I urge upon each union to pay up their dues as soon as possible so the money, 50 per cent of it, can be used in our Y work.

Lovingly,

CLARA M. SEARS, Sec'y. of Y Branch.
Y questions next issue.

SOMETHING NEW.

DEAR SISTERS:—Judging from the fact that I have failed to hear from all of you, what I have to say about finance will be new to many of you.

Have you ever heard that you are proprietor of an institution know as Hadley Industrial School for girls? I will tell you something about it. Some years ago a man by the name of Addison Hadley, who with his wife Martha, gave to the W. C. T. U. of Indiana some hundred and ten acres of good farming land situated near the town of Hadley, county of Hendricks, State of Indiana, on condition a suitable and commodious house be erected as a home for worthy, needy girls, where they may be taught such things as women ought to know so as to be fitted to become honorable self-supporting women. With much gratitude and overwhelming thanks the boon was accepted and forthwith many enterprising women set themselves to fulfil their part of the contract. A house was built and nearly paid for and after awhile the Home was opened. Now I suppose all of you are not aware that such things have ever transpired. I have reasons to believe some know all I have said and much more, for though they did not work on the building as hod-carriers, they have done equally as difficult work in trying to meet expenses with money that has taken physical, moral, intellectual and spiritual strength to wring out of the pockets of the people.

Women, just for once look this matter squarely in the face. Don't lay down your paper and go to sleep and dream that somehow the debt on the property was paid and oh! how glad you are. But of this be sure, the money will come in no such way. It will take some effort to raise it, and who is to make the effort? Some have done a good deal, some have done a little and some have done nothing. Women, you are responsible for the work you so nobly and enthusiastically assumed; now you have nearly finished paying for the building pray, do not give it up and so confess to failure. Whose business is it to carry on this work? Is it the treasurer's? Is it any other officer's? When you elected them did you expect them to do all there is to be done and raise all the money without help from the rank and file of the W. C. T. U. If each local Union collects and sends one-tenth as much as some members of the Board have done there would be plenty for our needs. I wish each one who is not doing her utmost to clear off this debt would have to sit one hour with a collector holding a bill before her and saying, "madam this account must be settled." Perhaps then she would realize there is need of rousing herself for an effort. Do you ask "what is to be done," I am happy to now have your attention. There are two thousand dollars to be raised at once. Do you ask how it is to be raised. If each one will secure one dollar and send it to the treasurer then the work is done. Many plans have been proposed but plans are of no use if not put in operation. County Presidents, Local Presidents, Treasurers and every one try for the few days before the mid-year executive meeting to do this one thing—raise money to pay our debt.

PLANS FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION.

Again I will mention that the State at its last convention adopted a plan for paying our contractor and carrying on the work which is all right if carried out by the local unions. Some unions have been loyal to the plan and have forwarded the five dollars, others have sent ten dollars and yet they do not have the satisfaction of knowing the contractor is paid. This does not seem just or right. Will not all local unions promptly raise five dollars and forward it to the Treasurer? This can be done in some one of the many ways already suggested, but please do it promptly. If in no other way divide your town into five districts and let five women start right out and beg one dollar each. Call a meeting of the local union as soon as you read this and arrange to do it at once, and it will prove an easy task. Large unions can as easily collect ten dollars in this way and we hope they will do it.

In one town the union put a notice in the local paper that on a certain day the members of the union would come out in force and ask every business man for a dollar. It politely requested them to have the dollar in place that it might be handed over promptly. The town was districted and at the appointed time the women went forth and promptly returned with forty dollars, and this was not a very large town either. Try this sisters, with an energy of spirit and faith which takes no denial. Our acceptance of the farm and our enthusiastic belief in the necessity for our work it would seem would impel us to do this.

SOME THINGS NEEDED ON THE FARM.

One of the Board of Trustees has said she is willing to oversee and assist in setting out plants and berry bushes if they can be procured. She is a practical horticulturist and understands the best way to do the work. Send on a large supply of choice stock so we may have something for revenue. A gardener said he realized two hundred and fifty dollars from one acre of strawberries last year, besides supplying a large family with all they could use fresh, canned and in preserves. Don't forget a variety of garden seeds is needed. When our garden gets well started, which we hope will be this year, we will have seeds for future planting. Remember the one horse wagon or buggy, if many are sent we will take care none are thrown away.

About the middle of March the public school closes and there will be some weeks before time to do spring house cleaning and arranging for hot weather, it will be to early to begin gardening and it will be a good time for the girls to do sewing. The friends will see that their wards or daughters are supplied with material. Let each union correspond with the superintendent and send at once what is required. We will try to make expenses as limited as possible, the superintendent will carefully look after the clothing of the girls and will ask only for what is urgently needed, so do not delay in this matter as it will interfere with work later.

OUR OUTLOOK.

Spring is almost here and with lengthening days, budding trees and springing grass, we look out on the future of our School with hope and bright anticipations. We view our farm fruitful and beautiful under careful cultivation, we see our family healthy, contented, cheerful and happy, and we behold the eyes of our sisters and brothers also turned with pride and pleasure toward the accomplishment of their plans and the reward of their labors. Few of our people realize what has been done and is still going on in laying the foundation of a work that will tell for good not only in the family and State for time, but for eternity. More than we think the attention of people is called to our work and they are waiting to see with what spirit we are carrying it on and ready to help if we prove ourselves worthy. Be not discouraged for in due time we shall reap if we faint not.

DONATIONS.

A well packed box of most palatable fruit has been received from Frankfort, not a jar or can was broken, also the box was plainly marked showing where it came from. A notice had been previously sent and the box was expected. No freight bill was presented, this is a most satisfactory way of making a donation to the School. Also a large and very ingeniously packed box of apples and vegetables and canned fruit was sent at the same time, it came in excellent condition. No notification of this generous donation had been received. We would be glad to know to whom to give credit.

County and Local Unions.

"No chain is stronger than its weakest link."

As editor of the fourth page for Local and County Unions we want to say the paper has never been large enough to contain all the material furnished it. Will those who write, boil down, be concise, re-read sentences and leave out any unnecessary word or words, and write only on one side of the paper. Some things sent are now too old to appear, we regret this. We had a very newsy letter from the County Press Superintendent of St. Joseph County, we could not find room for it and now we feel she would prefer to write another. We will cull a few items: Our regular meetings well attended and always interesting. The Local Press very complementary in reporting meetings and in praise of Mrs. Taggart and Wells local workers. A White Ribbon quartette is mentioned. The letter told of great activity and consecrated service.

COUNTIES.

Cass has named April 7th as the date of its spring convention. Mrs. Beck will be with them. Mrs. Cammack spends a week in their county visiting Galveston, Lucerne, Royal Center and possibly other points beginning March 2nd.

Jasper has a Union fairly started at Remington and they have held three contests. Mrs. Cammack made them a second visit visiting the schools and churches. Mrs. Allie Anderson broke the ground. Mrs. W. C. Smalley is of the faith and reads the Union Signal and we may thank God she is at Remington.

Newton has had Mrs. Cammack for service a second time. Bad roads, cold weather and other matters more nearly related to human intervention to contend with. Mrs. Cammack wrote, "pray for me, the field is hard." Brave heart, I fancied the cry a faint echo of the Master's "O ye of little faith." Dear women, you who toil in the Local Unions the way may be rough, but you are at home, you see your loved ones daily, but our organizers are away from home, and must carry the load of tender concern for the dear ones they tried to leave in God's care. Please let us remember our organizers. Mrs. Mattie O. Cammack, Mrs. Allie Anderson and Miss Libbie Taber. They would not lose a day if we could see the way to pay them. We think now it must be in life membership; comrades, will you honestly try the plan?

St. Joseph and Elkhart are considering the question of a joint Institute and the president of St. Joseph County writes, "I have another new Union."

Union County writes, "We will hold Institute in April and want Mrs. Cammack with us. Will suit her convenience as to date."

Clinton County takes Mrs. Anderson for a week, visiting new territory. Mrs. Anderson organized Sedalia in a former visit, and they have great hope of the Union. Frankfort is ablaze with work. One saloon-keeper said the W. C. T. U. had nearly ruined his business. Three new members on their way to the meeting had an experience that will very likely prove a baptism of fire, for hardships in the peaceful war make us mighty in good works. One of the three received a blow from the fist of a drunken man standing on the street when they were passing. He was knocked down and afterward arrested. "By their fruits ye shall know them."

Clinton holds its Institute in May at Rossville. The program is in preparation. A suffrage contest is one feature. The County President writes, "THE MESSAGE is just what we want; vacation week I shall canvass for more subscribers."

Hancock and Martin have invited Mrs. McWhirter to attend their Conventions.

THORNTOWN.

Our W. C. T. U. have a mission Sunday-school in Thorntown. Our children's orphan home is doing well. We have held a series of meetings at the county infirmary and jail, have a child in the Hadley Industrial School and I have a bright little six year old in my own home, rescued from a drunkard's family, which I am holding, to place in the Industrial school if possible. We are looking to give some aid to the School this spring if we can get our younger members in good working order. Our membership is over forty. As a Union we are prosperous. We are well officered and work harmoniously. Our Press Supt is a help to us. Miss Nettie Hall keeps us before the public each week in both newspapers, The Argos and Thorntown Enterprise.

Cordially and fraternally yours,
ORPHA G. CRIST.

BLOOMINGTON UNION.

We have lately had a rare treat in a lecture by John G. Woolley. At our last meeting we voted to try to raise one dollar per member this year for Hadley Home. I am quite anxious to have a State paper but feel that the honor of the W. C. T. U. of Indiana is at stake in the matter of the Organizer debt, and feel that it must be paid. Let's all put a shoulder to the wheel and pay it. We are to have a "curfew" ordinance. The Union asked it of the council last week and they voted for it.

MRS. T. J. CLARK, President.

The Stock-holders of the Organizer Publishing Company are the persons to whom the above appeal should be made.

No W. C. T. U. woman unless she bought and paid for one or more shares of stock, could have had a share in the profits of the Company, had there been any profits, then is it just to ask them to assume its losses?

No W. C. T. U. woman, unless she was a stockholder, had any voice or vote in the business concerns of the Company, as to the election of the board, the salaries, and the like. Is it just to appeal to them now?

Every W. C. T. U. woman who took the "Organizer" paid the price asked for it by the Company, then she treated the Company fairly. It is very essential for the best good of the W. C. T. U. of Indiana, that they see the distinction between the State W. C. T. U. and the Organizer Publishing Company. Their relation must be friendly for one is made up of women from the other, but in human affairs do friends, even close friends, pay the debts of their friends, or if they fail to do it is their honor called into question? In my opinion the Stock-holders should without delay cease to call on the Indiana W. C. T. U. for help but take the usual way of settling Stock-company matters. I feel like pleading with them to do this promptly.

MARY E. BALCH.

SPRING CONVENTIONS.

It is fatal to the growth of the work to fail to hold your Spring Convention. You think you are in a poor condition to work up a convention, and doubt the use of trying to have an Institute. The efforts you make for these meetings will make you very much more alive, and it will be a very poor convention and institute if it does not inspire some one or more to make some effort from that time on to the Fall Convention, and you will have a much better Fall Convention. Doing nothing kills any union or county, I am desirous of making a good record in our State on Spring Institutes and Conventions.

Mrs. M. Gilson, of Decatur, writes, our Union meets every two weeks, and we never forget to pray for our dear leaders. The Union is fighting the unequal battle of trying to prevent the men who are applying for license from getting them.

Miss Maria Brehm said the parlor meeting in this city, at Mrs. Amanda T. Whitsons, was the finest one she ever attended. The ministers in several of the churches where she spoke invited her back again, and also gave her a pressing invitation to remain and assist in revival services.

Hardinsburg Union will hold its sixth gold medal contest this month, and be ready for its Grand gold. They are on the road to win the State prize.

Argos is preparing to remonstrate three or four applications for license.

Mrs. Mattie O. Cammack has been invited to speak in the 1st M. E. church at Marion, date, March 14th; also invited to have a paper to be read before the University extension society of the Presbyterian church, date not settled.

Greensburg white ribboners persuaded their city council at its last meeting to take up their Curfew ordinance, which they had presented more than a month ago. After a bitter fight, and the charge made that the W. C. T. U. were trying to run the town, the vote was taken, and stood 4 for, and 4 against. The Democratic Mayor cast the deciding ballot, and Curfew will ring on their streets after the preliminary advertizing is done. Rejoice with the victors.

Freelandville had a contest, by a class of six boys, ages 15 years to 17. One boy played a march, while the Contestants marched in carrying our Banner

"For God and Home and Native Land." Another boy read the Scripture, a third offered prayer. The audience numbered over three hundred. Mrs. Della Walker in charge, has since taken the class out in country with equal success.

Frankfort Union is making a life membership.

NOTICE.

Please give this as wide publicity as you can. Every one who has won a medal in Indiana—Demorest, Cooper, or W. C. T. U.—is asked to send a two cent stamp for each medal. It is a plan for the advancement of the work. Send to the State Superintendent and she will tell you in her annual report what she does with her stamps. Address,

MRS. MARY E. BALCH,
56 Central Ave., Indianapolis.

INSTITUTES.

If invited do not decline to assist on the program. May be others are better informed and more accustomed to do such work, but that does not release you from responsibility. Send to our great Publishing House and get the information needed, then by God's help, you will have the courage necessary to perform your duty.

When arranging to attend your Institute carefully gather up all the sarcasm and uncharitableness in your possession and put it away in a dark closet. You will not need it at the Institute.

When the time and place of holding the Institute is decided upon, send notices to all newspapers in the County. Have these notices left standing until two weeks previous to the time of holding Institute when it will be very necessary to have the program published.

If the County Institute is to be held in your town, for the sake of your Union and the good of the cause in your community, have it well advertised. If the member appointed to do the advertising is not prompt, go and do it yourself and then it will be done.

Dear sisters, if we make rules we should, obey them, otherwise we would be considered naughty children. The Message is 35 cents a copy for any less number than 12. Twelve is a club. If you get less than twelve names why not have the Union make it that number and have those papers come to the President for Missionary work in the union, or better still, go to your superintendent of literature whose duty it is to get subscribers for the paper. When you send a less number than the one named for a club it greatly embarrasses your business manager. She feels we should all respect the rule. You could ask to have the club left open until the time of the next issue of the paper, and possibly complete the list.

We talk of open doors, being careful to enter every one, and to knock loudly at closed doors that they may be open to us. Then we talk about sowing by all waters. The summer assemblies are open doors of wonderful opportunity for speaking to many people, and every thing depends on the programme. When we place Mrs. Clara Hoffman, the loved president of Missouri, on the platform before the people, we may feel confident she will honor our cause and the people be fed with the truth. Let those having charge of camp, tent, or grove meetings or summer gatherings of any religious, educational, or reform interests, write the Secretary of Summer Assemblies for the Indiana W. C. T. U. for speakers, contests, and she will furnish dates and terms. Address, Mary E. Balch, 56 Central Ave., Indianapolis. We may make dates for Mrs. Hoffman for a limited time. If you put it off you may be too late. We have several of our own State workers who will be available. State your preferences when you are writing.

Mrs. Julia A. Trish, Warsaw, one of our associate evangelists spends two weeks in Howard County, beginning March 2nd, from there she goes to Mulberry, Clinton County, for a week. She has been at work in her home county for some time. Any one wishing her services write to State Secretary for dates. Her terms are $1 per day and expenses. Wabash and North Manchester take Mrs. Cranmer in April.

Marion County takes Mrs. Boole for a week; to begin on March 20th, Neal Dow's birthday, to be observed as a gala day by all temperance people by Miss Willard's request at St. Louis. Unions in Marion county take notice. Unions over the State please celebrate in honor of the grand old man.

EXECUTIVE MEETING.

Extracts from the minutes of executive committee meeting held March 16th and 17th, 1896.

The Union whose every member takes THE MESSAGE shall be presented with a copy of the Union Signal to be sent to whom-so-ever the Union may designate.

Moved by Mrs. Whitson, that all Unions who will double their membership during the remainder of the year taking the Treasurer's report of last year as a basis may have a speaker free of charge for one lecture. Lecturer to be selected and sent by the central committee.

The plan for life membership as given in THE MESSAGE was endorsed. Moved and carried, that State officers who have salaries and go out for field work or conventions, make charges as other State lecturers, and that such amounts shall be applied on their salaries.

Moved by Mrs. Crist, that we ask ministers to preach gospel patriotic sermons on the 4th of July. Amended, that we bring this to the notice of the ministers through the press. Motion as amended prevailed.

Club rates for the MESSAGE was discussed.

The evidence of the committee was that when a club was started at 25 cents and failed to get the required number, twelve, the Unions should pay the deficit of 10 cents each, or make the number 12 at club rates.

No name or list of names sent to the MESSAGE will be recognized as subscriptions unless accompanied by the cash.

No list of less than twelve names will be considered a club. Send twelve names.

By motion of Mrs. Retta Jones all clubs will close when the list of names leave the hands of the local agent.

Invitations were read from South Bend and La Porte for the Annual Convention. South Bend received a majority of the votes of the committee.

Moved by Mrs. Balch that Prof. Crist, of Throntown, be recognized as lecturer for the W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Balch read a lengthy communication from Mrs. Sims, Sup't of Work Among Colored People.

On motion, each County President was instructed to carry these recommendations to her local Unions and urge the enforcement of them.

Plans for a "Department Fund" for the Industrial Home and for the Fair Cottage were discussed and endorsed. Plans will appear in the MESSAGE and be sent to local Unions.

Words of love and sympathy were sent our beloved Mrs. Nichols who is at present at Martinsville sanitarium.

MATTIE O. CAMMACK, Rec. Sec'y.

Report of World's delegates and departments as to resignations and those selected to fill vacancies will be given next issue.—Ed.

If your paper does not reach you by the 10th of the month, kindly notify Mrs. Amanda T. Whitson, 1745 N. Meridian St., Indianapolis, who will correct the error.

Dear sisters, can you expect to keep up the interest and push the work of the W. C. T. U. successfully if you are not a subscriber to your State paper. Only 25 cents in clubs of 12, THE MESSAGE and Union Signal $1.10. This is an opportunity that should not be missed.

South Whitley has a cerfew law. Union active, and preparing for a contest.

Evansville had a very enthusiastic meeting March 20th, Neal Dow's birthday. Sending the old Hero a telegram of remembrance.

Begin at once, if you have not already done so, to secure new members and if possible double your membership by the close of this quarter. This can be done by each member securing a new one.

Are you sure your unions are not suffering for the want of sympathy and encouragement. Will county officers in every county see that this is not the condition in any of your unions.

PRESIDENT'S NOTES.

Members of the County Executive of every county are requested to consider that the State Superintendents of Departments are anxious to present the work of their Departments to the County Institutes. This with a few exceptions, they will do for expenses and entertainment. Look over the list of State superintendents as has been published in the MESSAGE and invite one or more of these earnest efficient workers to attend your Institute. I know that many are anxious to serve the cause, have their addresses ready, just waiting for an invitation.

The Union Signal contains the news of our own loved National and of the World's Union. Sisters, does that mean much to you? Indeed it does if you have ever been a regular reader of the Signal.

THE MESSAGE contains our State news. These two papers for one year will be sent for $1.10. Send money to our State Treasurer, Mrs. A. T. Whitson, 1745 N. Meridian Street, Indianapolis.

Whenever a public meeting is held urge the securing of new members, we need more consecrated Christian women and the efforts and influence of more Christian men. If you have not secured new members, think up a new plan, the fault must be in your plans and not in the people. Everywhere there are those who have interests in this work if they be rightly approached they will unite with us.

LECTURE BUREAU.

Mrs. Trish is now for a week in Clinton, then goes to Knox for a month.

Mrs. Cammack will spend a week or more in Park, beginning March 29th.

More dates needed for Mrs. Cranmer. Send in your call at once.

If you wish Miss Brehm, of Illinois, who can come May 25th, send in your call at once to the State Secretary, 56 Central Ave., Indianapolis.

Mrs. Boole finishes in our State April 10th; goes to Kentucky for a few days; on her return can give a few more dates to us if desired. She speaks 6 days in the Terre Haute churches.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

DEAR SISTERS:—I have been very much encouraged by receiving names of a number of new county superintendents of my department. There are two points which I would like to call your attention to at once. First; The first week of April is the week of prayer and special work for our Department. Please see your pastors at once and invite them to preach on the subject of Sabbath Desecration on Sunday morning. Have some one give a short, simple talk to the children at Sunday-school on the subject. Arrange for a meeting on Sunday evening with papers and talk on Sunday Traffic, amusements, newspapers, saloons and kindred evils. Have good, stirring temperance music.

Ask your pastor to make the subject the prayer meeting topic for the mid-week prayer service. Distribute all of the literature at one of the Sunday services which you can possibly collect and buy.

Second; We want to do some aggressive work against the Sunday newspaper. Arrange for a public meeting sometime during the year and have the evil the Sunday newspaper presented with the attitude which every Christian and patriot should take concerning it. Invite your speakers long enough before the time so they may be thoroughly posted and alive to the subject. Have good music. Afterward present a pledge something like the following. "I promise not to buy, read, sell, or in any way patronize any Sunday newspaper." Ask men, women and children to sign it. Do not hesitate to present it to ones whom you know patronize it.

I hope every local union in the State will do this much work for the preservation of our Lord's Day.

Keep an accurate account of all work done and then report. I will be glad to answer any questions which you may have to ask on the work.

Yours for service,
CULLA J. VAYHINGER,
State Supt.

MERCY DEPARTMENT.

DEAR CO-WORKERS:—I promised in the last issue of THE MESSAGE to give you some of the addresses where humane literature could be obtained. And first let me emphasize the importance, nay, the absolute necessity of having literature to carry on the work of this department. It is the very best way to educate the public sentiment, and more than that the superintendent herself needs to know the work to be done, and as soon as she begins to read the literature she is bound to know and becomes fired with a desire to help stop the awful tide of cruelty which is sweeping over our land, that is, if she is the right kind of a superintendent. We want superintendents whose hearts are full of God's love. So you must spend some money, the literature is very cheap and by sending to any one of the addresses given below, 25 cents, for a sample package you will receive a generous supply, and then after that can select those you most desire, or are best suited to your needs, as prices are given you. I should like to supply literature but could not do it as cheaply. Get up an Angell Prize Contest and make some money for your work, and at the same time educate public sentiment along humane lines. If any Union would like to have me come and give an address in the interest of the Mercy Department I will do so for expenses and entertainment. These are the addresses, where the very best literature can be obtained: C. A. Hamlin, Syracuse, N. Y. The Humane Education Committee, Room 32, 61

Westminster St., Providence, R. I. (send 10 cents for sample package.)

SCIENTIFIC TEMPERANCE INSTRUCTION.

"Our Common Schools the hope of our country."
"The children of to day will be the men and women of tomorrow." "Give us the children and we will take the world for Temperance in the next quarter of a century." To this end let us labor. Indiana has gained a long coveted vantage ground. Let it be known from the bell tower of the city schools to the humblest school building on the prairie. To teachers the privilege to pupils the right of Instruction in Scientific Temperance Principles. To County and Local Superintendents, Greeting. We have a systematized plan of work. Send for it that you may be prepared to work to the best advantage.

Our plan in brief: The School Physiology Journal in the hands of every teacher; Wall Rolls for each school-room; Scientific Temperance Literature distribution, visiting school-rooms, teachers meetings and Institutes, cultivating our teachers acquaintance socially. A treasure box in every Union in which to save good Temperance songs, readings and recitations, to be sent each month to some wide awake teacher, we know how gladly they will be received. Let us labor in love, in hope, in prayer.

And may our love be crystallized, our hopes realized, and our prayer answered, for the good of the school children of Indiana.

ADAH W. WHITE, State Supt.,
Oxford Ind.

FRANCHISE.

DEAR SUPERINTENDENTS:—I send greeting and a prayer after you all. Hoping you are earnestly at work "without haste without rest," persuading the women of your community to want to vote, persuading the men to let you vote, remembering the way to persuade is to educate public sentiment. There are four principal ways to carry your work to success.

First, through the press, use every available opportunity. The press is the "Peoples University," we can reach more people in that way than in any other; at the least expense.

Second, by lectures and public meeting.

Third, by franchise literature.

Fourth, by personal influence. Use each way, to the utmost of your ability. Enlist whenever you can, bright men and women to prepare short, newsy articles for your home papers on different phrases of woman's work. Give them leaflets to prepare from, such as "Twelve reasons why women want to vote," by Alice Stone Blackwell. "Woman in National Reform," T. J. Kennedy. "Should Women Vote," Frances Willard. "Problems of the Twentieth Century," J. W. Bashford D. D. "Womans Suffrage and the W. C. T. U.," I. W. Parks. "A Suffrage Question Box," Henry B. Blackwell. "A Whole Humanity," Mrs. Zerelda G. Wallace. "The Coming Brotherhood," Frances E. Willard. "Let Your Women Keep Silence in the Churches," National Leaflet No. 26. These can be obtained at the W. T. P. A., The Temple, Chicago. Send for sample copies. Keep the franchise work moving.

M. A. TOMPKINS, State Supt.

GREENSBURG W. C. T. U.

WHEREAS, Death has visited the homes of two of our members, within the past few days, and left them in sorrow and heartaches, therefore be it,

Resolved, That in the death of Sister Kate Owens, our Union has lost a most worthy and consecrated member, the husband and only son, an affectionate and most devoted mother; and by the death of George Rowe, a respected son-in-law to sister Nancy Bell and family. To the wife and little daughter, a loving and anxious father, and a good and useful citizen in the community. We as members of the W. C. T. U. will ever cherish their memory in grateful recollection, and tender to all the bereaved ones our warmest sympathy in their affliction and bereavement. May our heavenly Father give them his comforting Spirit.

MRS. ELLA M. STOUT,
Cor. Sec'y.

WORK AMONG COLORED PEOPLE.

DEAR SISTERS:—To you I must look for the advancement of our cause among colored people throughout the State. I cannot go to you; even if I could, you, yourselves, can accomplish more by wise plans and consecrated efforts suited to your own localities than could I. Great results are to be had for the asking. Our colored sisters tell us of the snares, laid by the saloon, for the feet of their loved ones and ask to become co-laborers with us in securing its overthrow. What would it mean to you and me to know that there was no longer a white ribbon army for us? No more precious friendships such as come to us in this work? Shall we invite them to join us? "Freely ye have received, freely give." The Lord gave victory to our forces, in the late war, after the colored men were mustered into our ranks. Who knows but that He is waiting to honor Indiana W. C. T. U. after she has set herself, with a will, to muster into her ranks the colored women of our State who shall go out to battle with us "for God, and Home and Native Land." We need them. The politicians count largely upon the colored vote in elections. Let us see to it that the interests of the home count for more than the interests of the saloon.

There is not a union but can do something; the work will conflict with no other in which you are engaged. If you have but one colored family in your community, you may begin. Notice what our annual leaflet, which sets forth our principles and plans, says of the department of work among colored people: "This department is for the pursuance among colored people of all branches of work enumerated." Since all branches of work are to be pursued among colored people, then include them in your plans for pushing your different departments. Never allow an opportunity to pass without inviting them to hear your public speakers; give them literature, hold mothers' meetings, get them to sign the pledge; where there are colored churches and Sunday-schools, get permission to hold temperance meetings with them, asking pastors and Sunday-school officers to co-operate; organize L. T. L's for them, or invite them to those you already have. Teach boys and girls recitations to speak in your own or other meetings, where a whole contest class could not recite; "do everything," especially form contests classes. We are forming them here in Indianapolis and we can have contestants to keep us busy for a year. "Pray ye the Lord of the harvest" for laborers in our field and yours, and pray believing. Hold contests in colored churches, giving the church in which the contest is held half of the net proceeds, keeping the other half exclusively for your work among colored people. As fast as classes contest, report them; then very soon you can put holders of silver medals into classes to contest for gold medals, then for grand gold, and then, of course, for diamond medals. With the fund secured by the above plan, it is possible to have Mrs. Lucy Thurman, our national superintendent of work among colored people, who so ably represents her race in her department, come to our State, and from collections at her meetings, etc., for we must not allow our treasuries to become empty, we can procure L. T. L. supplies and L. T. L. teachers.

Should you not enjoy having a regiment of colored boys and girls come marching into a State or county convention, carrying their banner with its motto, "Tremble King Alcohol, we shall grow up," having in their heads and hearts the grand lessons of their L. T. L. manuels, feeling that they will, indeed, some day help to drive King Alcohol from our land. In our last National Minutes you will find numerous references to Mrs. Thurman's work; see Miss Willard's address and Mrs. Stevenson's report, as well as Mrs. Thurman's report. Show these and other literature, especially our State and National papers and annual leaflets to leading colored people, telling them our plans and hopes for work among them, asking their co-operation to make it a success.

Will not this develop colored women who will make staunch white ribboners? How many of them shall we have added to our numbers next fall when the year closes? Just the number we work for—ten, a hundred, or five hundred, or more. Let us work and pray, and expect such results as He can give, who has said, "Hitherto ye have asked nothing in my name; ask and ye shall receive that your joy may be full"; "Bring ye all the ties into the storehouse and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open the windows of Heaven and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room to receive it." With this appeal, which I feel barely touches upon the needs and possibilities of the work, I pray that God may plainly show you the way, give you wisdom and strength to walk in it, and grant you great reward in so doing.

MARY E. SIMS, State Sup't.

MOTHER'S MEETINGS.

To all who are interested in holding Mother's meetings, I want to give a little more explicit direction, as to the literature used for such meetings, for the following topics send to the State Superintendent, "The Mother as a reflector, Confidential relations; What to tell our children about life; Early religious training of children; The influence on children when they know they are the special subject of prayer; Foundation of character building; Obedience; The rights of a child; Best method of securing reverence."

The price of these books, including one years subscription to the New Crusade will be one dollar. These books cannot be estimated in dollars and cents. No mother can afford to be without them. Price of New Crusade per year 35 cents. The other literature can be obtained by sending to W. T. P. A. Temple, Chicago. For a bound package of leaflets on mother's meetings, price 8 cents, and especially for home leaflets, bound, package 20 cents.

Yours for Mother's meetings,

MARTHA L. GIPE,

496 Broadway.

L. T. L. STATE CONVENTION.

Please remember that the L. T. L. State Convention will be in July, and try hard to have your classes ready to graduate by that time. Those who are able to attend, will receive their diplomas there; those not able, will have their names read and their diploma sent to them.

Local leaders, conduct the examinations. Send to me for questions, 10 cents a set. The date and place of holding convention will be given next month. For any information concerning L. T. L. work, send to me. For literature or supplies send to the W. T. P. A., The Temple, Chicago.

As the time is approaching and will soon be here, when we will be called into our third annual meeting, our treasurer has sent out a call for dues. Please respond promptly that she may not be hindered in her work. Make arrangements to be present at the convention. There will be important matters to be settled by you. Be ready with our rallying cry, and let us make Indiana feel that she has an organization of which she may be proud.

NOTHING IMPOSSIBLE FOR INDIANA EITHER.

Those who had the pleasure of attending the National W. C. T. U. Convention at St. Louis last fall will never forget the wave of enthusiasm that passed over that vast audience, when the inspiring motto, "Nothing impossible for St. Louis" was drawn from its hiding place and stretched entirely across that immense platform.

If I did not believe that Indiana has as loyal, true-hearted and enthusiastic women as St. Louis I would not send out this article to you.

In 1892, the present W. C. T. U. cottage was built on the new State Fair Grounds. Ten dollar notes were issued at that time for the payment of the same. These notes were taken by our own W. C. T. U. women, many of which have already been paid by receipts from Fair Cottage during the Fairs. Others remain unpaid and are long past due. These dear sisters have waited long and patiently and are now urging that these pledges be met at once.

This is not impossible for Indiana. I believe it can be a very pleasant affair by each county preparing and sending to the State Fair in October, a Temperance Autograph quilt, for an exhibit in a W. C. T. U. Booth in the Woman's Building. For this, secure as many names as possible for each block, charging ten cents a name. Embroider the names upon red or blue calico or upon white muslin. Go to your business men, ask them to take an entire block, placing upon it a pretty design representing the business engaged in, securing from them the entire price of the block. If one man does not take an entire block, give it to two or three.

Each Union in the county might be responsible for one or more blocks in the quilt; one or more of which may be representative blocks, containing the name of the Union and names of all its members.

Let each block represent one dollar or more. The quilts to be exhibited in the Woman's Building and be subject to the premiums awarded by the State Fair Board for the handsomest quilt.

Aside from the premiums which may be awarded by the State Fair Board, a premium of five dollars in gold will be given to the county sending in the most money. To the county sending in the second largest amount, two dollars and a half in gold, and for the third largest amount, one dollar in gold.

Let every Union go to work with great enthusiasm and make the hearts of our patient sisters, who loaned this money, glad, by paying off all the Fair Cottage notes. It need not be a burden to any one but a profit and a pleasure. Get your quilts ready and let us make the W. C. T. U. booth the most attractive one in the Woman's Building.

There was great rejoicing at our last State Convention when our State Treasurer stated that the debt aside from the affiliated interests was entirely paid off. Let us go to our next State convention with hearts filled with praise that this is also a thing of the past. With this debt wiped out, and with the financial ability of our efficient State Fair Sup't, Mrs. Ada N. Leck, we hope not only to be able to distribute many more thousand pages of literature through the Booth and Fair Cottage, but to add to the funds of the State Treasury, we can do it. For nothing is impossible for Indiana.

Watch the MESSAGE for further notice concerning State Fair work.

Yours in loving service,
AMANDA T. WHITSON,
State Treasurer.

ELLA B. WRIGHT, Pres.

We will publish receipts for Hadley School in the MESSAGE so the friends may see how we are progressing.

We are thankful for the practical interest that is manifesting itself in the Hadley Industrial School. Soon we hope to see the weight that has embarrassed the work lifted by the persistent efforts of its friends.

We are in receipt of a letter from Royal Centre, telling that the harness is shipped for the School. We do appreciate the friends who have so kindly interested themselves in the matter, and especially the maker, who has done such excellent work. We trust the light wagon will soon follow.

BEDFORD.

DEAR SISTER:—The semi-annual Convention of the W. C. T. U. of Lawrence Co., was held at Mitchell, March 2nd. In the morning, the reports of the officers were read, after which we had words of encouragement from those present. In the afternoon a paper entitled "Elevation of Woman," was read by Miss Emma Brighans. The subject was discussed by those present. We had several excellent talks. In the evening the exercises consisted of recitations, talks, papers and a short address by Mrs. Gilbert. All went home feeling that the Convention had been a success.

Yours in the work,
EMMA BRIGHANS.

County and Local Unions.

"No chain is stronger than its weakest link."

A STIRRING CAMPAIGN.

The State Officers ask the Local Union Officers to join them in a Medal Campaign for the benefit of our Industrial School. Martinsville held a contest and made $22 for the Armenians. We have over four hundred Unions and every one of these Unions could hold a contest if they would.

The State will give to any county having five or a less number of Unions, whose every Union holds a contest, a week's work by one of our organizers, Miss Libbie Taber or Mrs. Allie Anderson. To any county with ten to five Unions, whose every Union holds a contest, a lecture by Mrs. Mattie O. Cammack. To the county having over ten Unions sending in the largest amount of net proceeds, an address by one of our National Officers.

Every local Union sending in $10 or over net proceeds, can have an address by one of the State officers.

Pledge-signing is to be one of the particular features of this campaign. Every local Union reporting 50 signatures or over at their contest, can have one day's service by one of our evangelists.

Local Unions who will join in the stirring campaign should send in their name to our State Corresponding Secretary by May 1st, and the reports of these contests must all be in by June 30.

We will use the W. C. T. U. system and rules and only silver medals. They may be oratorical, suffrage, narcotic, L. T. L., matron or silver gray.

We will use the W. C. T. U., Demorest and Cooper books that we may have variety and as good as there is.

Pledge cards 15 cents a hundred.

Posters to advertize the contests at the rate of 50 cents a hundred.

Order these with the medals and the books of Mary E. Balch, the Sup't of Medal Department, 56 Central Ave., Indianapolis. Send money with your orders. Net proceeds of contests to be sent to our State Treasurer, Amanda T. Whitson, 1745 N. Meridian St., Indianapolis, Ind.

READ CAREFULLY. ACT PROMPTLY.

Entering date, May 1st; make a note of it. Close of Campaign, June 30th; make a second note. Two months for a local Union to hold a Contest and report it, with such grand incentives before them. No Union can afford to say no, I will not have a part in the campaign.

N. B.—Organizations or individuals not connected with the W. C. T. U., interested in this Institution for our girls may join in the campaign on the same terms.

A DEPARTMENT FUND.

Indiana has thirty departments not including organization.

Very few Unions can work half of them, and yet every department should have the support of our workers, and the general public be made acquainted with their beneficent qualities. Local and State workers complain of being hindered by the need of money. We offer the following plan as being capable of setting the machinery in full motion.

Each local Union after appointing her superintendents, shall take the remaining departments of the State and organize them into four groups, one for each quarter in the year, and shall as the time comes round hold a public meeting for these departments, first group in first quarter, second group in second quarter, etc. The Union shall prepare a program, advertize, and take as much care as if they were preparing for a county convention, naming members of the Union to prepare and read papers of not over ten minutes length for each department in the group. These papers or short addresses on the same subject, with song service, our usual Bible readings and recitations on the teachings of these departments under consideration, will make a program of credit. Take a collection. Divide the money you receive in the collection, sending one fourth to the local treasurer, one fourth to the county treasurer and two fourths to the State treasurer. These several amounts will constitute a fund for the superintendent of local, county and State. Four hundred Unions holding these quarterly department meetings would aggregate sixteen hundred meetings in a year. If the collections averaged 40 cents each, the above division of the money would give the State Departments $320. It will be in our treasury at the time of our annual meeting when superintendents are appointed and appropriations are made. Then these women entrusted with so large responsibility may go forth comparatively furnished with means; and we can in reason look for greatly increased results as compared with the past.

Dear sisters, this plan is rich in actual work accomplished, if carried out. Every Union having performed its just share of the work; and the gospel preached to many thousand needy people. The papers written by our Unions will have developed mental and spiritual growth, and added many new thoughts, which things make our organization more mighty in its grapple with Satan and legalized sin.

No plan however will work itself. Let us have united, unanimous and unanimity of action.

RECORD BOOKS AND REPORT BLANKS.

The National Union will not undertake the uniform blanks at present and we will provide our own. I sent out with our quarterly blanks a message to the secretaries about record books for the county and local Unions. We are out of the old ones and must have a new supply. We have no money. If enough Unions and counties will order we can get them printed, county books 50 cents, local 30 cents. Send order and money inside of 20 days after receiving the book. If you prefer you can send money with order, only you will have to wait until the books are ready, and if all would order at once the work could be done in a very little time, and when it is finished, large or small blanks and record books will harmonize. This is very important.

MARY E. BALCH.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP.

The plan as published in THE MESSAGE was unanimously adopted. Every county president has been invited to assist in making one life membership for a dearly loved sister. Have you responded yes, by sending the small sum of 30 cents, if not will you send at once? Every secretary, local and county has an opportunity to give a dime and make another life membership. The names of these life members will be given later. The $50.00 is needed so badly in the work of organization. Dear sisters, do not wait to do these little things but send the small amounts now.

OUR STIRRING CAMPAIGN

Meets with hearty response. Many Unions are already at work. Greensburg, Martinsville, Central Union, Indianapolis and others. Who will come in first with its report of finished work.

A BEAUTIFUL GIFT TO THE SECOND BEST.

Who ever stops to give a thought to the Second best in a Silver or Gold contest? And yet the difference in the real merit of the work performed by the medal winner and the one who receives the next highest award is so trifling as to be scarcely appreciable. For the encouragement of this one, to whom the contest prize is so near and yet so far, we are pleased to announce that a gentleman from Chicago, who is a lover of the young, and has been a lifelong temperance worker, has arranged with the publishers of the American Home magazine to present one year's subscription to each person taking part in any W. C. T. U. contest who wins second place. This gift represents thousands of dollars and the thanks of all lovers of the young are due to the giver whose name we are not allowed to publish.

To COMMITTEES: At the close of each contest kindly make out and present to the person entitled to the same, the following certificate and see that the same is properly forwarded.

Publishers AMERICAN HOME MAGAZINE, 388 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

Gentlemen:—This is to certify that M..... age..... years, received the second highest award to the..... medal contest, held at..... on the..... of..... 189., under the auspices of the..... Union of the W. C. T. U. and is entitled to the "American Home Magazine" premium.

Please send same for one year to.....

P. O..... No. and Street.....

Countersigned by..... State.....

..... Contest Committee..... Judges.

Praise the Lord for this new friend. With each medal we will send out one of these slips, and from this on, each W. C. T. U. contest will have a second prize to offer. Take notice, this offer is made to the W. C. T. U. only; and when a W. C. T. U. medal is awarded will be given.

ON TO WINONA!—FORWARD MARCH.

Through the courtesy of the Winona Assembly and Summer School Association, the White Ribbon Army of Indiana has been granted a day during the meeting of the Winona Assembly of '97. Winona Park is on the shore of Eagle Lake, two miles from the city of Warsaw, and was a most charming summer resort—equipped with fine hotel, auditorium, cottages, tents, boats, etc, even before it fell into Presbyterian hands; and now that the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church is to be entertained there in May, many superb improvements are being made. With the auditorium splendidly remodeled and refitted, the woman's building completed, new walks, and piers, cottages and committee rooms added, Winona will be not less delightful for a summer outing than is Chautauqua, N. Y.

During the two months of the Winona Assembly and Summer school—July and August—a reduction on all railroads of one fare for the round trip, brings this delightful summer outing within the means of all. July 20th has been selected for the W. C. T. U. day. All unions are hereby urged to send as large delegations as possible on that day. A rich and varied program is being prepared. A circular letter containing fuller particulars will be sent out soon. Look out for it, White Ribbon sisters! But, in the meantime, be getting ready to take up the line of march to Winona, at the blowing of our bugle July 20th, '97.

MARY A. LEAVITT.

Sup't of W. C. T. U. work of Winona Assembly, Vernon, Ind.

Mrs. Ethel Blair has another new Union in her city, South Bend, which is the third link in the chain. Her efforts are now concentrated on Mishawaka.

Miss Eliza Baker was the first county president to report for mid-year program.

Hardinsburg Union has a record for good works, that is very encouraging to the one that hears the excuses of all for not doing this or that. They have made and donated one hundred dollars towards the new church. They always had the free use of the old one and will have the use of the new one. This money was largely made by the Medal work. They have held three or four contests for gold medal. They have a Silver gray class, also a class of boys, and a contest for gold medal in preparation. They send the Union Signal to their minister; the Union takes a copy and the President takes a third. Every copy is preserved and distributed at the contests. They are always one of the first to fall in with proposed plans and do their part. Hardinsburg is a small village with only the one church.

North Judson take two copies of the MESSAGE for each member. Mrs. Cranmer speaks for them April 6th. The president, Mrs. J. T. Noland, visited Star City Union, I feel sure more visiting like that would be helpful.

Shelbyville is arranging a parlor meeting and members bring their dues to the regular meetings and lighten the labors of their treasurer.

Mrs. Johnson, of Bloomington, writes: "It is our pleasure to hear cerfew ring every night."

Brazil is planning a sufferage contest and an April social for Hadley School.

Decatur defeated three applications for license. I presume the W. C. T. U. is something to be considered by the rum fraternity in that town.

Montgomery Union at its last meeting received two regular and three honorary members. Will hold county convention in May, expect Miss Reed with them.

Monon observed Mother's Day in February, in the home of their president, Mrs. Marion; an excellent program was carried out, lunch served and two members secured, and dues paid.

March, a well planned sufferage meeting brought a new member; it was the birthday of the county treasurer; six new members in the last six months.

Neal Dow came in for his share of this Unions effort in the shape of a public meeting on Tuesday the 23rd. They have a contest planned for April 9th.

Order copies of the Cigarette Law of Mrs. Fannie Calkins, Portland, Ind., at 10 cents a hundred.

We have tried to put in the articles as they come, taking into consideration the point of importance as to time. Several were unavoidably left over.—Ep.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

The reports from the County Institutes this spring are most encouraging. Many new members have been secured and the local unions seem to have renewed enthusiasm and interest.

The membership seems to feel its need of information. This is very hopeful. Many subscriptions for the Union Signal and THE MESSAGE have been secured. Unions are appointing agents for our great Woman's Temperance Publication Association. When these agents become fully informed in regard to their duty and to the needs of the membership, each agent will send in a club for the Union Signal and THE MESSAGE; will also urge every member to buy ten cents worth of leaflets on various subjects for their own reading. When every Union has an active efficient W. T. P. A. agent our membership will become more generally informed and our State will take rapid strides forward, hastening the day when we will have constitutional Prohibition in Indiana.

Let no union be contented until it has an L. T. L. in prosperous condition. Some one may think this is asking too much, it is so hard to secure a leader, teachers, etc. I am grieved because such is the case. I know from experience just what work is necessary, for as a leader of an L. T. L. of a membership of 115 as bright boys and girls as any leader ever loved, I could not depend upon the women of the union for teachers. I secured a young consecrated Christian girl for organist, three others for teachers. With these helpers our Legion was divided into classes. We began by planning for an entertainment. Every six or eight weeks during the warm weather we gave an entertainment, less frequently in cold weather. By this means made money for supplies, etc. For these entertainments we used recitations, lessons, songs, etc., that had been used in the regular weekly meetings. This could be done with little labor. Children's work in public is always appreciated.

No mother who loves her children can afford to shirk this important work. Maybe the housework and the children do need attention. Less house-keeping and more children training is the need of the hour. Take the children even the baby to the Legion, (mine used to go in the little carriage and be entertained by looking and listening.) Mothers, take up this work, win the hearts of the boys and girls, teach them scientific facts from the ably edited Teachers L. T. L. Manuals, teach them Anna Gordon's marching songs and put the Young Crusader into their hands. In this way your own children will receive the instruction and you will teach the children of your community to love the right and to hate the wrong, thereby making it easier for your own to do right. If considered only from a selfish point of view you can not longer afford to shrink from the work. Most of our L. T. L. Leaders are not mothers. These women are doing much for the communities by helping to train the children right and to purify the atmosphere for the children. Such noble self sacrificing efforts should be appreciated. The mothers must lend a hand and help.

Where there is no Legion let every member who is convinced of the need of such work, so express herself at the next meeting of her union. If she will assist, say so. If no one is found who will immediately take the leadership, let some mother offer to do the work for the present. The L. T. L. manuals are very plain and comprehensive. The marching songs are good. If no more is done than to teach the children to sing temperance songs and to hate alcohol and tobacco, the work will not have been in vain. Organize and conduct an L. T. L. to the best of your ability in God's name and the work will be a success.

The Annual Leaflet contains our declaration of principles, catechism on what is the W. C. T. U., the object and aim of each of the departments. It explains our work in an able manner, it is just what every member should have for reference. Price 50 cents per hundred. Send an order for your union immediately to Mrs. Helen M. Barker, The Temple,

Cor. LaSalle and Monroe Sts., Chicago, Ill. If your union delays sending you enclose postage for some copies for yourself

Hold union meetings in the homes of the members if you are not satisfied with the attendance. Every member entertaining the union should be firm in requiring the President to have a well planned program for the meeting. Being assured of a good program she will enthusiastically invite her neighbors to come in. A good President will always have a carefully prepared program, begin on time and close on time.

Will the County Presidents please send me the names and addresses of the Local Presidents of their counties. I desire to communicate with them.

Yours for consecrated efforts,
L. F. McWHIRTER.

TREASURER'S NOTES.

Is it necessary for any one but the President to take the State paper? Certainly. Every member of the Union should take it and thus receive the instruction from officers and superintendents that will enable them to push the work for which the organization was affected.

Take the paper and revive the work in your Union.

Some Unions may say, we do not understand the work, would be glad to work if we understood how.

Take your State and National papers, read and act upon the suggestions offered and you will soon be sending notices to your State paper, telling what wonderful things your Union has accomplished. Neighbors will begin to tell what great things have been done by the W. C. T. U. They will also tell you that had they understood the work they would have become members long ago.

Will Unions whose every member takes the MESSAGE please report the same to Mrs. Amanda T. Whitson, giving the full name and address of the lady to whom you desire to have the "Signal" sent.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

Friends and Loyal Temperance Legioners, read the following carefully.

Each member in a class wishing to graduate must have signed the pledge, and be twelve years old, and pass a satisfactory examination on the first, second third and fourth numbers of Volume I in the L. T. L. Manuals: A list of questions for examination is obtained by writing to the secretary and enclosing 10 cents. The local leader conducts the examination. I wish that each local Legion having a class to graduate would notify me at once, giving the number in the class, that I may arrange with them for State Convention which meets in July. All graduates must be ready by that time. Satisfactory examination means 75 per cent of each list of questions answered correctly. God bless the young people.

AMANDA R. GORDON,
State Secretary.

The third annual meeting of the L. T. L. will be held at Marion, July 8th and 9th. There will be a large class of graduates this year, and those who can not attend will, if reported to me, have their names read and diplomas sent to them, but we hope all may be able to attend. If the local Unions would wake up and see that this is their opportunity for good and for the future prohibition of the liquor traffic, the L. T. L. work would assume magnificent proportions as it should. All local leaders and graduates are delegates to this convention and should make an effort to attend.

A. R. GORDON,
Sec'y.

POLICE AND JAIL MATRONS.

Where ever women or children are held under detention by the authorities or in transfer to or from any place of detention there should be a motherly matron in charge to look after their welfare. There is a Permissane Law in the State of Indiana making it possible to appoint matrons in cities of ten thousand inhabitants and over.

1. Name of county.
2. Name of county or local superintendent.
3. How many women or children come under the care of the authorities? Examine the records.
4. Have you a matron appointed in your jail or station house?
5. How many jails or station houses in your city or county?
6. Number of services held in jails and station houses.

Dear sisters push this department and report to me.

ANNIE BUCHANAN,
Police Matron and State Sup't.

Indianapolis.

MERCY DEPARTMENT.

DEAR SISTERS:—Now is the time when county conventions and normal institutes are in order and the work of the different departments will be discussed and some will be taken up. Will you not read the following and then endeavor to have a County Sup't appointed in your county, sending her name and address to me? In His name,

LOU E. RALL,
23 Salamonie Ave., Huntington, Ind.

WHY A DEPARTMENT OF MERCY SHOULD BE FORMED IN EACH STATE, COUNTY AND LOCAL UNION.

Because the use of strong drink develops brutality and cruelty, the systematic teaching of kindness bears a relation to both the preventive and reformatory work of the W. C. T. U.

Because the organization of Bands of Mercy could be carried to a much greater extent if there were in each union a woman who would make it her particular business to secure their formation through the several kinds of educational work.

Because, though humanity is growing better, its real and permanent elevation will be in the ratio of the recognition of the right of the weak.

Because we need a Christianity broadened to the full intent of its Founder. One not restricted to a mere contemplation of God's mercy to us; but inculcating our obligation to show the fullest mercy to all His creatures.

Because the development of the ideals of justice and humanity is essential to the highest character, and a child taught through the Band of Mercy to be unselfish, and to be considerate of the rights and welfare of every living creature, will be better in all the relations of life. A child so taught, will not, when he grows up, be so likely to degrade himself by the use of strong drink, or help to injure others by selling it.

"White light includes all the prismatic colors; so the white ribbon stands for all phases of reform."

FRANCES E. WILLARD.

NARCOTICS.

But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God; yea, let them exceedingly rejoice. Psalm LXVIII, 3.

We now have the strongest law against cigarettes which could be enforced in our State. Many of you, dear sisters, have worked hard for this law, but your work would have been of no avail if our State President had not incessantly watched our bill. We owe this law to her. For weeks she gave all of her time to it. The tobacco trust had their agents at work and spared neither time nor money in their efforts to defeat us. Even after the victory was won they would have snatched it from us had it not been for the tireless vigilance of Mrs. McWhirter. (See Indianapolis Sentinel of March 8th.) But when God is for us, it is more than all that may be against us. Mrs. McWhirter "hath done what she could" and victory is ours. May God bless her and hers!

Now we expect to have the law printed and hope that every local union in the State will order several hundred leaflet copies and distribute them at all public meetings; also please organize to enforce the law.

I am glad to tell you that Mrs. Cammack is ready to organize Anti-Tobacco Leagues in the schools. Wherever she is called to lecture please arrange for her to do this work too.

This constitution is only intended as a guide, to be added to or cut down at pleasure. Organize in the schools under the control of teachers.

Yours for work,
FANNIE CALKINS,
Sup't.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

Our State Sup't of Narcotics, Mrs. Fannie Calkins of Portland, with an appropriation of only five dollars for department work for the entire year, determined to work for a prohibitory cigarette law. Such faith has not been found in all Indiana!

On account of her influence and the cause she represents, Mrs. Calkins secured the services of an eminent lawyer of Jay County, who wrote the prohibitory cigarette bill to be introduced in the Legislature, and also wrote the form for the petition praying for the passage of the bill.

The efficient efforts of S. M. Hoff, State Sec'y of the Epworth League, for the anti cigarette law secured many thousands of signatures to petitions and resulted in scores of letters being sent to Legislators.

We regret that after repeated efforts with the State Sec'y of the Christian Endeavor Society we utterly failed to secure the co-operation of the President and Christian Citizenship Dep't of that great organization. We are assured that the conservatism of these officials is not the sentiment of the membership at large.

Through the unrelenting efforts of our white ribboners throughout the State, the petitions, personal letters and newspaper articles showed the sentiment of the people against the cigarette. This expression had a wonderful influence upon our law makers. Gov. Mount and almost every member of the Gen'l Assembly received many letters urging the passage of the prohibitory cigarette bill.

The aggregate length of the lists of voters' names which were sent in attached to the petitions from the different counties, was about one thousand feet. Nearly half as many more women's names were sent. The petitions and memorials sent from churches, Sabbath-schools, young peoples' societies, school teachers and college faculties together with the many personal letters to members of the Legislature expressed a request that could not be ignored. The present law could not have gained without these expressions from the people.

The passage of the law would have been impossible at this time but for the fact that members of the House and Senate knew that their constituents were depending upon them to support it. Our State Vice-President, Miss Mary Hadley and our State Rec. Sec'y, Mrs. M. O. Cammack, Dr. W. H. Gray and others did the cause valient service by writing newspaper articles. Our Cor. Sec'y, Mrs. M. E. Balch, "stayed by" the State work. Little did we realize the magnitude of the opposition we would meet. It has been said "it ought not to be hard to secure a good prohibitory cigarette law." We were informed by good legal authority that if an entire prohibitory cigarette law were passed it would become inoperative on account of the Inter State Commerce law, which allows goods to be shipped into the States in original packages. Many members of the Legislature refused to vote for the entire prohibitory law believing it would not be effective. Therefore the following law was passed which restricts the use and sale of cigarettes to persons over twenty-one years of age.

Our State Treasurer, Mrs. Whitson, that courageous woman who does not know failure spent many hours every day for weeks with Mrs. Sims, Mrs. Hann and myself meeting the enemy in open conflict. In order to do this, Mrs. Whitson, assisted by her kind husband, worked late at night every night thereby keeping up the Treasurer's work and carefully attending to the details of reviewing subscriptions for and sending out the MESSAGE. These women of dauntless faith and courage bravely fought for a better protection for the boys of this State, for many weeks consecrating their energies and ability to this work, regardless of storms of snow or sleet, oftentimes being greatly exposed.

When we consider that the moneyed power of the Tobacco Trust is second only to that of the whisky, traffic, then we realize what it is to meet it and secure legislation against it. The Indianapolis Press is responsible for statements in regard to the Tobacco Trust having agents here in its interest, going as far as to say that one was no other than an ex-State Senator, a lawyer, and a paid lobbyist. Let us take courage and renew our faith in the possibility of yet greater works, looking forward with confidence to the final great battle and triumph over the liquor traffic and over every form of evil.

L. F. McWHIRTER.

HADLEY SCHOOL NOTES.

The W. C. T. U. of Eaton has sent a beautiful quilt to the Hadley Industrial School. It represents many days of ingenious workmanship. No doubt it will be kept for years as a token of loving thoughtfulness from the friends in Eaton, as it comes with the blessing of the donors on the work of the home and school.

Will any union or person to whom blanks for admission of girls to the Hadley School have been sent return them if they are not used to Frances A. Potter, 444 N. East St., Indianapolis. We also ask any who wish to enter girls, to write at once, whether they have written before or not, for the reason that the new admission blanks are prepared and we wish to have all we have room for arranged for soon.

Miss Hobart, who was appointed on the Board of Trustees of Hadley Industrial School by the Central Committee, has shown her interest and efficiency by entering into the horticultural department with heart and hand. She first read a paper on the Industrial School before the Marion County Horticultural Society of which she is secretary, and then asked for donations of plants, trees and seeds which was readily and heartily responded to by the following persons: Henry J. Hale, Haughville; E. J. Howland, Howland Station; J. G. Kingsbury, editor of Indiana Farmer; Miss Ida F. Richards; Miss Lucretia Hobart; Rev. A. Dunn; Mrs. A. Mathews; Mr. Theodore Wilsan; Mrs. Flick, of Lawrence, and if other names are omitted I will say, Miss Hobart went to Hadley and saw the ground properly prepared and set the plants, bushes and trees and now all of your donations are carefully disposed of on the Hadley School Farm.

The way in which friends of the school are showing their interest in the work is very encouraging. I believe what most people need is to know what has been done, what is being done, and what is needed and they will think of some way in which they can help. At present we are bending our efforts to clear of all indebtedness. If the unions will take hold with a will and work to the plan proposed by the State Sec'y in "The Stirring Campaign," I believe the debts can be swept out of existence, the school will be nearly self supporting and the W. C. T. U. of Indiana will have a monument to her energy, perseverance and sacrifice that will last for generations.

For managing the Home economically our Superintendent and her faithful assistant deserve great credit. The expenses have been reduced to a minimum and yet the inmates have wholesome and well prepared food. The girls are in good health and are growing finely and are contented and happy.

Generous donations of canned fruit have come to the Home from many kind friends, which have been gratefully received. If the trees and plants that have been set grow well, it will not be long before there will be enough fruit for supplying the Home and abundance to help meet expenses of the school.

POULTRY.

It is conceded by all who are engaged in poultry raising that it is a profitable business. Why not make it remunerative at the Hadley Industrial School. It is just the place to make it one of the principle branches of industry. There is plenty of room, feed can be raised on the farm, even the youngest of the girls can do much of the work, and if there is market for anything fresh eggs will always be in demand. If any one, or a number of persons will take an interest in this work and invest some money so the business can be started, it will pay from the beginning and can be increased from the profits to any extent advisable. Our object should be to make the school self supporting. This will take time but nothing brings in quick returns like poultry. A few dollars expended this summer in putting up warm houses which with good care and feed will insure a return in eggs when the price is high. If any friends have enough confidence in the plan to send money to put into this work it will be carefully expended. Money can be sent to the treasurer, Mrs. Ella B. Wright, Greensburg, and specified for "Poultry."

Friends, the sooner you can send in funds the sooner the bills we (you) are owing can be settled.

Mr. Cornells, of Royal Centre, who made the beautiful harness for the Hadley Industrial School is entitled to the thanks of the W. C. T. U. of Indiana. We expect to have it for many years to use and to remind us of the good will and exceedingly good workmanship of the maker. Any one desiring honest and beautiful work in this line will find it to their interest to get their harness of Mr. Cornells.

RESIGNATION OF SUPERINTENDENTS AND PLACES FILLED.

Mrs. Ella M. Richards, Churubusco, appointed to the department of "Relation of Temperance to Labor and Law and Statistics", sent in her resignation. Want of time to give it attention the reason stated for the resignation. Which the committee accepted. Mrs. Louisa Rush, Fairmount, Grant Co., fills this vacant place.

Miss Esther Pugh, having been promoted to the National, resigned and Mrs. W. R. Shelt, of Jeffersonville, takes her place.

Mrs. Caroline Edgerton, so long our faithful Superintendent of Literature, sent in her resignation. It came under cover with some other matter to the secretary who failed to open in time for the Executive Committee, and the Central Committee acted upon it relieving her of the burden because they believed she wished them to do so. Miss Georgiana Moser, of Loogootee, Martin County, takes the place.

Mrs. Lizzie Dunlap, Franklin, resigned the Department of Christian Citizenship. Her hands too full and other duties made it necessary to lay this down. This department was left open and all correspondence relating to it will be in the hands of the State Secretary.

Mrs. Thornton, of Indianapolis, failing to serve on the Fair Committee, Mrs. May Bogart was put in her place.

DELEGATES TO THE WORLD'S W. C. T. U. CONVENTION AND NATIONAL TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

In appointing delegates to the World's Convention the State was districted into four groups.

Group 1. Bartholomew, Crawford, Clark, Dearborn, Dubois, Floyd, Green, Gihson, Jackson, Knox, Lawrence, Martin, Monroe, Orange, Owen, Posey, Ripley, Spencer, Sullivan, Switzerland, Vanderburg, Warrick and Washington. 21, with 1121 paid members, taking the treasurer's report of 1896 as a basis. As these counties had no representative in the committee, the committee acted for them and Mrs. Mary McPheeters, Hardensburg, was chosen as delegate and Mrs. Lida D. Barnett, Alternate.

Group 2. Allen DeKalb, Elkhart, Fulton, Jasper, Kosciusko, Lagrange, Lake, LaPorte, Marshall, Miami, Newton, Noble, Porter, Pulaski, Starke, Steuben, St. Joseph, Wabash, Whitley, Wells, Huntington, Adams, Cass, Carroll, White and Benton. 27, with 1231 paid members. Miss Eliza Baker chairman. Delegate, Miss Eliza Baker; alternate, Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, Elkhart.

Group 3. Grant, Blackford, Jay, Randolph, Delaware, Madison, Hancock, Henry, Rush, Wayne, Union, Fayette, Decatur, Shelby, Franklin and Johnson. 16, with 1113 members. Mrs. Josie Dix, chairman. Delegate, Rev. Mattie O. Cammack, Marion; alternate, Mrs. Retta Jones, Alexandria.

Delegates to the National Temperance Convention, which meets at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., commencing 9 a. m., Wednesday, August 16th. Mrs. Luella F. McWhirter, Indianapolis; Mary E. Balch, Indianapolis; J. R. Wood, Indianapolis; Mrs. E. D. Hardy, Goodland; Miss L. E. Eversole, Delphi; Miss Clara M. Sears, Anderson; Mrs. Laura Thomson, Decatur.

We have presented four plans to the Unions and the Executive Committee voted on those plans. We believe they are for the success of our work; we think God can bless them; now it rests with the Unions—whether we have the success and the blessing. We have asked nothing of Unions that would be burdensome, but the effort to carry out the plans would give added inspiration, and in return, from the State, Unions would receive assistance by free organization and lectures. Read the plans, and see what there is in them for your Unions, and then do your best to make them effectual.

PLAN NO. 1. LIFE MEMBERSHIP.

Our State Constitution fixes the amount of Life Membership as $25. The Executive Committee voted to use the money from Life Membership as a fund for organization and decided on this division of the money. A county taking a life membership puts five dollars into the county treasury and twenty dollars into the State treasury. A local Union making a life membership puts five dollars into the local treasury and twenty dollars into the State treasury. An individual making a life membership may put five dollars into the treasury of the Union to which they belong and twenty into the State treasury. The State making a life membership puts the whole amount into the State treasury.

The State is making two life memberships, one by asking counties to give thirty cents. It would take 83 counties. We felt sure every county would respond without delay. Will you do it to-day?

Every secretary, local and county, were asked to give 10 cents. Dear sisters, before the June roses fill the summer air with fragrance, this should be an accomplished fact. Let us pay our 30 cents, our 10 cents, for God and home, and native land.

PLAN NO. 2. DEPARTMENT FUND.

See the April number of the MESSAGE and if you do not have a copy order one.

Plan No. 3, "A Stirring Campaign," and No. 4, "Nothing Impossible for Indiana Either," in this issue of our paper. Central Union, Indianapolis, held the first contest in the campaign, and has a second and a third under way. How many understand that the "Stirring Campaign" has begun and closes June 30th. Write the Secretary, 56 Central Ave., Indianapolis, for all supplies and instructions.

Plan No. 4 has been commenced by several counties and promises to be a favorite. Well, as white ribboners, we can do the things we like to do, and we can do the things we do not like to do, if the doing brings the desired result. Therefore, let us work all the plans conscientiously.

There is no one help, that we use in the Unions, local and county and Ys, that we need more than the Record Books. However, we shall not be justified in getting them printed until we have at least 100 orders. We have now, April 21, less than 40.

If our old books are not full, do we need new ones? is asked. I answer yes, because a change has been made in the blanks and blanks and books must be alike. Why did we make the change? Because of the suggestions in the National Union—that no secretary should trespass on the ground of any department.

Why not make the old books and blanks do during these hard times? Because we had used the old blanks and were compelled to have a new supply. If Unions will order promptly we can get the books and fill the orders. Please notice—the Unions that have ordered are kept waiting by the Unions that have not ordered. Let us have prompt action, and not only one hundred orders but one for each and every Union.

Miss Edna Washburn, Logansport, a graduate of oratory, in Nichols University, and who had charge of the drill at the Rink during the State Convention, and who graduates in the High School of her city May 29, will now respond to the many calls which she has received during the past year, to recite, to drill classes, to instruct in costumes, etc. She will be ready to make dates after June 1st. Write her at 129 Spring St., Logansport, Ind., for terms. Open the door wide for the young people, and entice them in. It will be our victory.

The W. C. T. U. of Frankfort, began, two years ago, to agitate the curfew. They now have a curfew ordinance.

The Frankfort Union voted to enter "The Stirring Campaign."

Bloomington Union was the first to report every member a subscriber to THE MESSAGE. Mrs. May L. Lindley receives the premium of one year's subscription to the Signal. Who will be next?

Mattie Cammack's week's work was so satisfactory in Parke county, they think of calling her back next month.

Bloomington Union sends a minister's club of twelve, also a club of twelve from their Union. Imagine how much W. C. T. U. doctrine will be preached from the pulpits of that city during 1897.

The President and Secretary of Henry county purpose to visit all their Unions this quarter.

The number of Unions observing Neal Dow's birthday was surprisingly large.

Switzerland county hopes for nature not only to bring to life the vegetation, but weary, despondent W. C. T. U. workers, that they may live again in good deeds performed, not deeds simply thought or dreamed over.

Spiceland has headquarters, Hadley Hall.

New Castle has headquarters and a reading-room.

The Secretary of the new Union at Middlebury, writes, "No worm eaten timber in this Union. We will wage a good warfare."

A Woman's Christian Temperance Union just formed in Illinois has in its organization a reading circle for the purpose of studying W. C. T. U. plans and Methods. How many Indiana Unions will adopt their plan.

Indiana has a Scientific Temperance Instruction law. Is the law enforced in your schools? Visit every department and see. Give a parlor social in honor of the school board, invite every teacher. Arrange your program and discuss the Scientific Temperance Instruction law.

Has your Union failed to put forth every effort possible in securing new members and collecting dues? Has your Union adopted a systematic plan of work or is your work done in a haphazard way. Do your Unions meet and follow out an interesting program or do you meet and visit. We are judged according to our work.

Freelandville had a week's work by Mother Trish and a visit from their county president, and a contest for a free medal under the Demorest system, in a German community.

Our dear Mrs. Thomson has taken her place in the Palo Alto Union where she is very helpful, writes Mrs. Sturtevant Peet, President of California.

Loogootee writes, "Mrs. Cranmer gave us the last lecture ever delivered in our town." Every Union she has visited tells the same story and she is going over her route the second time.

Mrs. Ellen K. Denny has made a protracted visit in the west she writes very recently, "Will be at home ready for work May 1st."

Mrs. Allie Anderson began work in Warren county for a month, April 20th.

Mrs. Cammack, is in Miami county for a few days and goes to Evansville for their Convention and Institute, May 13th and 14th. Now is the time to call her when she is near you, it saves expense and it saves time, and it saves the women. Do you know our women wear out. They are leaving us one by one. Miss Libbie Taber might be doing more only there is no straw to make the bricks. Every move for organization depends on life membership now.

Mrs. Hattie Moorman, President of West Indianapolis Union, is planning largely for her Union. Among other good things the Union will soon give a reception to the thirty school teachers of the town.

The Central Committee at its regularly called meeting, April 30th, decided to give a very liberal construction to the vote of the last Executive Committee, relating to the time of closing clubs to the MESSAGE and voted to extend the time.

Dates for State Convention October 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th. Place, South Bend.

The Lafayette W. C. T. U. held a parlor meeting and lecture at the home of Mrs. S. M. Steuens, March 5th. They sent out 100 invitations to the school teachers and others who are interested. The lecture was given by Mrs. Adah White, our state superintendent, and was on scientific temperance instruction. It was well rendered and full of interest. There was an excellent service of refreshments, and a profitable time was spent.

COMMUNICATION FROM SECRETARY NATIONAL L. T. L.

I would recommend that each Union be asked to carry out the following suggestions:

1. The adoption of the normal grade of the L. T. L.

2. A standing committee on the L. T. L., whose members may be changed as often as seems advisable, whose duties shall be, (a) to secure the necessary helpers and the organization of a Legion where there is none; (b) to be present at the meetings of the Legion, where there is one, aiding and encouraging the leader in every possible way.

3. Rallying days in which the W. C. T. U. members shall systematically visit the various localities of the community, for both W. C. T. U. members and L. T. L. recruits; Crusade Membership Day should be one of these.

4. An observance by every W. C. T. U. woman of the L. T. L. time for united prayer, 7 p. m.

It is earnestly desired that your state, following the lead of the National W. C. T. U., shall this year if it has not already done so.

1. Give L. T. L. representation, upon payment of dues, in its State W. C. T. U. conventions.

2. Give the whole, or a part, of an evening's program in these conventions to the L. T. L.

Also that you will recommend the city Unions of your State to employ L. T. L. missionaries as the only effective way for carrying on the work in these centres of population.

Our L. T. L. organizers, Mrs. Blair, Mrs. Green and Mrs. Fields are, as you know, available for help along L. T. L. lines in the various states.

THE NORMAL GRADE OF THE L. T. L.

WHY?

Questioning the many childless unions as to the reason why they do not maintain a Loyal Temperance Legion, they seldom fail to express in reply their conviction as to the importance of the work, and then add—"But we cannot find a leader."

Questioning the earnest leaders who are at the head of our many legions, we are almost certain to receive the reply that they find themselves unable to accomplish all that they desire to do because of lack of helpers. What wonder if they sometimes become disheartened, and resign a work which has proved too great to carry single-handed, but which might, with proper assistance, have been a delight.

It is primarily to meet those needs that the L. T. L. Normal Grade has been instituted; but we believe that no union can take up the required study in this course without finding itself greatly helped thereby for all its lines of work.

WHAT?

Each W. C. T. U. and Y is asked to constitute itself, by a vote, an L. T. L. Normal class, and to appoint a leader of the same, whose duty it shall be to conduct the class in the course of exercises given below. If the union has already an efficient L. T. L. superintendent it will be wise to make her the leader of the Normal class.

HOW?

The regular course of study to be pursued is contained in volume III, II and I of the Temperance Lesson Manuals, which shall be taken up in the order named. These should be supplemented by volumes V and VI, which are devoted to the various phases of civil government. The first three volumes comprise a variety of subjects. (See list at the close of this leaflet.)

This leader should first conduct the manual lesson as a responsive reading, allowing free discussion, and should then teach it as an object-lesson. She should always be supplied with the teacher's edition of the manuals, which contains valuable hints for this object teaching.

While using the manuals as a basis for study, our normal classes will desire to secure side-lights upon the topics of the lessons. The following helps, which may be multiplied indefinitely, are suggested:

(1.) For Volume III. In connection with Number 1, the study of heredity should be followed. Send a postage stamp to the National Superintendent, Dr. L. C. Purington, 23 Allston St., Dorchester, Mass., for her list of recommended books and leaflets. As each legion is requested to constitute itself a Band of Mercy, with Number 3, the class may profitably read the literature to be obtained of the Humane Education Committee, 55 Westminister St., Room 32 Providence, R. I.; also the monthly, Our Dumb Animals, published by George T. Angell, 19 Milk St., Boston. (Price 50 cents per year.)

(2.) For Volume II. In connection with Numbers 1 and 2, use Blaisdell's "How to Keep Well," one of the school physiologies indorsed by the National department of Scientific Temperance Instruction. With Number 3, "Beer and the Body," by Petroleum V. Nasby, published by the National Temperance Society, 58 Reade St., New York (Price 10 cents) With Number 4, "The Tobacco Problem," by Meta Lander (price $1.25) to be obtained from the W. T. P. A.; "Tobacco, the Second Intoxicant" (price 10 cents), published by Charles H. Kerr & Co., 175 Dearborn St., Chicago; The Anti-Tobacco Gem, a monthly, published by C. H. Shepard, Melvin Village, N. H. (20 cents per year.)

(3.) For Volume I. "Seven Studies in Temperance" (price 10 cents), published by the Unitarian Temperance Society, 25 Beacon St., Boston, Mass., may be used. The Sixth Study will be found especially applicable to Number 4.

(4.) In connection with Volumes VI. and VII. the literature prepared by our National department of Peace and Arbitration should be read.

(5.) The class will also find it profitable to read the leaflets on social purity published by the W. T. P. A., since these have such a bearing upon the welfare of our young people. The class should subscribe for at least one copy of our children's monthly, The Young Crusader (25 cents per year). Much pleasure may be derived from using our L. T. L. song books, especially "Marching Songs No. 3" The leader, being authorized by the class to procure these helps, should see that they are on hand when needed. The price can easily be met by small contributions from the individual members, or from the W. C. T. U. treasury, and there will thus be gathered the nucleus for a library, and leaflets for distribution. The Young Crusader, Our Dumb Animal and the Anti-Tobacco Gem may be passed on to the teachers for use in the schools.

The leader, in addition to the lesson, should bring forward at each meeting some one method of L. T. L. work, which she will illustrate by using the class as a company of children. If not already familiar with these methods she can apply to her own State L. T. L. superintendents or to the National superintendent for the necessary helps.

WHEN?

Some unions will find it profitable to make the normal class work a feature of their regular meetings. Some may find it possible to hold a special meeting monthly, or oftener. Probably most unions will find a half hour, or more, at the close of each regular W. C. T. U. meeting, the most convenient time for the class.

CONCLUSION.

Because of the vital importance of organized work among the children to the future of the W. C. T. U., as well as to the welfare of the children themselves, we make no apology for urging the plan herein described upon every W. and Y. Furthermore, we believe that we can, with fairness, test the honesty of the pleas of any union that it fails to maintain a legion because no leader can be found, by its willingness, or unwillingness to try this plan.

It is not necessarily implied that every union will procure all the helps or do all the work outlined. But we trust no union will be deterred from doing what it can, because it cannot do all that it would.

ATTENTION!

Marion is the place and July 8th, 9th, the time for our State Convention of the L. T. L. A good program is being prepared and there are eight classes reported as preparing to graduate. Remember, there is a banner for the largest class, which Frankfort won last year.

All graduates and delegates who expect to attend should practice songs number 1, 18, 22, 26, 27, 38 and 52 in Marching Songs number 1. There will be a street parade the morning of the 9th in which we will carry banners and flags, sing numbers 1, 22, and give our L. T. L. yell: "Rah! Rah! Rah!! We clover blossoms are a field. Why? SALOONS MUST DIE! Hear their knell! Indiana L. T. L." Miss Wintringer, State Superintendent of Illinois, will be with us, and as she is a power we will be greatly helped.

Railroads give one fare for the round trip. All graduates and local leaders are delegates and should arrange to go. This will be the grandest meeting of young people that Indiana has had. Remember one fare for the round trip.

Hurrah for Marion!

State Secretary.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

UNFERMENTED WINE.

A word to county and local superintendents of this department. Have a superintendent of this department and then see that they make a report once a quarter of work done, and then you can make a report to County and State that will encourage others to follow your good example. There are twenty counties in Indiana that reported for this department last year. Do you think for one moment that all the other counties do not use alcoholic wine in some of the churches. Work doubtless is done in many of the other counties, but their superintendents fail to report. They do not see the good that would result to others from a careful statement of facts gathered in their locality. The pastors of churches will aid you in the work if you prayerfully approach them but do not fail to report.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. That each local Union take up this department and appoint a superintendent.
2. That effort be made to find how many churches use alcoholic wine at communion.
3. That special effort be directed to Lutheran Episcopal and Roman Catholic and foreign speaking churches.
4. That this subject be discussed in local meetings and in County Conventions.
5. That no opportunity be lost in petitioning religious bodies to pass resolutions recommending the use of unfermented wine at the sacrament of the Lord's supper.
6. That reports of work done or the condition of churches be promptly sent into County and State Superintendents of this department.

J. R. WOOD, Supt.

SCIENTIFIC TEMPERANCE.

DEAR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS:—All over our State the schools are closing.

Vacation time has come and regular school work for this year ended.

Not so our work as superintendents. The teacher's leisure is our opportunity.

Is a teacher's normal to be held in your county?

If so, be sure our work is represented.

Ask the instructors for leave to present the work to the normal classes.

Visit the school and take subscriptions for the "School Physiology Journal."

Distribute copies of the State Law and Literature pertaining to the department.

Give names of Reference books to the teachers. Hold parlor meetings or teachers' socials.

Communicate with each of your local superintendents that no local work shall go unreported.

Have some plan ready to present the work at your teachers' Institute this fall, if possible obtain some worker in the department to address the teachers.

Bring up your department at your fall Convention and try to have every local present to report her work.

And dear County Superintendents, will you urge upon your locals, that each Union contribute something toward a fund for this department yet during this year.

The work is hampered for lack of funds.

We receive directions from the national which we are financially unable to carry out.

Superintendents send to us for sample literature, which we should have, but cannot afford.

Directions must be given to superintendents, and beside the immense labor involved in writing a personal letter to each, it must be sent under letter postage, thus increasing the expense to your State Superintendent.

As a department also, we certainly need a set of charts. All these are necessities of small moment and cost.

But further, we want at no distant day, as good a Scientific Temperance Instruction Law for Indiana as has been obtained by any State in the Union.

Dear White Ribbon women, shall we have it?

We have obtained, a foot-hold. Shall we go further and establish our principles in the laws of the State, so securely that evasion will be impossible?

Shall we try? Will you help? If every Union will help "just a little," we shall soon have a nucleus established and it will grow.

Treasurers of Unions and Local Superintendents send all funds for this purpose to the State treasury and state specifically what it is for.

When we look back over the great work accomplished in this and kindred departments, we feel indeed that 'nothing is impossible' for Indiana women where the children are concerned.

Yours in loving sympathy,

ADAH W. WHITE.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

Adopt the department, appoint County and Local Superintendents, sending addresses and names at once to State Superintendent. Organize temperance societies among the soldiers, and pledge every one possible. Hold meetings for and with them, visit hospitals, arsenals, homes and places where soldiers are massed together, distribute literature. Co-operate with G. A. R. and W. R. C. Use the L. T. L.'s and all young peoples' societies on Decoration Day. Work for the enforcement of laws against the open saloons on National Holidays, and for the removal of the saloons from "Soldiers' Homes," and the giving of the pension of the drunken soldier to his family. Keep a strict account of all work done, and write and tell the superintendent, reply to every communication if only to say No. Pray and work without ceasing.

1. How many local superintendents in your County?
2. How many meetings have been held specially for soldiers?
3. How many pledged?
4. How many conversions among soldiers?
5. How many honorary members to the W. C. T. U. among the soldiers?
6. Did you observe July 4th as a Red Letter Day for our department?
7. How many pages of literature distributed? Delicacies given in hospitals.
8. How many letters written?
9. Do you read the "Union Signal?"

Yours for service,

JULIA OVERMAN.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL WORK.

DEAR SUPERINTENDENTS:—June 30th is our next Quarterly Temperance Sunday. The purpose is to make Sunday-school temperance rallies the special feature in its observance. Note specific directions in Plan of Work leaflet. Send for "Sunday-school Temperance Rally Program, No. 2," 50 cents per hundred, to Mrs. Stella B. Irvin, St. Paul, Minn.

Circulate the Pledge. Make pledge-signing one of the chief features of the day. Try to have the picnic usually held by each Sunday-school sometime during the summer, a Temperance Rally Picnic. The "Rally Program No. 2," will prove a pleasing open air program.

Can you not hold Department Tea meetings just previous to each Quarterly Temperance Sunday? The free-will offering will afford a literature fund. The Young Crusader is a splendid little sheet; let us support it by subscribing for and distributing it. The price is 25 cents single subscriptions, but 50 copies can be sent to one address one year for 12 cents each. The Y. C. with supplement prepared by Mrs. Irvine is especially fine and can be ordered at $1.25 cents per hundred. The supplement comes quarterly with the temperance lesson and is prepared especially for Sunday-school teachers. Try to get it into their hands. For full information address Margaret Wintringer, Editor Y. C., Austin, Ill., who will be glad to correspond with you.

Are you trying to secure co-workers? A co-worker by paying $1.00 annually receives a certificate which entitles the holder to receive the annual report of the National Superintendent and all literature which will keep the co-worker in touch with this department. The Superintendent securing the co-worker will send the name and address and fifty cents to the Secretary of National Department, Mrs. Dora B. Butts, 4226 Wabash Ave., Chicago, retaining 50 cents for her own work.

Now, dear workers, will you not let me hear from you? The work has gone on very nicely and is encouraging, but can it not be even more so, if every one will "help just a little." The time will soon be here to report. Our rallying cry is, a superintendent in every Union. We want to receive the banner to be given by our department at Buffalo, to the State securing the largest per cent. increase of Local Superintendents. Now, how can we get it if you don't appoint superintendents? And how can I report an increase to the National Superintendent if you don't report to me. In making your report this year please don't forget to say whether your Union had a superintendent last year. In counties where there is no County Superintendent, locals will report direct to me, giving county in which they live, that I may give credit where credit is due. I have sent out many report blanks and will send more; if you don't receive one, send to me for it.

Remember to "Set up your banners" on temperance Sundays. Educate the people as to what our department is.

Let us gather up the sheaves that none be lost. "And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord, and great shall be the peace of thy children."

Yours for the "Thus saith the Lord" side of the temperance question,

ALICE G. GEARY, Sup't.

808 North St., Logansport, Ind.

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMICS.

DEAR SISTER CO-WORKERS:—I have sent out circulars endorsed by the Society of Hygiene and Local Council of Women of Indianapolis, asking that Domestic Science be taught in all the public schools up to the High School. I trust every County will appoint some one to visit the County Teachers' Institutes and ask their co-operation in arranging a plan of work. In some states one cooking school is maintained in each town, pupils have their regular practical class work and stand the examination as in any other speciality. They are taught marketing, the nutritive value of various foods—those best adapted to infancy, youth and old age, what impairs the delicate living membranes of the stomach and what fosters vigorous healthy growth, when the problems relating to the wonderful mechanism of the human body are better understood our doctor bills and the greater burthen caused by sickness that of suffering and death will be largely removed from our homes. To successfully work in this department one must read literature along these lines. Ask your Union to subscribe for "The New Enlarged Kitchen Magazine," 7 Temple Place, Boston; "Good Health," Battle Creek, Mich. only $1.00 each. These monthly journals should be circulated in the Unions.

MARY A. MOODY, State Sup't.

TEMPERANCE AND LABOR.

This being an educative department, we wish by every means in our power to show that the liquor traffic is the laboring man's worst foe, and to find the best means to get rid of it.

Dear sisters, in taking up this department we must co-operate with labor unions and farmer's institutes, and in every way possible get the public aroused to the study of the liquor problem. While both the Republican and the Democratic parties cry out against the importation of pauper labor, neither of them say aught against manufactories (saloons) at home, which are far more threatening and dangerous, for they imperil the home, feed upon our children, debauch every avenue of government, and paralyze every industry.

Politicians are blinding the people with false theories as to the cause of destitution and ask for protection from foreign industries and declare in favor of a gold standard, or demand free trade and free coinage of silver, and protection from the trusts, while all the time the cause lies in licensed rum. If they do not understand the cause, the will not provide the remedy, which is Prohibition.

LOUISA RUSH,

State Sup't.

OUR HOUSE BEAUTIFUL AND ITS INMATES.

When I look around I wonder why ever woman does not wear the little knot of white ribbon, it means so much to me. For as surely as God called a Frances Willard to lead, this the largest and grandest organization of women that ever existed, so sure has he called the motherhood and sisterhood of this nation to follow and help dethrone the worst foe to our country, our church and our homes, that ever did or ever can exist. I wonder if there are some who have lost interest in our Industrial School. It certainly bids fair to be of untold blessing to the girlhood and motherhood of this State. For will not the daughters of to-day be the mothers of tomorrow and are not the mothers the moulders of character of their children. My dear sisters, an industrial education means immensely more than we can estimate. How many girls in our land to-day who would be better girls had they been brought up to work and earn an honest living. We would not need so many police matrons as we have to-day. Exceeding great care is necessary in placing girls in the home. The evil influence of one girl may seriously effect the entire school. Preventive charity is moral reform.

Preventive charity is the care of ignorant and neglected children in a home where an industrial education can be given. Such a school has been provided by the good people of Indiana. With the industrial policy carried out it will make needy worthy girls self-reliant. Preventive from the standpoint of economy, to say nothing of humanity and christianity is far better than reform and I have always been so glad that the W. C. T. U. made prominent the preventive feature. When the preventive Sunday laws of New York were enforced by Theodore Roosevelt, the hospitals of that city were thinned out and relief-giving was greatly reduced. It has been a notable fact in many cities during the past five years that poverty brought on by the drink traffic, and ignorance on the lines of common school and industrial education is the most potent factor in the production of criminals.

If so, can we be silent and inactive on this subject and still be true to the light God has given us? The age of admission of girls has been changed from 10-18 to 6-12. The former not being satisfactory as the habits in older girls were formed and in some cases greatly demoralized.

At present there are ten girls in the home. Our oldest girl is Mary Hicks. She is aged seventeen, from Princeton, Gibson County. Mary's mother died when she was for years of age. Her grandmother kept her until she died, then she was sent to the home. She is supported by Princeton Union. She is head dairy girl.

Belle Stewart is from Westland, Hancock County, is fifteen years of age. Her father died before she was born, her mother was left with nothing and is working by the week. Belle is a smart, bright girl, very industrious, is preparing to teach, is one of our dishwashers.

Eva Anderson is fourteen, from Francesville, Pulaski County. Her mother died when she was four years old, her father married again and soon died leaving four little children unprovided for. She passed to the seventh grade, her work is the care of the rooms on the second floor. She is clothed by the Francesville Union.

Lizzie Leon is from Terre Haute, Vigo County, is aged fifteen. Her father and mother separated, sending three little boys to the home provided by the associated charities in Terre Haute and Lizzie was sent to the home. Her work is keeping in order the basement hall, laundry, fuel room and first flight of stairs; she passed to the seventh grade.

Delphia Bookorer, aged thirteen, is from Milroy, Rush County. Her mother died when she was three years of age. Her father married again and the children were not sent to school but kept at home to work and as a result Delphia is behind in her studies. She passed to the fourth grade. She is learning to cook and gives satisfaction on that line, makes fine bread; is supported by the Milroy Union.

Opel Dillon is aged twelve. Is from Ireland, Dubois County. Her mother died when she was one year old, her father is intemperate and did not provide for her but abused her. Her aunt clothes her, she is a bright, intelligent child, passed to the sixth grade. Her work is the care of the hospital.

Eva Cutrell is aged eleven, is from Farmers' Institute, Tippacano County. Her mother died when she was three years of age leaving three little boys and Eva. She has a very kind papa who abundantly provides for her. She is our dining-room girl, lovely in disposition, can milk a cow as soon as the larger girls.

Martha Drager is from Shoals, Martin County. Her mother died when she was three years of age. Her father cared for her until the W. C. T. U. sent her to the Home. She wipes dishes and sweeps the steps, is a very bright little girl, passed to the fourth grade.

Mary Stevens is from Thorntown, aged nine years. It is believed she was stolen from her parents, she was rescued from a variety theatre in LaFayette. She is supported by the Thorntown Union.

Our baby is Julia Bolton, aged eight, is from Greensburg, Decatur County. She is sweet in disposition, industrious and lovable child. She comes from a home of extreme poverty. She assists in setting tables and wiping dishes and helps so much with the little chickens.

THE CONSTITUTION.

A newly organized Union in Indiana met for the first time. There was only one of its newly elected officers present. What shall we do? The one officer present replied: Let us study the constitution, and they spent the hour in earnest study. The next week they met again under the same circumstances. The one officer said: Let us study the constitution and Annual Leaflet which were given us at our organization, and they spent the hour in earnest study. The next week they met again with only the one officer present. She said: I think we are now well enough informed to begin work. The officers who were elected have been absent three meetings without excuse which is equivalent to resignation. If it is the will of the Union we will proceed to the election of officers according to the Constitution. It is hardly necessary to say that she was elected president. It is three months since this Union was organized. They have had one public entertainment, one Medal Contest, one Gospel Temperance meeting, are fully enlisted in The Stirring Campaign, and to-day are more intelligent workers than some Unions who are three years old. Last, but best of all, at the next meeting after their election they each paid their dues, and reported at once to the county treasurer, and sent their subscriptions to THE MESSAGE. And they are only nine women. What ought a Union to do? First, study the Constitution. Second: Study the Constitution and Annual Leaflet. Third: Study the Constitution and Annual Leaflet and go to work, according to them, then study the Constitution, Annual Leaflet, and THE MESSAGE and work according to them all the time. If every Union in Indiana would do this we would quadruple our membership, and take the State for our cause. Women of Indiana W. C. T. U. let us arouse ourselves and meet the exigencies of this all important hour.

JULY 20TH.

W. C. T. U. day at Winona. Do you wish to help the enterprise? If so, make as many words as you can from the word "Winona." English words only will be taken. Prefixes, suffixes and proper names counted. Do not use any letter oftener than it occurs in the word Winona. With your list send a dime in silver or stamps. The largest list will receive a souvenir of the late Mrs. Nichols; the second largest list a cabinet photograph of the State Supt of Medal work; the third largest a Cooper Recitation book and all other lists a copy of "Contest to Conquest." Send your list by June 30th, to Mary E. Balch, 56 Central Ave., Indianapolis.

JULY 21, 22, 23.

W. C. T. U. days at Acton Park. Last week I gave a simple plan to help Winona W. C. T. U. day, now I want to give you one to help Acton Park in her W. C. T. U. Assembly Union. Anyone sending in the largest list of English words from the words "Acton Park," can have a souvenir of our beloved Mrs. Nichols. The second largest list a cabinet photograph of our Superintendent of Summer Assemblies; the third largest list a year's subscription to "The Midget," and every one a copy of the National Educator. All lists must be in by July 10. Send 10 cents in stamps or silver with your list, to Mary E. Balch, 56 Central Ave., Indianapolis.

Mrs. Anderson spent a month in Warren County, organized three new Unions, re-organized one, secured 31 working and 23 honorary members. The County President, writes me: "Mrs. Anderson has accomplished more for us and at a much less outlay of money than any other worker we ever had." They call her back in the fall for another month's work. Mrs. Butler adds, "I do hope the State will keep her busy every day." Unless the life membership materialize we cannot. Secretaries send in your dimes and county presidents your 30 cents. Why do not these puny counties with one, two and three Unions, call our organizers into the field and keep them at work. Terms are such as any county president can meet if she makes the proper effort.

Rockfield, Carroll County, had a visit from the Superintendent of Organization and was persuaded to take up the work where they had lain it down and go on again. Mrs. Allie Anderson organized this Union and evidently gave it a good start with fourteen or fifteen members. Five dollars was paid in; seven name secured for the Message. The Constitution had been read and adopted; minutes well kept and nothing in the way except hard times, and the turning back of several who had given their names. Why, there were some who turned back from following Christ. The Union will meet once a month. Appointed a Superintendent of Flower Work, Mrs. C. E. Hildebrand, and a Superintendent of Literature and W. T. P. agent, Mrs. Bessie Van Gundy. They sent a letter signed by the president and secretary at once to Chicago, asking for the letter of instructions and the stickers. Mrs. Mullenore and Mrs. Gregg, the President and Secretary will at once hold a medal contest and expect to pay some dues in June.

When the Superintendent visited Star City, the Union did a bit of uncommon advertising to get the people out to their evening meeting. They called on every business man in the town and asked him to close up his place and attend the meeting. Every business house included the two saloons and the billiard room. Every one closed and came out, and the church was well filled. Excellent music had been prepared and every one knows how much good music adds to the occasion. Three honoraries were secured and two working members. And the Union will send a club to the Message and at least one Union Signal. Took up three departments of work: Literature, Mrs. Mary Blue; Flower Mission, Mrs. Emma Frain; Medal, Mrs. Dora Watson. A class of six girls were secured and their pieces selected. We think you will all hear from Star City in good work abundant.

At Winnemac we met the Legion and organized a medal class. The Union there is no more. We believe however, that there is leaven enough to give us one later on.

North Judson is alive, active and growing. The U. B. minister and wife are with them in spirit and effort, very unlike Winnemac where one sister said we can't have a Union until we have a change of ministers.

South Bend has three Unions and they are active in several lines of work.

Kosciusko County Convention at Pierceton, was poorly attended. However, the county is surely building slowly and perhaps that indicates well.

I met the president of the Warsaw Union who is interested and has excellent plans, with judgment and tact to carry them out. At Pierceton they have as faithful a little band as ever wore white ribbon. When the smoke of battle clears away you will find them at their posts.

I had the pleasure of spending a night with Mrs. Julia Overman, County Secretary and Local Supt of L. T. L. for her city. They have four legions now, one colored one among the factory homes. In the county they have seven Legions.

Visited Amboy, here the Union is well advised but small.

Bunker Hill has a new Y from Mrs. Cammack's seed-sowing. Already they had the courage to entertain the County Convention. They have vice-presidents in the four churches and literature, medal, purity, press and the flower mission departments.

Pulaski Convention, at Francesville, May 12th. An excellent program. Large audience. Refreshments served in the home of the county president at the close of the evening meeting, and $14.45 secured for the treasury. Invited to meet in Medaryville in the fall and Mrs. McWhirter desired to be present.

WHITLEY COUNTY.

The semi-annual Convention of the W. C. T. U. of Whitley County held at Churubusco April 14th and 15th was a success. Programs for Wednesday night was composed of songs, recitations and speeches. Thursday morning we followed program for institute work all day, at night we were entertained by Mrs. Emma A. Cramner. She gave her lecture, "The Evolution of Woman." Then consented to remain with us another night, giving her lecture "Christian Citizenship." They were both fine. Everybody liked to hear her. Any Union large or small cannot help being benefited by such a speaker as she.

Yours in the work,
MRS. NINA SQUIRES.

CLINTON COUNTY.

The semi-annual Convention and Normal Institute of the Clinton County W. C. T. U. was held at Frankfort, May 6 and 7.

The hall was beautifully decorated with potted plants, banners, portraits, etc. Framed portraits of Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Balch stood on easels in prominent positions. Miss Hadley and Mrs. Balch were both with us.

Our Conventions never seem quite complete without the presence of the dear sister whom we have loaned to the State, so we always try to have her.

Mrs. Boyer presided with her usual dignity and ease.

Five out of the six Unions in the county were represented all showing excellent reports. Sedalia Union is only a very few months old, but its numbers work like veterans. Corresponding secretary's report was quite encouraging, but here as elsewhere the great need is more thorough organization. One new Union and one reorganized, two hundred and one members in the county. Treasurer reported good balance in treasury. Superintendents' reports showed a decided advance in most lines of work.

Well written papers, vocal solos by Mrs. Nora Coulter and little Queen Maxwell and fine recitations by Gracie Osterday and Mrs. Emma Sayler added much to the interest. The L. T. L. is in splendid condition. Their exercises, consisting of songs, recitations, etc., were received with great enthusiasm.

Miss Hadley was made chairman of the Institute and the program as published closely followed. The first thing taken up was the six essentials of a Live Successful Union. After thorough discussion led by Mrs. Balch, it was decided that the six essentials are: 1. Consecration. 2. A prepared program. 3. Advertise well. 4. Careful well kept records. 5. A strict use of parliamentary law. 6. Be "up to date." Some of the greatest hindrances were thought to be, want of courage and lack of faith in desired results.

Mr. E. H. Staley, formerly editor of one of our city dailies and a teacher of many years' experience, was present throughout the Convention. He reported in detail all the proceedings for one of the daily papers, also joined the Union as an honorary member.

The Convention voted to furnish each of three newspapers with yearly subscriptions to both Union Signal and MESSAGE. Also endorsed plans for stirring campaign, life membership, department fund and "Nothing impossible for Indiana." Mrs. Harriet Steckle of Mulberry, prepared and served a fine salad, which seemed to put everybody in a good humor. It was good—but not to eat.

Miss Hadley's lecture, "The relation of the Church to the Saloon," pleased all who heard it. On the second evening, a medal contest, with an unusually fine musical and literary program, was the attraction. The medal was awarded to Mrs. Emma Sayler and second prize to Miss Georgia Wines.

MRS. FLORENCE E. VANCE, Press Supt.

NOTES.

Sixty-seven counties have W. T. P. A. agents.

Whitley County is the only one whose every Union has a W. T. P. A. agent.

Thirty-one counties held Conventions and institutes in April and May.

Mrs. Lucy Thurman, Michigan Superintendent of the Colored People's work for the National, will visit Indiana the first and second week in September. Towns wishing this work for their colored population should write the secretary of the Bureau at once for dates. Mrs. Thurman's terms are entertainment, expenses and a collection.

To avoid debt it is absolutely necessary to have one hundred orders for record books before we can get them printed. Those who ordered early are kept waiting by those who are slow to order.

Order your receipt and order books from Mary E. Balch, (new number) 1112 Central Ave., Indianapolis. Price, 10 cents each.

Try the word contests and help Winona and Acton Park Assembly Unions.

One hundred and seven contestants have sent in a two cent stamp where are the other 3999 more or less, who wear medals. Get five new members and receive a copy of the "Do Every thing Policy" Double your membership and receive a free lecture from the Central Committee, or they will decide who will give the lecture.

When every member of your Union takes a copy of THE MESSAGE, you are entitled to a copy of the Union Signal for a year free. Write the State Treasurer to whom the paper shall be sent.

Every Union must give attention to this. I want the name and address of each Union's president and secretary. If you sign the quarterly blanks as you should I will have them.

Mrs. Mattie O. Cammack recently spent a week in Morgan County and left genuine enthusiasm behind her.

THE MESSAGE.

Official Organ of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Indiana.

"NOT BY MIGHT NOR BY POWER, BUT BY MY SPIRIT."

Vol. I. No. 8.

INDIANAPOLIS, JULY, 1897.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION, $.35 PER YEAR.

ATTENTION.

This is the last call through the MESSAGE, for the L. T. L. Convention. Before another issue reaches you the third annual meeting of the Legioners of Indiana will have passed. The success of this meeting depends largely upon you. O, sisters lend your influence in this great cause for the young and "come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty evil."

If you cannot be present in person let us feel your prayers. We want all L. T. L. leaders and all graduates to be sure to make an effort to attend.

Marion, July 8th and 9th.

We will be disappointed in not having Miss Wintinger with us, but Mrs. McWhirter will fill the place very creditably.

AMANDA R. GORDON.

TRUANT OFFICERS.

Before our compulsory education law goes into effect this Fall, every county in Indiana will have TRUANT OFFICERS appointed. Let every white ribboner who reads these lines consider the advantages of having women appointed to fill these places. Women are the proper persons to do such visiting of parents as will be necessary, influencing children, etc. Mother-hearted women will be needed. The County Supt's of schools and City Supt's of schools will have much of the appointing power. See these immediately—before to-morrow if possible—and get them to pledge their consideration or favor of women. The Local Council of Women of Indianapolis is largely responsible for this law. All women's clubs should urge the appointment of women. Urge it now.

PRESIDENT'S NOTES.

The Central Committee decided that any person obtaining five new members to her Union and sending the Treasurer's receipt for the dues for each, should be given a copy of Frances Willard's "Do Everything." The names will be put on an honor roll on first page of the MESSAGE. Send me your names and treasurer's receipts. Who will be first?

Send in an account of the work done in your Union that the readers of the MESSAGE may be encouraged. Don't wait, send it in now, it will then come out in August issue.

Mrs. Clara Hoffman, President of Missouri W. C. T. U., will lecture at Winona the evening of July 20th, (W. C. T. U. day), and at Acton Park, the evening of July 21st. Every Christian man and woman should hear the woman whom English audiences greet with great enthusiasm.

Has your Union paid dues for as many members as it had at this time last year? You don't know—you no doubt want to visit the Treasurer any way so please spend an afternoon with her next week and find out how many members have paid dues. When a sister cannot pay her dues don't fail to make her feel your need of her efforts and prayers. We need women more than money.

Do you sometimes get discouraged? If so, consider that Indiana is a pivotol State politically—few county papers in the whole State give us favorable mention. The subject of temperance if agitated would greatly injure either of the great political parties, so all must be silence. The ministers are frequently forced to silence. The young people's church societies have little encouragement to discuss the temperance question. Much work is therefore left for the W. C. T. U. to do, we cannot do it all, but let us take advantage of every opportunity and do all that we can.

No State can boast of a better corps of State Superintendents than Indiana. With appreciation and pride I have written to our loved leader, Miss Willard, and other National Officers telling them of our very efficient State Supt's. They have worked faithfully and well, if their reports to the National for this year do not indicate much work being done in Indiana, it will be on account of the failure of the local Unions to send their reports. If you are a Supt of a Department in a Union, you have a work "that no other can do"; as you value this work be faithful, be prompt.

NATIONAL CONVENTION NOTES.

The wife of the Governor of North Carolina has recently joined the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and has tendered the ball-room of the Executive Mansion to the ladies of Raleigh for Christian work. The local Union is planning a parlor meeting to be held there soon. Mrs. Upham, wife of the ex-Governor of Wisconsin, is a white ribboner and holds the office of National Superintendent of the work among lumberman. Mrs. Governor Richards of Wyoming is also an active worker in Woman's Christian Temperance Union circles.

Mr. George V. Foreman, President of the Fidelity Trust and Guarantee Company, has consented to act as Treasurer for the National W. C. T. U. Convention at Buffalo. Seats for the session are already in demand. One thousand of these will be reserved and sold at $1 apiece. Mr. Ainsworth, of Ainsworth Bill fame, will deliver an address on Scientific Temperance on the evening set apart for that important matter. A three days' conference on Purity will precede the Convention under charge of Dr. Mary Wood Allen. Dr. and Mrs. Kellogg of Battle Creek, Mich., and Anthony Comstock of New York will assist in the conference. The new Convention stationery is adorned with a buffalo's head and the motto, "Onward to victory." A large Music Hall, not yet completed, will probably house the Convention. Professor Joseph Mischka will drill the choruses. He is organist of the Delaware Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, and one the finest organists in the State. Buffalo women are undertaking a great thing, but will not falter; they are used to taking care of large assemblages and have no misgivings whatever as to their ability to make the Convention a success.

Miss Frances E. Willard is spending a few weeks in Atlantic City N. J., and hopes to avail herself of the fine opportunity for cycling while there. Her great improvement in health is an encouragement to her many friends. A just recognition of this noted woman will be given by a bust to be placed in Northwestern University, Evanston, of which she was at one time Dean. Lorado Taft will execute the work, which is a gift of Mr. J. C. Shaffer, a young business man of Chicago.

Everyone interested in the work being done by women in the United States, whether she be a member of the W. C. T. U. or of any other large organization of women, will be glad to hear that Harper's Bazar has recently opened a department which covers frequently two pages, devoted entirely to the interests and work of women's clubs. The opening of this new department is only another sign that the extensive work of women has at last made such an impression upon the general public that the great journals of the country are beginning to devote extensive space to it. The Bazar issues this department every week, giving notice of meetings, Unions, conferences, of work done at these conferences, and plans of yearly work in special fields. The problems that are set before the W. C. T. U. are to be considered, as well as those that are before other societies, and it appears to be the endeavor of the editor of this department to give as general review each week as possible. A recent number contained a somewhat lengthy notice of the biennial Convention of the World's W. C. T. U. mentioning the distinguished visitors who expected to be present and advanced plans of the Convention.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

PARLOR MEETINGS.

We have no State Superintendent but some unions do hold parlor meetings and we want to report such to the National Superintendent and please answer the following questions and send report to State Cor. Secretary:

- How many parlor meetings have you held from Sept. 1st, 1896, to Sept. 1st, 1897?
- How are they conducted?
- What has been the growth of public sentiment induced by these meetings?
- How many members did you gain?
- How many Honorary members did you gain?
- Are you forwarding the work by frequently holding these meetings?
- If money was raised state the amount.

WORK AMONG THE MINERS.

I desire the following questions answered by the Superintendent of work among miners:

- Name of mining Company or Shaft.
- How many miners are employed?
- How many homes visited?
- How many visits made this year?
- How many of the men, women and children are Christians?
- How many conversions this year?
- How many miner's wives are members of the W. C. T. U.
- How many miners and their children in Sunday School?
- Have you a Mercy Band?
- Have you a night school?
- How many Bibles have been distributed?
- How many pages of literature distributed?
- How many religious meetings held?
- How many saloons are in reach of your men?
- Keep an account of all visits made, number of pages literature distributed, number of conversions among the men and families. In fact all the items of interest, and send to me so a correct report can be made to the National Superintendent.

Ellen K. Denny,
State Supt.

JAIL AND PRISON.

There never was a time that there was such a need of active work in the jail and prison as the present. Through this department of work in the W. C. T. U. the nation has been aroused to the necessity of prison reform. The cry of the Soul is being heard and men realize to save a man, his Soul must be cared for. This department is for that purpose. Every county should have a superintendent whose business it should be to conduct or see that a Gospel service is conducted once a week in the jail, furnish papers and books for the inmates, circulate the total abstinence pledge cards at every meeting. I should like an answer to the following questions from every Supt. in the State.

- What use have you made of the press in the interest of this department?
- Have you secured the assistance of pastors and other Christian workers?
- Are you visits kindly received by officials?
- Have you used pledges if so how many signatures have you obtained?
- Have you provided a library?
- Have you found men, women and children in the corridors or halls.
- If so have you made the fact public through the press and reported the same to State Board of Charities?

- Do you hold service in the jail on the Sabbath?
- Do you correspond with the men sent from your County to the penitentiary?
- Do you assist the discharged prisoner on his return to your County from the prison?

Ellen K. Denny,
State Supt.

FAIRS.

DEAR CO-WORKERS:—Do you realize the season for Fairs is almost at hand? If your plans are not all made do not delay, commence at once, not forgetting the most important part of our work is in distribution of temperance literature.

Let there be of temperance papers no stint. Notably the "Union Signal," and our State paper for women, the "Patriot Phalanx" for men. Have a large supply of any state temperance papers.

In addition, have plenty of agricultural papers. There are several of these last, that issue a large extra addition every year for gratuitous distribution at fairs. Get a catalogue from the National Temperance Publishing Society in time to make selections from their list for your orders. Send to the W. T. P. A. office for the leaflets issued by it, especially those that are of a practical value in carrying on W. C. T. U. work.

You will then have a full line of literature with which to reach all classes. If it is done in connection with a dining hall, or refreshment stand it can be given from the cash counter but not by the cashier. Some one who is quick to discern character, or who is well acquainted with the people. In every case let there be sufficient force to relieve those in charge of this work often enough to save them from being so weary that the pleasant smile, and courteous words that are necessary accompaniments to it are no longer possible.

Booths should be made as attractive, and gay as possible. Many coming from farms, and smaller towns, will bring lunch with them, invite these into your booths to eat and rest, while they are doing this give them thoughts that will bear fruit in their lives. St. Paul says "I am made all to men that I might by all save some."

Let the amount taken in dollars and cents be a secondary consideration. But let our strongest work, and highest aim be done for the blessing of human misery, and the redeeming of our fair land from the loathsome curse of intemperance and sensualism. And my dear co-workers, what ever you do report to me, we have been so far behind in reports from this department yet I know much work has been done. I want you all to have credit for your work this year and you will have it if you report to me promptly.

In faithful service,
Ada B. Leck, State Supt. of Fairs.
Cor. Capital Ave. and 18th.

WORK AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE.

A colored sister writes: "There is a white union here but if they have done any work among the colored people in the four years I have been here I do not know it. I am not condemning them at all" and goes on to ask for plans, etc., to help the people or overcome the evil effects of the saloon. A faithful county president writes me, enclosing a letter from a young colored woman who did not know of a state supt. of this department, who says: "The moral condition of the colored people in this city is, indeed, deplorable. Intemperance and immorality in every form, are seen on every hand. A very few young women of us are aroused to the terrible condition of things and are anxious to do any little that may be in our power to save, at least, some of the younger class. We know not what is best to do nor how to proceed," etc. A young colored teacher writes, "We are having scientific temperance twice a week, have had a few temperance stories and songs. I hope to carry this work much further." Mrs. Reynolds, supt. of this dept. for Marion Co., held a very successful contest the evening of May 21st this city. Mrs. Disette, her assistant, in April, organized a colored union in Irvington with ten members. They now have seventeen active paying members and hold regular meetings which Mrs. Disette attends with them. They have held a public meeting and attended Mrs. Reynolds contest in a body. The sight of their happy faces and white ribbons caused us to thank God and take courage. Mrs. Horn, local supt. in Meridian union, with her assistants, Mrs. Mathews and Mrs. Brand have, shown their faith by attending meetings in colored churches explaining different phases of our work and securing many pledges.

Mrs. Wright of Greensburg writes cheering news of one contest held, another forming to go into the country and speak. also of a Sabbath afternoon meeting in a church with a number of signatures to the pledge, they expect to have Mrs. Thurman when she comes. Marian, Grant Co. has a colored L. T. L. working and hoping to help give the glad welcome to Mrs. Thurman when she visits them. Other counties have colored women attend their local meetings and County Conventions. Sisters get ready now for Mrs. Thurman. She rests July and part or all of August, so will be with us the first weeks September. See Mrs. Balch's mention of her terms, etc. She will be a blessing to us all. I ask however that you will plan to give the colored people the preference in fixing dates and places of meetings. They, as well as we, are proud of our National supt. of this department. Help them to make this their glad day.

Next year when we put into the hands of colored teachers, ministers and others, copies of our state minutes to enable them to learn more of our principles and plans of work we shall want to show them a record of work done among their own people which will make them feel that this is their cause as well as ours. Will you not, therefore, please keep a record of your work, be it ever so small or ever so great and send to me by the middle of September? Write sooner, if you can, that I may know what is being done. I may not have space in the Message again so please do not fail to report. Many are helped by hearing of work done by others. Let them hear from you. M. E. Sims.

34th and Central Ave., Indianapolis.

RECORD BOOKS.

At this date, June 30th, I have just fifty-five orders. I counted them. Fourteen of the 55 have sent their money and they are not waiting gladly now for their books, needing them as badly as they do, and as every Union does. But what can I do. I could return their money but they can't buy the book elsewhere. Why don't I send the books? I have none and can get none prepared for our use until I receive 100 orders.

Will not county and local officers attend to this at once and have the Unions order? Do not send money until you receive the book and then send at once. Thirty cents for local and 50 cents for county books. Dear co-workers against rum and ruin, give attention to this important call and let us finish this piece of work and get at something else. Any member in the Union can attend to this and speak of it in the first meeting of the Union.

MARY E. BALCH.

A hint for making the W. C. T. U. a popular organization in the community may be found in an account of the "third annual white ribbon banquet" given by the Union at Waukegan, Ill. Two hundred plates were provided and all taken. The church parlors were beautifully decorated and the flowers on the tables were carnations and sweet-peas. One of the pastors read an original poem, another made a felicitous address. Good music and toasts completed an enjoyable evening. This annual gathering makes good friends and sentiment for the organization.

W. C. T. U. summer schools are now well in hand. From five days to two weeks are given in nearly all Chautauquas and camp meetings for temperance teachings. A conference of five days at Chautauqua, N. Y. closes August 4th, with an all-day platform meeting, Miss Frances E. Willard and Mrs. Margaret D. Ellis of Newark N. J., Superintendent of Legislation, being the principal speakers. Mrs. Katharine Lente Stevenson, National Corresponding Secretary, has charge of the entire conference. Mrs. Ella A. Boole, of Staten Island, and Mrs. Frances W. Graham of Lockport, N. Y. (the singing evangelist) are to assist on the program at Cuba, N. Y. temperance camp meetings. The W. C. T. U. school of methods at Tully Lake, N. Y. August 11th. to 18th. is in charge of Mrs. Helen L. Bultock of Elmira, N. Y. assisted by Mrs. Bertha Morris Smith. Mountain Lake Park, Md., has for many years had W. C. T. U. conferences, this year they are in charge of Mrs. N. R. C. Morrow, president of West Virginia and covers dates from July 24th. to 28th. Bay View, Mich. as for many years past will be in charge of Mrs. Louisa S. Rounds assisted by Miss Helen L. Hood, who has recently returned from England. W. C. T. U. days at Ocean Grove are July 6th, and 9th, and Mrs. Emma Bourne, President of New Jersey is in charge. Kentucky Chautauqua at Lexington is led temperance day by Mrs. Helen M. Barker, National Treasurer. Every state has its quota besides those mentioned.

If our friends will consider the above they will save themselves disappointment and unnecessary trouble.

HADLEY NOTES.

The Treasurer of the Board of Trustees has recently made a visit to the Hadley School. She writes: "Everything is moving smoothly. Milking nine cows, have three hundred and fifty chickens, a very fine garden and nearly a thousand sweet potato plants out. The family is in good health."

Possibly the Marion County Horticultural Society will visit the School soon in August. If we are so favored we desire to have as many of the friends as can do so meet them and spend the day on the farm. If arrangements can be made notices will be given in the city papers, also in county papers and every one who is interested in the School may consider this an invitation.

VALLEY MILLS.

The elocutionary entertainment given by "Baby" Squires at the Friend's Church, June 5th, was only fairly well attended; but those present were more than pleased with the talent shown by the little four-year-old.

The pieces recited were those that are usually given by older children, yet they were given in a manner that would have been complimentary to the most talented elocutionist with years of training.

In boy's costume she recited Orphan Billie, also, gave the part of a bad boy with his mother at the museum, both afforded great amusement. While giving the pantomime, "Rock of Ages", the audience seemed spell-bound, not the slightest sound could be detected in the room and all eyes were directed to her as she passed through the verses of that beautiful song. Enough cannot be said in her praise, before the audience had dispersed the question was raised, "Could we get her again?"

Mrs. Squires, the mother, also gave two recitations of much merit and won the favor of the entire audience.

She is at present engaged in the W. C. T. U. contest work in Morgan County and is meeting with great success. Speed the day when we may claim her in that work in Marion County.

(Baby Squires and her mother visits Acton Park W. C. T. U. days, July 21st, 22nd, 23rd.—Ed.)

STIRRING CAMPAIGN.

Proceeds of contests in this campaign must be sent to the State Treasurer, Mrs. Amanda T. Whitson, 1745 N. Meridian Street, Indianapolis, Indiana. Ambia, Amboy, Alexandria, Moore's Hill, Loogootee, Morgantown, South Wabash, Martinsville, Brooklyn, Tarlton and Central Unions of Indianapolis, have already reported. Loogootee sends $12.80, the largest amount received from any one contest.

Brooklyn wrote in particular of Mrs. Squires' services and of the contest as being their best.

The following is an extract from a letter to Mrs. McWhirter:

Pulaski County Sunday-school convention has just been held here at Francesville in the opera house, which is very large, it has been crowded at every meeting for three days.

I wanted to do something for the W. C. T. U. during the convention and tried to get our Union to have a delegate to represent us and our principles. This they failed to do so I appointed myself.

I interviewed the County President of Sunday-school work also the State workers present and asked for a place on the program which was granted.

Our women were a little cautious fearing I would be too radical. When my time came to speak the house was packed. I saw before me many Christians who opposed our work. Now was my time. I was aroused. What I said I scarcely knew. I forgot myself and the objectors. I tried to show the teachers and all workers the need of more temperance literature and more effective temperance work in the Sunday-school.

God be praised for the strength He gave me, before I was through many eyes were filled with tears. A good woman near me who would not even attend our Mother's Meetings wept like a child.

After the meeting, two ministers came to me and said they wanted to wear the emblem of white and be members of their home Union; one was very young. God bless our boy preachers they are getting out on high ground and clinging closely to our Savior. A Mr. M— arose in the convention and invited me to go to Pulaski and organize a Union. I am going. Star City Union will go in a body and help me. They will hold a contest. Do pray for me.

ALLIE ANDERSON.

Meetings of intense interest and large numbers have been held in many Texas cities, welcoming Mrs. Charlton Edholm's return to the Lone Star State 120 new members have already come into the white ribbon army. One of the most encouraging signs of the times is the deep interest the ministers of all denominations exhibit in this purity work, hundreds of pulpits being placed at the disposal of the W. C. T. U. and the Florence Critterton Missions. In several places every minister in the city has attended the evangelistic addresses and have given earnest words of God-speed to the work. Secretary Waite has invited Mrs. Edholm to present the Florence Critterton Mission work at the State Y. M. C. A. Convention in San Antonio and then she will visit the great International Convention at Mobile, Alabama.

Our National W. C. T. U. received hearty invitations from Buffalo to hold the next Annual Convention there. Not only from the Central Union, but from the churches and other organizations of Buffalo, the Mayor, City Council and from Governor Black of the great State of New York.

Great progress has been made during the past year by the British Women's Temperance Association. The annual convention recently held was very largely attended. Our Vice Pres. at large, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, Pres. of Maine was in attendance, a brilliant reception was given in her honor.

From several places our women are planning to attend the World's Convention at Toronto October 23-26 which will be immediately followed by our National Convention at Buffalo N. Y. Oct. 29 to Nov. 8. If possible arrange to go. Rent of rooms will be cheap and we can take lunch with us.

Full statistics concerning cigarette laws and the quantity of tobacco and cigarettes used in this country during the past year are being compiled by Mrs. E. B. Ingalls of St. Louis, Superintendent of narcotics for the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Mrs. Ingalls has just been appointed a member of the state board of Charities and Corrections. This is a new departure for Missouri, as the Board was created by the last Legislature. The appointment is a well merited recognition of Mrs. Ingalls' ability, and a tribute to the society to which she gives her time and talents.

Mrs. E. C. Shupp, Fremont, reports their County Convention for June 9th and 10th. Mrs. Vella Lewis, Angola, so long the very efficient and faithful County President, because of ill health resigned. The County did not put any one in her place but each will try to fill the gap and pray and wait for her recovery to once again resume her leadership. Mrs. Shupp thought a long term of service merited a rest and wanted to resign, but her co-workers could not consent, and Mrs. Shupp is still Corresponding Secretary of the County.

Morgan County has been very much favored in having Mrs. Ida L. Squires, of Martinsville, to superintend and drill her medal classes. The work has been full of merit aside from its helpfulness along reform lines. The record for the county for the last ten months is sixteen silver and one gold contest, with two gold arranged for July 3rd, at Bethany Park.

We can all begin to look for a word to the time when we shall come together to report the harvest of the year and plan for the next year's service. Ohio lends us her well beloved sister, one of their stars, Mrs. Trego—South Dakota although far away sends to us the eloquent Mrs. Emma Cranmer who took people by storm when she visited us last spring. Then our State on the East never allows any one to do better than Illinois and says we may have Miss Anna Downey in the interest of Christian Citizenship—Perhaps you look incredulous and hardly believe this—think it to good to be true—but unless some providence prevents it will be true.

Battle Ground is to resound to the clash of arms in the White Ribbon ranks. Unless a disappointment comes to us, Mrs. Clara Hoffman will lead the rank and file a very general to conquer. The camp meeting opens July 29th and closes Aug. 9th. Our W. C. T. U. days are Saturday July 31st, and Sunday August 1st. Now let all our people go on Saturday and remain until Monday morning. Keep the Sabbath and do all the possible good we can. Mrs. Josephine Bennett 108 N. 8th. st. La Fayette can give you W. C. T. U. information about this meeting. For board, cottages, etc. address A. Jones, Battle Ground, Ind.

One of our departments Christian Citizenship was left with the State Secretary. All the rest but one has been heard from in the columns of the Message and we hope that in no way has this sister felt herself excluded and we still hope to have her enter the wide open door.

Lake County President, Mrs. Abbie Frances B. Church, Crown Point, has been kept very busy in charge of the noon day prayer meetings in Willard Hall. Mrs. Henry has been there for a brief stay and Mrs. Church takes her place again and resumes its responsibilities and blessings. Mrs. S. M. I. Henry in her "Voice of the Home" made herself immortal and that is but a small part of her good deeds done.

Mulberry, Clinton County, sends in $10 for the Stirring Campaign.

Unions may continue to send in proceeds of contests to be added to the sum total for the Stirring Campaign, after June 30th, but the State cannot award premiums to any reporting after that date. The printed plan stated the campaign closed June 30th.

Material for the MESSAGE can be used as early as the 20th of every month, but it should all be in by the 28th. If not it cannot be used and is to old for the next issue as a rule. Consider the size of the paper. Articles a column or half column long should be very rare and of special interest. Condense. When you have written your report and filled three or four pages, read and rewrite and get it on one or two.

County and Local Unions.

"No chain is stronger than its weakest link."

A DRILL ON OUR ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1896 FOR THE UNIONS.

Q.—Name our Resolution Committee for next year. (See page 59.)

Q.—What support was given to next State Convention by resolution—or was it made as a By-Law—and what has each local Union to do about it? (See page 42.)

Q.—What offered amendment to constitution in regard to who shall compose the Annual meeting, and what do you as a Union think about it? (See page 46.)

Q.—What was said about local, County and State Superintendents in regard to pushing their special lines of work? Has your Union tried the plan and recommendation? (See page 53.)

Close this drill by reading the resolutions and plan of work adopted. (Page 58 and 59.)

MARION COUNTY AUTOGRAPH QUILT FOR THE STATE FAIR.

Unions who are not doing the needle work for their representative blocks, will please send names (plainly written) and money to Mrs. Ada B. Leck, 1801 (new number) Capitol Ave., at your earliest possible convenience. Those who are doing their own work, kindly have ready, and send not later than the last of July. And bear in mind, 15 cents must be allowed for material of each block which is paid from your treasury.

For faithful service,
ADA B. LECK.

1801 N. Capital Ave.

The West Indianapolis W. C. T. U. held a reception at the residence of Mrs. Eliza Copenhaver, 898 W. Morris St., on the evening of May 14th, in honor of the public school teachers of that part of the city. Our State President, Mrs. McWhirter, and State Treasurer, Mrs. Whitson, were present. Mrs. McWhirter gave a short speech showing the advantage the teachers have in the great work of the W. C. T. U. Copies of Mrs. Hunt's "School Physiology Journal" were distributed as souvenirs of the occasion. H. S. M.

FLOWER MISSION DAY.

Mapleton and Broad Ripple Unions visited the Orphan's Home. A short program was much enjoyed.

Indianapolis Meridian Union went in large numbers to the Work House where they were cordially received.

Lawrence Union sent a money donation to the Door of Hope.

Indianapolis Central visited the Home of the Friendless and the Door of Hope.

Valparaiso Union put 135 bouquets in the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. dining hall of the great Normal college. A bouquet to which was attached a text-card tied with white ribbon placed beside each plate for somebody's boy and somebody's girl. More such work should be done in our schools and colleges.

Mrs. McWhirter's Junior Epworth League visited the City Hospital and the Colored Orphans' Home. Two hundred bouquets were distributed, gospel songs sung and Leaguers benefitted.

The Irvington Desette Union, (colored) composed of earnest, Christian women visited the Colored Orphans' Home, leaving many bouquets and doing much to cheer the children.

OUR MESSAGE.

What about our paper? Well, it comes monthly. That is an objection. But our experience is a monthly paper is all we can pay for. Thirty-five cents single subscription and 25 cents in clubs of 12, would not pay for a weekly paper; it would take a subscription list of three or four thousand.

It has no literary merit? No, it only aims to be a medium of communication on business lines pertaining to our work.

You have no use for it? No, only those who are interested in the plans and methods of the departments, the field, the summer assemblies and the many things pertaining to our cause would have.

It is published in the interest of the work and workers and not the general public.

Our workers, with only an occasional exception, say they find it very helpful and exactly what it claims to be.

Each number bears more than one reading. They are invaluable to keep us in line and quicken to see and take hold of present duty.

Grant County is making a quilt. Marion County quilt is growing.

Hendricks County quilt will have several Hadleys on it we presume.

Warrick County Convention at Boonville, June 30th and July 1st.

West-side Union, Logansport, has organized an L. T. L. of 75 members.

Loogootee Union sent $12.00 for Hadley School. Result of Stirring Campaign.

Rev. Mattie O. Cammack at this writing is filling a few dates in Howard County.

The Anderson Y quilt will be a work of art. Girls always make things beautiful.

Much interest is manifested in Mother's Meetings in the Carthage Union. Fine indication.

A number of counties will begin work on the quilts as soon as the Stirring Campaign is over.

Benton County quilt will be beautiful. Don't fail to see it when you attend the State Fair.

Freelandville in their Stirring Campaign contest cleared $10, and took 72 signatures to the pledge.

Life Membership No. 2, Dubois County, Portersville, Mrs. M. E. Sherritt at the solicitation of Mrs. M. L. Hobbs.

Greensburg Union is constantly increasing its membership. Will it be the largest in the State at our next Convention?

Benton County Unions are well informed on W. C. T. U. work because they read the Union Signal and are taking the MESSAGE.

Bourbon Union has many subscribers to Mary Wood-Allen's "New Crusade." The Union is arousing the motherhood of the community to action.

Decatur County President says she thinks Miss Brehm lifted our work up in the minds of the church people as it has never been before. She and Mrs. Boole gave them a better opinion of the work.

Frankfort W. C. T. U. sends a copy of the Signal and MESSAGE to each of the city editors. They also bid fair to have the largest club for the MESSAGE of any Union in the State. A large increase of membership is reported.

Mrs. Retta Jones, the ever wide-awake County President of Madison County, is inciting the Presbyterian Church to run an excursion to Winona on W. C. T. U. day. Why not some one else go and do likewise for any one, or all, of our summer assemblies.

Henryville, Clark County, through the M. E. minister, calls for a W. C. T. Union, and Mrs. S. M. Shelt, Jeffersonville, Superintendent of the State Department of Systematic Giving, has been called by the County President, Mrs. Sharp, of Charlestown, to organize them.

Under the brave leadership of Miss Eliza Baker, the W. C. T. U. of Benton County has made much progress, the county executive is a competent body of influential, earnest women who plan broadly for the work. Stirring Campaign and Autograph Quilt plans adopted. Life membership will be urged.

Sedalia Union is testing the Nicholson law in remonstrating against saloons coming there. The Press Reporter writes, "We know the proper way to do, is vote them out, we will try, by using such law as we have, to demonstrate that is the only way." (None are so blind as those who will not see.—ED.)

Laporte, Lake and Porter counties held a joint convention at LaPorte, in May. The local papers gave excellent reports. Michigan City reported 43 conversions in the last six months in our northern prison, the result of our white ribbon sisters labors. No workers outside of these counties were present.

Monroe County held a two day's Convention and Institute at Bloomington. A very neat printed program helped to advertise the occasion and the County President writes very hopefully. The Corresponding Secretary, Miss Urnery, resigned and Mrs. M. E. Dodd, East Second St., Bloomington, was selected to fill the place.

Boswell Enterprise gives a column or more space weekly to the Benton County Press Superintendent who in co-operation with the Unions at Talbot, Oxford and Otterbein and Boswell secures the W. C. T. U. news items and keeps the columns filled. Thus Benton County citizens are informed in regard W. C. T. U. work in their midst.

Mrs. Ida Mix, Press Reporter, wrote that Howard County Institute and Convention was one of the best ever held in the County. It met at Phlox, May 20th and 21st. We could not find room in the June MESSAGE for the well written report and now fresher news permits us to give only this brief mention of it. Home workers occupied the entire program.

Sedalia Union had an ice cream and strawberry festival June 19th. The net proceeds were $12.81. Twelve dollars of it went to pay our attorney for helping us to get rid of our saloon. We also have a wall pocket in our depot well filled with literature. Miss Brehm's second visit to Sedalia was enjoyed even more than the first and she added to her circle of friends and admirers and won friends to the cause.

The President and Corresponding Secretary of Adams County paid a visit to Geneva and made house to house visits in the interest of a lost Union. The women at Geneva went to work, reorganized with eight members and in a little time increased to fifteen. Nine paid dues this quarter. This county and Allen held their Convention at Decatur and Geneva was well represented. The county voted to pay the $1.00 membership fee.

Sullivan County convention, held at Sullivan, May 14th. Mrs. Bierhaus, Vincennes, and Miss Lodie E. Reed, Indianapolis, assisted the home workers. At 3.30 p. m. the children of the city schools were invited to listen to a lecture on "Bread and Beer," by Miss Reed. Evening program, "A Gold Contest;" Miss Mattie Shidler, Merom, won first prize; Willie Deboe, Sullivan, second. Mrs. Hattie M. Harper, the County President, has high ideals and labors to reach them.

A high compliment was paid to Alexandria Union by some one in writing up that city for "The Weekly Press," in the issue of April 9th. The article closed thus:

"Another interesting feature which may be mentioned in this connection is the lunch stand located just inside the factory gate, which has been profitably operated for some months past by the local Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The white ribbon ladies not only conduct a business which pays them, but it has proven a great convenience to the operatives while the management would be unwilling to have it removed."

Albion sends in good reports, writes the County Treasurer. Ligonier prays for the work and the State officers and hopes they in turn pray for the Unions. All Unions have the most earnest prayers of the State officers. It may be we do not pray enough, but such timely appeals must remind us to pray more, and the condition of the State over-run with licensed saloons, aimlessness and crime should stir us to fearless activity. Prayers and works. La Otto and Wawaka are still at work and Noble County ought to come high up on the roll. It is to be regretted that Kendallville and Rome City take a rest. They have the prayers and good wishes of all who know their helpfulness in the past. I wonder who mustered them out of service, who signed their discharge papers? Island Park will have W. C. T. U. representation of some kind this year. The workers have the matter in hand. The Superintendent of Summer Assemblies will be glad to receive a copy of the program.

Unions needing order or receipt books can get them of the State Secretary, 1112 Central Avenue, Indianapolis. 10 cents a copy.

Send to Mrs. Fannie Calkins, Portland, for copies of Indiana Anti-cigarette Law, at 10 cents per hundred. Furnish these to all the Sunday-schools. Wherever practical furnish copies for Sunday a. m. church service and to Endeavor and Epworth League Societies. Our Christian men will urge the enforcement of this law.

The lack of good music at a medal contest has been supplied by Mrs. Carmen in the happy thought of affording a chance to musicians to compete for a "musical medal." The selections may be instrumental or vocal; the contestants will be marked on time, execution and general effect. One medal has a silver lyre, the other a gold lyre set with rubies. Another aid to the interest taken in the medal work is the prize offered to the "second best" contestant. This is a year's subscription to the "American Home Magazine" presented by the publishers.

LETTER FROM NATIONAL PRESIDENT.

DEAREST SISTER:—If we wish the Prohibition Party to put Woman's Suffrage in its platform we must from this time on use our influence to have it do so in every county, district and State Convention. Anything short of this will leave the party unimpressed and uneducated, or on the other hand it will be educated by those who do not wish this to be done. Eternal vigilance will alone bring about the result for which we have so long prayed. I should recommend some such resolution as this:

Resolved, That we believe the ballot for women to be one of the surest methods of securing and maintaining prohibitory law, and for this reason we incorporate that principle in our platform and urge all conventions of the Prohibition Party to do the same.

Resolved, Also, that we believe the earnest and repeated request of the White Ribbon women should be heeded, that the party should be called Home Protective Party, to bring out the home and its protection as the central idea of the temperance movement.

Believe me yours ever sincerely,

FRANCES E. WILLARD.

The Temple, Chicago, June 21, 1897.

JUNEAN, ALASKA, JUNE 25, 1899.

DEAR MESSAGE:—On the 15th of May I said good-bye to all I hold dear in Hartford City and was soon whirled away to the great city of Chicago, where I spent a most delightful week, and where I for the first time had the pleasure of visiting the Temple. I was in the Willard Hall noon meeting three days and found them deeply spiritual meetings. One day the dear old saint, Amanda Smith was with us. What an atmosphere of inspiration, to mingle our voices together in praise to the "Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world." The days were all too quickly gone and I again must say good-bye to loved ones and on May 23rd, 11:30 p. m., we took the C. B. route for St. Paul. After waiting two hours at the above named place, we again start on our western trip over the "Great Northern" a magnificent route, full of interest from start to finish. We pass through the famous Lake Park region of Minnesota and Fergus Falls, crossing the Red River at Fargo, North Dakota. We continue west across North Dakota and Montana. At Galata mountain, 1038 miles from St. Paul, the first view of the Rockies is had, 115 miles from the summit. It is with feelings of awe we view the grim mountains with towering rocks and fields of snow while the railway track winds along like a snake over rivers and through tunnels. The trip over the Rockies and down into the flathead valley is an ever changing panorama of splendid views. We cross Idaho. The Washington state line is reached at Newport, there also is Albana Falls. Miles and miles of romantic ride, over canyons, gorges, rivers, through tunnels too, and over the Cascade mountains via the marvelous switchback. The interest of the traveler never flags all the way down the west side along dancing rivers, waterfalls, sky-piercing peaks and giant trees to the cities Snohomish and Everett, where the tide water in Puget Sound is reached and Seattle where the train meets ships for Alaska.

We were met at the station by Miss Cawley and Mrs. Samenson the latter the Co. Cor. Secretary, and were escorted to the church where County Convention was being held, introduced, greeted with the Chautauqua salute, made a little speech, was cheered and had a very pleasant time with those consecrated women.

On May 29th we sailed for Junean, Alaska. There are a variety of things to wonder, to admire and to ponder over. You can scarcely realize the fact that the waters you are sailing over are the salt waters of the Pacific Ocean, or that you are having the pleasure of a sea voyage without being obliged to wrestle with that much dreaded monster, sea sickness. Such was our experience, though in crossing Queen Charlotte Sound quite a number were sick for a few hours only. At Ft. Wrangle we stopped for two hours made a tour of the town, called on the minister, interviewed him with regard to temperance work, but received little encouragement. Visited the totem poles which are made by cutting down good straight tree, dressing and carving them with figures of birds, Indians and other fantastic shapes. After they are finished they are raised on end before the owner's hut and great value attached to them.

After a very delightful sail of five days we reach Junean, said to be a very wicked city, but I have met a number of good Christian men and women and the utmost kindness from both pastor and people.

At my second visit to Douglass Island, about two or three miles across the channel, I organized a W. C. T. U. Have lectured once here and held one gospel temperance meeting also led one Christian Endeavor, when the topic was temperance. Thirty-one have signed the pledge. The work has been commenced. Hope to organize a Union soon. Just received a letter from Belle Kearney who is headed this way, for which we are very glad, thinking we may answer for a sort of John the Baptist.

Yours for the Master's work,

MRS. S. M. STAHL.

HARTFORD CITY, JULY 12, 1897.

DEAR MESSAGE:—Our Union feels much honored that our president was selected for a National worker in Alaska. She went away leaving us sorrowful and our prayers have followed her.

For many years she has unflinchingly labored in the cause of temperance and purity answering each call of duty with zeal and alacrity and when the National Committee called her to the broader field, she was prepared by her long service in all departments, to accept this new responsibility, and do the work given her in the best possible manner.

We shall be glad when she is safe at home, but regret that she cannot spend a year in that important field.

Yours in love,

L. D. ANDERSON,

Co. Press Supt.

FLOWER MISSION.

I see that very little Flower Mission work has been reported, and as our Loogootee Union has had an awakening and seems to be aroused to the importance of the work will tell you some things we have done. Before Flower Mission Day I distributed twenty-five copies of the Flower Mission number of Union Signal. The program for the June gospel temperance meeting consisted of readings explaining the work. A parlor meeting was held with a Flower Mission program.

We sent one hundred and eighty five bouquets tied with scripture verses, to the Southern reformatory at Jeffersonville. The Union there presented the flowers for us, and held three services at the reformatory on that day.

Every individual member does some work and reports each month to the local superintendent. A blank book for reports is taken to each meeting.

The reflex influence of this benevolent work is something remarkable. When one sees the pale faces of the poor and sick brighten as we come with a message of love, in the flowers and books we bring them. We can feel that the tiny offerings make some of God's creatures happy and we are better workers in the W. C. T. U. when each member feels that she can do something, and this is so easy and pleasant to do.

The Martin County Tribune published at Loogootee, allows the W. C. T. U. half a column in every issue of their paper. The editors of this paper are two young gentlemen.

Yours in the work,
GEORGINA MOSER,
Ass't State Sup't.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.

DEAR SISTERS:—Trusting that you have kept a careful record of the Evangelistic work done during the year, I send the following questions that suitable report may be presented at our State Convention, and printed in our annual minutes:

Has your Union an Evangelistic Superintendent?
How many Unions in your county have Evangelistic superintendents?

Have you received a copy of the National Superintendent's Hints and Helps?

How many copies have been sent out to the Unions?

Are you and your Unions growing in spirituality and using the helps thereto?

Have any Communion Circles been formed?

How many observe the Trysting Times?

Do you hold, in your Union, a weekly meeting for conference and prayer and temperance enthusiasm, and is this separate from the business meeting?

How many are pursuing the course of Bible Study, of the American Institute of Sacred Literature?

Has there been in your Union a revival of interest in Evangelistic work, and a renewed consecration and Bible study?

Have you had Bible-readings as suggested by the National Superintendent? With what result?

Did your last County Convention observe the hour from 11 to 12 a. m. as a season of devotion and Bible exposition?

Have you continued the campaign in the Churches?

How many Church services have been held under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.?

How many sermons preached by pastors? How many meetings addressed by women?

In how many were collections taken for the Union?

How many pages of Gospel Temperance literature have been distributed during the year?

How many Unions have inaugurated the system of Co-operative Evangelistic work, outlined in our Hints and Helps?

How many visits have been made by each Union?

Mention results, incidents, etc.

Have Gospel Missions or District Conferences been held?

How many, and with what results?

Have Crusade Bands been formed, and with what results?

How many Gospel Temperance meetings have been held?

How many in prisons, jails and penitentiaries?

How many in almshouses?

How many in halls?

How many in cottages?

How many mother's meetings?

How many in school houses?

How many on ships and in forts?

How many out-door services?

No. of conversions?

No. of Bible-readings?

No. of pages of literature distributed.

How many signatures to the pledge?

Has your Union held or participated in Evangelistic Conferences, Days of Prayer, Normal Institutes, or similar services? Give report of such.

Please report any Evangelistic Work done by your Union, not included in the above questions.

Please do not in any case give an indefinite answer to a question. For instance, it will not do to answer a question in such words as "some," "not many," "a few," etc. We must have figures. If you are not able to be exact, please give approximate figures. We are sure you will do all in your power to make these reports a success.

Will each County Superintendent secure answers to the questions from every local and county Union and send the SUMMARY ONLY to the State Superintendent? Will she also add a brief letter giving her outlook over her County, and report of personal work during the year?

Will the County Superintendents please give the above list of questions their prompt personal attention? Where there is no County Superintendent will the County President look after it?

Yours truly for good work and good reports,

ELLA J. DAVIS,
State Sup't.

IN THE FAR NORTH.

The Alaska Searchlight, published in Juneau, of date June 26th, has the following concerning Mrs. W. M. Stahl, of this city:

"Quite a large and appreciative audience listened to Mrs. Stahl's temperance lecture at Trinity church last evening. The exercises were opened with a scripture reading and prayer by Rev. J. H. Condit. Rev. Beers made an address of welcome and then introduced the lecturer. Mrs. Stahl was chosen district organizer for Alaska, at the national convention of the W. C. T. U. held at St. Louis last fall and it is upon this mission that she has come to Juneau. She is a pleasant and forcible speaker whose whole heart is in the work. Thursday afternoon she spoke at Douglas City and organized a society of temperance workers, some seventeen or eighteen in number. She will probably deliver another lecture here in the near future and organize a society, after which she will visit Sitka and Wrangle, then she will leave for Chicago on the Queen July 30th. On her return she will be accompanied by Mrs. E. C. Stahl, who will spend several months visiting friends at Deer Lodge, Mont., and in the east.

STATE L. T. L. CONVENTION.

Convention was held at Marion.

Forty-one graduates in the State this year making over 150 in all. Frankfort with a graduating class of five took the prize banner last year. Dunkirk, with a class of 13 took it this year.

The new officers are: President, Fred Christman, Wabash; 1st Vice-President, Carl Cammack, Marion; 2nd Vice-President, Lottie Bruner, Argos; Cor. Sec., Lizzie Lenfesty, Marion; Rec. Sec., Fred Carter, Westfield; Treasurer, Ira Boyer, Frankfort.

Departments: Flower Mission, Mary Driver, Dunkirk; Literature, Frank Watson, Argos; Medal Work, Emma Weimer, Argos; Mercy, Georgia Wines, Frankfort; Narcotics, Jessie Straw, N. Manchester; Fred

Carter, Westfield, for his people (colored). The last two departments were added this year.

Mrs. Gordon presented a plan of study for the graduates which was adopted. Very excellent papers were read by Mrs. Emma Saylor, Frankfort, and Miss Clara Sears, Y Secretary, Anderson, on "Purity," Lottie Bruner, of Argos, on "Mercy," and one by Fred Carter, which was published in the "Phalanx." The Medal Contest, conducted by Julia Overman, of Marion, by a class of six, ages from six to eight, was very inspiring. Letheld Halm received the medal, Louise Marsh took second prize. The street parade was fine. The boys were in their glory shouting the yell in front of newspaper offices.

Chairmen of committees: Resolutions, Jessie Straw, North Manchester; Credentials, Jennie Saylor, Frankfort; Finance, Ina Boyer, Frankfort; Courtesies, Lizzie Lenfesty, Marion.

A telegram of greeting was received from New York L. T. L. in convention, signed by Miss Anna Gordon, World's Superintendent of L. T. L. Secretary instructed to answer by letter. The convention was held in Dr. Driver's church and he was a most cordial helper.

Mrs. McWhirter, our State President, gave a very spirited address 'mid all that burning heat. Miss Lizzie Lenfesty, of Marion, made the address of welcome, and Mrs. Balch gave the response. Visiting delegates were quite numerous and in comparison with like meetings in the past, very helpful, but the attendance from Marion small.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That we recommend to the membership of the Unions of Crawford County, our State paper the MESSAGE, and our National paper the Union Signal.

That the Crawford County W. C. T. U. congratulates the members of the "Good Citizen's League" of Marengo, for their faithful work in endeavoring to enforce the "Nicholson Law" and urges every town in the county to organize for the enforcement of law.

That in the death of Mr. John S. Williams, one of Alton's most enthusiastic honorary members of the W. C. T. U. We have sustained a great loss but we remember that our loss is his gain. We tender kindly words of sympathy to his bereaved family.

The W. C. T. U. of Crawford County asks the ministers of the gospel and all Christian people to unite with them in a more active crusade against the liquor traffic the coming year.

That we thank the ladies of Marengo for their kindly hospitality during the convention session.

That in the death of sister America Martin, we have lost one of our most zealous workers and a most estimable Christian lady, but our loss is her eternal gain. We tender our sympathy to her bereft mother and sister.

That we tender our sincere thanks to Mrs. Denny for her presence and good work hoping that she may by permitted to be with us again in the near future.

That we tender our sincere thanks to the Alton delegates for their presence and efficient work. May we all prove faithful to our work and to our God.

MRS. DR. FELZER,
CLARA HOLLCROFT, } Com.
SUSAN ROBERTS,

In the death of Mrs. Saylor, the W. C. T. U. has lost a valued friend and worker. She was a noble character. Her circle of acquaintances was large, for she accompanied her husband to Washington during his services in Congress and on frequent journeys of recreation and pleasure and was with him when he acted as one of the committee of revision of the confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church. She took great interest in the suffrage and temperance questions and at times has held offices in each of the State associations.

Mrs. Lillie McCormick, of Freelandville, Knox Co. sends money for the MESSAGE and says: "They cannot do without the State paper at all." If every member of the W. C. T. U. of Indiana felt that way and would subscribe for it our membership would be doubled before the close of the year.

Ohio State W. C. T. U. Convention passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is the judgment of this executive board that no woman is eligible to office in the W. C. T. U. who takes neither the Union Signal the State paper nor the State minutes.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL NOTES.

Three years ago on the 17th of August, the building on the Hadley Industrial School Farm was dedicated. This year there will be an excursion and picnic on the anniversary of the dedication to which all friends of the institution are invited. Such an occurrence will not often take place, so do not miss the opportunity to visit the Home and see for yourselves what is being done. Bring your baskets if you wish but if not convenient to do so a light lunch can be procured in the dining-room. The girls will be prepared to serve you with ice cream and refreshing drinks that will quench your thirst but not muddle your brain.

Friends, do yourselves a pleasure by taking a day "off" to visit a beautiful place where you may enjoy a social time with old friends and make new acquaintances.

From Indianapolis the rates are as follows: For fifty (50) or more, 75 cents; for one hundred (100) or more, 65 cents; for two hundred (200) or more, 50 cents; all to go together. Tickets good returning on any train for two days. Leave Union Depot on the 7:30 a. m. train.

WHEN SHALL WE STREW THE ROSES?

As we go to press our Corresponding Secretary, who has served as Editor in Chief for the MESSAGE throughout the year, is out in the State looking after our work in Summer Assemblies and doing other field work.

She has done much work during the year in addition to the regular duties of her office from which Indiana W. C. T. U. is reaping a two-fold benefit.

First in the way of awakening interest and building up our ranks.

Second, in the way of replenishing our treasury, not only by the membership added, but by turning the compensation she receives into the treasury which is applied on her salary after having been earned twice. This plan was adopted by the State Executive Committee for uniformity and in order that Unions especially needing help from the Secretary might call on her on the same terms other State officers receive, and so that the demands for her services might not be made greater than she could respond to on account of their being gratuitous. The same plan was adopted for our Treasurer who is also a (lightly) salaried officer and who has done double the work of her office in handling the MESSAGE fund and this in addition to her field work.

These facts are given in answer to the inquiries of those who want to be intelligent in regard to our work and are not intended to discriminate in favor of any one or more persons, for the same appreciation and gratitude is due every faithful, energetic worker.

If we knew how, we would like to make this more than a mere business statement, for some time in the future, whether it be far or near, there will be a memorial service in which the names of our self-sacrificing workers will be tenderly and appreciatively mentioned and tears will come to our eyes. But we do not wish to reserve all the roses for this one service.

May Indiana W. C. T. U. duly appreciate now, and make known its gratitude for what is coming to it by sacrifice and loyalty to duty by its energetic workers all along the line.

In California, Oregon and Washington, I find that the Union which holds the respect and confidence of the community is the Union which takes the greatest number of Union Signals, has an intelligent comprehension of all our far-reaching work, always sends delegates to all conventions and is pushing its educational work along all the lines. I have so far found no exceptions to this rule, it is unvarying.

CLARA HOFFMAN.

Mrs. C. S. Burnett, of Ohio, who has just returned from a lecture tour through Florida, says she can never tell how hard it is to work in a State that has no State W. C. T. U. paper. Is not the same thing true in regard to a county or Union that does not take the State paper, when there is one. It is not only hard for the speaker to work but it is hard for every member of the Union to work. Think what you owe to yourselves and to the cause, dear sisters, and send in your clubs.

Lulu Hayworth, formerly of Hendricks County, but now of Shipley, Florida, writes: "Unions and Legions organized and thus our cause is spread as birds carry seeds."

Portland is thinking of using a musical medal soon.

July 20th, Loogootee Union gave a social in the interest of our Fair Cottage.

Bloomington ministers hold union temperance meetings on Sunday evenings.

County and Local Unions.

"No chain is stronger than its weakest link."

LIFE MEMBERSHIP.

The plan was adopted by the Executive Committee in March. Clinton and Dubois counties have taken one each, and as State Secretary I have been trying to make two, by asking county presidents to send me 30 cents from their own pocket or from the county treasury. I have received on this about $4.50. Dear sisters, don't you want to help organize the State? Can't you help work this plan? Will you? Then I asked our secretaries to send me 10 cents each, and $5.00 is the amount received. I mean State, County, Local Corresponding and Recording Secretaries. If any one holds more than one of these places, a dime is all she is expected to give, but we want all to give. Will you? It means more Unions, more light, more power.

LECTURES ON PURITY.

I met Mrs. S. E. Kalley, founder and locater of the Hartwig Kalley Orphan Girl's National Home, on the cars. She is crossing our State on the line of the Lake Erie railroad and wishes to lecture on Purity, and she will write to our county presidents. Dear sisters, use your own judgment in the matter. I did not want to be like the disciples who forbade a worker they met, and in telling Jesus, he said, "Forbid him not, for he that is not for me is against me." As far as I know this sister will do us good.

Do not forget the 1st and 2nd weeks of September will soon be with us. It is the time of Mrs. Thurman's visit in the interest of our colored people. Her first work is at Marion. Anderson needs her. Lafayette should engage her at once. Indianapolis is ready for her. Every local Union should avail itself of Mrs. Thurman's most reasonable terms—entertainment and traveling expenses.

"WORD PRIZE" FOR ACTON.

Mrs. S. Saunders, of West Indianapolis, received the first prize and Rebecca Hessong, Broad Ripple, the second, while the third went to Mary R. Kelly, Nashville, Ind.

"WINONA."

Mrs. Emma Saylor, Frankfort, won first prize and Jennie Jessup, Westland, second, and the third to a member of the Central Union.

Members of the Bethany Park Assembly Union are hereby notified that there will be a meeting of this Union at the Park, August 6th, at 2 p. m., to elect officers and arrange for a program next year. We hope the officers will be present and bring the books.

MARY E. BALCH,
State Sup't Summer Assemblies.

AN EXPERIENCE IN FAVOR OF TITHING.

We called on a rich man for a small donation to our work, who does not tithe. Under the pressure of hard times he feared he could not give. He seemed distressed, and we felt ashamed to add to his burdens. We called on a poor man who does tithe, for the same purpose, and he gave double the amount of the rich man, and did it with joy and thanksgiving. And we rejoiced too.

We need Record Books. Send in your orders. Do not send your money until you get your book, 30 cents for Local Record Book, 50 cents for the County Book. Must have one hundred orders before I can get them printed. Seventy Unions are waiting for the 30 slows ones. Hurry up. Do read this pathetic call and order at once.

Medal workers please take notice! The certificates are so full in their make up, I will not need to send out report blanks, it will be only an added expense. I can make my reports from the certificates.

MARY E. BALCH,
State Sup't.

WINONA ASSEMBLY.

W. C. T. U. day at Winona met our expectations. An Assembly Union was formed with 56 members.

A good constitution adopted and officers elected. Mrs. Mary A. Leavitt, Vernon, President; Mrs. Remington, South Whitley, 1st Vice-President; Mrs. S. N. Crouse, Lafayette, 2nd Vice-President; Mrs. K. T. A. Straw, North Manchester, Secretary; Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, Elkhart, Treasurer. Six subscribers to our papers taken and over five thousand pages of literature distributed. Forest Cartwright, Portland, won the diamond medal and Mrs. Nellie Keenar, Cincinnati, won the second premium, a year's subscription to the "American Home Journal". Mrs. Hoffman, Kansas City, Miss Sharp, Ft. Wayne, and Mrs. Mattie O. Cammack, acted as judges. Baby Squires entranced the audience and Mrs. Squires won golden compliments. They gave color and richness to our program here and at Acton Park, too. A pour down rain at the time of the evening meeting made things damp. Notwithstanding, a fair audience greeted our sister, Mrs. Hoffman, who talked for over an hour to very attentive listeners. Some of the Unions represented, Indianapolis Central, Marion Central, N. Manchester, South Whitley, Churubusco, Burket, Warsaw, Goshen, Elkhart, Argos, Plymouth, Bourbon, Piercetown and Lafayette. Nature and man at Warsaw have conspired to make the place beautiful, and have succeeded well.

ACTON ASSEMBLY.

Our three days at Acton Park pronounced a success. We more than doubled the membership. The W. C. T. U. cottage looked neat and homelike and afforded lodging for several. While several made use of the dining-room and kitchen, and fully one hundred and fifty registered. The program proved a success, every one came to time. No disappointment except in not seeing our President, McWhirter, and Treasurer, Mrs. Whitson, and the Treasurer of Marion country. She was detained by the sickness of her husband. While our State officers were in line of duty at Bay View, Michigan, and our loss was some one's gain.

Mrs. Hoffman's subject was, "What Hinders", and it proved to be strong meat. She says, "The conscienceless politician is the worst man we have to deal with."

In the boy class for gold medal James Gipe, Indianapolis, won the medal, and Robbie Tomlinson the magazine. In the Matron's Contest, Mrs. Rebecca Hessong, won the medal and Mrs. Cammack the magazine, and the rest of the class and the judges received the cabinet photograph of the State Sup't. Dr. Dashiell, Rev. Weaver, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Addah L. White, of Oxford, acted as judges.

Miss Sears, Secretary of Y Branch, Mrs. White, Sup't of the Department of Scientific Temperance Instruction, Mrs. Martha L. Gipe, Sup't of Mothers' Meetings, Miss Mary Hadley, of Normal Institutes gave strong, helpful service in their especial lines. So much interest manifested that the time for discussion was extended. Mrs. Jennie Bates, Martinsville, and Mrs. Cora J. Frijs, Indianapolis, had charge of the music and were invaluable. Miss Birdsall, of the Pentecost band, sang touchingly and stirred all hearts. Our fraternal delegates were a marked feature of the program. Rev. Hogans of the I. O. G. T's sent a splendid letter with regrets; an accident hindered his coming. Mr. Watson, Indianapolis, delegate from the Prohibition Club of that city, spoke for some thirty minutes with power. Rev. Nelson, of the Pentecost band gave very helpful words.

Officers for the year are: Mrs. Weaver, Indianapolis, President; Mrs. Hana, Indianapolis, 1st Vice-President; Mrs. Alexander, Whiteland, 2nd Vice-President; Mrs. Phebe R. Curryer, Indianapolis, Secretary and Mary A. Tarlton, Indianapolis, Treas.

Some slight changes were made in the constitution. I heard several say that Mrs. Cammack's address on "The Saloon Keeper's Ledger," equalled Mrs. Hoffman's address in some respects, and each made a ballot. If we could believe that home talent would make an acceptable program we would very much lessen the financial burden and do an equal amount of good.

The resolutions were printed in full in the "Phalanx". The main thoughts were working for woman's suffrage in our next legislature. Giving the Ys one evening on next year's program, and inviting the State L. T. L. to hold its convention the first day of the Assembly Union at Acton Park. Unions represented, Shelbyville, Fairland, Greensburg, Franklin, Whiteland, Martinsville, Oxford, Marion, Anderson, Plainfield, Bloomington, Hope, Columbus and the several Unions of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Nellie Baker, President of Wabash county, has recently organized a Union at Dora.

SEDALIA UNION.

Sedalia Union held its third contest in Geetingville, July 13th, in the Presbyterian church, it was very good. There were only six contestants, their ages ranging from ten to fifteen. Ethel Shafer the one who received the medal, was only ten years of age. Miss Anna Boaworth won second prize, the others received Testaments and all were well pleased. Am very sorry to add that we have a saloon here after all our trouble and expense. The only plea they had to offer was that we did not present our petition soon enough, but we did. They opened up last Wednesday with free lunch.

ELLA BOYD,
Press Reporter.

Duff has just held a small gold medal contest.

White county holds her convention at Monon, August 12th and 13th.

Anderson holds Mother's Meetings monthly and reports large attendance.

Anderson Y has planned to give a trolley party for the benefit of Fair Cottage.

Miss Hadley and Mrs. Jennie E. Bates are working in the interest of our Industrial School.

Morgan county is entitled to a week's work and Allie Anderson will very likely do the work.

The W. C. T. U. and Prohibitionists of Middlebury, Elkhart County, has driven two saloons out of their town.

Elkhart county always comes in the lead in finance. A good sum is being collected for the county quilt to be sent to the State Fair.

Dubois county is entitled to two weeks work for her Life Membership, and they would better take Mrs. Anderson when she is so near them.

Montpelier Union observed the Day of Prayer, called for in the July MESSAGE. This Union has several most excellent and faithful workers.

Miss Hadley makes the address for Shoals, Loo-gootee, Freelandville and possibly Mooresville. She goes to them (one of the State officers) for sending in $10 to our Industrial School in response to the "Stirring Campaign."

Mrs. Allie Anderson gives Martin county her weeks' work in return for each Union in the county holding a contest as per call in "Stirring Campaign". She begins August 10th at Shoals. The county takes her for a second week.

County and local Sup'ts of Sunday-school work, much depends upon your efforts in your county and communities. What are you doing? Read account of Goshen Sunday-school rally. If Mrs. Daub can conduct a rally you can do that or something similar. Be up and doing.

Our President has place on the program at Bay View, Mich. Our Treasurer will spend a few days there, partly because she needs a rest and some change. We are proud to have them come before the workers of other states. We feel sure they will help others and will in turn receive benefit, and the cause be advanced thereby.

Mrs. Cammack speaks at White's Institute, Wabash county, August 1st, and will spend a few days in the county under direction of the county president. Beginning August 16th she works five days in Auburn Teacher's Institute. August 25th at Plainfield Teacher's Institute. September 1st, Walnut Ridge, and then a week in Hancock county.

Recently Mrs. Daub, of Goshen, County Sup't of Sunday-school work, conducted a temperance Sunday-school rally in the opera house. The large audience present was addressed by Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, County President, and Rev. Sawyer, of Goshen. To each person present a page or more of W. C. T. U. literature was presented. Great good will result from such a meeting.

Miss Sears has organized a Y Branch. She is very much in favor of Mrs. Ella A. Boole's plan of Y Branches in each Union. If the Y is a branch of the State why not of the Union. And each Union can have a Y Branch and have an added source of strength. Twenty minutes of the program given to this Y Branch would prove like flowers on the dinner table or grace at the opening of the meal. Not having all my mail with me, I can't give the name of the Union having this new Y Branch. But you will know if it is your Union and if not, better send for Miss Sears at once.

THE MESSAGE.

Official Organ of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Indiana.

"NOT BY MIGHT NOR BY POWER, BUT BY MY SPIRIT."

Vol. I. No. 10.

INDIANAPOLIS, SEPTEMBER, 1897.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION, $.35 PER YEAR.

"Tis easy enough to be pleasant
When life goes by like a song
But a woman worth while
Is the woman with a smile
When every thing goes dead wrong"

INDIANA'S SONG.

Indiana's heard the bugle,
O army, tried and true,
She is marching, she is coming,
To pledge her faith anew.
To pledge her faith anew
To live or die with you,
You may count on Indiana
Till stars fade from the blue.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

DEAR SISTERS:—The last quarter of our W. C. T. U. year is nearing its close. Looking backward I see your earnest faces, dear comrades, and realize the intensity of your purpose and the loyalty of your hearts. I ask myself the question, "have I done my best," and now I pass the question on to each of you. Have you done your best? The measure of each woman's best must be according to her opportunities and capabilities.

God called the Christian womanhood of this land to rise up against the destroyer of the sons of men—the liquor traffic.

The work of all was not expected to be measured by the same conditions. However less or more we do than others is not the balance; we must do the best according to our opportunity.

DEPARTMENTS.

That our State Superintendents may be able to make good reports to the National Superintendents, will each local Superintendent faithfully report all of the work done by the Union in her department?

All workers are requested to read carefully the Superintendents questions published in the February issue of the MESSAGE. If work in any of these departments has been done and there is no Superintendent will some member please report the same to the State Superintendent immediately.

STATE CONVENTION.

The State Convention will be held at South Bend, October 8th to 11th. Every Union is urged to send its full quota of delegates, President, one delegate at large and one delegate for every twenty paid members.

Now is the time to elect your delegates. If the money is not already in the treasury to pay the expenses of your delegates, please give immediate attention to a plan for securing it.

No Union can afford to fail in being represented at the State Convention. We need the presence, cheer and counsel of each Union's representatives and they need the influence of such a meeting.

MUSIC.

Each member is urged to secure a copy of the White Ribbon Hymnal and if possible see that each delegate to the Convention brings a copy with her or buys it as soon as she reaches the Convention.

Miss Willard greatly desires that Kate Lunden's beautiful "Star Spangled Banner" be sung in every State Convention this Fall. The words may be secured from the W. T. P. A. The tune is familiar to us all.

The National Musical Director requests that the selections found on the following pages of the Hymnal be used at our Conventions: Pages 10, 26, 34, 38, 86, 140, 159, 160. Let us become familiar with the selections, singing them in our Unions and in the County Conventions.

COUNTY CONVENTIONS.

Every member of the White Ribbon Army of Indiana should feel obligated to attend her County Convention and by her presence and prayers, if in no other way, help to make it a success.

Our County Conventions are not always largely attended, this is encouraging to the "liquor power."

For the sake of your homes and the advancement of God's kingdom, sisters, show your colors. Attend the W. C. T. U. Convention and each one of you who are a real enemy to the saloon urge some other woman to attend. Then go praying for a fresh baptism of the power of the Holy Ghost upon our work. Help to re-kindle the Crusade fire.

Sisters, the time for action is now. The W. C. T. U. will not amount to much in your locality until the membership stands like flint in opposition to the saloon power and boldly works for and stands by the cause of Prohibition. We can only hope for victory when our own membership will stand bravely in the front line regardless of personal preference.

Yours in loving service,

LUELLA F. MC WHIRTER.

RATES TO STATE CONVENTION.

Purchase regular first class ticket to South Bend, requesting railroad agent to furnish a certificate stating that such ticket has been bought. The certificate, when properly signed by Secretary at Convention will entitle the holder to a ticket for return journey at one-third the first class limited fare. See ticket agent early and request him to be supplied with certificates.

STATE TREASURERS LETTER.

Dear County and Local Treasurers:—Less than one month remains until the close of the year. Much work can be done in that time. Blanks have been sent to every County Treas. If they have not been received notify me by return mail. Please send them quickly to your Local Treasurers, that every Union may be heard from at an early date.

According to the action of the last State Convention the State Treasurers' books will close Sept. 25th.

This means promptness from every County and Local Union Treasurer. Mail is sometimes delayed. Send early that no Union may fail to be represented by the report coming one day too late. By active energetic work in the collection of dues, Unions will measure up to and many will surpass the membership of last year.

Many have reported more members during the first three quarters of the year, than were reported during the corresponding quarters last year. This shows an increased interest and is encouraging.

Some reports show a decrease in membership. Dear Local Treasurers please notice if a deficit occurs in your Union. If so spare no effort. The collection of dues is a part of your work. I know this means a sacrifice in many cases. As this is a work called of God will He not help and strengthen those who make the sacrifice? No good work was ever carried on without a sacrifice from His children.

Do not fail to collect dues from all the old members and add as many new ones as possible. I hope no one will say "We can't do it." The expression of itself is a discouragement to many. With Christ all things are possible. Pray do not yield to discouragements.

Childrens Harvest Home and Membership Crusade Day. The Birthday of dear Frances E. Willard, Sept. 28th, comes too late to be reported before the close of the State Treasurers books Sept. 25th. Hence every Union is asked to observe Sept. 9th instead. Will you not make a regular crusade for members that day. Plan the work systematically. Urge every member to secure that new member asked for in the beginning of the year.

Arrange for a parlor meeting in the evening and give the new members secured through the day, a pleasant reception. Light refreshments would add a neat little sum to your treasury from which can be drawn membership dues for those not able to meet this obligation.

The Sparta Union of Wisconsin has for several years observed an annual Thank Offering Day.

This year the offering was new members and besides 26 new members added, $19.00.

Will you not make this effort and report to me, when you send in your reports, the success of your efforts. Who will send the first and best report.

Dear Treasurers much depends upon your faithfulness in the collection of dues. A decrease in membership dues means a decrease in the amount of money spent in the different departments of work and consequently in the amount of work done.

Our State has no other regular fund upon which to draw for state work, except the dues. This is not sufficient to carry on the work that should be done. Beside the dues, most other States ask a certain sum from each Union for State Work.

As we have no other regular fund except the dues, you can see at once how necessary it is that none be left uncollected.

I am just in receipt of a letter from the National Treasurer, saying: "Do urge upon all Local Treasurers the great need of faithful work immediately in the collection of dues." The loss of membership in the State means a deficit in the National Treasury.

With a determined effort, born of God, in the hearts of our W. C. T. U. women we will work against the mighty stronghold of Satan, the Legalized Liquor traffic, and go up to our State Convention on the 8th of October bearing the sheaves of a more abundant harvest than has ever yet been reaped in Indiana.

May we not all be willing to do our part in this great work and God will do the rest.

I purposed sending a personal letter to each of the Treasurers but decided to have it printed in the "Message" and send a marked copy to each of you. Please have it read in your Local Unions.

Yours in prayerful service,

Amanda T. Whitson,

(New) 3335 N. Meridian St.

COUNTY PRESIDENTS.

Will County Presidents please notify Mrs. Amanda T. Whitson, 1745 N. Meridian St., (New No. 2335), Indianapolis, when and where your County Convention will be held, that copies of the State paper may be sent for distribution to aid in securing new subscribers for the paper. Only 25 cents in clubs of twelve. "Union Signal" and "Message" $1.10.

All quilts and other articles for the State Fair, must be sent in the first week in September, as entries close in the Art Department Sept. 7th.

Counties, Unions or individuals sending quilts or other articles will please instruct us as to the disposition of them at the close of the Fair. Shall they be sold to the highest bidder or be returned to those who sent them?

We hope many donations may be made; for it is possible, with your help, to pay off the entire amount. Will we not each one do our part and success will crown our efforts.

All expenses in connection with the articles sent are to be met by those sending them.

Mrs. Hunt, of Richmond, writes: "Count on Wayne County for a quilt for the Fair Cottage Fund if we have to stay up nights to complete it."

Many Unions and Counties write they will assist in money donations. Many are preparing quilts but have not reported their progress. We know they are faithfully at work and will report in time for the articles to be placed in the W. C. T. U. booth. As this will be the first exhibit as a W. C. T. U., let us make it worthy of the cause.

Marion Counties new colored Union, aside from doing their part on the County quilt, donates a handsomely embroidered lunch cloth, the work of one of their members. Not all of the white Unions in our county have done so well.

Anderson Y will give a trolley party, the proceeds of which are to be sent to the Fair Cottage Fund.

Membership Crusade Day, September 9th. Will you observe the day?

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

FRANCHISE.

Dear women, of Indiana, following the questions your State Superintendent of Franchise sent out in the early part of the year I send to you again by circular to your address asking earnestly that you give a full report of all that has been attempted and all that has been accomplished during the year in the Franchise Department returning the same to me by the 20th of September and oblige,

M. A. Tompkins, State Sup't.
309 S. Main St., Elkhart, Ind.

SYSTEMATIC AND PROPORTIONATE GIVING.

Dear sisters:—Very few of the local Sup'ts. of this department have responded to my call for a report of this branch of work. Besides urging you through the Message I have written to each of you twice. Let me urge upon the importance of our department and will you not immediately write in regard to your locality?

Yours in the work,
Sarah M. Shelt, State Sup't.
Jeffersonville Ind.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

Dear Superintendents:—Sufficient report blanks have been sent out to reach every Union in the State. Co. Sup'ts. be sure to see that the Locals receive the report blanks sent to you for them.

Please don't neglect to fill out blanks and send to me as soon as possible, my report must go to the National by Sept. 15th. Let us have figures to show what our department has done. Don't forget to tell me if you had a Sup't. last year.

Begin to plan for the observance of universal Sunday, the fourth Sunday in November, let us make it a day long to be remembered.

Yours for Reports,
Alice G. Geary, State Sup't.
730 North St., Logansport.

SCIENTIFIC TEMPERANCE INSTRUCTION.

On this date I send out blanks for reports of Co. Sup'ts., inclosing also for Locals.

Dear Superintendents, please fill out and return promptly.

Much work has been done in this department during the summer.

Miss Reed and Mrs. Cammack have a number of engagements for teacher's institutes

Both have given lectures for the department and I have filled all the engagements possible.

Please do not neglect to visit the teacher's normals and institutes, distribute literature and report what is being done.

Take subscriptions for the School Physiology Journal wherever possible.

Good State Reports depend upon good County Reports. Let us have both.

Yours in loving service,
Adah W. White, State Sup't.

FAIR WORK.

One month has elapsed since I sent out circular letters asking for aid for our Fair Cottage. I am sorry to say only a few have responded.

But with heart brimful of love, and confidence in my white ribbon sisters I cannot think this is an intentional neglect. You perhaps do not realize how necessary it is that I know before hand exactly what you will do, that I may plan accordingly. Or perhaps in these busy days you have forgotten. For I believe one and all are anxious to lift the debt from our Fair Cottage as I.

In 1892 the present W. C. T. U. Cottage was built on the now State Fair Grounds. Ten dollar notes were issued at that time, for the payment of the same.

These notes were taken by our own W. C. U. T. women, many of which have already been paid by receipts from the Cottage during the Fair. Others remain unpaid, and are long past due. These dear Sisters have waited long and patiently, and are now urging that these pledges be met at once.

These sweet pleading faces are continually before me. And I can never be happy until I can grasp their hand with that debt cancelled.

If each of you will assist me just a little, I believe this can be done at our coming State Fair Sept. 13th. Oh! will you not do it? And by so doing not only make our patient sisters happy but we will be happy, as we always are in doing right; Only a few days more remain in which you can do this before the Fair. If you cannot come send money.

MOTHER'S MEETINGS.

Dear Presidents:—As there are so few County Sup't. of the department of Mothers Meetings, I must call upon you to assist me in making my report which the National Sup't. is now urging me to send her.

A very large majority of the women of the Woman's Christian Union are Mothers, and we know they are intensely interested in this department of work, but for lack of a leader, some one to take up the work and push it, much practical work which might be done is left undone, and yet we believe there are few Unions where there is not some mother whose heart has gone out along this line of work, and some work has been done, our heart's desire is, to gather up all the threads and weave them in our report so as to show all the work which has been done.

Oh! Mothers of Indiana let not our fair state have a blot upon the pages of our National minutes, and surely if this most important department is not well reported, it will have. You may have your children taught Scientific temperance in the public schools or even have them graduated from the Loyal Temperance Legion, but it is what the child is taught in confidence, by the Mother, in the sacredness of the home, that will stay with the child and will bring forth fruit in after years.

No mother can be as well qualified to teach her children the important things of life, who does not herself come under the hallowed influence of the Mother's meetings, therefore no Union has done its full duty who has not taken up this department of work; I hear you say, there are so many departments of work, and the State Sup't. are urging that this department be taken up, and it is impossible to take up all, that is true, but what each Union ought to do, is to try to take up the departments of work which is most needed in their community, and surely no Union can say there is no need of Mother's meetings.

During the summer I spent several weeks at a Summer Assembly where there were many young men and women at and the imprudent actions I witnessed caused my heart to go out in this department of work more than it ever has, what Indiana, yes and I may well say our Nation, needs, is a thorough awakening of the Motherhood, it is a sad fact, that our sons and daughters get from under Mothers control altogether too early in life, there is no way to hold them only by having their perfect confidence, to gain this, Mother, you must commence in babyhood, and there is no place you will be so helped in doing this, as in the Mother's meetings, but we could go on and fill the entire paper giving reasons why every mother in the Union should take up this department of work, we feel from the depths of our hearts that this department has been sadly neglected by our organizers, we have the first one yet to hear from, who when they have organized have even mentioned the department of Mother's meetings, although they have in many cases killed the new born child by putting such a burden upon it, of work it did not understand and which did not appeal to the mother heart. I hope every mother whose eyes fall on these lines, whether she be Co. Pres. or not, who has done any thing at all along this line, no matter how small the doing, will write me, if you have given out one just one leaflet, or spent one afternoon in talking to your neighbors on this department of work, please tell me about it.

Below you will find a list of questions which you will please answer as fully as possible.

1st How many local Sup't. have you?

2nd How many Unions have taken up the work of this department, and give their names?

3rd How many have abandoned the work after beginning it?

4th How do you account for the lack or loss of interest?

5th At how many conventions, religious conferences, Teachers Institutes or other large gatherings has mothers meetings been presented?

6th How many lectures and sermons are reported as having been given in the interest of this work?

7th At how many Summer Assembly's has this work been presented?

8th How many leaflets or literature have been distributed in interest of this department?

9th How many meetings have been held for the cultivated women?

10th How many for the poorer classes?

11th How many have carried on a regular course of study?

12th What is the average attendance at these meetings?

13th What results if any, can be attributed to these meetings?

14th How many members have been added to the Unions through these meetings?

15th At how many of these meetings has our pledge and membership been offered?

16th What are the greatest needs of this phase of the work?

17th How many subscribers have you to the "New Crusade?"

18th How many of Dr. Mary Wood Allen's books have you distributed?

19th Report work of any kind done which would touch upon the lines of this department.

Hoping to receive an early reply to these questions, and thereby be able to send in a full report to our National Superintendent.

I am yours for the mother-hood and child-hood of Indiana,
Martha L. Gipe, State Sup't.
1730 Broadway, Indianapolis, Ind.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF INDIANA L. T. L.

Rah! Rah!! Rah!!!

We clover-blossoms are a-field
Why? Saloons must die,
Hear their knell,
Indiana L. T. L.

If you had been to Marion July 8th and 9th, and heard our girls and boys give their Yell with the enthusiasm of youth I think those children's Unions would go to work immediately to organize this branch. How can a band of Christian mothers neglect this?

The Convention was well attended and a grand success.

There were 43 graduates, an increase of 35 over last year.

With the new Legions organized this year we expect to have over 100 next year.

We added two new departments of work, Mercy and Narcotics.

The officers elected were:

President, Fred Christian, Wabash;
1st Vice-President, Carl Cammack, Marion;
2nd Vice-President, Lottie Benner, Argos;
Cor. Sec'y., Lizzie Lenfestey, Marion;
Rec. Sec'y., Fred Carter, Westfield;
Treasurer, Ina Boyer, Frankfort;
Organizers, Mrs. E. Saylor, Frankfort, and Mrs. J. Overman Marion.

Superintendents are: Literature, Frank Watson, Argos; Mercy, Georgia Wines, Frankfort; Medal Contest, Emma Weimer, Argos; Flower Mission, Mary Driver, Dunkirk; Narcotics, Fred Carter, Westfield, for the colored people and Jesse Straw, North Manchester.

The resolutions adopted will be given later.

Mrs. McWhirter was present during the entire meeting, lending enthusiasm and encouragement, and gave an excellent address the second evening.

The first evening was given to a medal contest under the direction of Mrs. Overman.

The class was composed of girls and boys of eight years. The successful one was little Miss Hahn whose elocutionary ability would do credit to one of mature years. The banner for largest class of graduates was presented to Dunkirk Legion having twelve. Who will win it next year?

The graduates are from the following Legions: Dunkirk, Mrs. Laura Bales, leader, 12, Fairmount, Mrs. Ella Haisley, leader, 10; Frankfort, Mrs. Emma Saylor, leader, 4; Indianapolis, Co. C, 1; Indianapolis, his Co., Mrs. Bogert, leader, 6; Marian, Mrs. Overman, leader, 9; Argos, Mrs. A. R. Gordon, leader, 1.

State Convention, South Bend, October 8th to 11th.

Now a word to leaders. You will receive report blanks soon which I wish you would consider a sacred duty, to attend to at once, and return to me filled, not later than Sept. 15th. I must make my report to the National Superintendent before our State Convention, and if each one is prompt it will give me time.

Begin now to collect dues.

We must have a representative at Buffalo this year and to do so we must pay into the National treasury $50 dues. That means $100 paid to me. That is only 1000 members surely Indiana has that many children worth 10cents each.

Graduates pay their 25 cents to the L. T. L. Treasurer, then sends 10 of that to me, 5 of which goes to the State W. C. T. U. Treasurer. All other Legioners pay 10 cents each direct to through their leader. Besides this there are prizes for dues paid.

One copy one year of "Young Crusader" for $3 paid. Two copies one year, for $5, and a banner to the Legion paying the largest amount over $5.

I wish that each Legion having a class of graduates would elect a Cor. Sec'y, and Superintendents to correspond with the State work and report the names to the State Cor. Sec'y, Miss Lizzie Lenfesty, Marion, and she will report the names to the State Superintendents.

The plan of work has been remodeled and will be printed with a full report of the Committee and Constitution and By Laws and sent out soon.

I hope each leader will errange to be at South Bend in Oct. and have something for L. T. L. Conferences.

"Let us reason together" and plan for the coming year that it may be better than the last.

A. R. Gordon, State Sec'y.

STIRRING CAMPAIGN.

We are pleased to say many have responded to the call of the Stirring Campaign for Hadley School. Some money has been sent in which will be a great help, but we believe there is an opportunity for much more to be done. We propose to keep this plan in operation so any and all may have time to do what they can.

There will be time to do something before convention as some contest classes have been arranged for already. Looking at the contest work we see much to commend it. The children love it. It educates them in appearing before an audience, which every pupil in public schools is expected to do. It presents a subject of the greatest importance for them to consider. Friends of the contestants are interested and imbibe good sentiments and lastly but not least it brings in something to help a worthy cause.

HADLY NOTES.

On the 17th of August we had a pleasant gathering at the Hadley Industrial Schools for Girls.

The day was delightful, the surroundings beautiful the refreshments palatable and abundant and, best of all, the company genial.

Short talks on interests connected with the farm and school were listened to with respectful attention.

We are happy to say that it was remarked by many that the most enjoyable pic-nic they ever attended.

There are improvements contemplated that will render the farm more productive and the grounds more attractive.

The children are in good health and show in their development the judicious management of those in charge of the Home.

The growing stock is fine and the chickens are multiplying by the hundreds. Money expended in poultry houses will more than pay all expenses in the increased productions of eggs and poultry for the market.

Women of this time do you see your opportunity for stamping your names upon a work that will go down to future generations an honor to the W. C. T. U. of Indiana!

Where in all of our country has an avenue for increasing usefulness like this been opened. Just think of the work so well begun and so nearly brought to a success. You can say truthfully "Beautiful for situation" and if you will just now make the effort to put the work upon a nearly a self-supporting basis as possible, you will also be able to add to the joy of the whole "State of Indiana."

Women, take time, consider this work and if it is worthy see if there is not a way in which you can do something to help. Just so long as we defer the small effort that is now demanded us it will be a burden, but just a little way ahead it will be a delight to look back on something accomplished that is permanent.

It is very encouraging to note the offers of help from men of means, and judgment, and generous hearts. It is our own fault if we do not avail ourselves of their assistance and put our work in a condition to command the respect of business men and women.

Sisters let us forget the faults, the mistakes, the criticisms, the discouragements of the past, and look hopefully on to the future and press vigorously to our goal, the uplifting of our Hadley Industrial School for Girls.

If any individual or Union has an Application blank filled please send it in at once. If it is not deemed best to fill it please return it with the copy of Rules. These cost money and must not be destroyed.

We are glad, very glad to know there is a prospect for farmers to realize more on their crops than in years past. The "hard-times" for them we hope will soon be a thing of the past.

JAMES MUSTARD'S PLAN.

The Hadly Industrial School's Third Anniversary. A picnic dinner under the wide-spreading trees. A program for brain-feeding, in the same grove, Prof. McWhirter, Indianapolis, presiding, and all went "merry as a marriage bell." The Pros and Cons of the probable success of the School was discussed in a friendly manner, and many helpful suggestions given. Mr. James Mustard said: "No need for a debt on an institution like this. Ask two thousand men for a dollar each, and the work is done. I myself will solicit the many cattle and machine men who visit the Fair, then if all your W. C. T. U's. will solicit as they can it will soon be a finished work." We suggest, use the county fairs for that purpose.

Don't fail to seize the opportunity and do let us all work together for once. The stirring campaign was excellent, if all had entered into it. The dollar membership plan was good but too many let it alone. The Century pledge worked well, but too few took the pledge. Now the question narrows down to asking two thousand men for one dollar each. Who will do the asking?

The ten inmates of the School make a very promising family, I wish all our poor homeless girls were as well housed. If the Institution stands clear of debt when the fourth anniversary comes around, we must make the occasion a memorable one.

A FRIEND.

TREASURERS NOTES.

The Sabbath at Ocean Grove W. C. T. U. Assembly grounds New Jersey was a day of complete rest. Not a vehicle allowed on the street, even the bicycle was laid aside. Church going was the order of the day. So writes Mrs. Forbes, W. C. T. U. President of Connecticut.

The new Constitution of Delaware has a section requiring an educational qualification for voters.

The wife of Gov. Brady of Alaska is W. C. T. U. president of that Territory and both are teetotlers.

By request of Rev. A. E. Carhart, Editor of The "Truth" Prohibition paper of South Dakota, and The Epworth Herald no longer advertises Hires' Root Beer. By analysis it is known to contain from one and a half to three percent of Alcohol. The W. C. T. U. every where should take a stand it.

Doubtless every one knows ere this that the State Conventions will be held at South Bend in the Northern part of the State. Let every Union in that part of the State make an especial effort to have at least two representatives in attendance that will go home filled full of W. C. T. U. enthusiasm.

Will County Sup'ts please be very prompt to collect reports from Local Sup'ts?

National Sup'ts all request early reports. State Sup'ts cannot comply with this request unless the County and Local Sup'ts do their part.

Will county Sup'ts. read the reports in State Minutes and see if your county is well reported? Many reports reach the editor to late too be printed.

Do not let this occur this year.

Amo Union stands first in the amount of money sent in through the stirring campaign.

The report came in after the type had been set announcing Shoals Union as the banner Union in sending the most money.

If the Message does not reach you, please notify Mrs. Amanda T. Whitson, 1745 N. Meridian St., who correct the mistake.

California has 3500 members and one half take the State paper. With a little extra effort all along the line Indiana can do more than that. Can we not all make the effort and bring the names and clubs to our State Convention.

MODEL INVITATION, "AUCTION SALE."

The W. C. T. U. invites you to attend an auction sale of valuable goods, including clothing, pictures, books, musical instruments, jewelry and bric-a-brac, at the home of the Hon. and Mrs. Mozley, Thursday, May 6th, 8 to 11 P. M.

Each guest is requested to bring a bundle of something to be sold to the highest bidder. The currency was beans in small cheese-cloth bags. The packages sold contained everything, from fans, aprons, suspenders, bon-bons and books to a set of false teeth.

There was a Musical programme and refreshments. Try the "Auction sale" if you want a jolly social.

WORLD'S AND NATIONAL CONVENTIONS.

One of the interesting features of the World's W. C. T. U. Convention to be held in Toronto, in October is the great Polyglot petition containing seven and a half million signatures and reaching several miles in length.

At the close of the Convention it is to be presented to the Canadian Federal Government. At the World's Convention in 1895, it formed a part of the decorations of Prince Albert Hall.

The Convention Committee, in behalf of her 10,000 Canadian White Ribbons sends greetings to her sisters of every land.

Delegates will be entertained free. Visitors will be entertained at about $1.00 per day.

Our National Convention will be held immediately after the World's Convention.

Visitors and delegates to the National are strongly urged to start a few days earlier and attend both. It's a rare opportunity and you can not afford to miss it.

Reduced railroad rates will be secured for the World's W. C. T. U. Convention at Toronto, Canada Oct. 23-26, and for the National Convention Buffalo, N. Y. Oct. 29 to Nov. 3rd.

Every white ribboner should urge the friends of temperance to attend these wonderful Conventions.

The regular railroad fare from Indianapolis to Toronto is $14.15; from Indianapolis to Buffalo $13.25. From these rates an estimate may be made of the round trip at one and a third fare which will most likely be granted.

Mrs. Yajima, the president of Japanese W. C. T. U., will be one of the interesting women of the World's Convention, and the promise that she would attend brought great gratification to the general officers and local Convention Committee.

Delegates to the World's Convention will not be assigned to any homes before reaching Toronto but will be met at the Station and escorted to Headquarters 56 Elm St. where arrangements will be made for their comfort. Arrangements are also being made for the entertainment of visitors who will pay on an average about one dollar per day.

The assignment of visitors will be made in the same manner as the delegates.

County and Local Unions.

"No chain is stronger than its weakest link."

ANNUAL REPORTS FOR 1897.

It was voted in Committee Meeting to ask State workers, Superintendents of Departments, Evangelists and Organizers to have their faces in the minutes, thinking it would add to their value and thus increase their use. The individual must bear the expense. $1.25 if ten cuts are made by the Indiana Illustrating Co., otherwise, $1.50. You can send photographs to the State Secretary, 1112 Central Ave., Indianapolis, at once, and she will attend to getting the cut (a half-tone). If you send cut it should be in by the 15th of September. Send cut to Secretary. The photograph used to make the cut can be returned.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE.

July 26th, Miss Clara M. Sears organized a Y of thirteen regular and two honorary members, at Shelbyville. She feels very hopeful of this Union. Officers are as follows: President, Miss Josie Little; Cor. Secretary, Miss Ida M. Dungan; Rec. Secretary, Gracie Ve Dill; Treasurer, Miss Kate Smith. Dear Unions, why not send for Miss Sears and keep her busy, she is very successful when you give her a chance. We need the young people and we must have them.

Island Park Assembly Union held a meeting in the W. C. T. U. pavillion on Thursday afternoon July 29th. Mrs. M. M. Dickinson, Wolcottville, in the chair.

A PLAIN TALK.

Our new Quarterly Blanks do not give you a place to report the pages of literature, because your Supt of Literature should report that to the State Supt of Literature. They do not ask for the number of L. T. L's or their membership that the L. T. L. Secretary should report to the Branch Secretary. Answer all the questions the blanks call for and you will have a full report.

VERY IMPORTANT.

Autograph quilts for State Fair must be sent first week in September as entries for art department closes Sept. 8th.

W. C. T. U. DAY AT ZIONSVILLE.

The W. C. T. U. day at Zionsville Camp Meeting, August 13th, was a success in every particular. The Union ladies had planned largely and wisely and spared no pains in advertising the meeting. As a result a large and enthusiastic audience greeted the speakers both morning and afternoon. The surrounding country as well as the town was largely represented by voters as well as non-voters. The platform of the auditorium was brightly decorated with the National colors, blooming plants and cut flowers. Rev. A. L. Crim, of Thorntown, spoke in the forenoon, subject, "The National Triangle which is formed by the Home, the Church and the State." Destroy either of these and the other two will collapse. The Saloon, a legalized institution, the arch enemy of all.

In the afternoon Dr. J. M. Driver, the fearless temperance orator of Marion, held the audience perfectly quiet, except during the applause, for two hours, while he delivered his lecture, "Whiskey Farces and Fallacies; or High License, Low License, or No License." At the close of this address, although quite late, steps were taken toward the organization of an Assembly Union and several names secured for membership. The bountiful repast served by the ladies during the noon hour was very much enjoyed by all. Notwithstanding our ride of fifteen miles over the dustiest road in Indiana, we felt well paid by the intellectual treat prepared by the W. C. T. U. ladies of Zionsville.

BATTLE GROUND ASSEMBLY.

Had an address by Mrs. L. M. Beck, Bloomington, Ind., on Woman's Suffrage. The large majority was in sympathy with the subject, and every one enjoyed the speech. Mrs. Balch gave a recitation. The officers elected were as follows.

Mrs. Emil Kelly, Battle Ground, Ind., President.

Mrs. Anna Levering, 8th and Union Sts., La Fayette, 1st Vice-president.

Pastors wives connected with the management are all Vice-presidents of this Union: Mrs. Josephine Bennett, 181 North 8th St., La Fayette, Secretary; Mrs. W. H. Bryan, 8th and Union Sts., La Fayette, Treasurer.

This Union has a large membership, though we failed to get the exact number. Membership fee is 25cts.

At the State Convention our Memorial Services for our promoted comrades will take place on Sunday afternoon, and will be in charge of our Vice-President, Miss Mary Hadly, Bloomington. Names and any incidents to be mentioned connected with the deceased should be sent at once to Miss Mary Hadley.

Committee on Resolutions as appointed last year: Mary A. Leavitt, Vernon; Cornelia Meadows, Evansville, Lizzie Dunlap, Franklin; Lavina Bailey, Spiceland; Rebecca Trueblood, Kokomo; Frances Boyer, Frankfort; Belle Freeman, Lawrence. Send in your resolutions to any member of the committee with the full understanding that the committee will use its judgement about accepting them.

Andrews held a contest July 31st.

Elkhart Co. W. C. T. U. will hold their County Convention at Elkhart, September 21 and 22. The State President, Mrs. L. F. McWhirter, will give them a lecture on the 21st inst. There will be a grand march with flags and banners and band music before the lecture. The second evening, Dr. Thomas will give a lecture on the nature and effects of alcohol on the human system.

Mrs. Anna C. McKinsie read a paper at the Thorn-town Grove meeting entitled "Woman's Kingdom—yesterday, to-day and to-morrow."

Mrs. L. M. Christ is disabled for active service by a sprained ankle while she is recovering from this painful accident, she proposes to manage a contest.

At North Judson the Methodist minister preached against the W. C. T. U. He is not the first minister that made a mistake and many people do not know their real friends. White Ribbon sisters, God overrules all such things for our good.

Friday morning 5 o'clock Aug. 24, "Mrs. Ella B. Stout, of Greensburg, received honorable discharge from labor and has gone beyond to reward. Mrs. Laura M. Thompson writes, "I witnessed the end of awful sufferings. Oh how we shall miss her."

The local press of Wabash speaks very complimentary of the Matron's Contest in which Mrs. H. Kidd, President of the Local Union won the medal. Who next?

Mrs. M. L. Hobbs, of Ireland, has been dangerously ill, although hopes of her recovery are now entertained. Let us pray for long life to be accorded to this faithful, self-forgotten worker.

The Secretary of the Hillsdale Union, Grace McSwane, is not at all well, and does not seem to be hopeful. This is very necessary. Let us pray for God to spare our young workers.

Ossian uses the responsive readings and finds them very helpful. The State Secretary has since July 7th visited Fairmount, Back Creek, Greentown Churubusco, South Whitley, Anderson, Montpelier and Ossian Unions. Ossian had the young girls for ushers, and the young people to sing. It is the wisdom of heaven to enlist our boys and girls. So many of our Unions are composed of old or elderly women. They will soon have gone the way of all the living, and who is to take our places, should enter into our thought and action, and the young people encouraged to take their stand with us.

Fountain County Convention meets at Hillsboro, Sept. 21st, morning, afternoon and evening. The meetings will be held in the Christian Church.

Wells County holds her Conventoon at Ossian the first week in September.

Miss Clara M. Sears, Anderson, Secretary Y Branch, will welcome the Ys at the Fair Cottage during the week of the State Fair. Come, girls, and be sure to wear your ribbons and use your influence to have the honoraries do the same.

Dear sisters, in planning to attend the State Fair, put in your pocket extra, the price of the "Union Signal" and "Message" and subscribe in the State Fair club for one or both.

Address Mrs. Fannie Barnes Calkins, Portland, Jay Co., Ind., for her prize essay on "Narcotics." Price, 2 cents each or 80 cents per hundred.

La Otta Union feels sure of doubling its membership and every member takes the MESSAGE. They have held two public meetings in the interest of department work and received very liberal collections.

Martin County is preparing a gold medal contest for their County Convention, Sept. 9th and 10th.

In reply to an oft repeated question: Demorest books No. 1, 2, and 3, price 10cents each. W. C. T. U. books No. 1 and 2, price 10cents each. Cooper books No. 1, 2, and 3, price 15 cents each.

No selections to be used for contest work except those taken from the above books or any piece in "Union Sequel" or "Voice" endorsed for that purpose.

Mrs. Lizzie Tappen, County Secretary for Union County, reports a good Convention in the M. E. Church, Liberty, June 30. Mrs. Leavitt was present and lectured in the evening and spent a week in the county in the interest of the work. Old offices re-elected.

Company H. Fairmount, Grant County Division, has the second largest list of L. T. L. graduates. Charley Beeson, Ella Hockett, Leola Garner, Herman Wimmer, Edith Ellis, Nellie Johnson, Barclay Thomas and Bertha Beeson.

Irvington Colored Union has donated to the Fair work, a linen lunch cloth, hand embroidered with silks. It is handsome, ornamental and useful. What has your Union decided to do, or what have you done?

L. T. L's should send in their 10 cents membership fee to Mrs. A. R. Gordon, Argos, Ind., and secure their delegate to National Convention.

Martin County has a new Union at Dover, organized by Mrs. Allie Anderson. Sedalia, Clinton Co., has a new L. T. L. organized by Mrs. Emma Saylor, Frankfort.

Mrs. Cora T. Freijs, President of Marion County, secured advertisements enough to pay for the programs, the janitor and to advertise the Convention, sending a program to each worker by mail.

Mrs. McWhirter's dates for County Conventions and one Fair:

Clay County, Sept. 1st.

Benton County Fair, Sept. 7th.

Martin County, Loogootee, Sept. 9th.

Daviess County, Washington, Sept. 10th.

Wells County, Ossian, Sept.

Delaware County, Muncie, Sept. 15th.

Benton County, Talbot, Sept. 16th.

Elkhart County, Elkhart, Sept. 21st.

Stuben County, Sept. 23rd.

Will Local Unions please remember and act upon the resolution adopted by our last State Convention: "That each local Union be asked annually during the fourth quarte of the year to give fifty cents for a Convention Fund. Money to be sent to the State Treasurer, to be applied on deficit. Any surplus must remain in the treasury for future conventions.

We hope many of our White Ribbon women will take advantage of low rates and visit the State Fair and its W. C. T. U. Cottage this Fall.

Dear White Ribboners, do you remember the names of the Chairmen of Committees for the Convention was published in the June MESSAGE? refer to them, and send names of delegates to the Chairmen on entertainment.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTIONS.

Biennial Convention World's W. C. T. U. Toronto, Ont., Canada, Oct. 23-26, 1897.

Annual Convention National W. C. T. U. Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 29 to Nov. 3, 1897.

Annual Convention Indiana W. C. T. U., South Bend, Oct. 8-11, 1897.

CALL TO PRAYER.

As Evangelistic Superintendent of the World's and National W. C. T. U., it has been my custom to issue a call for a day of prayer, previous to each convention. Repeatedly, of late, the request has come from different Nations and individual for a week of prayer for our great cause. Therefore, in view of the three important Conventions from October 20th to November 3rd, 1897, and the need of special guidance and wisdom, I call upon our Unions all round the world, to observe the dates herein designated, for special prayer and an arousing of interest and enthusiasm in all departments of our work.

A spirit of unrest is abroad in the earth. Nations are on the verge of war. Hundreds have perished in Armenia, and are perishing in India, Greece and elsewhere. Popular discontent prevails. Capital and Labor are in conflict. Sin, poverty and sorrow abound. Multitudes are still enthralled by alcohol, opium and impurity. Our hope is in the God of Nations. Let us daily and unitedly draw near to Him, for a fresh anointing of the spirit. Confession of our sins and mistakes, and a new consecration to His service.

The hour from 11 to 12 A. M. has been greatly blessed as the evangelistic and devotional hour of National, State and County Conventions in every part of the United States. A strong desire prevails that it be thus observed in our World's Convention and all affiliated Countries. Hence, I designate this hour, for the daily service of the Local Unions. When only one day can be observed, let day be Wednesday, October 20th. and the programme condensed for a single service. But, whenever possible, let us convene daily at 11 A. M. for the week set apart. How fitting and beautiful, as the delegates from every part of the world gather in Convention, that our "White Ribboners" in the home Unions assemble daily, to pray for the Conventions and our varied work.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

Dear Sisters:—Many earnest efforts are being made in South Bend for the entertainment and care of our State Convention to be held there Oct. 8 to 11th. The committees are planning broadly and with much enthusiasm. They have succeeded in securing the co-operation of the best citizens of the city. The members of the Clergy, and the press have been most cordial in their efforts to assist the Local Committees in their work. The musicians have been generous in offering their services to the Convention and will contribute largely toward the success of the meetings.

A special service of prayer in every Union is desired for our Annual meeting.

Let all delegates go to the Convention praying for the success of the work of the Convention in all its various phases.

The State Treasurer's books have closed for dues but if any Local Union or County Union has decided to honor one of their members by making her a life member in the State Union send the money to the State Treasurer, the certificate will be filled out, framed and sent to South Bend that it may there be presented to the sister thus loved and honored. Life membership is twenty-five dollars. If secured by a Local or County Union five dollars is allowed the Union securing the membership.

According to the certificate plan one and one-third rate has been granted for the South Bend Convention on all the Railroads. Those desiring to secure such rates should ask the ticket agents, at once if they have the certificates on hand.

Let every Union send its full quota of delegates, the President, one delegate at large, one delegate for every twenty paid members. It is surely a mistake for a Union to fail to send its delegates to the State Convention.

Let each delegate be in attendance at the opening meeting.

The program has been made one day and evening shorter than usual so that each hour will have much in it of importance.

That we may be able to adjourn on Monday evening arrive home on Tuesday evening it will be absolutely necessary to adhere strictly to the program giving no person an extension of time.

The State Executive Committee will meet on Thursday after noon Oct. 7th at 2 o'clock. Let every County President be there on time.

Yours for a good Convention,
L. F. McWHIRTER.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

DEAR SISTERS:—The Superintendents have all sent their blanks to you for your report of work done in different departments. These should all be filled out and sent back to the State Superintendent by September 20th.

Make your answers as definite as possible. To the question "How many pages of Literature have been distributed?" do not say "some" or "a few leaflets" but give the number of papers. If you have not kept an account, give the approximate number, because only the numbers can be counted.

If you are a local Sup't of some department and have received no report blank, send a written report of what you have done to the State Sup't of that department.

Do not think because you have done only a little that it is not worth reporting, for "a great sum is made up of many littles."

Report, and report by the 20th of September.

Yours Sincerely,
Culla J. Vayhinger.

EDITOR OF MESSAGE:—I would like to tell you in a few words of our work at the poor farm, last summer our hearts were touched when we learned that no regular religious service had ever been held there.

We arranged to go out the first Sunday of every month from April to November and were always blessed by doing so, we found questioning the inmates that several were Christians, had been members of the church since their youth, all were encouraged to speak for Jesus and several seemed very glad. At the meeting held in November a little Frenchman took my hand and thanked me for coming, to tell them of Jesus; he said "I was brought up a Catholic but this is the same dear Jesus I have loved since I was twelve years old, and in the nine years I have been here, I have never heard a prayer to Him until you ladies came."

Last Sunday a very good meeting was held. This is a part of our regular work. We are also to have a meeting in the jail and are to place a distributing library there.

We expect to send a barrel of provisions to Indianapolis on September 12th.

Yours,
T. D. Auderman.

FAIRS.

DEAR CO-WORKERS:—Please fill out blanks, which you have all received from me, and return at your earliest possible convenience.

And do not fail to report all work done.

Yours for a good report,
Ada B. Leck, State Sup't.

ALMANAC FOR 1898.

The young Woman's Branch of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union presents to the public, in ample season each year, its most helpful and artistic calendar. For 1898 the World's White Ribboners have united in contributing to the pages matter expressly prepared. Miss Willard, Lady Henry Somerset, Miss Agnes Slack, Mrs. Sanderson, Miss Anna Gordon with some of the leading World's Superintendents of Departments are among the number. Writings and pictures never published before will appear in the Almanac, besides a happy group of "Associates" surrounding Miss Parish and the Editor and Publisher of "The Union Signal" combine for another pleasant page. Illustrations are also given of the Music Halls where the World's Convention in Toronto, and the National Convention in Buffalo are to be held. The whole will form a most interesting yearly compendium and a beautiful souvenir encompassed in a cover of gold and white specially designed, and brought out with great care by the Woman's Publishing Association of Chicago, Ill. Only a limited edition has been published to be sold for the benefit of the Seventh Round-the-World Missionary Miss Clara Parrish.

Price 25cents. 10 cents on each copy sold going to that fund. Send orders at once to, Mrs. Frances B. Yarnall, 1011 Park Ave., New York, N. Y.

DEAR MESSAGE:—How eager we are to read your pages when you come to our homes and see what our women are doing in Indiana. I have discovered that only three copies of our State paper is taken by Y girls. I would urge each Union, to take at least ten copies if you cannot each one subscribe, we must be in touch with one another, and intelligent if we would render good service.

Which Union will be the first to take twelve copies?

See what Mrs. Frances Barnes has to say about the Y Almanac of 1898.

I received a letter from Miss Clara Parrish from Tokyo, Japan, dated Aug. 14th written to the Indiana Y's: it is about ten feet long written on rice paper, it will be carried to the State Convention at South Bend. Miss Parrish wants to know why Indiana cannot send a representative to some one of the Eastern countries to do Missionary work? What do you think? Let us pray over it and follow the leading of the Lord.

The Marion Co. Convention was a treat, and the work resulting from that visit was the securing of the Y Sec'y in the Central Union, our beloved Mrs. Mary E. Balch. Now dear sisters, you who have less care and less to do, can't you do likewise and let us have a Y Branch in every Union. Mapleton W. C. T. U. reception at the home of Mrs. McClintock was the most enjoyable affair; several names were secured for a Y Branch and I know those noble women will make the work attractive and hold those bright young women and men.

West Indianapolis will be heard from later. Quite a good deal of personal work was done there and many expect a Branch soon.

I would like to tell of the grand work the girls are doing, but come to the Convention and hear. With love to each temperance co-worker.

I am respectfully,
Clara M. Sears, State Sec'y.

Mrs. Boleyn, president of the fourth district of Missouri, is wide awake. "Although teaching, and never well and strong, her messages go out to her women week after week, full of suggestions, and directions. She has planned for more speakers and lecturers than any other district president in the State. Two years ago but 14 Unions existed; now there are 30." A determination to push and accomplish the work will conquer in the end. Missouri Unions meet with the same opposition that Indiana women meet with.

What has been done in our sister State can be done in ours. The Unions of the fourth district of Missouri have plenty of money in their treasury because they have pushed the Medal Contest work.

And Indiana can have all the necessary means if the contest work is managed with tact and a courageous heart.

PORTLAND.

DEAR MRS. BALCH:—We held our county convention yesterday and elected the following officers and superintendents: President, Mrs. Minnie Brotherton, Dunkirk; Cor. Sec'y, Mrs. Fulton, Portland; Rec. Secretary, Sarah Mason, Pennville; Treasurer, Emma Rowe, Red Key.

Evangelistic, Jennie Roberts, Red Key; Literature and Sabbath Observance, Ella Henley, Portland; Social Purity and Impure literature, Miss Annie Current, Red Key; Juvenile, Mrs. Brotherton, Dunkirk; L. T. L., Sarah Mason, Pennville; Franchise, Gertrude Fulton, Portland; Mercy, Lucy Hyatt, Portland; Narcotics and Contests, Mrs. Fannie Calkins, Portland; Press, Miss Annie Current, Red Key; County Fair, Mrs. Harriett Sanders, Portland; Flower Mission, Mary J. Cartwright, Portland; Orphans' Homes, Katie Potter, Portland; Systematic Giving, Miss Annie Current, Red Key.

Do not fail to attend the World's and National Conventions.

Mrs. Marion Dunham, State President of Iowa, is named on the Prohibition ticket of that State for Sup't. of Pub. Schools.

"Do not take religion into politics." "Why not?" What business has a Christian going where he has to leave his religion behind him.—Motive.

The course of study prepared for Local Unions in the different states is giving great satisfaction. Why can not Indiana try the same plan.

Indiana needs more workers. Will not each one of you accept the appeal and seek the other one. Think what this would do for our State with no financial outlay.

Let this issue of "The MESSAGE" be a reminder to every Local Union, to see to it that their full quota of delegates are in attendance at our State Convention and share in its inspiration and enthusiasm.

You will understand why our address seems changed when I tell you the city renumbered their houses. Mrs. McWhirter's new number is 2312 N. College Ave., and Mrs. Whitson's is 3335 N. Meridian St.

Miss Johansdottir of Iceland, said to be a magnetic speaker, and Miss Erickson of Finland, will be in attendance at the World's Convention at Toronto. Delegates from Japan, Spain, Syria, Madagascar, Chili, Hawaii and Egypt. Great Britain will also be in attendance.

The Provincial Christian Endeavor Convention of Canada meets October 7th.

It is worthy of comment that this great organization has given up its last evening to be devoted to Temperance and Prohibition. A clear indication of the views of the young people on this subject.

Lady Henry Somerset and Mr. W. W. Buchanan will be the speakers.

In the little German Principality of Waldeck a decree has been proclaimed that a license to marry will not be granted to any individual who has the habit of getting drunk and if one who has been a drunkard applies for such license he must produce sufficient proof of his reformation to warrant his receiving it. If this could be the case in Indiana and other States it would reduce the number of ruined homes and divorce cases.

The L. T. L. State President of New York in his annual address spoke of the Loyal Temperance Legion as the Life Insurance Policy of the W. C. T. U. whose maturity would over pay all expenditure, and indemnify the mother Union against death, removal or adverse winds of popular disfavor.

Indiana has a State Agent, Mrs. Amanda R. Gordon, of Argos who is very anxious to issue a policy to every Union in the this State. Its a safe investment. Let every Union try it.

Many individuals and some Unions drop out of our work through lack of interest which might never have abated if every member had been a subscriber to the State paper. Dear sisters, it certainly is a mistake if you do not keep posted on your State work. Do not make this mistake any longer but begin at once and see that every member is a subscriber. Only 25 cents in clubs of twelve or more. Remember the Unions whose every member is a subscriber receives a yearly subscription to the Union Signal, free.

Come to the Convention prepared to give your order for the minutes and give the money with the order. We are to have them inside of a month from the time of the Convention. And with the many smiling, earnest, and I believe I will be pardoned for saying, good looking faces looking up at you from those pages, you will want a copy and also want your friends to have one. You ask the price. Well, the Convention will have to settle that. Last year it was 10cents, and postage, 4cents; or express when sent that way. With these pictures in them there is some question about making them 15cents.

Elkhart County reports greatly increased attendance and interest at their County Convention which convened Sept. 21st and 22nd. Dr. Thomas gave a thirty minute talk on the effects of Alcohol on the human system, as a physician sees it, and was fine. Mrs. McWhirter's lecture was very much appreciated. The State Fair Cottage quilt made by the Goshen Union was presented to Mrs. M. A. Tompkins their loved and honored County president. The topics considered were the Press, Evangelistic work, Scientific Temperance Instruction, Mother's meetings, Franchise and a summary of the legislation given to us by the Indiana 1897 Assembly of legislators. No change in County officers except the Cor. Sec'y, Mrs. L. C. Phoenix, Middlebury is the newly elected sister. This is a magnificent postal card report. We wish for many such.

HADLEY NOTES.

When any one sends word that she wishes to place a girl in the school she should write plainly the child's name and the address of the person to be corresponded with. Date your letter and give county and postoffice address. Try to be as sure as possible that the parties wish to place the child in the school. After a correspondence of considerable length has been carried on and blanks sent and often after waiting to hear and sending a card asking a decision, word comes, "Think I will not send her yet," or "changed my mind," or "Got a home for her," or nothing at all. Then after asking for blanks to be returned no notice is taken of request. About twenty blanks have been sent out. One has been returned properly filled; one returned with satisfactory explanation; one sent without a line so one can tell where it came from; but where are the remainder. Sisters, a little thought and care on your part would save a good deal of trouble for those who spend their time, thought and work with no remuneration. I have tried to teach the children under my care that "Didn't think" and "Don't care" are wrong, and that all wrong is sin. There will be reports of the condition of the school read at the convention and printed in the next number of the "Message." Look after the girls and the blanks now.

THE STIRRING CAMPAIGN.

For our Hadley Industrial School, is to be repeated, beginning Oct. 15th, and closing Nov. 30th.

Premiums to be paid enroute considering the economy of time and travel which is money.

Any county having five or a less number of Unions, whose every Union holds a contest shall receive, free, a weeks work by one of the organizers.

Any county with six to ten Unions whose every Union holds a contest shall receive a free lecture from our general organizer and lecturer.

Counties having eleven Unions and over which sends in one hundred dollars, proceeds from contests, will receive free an address by one of our National officers or speakers.

Every local union sending in ten dollars proceeds from one contest will receive free an address by one of the State Officers.

Pledge signing is to be one of the particular features of this Campaign. Every local Union reporting 50 signatures or over (counting the temperance and tobacco pledge) will receive one day's service by one of our evangelists.

We will use the W. C. T. U. system and rules and only silver medals. Will use W. C. T. U. books No. 1 and 2. Demorest books No. 1, 2 and 3. Cooper books No. 1, 2 and 3.

Order medals, books and pledge cards from the Superintendent of that department.

Send the money to the State Treasurer. Do not send it to the Treasurer of the Hadley Board, as it will not count in the Stirring Campaign then.

Read carefully, think correctly, act promptly, and work to win. A Stirring Campaign indeed, means agitation, education, advance, ballots, money success.

Cass County holds her Convention Sept. 20th in Broadway M. E. Church.

There is a time for everything, and now is the time for W. C. T. U. workers to report.

Several have written and said that they could not be with us at South Bend. Distance too great and money too scarce.

Jessie Ackerman, spends October 22nd, 23rd and 24th, in Indianapolis. She comes under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

Miami County has Mrs. S. M. I. Henry, National Evangelist, at Amboy, Oct. 5th and 6th. Will hold county convention at that time.

October "Message" is early because of the State Convention; and do not expect the November issue until the 10th or later, because of the National Convention.

Howard County Convention, Sept. 28th and 29th, in the First Baptist Church, Kokomo. A fine program. The work to be done by home talent, of which there is a promising array.

I trust that at the State Convention the remaining orders for the Record Books will be given and this piece of work finished at once. Every Union is the stronger for having a good record.

County and Local Unions should see to it that fraternal delegates are appointed from any woman's clubs or organizations that may be in their locality, for our South Bend annual meeting.

You can buy through tickets at Indianapolis via Colfax and on all the routes for that matter, ticket $4.25 from Indianapolis to South Bend. Don't fail to get your certificate which gives you the return fare for one-third rate. Notice time on the program via Colfax.

Elizabeth Preston, Tower City, North Dakota, President of that far off State will spend several weeks in Goshen, after the National Convention, and is willing to fill ten dates. Send your letter to her in care of Rev. Asher S. Preston, if you wish to hear this talented lady.

Henry County met at Kennard, Sept. 17th, in her annual convention. In the evening the Kennard Union gave a literary entertainment that reflected great credit upon those taking part and in the management. Officers as follows: President, Mrs. Dr. Lizzie E. Holloway, Spiceland; Vice-President, Mrs. Emma Hedges, Spiceland; Cor. and Rec. Secretary, Mrs. Margaret Hogin, Greensboro; Treasurer, Emma Charles, Spiceland.

Vigo County had a Mother's Rest at their County Fair. A place where tired mothers could rest, make their toilet, and get a cup of coffee. Children were cared for. One mother brought two children, a little cripple three year old girl and a baby. She put them to bed about 9:30 a. m., and left them till 10 o'clock p. m., visiting them occasionally. She seemed delighted and gave the women 4 cents to help the cause. Some things cannot be measured by dollars and cents. We are indebted to the "Terre Haute Weekly News" for this item.

The September issue of the "Christian Citizen" has a very impressive frontispiece, entitled "Proclamation", as follows: The National Christian Citizenship League, having declared a National Crusade for the purification of public life, the dethronement of evil and the enthronement of the principles of Jesus Christ in these United States, and having determined that this crusade shall not cease until, in the name of God, it has effected its solemn purpose to make of this a nation whose God is the Lord, appeals to the pure-minded, true-hearted men and women of the republic, who believe with Charles Sumner, that "Righteousness is Preservation," and calls for million volunteers to enlist for the war and report at once to the National Headquarters. Its weapons are ideas, its victory means peace throughout our wide borders and good will to all the nations of the earth. To arms! your country needs you. What is your answer? Mine is this, if their weapons were ballots rather than ideas, I should have hope of the victory. There is no lack of ideas, but great lack of righteous ballots.

County and Local Unions.

"No chain is stronger than its weakest link."

A DEPARTMENT FUND.

Indiana has thirty departments not including organization.

Very few Unions can work half of them, and yet every department should have the support of our workers, and the general public be made acquainted with their beneficial qualities. Local and State workers complain of being hindered by the need of money. We offer the following plan as being capable of setting the machinery in full motion.

Each local Union, after appointing her Superintendents, shall take the remaining departments of the State and arrange them into four groups, one for each quarter of the year, and shall as the time comes round hold a Quarterly Department Meeting.

First group in first quarter; second group in second quarter, etc. The Union shall prepare a program. Ten minute papers or addresses on the departments in the group, these with appropriate devotional services and singing will interest the general public, who must be persuaded to be present by wise and tactful advertising. Take a collection. Divide the money you receive in the collection, giving two-fourths to the State, one-fourth to the county and local Union each. These several amounts will constitute a fund for the Superintendent of Local, County and State Union.

Dear sister, this plan is rich in actual work accomplished, if carried out. Every Union having performed its just share of the work and the Gospel preached to many thousand people. The papers written by our women, will have developed mental and spiritual growth, and added many new thoughts, which things make our organization more mighty in its grapple with Satan and legalized sin.

No plan however will work itself. Let us have united, unanimous and unanimity of action.

CONVENTIONS.

Indiana W. C. T. U. Annual Convention at South Bend, October 8 to 11, one and one-third fare on the ceretified plan. $6.30 from Indianapolis to ~~South Bend return, via of Colfax~~, where you make close connection and do not have to change depots. Train leaves Indianapolis 7:10 A. M., and reaches South Bend about 1 P. M. If you go over the Big Four to Elkhart and there change for South Bend you leave Indianapolis about 6:30 A. M., and reach Elkhart 12:30 and leave about 3:30 reaching South Bend 4:15. Round trip on this route, about $6.10. All the counties as follows: Howard, Miami, Grant, Wabash, Huntington, Wells, Adams, and those south of these and east of Indianapolis. If they can make the Vandalia morning train North at Colfax, Logansport or DeLong will be in time for the afternoon Executive Committee Meeting, October 9th, and delegates in time for the Vandalia evening train North at these points, in time for the Convention, Friday A. M., 8 o'clock, Oct. 8th. The south west part of the State will make the best time and as little ticket fare by getting the Vandalia at Terre Haute, Crawfordsville or Colfax.

Delegates should at once consult maps and ticket agents as to time, route and ticket. And every member of the Executive Committee and the Board of Superintendents should plan to be in on time for those meetings. They each have a copy of the program and must be informed on all necessary points.

Delegates should plan to reach South Bend the evening of the 7th, so as to be in time for the Convention in the morning.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Eaton from Winterrond have been made delegates to our State Convention.

Delegates badges will cost five cents, and every one buys for themselves. They will be on sale at the Convention Church. They are very neat and pretty.

The chairmen of local committees are as follows: Entertainment, Mrs. Mary E. Paxson, 419 S. Taylor Street.

Reception, Mrs. M. P. Bugbee, 303 S. Main Street. Sunday Services and Music, Mrs. S. E. Babcock, 501 Vistula Ave.

Press, Mrs. W. B. Stover, West Navarre Street. Railroad, Mrs. Minnie J. Wild, 328 N. Main Street. Decoration, Mrs. Dr. Viton, 1719 S. Michigan St. Finance, Mrs. Kate Holler, 559 N. Scott Street. Ushers and Pages, Miss Cora Sierer, 869 W. Water Street.

Buss Lines, Mrs. S. P. Barker, 911 S. Main Street. Mrs. Dr. Viton, 1719 S. Michigan St., South Bend, chairman of decoration committee, would like flags and banners sent early if Unions are willing to pay express charges. All State Supts and County presidents are urged to see that their banners are in the hands of the committee early.

The following prominent workers are expected to be present at the Convention: Mrs. Emma Cranmer, Honorary President South Dakota; Mrs. Tilford, President of Colorado; Mrs. R. J. Trego, of Ohio; Miss Anna Downey, of Illinois; Mrs. Ada Unruh, of Oregon, and our own Mrs. Stahl, recently returned from Alaska.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP AT $25.

So reads our State Constitution. Our Mid-Year Executive Committee fixed the division of the money as follows and decided that proceeds of life membership should constitute a fund for organization.

Any Union making a life membership puts $5 in its treasury and send $20 to the State. Any County making a life membership makes the same division of the money. If any State worker makes up a life membership the whole amount goes into the State treasury.

If any individual gives one, the whole amount shall go to the State unless the person wishes their Union to have $5.00.

The State furnishes a handsome certificate, framed ready to hang up where all may see its utility, and not have it stored away in some dark closet for mice to speculate over.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Unions should send in the names of their delegates to the chairman on entertainment, Miss Mary E. Paxson, 419 S. Taylor St., South Bend, and receive their card of entertainment before leaving home.

Please remember, delegates pay for their dinners, Friday, Saturday and Monday.

The last Convention voted that each Union should send 50 cents to the State Treasurer, Mrs. Amanda T. Whitson, 3335 N. Meridian St., Indianapolis, to provide for any deficits in the expenses.

Mrs. R. J. Trego, Delaware, Ohio, will be with us at our Annual Convention, and desires dates from the 12th of October to the time of the World's Convention. She comes to the Unions on exceedingly good terms.

Write her at once or see her at the Convention, but do not let the opportunity go by. Her subjects are as follows.

"Darkest America."

Hard times, the reason why, from a Woman's stand point."

"Scientific Temperance."

"The W. C. T. U. and its work."

"Mistakes in Home Life."

"Practical Christianity."

"The Secret of Power."

"Sowing and Reaping or Sense and no Sense."

This last will especially interest the young people.

Fountain County held a one day's session at its annual gathering and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Jennie M. Goodrich, Hillsboro; Cor. and Rec. Secretary, Miss Fannie Jester, Kingman; Treasurer, Mrs. H. C. Wyand, Hillsboro, Mrs. Mary M. Spencer, of Kingman, led the devotional meeting in the afternoon and recited "The Loosing Side" with great earnestness and power. Miss Bertha Ellis gave a very pleasant recitation. The Song Leaflets were used and they had appropriate and spirited singing. Mrs. M. E. Balch, State Secretary, made a forty minutes address.

Mrs. Emma Saylor, of Frankfort, State Organizer of L. T. L., organized a Loyal Temperance Legion in Sedalia, August 6th, with a small number, but we hope to increase very soon in number and carry it on bravely. We also had a gospel temperance meeting here July 31st, in the M. E. Church.

ELLA BOYD,

Press Reporter.

Lawrence County Convention was held at Bedford in the Presbyterian Church, the President, Mrs. Holcombe, presiding. The election of officers came in the morning with this result: President, Mrs. Mary Emery; Cor. Secretary, Mrs. Lizzie Burton; Rec. Secretary, Mrs. Barbee; Treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Holcombe. The afternoon was occupied with papers, solos and miscellany. Evening, address by Mrs. Gilbert, of Mitchell, and pronounced most excellent. The convention was enjoyed by every one. Emma Bringhaus kindly sent report and we were obliged to make it brief.

ALTON.

The Alton W. C. T. U. gave a White Ribbon picnic the 24th of August in a beech grove near town. Everybody was invited to come and bring their baskets and they generously responded. Good music was discoursed by a string band, and an organ and choir made the woods ring with gospel songs.

Temperance speeches were made by the pastor of the M. E. Church, Rev. Roger, also M. G. Clinton, a former pastor of the church. Recitations by two young ladies.

The crowning feature of the day was a flag drill, by the L. T. L. conducted by Miss Bettie Dunn, the superintendent of that department, and another of three original songs written for the occasion, two of them were solos by a little boy and girl and called forth rounds of applause as they waved their little flags; the tears came to the eyes of more than one veteran.

A table eighty feet long covered with white and spread with every good thing the heart could wish. Everybody was served by the White Ribboners, who wore white aprons. The stranger within our gates was not forgotten.

Everything was free but coffee and ice cream. Ice cream and confectionary were served from a stand and was liberally patronized and after the expenses, cleared a nice sum of money for the Union.

Literature was distributed and we feel sure that our cause is taking higher ground and that we are making sentiment for the temperance cause.

People tell us that it was the right kind of a picnic and ask when we are to have another. Next year we tell them.

The Eighth Semi-Annual Convention of the Martin County W. C. T. U. was held at Loogootee, Sept. 9th and 10th. Sixteen delegates and eight visitors were reported from Martin County. Six visitors from Daviess County. Mrs. McWhirter was with us and her services were invaluable. The lecture on the evening of the 9th, was one of the strongest ever given here. On the evening of the 10th a gold medal contest was given. First prize was awarded to Miss Hattie Brooks, of Loogootee. Second prize to Miss Edith Twitly, of Shoals. The interest in the Contest work is increasing. We have had six in the County, the proceeds of this, the seventh contest, the largest, $19.

Mrs. Sophia Toner, Martinsville, who served Morgan County so long as Corresponding Secretary, was made the President. Some other changes to be reported later. They report a good Convention held September 14th.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION, 35c. PER YEAR

Dear Sisters—Please take notice that many of your clubs for the Message will expire with next month. Begin now to secure renewals as well as new subscribers. Let us make our subscription list equal to our membership. We can with a little effort do it. Who will send in the first club?

Miss Marie C. Brehm, who is so well and favorably known in our State, is now available for dates beginning the first of January. Those desiring to engage her please notify me by the 1st of December, as other States are calling her. Morgan county gave her a week's work last winter and now calls her back for another week. Madison county president writes they will take her for a week. Others are trying to arrange dates for her and will report at an early date.

While in our State last winter, a minister, then a Republican but now a Prohibitionist, hesitatingly gave way for her during his revival meetings. He now wants to engage her for two weeks' revival work. We are glad to know that ministers as well as W. C. T. U. people are realizing the fact that the Gospel of Temperance does not hinder revival work.

All communications in regard to dates for Miss Brehm should be addressed to MRS. AMANDA T. WHITSON.

A BREEZE FROM THE WORLD'S CONVENTION.

We reached Canada the forenoon of October 22 and spent the afternoon in the Dominion W. C. T. U. Convention. Although the Dominion is an English province, the Convention was decidedly American. "The Declaration of Principles," or resolutions, was the main topic of discussion that afternoon, and resolutions were amended and stricken out, referred and tabled, lost and carried, just as they are at home; and when a good thing was carried to the satisfaction of the Convention, a great, hearty "Hear! hear!" resounded through the pavilion. The evening of the 22d, the Dominion W. C. T. U. gave the World's delegates a welcome, which took the form of a banquet. Handsomely appointed tables filled the great pavilion, at which 300 guests were seated. After the material wants of the guests had been satisfied, the speaking of the evening commenced by Miss Willard, who proposed the Queen's health in a harmless glass of lemonade. Then followed toasts to the World's officers, British, American, foreign fraternal delegates and others, which were responded to with alacrity and wit, and the speakers were greeted with hearty applause of appreciation. And it was a late hour when the large gathering broke up, highly satisfied with the auspicious opening of the great convention.

The morning of the 23d, the Convention opened in the pavilion, which had been most beautifully decorated, for our coming, with banners and flags from all over the world and beautiful selection of flowers and palms. At 10 o'clock the large assemblage of delegates from all points of the world, including hundreds of visitors from Canada and the United States, was called to order by the president, Miss Frances E. Willard. The main feature of the morning was Miss Willard's address, and it was a beautiful and unique sight to see Miss Willard in the midst of the foreign delegations in their picturesque costumes and hear her say "Beloved Comrades," a lovely way she has of calling us, and then we felt we were indeed a part of the world's large family. Her address was beautiful, strong, pathetic, practical, and proved without doubt the high tribute that was paid her by a Toronto paper, "The brightest woman of the century," and don't forget, sisters, she is our chieftain.

Mary H. Hunt told us of the onward march of scientific temperance all over the world. Mrs. Wilbur Crafts, world's superintendent of Sunday school work, said "that churches were always slow to take up new movements, and it might be that this department was not favorably regarded by some of the churches." However, great gains had been made the past two years. Jennie Fowler Willing told the story of her training school in New York for W. C. T. U. evangelists, and many, many other excellent and hopeful reports were made and many things could be said, and you ought to know them, but the smallness of our paper will not permit of more; but the way to do is to send for your representative and have her report it. I represented the following counties: Grant, Blackford, Jay, Randolph, Delaware, Madison, Hancock, Henry, Rush, Wayne, Union, Fayette, Decatur, Shelby, Franklin and Johnson.

MATTIE O. CAMMACK.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

Dear Sisters—At the beginning of another year I greet you with a heart full of appreciation for loyal support given me in the several capacities in which I have served during the years of the past. I feel greatly honored to be the recipient of the confidence and esteem of the White Ribboners of Indiana and to again be chosen their president. It will be my aim to do the work faithfully and well.

Our state convention was held, you know, on the border line of Michigan, at South Bend, it being directly en route from the northwest to the World's and National Conventions at Toronto and Buffalo. We were favored by the presence of several National workers who added much to the interest and enthusiasm. How I do wish that each one of you could have been there. Great spiritual power was manifested in the meetings of the convention. Many of us received a spiritual uplift which, we hope, will better fit us for our work.

The annual reports, containing the minutes of the state convention, the officers' and superintendent's reports are now about ready to be sent out. No officer or superintendent can afford to be without a copy. Surely, if you have not ordered, you will do so at once, sending 15 cents in postage to Mrs. Balch. When you read these reports, remember that figures do not always indicate the efforts made. Much work is reported and much has been done that has not been reported. Many consecrated christian women have come into our ranks. Reform work is hard work, hence those who prefer to drift with the tide do not long affiliate with us. It is the great hearted, broad minded, useful christian women that espouse a cause so great in its purposes and so grand in its achievements. Our thousands of White Ribboners in Indiana are as loyal and true as this nation can boast.

PUBLIC MEETINGS.

Our neglect to assemble the people together in public meetings is cause for alarm. The prosperous Unions are those that realize that constant public agitation is an absolute necessity. "What would become of the churches if some wandering minister preached a single sermon at intervals of from three to six months, and even then the meeting poorly advertised? A little handful might meet to pray every week, but how long would it take to christianize the communities? To secure the best results we must have both hands hard at work and the public preaching of the blessed gospel of temperance, purity and peace."

PRESS.

From the National superintendent of Press Department I quote the following: "Will you not volunteer as press superintendents the coming year? We have the papers, we have the space, we have friendly editors eager for news, but we have not the women to occupy the space so willingly given. If you hear a bright bit of news about our work, won't you tell it? Pass on the good reports. Make your meetings so interesting that the local editor must perforce look them up. Discuss live topics of the day and let the editors know you are going to do so. Notify the papers of the coming of distinguished White Ribboners to your city, and arrange interviews for them. Make friends of reporters. The consensus of opinion among our state press workers is, that it is easier to get space in the papers than to find women to fill it. If we fail in securing attention it is because of our own lack of interest. Will you all push the press along this year, for how can the story be told and the world made better if we have not the women to publish the glad tidings? Write news, not editorials. Each paper has its own editorial staff. We are accused of being too preachy. Don't be preachy. We are accused of chronicling trivial things. Don't chronicle trivial things. If we blow not the horn, telling of our work, no one will blow it for us."

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES.

In every community there are some kind of young people's societies. These prepare outline programs for six months or a year in advance. Urge members of program committee to favor live, up-to-date subjects. Send 2 cent stamp for catalogue to our Woman's Temperance Publishing Association, The Temple, Chicago, Ill. From it order a few cents' worth of leaflets and put into the hand of some fair minded member of the committee. Miss Anna Downey's leaflets, containing programs, are fine for this purpose and are sold at 1 cent each. We must not fail to recognize the great possibilities of the young people's societies and cautiously urge them to seek information in regard to legalized sin, which will cause a quickening of their pulses and create within them desires which will find expression in the church, the school and the state.

MEMBERSHIP.

The greatest need of the Indiana W. C. T. U. is more women who are willing to consecrate their ability and efforts to this cause. An honor roll at the next state convention will contain the names of all Unions making an increase of five or more members this year. Will you make an effort to have your Union on this honor roll? While I write, I am sensible of a great longing to look into your faces and hear you say "I'll do my best this year." Sisters, while you are busy, write your plans and your work. Please remember to pray for the state officers and superintendents many times. We have felt the influence of your prayers. We need that influence just now in our planning for the year.

Yours in loving service,

LUELLA F. McWHIRTER.

FAIR COTTAGE DEBT CANCELLED.

On the night of October 27 our Fair Cottage burned to the ground, caused by the burning of the hotel adjoining. Some of the contents were saved. The insurance on building and contents was $600. The company deducted $25.00 for goods saved and has paid us $575. This will entirely pay our indebtedness on the Fair Cottage and leave money in the treasury.

Carrie M. Taylor, press superintendent for Dana Union, writes: "Perhaps you think Dana is dead. Not so. It is an evergreen Union, hard at work." She sent their local paper with a copy of their first column, and gave a list of departments, saying, "Every woman is at work; we will not tolerate drones."

Ellen K. Denny, Superintendent of Jails, Prisons and Mines, is in our state ready for work. Unions in our county seats should love Mrs. Denny for that special line of work. "I was sick and in prison, and ye visited me."

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Dear Sunday School Workers—The fourth Sunday of November is the Universal Temperance Sunday. We should begin at once to make plans for the observance of the day. Last year a call for its observance was made by our department. This year we have an announcement concerning the day in circular form. We ask our workers to give this announcement a wide circulation. It should be presented personally or sent to every pastor, Sunday school superintendent and president of the young people's society, and printed in all daily papers a week previous to Temperance Sunday. A wise use of this announcement will result in a grand, concerted effort for temperance on November 28. I have sent for a limited supply of these announcements and will be glad to send to any who will make use of them. While we urge you to secure temperance sermons, to hold Sunday school rallies, mass meetings, etc., on November 28, we recommend that your special effort be made in the Sunday school. As an aid to this, the national superintendent has issued a program for the Sunday school hour, requesting the local unions to give careful attention to this department in the month of November, holding a department tea-meeting and securing a fund for literature, etc., to be used on Universal Temperance Sunday. The local superintendent should call together her temperance secretaries (she should have one in each Sunday school) and plan systematic effort.

On November 28 our department will begin to secure pledges for our National Sunday school pledge chain. The department will provide red, white and blue pledge cards (such as were used for the World's Fair) and through local superintendents, temperance secretaries and other helpers, will secure the names of all pledged members of the Sunday schools. These cards are to be tied together with white "baby" ribbon and sent by local superintendent to her respective state superintendent, who will make the pledge chain for her state; displaying the same at state convention and then sending it on to the National superintendent, who will make the National Sunday school pledge chain, which can be displayed very effectively at the National Convention next year. All this to stimulate pledge work and present an impressive object lesson to the public. The record of the pledge work in each Sunday school should be kept by the temperance secretary on the pledge roll of honor, which every Sunday school should have. Our National superintendent has asked editors and publishers of Sunday school papers in the United States to give us a Temperance issue for the fourth week of November and in honor of our Temperance day. The response has been encouraging, and is this not a step in the direction of great good for our department and the Temperance cause in general? Show your appreciation by ordering extra copies of such papers and distributing them in mission schools and in places where they have few papers to read. Observe the papers that are in a "temperance dress" on November 28 and write a word of appreciation to the editors.

We call attention to the Young Crusader. Remember that by ordering of Miss Georgiana Moser, Loggostee, Ind., in clubs of ten, you can secure it a year for 12 cents a copy. Get it into the Sunday schools. Then the Crusader Supplement ought to be in the hands of every superintendent and teacher of a Sunday school. The November issue promises to be a valuable one.

We have made the above appeal to you, knowing that you will respond loyally. We give the list of helps that you will need for the week on November 28: Crusader Supplement, 65 cents per 100. Send to W. T. P. A., The Temple, Chicago. For each of the following send to Mrs. Stella B. Irvine, St. Paul, Minn.: Announcement of Universal Temperance Sunday, Program for Sunday School Hour, Program for Department Meeting, each 15 cents per 100, postpaid; Program for Sunday School Temperance Rally, 50 cents per 100, postpaid; Pledge Cards for National Sunday School Pledge Chain, 25 cents per 100, postpaid. Leaflets: "A Study of the Pledge for Primary Workers," by Stella B. Irvine, 15 cents per 100, postpaid; "Temperance and the Bible," by Mrs. C. B. Teeple, 15 cents per 100, postpaid; "The Sunday School Temperance Lessons," by Amos R. Wells, 20 cents per 100, postpaid.

The work of the year is opening favorably. Letters of inquiry are coming to me, of which I am always glad. I hope those whom I met at the State Convention, who were so interested in the work, will not forget to write me. Let us begin early, asking God's blessings upon our efforts.

Yours for Service,

ALICE G. GEARY,

730 North street, Logansport, Ind. State Superintendent.

L. T. L. BRANCH.

My Dear Sisters—The past year has been one of advancement along L. T. L. lines. There have been a number of new Legions organized, and a prospect for more. Our third state convention was a grand success, and instilled animation and enthusiasm into the hearts of our young people, so that we may hope for much from them in the years to come. The class of graduates numbered 43.

Let us be diligent in securing dues this year. We ought to pay into the national treasury this year our $50.00, that we may be represented at the National. Our State is grouped among those standing first in advanced work, but if we allow our dues to fall short, I fear we will be on the backward track. The same premiums are offered this year as last, viz: To Legions paying $3.00, one copy one year of the Young Crusader; Legions paying $5.00, two copies one year, and to Legions paying the greatest amount over $5.00, a prize banner, to be presented at the convention at South Bend. I hope you will secure one of these. I will have the plan of work ready soon.

Let us not sit idle or grow weary when there is such a great work before us, and the young people are calling to us. Plan to attend the convention at LaFayette. Hoping to hear a good report from you, I am,

Yours faithfully, for the young people,

AMANDA R. GORDON,

State Branch Secretary.

The Porter county convention was held Oct. 6th at Hebron. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Mary E. Hall, Valparaiso; recording secretary, Mrs. Jane Sampson, Hebron; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Rice, Valparaiso; treasurer, Miss Alice Keach, Valparaiso. Much interest was manifested and we were favored with a delegation of visitors from Lake county. A mass meeting was held in the evening, at which Mrs. Church spoke.

ELIZABETH RICE,

Corresponding Secretary.

Sedalia Union had what they call a "Fish Pond" festival a few weeks ago, and all those who purchased supper drew something. We are sorry to add that we are going to lose two of our members, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Johnson, as they are going to LaFayette to live. But they can be there for the next state convention and can join that Union, so they will not be out of a Union.

ELLA BOYD,

Local Press Reporter.

FREELANDVILLE, IND., Oct. 8, 1897.

Dearly Beloved Co-Workers—I thought perhaps you would like to know what the little town of Freelandville and vicinity is doing for the cause of temperance. On June 6th, 1895, Mrs. Lottie Terry and Mrs. Barrows, of Bicknell, organized a Woman's Christian Temperance Union here. Eighteen names were received for membership. During the first year we held seventeen meetings, one entertainment and one contest.

Mrs. Cammack gave us one lecture, and Foster Stone lectured for us one week. The second year we held twenty-four meetings, one entertainment and three contests; Mrs. Ellen Denny lectured two nights. The third year so far we have held seventeen meetings, three contests; Mary Hadley gave one lecture and Mother Trisch worked with us for one week. At present we have forty members, each one with her trust in God, working, ever working, never wavering, never doubting, for Christ our leader says, "Fear not, little flock" for "Lo, I am with you always." DELANA WALKER, Superintendent of County Press Work.

HARTFORD CITY, IND., Oct. 14, 1897.

Much interest was shown in the work, and we trust a new impetus will be given the work. Rev. Mountain, pastor of Trinity church, delivered an address in the evening, which was imposing and filled those present with new zeal for future work. Sixteen new members added to our Union. Mrs. Fannie Coyle, superintendent of Press and Mothers' departments of 16th district Ill. W. C. T. U., was present to wish the Union God-speed in all departments.

Fraternally,

Silver contests will be held at the M. E. Church, Hardinsburg, Oct. 29. This makes eighteen silver contests, six gold and two silver grey. We are glad to announce that great interest is taken in these contests and the truths that the families and friends of these speakers get out of their pieces means growth to the temperance cause.

HADLEY NOTES.

Names and addresses of Board of Trustees: Miss Lucretia Hobart, president, 667 Virginia avenue, Indianapolis; Mrs. M. J. Flick, vice-president, Lawrence, Marion Co., Ind.; Mrs. Phoebe R. Curryer, corresponding secretary, 1320 College avenue, Indianapolis; Mrs. Mattie Chandler, recording secretary, Friendswood, Ind.; Mrs. Ella B. Wright, treasurer, Greensburg, Ind.; Mrs. Louisa R. Wardner, LaPorte, Ind.; Mrs. Kate Mendenhall, Amo, Ind.; Mrs. Anna Johnson, Grant Co., Ind.; Mrs. G. E. Stanton, 441 Cherry street, Indianapolis.

It was thought best to have an Advisory Board and the following members were elected: Mrs. Frances A. Potter, 834 north East street, Indianapolis; Mr. Ernest Bicknell, office State Board of Charities, Indianapolis; Mr. Addison Hadley, Hadley, Ind.; Mr. Wm. Chandler, Friendswood, Ind.; Mr. Robert E. Carmack, Camargo, Ill.

It was decided to have a vice president chosen from each congressional district, who shall look after the interest of the school in general, and whose special business will be to look after the girls in their territory, who are in the school or who may have been placed in homes in their district.

The Board of Trustees met at the Hadley Home, Thursday, Nov. 4th. The weather was delightful. The new members took up the work with energy that promises well for the wise management of the work. The members who left the board were happy in the confidence they felt that every thing possible would be done for the welfare of the school and the hope that much would be accomplished for the building up of the institution in the future. The work of superintendent and assistant showed they had with hard labor, economy and wise forecast, secured all within their ability for the comfort of the inmates. Mistakes have been made, but the past must be left and its lessons will teach us to avoid similar ones in coming time. It is well to look back and if some progress has been made take courage for the future. Much ought to be done now to make improvements for the comfort of the household and to secure an income for the support of the school. These will be looked after by the present efficient board.

Let me urge every Union that has not already done so, to immediately adopt the plan of the stirring campaign and give a contest for the benefit of the school. This debt is made; it is just and we will pay it.

In this last effort to pay the last debt, may we depend upon each member and each union to respond to this appeal? A sum equal to the average of $1.00 per member sent as a free will offering from each union by January 1 would entirely cancel all debts and relieve the School of all embarrassment. Then it would have its present assets for a nucleus for the future. Will your union decide to do this by contest, entertainment or solicitation by January 1? I hope all will heartily say "yes" and go right to work. For four years I have worked, planned and prayed for Indiana's freedom from debt. I will continue to do all that I can to secure the payment of this last debt. When it is paid we will sing "Victory." Then straightway as an organization and as individuals, we should pledge ourselves never again to sanction by voice or vote any plan for further indebtedness on the Indiana W. C. T. U.

County convention convened October 5th in the M. E. Church, Mrs. Cammack present. Several members of the local clergy were present. Good music; much interest manifested and the work shapes up well for a new year's service. The secretary sent a full report, but space could not be found for it.

Please take note, we have no record books for the treasurers and recording secretaries. Perhaps we should have.

WORLD'S DELEGATES.

The State was arranged into four groups of a thousand members and over, using the east and west railroads, which cross the State, as the natural division lines. Mrs. Eliza Baker will report for the counties north of the Wabash Railroad, and as Mrs. Whitson, the alternate, who represented Group No. 3, does not wish to report, and the delegate of Group No. 4 did not go, Mrs. Cammack will report for her own, Group No. 2, and all the rest of the State.

Any Union wishing this report, better correspond with Mrs. Cammack at once for dates and terms. Mrs. Whitson is very desirous that Mrs. Cammack report in her territory. Mrs. Cammack's address is 1123 South Branson Street, Marion, Grant County, Ind.

HUNTINGTON, IND.

Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL CONVENTION.

Our little Message cannot take the place of the Annual Minutes, which will give you a full account of the entire session. We never had a more harmonious, on-time convention—206 voting delegates. Our visitors were Mrs. Emma Cranmer, South Dakota; Miss Anna Downey, Miss Margaret Wintringer, and Miss Austin, of Illinois; Mrs. Trego, of Ohio, and Mrs. Telford, of Colorado. The old corps of officers were re-elected on the informal ballot. Our branch secretaries will serve us another year. Mrs. L. M. Beck, Mrs. Frances Potter and Mrs. Frances Boyer are members of our Central Committee.

Very slight changes made in the department workers. Mrs. Florence Vance, of Frankfort, was made press superintendent, and Mrs. Frances Boyer took Mrs. Ault's place. Mrs. Ault is now a resident of Cleveland, Ohio. The department of Mothers' Meetings was left with the Central Committee to find a woman who can go into the field.

We have twenty-two new county presidents, and they are a very intelligent company of women, up to date and full of business. Our trial of doing the work of the convention in three days in place of our usual four days proved a success, and satisfactory all around. Time was given the Organizer Publishing Company on Friday and Saturday, finishing up on Monday, and after all the ground had been covered the following resolution was passed by a large majority:

"After a thorough investigation of the relation of the Organizer Publishing Company to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Indiana, from a business, legal and moral standpoint, and after a patient and continued hearing of the claims of the former corporation, Resolved, That it is the judgment of the Indiana W. C. T. U., in convention assembled, that neither corporation has any legal or moral obligations to the other, other than that of friendship and good will."

Monday morning the Executive Committee passed an additional resolution, which was ratified by the convention, and is as follows:

Resolved, That it is the judgment of this Committee that any future communications or propositions from the Organizer Publishing Company should come before the Executive Committee, and not before the open Convention of the Indiana W. C. T. U., and that while it will still be a matter of convenience for the Organizer Publishing Company to call its annual meeting for stockholders at the same time and place as that of the W. C. T. U., yet they should avoid conflicting with the time of the W. C. T. U. program; and that all dunning letters from the Organizer Publishing Company to Unions, or members of Unions not stockholders, are out of order, and if continued will be regarded as sent in a spirit of unfairness, as they are very detrimental to the good of our cause."

Unions and individual members of Unions not stockholders will certainly understand from this on that they are not in debt to the company and do not have to make donations unless it is their pleasure to do so.

Our prize banner to the secretary whose reports were neatest, completest and on time went to Miss Grace McSwane, Dubois county, who is expected to lay life's work and worry down soon and take up her heavenly calling. Our welcome to South Bend was royal, our stay pleasant, and the story of the meeting will read like a fairy tale in the Minutes. Don't fail to get a copy. I give below the

PLAN OF WORK.

Committee on Plan of Work reported the following:

ORGANIZATION.

County presidents shall, within 30 days, communicate with the chairman on Organization, and give their plans and receive her's in return. Make an effort to organize one Union the first quarter of the year and one each quarter thereafter. If the county president cannot call a state worker, she will do the work herself or secure the aid of home workers.

Organize Unions according to the constitution, requiring each one to sign the pledge and pay the regular fee of $1.00.

Where county presidents, from any cause, cannot do the work, the state may take charge.

We urge every Union to appoint a Y secretary at once who will build up a Y membership as fast as time and circumstances will admit. We recommend organizing and maintaining an L. T. L. for every Union. We urge the use of the stirring campaign plan for Industrial School; the life membership plan for Organization Fund; the Department Plan to develop departments; and put the Schools of Methods in charge of the superintendent of that department, the superintendent of the Department of Organization and the state president. Have the schools arranged to take in every county, to be held on schedule time and place—that they may be Schools of Methods or Normal Institutes, not conventions. Let no county fall into the error of not having an institute. Small groups for institutes are recommended. Keep state on a cash basis.

We recommend that every state speaker hold one public meeting and take a collection and send it to the state treasurer for an organization fund. We urge unions to make free will offerings for this purpose also. We recommend that superintendents hold public meetings to raise funds for their work. We recommend that we give particular attention to Red Letter days. Our particular department of work, the one to receive legislative attention, shall be woman's enfranchisement. Respectfully submitted,

LAURA M. THOMPSON,
Chairman.

ELLA J. DAVIS,
Secretary.

The Central Committee, at its regular called meeting November 4, decided to create a roll of honor for counties who will endeavor to carry out this plan of work. No county will appear on the roll who fails to do at least one-half of the work called for and each county will occupy the place the work performed entitled it to. We think every county will be ambitious to be No. 1. They should try as hard as children do to stand No. 1 in their classes at school.

SIX PAPERS OF NOTE.

The Committee planned further for the interest of our cause and we hope every member of our band will seriously try to write one of these papers and begin now. They may be made of so much worth that they may find a place in the columns of the Union Signal, or be printed in leaflet form for wider circulation. Any W. C. T. U. president who will write the best 10 minute paper on the financial history and policy of the Indiana W. C. T. U. for the period of its existence, and the secretary who will write the best 10 minute paper on events having taken place in our annual conventions for the past twenty-four years, and the superintendent who will write the best 10 minute paper on department work in general, and the L. T. L. or Y secretary who will write the best 10 minute paper on the history of these branches in our state, and the individual who will give us the best 10 minute paper on individual workers in our organization from the time of its inception, shall each have a place on the program of the state convention, 1898, at Lafayette. The Executive Committee, at its mid-year meeting, shall appoint a committee of three for each of these separate subjects, who shall use their judgment in deciding which is best. The papers shall be in the hands of the respective committees by August 15, 1898, at 12 o'clock noon. The length of the paper may not occupy the full 10 minutes, but must not exceed that time. Persons writing these papers may be supplied with copies of state minutes, until exhausted, for 5 cents a copy, postpaid. It is suggested that these papers, committed to memory and delivered in the form of an address, is preferable to reading them.

NEW UNIONS.

The counties will be grouped as usual for choosing national delegates, but the county in the group having organized the most Unions shall have the delegates, and the county having the next highest number of Unions organized shall have the alternates. Hence, it stands for all our counties to be up and organizing.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO MESSAGE.

The individual sending in the largest list of subscriptions to the MESSAGE, shall be made a life member of the Indiana W. C. T. U. The individual sending in the second largest list shall be alternate to the delegate-at-large for the national convention. The individual sending in the third largest list shall receive their choice of Miss Willard's books. Let each White Ribboner say, "I will do my best to win," and begin to do the work on time.

MEMBERSHIP.

The three persons sending in the three largest lists for members having paid dues, and not including honoraries, shall each be made a life member. None of these premiums apply to state officers or organizers, and the time limit for all is from November 30, 1897, to August 15, 1898, at noon. There is time to understand the plans and get ready for the work, and there is abundance of time to do the work. You should take the best care possible of this paper. We can't reprint and you will need it to refresh your memory concerning the terms of the several premiums.

When you read this the Minutes will be ready to send out. Send the money with the order (15 cents a copy) if you want them sent by mail—10 cents if you pay express charges. Send to the same address as for the record books. We predict great things for 1898. Already Unions seem to be refreshed and have put off their indifference and doubt and have sent in dues. October 29th the Fair Cottage went up in flames and smoke, but a liberal insurance came down, which pays all indebtedness and leaves a nice balance for the treasury; and our experience has been that Fair Cottages are poor weapons to fight open saloons with, and we see a bright side to our loss. Now, if we will stir the stirring campaign and lift the blight of debt off of our Industrial School, Indiana will arise and shine on a cash basis and a comfortable treasury.

RECORD BOOKS

Are now ready. Local Unions get their book for 25 cents, the county for 50 cents. Send your order and the money with the order. Address Mrs. Mary E. Balch, 711 East 11th Street, Indianapolis, Ind.

OUR LECTURE BUREAU.

Take notice—The State workers, as well as those from other States, will be expected to pay to the State the regular bureau per cent, and no exceptions can be made.—SECRETARY of the Bureau.

WASHINGTON AND VINCENNES PARLOR LECTURES.

Given for society women by Miss Fisher. A series of instructive and entertaining lectures have been given in this city lately by Miss Fisher, who displays wonderful skill and accomplishment in the art of dressing. Miss Fisher is the originator of the system she advocates and meets with flattering success wherever she exhibits. She is not an extremist in her line; does not advocate the banishment of corsets, but only exhibits sensible costumes and how to wear them sensibly. All her garments are pretty; this endears them to the hearts of young ladies. Miss Fisher's work represents the culmination of thought of this century on Dress Reform, as she has solved all the problems regarding it. Her dressing is perfect. Miss Fisher has a charming personality and is pleasing and graceful in her manner. The progressive ladies who opened their parlors for these lectures afforded their friends a rare treat.

Mrs. Beck, of Bloomington, reported Miss Fisher's visit at that city, and commended her work to our Unions.

Mrs. Ella McConnell, formerly of Kendallville, but now in Hiram College, in Ohio, buried her father recently, but with the blessed hope of a resurrection morn and meeting him again in the "Sweet Bye and Bye."

Unions willing to correspond with Mrs. Trego will make a note of this: Her address now is 1121 Detroit street, Cleveland, Ohio. She has lately moved there. Those who visited the convention at South Bend will remember Mrs. Trego.

The secretary of the Michigan City Union writes me the names of their newly elected officers: President, Mrs. R. G. Young; secretary, Mrs. India Worthley, 506 Buffalo street; treasurer, Mrs. Bertha Whitney. No street and number were given for the president and treasurer. Mrs. Worthley does the work of the corresponding and recording secretaries, it is presumed from the report given.

Mrs. A. P. Daub, secretary of Goshen Union, is also press superintendent. She wants to know when and where shall I send articles of news for the MESSAGE. Others may be writing to gain the same information. Send them by the 25th of each month to Mrs. Mary E. Balch, 711 E. 11th street, Indianapolis, Ind.

Mrs. Edith Johnson, corresponding secretary of Sedalia Union, has removed to LaFayette—226 South street. She will join one of the Unions of that city at once.

MARSHALL COUNTY.

Y secretary, Miss Minnie Snell, Bourbon; L. T. L. secretary, Maggie Deitsler, Argos; Sunday Work, Mrs. Mary Watson, Argos; Literature, Mrs. Mary B. Singeny, Argos; Press, Mrs. Lucretia Fields, Bourbon; Mothers' Meetings, Mrs. Jennie Haughton, Plymouth; Peace and Arbitration, Mrs. Fietta Benner, Argos; Narcotics, Mrs. Fannie Cleveland, Plymouth; Evangelistic, Mrs. E. K. Kyner, Bourbon; Systematic Giving, Mrs. E. W. Cannon, Argos; Flower and Mercy Mission, Mrs. C. A. Moore, Argos; Sabbath Observance, Mrs. Rhoda Kern, Bourbon; Franchise, Mrs. Sallie Snapp, Bourbon; State and County Fairs, Mrs. G. H. Thayer, Plymouth.

These and every county superintendent, as soon as they are appointed, should write at once to her state superintendent and so begin her work without any delay.

by Power,
But by My Spirit"

BE TRUE.

Thou must be true thyself
If thou the truth wouldst teach;
Thy soul must overflow, if thou
Another's soul wouldst reach;
It needs the overflow of heart
To give the lips full speech.

Think truly, and thy thoughts
Shall the world's famine feed;
Speak truly and each word of thine
Shall be a fruitful seed;
Live truly and thy life shall be
A great and noble creed.

BUSINESS MANAGEMENT.

With this issue of the MESSAGE the business management of the paper passes into the hands of that earnest, indefatigable worker—Mrs. Mary E. Sims, 3346 Central avenue, Indianapolis. I bespeak for her and know that she will have the loyal support that was given me. Her interest for the success of this paper has been very great. It is now intensified. Let us work and pray for the unbounded success of our paper. I have known of the untiring efforts of many of you in the past, and you may well rejoice over the success of these efforts.

It is cheering to know that so many are not willing to stop with the present subscription list of 1,600, but are working with renewed effort to increase it. How many Unions will make it equal to their membership list? No W. C. T. U. woman can afford to be without it.

The National Convention at Buffalo passed this resolution:

Recommended, That no one should be elected to any office that is not a reader of the State and National papers.

Many of your subscriptions expire with the December issue. Now is the time to renew, and please secure as many additional names as possible. Send at once, that you may not miss a single number. The MESSAGE and Signal only $1.10.

The MESSAGE and Signal to ministers, 75 cents; the MESSAGE in clubs of 12 or more, 25 cents; single subscription, 35 cents.

In turning this work over into other hands, I will miss the cheery letters that have so often come to my table. I will miss the kindly association with the names upon the subscription list, so many of which, through letters and otherwise, I have learned to love. Together let us all work with untiring effort for the success of our paper—the MESSAGE.

Yours to help,

AMANDA T. WHITSON.

PRESIDENT'S NOTES.

Dear Sisters—The encouraging reports from Unions indicate renewed interest, which greatly rejoices me. Now is the time for practical systematic effort in every locality. Our members may accomplish much by doing definite work.

A Union of less than twenty members perhaps, if divided into two sections, would accomplish twice as much as at the present time. Larger Unions divided according to the same plan would no doubt accomplish much more than they do. Each section should decide upon some special definite work. Pushing this special work vigorously would no doubt develop much latent ability. Let every section elect its chairman and treasurer and plan for and push its special work. To secure the funds necessary, hold contests, give entertainments, etc., each member getting as many of her friends and neighbors to join her section as possible. Every section holding its necessary meetings at the homes of its members. The chairman reporting the work accomplished, members gained, etc., at least once a month to the Union. The president of the Union not being eligible to the chairmanship of a section. A discreet president would always encourage the sections and be wholly impartial.

The membership dues should be paid into the Union treasury. The Union meetings should be held according to regular plan.

In my November letter I told you of my conviction in regard to Public Meeting, Press and Young People's Societies. Let me here emphasize what I then said.

My article in same issue in regard to Hadley Industrial School and plan for paying the debt failed to get a heading. If you have not read it, please do so; it will be found on the third page. Read it to your Union and let me know of its action.

Yours for Indiana,

"These ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone."

The W. C. T. U. is like Martha—"troubled about many things," so that it may neglect "the one thing needful," the training of the young. When we think of the wasted opportunities in the past twenty years, that if the children in these years had received the instruction that is now being imparted, we might now feel that the problem is nearly solved. Then let us take warning and not miss the present opportunity.

We of the W. C. T. U. have many departments of work, but we must not neglect this most important one. This L. T. L. work should receive first attention, as the future of the W. C. T. U. and the good of our State rests with the young people. Do not become discouraged, but push the work hard. The children are waiting to be led. O, how can we refuse? Let us walk in the light which God gives us. Be wise and tactful, do what we can and leave the result with Him. He has promised aid and blessing.

The Plan of Work for Indiana is ready, and any one desiring it please send stamp. I notice in the reports from county conventions that only two have appointed secretaries of L. T. L. work. This is wrong. Read Article III of the constitution for county W. C. T. U. and you will see that the Y and L. T. L. secretaries are classed with the officers, and should be considered just as important. They belong also to the county executive. Let us do our work according to the plan laid down for us and work hard this year.

Yours for a better year,

AMANDA R. GORDON.

TREASURER'S LETTER.

Dear Sisters—Knowing that space in November issue of the MESSAGE would be at a premium and that many articles could not possibly get in, I withheld this letter to you until the December issue. I very greatly desire that this letter may be considered personal to each one of you, and may I not soon receive a letter from each local and county treasurer?

At the recent State Convention, held in South Bend, I was again selected to be the recipient of the moneys to be gathered up from the various Unions throughout our loved Indiana. I greatly appreciate the honor thus bestowed upon me and shall earnestly endeavor during the entire year to prove, through works, my appreciation of this loyalty and confidence.

The importance of the office of treasurer, whether it be that of the State, the county or the local Union, can not be too greatly magnified. We were told, both at the World's and National Conventions, that the work of the treasurer was the most important of all. That if the treasurer neglected her duty by failing to collect dues, or by failing to form plans by which the treasury could be replenished, that the whole body, up to the World's Union, would suffer. One discouraged person often affects an entire Union. One discouraged Union will effect an entire county. A discouraged county will have its influence throughout a State, and a discouraged State falls away behind in the National. Let us begin this year's work with a determination not to yield to discouragements in any case. If we do not believe this to be a work called of God, then we would not be in it at all.

The report from your Union may seem of little importance to you, but it means much to the county and to the State. Let us not forget that the work of one individual member will do much to make or mar the life of a Union. We are each responsible for just one. If we, each one, do our duty, God will take care of the rest.

Blanks were mailed to the county treasurers November 30th. If you do not receive them promptly, notify me and others will be sent immediately. If local treasurers do not receive the blanks by the 10th, do not wait, but notify your county treasurer at once; she may promptly send you others.

The question has been asked two or three times recently: "Why do you send two blanks to the county treasurers?" In answer I will say, make out two reports just alike; keep one on file and send the other to the State Treasurer. Again let me urge the importance of filling out your blanks in full and returning them promptly. Please do not neglect to give the full name and address of every local treasurer.

I trust you have already begun your work. Do not wait until you receive your blanks before you begin to collect the dues. It has been proven over and over again that the first half of the year is much the better time for work. The work done during this time will bear fruit at our next convention. The last half not until the following year. This being true, and we all realize how difficult it is to work during the hot months while many are taking their outings, so let us put forth every effort until warm weather towards increasing of interest in our work, which will increase our membership.

I was delighted last year that so many of our local and county treasurers were subscribers to the MESSAGE. How many county treasurers will make an extra effort this year to secure all her local treasurers as subscribers? Let us have a treasurers' club to be reported at the State Convention in LaFayette. Who will be the first to send in such a report to be published in the MESSAGE?

If my letter was not already so long I would like to tell you of some of the reports given at the World's Convention. I must tell you about one report—the National President of Iceland. Said she had traveled through her country during the long winter nights to organize and strengthen Unions when the snow was between two and three feet deep, and sometimes going to the bottom of it. She reported no millionaires, no tramps and no houses of ill-repute, but saloons exist there as they do here, and they are banded together there as we are here to do all that can be done to remove from our land this home destroyer.

Oh, may none of us falter in this great work.

Yours, for a successful campaign in behalf of our homes,

AMANDA T. WHITSON.

KLONDIKE

For the National and State treasuries. How? Use "Wool Soap" and send wrappers to Mrs. Helen M. Barker, The Temple, Chicago, Ill. Unions will receive letters from the National. Act promptly. Buy Wool Soap. Get your neighbors, your friends and your enemies to buy Wool Soap and you send wrappers as directed above. There never was a more hopeful or easier way to help the National and State treasuries.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

LETTER TO W. C. T. U. WORKERS.

Dear Sisters—So important is the subject of peace and arbitration, especially at this time, when our Senate has turned a cold shoulder to England's proposal for a treaty of arbitration, I take the liberty to urge you to use your influence in having Peace Sunday, the third Sabbath in December, observed in your locality and offer the following suggestions: Invite your pastor to preach on peace; try to have one of our department programs, or an original one, carried out in the evening; distribute peace literature in the Sunday school; have a public meeting at which special prayer may be offered, asking for the coming of international peace; write an article for your local paper in the interest of the day and cause; try to form a peace band on that day, gather the children in some place and invite a clergyman to speak to them on peace or make peace the subject of the evening prayer meeting. If you live in a small place, try to have a union meeting for all the churches, at which the different pastors can speak on the desirability of peace. At all events do something, if it be nothing more than to induce your pastor to simply allude to the subject in his sermon, for there will doubtless never be another year in which what we do for this great cause will have so much influence as during the present year.

Literature and programs may be obtained of the W. C. T. U. Peace Department.

Yours peacefully,

HANNAH J. BAILEY,

Winthrop Centre, Me. Supt. of Peace and Arbitration of the National W. C. T. U.

OXFORD, IND., November 23, 1897

Dear County and Local Superintendents—With the blank reports for last year, I also sent to each superintendent the Plan of Work leaflet. Having them thus early, I am sure much good work has already begun. Another county is already added to our number, and several new locals have reported.

I am pleased with the many congratulations received upon our yearly report in this department and pass them on most heartily to you, without whose earnest co-operation and devoted efforts in the work small results would have been obtained.

Please read carefully the Plan of Work and note the list of publications in its last pages. I feel sure you can select from it suitable matter for distribution, and as the prices, etc., are clearly stated, it will save you much correspondence and loss of time. I most heartily commend the entertainments described, and feel that they would be a success anywhere.

If possible, have our workers in this department visit you, and have committees visit your schools, that we may know what is being done.

People are beginning to understand more and more that in presenting scientific temperance as a study, we are not seeking to introduce all the phases of W. C. T. U. work into the public school. Pray have it understood in your locality that in teaching scientific temperance it is not necessary to introduce any question whatever as to license, local option or political issues. Even pledging the children should not be done unless under the name of an organized local society. We must be very careful in these matters, just as we are careful not to introduce sectarianism.

The American flag, which waves from the summits of our public buildings, proclaims freedom throughout all the land and to all the inhabitants thereof. The schools are public institutions. Over them the stars and stripes wave for all, and no party, no creed, no society, can claim it for its own.

We do not mean by this that we may abate one atom of zeal, but that the object of this department is to have taught in our schools the proven facts of science as to the effects of alcohol and narcotics upon the human body, and that some of us have laid ourselves open to criticism from school authorities in urging upon teachers the formation of temperance societies and bringing questions of license, etc., into the schools for discussion.

"You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." We want simple truth on this subject imparted to the youth of our land, and ask for no bias of opinion, feeling sure that it will help to make us a people free, indeed, from the power of rum and its hosts of attending evils.

Dear superintendents, let me hear from you, even though you have no special report to send. Give your plans and ideas for work in your own localities. Some of our best suggestions have come from local workers and have been of much benefit to others.

Yours with loving appreciation,

ADAH WHINERY WHITE,

State Superintendent Scientific Temperance Instruction.

Dear Press Workers—Your new superintendent brings you greetings. She comes to you with at least two qualifications for the work; a genuine love for it and an abiding faith in it. In looking over the field and studying the reports of work being done, the great need for this department is very apparent. It is not more earnest workers or better work, but it is more, many more workers. The women do not realize as they should the wonderful help a judicious use of the daily and weekly newspapers would be in carrying on the work. This help may be had for the asking. I believe that no Union is doing such good work but what it might, by adding the press department, do much better. "Nothing succeeds like success." Report your successes and you will have more success to report. A live Union cannot afford to be without a press superintendent. The work of the W. C. T. U. has become a part of the news of the day, and we, as members of the organization, are not doing our whole duty until we try to see that the supply comes somewhere near the demand.

I most earnestly desire that many more Unions may be led to take up this department and will appoint superintendents at once. Secure space in as many papers as possible, and having secured it, fill it promptly and regularly. If you cannot get regular space, do not neglect to send in reports of meetings, lectures, contests and other newsy items. Keep account of your work. My way is to count the lines in each article and note it down, then make calculations according to the number of lines to a column in publications for which I write. Some one may have a better plan. Now, another thing, sisters, when you hand in your copy, I hope you send after it a little prayer that some line or word, some potent fact or statistic, may carry with it converting power and be just the "word in season" that some one is unconsciously waiting for to enlist them in this work.

Yours for work,

FLORENCE E. VANCE,

State Superintendent.

THE BRODERICK BILL.

I wish to call the attention of the readers of the MESSAGE to the Broderick bill (H. R. 1136) to raise the age of protection for girls to eighteen in the District of Columbia and the territories. Interest the most influential politicians in your community in the bill and urge them to write letters to our State senators and representative, asking them to use their influence in favor of the passage of the bill. Let every W. C. T. U. appoint a committee at their next meeting who will attend to this at once, as Congress convenes in December. Mrs. Ellis, our national superintendent of legislation and petition, said had the letters and petitions come pouring in as requested, we would have undoubtedly had more favorable legislation last winter.

PLAN FOR PURITY WORK.

It is hardly necessary for me to say that purity work is needed in our State, although it has been so sadly neglected. If you have never had a superintendent of this department, won't you do so at once and let Indiana redeem herself by doing the best year's work in this line that has ever been done? The purity department is manifold in its opportunities and gives scope for talent in all lines. It has three divisions: Reform and Legislative, Rescue Work, Moral Education. We should acquaint ourselves with the existing laws in our State against public morals before attempting legal work. If vile men knew that good women understood the law and were working for its enforcement, it would bring about a better condition of things. Distribute good literature to hackmen and admonish them not to take fees from keepers or drive these women in their carriages through our streets for any evil purpose. Physicians should be plead with relative to their visits in these houses and regarding the practice of abortion, etc., etc. Strenuous efforts must be made to suppress procurer or procuress at the depots, on trains, or wherever a clue can be traced of their fiendish work. Plead with the press for a pure output and against unwarranted advertisements of crime and immorality. Ask pastors to devote yearly one contribution in their churches to the purity of the city. Here is a list of questions to be answered by you next September:

1. Have you a purity superintendent?
2. Have you done any rescue work?
3. How many public meetings held or sermons preached?
4. Have you examined your public library to see that it contains no objectionable reading matter?
5. What have you done toward wiping out houses of ill-fame?
6. Have you used your influence with the press?
7. How many subscribers to the New Crusade?
8. How many pages of literature given out?
9. How many White Shield or White Cross societies?

Yours for better protection,

FRANCES E. BOYER,

State Superintendent Purity.

FIELD NOTES.

Wappanee Union has just had a chrysanthemum show. They bought their slips last spring and cultivated them through the summer months and were well repaid for their labor. The show extended through two days. The ladies served lunch each day and accumulated a snug sum for their treasury.

Mrs. Wires, of Wakarusa, fell on the sidewalk and broke her leg, which greatly disables the Union.

I was received with kind courtesy in the schools of Wakarusa, as I was at Wappanee, and find the teachers seeking after the truth.

GOSHEN UNION

Is up-to-date. It has a fine Y annex. The Y branch of the W. C. T. U. has given a "baby social." All babies under 75 years of age were invited. The lunch was plain bread and milk and each baby wore a bib. A simple little program was carried out and the evening was pleasantly spent.

WAWAKA UNION

Is trying to keep a saloon out of the village. Hope they will be successful.

PARKE COUNTY OFFICERS.

President, Mrs. Dora Woodard, Coloma; Vice-president, Mrs. Jennie K. Newlin, Bloomingdale; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Lou M. Spray, Bloomingdale; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Dora Woodard, Coloma; Treasurer, Lou E. Cooke, Bloomingdale. The recent county convention at Bloomingdale was very encouraging and once more Parke will be heard from in this peaceful war. Mrs. Emma Cranmer gave a very awakening lecture, in the evening, of sufficient spirit to advance rather than retard the revival in progress.

HADLEY NOTES.

As reported at State Convention our Connorsville property was in litigation. Our sister, Miss Mary Tate, willed two pieces of property to the W. C. T. U., one to the State, giving her mother (our staunch friend and sister) a life interest in it; another to the Hadley Industrial School. The first would be practically unavailable on account of debt and accrued interest. A brother, Quincy Tate, being dissatisfied with the will, brought suit to have it set aside, claiming that his sister was of unsound mind. After several weeks of investigation, realizing the appeal that a poor man has in a community, and the certainty of court costs and lawyers' fees and the uncertainty of the decision of a jury, we compromised by Mr. Tate giving us $450 cash for a quiet claim deed to the property. After paying lawyers and expenses there remains about $100 for the State and $300 for the Hadley Industrial School.

Every one favors paying the Hadley School debt at once. Marion County, at a recent Executive Committee meeting, talked that way very earnestly and plans were discussed looking to that end.

CENTRAL UNION PROGRAM.

At the last regular meeting of Indianapolis Central Union, W. C. T. U., it was decided to have programs prepared for each regular meeting during the year. It was thought better (after some discussion) to meet at one place during the coming year. Friends are cordially invited to meet with us upon the first and third Thursdays of each month at the residence of Mrs. Mary Balch, 711 East 11th street.

Over one hundred White Ribboners and friends attended a parlor meeting at the home of Mrs. McWhirter, given November 22 by Indianapolis Meridian Union, in honor of Mrs. Cranmer.

Mrs. Kidd, of Wabash, says, "We can show, as a direct result of Mrs. McWhirter's visit, nine regular and two honorary members, all good workers, and I have heard of a number more who are under conviction. When Mrs. Cammack comes I hope she will tell the workers how to work. We have gained fifteen regular members since the State Convention."

MAPLETON UNION.

Of Marion County, considers itself very fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. Emma Cranmer, who gave an excellent address on Franchise on the evening of November 11. Those not hearing her missed a treat. Space forbids further comment.

Jesse Edgerton, a valued member of the Deer Creek Union, was called from work to reward November 8.

GREENSBURG UNION

Sent a delegate to the meeting of the State Board of Charities, which met at Evansville. They have a printed program for the year.

TAKE NOTICE.

Mrs. Helen L. Bullock, the most successful W. C. T. U. organizer in the world, says "that if all our cities were organized as Baltimore (where there are over 50 Unions) our work would tell; but our women do not broaden out and other organizations creep in and absorb the time and strength of the earnest, intelligent women, and our work suffers because of this. We need so much to enlist the best element in society and clinch all the nails driven."

MEDAL DEPARTMENT.

Indiana just missed carrying off the National banner for best medal work this year and that came about by some not being careful to send in certificates. I wish every medal worker would study the rules and instructions. They are so very plain and explicit. And suppose we begin this year's work with the idea of winning in the race? As contests, as a rule, are money makers, why not make contests the Klondike of the Union and begin at once? Cooper medals are now the same price as those of the W. C. T. U. Cooper has three suffrage books. A Union that believes in the ballot for woman and does not get up a suffrage contest at least once a quarter, is like the man who is a prohibitionist—"but"—show your faith by your works. We will have a suffrage contest at our Mid-Year Executive Committee meeting. It will be for a small gold medal. Write State Superintendent for rules, medals and books.

MARY E. BALCH,
 711 East 11th street, Indianapolis.

HOPE UNION

Held a W. C. T. U. silver medal contest on the evening of November 24. A class of three young ladies and three young gentlemen entertained the audience in a very creditable manner. Miss Lucy Ryerson received the medal on the recitation entitled "The Cost of Rum." Miss Hazel Buxton, only ten years old, was awarded the second prize on the recitation entitled "In the Kegs." Much interest is being manifested in contest work by our young people.

SUPERINTENDENT CON. WORK.

THE LARGEST REPRESENTATION

Of the several counties reporting, Clinton had the largest representation, 45 delegates from 6 Unions.

WABASH COUNTY

Makes a change in the list of its superintendents. Mrs. Elizabeth Jennings has resigned and Mrs. Elizabeth Ebbinghouse has been appointed in her place of Evangelistic Superintendent.

BOURBON UNION

Offers premiums in each grade or room of their school of $1.00 each for the best essay on the "Effects of Tobacco on the Brain and Heart." This could be done by every Union, and it should be done.

NOVEMBER MESSAGE.

"Did you read it? Not some part of it, but every line? It was the paper of the year, because it contained the plans for the year. We want to hear from those who will try to write the papers. Try to win life memberships and the other premiums. We want your opinion of the plans. November MESSAGE should be put away with your minutes, both of value and needed every day for reference.

ORGANIZATION.

The chairman of Organization, according to the State Plan of Work, was to hear from the county presidents as to their plans and wishes within thirty days. The time has more than past. Dear county presidents, what are your plans? Will you correspond with the Chairman? Will you use home talent, State workers, or do you want the best in the world (judging by number of members gained)?

MRS. HELEN M. BULLOCK,
 Of New York.

SCHOOLS OF METHODS

Or Normal Institutes. You have read the plan of work and noticed the change in management. Have you, in your County Executive Committee meeting, discussed this matter as to whether you wanted to join with one or more counties or hold yours alone? Whether great good might not come to each and every county in particular and the State in general by submitting to schedule dates? I am sure the matter of economy gives the deciding vote for schedule dates, and a uniform program assures success.

DEPARTMENT FUND.

January MESSAGE will contain a program for our first quarterly department meeting. If Unions will have decided to hold this meeting, arranged for the place and those necessary preliminaries, then they can soon master the program. We shall be happy if any Unions try it. We shall be on the mountain top of joy and the pinnacle of success if fifty Unions try carry it out. And think of the fund that will accumulate from fifty collections.

IMPORTANT.

Our paper is small. It will hold so many lines—no more. We can publish only the essentials. We will publish complete lists of county superintendents for the benefit of the State superintendents, lists of county officers, and, when there is room, lists of local officers and superintendents. We can not publish two reports of one meeting, and will be obliged to re-write too long reports. Condense—give us the kernel.

STATE MINUTES.

10 cents a copy, if you pay express charges; 15 cents, if we pay postage. Order at once.

RECORD BOOKS READY.

Local secretary's, 25 cents; county, 50 cents. We have no books for the treasurers, either local or county.

RECEIPT AND ORDER BOOKS.

10 cents a copy, Address State secretary, 711 E. Eleventh street, for State minutes, record books, receipt and order books.

APPOINTMENT.

I have appointed Miss Elizabeth Fisher lecturer for the department of Health, Heredity and Physical Culture. Any Union will do well to have Miss Fisher for a series of lectures. Clara Agnes Boyd, State superintendent of Health, Heredity and Physical Culture.

Good fortune comes to our doors in the person of Miss Elizabeth Preston, State president of North Dakota. Miss Preston is spending a month at Goshen, Elkhart County, and can give a few dates to Indiana. Address her at once for dates and terms at 209 E. Jefferson street, Goshen. Do not delay or you will miss the golden opportunity.

CLINTON COUNTY.

Convention at Sedalia, one of the new Unions. Some changes made in the officers. President, Mrs. Emma Sayler, 604 W. Walnut St.; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mary Ellis, W. Barner St.; recording secretary, Mrs. Hannah Van Sickle; treasurer, Mrs. Frankie Hinds, Gentry St.; all of Frankfort. County superintendents: Literature, Miss Ada Van Sickle, Jefferson; Narcotics, Miss Virginia Clay Cough; Evangelistic, Mrs. Emma Condon, S. Jackson St.; Colored, Mrs. Radcliff; Systematic Giving, Mrs. Martha Van Aradel, East First street; Press, Mrs. Florence Vance, East Walnut street; Health and Heredity, Mrs. M. Van Ardel, 31st street; Fairs, Mrs. Nannie Clark, North John street; Flower Mission, Mrs. Frankie Hinds, Gentry street; Jail and Prison, Sarah Eutraben; Sabbath Observance, Mrs. Frances Boyer, 208 Anghe street; Sunday School, Mrs. Kate Parlmen, South Main street; Railroad and Charity, Mrs. Cole, East Washington street; all of Frankfort.

FRANKFORT UNION.

Recently held a gospel meeting in the country at Farmer's Chapel, while Willard Union held one at Antioch. Excellent meetings reported at both places.

PORTLAND UNION

Gave a Thanksgiving dinner to her poor children.

THE ANNUAL MEETING

Of the W. C. T. U. of Wabash, Ind., was held September 2, resulting in the following ladies being elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. M. H. Kidd; vice-president, Mrs. A. F. Ebbinghouse; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Solomon Wilson; recording secretary, Mrs. B. Searles; treasurer, Mrs. Julia Herick.

MRS. SOLOMON WILSON,
Corresponding Secretary.

SHELBY COUNTY

W. C. T. U. convention was held at Morristown. Two Unions were represented and quite an interesting program carried out. Mrs. Josie Dicks, Shelbyville, was re-elected county president; Mrs. Handy, Shelbyville, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Tomlinson, Fairland, recording secretary, and Mrs. Bodine, Morristown, treasurer. Mrs. Handy, of Harrodsburg, Ky., was present and gave an interesting and instructive talk.

WAYNE COUNTY

W. C. T. U. was held in Greens Fork October 15. The report of the Superintendent was not so full as could have been wished. The old officers were re-elected, that is: Hannah W. Stanley, Economy, President; Martha B. Timberlake, Boston, Corresponding Secretary; Lucinda G. Moffitt, Richmond, Recording Secretary; Mattie J. Gates, Centerville, Treasurer. We were highly favored in having the company of Mrs. Stoddard, State President of Texas, and also our own Mrs. McWhirter, at our convention, especially Mrs. McWhirter, who, on account of missing railroad connection, had to ride twenty miles in a carriage in order to be with us. They both spoke in the evening to a large and attentive audience. Some of our women attended the World's and National Convention.

Secretary.

DE KALB COUNTY.

Waterloo Union, having such close neighbors in the new Union at Butler, and the County President and Secretary residing in our town, feels very much in earnest for a splendid year's work. Our President called our Executive Committee meeting Nov. 4th, in the afternoon, at the beautiful home of the Keeran sisters at Auburn. These ladies are great workers in the W. C. T. U., and extended invitations to all the Unions. The inclement weather limited the attendance. The business of electing Superintendents came before us, resulting as follows:

Evangelistic, Mrs. C. B. Jones, Jarrett; Medal Contest, Mrs. Addie Sewell, Waterloo; Mothers' Meetings and Social Purity, Mrs. Ehlers, Auburn; Flower Missions, Mrs. Lackey, Auburn; Systematic Giving, Miss Laura Keeran, Auburn; Sunday School, Mrs. Silvers, Auburn; Literature, Mrs. I. D. Daily, Butler; Jail Work, Mrs. Quince, Auburn; Mercy and Help, Mrs. Kazy, St. Joe Station; Press, Mrs. Maggie Stafford, St. Joe Station.

Mrs. Toast, of Michigan, formerly of Auburn, sang a solo, to our delight. Some minor business matters occupied a few minutes, followed by social chat, and lastly the dining-room called us to sumptuous fare. Two long tables were bountifully spread. A spray of white chrysanthemums graced each plate. The passing of time and the coming on of darkness and clouds compelled us to separate with regret for leaving such good company and our dear hosts, but we felt that it was good to have been there.

MRS. O. A. LONG,
Superintendent Press Work.

ZIONSVILLE.

At our last monthly meeting we organized our Assembly Union, with the following officers: Mrs. Gates, president; Mrs. Alice Swain, first vice-president; Mrs. Dora Gregory, second vice-president; Mrs. Sue Gregory, secretary; Mrs. Silvia Branum, Treasurer, all of Zionsville.

MRS. FRANK ANDERSON.

ELKHART COUNTY NOTES.

Rev. Mattie Cammack spent some time in Elkhart county organizing and recruiting the army of White Ribboners.

The Pabst Brewing Company, of Milwaukee, sent a booklet called "Baby Secrets" by mail to our County President, Rev. M. A. Tompkins, of Elkhart, asking her to be sure and read it. She did read it, and in answering enclosed one of our leaflets, explaining why insurance companies will not take a man that gets drunk, and railroad managers will not employ men that use any intoxicating drinks in any form, and a great many more statistics, saying: "I have read your leaflet, as you asked me to. Will you please read mine in return?"

Goshen and Elkhart Unions will observe Universal Temperance Sunday. The committees in both Unions are planning broadly and with much enthusiasm. Rev. M. A. Tompkins will give the main address at Elkhart, and Rev. Mrs. Mattie O. Cammack will address the citizens of Goshen in a mass meeting, and ministers of all the different churches have been asked to preach a temperance sermon and some will respond to the earnest appeal.

The Goshen Y Branch is growing rapidly. At nearly every meeting new members are added to the Union. Friday evening, November 26th, we had a baby social at Mrs. D. T. Kauffman's, in which an interesting program and light refreshments were some of the principal features. We are a very much alive Union, and can report twenty-five Y's with prospects favorable.

MRS. A. P. DAUB,
Press Superintendent.

WEST INDIANAPOLIS

Union gave a public meeting Friday evening, November 12th, at the Congregational Church, with Mrs. Emma Cranmer, of South Dakota, as speaker. Four W's, two Y's and one honorary member were secured. "Why a church member should belong to the W. C. T. U." was distributed. HATTIE S. MOORMAN.

The lecture delivered by Mrs. Emma E. A. Cranmer on Sunday morning, at Central Avenue M. E. Church, under the auspices of Marion County W. C. T. U., was attended by a large concourse of people. The speaker was earnest and eloquent, and the attention she received was marked. Mrs. Cranmer is a power in the temperance cause.

MRS. LECK.

MARION COUNTY

Voted at its last Executive meeting to offer a premium to the Union that observes all the red letter days. A first, second and third.

First premium, "A Great Mother," by Frances Willard; second, a year's subscription to the Union Signal; third, a year's subscription to the Young Crusader.

HAMILTON COUNTY.

Superintendent Scientific Temperance Instruction, Phebe L. Doan, Westfield; Temperance Literature, Lottie Lindley, Sheridan; Press, Bertha Hunt, Sheridan; Narcotics, Martha B. Stanley, Westfield; Franchise, Candace Johnson, Carmel; Jail and Prison, O. W. Carson, Cicero; Flower Mission, K. K. Kenyon, Westfield; Sabbath School, Anna Wells, Westfield.

VINCENNES UNION

Observed memorial services for Neal Dow. The Grand Army and pastors of the several churches met with them.

DUBOIS COUNTY OFFICERS

Elected at the last county convention, and their postoffice address is Ireland. President, Mrs. M. L. Hobbs; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Alpha Gleazen; Recording Secretary, Miss Ora Brittan; Treasurer, Miss May DeBruler.

The program at the convention was one of special merit. Jasper Abel, aged 18, won the gold medal and we feel sure he will be for us at the ballot box when his time comes to speak there. There are many obstacles to be overcome in Dubois County and it takes brave hearts to stand as they do.

WINE SERVED AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

President McKinley gave a dinner at the White House to-night in honor of the prime minister of Canada and his associates in the seal conference. The affair was important because of the high rank of the guests of honor, because it was the first state dinner of the season, and because for the first time in the McKinley administration wine was served. The decorations for the table were not elaborate. Autumn leaves were arranged about the center pieces and glasses were set for claret and champagne.

The above paragraph appears in one of the daily letters sent from Washington City by Wm. E. Curtis to the Chicago Record. No doubt President McKinley counted the cost of such action and realizes what it means. To deliberately give his influence to social drinking means a direct blow at the homes and the churches of this great nation. By this action his influence is opposed to all the scientific temperance instruction, which in every State but four, is required by law to be given in the public schools. The higher intelligence of the country is expressing disappointment and indignation.

We must redouble our energies, do more for organization and the circulation of temperance papers. The time is at hand when every Christian woman should align herself with the W. C. T. U. and help push the battle against the social wine-cup and the saloon. Let our great society rise in its strength to the duty of the hour. Let no president of a Union regard this appeal with indifference. Let us see what can be done for increased membership and for better temperance sentiment, by universal effort in Indiana. For once let us give ourselves with determination and enthusiasm to a united, supreme effort for the W. C. T. U. The cause is worthy and the end inspiring. A successful canvass for membership will reveal our latent strength and thrill the entire organization with new life and hope. Will you help? Will you decide just now that you will immediately secure one new member and devise some practical way of helping to advance the work of your Union? When the new member you secure has paid her dues, please send me the name and address, that I may use it in my list on the first page of next month's MESSAGE.

Each officer and superintendent of a department needs a copy of the Annual Report, as well as each member who is enough interested in the county and State work to study the plan of organization. If the different members will invest a few dimes each and get these Reports for their ministers, Sabbath school superintendents and high grade school teachers, the sentiment of many will be favorable to our work, instead of indifferent or antagonistic, as at present. Each member should read the Union Signal and the MESSAGE, both for $1.10 per year.

Sisters, help us thus to sow the seed, and God will bless the efforts. How many copies of the Reports will you need? Please send your order with the money to Mrs. M. E. Balch, 711 E. 11th St., Indianapolis.
L. F. McWHIRTER.

IMPORTANT TO SUBSCRIBERS.

A blue cross upon your paper indicates that your subscription expires with that issue.

Any one having sent in State dues during the past quarter and failing to receive receipt for the same, will please notify me at once and duplicates will be sent. I am delighted to inform you that more dues have been received during the past quarter than during any corresponding quarter for several years. Let us make the next three months even better.

AMANDA T. WHITSON.

JOHNSON COUNTY W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Johnson County W. C. T. U. met in convention November 23, in North Baptist Church, Franklin, Ind. Convention was called to order at 10:00 A. M. by the president, and after devotional exercises, proceeded to business.

A motion was made and seconded that we reverse the usual order of business and elect officers during the morning session. The motion was carried and the election proceeded. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Annie Alexander, president, Whiteland; Mrs. Adda Buckingham, vice-president, Franklin; Mrs. E. E. Covert, treasurer, Franklin; Mrs. Lizzie Dunlap, recording secretary, Franklin; Mrs. Olive Byers, corresponding secretary, Franklin. After noontide prayer, convention adjourned until 1:30.

There was a fairly good attendance in the afternoon, and the audience listened to a very impressive and interesting address by Mrs. M. L. Gipe, of Indianapolis, county superintendent of Mothers' Meetings. She was followed by Mrs. Margaret Carson, of the Door of Hope, Indianapolis, in a very interesting and profitable talk on the work of that institution.

The evening session found a crowded house, expecting to hear Mrs. Buchanan, police matron, of Indianapolis, but in her absence we listened to some very helpful and encouraging words from our county president.

Corresponding Secretary.

STATE FUND FOR ORGANIZATION.

On page 46 of our last Annual Report is found the report of the Committee on "Plan of Work." In the last paragraph is found this recommendation: "That every State speaker hold one public meeting and take a collection and send it to the State Treasurer for an organization fund." Now, plans of work have been going out to local Unions and workers from State conventions for a good many years, but one seldom thoroughly tested. A plan may be very good indeed at one end of the line, but if it is not connected at the other end with hearty co-operation and sympathy, it simply amounts to nothing more than the brain force that was spent to create it. Dear State co-workers, let each one of us fulfill this recommendation in the month of February, and have it done with, and the State will then have the money to meet any deficit in organization.

MATTIE CAMMACK.

OMISSION.

Two Red Letter days were left out of the minutes. January 3d, "Mothers' Day," and February 22d, "Patriotic Day." Those having the Union Signal on file will get an idea of these days by reading the issue of December 24th, 1896, and January 30th, 1897. Mrs. Martha L. Gipe calls attention to this oversight.—Ed.

Letter to Mrs. Helen M. Barker, Treasurer National W. C. T. U., The Temple, Chicago:

DEAR MADAM—We recently purchased from Raworth, Schodde & Co. their plant, trade mark, etc., and are now manufacturing the celebrated "Wool Soap." We will make you what we think a very generous proposition: that is, for every Wool Soap wrapper that you return to us between now and January 1st, 1899, we will pay you one cent each. Just think what this means to your Association if each one of your members only purchase one cake of this soap a week! It means that you will receive $2,000 weekly. They could also recommend it to their friends and have the wrappers given to them, and by working it in this way we think you should derive a benefit of at least $150,000 the coming year.

There is no better white floating soap on the market than "Wool Soap," and we will guarantee to keep the quality equal to what it is at the present time. It is the only soap that will wash woollens without shrinking, the best soap made for general laundry purposes, and is unexcelled for toilet and bath.

We will co-operate with you and give you as much assistance in getting our proposition known to your members as possible. Yours respectfully,

SWIFT & COMPANY.

None genuine unless cut of babies on the wrapper.

DEAR SISTER—We have made arrangements with Swift & Co. for the sale of Wool Soap, and if we can enlist our women and their friends to buy this soap during the next year and send the wrappers to us, we can gather in many dollars for our work.

1. The soap is an excellent article, and each woman will be benefited by using it.

2. Swift & Co. are a perfectly reliable firm, and will keep all their promises.

3. Here is a simple way in which every woman can strengthen the State and National without any financial loss to herself. Please bring this matter before your local Union, and ask every member to buy this soap and enlist every other woman to do the same. Appoint some faithful, earnest woman to look after the matter, and gather up the wrappers and send monthly to me.

To the woman sending in the largest number of wrappers during the year we will give as a prize Miss Willard's "Glimpses;" to the one sending the next largest number, "A Great Mother;" to the one sending the largest number from each State, we will give a badge or button with a beautiful portrait of Miss Willard. May we count on your doing this work thoroughly and systematically?

This firm will give the National one cent for each wrapper. These are all to be sent to Mrs. Helen M. Barker, The Temple, Chicago. An account will be kept with each State, and 30 per cent. of all receipts will be sent by the National Treasurer back to the State Treasurer. If the grocers of your town do not now keep this excellent soap, go to them and tell them that nearly all the women are going to want this soap, and ask them to order it at once from their jobber.

The general officers and nearly every State President heartily endorse the plan, your own State President among the number. The success of this plan will depend upon the earnestness with which you take it up, and talk it up, and follow it up, and keep it up.

Money is needed by State and National for literature, for organization, and for pushing the work. Thousands of dollars will come into our treasuries, my sisters, if we will all say a good word for Wool Soap, and keep saying it. Be careful not to forget to save and send the wrappers. Go to work at once. Send a slip giving name and address in full of sender with each package of wrappers, so that proper credit may be given to each State and to those who compete for prizes. Looking for the welcome packages of wrappers, I am yours for Wool Soap, that will cleanse our ways and make the wheels run smoothly.

HELEN M. BARKER,
Treasurer.

P. S. If your dealer refuses to put Wool Soap in stock, please send his name and address to Swift & Co., Chicago, Ill., and we will arrange to have you supplied.

Superintendents of departments can get copies of the MESSAGE at fifty cents per one hundred to send out to their local workers. This will surely increase the circulation of our paper. Mrs. Sims and Denny have their orders in for their departments.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

The chairman of the board of superintendents offers a friendly word of good cheer to superintendents of all lines of work and wishes to say, let's all join in the sentiment that this shall be our very best year's work. Under God's blessing it may be. I have had the pleasure of reporting the World's and National convention many times; the people like to hear it; I enjoy giving it. Mrs. Ellen K. Denny, Vincennes, and Mrs. W. H. Stahl, Hartford City, have been made associate evangelists.

ELLA J. DAVIS,

JAIL AND PRISON.

I would like to urge through the columns of the MESSAGE the necessity of every county having a superintendent of Jail and Prison. There is such a need of earnest gospel work being done in our prisons. I am anxious to visit every organized county in the State during the year. I desire the county superintendents to report to me at least once every three months. Will you answer the following questions?

1. Do you find your county behind in the work?
2. What use have you made of the press?
3. Have you secured the assistance of pastors and other Christian workers?
4. Are your visits kindly received by officials?
5. What literature have you used, and how much?
6. Do you use pledges? How many signatures have you obtained?
7. How often do you visit the county jail?
8. Do you co-operate with the superintendent of Flower Mission in observance of Flower Mission day?
9. Do you observe prison Sunday by special services and literature?
10. Have you provided a library?
11. Are there separate apartments for women?
12. Have you found men, women and children in the same corridors or cells in county jails?
13. Have you made the fact public through the press and reported the same to the State Board of Charities?
14. Do you write to the men sent to the penitentiary from your county?

ELLEN K. DENNY,

State Superintendent.

WORK AMONG MINERS.

In counties that have not a superintendent for Work among Miners, it will be the work of the superintendent for Jails and Prisons to answer the following questions. When you have mines in your vicinity, procure the names of all the workmen from the superintendent, and then visit each home systematically.

1. How many miners are employed?
2. How many homes visited by your workers?
3. How many of the men, women and children are Christians?
4. How many conversions this year?
5. How many miners' wives are members of the W. C. T. U.?
6. How many miners and their children in Sunday Schools?
7. Have you a Mercy Band?
8. How many children in industrial school and L. T. L.?
9. Have you a night school?
10. How many Bibles have been distributed?
11. How many pages of literature have been distributed?
12. How many scrap books to miners' children?
13. How many temperance meetings held?
14. How many signed the pledge?
15. How many saloons are in reach of your miners?
16. How many appeals to the mining companies for aid in your work and what result?

Questions to be answered in counties where there are no miners:

1. To how many men do you send literature?
2. How often do you send?
3. How many pages have you sent?
4. How much money have you expended?
5. How many letters have you sent to the men?
6. How many replies have been received?
7. What other work have you done for miners?

Will not every local superintendent do her best in carrying out these plans, as they are the questions your State superintendent has to report to the National superintendent.

ELLEN K. DENNY,

State Superintendent Work Among Miners.

State Superintendent.

Extracts from the "Recommendations" for 1898-9 by Miss E. W. Greenwood, national superintendent of evangelistic work. The usual evangelistic work, outlined in my "Hints and Helps for Evangelistic Workers," is always before us as we face a new year of effort. This work is especially necessary for the new unions constantly organized. It is well, however, that each year have a special key note. I would especially emphasize the following lines of work for this year's campaign.

RESCUE WORK.

This has been the mission of the Evangelistic Department from the beginning. In some localities a new impulse may be needed. Let us push this special work everywhere. By meeting in halls, school houses, depots, prisons and jails, camp and out-door services, let us seek to "rescue the perishing." To this door of opportunity the Pierced Hands ever point.

OUR FOUNDATION STONES.

Let great care be exercised this year to emphasize in all public meetings the foundations of our work; what are these? Our sure and only reliance upon the Holy Spirit and the word of God; the earnest invitation to a personal Christ; the duty of total abstinence; the presentation, as in former days, of the pledge; the convention evangelistic hour from 11 to 12 a. m.; the noontide prayer.

THE CHURCHES.

Let the movement to arouse the Church, so fully outlined in "Hints and Helps," and so successfully inaugurated in many localities, be continued.

PASTORAL VISITATION.

The presence at each county convention of the state superintendent or evangelist would greatly add to the power of these gatherings. Wherever possible hold an evangelistic service the evening preceding the convention. Also an early morning devotional service, in addition to the convention evangelistic hour.

LOCAL SUPERINTENDENTS.

Let each county superintendent remember that one of her first duties is to secure a local evangelistic superintendent in each union and to inspire her for work.

HINTS AND HELPS.

Believing that this little book, "Hints and Helps," in the hands of each local superintendent will result in greater spirituality and harmony, I urge all county superintendents and organizers to assist in its distribution. County and local superintendents should present it at W. C. T. U. meetings and all conventions, taking orders for the same. The names and P. O. orders can then be forwarded and a copy will be sent to each address. The price is ten cents and postage, or twelve cents. Send direct to the evangelistic superintendent of the World's and National W. C. T. U. at 59 Remsen street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

ALMSHOUSES.

The department of "work in almshouses," having been merged into the evangelistic, let our local superintendents plan frequent visits to these institutions, establish libraries and frequent Sabbath services. Co-operate with state boards of corrections and charities, and by every means better the condition of the unfortunate and outcast by carrying light into their darkness and Christ's peace to their hearts.

The state superintendent would add an earnest word of exhortation to all our county and local superintendents to push on to better work throughout the state. May this be the year of best work since we have been an organization. Dear sister, what can I do to help you? Please report to me, at once, through your county evangelistic superintendent (those who have not already reported.) Yours to serve,

ELLA J. DAVIS,

Richmond, Ind.

State Superintendent.

MRS. THURMAN AND WORK AMONG COLORED PEOPLE.

In planning for the coming year's work, county presidents and local workers, please do not fail to include our colored people. Encouraging reports come to me of colored women attending and participating in exercises of white unions and of plans for organization of them by themselves. Mrs. Lucy Thurman, our national superintendent of this department, writes urging us to go forward. We felt, when she left us last September, after two weeks crowded full of good work, that she could accomplish great things for us, especially in the way of organization, if she could return this year and, in each town or city where she gave public addresses, to follow them with afternoon meetings for counsel and organization. She is a wise leader, a consecrated, gifted speaker, as those of us who had the privilege of working with her in our state can testify. Our women who attended the national convention tell us of the calls sent in for her to speak in the largest and most influential churches in that city. She is a woman whom any union will be greatly blessed in securing. Her terms are reasonable. They are traveling expenses, entertainment and collections. In this year's state minutes see report of last year's work. If unions or pastors of colored churches desire her services in the interest of the cause she represents, and will comply with above terms they will please write Mrs. M. E. Balch, 711 E 11th street, Indianapolis, without delay, as Mrs. Thurman's time may soon be all engaged and we will begin, at once, to plan for the most general and thorough organization among colored people which Indiana has ever known. Mrs. Thurman loves her people and they love and are proud of her. Why wait longer? The battle is on. Put forth your best effort and God will give you success.

I will send copies of this number of the MESSAGE to colored teachers, pastors or any others who are interested and would be interested in reading this article, if you will send me their addresses.

I will be glad to have any items of interest in regard to colored unions or temperance work of any kind among colored people.

MARY E. SIMS,

3346 Central avenue.

State Superintendent.

HADLEY INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

A few days before Thanksgiving the writer made an unexpected visit to the Industrial School, and was pleased to see the glow of health on the cheeks of the girls, and the happy, contented spirit manifested by all. Every girl in the Home attends school regularly, and some seem quite ambitious to make advancement in the higher branches of study. I spent the Sabbath in the Home, and have reason to think that they all enjoyed its hallowed privileges. But it is my purpose to speak of things temporal at this writing. Some much needed improvements have been made recently. A substantial stone walk has been laid down the front lawn, leading toward the village school. A culvert now spans the damp ground between the yard and roadway, making it possible to reach the highway without incurring the risk of wet feet in their daily walk to postoffice and school. The old front rail fence has been removed, leaving the new wire fence visible. Some straw has been procured for bedding for cattle and horses, adding materially to their comfort. The two hundred fowls are nicely housed, and shell-food provided in addition to their regular food supply, hoping thereby to secure better returns in the egg basket. Two large hogs have been butchered for home consumption, and several others will be ready to follow soon. Our benevolent friend and adviser, Mr. Robert E. Carmack, recently presented the Home with thirty pounds of honey and two dozen brooms. In company with his daughters he visited the Home during the holidays. The superintendent and matron are self-denying and anxious to see this institution flourish.

I should like to emphasize the suggestion of our State president as published in last month's MESSAGE, that the W. C. T. U. members throughout the State will each contribute one dollar to be appropriated to the payment of the Hadley Home debt. We all believe this Home may be a factor in directing the lives of girls who come under its influence, and as they go out to mingle with the world they may become a power for good. I shall be glad to contribute one dollar to this worthy cause.

LUCRETIA HOBART,
President Board of Trustees.

Danville, Ill.

Note—The following quotation from my former communication is referred to: "A sum equal to the average of $1.00 per member sent as a free-will offering from each Union, would entirely cancel all debts and relieve the school of all embarrassment."

THE LAST CHANCE FOR A PICTURE OF MRS. J. R. NICHOLS.

Our comrade, well beloved and well remembered in our white ribbon circles, gave in her life time a number of large half tone pictures of herself, to the president of the Hadley Board, for the benefit of our Industrial school. Mrs. Nichols considered that each one would bring $5 into the treasury of this institution. This offer is now made to individuals or unions: All sending in $10 for this purpose between January 15 and May 15, 1898, money to be made by contest or otherwise, will receive in return one of these handsome and life-like pictures.

To have the face of this successful, sacrificing worker looking down upon us in our homes will be an inspiration. And the sum of ten dollars, multiplied many times, will make the contractor happy, too. Remember, the limited number of pictures will most likely leave the laggard out in the cold—first come, first served. Now, let this offer move off briskly, and long before the time limit has expired let every picture be hanging in some W. C. T. U. home or Union hall.

MRS. FRANCES POTTER,
834 N. East street, Indianapolis. Ex-President of Hadley Board.

A PLAN THAT SUCCEEDS.

Some enterprising women of this state have solved a scheme for helping on our Industrial School for girls. As a result the W. C. T. U. of Grant county sent to the treasurer of the Hadley school a good sum, which helps very much when there are so many places for our money. Of course you want to know about it. They asked a prominent firm to give a per cent of the gross receipts on three days' sales. The firm, consisting of wide-awake business men, readily agreed, and in addition offered to do their own advertising, so the Unions of the county were at no expense except to get out a few hundred bills. Each member invited her friends and wrote letters, and a number of the women remained in the store during open hours to welcome and show people over the store.

The end of three busy days showed the women the plan was a good one for them, and the following statement from the firm, sent in answer to our inquiry, will speak for itself:

MARION, IND., Dec. 22, 1897.

Mrs. Phoebe R. Curryer, Indianapolis, Ind.

DEAR MADAM—We, the undersigned proprietors of "The Big Store," of Marion, Indiana, do say that on the 29th and 30th of September and the 1st of October, 1897, we gave the Grant county W. C. T. U., for the benefit of the Hadley Home, three benefit days, and allowed them five per cent of our gross receipts on those three days. And we further say that we consider it a complete success financially, as well as a good advertising scheme.

Respectfully,

MILLER & BARLEY.

Dear sisters, may we hope that each Union in our State will adopt this plan to help our Industrial School? Think it over. Try it, and send results to our treasurer, Mrs. Ella B. Wright, Greensburg, Ind., and let us, before another State convention, have this debt which so hinders the progress of our work completely settled.

Yours in the work,

PHOEBE R. CURRYER.

Dear Sisters—The membership of our grand organization needs more than anything else, at this time, to make itself felt as a force on two lines, viz: law enforcement and business. We must uphold and support the legislation we have been instrumental in putting on our statute books, such as our scientific temperance instruction, curfew and cigarette laws. Then we want funds for our work and to settle the remaining indebtedness on our Hadley Industrial School. In Greensburg we have found "drumming" the grandest way of all to attract attention, broaden the workers and put shekels into our treasury. We are at present engaged, as a Union, in advertising and soliciting trade for one of our merchants for a per cent on sales. A former venture of the kind, while we were novices in the business, netted us near $60.00 for four days' effort. We had 3,000 cards struck with a holiday advertisement for our present effort, and the individual members of the Union distributed these among their friends, asking them to buy of our house. The price of the purchase was noted on the back of the card by clerk and dropped in a drawer with others. The summing up gives our per cent. Mr. Dalmbert, the proprietor, testifies as follows of our effort, which he says he will not limit in time. Financially yours,

ELLA B. WRIGHT.

"My Dear Mrs. Wright—We are glad to state that the arrangement we made with you (paying the W. C. T. U. a per cent on merchandise sold through them) was a perfect success, as we were able to reach people who never before were in our store. Yours truly, DALMBERT & Co."

MERCY DEPARTMENT. PRIZE OFFERED.

I want to have a great deal of work done in our department this coming year. Will you all help me? I cannot do it myself, but if we all unite our efforts we can do anything we wish. Now, I will offer a prize of $2.00 worth of humane literature to the county superintendent sending in a report of the largest amount of work done during the year. I will announce the name of the successful competitor at our next State convention, and send the literature to her address. Please every one try for this prize. If you want any instructions as to what work to do, just write to me and I will help you all I can. To help you out, in next month's MESSAGE I will give a list of questions which I will send out as report blanks next September, and by looking over these you can see what is expected of you. But write to me, any way, and let me know you intend to try for the prize, and I will help you all I can. You might induce your local superintendents to help you work by offering them part of the literature, should you win it. Now, every one try and God will bless your efforts.

Yours to help,

LOU E. RALL,
Huntington, Ind.

Jefferson W. C. T. U. gave an entertainment Thanksgiving night, consisting of some questions and answers from the catechism. A responsive reading about our World's Work, some reading from reports of National convention, also some other readings and recitations interspersed with songs. The weather was unfavorable but we had a fair crowd. Collection $1.88.

H. L. ELLIOTT,
Secretary.

On Sept. 23, 1897, the W. C. T. U. of Versailles, Ind., held their election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: president, Mrs. Emma Willson; vice-president, Mrs. Eva Wood; secretary Mrs. Mary Tyrrell; treasurer, Mrs. H. E. White. Our work is not progressing as rapidly as we could wish it to, nor are we doing as much for the cause of temperance as we would like, but there are a few faithful ones and we have God's promise that "one shall chase a thousand and two shall put ten thousand to flight."

MARY E. WILLSON.

CONTESTS.

Dear White Ribbon Sisters of Indiana—I know those who were so interested in W. C. T. U. medal contest work last year were disappointed because they did not win the banner promised to the state that held the most contests in proportion to membership. But you came very near winning it, and if local workers had not been negligent about sending in the certificates, you might have won it. Your State Superintendent, Mrs. Balch, will follow instructions, though she lose the banner, and would not count the medals sent out when contests had been held unless they sent in the certificates signed. I believe that if every contest had been reported Indiana would have won. Will you be very careful this year and not let this happen again? I do not believe any State superintendent worked more faithful than did she, always hopeful and brave until the last. Her letters of sympathy and trust in myself and the work has been an inspiration to me during the year, and though cast down, she is not discouraged and commences the new year with a determination to win. Will you help her?

It is not necessary to expatiate on the benefits of this department of work. You know that a contest is educational and that they can be made of financial help. What is needed is something said that will arouse you to action. I know how you appreciate your State superintendent and that this year you will help her lead on to victory. There were many counties last year that held no contests. Will not the Unions that held no contests last year commence now, early in the season and hold a series? Last year you held a contest for every 22 members. Set your mark one for every ten and win. You netted the sum of $444.43 for the Hadley Industrial School. This year work to get it out of debt. Mrs. Balch has circulars and rules and keeps a supply of medals and recitation books on hand. Send for the Responsive Readings. They will be helpful to Unions that have held no contests. In localities where many of the series of contests have been held, hold a matron's contest, either orations or essay contests. There are no rules governing other than the series, and matron's contests are always a success financially. Hold a musical contest in connection with the oratorical. Miss Morris, of Missouri, writes me that she had contests of preachers, teachers, lawyers, business men, politicians, even the blind recited, and she feels prouder winning the contest banner than if they had gained a membership of five hundred. Will you help your faithful superintendent this year in this work? Yours for work,

ADELIA E. CARMAN,
National Superintendent.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

I, the Secretary of the Indianapolis Northeast W. C. T. U., having been requested by the members at our meeting on November 26, 1897, to draft resolutions of respect and sympathy for Sister Sarah Henderson, on the death of her little son, Dair, do report as follows:

WHEREAS, For the first time since having organized a Sabbath School, we have been called upon to mourn the loss of one of our brightest scholars, and one who was also a member of the L. T. L., and in view of the heaviest loss sustained by those nearer and dearer to him, be it

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say, that in regretting his removal from our midst, we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and love.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them and commend them for consolation to him who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are mean in mercy.

Resolved, That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy, sorrow and love be sent to the family of our departed scholar and little friend, and a copy be recorded in the minutes of our Union.

LEONORA J. MCCARTHY,
Secretary.

FIELD NOTES.

Wabash has fifty members, and calls herself the Josephine R. Nichols Union.

Mrs. Phebe Roberts, who represented the Greensburg Union at State Board of Charities at Evansville, was invited to read a paper on "Organized and Associated Charities," before their county commissioners.

Bluffton Union visits their jail.

Bloomington is arranging a matrons' contest for January. Mrs. L. M. Beck has just led the local Union a successful campaign against their saloons, keeping three out: one on remonstrance, one on character and one on room description.

DeKalb county has a new Union at Butler organized by Mattie Cammack. St. Joseph has one at South Bend by Mrs. Eva Taggart. Madison, at Summitville, the work of our new state organizer, Mrs. Retta Jones. Henry county at Disco, by the county president. Terre Haute a Y by Miss Hadley. Dubois two unions by Mrs. Anderson. Columbus, Whitley county, an L. T. L. by Miss Mina Squires.

Souvenir papers Mrs. D. T. Smith, of the Bluffton Union and corresponding secretary of Wells county, writes papers on some phase of our W. C. T. U. work, which are read at the regular meetings of the local union and then presented to some member as a souvenir. These papers are adding largely to the attendance. The readers of the MESSAGE would enjoy a paper from so useful a pen. We regret to mention, it must be short.—Ed.

Mrs. Cammack reports excellent meetings at New London, Howard county. She visits Noble county in January. Her report of the World's and National convention at the various unions in Grant county are being well received. A teacher remarked at the close of one meeting "the young people have been taught more in this lecture than I could teach them in a month."

Mrs. L. M. Starbuck, of Westland, Hancock county, spent a very profitable week in Grant county. She came under the auspices of the Friends' church and in some places the W. C. T. U. cooperated. Her stereopticon lecture on temperance was instructive and helpful to the young and appreciated by all.

Fairmount Union is sowing seed in a new field, Fowlerton, with a view to planting a union there. Mrs. Cammack gave her Scientific Temperance lecture there a few evenings ago, and dwelt largely upon the tobacco habit. Strong men were convicted and converted. One man took out his tobacco pouch and held it up and said, "See there, I will never take another chew." A young man said, I have smoked my last cigarette. They gathered about each other shaking hands and shedding tears. These were cases of genuine conversion and repentance. The ice is broken for greater things.

Vincennes Union holds a prayer service each day in the first week in January, observing January 3 as Mother's Day. Goshen Union observes January 1 as a day of prayer, also Mother's Day.

Stewartsville L. T. L. has a graduating class of fourteen. Mrs. Belle Barrett is their superintendent. Monroe and Washington counties were the first to send in their secretary's quarterly reports.

Brazil W. C. T. U. has thirty-three members and sent in thirty-three dollars for Hadley. Hurrah for Brazil.

Westport, Decatur county, will hold a medal contest Thursday evening, Jan. 6. One enterprising gentleman thought he would open a saloon there but he and his goods were met at the station by a number of men and women with axes and clubs. He thought it would not be healthy for him there and moved on.

Kewanna Union will have a place on the program of Fulton County's Farmers' Institute.

The Farmers' Institute of Decatur County invited the W. C. T. U. county president to speak at the close of their lecture.

An official member going out from the regular meeting of a Union, met a lady who handed her two dollars for the good of the work. Passing on a few steps farther, met a second lady who remarked: "I have been seriously impressed with the thought of the temperance work."

The outlook for 1898 is full of promise. Let every worker determine to do her best and magnify her Union and her place, and promise herself, with God's blessing, to secure one new member.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Greensburg, Dec. 22. Last evening we had our regular semi-monthly meeting. Husbands invited: fine program. Mrs. Thomson leader. Good attendance, fine speeches. We have divided our Union into four sections of twenty members each. The section obtaining the most members, and putting the most money into the treasury by a certain time will be banqueted by the other three sections. We are now drumming for a dry goods store and get a per cent. We hold monthly meetings at the poor farm, and weekly ones at our jail. Will provide the prisoners with mittens to crack stone in to keep them from swearing. Our curfew rings at 7:45 every night. Invited by one of our pastors to attend church in a body Jan. 2; subject of discussion, The Work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

ELLA B. WRIGHT

The Miami county annual convention was held at Amboy. Although small it was very interesting and profitable. The following officers were elected: president, A. Jennie Ridgeway, Amboy; corresponding secretary, Laura Cammack, Converse; recording secretary, Jael Reichard, Amboy; treasurer, Jennie Hiatt. Twelve departments of work were taken up. We had with us Mrs. S. M. I. Henry, national evangelist, who added much to the interest of the convention. Her lectures "What's a Boy Worth?" and "Why do so many children from christian homes go to ruin?" were rare treats and much appreciated by all. Mrs. Henry also remained over Sabbath and occupied Friends' pulpit both morning and night. Accepted the invitation of Howard county to unite with them in holding a joint institute the coming spring. A club of thirteen names was taken for the MESSAGE.

A. JENNIE RIDGEWAY.

Mrs. S. E. Joice, President of Vigo county, sends the following report:

In October we voted to have Miss Mary Hadley do a week's work in Vigo county. She came to us on the 4th of Dec in our first snow-storm, and presented our cause on the day following at the First Presbyterian church in the morning and at the Trinity M. E. Church in the evening. Much interest was shown and quite an accession to membership secured, including the ministers, one Sunday School superintendent, and church officers and other leading members. During the week house to house visits were made. Invitations to meet the Board of Organized Charity and other pre-arranged meetings accepted. The mayor and other city officials were interviewed in the interest of the curfew law. At the close of the week much had been accomplished, although we were hindered by the rain; but it seemed that the work was only begun. Finding that we could keep our organizer longer, the good Lord opened the way and the work has been going on another week and a half. A Y. W. C. T. U. has been organized with fifteen members, nine girls and six boys. The new organization was named for its organizer, Mary Hadley Y. The officers are: President, Miss Minnie Hessener, 1446 Elm street; corresponding secretary, Miss Essie Markle, 1520 Indiana avenue; recording secretary, Miss Maria Ashmy, 1340 Indiana avenue; treasurer, Miss Flora Holloway, 1214 N. 11th street; parliamentary critic, Mr. R. C. Creeson, of the Gazette; chairman of committee on public meetings, Mr. Perry J. Stephens, 1407 4th avenue. Space will not permit us to mention department work or church vice-presidents. Organization was planned for the county, but rain prevented. The outlook is good. We are considering taking up the stirring campaign. Total accessions to membership, forty-one; fifteen of these are honoraries. We are much pleased to have the men become so interested in our work. A number of subscriptions to the State and National papers have been taken, and the clubs, we hope, will soon be completed.

The Bluffton Union has done some good work during the past few months, and we are slowly increasing in membership. In June we paid our regular annual visit to the poor farm and held services there. We also distributed literature among the inmates. During the same week we held service at the home of an aged blind man, who has been a shut-in for several years.

Our Flower Mission has taken sunshine into many saddened homes, and our superintendent of that department is a faithful little worker who dearly loves to do her duty. Several ladies have told me that our Flower Mission has done more to draw outsiders to us than any department of our work. As long as there were flowers growing in the yards, they were taken to the Unions every time we met, and bouquets made up and distributed among those whose names were given to us as sick and shut-ins.

While our membership is not what it should be, our prospects are much brighter than they were last year. We are now having a series of original papers read at each meeting of the Union. We expect to increase in numbers and improve our work as the weeks roll by. We have a good attendance from outside our Union, and they all profess themselves pleased with our meetings. Several of them have spoken favorably of uniting with us. Sincerely yours,

MRS. D. T. SMITH,
Corresponding Secretary.

The Wells county W. C. T. U. met at Ossian, Sept. 6th and 7th, and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. D. E. Studebaker; corresponding secretary, Mrs. D. T. Smith; recording secretary, Miss Cora Hood; treasurer, Mrs. J. S. Krewson. The meeting was a grand one, pronounced by all to be the best ever held in the county. Every number on the program was promptly filled, and a good interest was manifested. On the evening of the 7th, Rev. Somerville Light delivered a very eloquent lecture, which was heartily applauded. The house was filled to its utmost capacity, and the best of feeling prevailed.

MRS. D. T. SMITH,
Corresponding Secretary.

Mrs. S. E. Peters, Press Superintendent of LaPorte county, writes:

After having read the last issue of the MESSAGE the thought came to me, I will tell them about our county convention at Westville, October 19. A band load of ladies started in good season for our sister city. The day was fine and the address in the evening given by Mrs. Cranmer was superfine. She came to us by way of freight (I mean on a freight train) in order to meet the engagement, and her words on that evening were freighted with wisdom. If we had ever had any objections to women speaking in public it vanished that night. We expect to have her at LaPorte in the near future, and we think many mists will be cleared away. And now about our aid society. It was started with this thought in view, that by selling fancy articles at our suppers we could raise the necessary funds to send delegates to the state convention, but the society has enlarged to such an extent that every two weeks we sew for the poor of our city, and when necessity demands, as it does now at the beginning of winter, we meet every week, take our dinners, and sew from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. taking out one hour for our regular meeting. At the beginning of the year we agreed to give one third of our net proceeds raised from suppers and socials for our department fund. We have now on hand for county and local workers $6.70, one third of the proceeds from one supper and one social. We have planned for seven socials and four suppers for the year and we feel that if other unions will adopt this plan, next October our superintendents will not have to make the statement that they did not have money enough to carry on their work. The W's at Michigan City are all well and working away as usual; also at Westville. I wish our little paper was a large one, as it surely will be some day. We all send wishes for a joyous Christmas and a happy, prosperous New Year. County officers: president, Mrs. Dr. Paxton, West Main street, LaPorte; corresponding secretary, Mrs. L. J. Harrison, 705 Tipton street, LaPorte; recording secretary, Mrs. R. G. Young, Michigan City; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Scott, Westville.

Mrs. C. F. Horter, of Akron, and Mrs. Ida Weimer, of Montgomery, sent in donations to our Hadley School.

OBITUARIES.

An old crusader, Mrs. Anna Pierce, of New Albany Union, fell asleep in death, in triumphant faith of a glorious resurrection, Dec. 8. Six young men in her Sunday school class served as her pall bearers. The Union attended the funeral in a body, each placing a bow of white ribbon in the casket. A bunch of full blown roses tied with white ribbon and the letters W. C. T. U. in immortelles lay on the coffin.

MRS. M. E. CADWALLADER.

Argos Union mourns the loss in death of Mrs. Lucy M. Smith, a widow. Her one son, 12 years old, an L. T. L. boy, must learn to do without mother, and the Union must do without a most faithful member. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.

A. L. GORDON.

Dubois county grieves sorely over the going from them of Grace McSwain, their ready, self-sacrificing co-worker and efficient county corresponding secretary. The banner for best report went to this sister at our last convention and was a real pleasure to her in her last days here, for she loved the W. C. T. U. and its principles, and was a very faithful, consistent member. She died rejoicing in the faith.

MY SYMBOL PIN.

No costly brooch of rare design—
No gem of glittering ray,
Is this ideal pin of mine
Worn at my throat to-day.

And yet it typifies to me
A priceless gift to man—
An aim that spans eternity,
Far-reaching in its plan.

It typifies a tireless band
Who strive, the world around,
"For God and home, and every land"
Where blighted homes are found.

Dear Sisters—Many Unions have sent donations to the Hadley Industrial School; thus our indebtedness is being reduced. Let each Union send some amount for this purpose, as we are very anxious to pay off all the debts. Everywhere in our State people are interested in this school. By a determined and persistent effort we will be enabled to free it from debt.

The MESSAGE is being very kindly received by the constituency. I have many letters expressing approval and appreciation of the MESSAGE. Our women are subscribing for the Union Signal more generally than ever before.

The increase in interest manifested in our work seems to be very general over the State. This is most encouraging. Since my connection with the State work I have never known such universal effort to push the W. C. T. U. work as there has been since the last State convention. The crisis in our Indiana work is past; in many counties our forces are being marshaled on to victory. The State superintendents are pushing their work vigorously. I believe that the members of the State Executive Committee will go to Anderson in March, exultant with victories gained in their respective counties. New Unions, new members, old members returned, and a general revival of interest. Sisters, let me urge each officer and superintendent of a local Union to secure one new member immediately. As soon as her dues are paid and you know it, please send me a card giving her name and address and also your own, that I may use them in the MESSAGE. Space will be devoted to this purpose on the first page.

Attend your county institute and help to make it a success. Your presence and prayers will be a great help. You should not fail to help this much if you can do no more.

The Unions that hold regular gospel temperance meetings report much enthusiasm and interest. Letters received tell of the success of the work of Mrs. Cammack and Miss Brehm.

There is much to be gained by having State and National lecturers and organizers. If your Union has not had special work of this kind recently, please arrange for it very soon. Mrs. Louise Rounds, president of the Illinois W. C. T. U., will lecture at Anderson, March 8th, the first evening of the mid-year executive meeting. After that she will be available for lectures until March 15th.

The State officers have been very anxious to have Mrs. Helen L. Bullock, National and World's Organizer, come into the State this spring. Loogootee Union will take her and Miss Bullock for one week. If a few other counties or Unions would take her we could secure her services. This would mean much to those having her. Last year she secured one thousand members, who paid their dues, for the W. C. T. U. At Toronto she was made World's Organizer.

We must sow if we would reap. The effective ways of reaching the public—those interested and uninterested—are by the platform and the press. Much money will be expended for both purposes before we gain the victory.

Subscribe for our papers for Christian women. Urge your press superintendent to faithfully keep a column in the paper, and have public meetings. Let me urge the local presidents to consider these things.

Yours for the Indiana W. C. T. U.,

LUELLA F. McWHIRTER.

INDIANA Y'S.

I want to call your attention to the plan of work given by your new general secretary, Mrs. Ella B. Boole, and let us help carry out each plan and make them our own. Especially would I urge the recommendation of the second article, that of "Total Abstinence" and a "White Life for Two."

Rejoice with me that Miss Hadley has organized a splendid Y at Terre Haute, and that Central Y branch of Indianapolis is doing good work. Let 500 be our number for this year, each one secure a new member, take one special person and make them a subject of prayer, then invite and distribute leaflets and literature that will be helpful. I am now supplied with Pledge Cards and let Unions send for them, ten cents per doz. including the postage.

Which county in our State will be the first to have a Y Union or Branch organized? Boone county's Y secretary is Miss Clara Brinford, Thorntown. Marshall county's secretary Miss Minnie Snell, Bourbons. Let each county president appoint a county Y secretary as soon as possible, that I may plan with them to advance the work and bring up our membership to 500.

Let us lift up our hearts each noon to God in prayer that he will bless each effort put forth. Let each local treasurer collect dues, and send promptly to the county treasurer, and when the second quarter's dues are to be sent to our state treasurer in March you will be ready. Let this be our best year in earnest, faithful work.

CLARA M. SEARS,
State Y Secretary.

PLAN OF WORK STATE Y SECRETARIES. 1898.

1. Organization—To include the organization of Y. W. C. T. Unions wherever possible. If a Y cannot be organized because officers cannot be found, or the place is small and there would be danger of weakening the W. C. T. U. by taking away the younger members, organize Y Branches. The Y Branch meets with the W. C. T. U. and fifteen minutes of every session is placed at their disposal. This time is filled by the young women under the direction of the Y secretary. In case the numbers are small let the Y secretary be a committee of one to invite young women to join the W. C. T. U. In all cases see to it that a careful report is made and record kept of all who join the Y or the W. C. T. U. through the efforts or plans of the Y Branch. Urge the appointment of a Y secretary in every district, county and local union.

2. Temperance work in young people's societies, Y. M. C. A.'s and kindred organizations—This temperance to be up to the standard of Total Abstinence and a "White Life for Two."

3. Temperance work in schools and colleges—This to include temperance addresses before the students, the organization of Somerset Y's, and temperance programs in literary societies.

ELLA A. BOOLE,
General Secretary Y. W. C. T. U.

L. T. L. BRANCH.

Dear Local Leaders—Are you working hard for graduates? I wish that every leader who has a class studying for diplomas would notify me as to the number in the class. I must begin to arrange for the convention in July, and the place must be selected where the majority of the graduates will be best accommodated. Each year's convention must be better than the last. And remember, too, that it is nearly time for your State treasurer, Ina Boyer, 208 Aughe St., Frankfort, to send out and collect your 25 cents dues. Do not wait for this, but save her the time, trouble and expense by sending it in at once. Each local leader should see to it that the graduates who are members of the State Legion pay their dues and continue the course of study as planned for them. Do not let them feel that when they have graduated that they are through, but only begun, and that they must go on to perfection and fight King Alcohol till he dies.

L. T. L. BRANCH.

Through the columns of THE MESSAGE I wish to make an earnest appeal, and an urgent request also, for the dear boys and girls of Indiana. Dear sisters, why are we so slow to take up this department? Are we abiding by our constitution? Please read Article II. Our State secretary is in earnest. Dear sisters, let us help her in this great work, remembering, "The children are a-field." While I am organizer, yet the State L. T. L. has no money to send me out. I cannot organize unless the local Unions will permit me to do so. I have written a great many letters, a majority of which have never been answered. Those who have replied say, "We cannot find a leader." The fault is not the boys' and girls', but is with the white ribbon women. What are we going to do about it? If the mothers of the State could be made to know the direct influence of the teaching of the L. T. L. on the minds and hearts of the young, I am sure some Christian mothers would join our ranks and volunteer as leaders in this work which ought to be so near every mother's heart. I dare say that if President McKinley had been taught as the boys and girls are taught in the L. T. L. to-day, he would not have served wine at the dinner of which our State president speaks in the last MESSAGE. I want to urge county and local presidents to appoint L. T. L. secretaries to correspond and co-operate with me in pushing this great work. Can we not have a list printed in THE MESSAGE of those counties having L. T. L. secretaries?

EMMA SAYLER,

State L. T. L. Organizer.

604 W. Walnut St., Frankfort, Ind.

[Miss Georgia Wines is State Superintendent of the Department of Mercy in the State L. T. L., and we feel sure our State Superintendents in the W's will heartily welcome this new force in this field, ripe to the harvest.]—ED.

Dear Sisters—Through the columns of THE MESSAGE I desire to call the attention of the local L. T. L. superintendents to the work of the Department of Mercy. This is a new department, only taken up at the last L. T. L. convention, but I am very much interested in the work and desire the co-operation of all local superintendents in the State. Will you not kindly consider the necessity of this department and decide to take it up in some form in your own Legion?

GEORGIA WINES,
State Superintendent of Mercy in L. T. L. Organization.

OFFICIAL CALL.

Executive Committee meeting at Anderson, M. E. church, corner Meridian and Eleventh streets, on street car line and in central part of the city, March 8th and 9th, beginning at 1:00 p. m. the first day.

The members of the committee, general officers, vice-presidents, ex-officers and secretaries of the branches are hereby called to the mid-year Executive Committee meeting, and, no providence preventing, we expect every one in their place that all may share in its responsibility. LUELLA F. McWHIRTER,
President W. C. T. U. Indiana.

MARY E. BALCH,
Secretary.

NORMAL INSTITUTES.

The plan of work adopted at our last State Convention provides that we shall arrange the institute work "so as to take in every county." That institutes shall be held on schedule time, place, etc.

In harmony with this action the State officers and superintendent have developed the plan by arranging a schedule of dates, which are published in this issue of the MESSAGE.

The program is given more explicitly than usual with the hope that our lines of work may be more definitely understood and carried out. The persons proposed to give instruction are mainly suggestive, and the program can be made sufficiently flexible to be adapted to the local conditions.

The conviction has deepened with many of our members that all classes of christian workers should be enlisted. To this end we have suggested the co-operation of ministers, educators and others, some of whom are outside our ranks, but if invited, will be willing and able helpers.

An enthusiastic campaign for the ballot for women should be vigorously pushed all along the line. If the provisions of the program be carried out in all counties, it will be a long stride toward the legislation we desire.

Our efficient and self-sacrificing superintendent of suffrage, Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, of Elkhart, should be called to as many institutes as she can attend. She has generously proposed to bear her own expenses and do what she can for the cause, and we bespeak for her the most agreeable entertainment and earnest co-operation.

Will county presidents or institute superintendents (where such have been appointed) be prompt in reporting to our corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mary E. Balch, their prospects in regard to carrying out the plan adopted for institutes this year?

Much more will be realized if there be a careful study and preparation for the program, and it is due all workers that they have timely notice of the part they are expected to perform, whether it be a preparation for the music, the discussion of a subject or to serve on a committee for advertisement or entertainment.

Much depends on a good advertisement by the county and local press; especially should the announcement be such as to bring the members out in full force to serve the cause to which we have pledged our faith and loyalty.

Yours, for our best year in the work,
MARY HADLEY,
Superintendent.

P. S.—Our corresponding secretary will go for expenses for day work of the institutes conducting the contests.

A STATE INSTITUTE.

The second day at Anderson, March 9, beginning 10 A. M., will be given to a review and study of this institute program as published above, and everyone interested is invited to attend. Mrs. Rounds will address the meeting the evening of March 8, and the evening of March 9 will be occupied by a suffrage contest, in charge of State Superintendent of Medal Work.

Something new. Why not, if it is for the wise advance of our cause? We shall drill the members of the executive committee and all who will come (and everyone is hereby invited) on the program for county institutes. The teacher taught will be the thought; better preparation a second thought, and if we all get to thinking, you see, there will be wonders wrought, and the dullest one among us will be taught.

The second day, from 10 A. M., will be given to the institute. To do this, the executive committee will need to have a very early morning session to finish the work not completed the first day—and our first day sitting may be a long one, for it is not our purpose to slight the work of the one for the other, but rather to make the best use of our money and time and strength expended. Anderson is planning a royal welcome and we feel all winds blow balmy from our skies. Will every member of the committee and every State worker, and all who intend to go, send me their name and the route they will take, and I will see if I can get any favors for them on our railroads? Don't say, "well, I am only a local worker and they don't mean me; and I do not work as much as I should and could if I would make a little more personal effort or sacrifice, and of course they don't want me." We do. We want all, just as we say, if you come to take part in the work and the fray, but not to sight-see or visit or play.

A PLAN FOR INSTITUTES AND COUNTY CONVENTIONS.

The spring convention is a necessity. The constitution calls for it and it should follow the institute, that intelligent action concerning our legislative work in prospect may be reached and we may all work together for general advancement. Length of institute, one and one-half days; convention, one-half day, or longer if necessary. Two evening meetings. The second evening a suffrage contest by young or old of either sex, as can be best arranged, for ten cents admittance. Organized counties to make their arrangements in harmony with the plan and the program and schedule dates published in the February MESSAGE.

The State to arrange in all unorganized counties where she can get a friend to secure a place for the meeting, assist in advertising it and secure entertainment for those who attend.

The State Officers, Branch Secretaries, State Organizers, Evangelists and Superintendents are to be called as counties think best, and can arrange to meet the expense. The net proceeds of the contest will, in most cases, if well advertised, reimburse the treasury for its necessary outlay for expenses.

The State to be divided into four sections. One, two and three begin work March 14th. Section four April 20th, to avoid bad roads.

Section Two—Counties on and south of the P. W. & P. R. R. to Logansport, and east from there over the Fort Wayne branch of the Wabash Road. Organized counties, 22; unorganized, 4.

Cass, March 14 and 15; Carroll, 16 and 17; White, 18 and 19; Jasper, 21 and 22; Newton, 23 and 24; Benton, 25 and 26; Tippecanoe, 28 and 29; Warren, 30 and 31; Fountain, April 1 and 2; Montgomery, 4 and 5; Boone, 6 and 7; Clinton, 8 and 9; Howard, 11 and 12; Tipton, 13 and 14; Hamilton, 15 and 16; Madison, 18 and 19; Delaware, 20 and 21; Jay, 22 and 23; Adams, 25 and 26; Allen, 27 and 28; Wells, 29 and 30; Blackford, May 2 and 3; Grant, 4 and 5; Wabash, 6 and 7; Huntington, 9 and 10; Miami, 11 and 12.

Counties north of section two constitutes section one. Thirteen organized counties and two unorganized. Schedule dates: Elkhart, March 14 and 15; St. Joseph, 16 and 17; LaPorte, 18 and 19; Porter, 21 and 22; Lake, 23 and 24; Starke, 25 and 26; Pulaski, 28 and 29; Fulton, 30 and 31; Marshall, April 1 and 2; Kosciusko, 4 and 5; Whitley, 6 and 7; DeKalb, 8 and 9; Steuben, 11 and 12; Noble, 13 and 14; LaGrange, 15 and 16.

Section Three—Counties on and south of the I. D. & W. R. R. to Indianapolis, and the C. C. & St. L. R. R. from Indianapolis east. Eighteen organized counties; seven unorganized. Schedule dates: Marion, March 14 and 15; Hendricks, 16 and 17; Putnam, 18 and 19; Parke 21 and 22; Vermillion, 23 and 24; Vigo, 25 and 26; Sullivan, 28 and 29; Greene, 30 and 31; Clay, April 1 and 2; Owen, 4 and 5; Monroe, 6 and 7; Morgan, 8 and 9; Hancock, 11 and 12; Henry, 13 and 14; Randolph, 15 and 16; Wayne, 18 and 19; Fayette, 20 and 21; Union, 22 and 23; Franklin, 25 and 26; Rush, 27 and 28; Shelby, 29 and 30; Decatur, May 2 and 3; Bartholomew, 4 and 5; Brown, 6 and 7; Johnson, 9 and 10.

Section Four—Counties on and south of the B. & O. and Southeastern R. R. 14 organized counties; 12 unorganized. Schedule dates: Lawrence, April 20 and 21; Martin, 22 and 23; Daviess, 25 and 26; Pike, 27 and 28; Knox, 29 and 30; Gibson, May 2 and 3; Posey, 4 and 5; Vanderburg, 6 and 7; Warrick, 9 and 10; Dubois, 11 and 12; Spencer, 13 and 14; Perry, 16 and 17; Crawford, 18 and 19; Harrison, 20 and 21; Floyd, 23 and 24; Clark, 25 and 26; Jefferson, 27 and Any organized county failing to prepare for its institute and convention will be considered as an unorganized county, and the State is duty bound to look after it. It is for the best good of the work that we have concert of action, and that can be secured only by using a uniform plan, program and schedule dates. An extra edition of the February and March MESSAGE will be provided to supply all demands of the institute and convention work. Persons interested in their county should begin correspondence at once, and arrange program and write the secretary at 711 E. 11th St., Indianapolis.

MARY E. BALCH.

THE MESSAGE.

If you receive this number of the MESSAGE with a blue mark upon it, please renew at once, that you may not lose a single copy. During the past month renewal clubs, with long lists of new names added, have been coming in thick and fast. It is also encouraging to note in many cases where, last year, only the MESSAGE was taken, that now the Union Signal is also ordered. But one woman in the State writes asking us to discontinue her paper, and we believe she will reconsider the matter. Some send in single thirty-five cent subscriptions. Why not start out and secure twelve names and thus save ten cents per copy for your Union? If you have no Union in your place you can find a dozen persons who have enough interest in our cause to pay twenty-five cents for our State paper. This will be your best preparation for the organization of a Union. If a woman tells you she did not read the paper last year, it is only because her interest has not been fully aroused. Many of our best workers had State and national papers sent them before they had interest enough to pay for them themselves. A vigorous canvass over the entire State will easily double our subscription list. This would give us a larger paper and make room for many bright, newsy articles crowded out each month.

Repeatedly we read in the daily press that the liquor league is becoming more thoroughly organized and is planning for greater activity this year than ever before. Our only hope for our country and our homes is in every white ribboner putting on the whole armor and going out to battle in the name of Him who leads our hosts. Let new, timid women begin, knowing that they do not go forth in their own strength. No State in the Union has more heroic, self-sacrificing, competent leaders than have we. They are giving their lives for our State work and our paper. Nothing so cheers them and lightens their burdens as to know of new and increasing interest out in the field. Shall we not, every one of us, rally to their support?

Very few, if any, write to say anything unfavorable about the MESSAGE. Now, the next step is renewals. A year soon passes by, and the MESSAGE year for many has gone. You mean to renew? Then do so at once. Look up the names in your club and be sure to give every one an opportunity to renew, and then add as many as you can. Remember, a name for the Union Signal and the MESSAGE at $1.10. If they are for a minister, 75 cents—counts one in the club. Twelve names at 25 cents without the Signal make a club. We expect to have 2,500 names at the mid-year meeting on our list. You will want your county president to make as good a report as any other. This is a matter that needs prompt attention. We did well last year, but this year we must do better. If the blue mark is on your paper, act at once and renew.

MARY E. SIMS,
Business Manager.

GREENSBURG CURFEW LAW.

By the kindness of Mrs Ella Wright, the form of petition used and a copy of the law secured by the Greensburg Union is given below:

To His Honor, the Mayor, and City Council of —: We, the representatives of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of —, believing as we do, that it is the duty of every one to protect the youth of our city from the snares and pitfalls that beset them on every hand, do most earnestly and prayerfully request you to grant us what is known as the "Curfew Law," requiring that all children under the age of fifteen (15) years shall be prohibited off the streets at a certain time by a certain signal, given by the ringing of the court-house bell, or any other signal which your honorable body may think best.

G. G. WELSH,
Clerk.

C. F. NORTHERN,
Mayor.

Miss Brehm had two months' work in Indiana. The M. E. Church at Broad Ripple was given to the Union for the first time in years, and Miss Brehm filled the pulpit so creditably as to win all hearts—the pastor and people. She spoke to a crowded house. She was at Mapleton Sunday morning and evening, at Valley Mills and the Rescue Mission. At every point, with one exception, and that was for local reasons, Miss Brehm did most excellent work, adding to the membership, winning the unfriendly and unbelieving and speaking the truth without offense. Her route was planned by our energetic and indefatigable Treasurer, and while she was sick some of the time, results have been most gratifying.

[The sale of Connersville property, $350, for the School; $100 for the sale of the State W. C. T. U. property, making the $450.—Ed.]

My Dear Comrade in W. C. T. U. Bonds—I have read with sorrow and alarm the accounts as published in the Voice, and verified by the local press of New Haven, of the drunken carousal among Yale students following the recent intercollegiate football game; also, of the startling facts that there are sixty-six saloons, some of them the lowest kind of brothels and gambling houses, near Yale University, all located within two blocks of the college campus and the green; that students are permitted to have intoxicating liquors in their rooms and at their class spreads.

We have all read with deepest regret the revelations regarding the signing of a petition to license the sale of liquors in the immediate neighborhood of Princeton University, that old and honored institution so closely identified with the great Presbyterian Church of the United States, and now we note with joy and thanksgiving that this University has listened to the appeals made by our Unions and Christian men and women throughout the country, and has forbidden students to enter any place where intoxicating liquors are sold as a beverage, or to bring such liquors into their rooms; and that the famous grille room in Princeton Inn has been ordered closed! We also have reason to be profoundly thankful that Harvard University has taken a decided stand in favor of no license in the city of Cambridge, where the University is located, and in forbidding liquors to be furnished at the class spreads—for eleven years now Cambridge, with the aid of the University, has carried no license; also that the University of Chicago has taken an equally uncompromising stand.

In view of the alarming facts concerning Yale University, I would earnestly urge you to use all your official and personal influence to secure the following early action:

1. That all local Unions, at the earliest convenient time, pass resolutions expressing deep regret that the Yale authorities permit students to enter saloons, and to have intoxicating liquors in their dormitories, and to have them served at their class spreads; also expressing horror and grief at exposing young men, the majority of them in their teens and away from the restraining influences of home, to the frightful dangers of the saloons and brothels that infest the neighborhood of this great and venerable institution. Let the resolutions forcibly declare that until these evils are remedied we will do all in our power to have our sons and brothers seek their education at institutions where the environments are less dangerous. The resolutions should also urge upon the authorities at Yale to help carry no license in New Haven, as has been done in the city of Cambridge by the help of Harvard professors and students for these eleven successive years; also to have, as far as possible, the intercollegiate sports held in places that are free from saloons.

A copy of the resolutions should be forwarded either to Rev. Timothy Dwight, D. D., LL. D., President Yale University, New Haven, Conn., or to Henry P. Wright, Ph. D., LL. D., Dean of the College Faculty, New Haven, Conn., and copies should also be sent to the Union Signal, Chicago, and to the Voice, New York.

As this desired reform at Yale is of such grave and far-reaching importance (for if Yale will take its stand on this question by the side of Harvard, Princeton, and the University of Chicago, all of our leading colleges in America must follow or greatly lose patronage), I urge,

2. That each Union secures the signatures of a number of parents to the following petition, and send the same to one of the Yale addresses given above, also a copy each to the Union Signal and to the Voice. Written copies of this petition can be used:

PETITION.

To Timothy Dwight, D. D., LL. D., President, Henry P. Wright, D. D., LL. D., Dean, Yale University, New Haven, Conn.:

As the students in our universities and colleges are, in a large majority, only lads in their teens and away (Continued on page 6.)

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

WORK AGAINST IMPURITY.

In a recent article the Rev. W. B. Crafts tells us: "Fifty American periodicals excluded from Canada by its government as indecent, are circulated by millions in the United States. Seventeen of these are published in New York, thirteen in Maine, some in almost every State." He suggests that the "W. C. T. U. president in every State write to Lady Aberdeen for a copy of the list (of these papers) and second the Reform Bureau's appeal, already sent to governors of States, for the suppression of these 'cancer plants.'" Shall we not write, every woman of us, and urge our president, Mrs. McWhirter, to take these steps advised by Mr. Crafts? You will be the more ready and earnest in writing if you, as I, have been shocked and distressed by frequent receipt through the postoffice of these very papers under discussion; their evil purposes evidenced by the advertisements and alluring offers to boys and girls and any one who will send on a list of names of persons they know. Let us arise and do what we can in every way to cut off a swift and sure manner of breeding vice. ELLA WILLIAMS NASH.
Washington, D. C., January 20, 1898.

TEMPERANCE LITERATURE.

DEAR SISTER SUPERINTENDENTS—I have received many letters from county and local superintendents of literature during the past few months, and I feel very much encouraged to know so much work is being done. As time passes, the superintendents are awakening to the importance of this department.

I have ready for distribution a leaflet which is an explanation of the duties of a superintendent. I have not half the names of the superintendents, but those who would like this leaflet will please send me their name and address and I will be glad to send it to them.

I have been unable to secure enough subscriptions for the Young Crusader to get the 12-cent rates, so I cannot take the subscriptions for it. The Temperance Banner is only 12 cents a year. It is published by the Temperance Publishing Association, West 18th St., N. Y., and is a fine paper for children, and those who cannot take the Crusader at the regular price will do well to send for sample copies of the Banner, and if possible secure subscribers.

The time for the spring institutes and conventions is coming. Try to distribute literature and secure subscribers for THE MESSAGE and Union Signal. Make a good report of your work at these conventions, and make your department the most important of all. Give of yourself, as Jesus did in John 17:9: "And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth." GEORGINA MOSER,
State Superintendent.

Dear State President—Our gospel temperance meetings began in this way: We prepared for temperance Sunday by engaging the Baptist Church for an afternoon service; arranged for good music; engaged the City Mayor to give us a fifteen minutes' talk on "Christian Citizenship," handing him a leaflet to help him in his preparation; engaged a minister to give a gospel temperance talk of fifteen minutes, and a white ribbon woman to open the exercises by explaining the reason why we held the meeting and the need of the people being aroused and stirred up to the dangers confronting the family and home.

The second meeting we engaged an editor, a preacher and a white ribbon woman, giving each leaflets to prepare from.

Both meetings were splendid, had fair audiences and so enthused the ministers of Elkhart that in their meeting on the next Monday morning they appointed a committee to arrange for a union gospel temperance meeting once a month, to be held on a Sunday evening, and that a white ribbon woman should have a place on the program each time. M. A. TOMPKINS.

P. S.—I have called a county executive meeting for next week. Then we expect to perfect our plans to the different departments the State W. C. T. U. has outlined for us to accomplish during the year.

EDITOR THE MESSAGE—Long previous to my membership in W. C. T. Unions I was a worker in the line of suppressing pernicious advertisements and impure literature, and became so impressed with the extent of the polluting work thus propagated that I shall never be able to divest myself of personal interest in the subject. I have sample copies of nearly forty household papers that were established merely as a medium for conveying corrupting advertisements into the homes of the nation. There was an endless chain of them reaching from ocean to ocean, as I found out for myself—a collusion between publishers and advertisers.

Fifty pages would not contain what I learned of their methods, and my strange experiences in combating them—or trying to—by sending proofs of their work to Anthony Comstock and to his western agent, Mr. McAfee, also to the postmaster general. Certain prosecutions for violation of the postal laws resulted in the condemned literature being sent in bulk by express to certain localities where agents receive it and distribute copies free in school grounds and door yards.

Now, however, I'm beginning to see some of the same old advertisements in certain papers that mysteriously appear in boarding houses and elsewhere, such as—"All About how a Young Lady Retires," "Peeps Through a Key Hole," and others too suggestive to be written here. But the chief motive just now for this writing is to call attention to a certain advertisement headed "Pennyroyal Pills" which confronts me still, from the pages of many newspapers. No one advertisement of that class has had such a continuous run. It is simply a screen for prostitution. Men buy it regularly to further their nefarious habits with safety. But enough. I cannot multiply words. (Married women, too, buy it with unholy motive.)

In Ohio, where I prosecuted this line of work, the W. C. T. U. women labored until they secured a law forbidding such advertisements. At the outset three classes of men clamored privately at the legislators, and intimidated them by threats of non-support. They were the proprietors of the drugs, the druggists who sold them, and the publishers who advertised them, all making big profits. The result was that the legislators forbade the advertising and sale of any secret drug * * for the exclusive use of females * * etc. The word secret was purposely used and made the law ineffective.

All at once that class of advertisements were flaring with the words tansy pills, cotton-root, pennyroyal, etc. But a pressure was brought to bear until our home papers had to eliminate all such advertisements from their columns. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Dear County and Local Superintendents—We send our second quarterly letter through THE MESSAGE, thus early, as now is the best season for prize essay contests. Holidays are over and the long stretch of work until May, gives excellent opportunities for working up prize essay contests. The usual plan is to offer cash prizes, perhaps a first and second, for the best essay from school children, having them read in public or submitted to private judges. Where it is possible to get the class together for a public reading of the essays, more than the expenses can usually be made by charging a small fee for admission.

The following is offered as a suggestive outline for a subject, which together with the rules can be changed to suit the superintendent having the work in charge:

Subject: The Evil Effects of Alcohol and Narcotics.

- (a) Nature of alcohol.
- (b) Nature of narcotics.
- (c) Their manufacture and sale.

(d) Their effects on the human body.

(e) Effects on the home.

(f) Effects on society.

Rules governing the contest.

(1) Writers must not be over 17 or under 12 years of age. (Contests could also be arranged from 9 to 12.)

(2) Essays should not contain over 500 words.

(3) Enclose certificate from your teacher stating your age and that the work is your own.

(4) Pay your own postage.

(5) Contest closes.....

Prizes will be awarded .....

We also send questions for the annual report of county superintendents. Will each county superintendent please note this list, and have it known to her locals early in the year, so that all may work in harmony and know fully what is aimed to be accomplished?

A PLAN FOR MAKING MONEY FOR LOCAL UNIONS.

First. Have your Union appoint a committee to secure a grocer who will give you best cash per cent on all goods sold to customers secured by Union.

Second. A committee to canvass for customers, being careful to get full name and address.

Third. Turn the names as fast as secured in to the groceryman, who will keep a record of said names, the chairman of the committee doing the same.

Fourth. Customers always to be careful to see that a correct bill accompanies each order when delivered. Have a nail over the cook table on which you will put these bills as fast as received.

Fifth. Have the chairman of your committee collect these bills once a month and go to the groceryman and help him count up the amount of money he has received from customers; get your per cent in cash and turn it into your treasury.

Sixth. Be very careful to see that your grocer does not sell beer or intoxicants of any kind.

Dear sisters, while thinking of our own dear Union, wondering how we could raise some money and praying the good Lord to open the way, for without money we can do very little practical work, the above plan came to my mind as being a good one, and, if good for us, why not good for others? I believe, if carefully worked, it will be a financial success. We can have a yearly income for our treasury with half the work of giving entertainments, socials, etc.

I hope I have made my plan clear; if not, write me and I will gladly answer any questions.

Trusting this may be the key to unlock the long-closed money vault, I am, yours lovingly,

LIZZIE C. HANN,

1229 College Avenue, Indianapolis.

DEPARTMENT OF MERCY.

Dear Sisters of the White Ribbon Army—I want to appeal to you all once more to begin the new year by taking up the work of the Mercy Department. How great the need of it, and what a blessed work for women! One earnest worker says: "It is the easiest and most promising of all our branches of work, as appeals can be made to the children through their pets, and to their older brothers and sisters through deeds of heroism, and a presentation of the truth that kindness is a principle that must be rooted in a complete freedom from any cruel practice. If we expect character to be built on such a foundation, we must go to the rock bottom and be kind clear down." She says further: "I see this so clearly that I believe a boy or any child might be trained to appear kind to all people, and yet be allowed to indulge in cruelty to animals, and from that practice to develop a habit of life so tigerish as to become a murderer on some occasion when tempted, and in anger. Such surprises will soon be no longer a wonder; thinking people will see that it is the result of the lack of the good seed we are trying to sow."

I quote at some length, for she is a woman of experience in training and teaching children, and it is a truth that I wish to impress upon the minds of my White Ribbon sisters. And this sowing of good seed is our work. Let us do it at once. Humanity is growing more callous to the suffering of our dumb fellow-creatures. The past week I read an account of two foxes having been caught near Hagerstown, Ind., and set at liberty, one at a time, in a large field surrounded by men, women and children, and a pack of hounds let loose on them. After an hour's chasing, yelping and snarling the poor creatures were caught and killed. And this was done for sport (?). Shall we allow such things to go on without comment, even in our own State, where we have a department of mercy in our W. C. T. U? God forbid! Let us each do a little and at once. Appoint your superintendent and send me her name.

DEPARTMENT OF UNFERMENTED WINE.

Dear Sisters, W. C. T. U. workers of Indiana, I come to you again asking that you appoint a superintendent of this department in every Union in the State that this work may not be neglected. It is our Lord's work and should be of the greatest interest to us, for through the local Union, in a great measure, is the influence to come that shall put away from our Lord's table, alcoholic wine. May the time soon come when our dear Lord shall not be wounded in the house of his friends. If we love the Master we will cheerfully do this for humanity. Let me hear from all who will do this work and I will try to send helps in literature to be given pastors and people.

HADLEY INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

A recent letter from the superintendent of the Home gives a pleasant account of affairs there. Christmas day dawned under auspicious circumstances. A turkey dinner, supplemented by an abundance of delicious viands, produced on the farm, was partaken of by all the family; and it was made more enjoyable by having the presence of Uncle Addison Hadley at the table. The girls gave appropriate recitations and sang Christmas songs with much zeal and sweetness, which added much pleasure to the occasion. The immediate friends of the girls, and the Unions under whose indorsements they were admitted, remembered their wards royally in matters of clothing. And a father of two of the girls came laden with gifts of candy, oranges etc., for all the girls. The day-school and Sunday-school of which they are members gave Christmas offerings to all, making a glad happy time for these dear girls gathered from different parts of the state into a higher, brighter life, for having a Christian home.

There is much to encourage the friends of the School in the thought that the value and influence of one soul that is brought into the light of the gospel of love cannot be estimated in all time. LUCRETIA HOBART. Danville, Ill.

The work of Marion county has been taken up this year with prayerful thought and determination, the result being our work is full of interest and promise. We have had Mrs. Cranmer and Miss Brehm, both of whom we greatly appreciate. They added much enthusiasm to our work.

More gospel temperance meetings are being held than ever before. Unions that have no L. T. L. are planning for one.

Almost all the Unions are interested in trying to do something to aid Hadley Industrial School. Meridian Union has sent $10 and will give an entertainment next Friday night for the benefit of the school. Lawrence Union sent $5, and Marion county sent $50.

Central Union has a Y branch, and has a class ready to hold a contest.

Dissette Colored Union has held two gospel temperance meetings, one on universal temperance, Sunday, and one two weeks ago, led by Rev. Rhoda Smith. At this meeting I secured seven signers to our pledge and one new member. Good audience and good collection (which was for Mrs. Smith), and they forced me to accept my street car fare. Rev. Mr. Brock, pastor of the church, told us the doors of his church were open to us at any time. One of the last things he said to me was, "Tell Mrs. Balch we have not forgotten her, and would love to see her again."

Lucy Thurman Union has planned to hold a series of gospel temperance meetings, beginning this week.

Valley Mills and Center Unions will unite next Thursday, and we will hold an all-day meeting and have a picnic dinner (wish you could all be with us.)

Wallace Union gave a fine report at their meeting three weeks ago of jail and prison work.

Tarleton Union observed its third anniversary, Wednesday, January 25, with a full house and an interesting program. A short address by Mrs. Balch and singing by Rev. Wheelock and wife, Miss Howard, and possibly others, with recitations by the children and a young lady whose name I failed to get. Refreshments served. A most enjoyable time.

I have sent a circular letter to each local president and to some superintendents. Have visited thirteen Unions and shall continue until all have been visited, and then begin and go over again. I shall never forget my visit to the North East Union the day before Christmas. My first thought of their holding a meeting on that day, amidst the whirl of Christmas festivity, meant a failure, but to my surprise and delight I found most of the members there, gathered together in His name, anxiously waiting to hear and plan our temperance work. We planned to organize an L. T. L., held a praise service, which resulted in one of the most spiritual meetings I ever attended, and it is a great pleasure for me to say that instead of this Union being one of the weaker ones, as I had previously thought, it is one of the strongest spiritual Unions Marion county has. But I must not take space to tell more, or I could interest you with some descriptions of the enthusiasm of our workers, and I might tell you of the royal hospitality shown me when visiting the Unions.

I should love to dwell longer on the work our Unions are doing and the deep interest in which it is being done, but the MESSAGE's space is precious. I write, therefore, briefly to say almost all our departments are having a steady and substantial growth. May God direct us all in the way that will be pleasing in his sight.

ADA B. LEEK.

from the restraining influences of home, and in view of the fact that these students are the very flower of American youth and are to be the future leaders in literature, science, education and government, as well as in many of the industrial enterprises, and of the fact that the use of intoxicants is exceedingly detrimental to fixed habits of study, to mental clearness and to moral character, while the example of drinking habits among students is very widely corrupting among the young men outside of college, and who look upon college men as examples of cultured manliness;

Therefore, We, the undersigned parents, respectfully petition:

1. That you will forbid students under your charge to enter places where alcoholic liquors are sold for beverage use, to keep such liquors in their dormitories or rooms, or to have them furnished at their class or other spreads and banquets.

2. That you will use your great influence to secure prohibition of the sale of intoxicants within the city of New Haven, the same as has been secured at Cambridge.

Until such action is taken by your honored body, much as we honor Yale University, we feel compelled to send our sons and brothers to institutions where these provisions for safety against intoxicating drinks have been adopted.

NAMES. ADDRESSES.

In addition to the above suggestions, it would serve a good purpose if you and other friends in your neighborhood should write individual letters to the authorities at Yale, touching these same reforms that we so much desire.

It would also serve a good purpose if our sisters throughout the country would secure the adoption of protests, or similar resolutions to the above, by churches, clubs, young people's associations, etc., with which they may be connected, and have the same forwarded to the addresses as given above. It would also help to a successful result, if the action taken by a Union or other organization, should be published in the local press.

Yours, for conserving the powers of America's young manhood and protecting its homes,

FRANCES E. WILLARD.

FAREWELL TO MRS. BUCHANAN.

Indianapolis Meridian Union gave a reception on Jan. 22 in honor of Mrs. Anna Buchanan, out-going Police Matron of Indianapolis, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McWhirter. Prominent among the women present were Mrs. Buchanan's successor, Mrs. Gregory, her assistant Miss Reisner, the jail matron, Mrs. Shufelton. After the reception of the guests there was an informal program. Mrs. Mary E. Sims the president of the Union when the office of police matron was created, spoke on the history of Police Matron work by the Meridian W. C. T. U. Mrs. Sims said that in December, 1889, it was proposed that the City Council be asked to appoint a matron for the police station, to have charge of women and children brought there to wait trial. Agitation began on the question, a petition circulated was signed by leading men of the city, but failed to secure passage of an ordinance by the council. The Council claimed that the Board of Public Safety was the body to whom we should apply. We then saw the members of that Board. They in turn threw the responsibility upon the City Council. Each body though, said the State Legislature would have to give them the right before they could grant our request. The Police Superintendent was openly hostile. We determined that we would fight it out if it took all summer. It took until the next spring. One of the women often said, "W. C. T. U. women never know when they are whipped." Permission was finally gained to secure a matron on trial, we to pay her expenses and to provide a room for her near the Station House. But, while this privilege was granted, the right to the keys to the women's cells was entirely reserved to the man in charge, the janitor, a man notorious for his unfitness for such a position, having free access to these cells.

As soon as a sufficient sum was raised to warrant such action, we secured a matron, sent to us by the chief matron of Chicago. Miss Campbell came December, 1890, just one year from the time the Union first decided to undertake this work. Miss Campbell remained but for a while. The city charter was to be changed, so we decided that that would be a shorter and easier way of securing the permanency of the police matron work, so bent our energies to that end.

The Union collected and paid the matron's salary from December until April, the time of our victory, which could not have been achieved except for the support of the press and the Woman's Club. On April 6, 1891, I received the following:

Mrs. Mary E. Sims:

MADAM—The Board of Public Safety will confer with you on the subject of police matron, April 6, at 10 a. m. Yours, etc., JOHN L. STEEG, Clerk of Board of Public Safety.

Mrs. Bond and myself hastened to accept the invitation. By unanimous vote the following resolution was passed:

"WHEREAS, The president and fourteen other officers of the Meridian Union of W. C. T. U., under date of March 10, petitioned this Board to create the office of police matron and arrange a room for her occupancy at the police station, to be a regular member of the police force, and,

WHEREAS, The officers of the Woman's Club of Indianapolis petitioned this Board that the prayer of Meridian Union be granted, therefore,

Resolved, That there shall be appointed by this Board a police matron, who shall be a regular member of the police force, and her name shall appear on the monthly pay-roll, at a salary to be fixed by the common council.

2. She shall have charge of the women and children who may be brought to the station-house and see to their comfort and safety, and no person shall have access to them after they have been put under her charge unless by order of the superintendent of police.

3. She shall accompany them to the police court and have charge until they are delivered to the proper officers after trial.

4. She shall be held responsible for their appearance for trial, unless proper bonds have been given, or released by order of superintendent of police.

5. She shall be ready at all times, day or night, to receive a prisoner and not be absent without permission of superintendent of police over thirty minutes between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

6. She shall wear a badge, when on duty, marked "Police Matron, Indianapolis Police Force."

7. She shall be responsible to this Board and subject to directions of the superintendent of police, and this Board reserves the right to remove any one appointed to this office at their pleasure.

The Board agreed, as above stated, to get ready a room in the station house for the matron adjoining the women's cells, but asked us to supply it with such furniture as would be needed, which we gladly did.

Mrs. Anna Buchanan was appointed police matron and served until the close of December, 1897, at which time she resigned. Mrs. Buchanan has had many hundreds of women and children under her care; ever vigilant, kind and tactful. She has honored Meridian Union, whose meetings she has attended regularly until we love her as a sister. She has served Indiana as State Superintendent of Police Matrons, and was instrumental in the enactment of a law granting police matron privileges to all cities of ten thousand.

While with sad hearts we say good-bye to Mrs. Buchanan, we gladly welcome, not only in behalf of the W. C. T. U., but of the city of Indianapolis, Mrs. Buchanan's successors—Mrs. Gregory and Miss Reisner.

Mrs. Buchanan followed with a few words, acknowledging her appreciation of the kindness of the Union. She believes that the matron should be allowed to accompany every woman when taken to the work house or other place of detention.

An original story, telling of the childhood romance of Mrs. Buchanan's life, which would soon result in her marrying the former boy playmate, was read by Mrs. Pleasant Bond.

A beautiful five-canded candelabre was presented to Mrs. Buchanan, from Meridian Union, by Mrs. McWhirter.

Mrs. Buchanan was married on January 27 to Mr. Alex. W. Logan, of Akron, O., and will make that her future home.

REPORT FROM SEDALIA UNION.

As Sedalia Union is now a year old, I will endeavor to give you a brief report of the work done for the first year. The Union was organized by Mrs. Allie Anderson, of Francesville, with nine members, but increased in number until we had seventeen, twelve active and five honoraries; then we lost two by removal and one by death. Our loss seems great to us.

We have eight departments: Evangelistic, Sunday School, Flower Mission, Scientific Temperance Instruction, Literature, Press, Medal, Mothers' meetings.

We have held over thirty regular meetings, two gospel temperance meetings and two parlor meetings. We have had two gospel addresses and three lectures by Miss Marie C. Brehm, national superintendent of franchise. She has been here three times. She gave us a franchise speech the last lecture. She gave a lecture at Geetingsville and parlor meetings under the auspices of Sedalia Union. We think her simply grand and feel highly favored in getting her.

We had three lectures by Mrs. Mattie O. Cammack, and two scientific temperance chart talks in the public schools by her. We liked her ever so much. And one lecture by Mrs. Emma Cranmer, of South Dakota, a national worker, also a lecture by a Christian minister, Rev. L. E. Brown, of Frankfort. "Uncle Sam" was the title of his lecture, and it was grand, too.

We sent two delegates to Frankfort Institute last May and two to the State convention at South Bend, and they gave a written report in the church.

Ten copies of State Minutes were purchased. We have held three silver medal contests and four festivals. We have made over fifty-one dollars from the contests and festivals. We have a wall pocket in the depot and made a scrapbook for the county jail. We sent a box of fruit to the Fair Cottage and twenty-five cents in money, and it cost one dollar to send it, but we only wished we could send more. We have done quite a great deal of flower mission work. We haven't had any mothers' meetings yet, but intend to soon.

Our county president, Mrs. Frances Boyer, and her successor, Mrs. Emma Sayler, of Frankfort, visited us. We had a "recital" by a lady from Grand Rapids, Michigan.

We distributed over 22,829 pages of literature, have received six subscriptions to the Union Signal and four to MESSAGE.

We had out three remonstrances against the saloon last summer and hired a lawyer, paying him twelve dollars, but still we failed in getting rid of the saloon. We had the county convention here last fall. We have purchased one dozen White Ribbon Hymnals, a "Do Everything" book, and a great deal of other literature. We do not say we have done our best, but considering the community and population, which is barely 200, we feel encouraged to do more. Pray for us that we may do better. ELLA BOYD.

[We think this report will certainly provoke any discouraged Union to good works. If all have some more like it, let us hear from them.]-Ed.

IMPORTANT COMMUNICATION.

To White-Ribboners and all Temperance Workers:

DEAR COMRADES—Never has there been greater need of concerted, persistent petition work. The friends of the liquor traffic are insolent and aggressive, and determined to push the sale of liquors into every nook and corner of our land. Even the beautiful new marble palace dedicated to literature, and called the Congressional Library, is not to be exempt. The Capitol of this great Christian (?) nation is not exempt. No place is too sacred for the sale of wine and beer. Comrades, "get thee up!" Make your influence felt. Make your voice heard. Let legislators know by petition what is the wish of the Christian citizen. Let them know you are watching them and noting their votes on moral measures. Liquor men unhesitatingly tell legislators what they desire in legislation—go thou and do likewise. Now is the time. Petition for the passage of each of the bills mentioned.

Note especially Number 1, but petition for all. Secure the indorsement of churches, of the Y. M. C. A., C. E., E. L., B. Y. P. U. and all temperance societies and lodges. Petition! Petition! Overwhelm the national Senate and House of Representatives with petitions for these bills. It means much even to let them know that you know that these bills are up for consideration. The enemy is clamoring for concessions and crowding to the front with brazen effrontery. Comrades, in the name of God and His righteousness, "up and at 'em."

MARGARET B. PLATT,

President W. C. T. U., District of Columbia. Washington, D. C., Jan. 3, 1898.

[All W. C. T. U. State papers please copy and keep this standing.]

WHAT TO ASK OF CONGRESS, AND HOW.

Let every church and every other society devoted to social welfare adopt at an early day some or all of the following petitions, all of which call for bills pending in present Congress.

Resolved, That the pastor of this congregation (or the president and secretary of this society) is hereby authorized in our behalf to sign and send petitions in duplicate to the two houses of Congress, through our Congressman and one of Senators, requesting the passage of bills:

1. To forbid the sale of liquors in the National Capitol and in all Government buildings.
2. To prohibit interstate gambling by telegraph or telephone.
3. To raise the age of protection for girls to eighteen years in the District of Columbia and the territories.
4. To protect the first day of the week as a day of rest in the same.
5. To prohibit, so far as the power of Congress extends, the reproduction of prize fights by the kinetoscope or kindred devices.
6. And also the interstate and mail circulation of extended newspaper descriptions of such fights.
7. To substitute voluntary arbitration for railway strikes.
8. To protect State anti-cigarette laws by providing that cigarettes imported in original packages on entering any State shall become subject to its laws.

Please write your Congressmen and Senators in behalf of the above.

PETITION PATTERN.

Having voted the petitions preceding, make a separate petition for each request on large square sheets, as follows: "To the United States Senate: The undersigned hereby petition your honorable body to— The above was approved by a vote of—persons at a meeting of—in—on—. Attest:—Presiding" Then make duplicate, addressed "To the United States House of Representatives." Fold petition once and back it, "Petition from— for—." Send the petitions for the House to your own Congressman; the one for the Senate to one of your Senators. Let us keep up a steady snow storm of petitions and letters for the whole two years of this Congress, beginning early and winning surely.

OUR STATE PLEDGES.

We have two. One that says, "I promise to abstain as a beverage," and this does not cover tobacco. Then we have a second pledge, spoken of as iron-clad—"and we promise to abstain from alcohol in any form as a medicine, at sacrament, and also from tobacco." In the Minutes of 1897, in the local constitution, these pledges are given correctly. Any one in doubt about this, by referring to the Minutes of several years back, will find when this matter of putting tobacco in the pledge came up and how it was settled.

Terre Haute West Side members write papers and discuss such subjects as these: "The effect of alcohol on the nervous system," "The effect of alcohol on the mind," "The effect of tobacco on health and morals," "Danger of heredity transmission of drink habit," "The relation of whiskey and tobacco to crime," in this Union. "Our W. C. T. U." a continued paper, has been started, two chapters of which are read at each Tea meeting, chapters 1 and 2, the National W. C. T. U. when and where organized etc. These chapters are very entertaining and instructive. The meetings are well attended.

Elkhart Union is arranging a married woman's contest, to be held March 16. The proceeds will be sent to the State W. C. T. U. for organization.

Mrs. Cammack has added two new Unions to the roll, January 3d, at Galveston; 32 members and 8 honoraries. Mrs. Lydia Green, president; Mrs. Melissa Ault, secretary; Miss Anna Lott, treasurer. Rome City, January 24th, 18 members. Mrs. Mary L. Osborne, president; Miss Mary Clark, secretary; Mrs. Maggie Goodwin, treasurer.

Miss Marie Brehm, of Illinois, held a parlor meeting at Frankfort in Dr. Gard's home, and from seventy-five to one hundred ladies were present to hear her. She spoke in the evening in the U. B. church to the delight of preacher and audience. The W. C. T. U. of Frankfort and Clinton county heartily recommend her work to other counties and Unions.

Dillsboro Union has donated to the Hadley Industrial School an average of $1.25 per member, and intend to soon make it $2.00 per member.

By request of South Whitley Union, one of the grocers of that place has ordered Wool Soap. This Union is arranging to hold a Matrons' Contest.

South Whitley has thirty-eight new members secured during the stay of Mrs. Trego, of Ohio.

To County Presidents and Superintendents of Peace and Arbitration:

DEAR SISTERS—It would cost more than the entire amount appropriated for this department to reach each one of you by circular letter. Will you not, therefore, take this as a personal appeal to you to get a public hearing on the subject of peace before the winter months are gone?

I give below a suggestive program, which can be used for a public meeting, with variations if any are thought desirable. Literature that would be helpful in preparing essays or addresses may be had of Daniel Hill, secretary Peace Association of Friends in America, 120 South Sixteenth street, Richmond, Ind. Under the auspices of said association, D. Hill has just started a little paper called the Messenger, which at 20 cent a year (ten copies for $1.00) affords one of the least expensive ways of circulating peace literature. Subscribe for this and for our own paper and you will then have both Messenger and MESSAGE.

Alice May Douglass is now editor of the Acorn, a peace paper for children, and sends it out from Bath, Maine.

In many cases it would engage the public interest if the exercises on program, marked 1, 2, 3, 4, were made contest, a prize being offered for the best. Let both young and old participate in the meeting.

Good literature may also be had of our National Superintendent, Mrs. H. J. Baily, Winthrop Centre, Maine, and the W. T. P. A., The Temple, Chicago.

Keep record of work done, literature distributed, etc., and let us hear of it now and then through brief report to the MESSAGE.

OBITUARY.

A loyal white ribboner has just left us for the glory land—Miss Hannah Fox died January 12, 1898. The members of our Union attended the funeral in a body. She loved the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.
MRS. L. H. SHAW.
Worthington.

Greencastle Union observed Temperance Sunday in Locust street M. E. Church, Rev. M. A. Farr, pastor and honorary member. Large attendance and 176 signers to the pledge. Temperance recitations and a short address by Miss Evelyn Riley, who, in a convincing manner, succeeded in getting startling facts in regard to the liquor traffic before the people. This Union is increasing in members and enthusiasm under the earnest leadership of Mrs. Florence Martin.

Recently Mrs. Dicks, president of Shelby county, accepted an invitation to hold a meeting at Morristown. To a large and interested audience she reported the State and National Conventions.

Mrs. Anna Reese, County Superintendent of Sabbath Observance, spoke on her department for the same Union, at a meeting to which one hundred men were invited. Great good will no doubt result from these meetings. A club for the MESSAGE will be sent in. A Shelbyville minister will preach on "The Duty of Attending Primaries."

Be sure and read the explanation of the pledges in this issue.

Mrs. R. C. Travis, of Elkhart, sends in a club of twenty-six for the MESSAGE. Last year it was thirteen.

SOAP BUBBLE SOCIAL.

A suggestion in the Kansas State paper (Our Messenger) is so good we pass it on to other States, that the local Unions may avail themselves of this pleasant way of helping the State and National by putting money into both treasuries. The suggestion is, that the Unions revive the "soap bubble social," which was always an interesting entertainment.

This would be our own idea of the modus operandi: Advertise well a month ahead, making the announcement that a wool soap wrapper would be the ticket of admission. Have a soap bubble blowing contest to see who could blow the largest bubble; give one or more cakes of soap to the successful contestant and a beet done up nicely in tissue paper to the one making the biggest failure, showing that he or she was "beat-en." Give a prize to the boy or girl bringing in the largest number of soap wrappers. A small fee for refreshments could go into the local treasury.

To blow satisfactory bubbles, make a strong suds of wool soap and soft or distilled water, add one tablespoon of glycerine to each bowl of suds. Use the patent bubble-blower or the common clay pipe.

When you send the wrappers, tell us how you secured them and how you made your social a success. What Union will be the first to have a soap wrapper bubble contest?

Yours for soap to make the wheels run easy,

HELEN M. BARKER,

Treasurer National W. C. T. U.

GOVERNMENT LIQUOR SELLING INCREASED.

In December, 1897, committees of both houses of Congress authorized the sale of wine and beer in the Capitol restaurants. The superintendent of the new National Library has now permitted the same in its restaurants. The remedy is a great uprising for a bill "To forbid the sale of intoxicating beverages in all government buildings." Petition forms given in this issue. Let every person who reads these lines consider that she can copy said petition plainly on legal cap paper and secure voters' names to it and forward the petition.

Mrs. Ella Nash, of Lima, this State, who is now in Washington, D. C., sends $10.00 for the temperance hospital. There being no Union in Lima, and not wanting her membership to lapse, she sends $1.00 dues and 70 cents for two copies of the MESSAGE—one for missionary purposes.

Mrs. Mattie Cammack is meeting with marked success in Benton county. She reports a Union at Ambia of thirty-two members. She finds opportunity to assist in revivals, and it is beginning to be understood that a gospel W. C. T. U. woman is a power in a revival and no hindrance.

Anderson will welcome and entertain all who may come. They are planning with the hope of a large meeting.

Dear Sisters—You will wonder why the treasurer's report does not appear in this issue. We are sorry to tell you she has been very ill for many days, but is now convalescing and will soon, we hope, be in her usual health and cheery spirits, and you may look for the report in the March paper.

According to agreement, Miss Marie Brehm came to our town Friday, January 14, and Friday night we were favored with a grand discourse on Faith, given to us in her usual impressive way. Saturday afternoon she gave a talk to young people, which was indeed an eye-opener. Her talks on this subject did great good here. Sunday afternoon a mass temperance meeting was held in the C. P. Church. Miss Brehm's talk here was even better than those preceding it. Sunday night at the M. E. Church, the largest church in the city, the audience was large. Intense interest prevailed, and, although she talked for two hours, all went away with a longing for more. She has sown good seed.

On Monday morning a mothers' meeting was held. This was something we needed very much here.

The Mooresville and Brooklyn meetings were a success in every particular.

SECRETARY MARTINSVILLE W. C. T. U.
Martinsville, Ind.

Elkhart county held an executive at Goshen. The Unions pledged to do more personal work, endorsed all the plans sent out by the State and decided to have their names on the "honor roll" for Unions. By unanimous vote it was decided to hold an institute early. A franchise contest will be held for the benefit of the Hadley Industrial School. All red letter days will be observed. County organization will be increased.

FIELD NOTES.

Mrs. Jessie Butler, president of Warren county, had a seige of typhoid fever last summer. Before her convalescence her husband, a friend of the W. C. T. U., took the same disease, from which he died October 24. Mrs. Butler is with her mother at Urbana, Ill., where she will remain until stronger. We extend to her our sympathy, and hope that Warren county women will continue to push the work during her absence.

Alton Union will hold parlor meetings.

South Bend Central has several new members.

Bedford Union has three new members since December 1.

Kentland Union is arranging for special meetings.

South Bend has a new Union since State Convention—South Bend Willard.

Valparaiso Union will soon have two lectures by Mrs. Rounds, president of Illinois W. C. T. U.

Brazil Union will hold parlor meetings. One new member joined at the last meeting.

A stirring contest for Hadley Industrial School is arranged for by Freelandville Union.

Moore's Hill Union has had an annual program printed. It will hold an oratorical contest early in February.

Brookville Union has established and is sustaining a reading room. It is arranging for some special temperance work.

Mrs. Fannie Rogers, treasurer of Mill Creek Union, has been for several weeks under treatment at Dr. Pantzer's sanitarium in Indianapolis.

Colfax Avenue Union, South Bend, will send the Union Signal to the library, Y. M. C. A. and to the editors of city dailies.

Mrs. Emma Cranmer, who has spent much time in our State during the past year, goes to Missouri for February and then returns to South Dakota for work.

Mrs. Anna Kilmer, our State Superintendent of "Work Among Foreigners," has moved to Peru. Mr. Kilmer has invested in the oil business there.

The ladies of one of the Freelandville missionary societies favored a resolution of disapproval of the act of President McKinley in serving wine at his state dinner in the White House.

Mrs. Mina Squires, president of Churubusco Union, writes that they had five new paid members during the first quarter. The Union has fifteen new members, not all paid, and has organized an L. T. L. since the State Convention.

Mrs. Young, president of Michigan City Union, writes: "We are beginning the new year with more interest and zeal than we had expected. We are getting back our old members. This adds new strength and encouragement. I have the promise of two new members for our next meeting."

The Vincennes Union, under the leadership of Mrs. Alice Clark, is "full of good works."

Knox county spring convention will be held in Freelandville. Mrs. Polk, county president, says that at that time they hope to hold a silver gray contest.

An autograph quilt netted Dillsboro Union $15, which was sent immediately to Hadley Industrial School. "New Members" is the motto of this Union for the new year.

The Mary Hadley Y, at Terre Haute, is cordially welcomed as an auxiliary. May its members be as sweet-spirited and work as relentlessly against the liquor traffic as does she whose name they have chosen for their Y.

The Greensburg ministerial meeting arranged for special meetings every day during the week of prayer.

The Greensburg committee of ministers for afternoon meetings during the week of prayer appointed but one woman as leader. That woman was our Mrs. Laura Thomson, whose life is so full of the Christ-likeness.

Westfield Union has adopted the plan of holding a parlor meeting once each month at the home of some one of the superintendents of departments; an especial program to be arranged for each meeting, the novel feature being a paper read by the hostess on the work of her department.

Morristown Union recently held a parlor meeting at the home of its president, Mrs. Ruby. Notwithstanding very inclement weather, about twenty-five persons were present. There was good music and recitations, a short address by Mrs. Anna Bodine and a paper by Mrs. Ruby. The serving of coffee and cake gave opportunity for a little social time and the solicitation of new members.

Thorntown held two public gospel temperance meetings in December. Had a contest ready for January 1, which had to be postponed on account of diphtheria scourge.

Mrs. J. B. Hann, the efficient superintendent of mothers' meetings for Indianapolis Meridian Union, held an interesting mothers' meeting in January at the home of Mrs. J. C. Smith, 2325 College avenue. There was a large attendance. Mrs. E. G. Cornelius gave a most impressive bible reading, which was followed by an able address by Mrs. M. L. Gipe. Many copies were sold of Dr. Mary Wood Allen's "Almost a Man," "Teaching Truth" and "Child Confidence Rewarded."

Our efficient State Superintendent of Narcotics, Mrs. Fannie Calkins, who labored so earnestly for an anti-cigarette law, has moved to Wildwood, Mich. Indiana sincerely mourns the loss of this brave, active State superintendent. We have written to Mrs. Benjamin, president of Michigan, telling her of Indiana's loss and Michigan's great gain.

Miss Brehm's second visit in Morgan county was quite an ovation. She is expected again in February, and the question troubling them now is to get a room large enough to hold the audience. She is reported as talking very plainly to voters, and they were heard to remark, "It's no use; there is no dodging the points she made." And the most remarkable thing of all is that these same voters kept sweet and greatly admired the orator.

In a letter from Mrs. E. C. Graham, of Rockport, I find the Union is quietly active with gospel meetings on the Sabbath, sermons from their ministers, and contests, and now they are arranging for a reading room for their boys.

The Loogootee Union holds gospel temperance meetings the first Sunday evening of every month. These are union meetings of all three churches—Methodist, Christian and Baptist. The ministers help in these, and are glad to have temperance meetings in their churches. We have carried on these union meetings for over three years, and the interest increases and the audience is always large.

Marion Central sent a barrel to the Door of Hope. The L. T. L. of Marion is on the boom. They have a large class of senior boys and girls.

Mrs. Overman is an indefatigable worker in the L. T. L. field.

Wawaka was successful with their remonstrance, and have not a saloon in the town.

Albion has started out to observe every red-letter day in the year, and began with Madam Willard's birthday.

Through the influence of the Albion W. C. T. U. the town has a splendid curfew ordinance. The city council gave them just what they asked for—that the time of ringing the curfew be 8 o'clock during the long days and 7 o'clock in the short ones, and the age limit be sixteen. It is well enforced. Their Union holds a Mothers' Meeting once a month. "Purity and the Public School" is a subject to be considered in the near future.

Mrs. Cammack held a Mothers' Meeting with the colored Union of Marion at their last meeting. Subject: "Parental Influence." It was appreciated so much that she was asked to repeat it at night at their church, when more would be present and they would make an effort to have the young ladies out.

Ligonier has added eight new members to their Union.

DeKalb county has had an executive meeting; good attendance and planned for their spring convention. Butler, the large Union that Mrs. Cammack organized on her way to the State convention, is thinking of entertaining the convention.

A member of LaOtto Union said, "If this Union goes down, I shall put on my white ribbon every Union day and parade the streets. The Union shall not die! They will not die with such a spirit. They received five new members as one of the results of Mrs. Cammack's lectures.

Nappanee Union is up and doing. Mrs. Cammack spoke for them in November, and they will have her again soon.

Rome City Union is preparing the young people for work in the summer assembly the coming season.

COMMUNICATIONS.

In response to a request from Mrs. McWhirter, I send in the following:

We meet the second Tuesday of each month with an average attendance of ten members. Last year we were fortunate in having with us Mrs. Tomlinson, who has a creditable reputation for earnest and efficient work in Illinois and Indiana. She complimented us on having "the best Mothers' Meetings" in her experience. Our superintendent has allowed them to go down. Committees of two were appointed last spring to visit the school each week to see a lesson given in Scientific Temperance. It stirred up the teachers by way of remembrance. The school board granted our request for Neal Dow's birthday as Temperance Day, to be an annual custom. We furnished the program.

We made earnest efforts for a curfew law, but the town board failed us. We canvassed the township to secure signatures to a non-license petition. The business men refused to sign, but the voters in the country responded nobly. We sent $25 to the Temple, and $6 to the Armenians. We sent out forty boxes of flowers or fruit on Flower Mission Day. The children's work languishes, but now the wife of our Presbyterian minister is trying to start that work. There are but three Unions in our county. MRS. L. H. SHAW.
Worthington, Green County.

The Terre Haute West Side Union has been gaining in interest, enthusiasm and membership since the county convention held last Oct. One of the members, Mrs. Belle Henderson, has made and written year books for the members. These contain programs for the various meetings.

Center Union was organized May 17, 1896, with eleven members and four honoraries. It has steadily increased in interest, and where any have dropped out their places have been supplied with others. Two Ys joined our ranks recently, making our enrollment as at the beginning. A. T. Whitson attended our Union in December, and gave us a glowing account of the World's and National Conventions, inspiring us to more earnestness in the work. On the last day of the old year we held a suffrage contest which, although it was a very disagreeable evening, added $4.25 to our treasury. And what still cheers us, our superintendent of contest work says we must have a Demorest contest before we quit. H. M. KENWORTHY,
Corresponding Secretary.

Brazil Union was full of enthusiasm during the first quarter of the new year in our work, and we look upon the signs as prophetic of an excellent year's work. We held a New Year's meeting with an excellent bible reading, conducted by Mrs. Ramy, whose readings are always full of spiritual power, and a testimony meeting revealed the fact that each one present was more deeply impressed than ever before of the importance of our work and pledged their best efforts for this year.

Money was raised for the Hadley Industrial School by giving an "old folks concert." A large chorus of forty voices, most of them elderly persons dressed in old fashioned costume (some relics of many years), sang ancient and modern music, with two or three fine recitations interspersed. A vein of temperance ran through the entertainment. A parliamentary drill, in which the society resolved themselves into a convention to suppress the liquor traffic, putting in practice the rules on which we had been drilled, was one of the best features. It was pronounced by all a high grade entertainment. We realized $85 at 15 cents each. Other Unions would take up this feature and manage it properly they would realize great profit from it.

We are to have sermons from the different pastors at proper intervals, at which time the Unions will attend in a body and see that the friends attend, also. The ministers are pleased to comply.

DORA L. KEITH.

Mrs. Mary C. Leib, president Anderson W. C. T. U., writes, We are and have been working for new members more earnestly since our last State Convention with fairly good success, hoping and praying that the future has better in store for us. At our first meeting (Mothers') after the convention, reports of the convention were given. And non-members, of which there were a goodly number present, as well as a good turn out of members. We are only thirty-eight strong, with several honorary members, and all seem very much interested. We are trying to impress upon our dear sisters the fact that they cannot be eligible to any office unless they are readers of the State and National papers. On December 16, Mrs. McWhirter was with us at a parlor meeting at the home of Mrs. John E. Canaday. We have felt the inspiration ever since. Jan. 3—Madam Willard's birthday—was observed with appropriate exercises; very impressive, and with good effect, one new member being added. And so the good work goes on.

FRANCES E. WILLARD, WORLD'S AND NATIONAL PRESIDENT OF THE W. C. T. U., CALLED TO HER REWARD.

HER LIFE GIVEN TO THE CAUSE. FRANCES E. WILLARD, OUR QUEEN, IS CROWNED

With immortal glory, and has entered into the life beyond. This is not the first time our organization has looked into the open grave, but we had only one Miss Willard to bury, and our sorrow and sense of loss is very, very keen. It has been admirably said that "death is the sovereign alchemist who assays the value of the coin struck in the mint of life." Such a valuation we are called to put upon the life and character of our loved leader, when, by a stroke that bewildered our eyes and smote our hearts, Miss Frances E. Willard was removed beyond the mystic boundaries of the life that is.

Miss Frances E. Willard, the greatly loved president of the World's and United States W. C. T. U., died after a short illness, February 18, at Hotel Empire, New York City. February 23 her body lay in state in the beautiful Willard Hall in the W. C. T. U. Temple in Chicago. February 24 the funeral services were held in the First M. E. church, Evanston, to which she had belonged since young girlhood.

Frances E. Willard was born at Churchville, near Rochester, N. Y., September 28, 1839. Being one of three children—a brother older and a sister younger—she was descended on her father's side from Maj. Simon Willard, one of the founders of Concord, Mass. Her mother was Margaret Hill, of sturdy New England stock. When Frances was 3 years old the family moved to Oberlin, Ohio, where they remained 5 years, and then removed to Janesville, Wis., where she and her sister Mary, the subject of that charming memoir, "Nineteen Beautiful Years," spent the next 10 years in the school of nature amid the lovely scenery of Rock River valley, with her wise mother and a beloved governess as instructors. The family moved to Evanston on account of the educational advantages. She graduated in 1859 from the Northwestern Female College. For several years she taught, holding positions in several colleges and in Evanston as dean of the Woman's College, into which had merged the Northwestern Female College, made her president of her Alma Mater. As a teacher she was an inspiration. She traveled in Europe, visiting points of greatest interest, including chief centers of European culture; studied in Paris, Berlin and Rome. While abroad she was a frequent contributor to the New York Independent, The Christian Union, Harper's Monthly and leading Chicago journals.

In 1874 when the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was organized she was chosen for corresponding secretary. Since then, with the exception of the time she was engaged with D. L. Moody, the evangelist, in Boston, she has devoted her time and genius to the work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, serving the national organization as corresponding secretary until 1879, when the National convention was held in Indianapolis. She was then elected president, a position for which she was remarkably fitted. To Miss Willard came the thought of sending out W. C. T. U. missionaries, and later the organization of the World's W. C. T. U. In 1888 she was elected president of the National Council of Women and president of the World's W. C. T. U. As a public speaker she had few equals. Her personel was pleasing, her countenance inspiring, her voice full of pathos and power. It was musical and mellow, with distinct articulation and great earnestness. She was recently easily heard in the great music halls in St. Louis and Buffalo. Her gentleness and humility were marked characteristics.

We have a feeling that our leader's place can never be filled. We believe that she was one of God's greatest gifts to the nineteenth century. She inspired us by her genius, "taught us complete dependence upon God and led us onward, upward by her enthusiastic faith. When tried by prosperity and flattery, by misunderstanding and evil report, she was always and everywhere the same unaffected, fair-minded christian woman whose sole aim was to do the will of God." "She did more to enlarge our sympathies, widen our outlook and develop our gifts than any man or any other woman of this century." Every movement for the uplifting of humanity has found in her a cordial friend and active helper. How we will miss her leading. She heard the bugle of immortality summoning her away while struggling in the thick of the fight. So intense has been the pressure in these formative years of the mightest movements to which women have as yet been called, that she lived in work, far beyond the appointed span.

Our leader is gone. Our grief is shared by all classes of society, Protestant and Catholic, the enemies of the saloon, who mingle their tears because Frances Willard is gone. She was the uncrowned queen of the world, who has reigned in the hearts of half a million earnest women in many nations. She is gone, but we must not falter or turn back; we must double our vigilance; the battle wages; let every woman stand firmly at her post until the triumph comes of the principles she espoused and for which she gave of her rich talents and her life. God help us to lift our hearts and to think not of death, but of immortality. The way lies only a little longer for us. Life is eternal and boundless. We feel that the morning lingers just over the hill. May we be more holy women with a higher ideal than ever before. Oh, that our local Unions may become centers of spiritual power, gathering to them the christian womanhood of this nation, until the foundation and strongholds of the liquor traffic shall be shaken and overturned by the mighty oncoming of Christ's kingdom in the hearts of the people.

LADY HENRY SOMERSET, WORLD'S PRESIDENT.

We shall give her an open hand and a warm heart welcome to this, the first place in the world. Any one reading the following article from the pen of our promoted chieftain, and one of her last efforts, can not do less, and must feel loyalty to the heart's core for this misunderstood sister. Miss Willard said:

"Lady Henry Somerset has given 12 years of constant activity to the temperance reform. I do not believe that any other woman ever laid so many gifts upon its shrine. She is the daughter of an earl, the inheritor of wealth, the possessor of beauty and charm. She has a voice sweet as a flute, and of a compass capable of easily reaching 10,000 persons, a gift of eloquence in speaking that has made her the foremost woman orator of her time, and a gift of writing that has been characterized in terms of highest commendation by literary experts. To crown all these, she has a tender faith and spirituality irradiating her daily life, and a humor and bonhomie so delightful that they are perhaps the first qualities noted on meeting her.

I am more grieved than I can tell you that she could not continue in the work to which she has brought a devotion that knew no metes or bounds. The misfortune of losing her through overwork from the white ribbon army of England is greater than any other we have yet sustained.

In closing her letter of resignation to the British women, she quotes the pathetic couplet:

"My half day's work is done,
And this is all my part,
To give a patient God
My patient heart."

But we will not permit ourselves to think that she will be no more among us; other and better days may dawn, and meanwhile it comforts me to know that I but express the loyalty of her American comrades in writing this little characterization, which they will accept as richly deserved of one whom they have learned to love so much."

From the Indianapolis Journal, February 25.

IN MISS WILLARD'S MEMORY.

TRIBUTE PAID TO THE GREAT WOMAN AT YESTERDAY'S MEETING.

A memorial meeting for Miss Frances Willard was held yesterday afternoon at Central avenue M. E. church. There was a large attendance of women interested in the W. C. T. U. work, and its leader. The pulpit was decorated with white flowers, and smilax and white cloth were draped on the railing. A portrait of Miss Willard, framed in white and smilax, was against a large flag across the front of the organ. Mrs. F. T. McWhirter presided. The choirs of the Broadway and Central avenue churches furnished the music. At either side of Mrs. McWhirter were seated the speakers of the meeting. A hymn, "Guide me, O thou great Jehovah," was sung, and a Psalm was read, followed by a prayer by Dr. C. C. Lasby, pastor of the church. Mrs. McWhirter gave a brief sketch of the death and funeral services held for Miss Willard, and then gave an historical resume of her life and work. In closing, Mrs. McWhirter urged the women to continue her work.

Miss Hadley, vice-president of the Indiana W. C. T. U., told why Miss Willard was great, since, "by the power of God, she swept the keys of humanity, which responded to her touch. To pay a tribute to her was to pay a tribute to the principles for which she labored. The cause is greater than its leader, and we will pray for some one to take her place. While our earth is lonely, our sky has gained a star." Mrs. Balch, State secretary, spoke of Miss Willard's fortunate environment, and of how she made the most of her opportunities. Miss Harriet Noble spoke of Miss Willard as a teacher. Her power she deemed not so much in her teaching as in the influence of her personality. She was a pioneer in teaching self-government, self-control and a high standard of conduct, self-respect and a sense of responsibility. It was Miss Willard who opened the eyes of thousands of women to civic life. Mr. Edward Clark spoke of Miss Willard's attitude toward the press. Mr. Clark recounted Miss Willard's early experiences in sending contributions for publication and her disappointments. Her later writings consisted of articles in the magazines and the Union Signal. Miss Willard's attitude toward the press, he said, was always one of kindly sympathy. In closing, he told of seeing and hearing Miss Willard at the national Y. P. S. C. E. meeting in Cleveland.

After the choir sang "Rock of Ages," Mrs. May Wright Sewall spoke of Miss Willard and the suffrage movement, and said that it was in the hymn just sung that she first heard Miss Willard's voice.

Miss Willard came to realize the need of the ballot in order that greater legislation might be accomplished in the interest of the work of temperance, which was so near her heart. Mrs. Sewall gave an account of a meeting of the Temperance Union held in Washington, when Miss Willard created a sensation by asking Miss Anthony to come to the platform.

Rev. Dr. Lasby spoke of Miss Willard as a Christian and a church member. He told of her joining the Methodist Church when a young woman, and read two letters which were written by Miss Willard to a Sunday school teacher, who is now a member of the Central Avenue Church. Miss Willard was one of the first women elected to the Methodist General Conference, and she enjoyed the friendship of the leading men and women of the church. Mrs. Northcott sang one of Miss Willard's favorite hymns, "Some Glad Day," in which the choir and audience joined. Mrs. McWhirter gave a brief personal tribute to the late "un-crowned queen," and there were several informal tributes from members of the audience who had known Miss Willard personally.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

MRS. STEVENS, OUR NATIONAL PRESIDENT.

By the death of Miss Willard, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, of Portland, Maine, becomes acting President of the National W. C. T. U., according to the constitution of the national organization. The president-elect nominates the vice-president and the convention elects the same. Thus Mrs. Stevens was selected by Miss Willard.

DEPARTMENT FUND.

Our departments do the real work of the State W. C. T. U., and we decided we needed a fund and would make one by holding public department meetings quarterly. We said we would take a collection at these meetings, giving half of the collection to the State for a state fund, and one-fourth to the County for a county fund and the local Union getting the remaining one-fourth of the collection for its share, and every penny of the money to be used in department work. A program was put out for the first quarter in the January MESSAGE. It was a good program, for I attended a department meeting when it was carried out. And if one hundred Unions had done what that Union did we would have at least $50 for our fund. We now give the program for the second quarterly department meeting:

PROGRAM.

Use White Ribbon hymnals (if you have them; if you do not have them, better get them.) Song, page 7, "Christ for the world we sing," also page 19, "Save our land." Responsive reading, "Praise," prepared by our World's president now. The first one in our hymnal. Follow this with prayer service. Song, page 159, "Ring out." A 20 minutes' symposium on women's enfranchisement in 5 minute (or less) speeches. Recitation, "A teetotaler's story," W. C. T. U. book No. 3. A solo. Recitation, "Law, lawless and lawless," by Frances E. Willard, Demorest book No. 3. Collection. Temperance doxology. Organization fund.

The wheels of organization stand fast; they have not turned round once since the South Bend convention. There is a pad-lock on them, and on it in letters which all can see, you read, "we can't go in debt." Life memberships were to be used for this fund. Last year we spent some thought and energy in that direction and four life memberships were the result. Are we to have any this year? Shall we extend organization? Is anyone thinking or doing anything in this line? If so, we want to hear from them.

CONVENTIONS AND INSTITUTES.

With two or three exceptions counties are taking the schedule dates and the plan and program seems to give general satisfaction. We feel hopeful of reaching every unorganized county, and surely no county president will allow her county to be the exception. And in that case we will cover the state by counties—an institute in every one of the ninety-two counties.

Mrs. M. A. Tompkins has sent a department letter which, in some unexplainable way, disappeared. We received a very beautiful tribute to Miss Willard from the pen of our superintendent of mothers' meetings and regret very much that there was no room for it in our little MESSAGE edition.—ED.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Dear Sisters—The first week of April will soon be here, and lest it find you unprepared, begin your preparation at once.

First. Invite each pastor to deliver at least one pointed sermon on Sabbath Observance.

Second. Hold a mass-meeting on Sunday afternoon and assign subjects to some of your leading men and women for discussion. At this meeting pass the Sabbath Observance pledge; also a pledge against the Sunday newspaper. Have an abundance of good literature for free distribution and good music. Do not be afraid to advertise your meeting and announce it until every one shall know of it.

Third. Ask your pastors to make Sabbath Observance the topic for the mid-week prayer service.

Fourth. Make out a copy of our State Sabbath law and ask your county and local papers to publish it that week. Copy the first paragraph under "A Week of Prayer," on page 55, and ask them to publish it the last week in March.

Fifth. Let this be the subject of your prayer, public, private and in the family.

Sixth. Keep a record of all work done and report.

Yours sincerely,

CULLA J. VAYHINGER.

SOMETHING FOR ALL, ESPECIALLY NARCOTIC WORKERS.

Push the Terry bill. The Terry bill, now before Congress, is a terror to the tobacco trust. This will give police power to the states in dealing with the cigarette, and such a law must be passed by Congress before the states can effectively shut out the cigarette in original packages, according to the provisions of the Interstate commerce law. Many states now stand ready to pass prohibitory cigarette laws, as Iowa and Tennessee have already done, as soon as the Terry bill becomes a law. Write at once to Mrs. F. H. Ingalls, St. Louis, Mo., National Superintendent of Anti-Narcotics, for full information. "Tobacco Trust Exposure," a leaflet that should be scattered far and wide. Rates as follows: 100, 30 cents; 400, $1.00; 1,000, $2.50. Address National Citizenship League, 822-153 LaSalle street, Chicago, Ill.

SCIENTIFIC TEMPERANCE LITERATURE.

Heretofore superintendents have been referred to the Organizer Publishing Co. for Scientific Temperance Literature and the Wall Rolls, that their stock already on hand might be used without extra cost in postage to the person ordering.

However, the Wall Rolls may now be ordered in any number desired of the State Superintendent of this department. Price, 5 cents each. Also, new, bright, up-to-date literature, suitable for the teacher, parent or superintendent in packages of 10 cents each. Superintendents, please state which class is desired.

ADAH W. WHITE,

State Superintendent.

LIST OF NEW PAID MEMBERS.

St. Joe, Mrs. Silas King; Ligonier, Mrs. M. C. Denny and Miss Alice Lewis; Michigan City, Mrs. F. E. Brown and Mrs. McDaniel; Amo, Mrs. Susan B. Scherer; Marion, Central, Mrs. J. M. Speelman; Logansport, Central, Mrs. Jacob Morehart; Logansport, West Side, Mrs. Graw; Monrovia, Mrs. Lizzie Hubbard, Mrs. Rhoda Wilhite, Mrs. Lucy Edwards and Mrs. Mattie Fletcher; LaPorte, Mrs. J. Shupp and Mrs. H. Decker; Elkhart, Mrs. Garvin, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Kidder; Indianapolis, Meridian, Mrs. L. Wilson, Mrs. M. Bristol, Mrs. Z. T. Jaynes and Mrs. S. E. Houser; Indianapolis, Tarlton, Mrs. Lucy P. Randall, aged 82 years.

NOTE—Word is received of many new members being secured, but these are all reported.

Dear Sisters—I send a list of twelve names, ten for the MESSAGE alone and two for the MESSAGE and Union Signal. Also inclose a P. O. order for $4.70. I hope to secure another club in the near future. We have four Unions in South Bend. Besides their separate lines of work they are just now co-operating in a special effort to enforce the cigarette law and to secure for our city the Curfew law, also to create more interest on the subject of temperance in our Sunday schools. We have planned a mass meeting of the Sunday schools and a crusade of pledge signing. At a county executive meeting we adopted the program given in the MESSAGE for the Normal Institute and hope to have a profitable meeting. Faithfully yours,

EVA OAKES TAGGART.

HADLEY INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

The response of the W. C. T. Unions and friends of the School to the call for funds to help cancel all indebtedness on this much-needed home, has gladdened the hearts of those feeling the burden of providing a home and home comforts for those now there, and for others who are asking admission to it. The debts have been and are still so pressing that we feel almost as if committing a crime when using any of these funds, even for the direct necessities of the Home. This should not be, you will all say.

A touching appeal comes to us from a widowed mother whose husband was murdered last October. She asks that we take three of her little girls. If we should take one or two of them, she will then have it hard enough to keep herself and those remaining, as she has been left with seven children. There are several others with their share of sorrow and destitution who are knocking at our doors, the admission of whom means additional expense. Let us of our abundance grant them the blessing of our Christian Home.

LUCRETIA HOBART.

Danville, Ill.

Dear Sisters—After an illness of some weeks I rejoice that I am again able to be at my desk. Your kind letters of sympathy and your personal calls have cheered me greatly during this, the first real sickness of my life. The hours in bed did not seem nearly so long. One thought especially cheered me, and I am sure it has cheered you equally as well, for I only sum up and report the work done by you dear sisters of the local and county Unions. The thought was this: The Unions have just completed the best quarter's work of any corresponding quarter for years.

Many Unions do not take the MESSAGE. We are sorry for this. The report of the good work being done by the different Unions is an inspiration. The work of the second quarter will soon have been completed. Have you secured your new member this quarter? Have you kindly asked for all dues that become due this quarter? Have you, as county officers, visited every Union in your county? If not, try the plan and report results to the MESSAGE. One personal visit is better than two or three letters. Report blanks have been sent out. The promptness of nearly all the Unions in returning the blanks properly filled is, indeed, gratifying. Very few coming in late last quarter.

Has any county treasurer failed to receive the blanks? Then notify the State Treasurer at once.

Has any local treasurer failed to receive a blank? Write your county treasurer immediately.

Did any Union in the county fail to report last year? Then use every effort to get it to send in a report this quarter.

Many Unions that once slept sleep no longer.

Many new Unions have been formed with bright prospects for the future.

Certainly the time has never been when honorary members could be secured so easily. Many seem glad to give their name and dollar. Don't fail to ask them.

Have you made your Union meetings so interesting that they are the talk of the town?

Has any treasurer paid out money, no matter how small the amount, without an order signed by both the president and secretary? If so, don't do it any more.

Has any treasurer sent a report to the county or State without keeping an exact duplicate? Don't do it again.

Does any one think it not important to make out the reports on the blanks sent? Then don't think so any longer.

If any one fails to receive a receipt for money sent, notify the treasurer and duplicate will be sent. Don't be satisfied without one.

Don't fail to subscribe for the MESSAGE and Union Signal—only $1.10. Both should be on the table of every White Ribboner.

Let us be in earnest about the work, especially this part of it. Make a systematic canvass.

Try Miss Brehm's plan of dividing the Union into two equal divisions. The division securing the fewest subscribers being required to give a reception in honor of the other division. This is also a good plan for securing new members. Who will be the first to report? The Master bath need of more workers and hath called us. Let us not be found wanting in this great time of need.

Yours, to help push the work to a finish,

AMANDA T. WHITSON.

Any one desiring a Willard button can secure the same by sending to the State Treasurer, Mrs. Amanda T. Whitson. Orders from any part of the State will be promptly filled. Price, 10 cents.

FIELD NOTES.

Mrs. Dr. Owsley has been made superintendent of the Hadley Industrial School Department of the Thorn-town Union. Mr. Bridges gives the Union a free lecture along the line of rescue work, as the entering of two more girls into our School is under contemplation.

Willard Union, Clinton county, is preparing for a ten days' campaign for Mrs. Anna Downey, especially for the Christian Citizenship department.

Mrs. Florence Vance reports the Press department on the up-grade—twenty county superintendents heard from already.

Coatsville Union has put on new life and vigor. Among their many resolutions for good effort for the year is to observe the red letter days. They canvassed the town and secured eighty signatures against the use and sale of cigarettes.

Mrs. E. M. Haughton, of the Mary F. Thomas Union, has gone to Louisiana for two or three months' work for that State W. C. T. U. She is very much beloved in her home Union, and we feel honored to have her on our roll one of our national evangelists.

Mrs. L. W. Candler has been confined at home with a severe illness most of the winter; was out for the first time last Sabbath. This is a great trial to an indefatigable worker like this sister.

The Unions of Richmond are working together, circulating the petition to Congress requesting it to forbid the sale of liquors in all government buildings. The mission work under the Mary F. Thomas Union is in a flourishing condition.

Moore's Hill Union gives thanks for two new members. They report their young people from fifteen to eighteen as very much interested in medal work. They will hold a gold medal contest at their county convention. Mrs. John Machlan takes the place of Ella Kroft as county secretary.

Mrs. Cammack has made a splendid record the past month, having added to our roll 168 members and seventeen honoraries.

Moore's Hill Union has out a very strong and attractive program.

Mrs. R. J. Trego, of Ohio, assisted in revival services at Gas City.

Miss Baker, President of Benton county, says: "Mrs. Cammack has been in our county and given us a shaking up. She encouraged the weak Unions, organized two new ones and added to our membership 102 women and girls and nine men. I am greatly pleased with Mrs. Cammack's work. Our county has doubled its membership. Two Unions have also doubled their membership."

LaPorte Union is asking the city council for a cur-few law. Mrs. Dr. Warden and Mrs. Harrison went before the council and made "short but earnest pleas" in behalf of such an ordinance and presented a petition.

North Manchester Union is right up to date. They seem to hold the secret of success and make the do-everything policy fulfill its mission in a wonderful manner. Mrs. Nellie Baker wishes to say to the readers of the MESSAGE that she is not the county president now of Wabash county, but Mrs. Harriet F. Kidd, of Wabash, is. Mrs. Nellie Baker belongs to the North Manchester Union.

Memorial services in honor of Miss Frances E. Willard were conducted Thursday, February 24, during the hour of her burial services, at the home of Mrs. J. F. B. Kauffman, Goshen, Ind.

Miss Willard's picture was draped in bridal illusion and white satin ribbon surrounded with beautiful potted plants, and Mrs. Kauffman's home was filled with people interested in Miss Willard. Some of her favorite hymns were sung, and the services consisted of suitable readings from the ministers of different churches in her home at Evanston, and earnest prayers by Miss Chandler and Brother Pierce, of the Baptist church, of this city.

Nappanee Union reports eight new members for their Union since the convention—six since the beginning of the new year; have put four temperance books in school library, subject to their circulating as they wish to do; held parlor meetings and gave five-cent luncheons, proceeds to go in their treasury; are using "Bible Readings" and "Christian Citizenship," and enjoy them.

At our executive meeting we resolved to try and further the cause of temperance by observing all the rules laid out by our leaders, consequently March 14 and 15 will have a spring institute, to be held at Elkhart, and our women will put forth an effort to make it beneficial as well as pleasant to all who will come.

February 18th the Prohibitionists of Elkhart county held an interesting conference at the court house. Chairman Crist, of Indianapolis, was present; the W. C. T. U's, of Goshen, furnished the music.

MRS. A. P. DAUB,
Goshen, Ind. Press Superintendent.

ITEM FROM SEDALIA W. C. T. U.

Rev. Arthur Patton, of Burlington, pastor of the Christian church of Sedalia, delivered a temperance sermon on Sunday night, February 13. The Scripture lesson was on the "Road to Jericho" and the text was "Consistency, thou art a jewel," and he did justice to it. It was by the solicitation of our president and also superintendent of evangelist work, Mrs. Kate Coapstick.

Our Medal superintendent, Mrs. Sarah Miller, held the fourth W. C. T. U. contest at Moran, February 17. There were eight contestants, their ages ranging from ten to fourteen. Miss Wealthy Clouse, who received the medal, was only eleven years of age. The one receiving second prize was Miss Grace Ryan, twelve years of age. The others each received a beautiful souvenir with a bow of white ribbon attached. The program was very good, but the net proceeds were only $5.30, and half was given to the Ladies' Aid society of Moran, leaving us $2.65. We hope some seed has fallen by the wayside. We observed Washington's birthday, February 22, and intend to observe Neal Dow's also, which we did last year. One letter was written to a member of the legislature by our president last winter in regard to the cigarette petition with quite a number of signatures to the petition, but we haven't done anything in the Narcotic department this year.

ELLA BOYD,
Superintendent Press.

Howard county Unions are all actively at work. Kokomo Union sustains a mission where much good is being accomplished. A gospel meeting is held every Tuesday evening, a temperance meeting every Friday evening, Sunday at 9 o'clock an L. T. L., Sunday School at 10:30 a. m., and at 3:30 p. m. union services. The ministers of the city preach gratuitously by turns. On Wednesday all poor women are invited to the mission to stay all day. Those who desire to learn are taught to sew. At 3:30 p. m. the Evangelistic Superintendent holds a Mothers' Meeting. Dinners are provided for the mothers on Wednesday and for the children (who live at a long distance) on Sunday. This is truly a great work and those who are carrying it on receive bountiful gifts of grace from our Father.

Kokomo Union meets every Thursday. It has a printed program for the year. There is much interest manifested, new members are being received, and the work is prospered of the Lord.

Dear White Ribboners—At the suggestion of Mrs. McWhirter, our State President, I will write a few words for the MESSAGE concerning our work in Bartholomew county. Although at first I thought there was nothing helpful to report, upon second thought it occurred to me that perhaps our plan for keeping up an interest in the work in the various Unions throughout the county, if known to others, might be somewhat helpful.

Last year we made out enough programs and got them printed to furnish each Union in our county with a supply to distribute among the members. These programs are neatly arranged in pamphlet form, just as those we have for our literary clubs, and program for each regular meeting of year made out complete. The subject for each meeting is designated; then appropriate responses from each member present; the Bible reading for the day is all arranged and indicated. Then follow the papers, select readings, and discussions on some subject. One day is given to each of the various departments of work with which we are interested. We find that the printed programs have helped us, not only in our large Union in Columbus, but also in the smaller Union, by having the work systematized, and by having these programs placed in the hands of all. Yours faithfully,

CARRIE T. WOODARD,
President Bartholomew County.

Our new president, Mrs. S. D. Curtiss, has been at work. She has addressed one mass meeting in West LaFayette, when she reported the World's Convention of this year. Two members and one honorary were received at that time. Also two Gospel Temperance meetings at Buck Creek, one for mothers and fathers, and one for young people. She has held one mothers' meeting. Twenty-six ladies were present and organized a club for child study. This is not W. C. T. U. work, but an outgrowth of the Union. The president and vice-president are members of the W. C. T. U.

She has recently been to Romney and held five meetings and given one lecture on "The Cash Value of a Boy." She held one Purity meeting for young people Sunday evening, January 31, one meeting for fathers and mothers Sunday afternoon, two Gospel Temperance meetings Monday and Tuesday evenings, and she spoke on Christian citizenship Sunday morning. She has furnished three pastors with White Cross and White Shield manuals, with the promise that they will introduce the work among their young people and endeavor to secure pledges. She has also furnished the LaFayette Y. M. C. A. with a White Cross manual. Yours in the work,

MRS. ALTA E. W. LATTA.

Mrs. Grable, president of the Logansport Union, writes: "I feel encouraged in our work. We have a good attendance and our plan of conducting the meetings, I think, will keep up an interest. We meet at 2:30 p. m. (I begin on time if only three are present.) We give until 4 o'clock. Half of the time some members have charge of the meeting for one of our departments. At the last meeting the Department of Christian Citizenship was the subject. The day being very stormy, we did not have a very large attendance, only sixteen, but every one felt benefited. As we have meetings every two weeks we have gone over a good many of the departments, but as we are getting better acquainted with the work all along the lines, the interest increases and we expect to continue studying our departments. I know that we can with profit.

I see by the MESSAGE Cass county Institute comes in March. I am very glad. We are arranging for Miss Downey in April. Perhaps we can have her for the Institute.

Thornstown Union is wide awake. Under the leadership of a faithful president, Mrs. Mary Jenkins, the Union is doing some excellent work in fourteen departments. Our Mothers' Meetings are of great benefit to mothers. Two of these meetings have been held this year. The one held on February 4 was very enthusiastic. Special invitations were given to mothers and to fathers. The program consisted of a Bible reading on social purity; select reading, "Pitfalls for Boys;" a solo, "A Mother's Appeal to Her Boy;" and a paper, "The Greatness of a Mother's Mission," followed by a spirited discussion. Pen fails to give the inspiration received in the meeting. It was good to be there.

MRS. ORRAH HALLER,
Secretary.

SUBSCRIBERS

Please renew your subscription immediately. Some member in every Union desires to help the work, but feels that there is little she can do. Let such a sister visit the old subscribers and get them to renew their subscriptions. This will greatly help. We need more new subscribers in order to know that the communications from the national and State workers are read by the membership. Who will help? Will you?

Mrs. McWhirter says there will be many plans for definite work by the Unions during the near future in regard to enforcement of existing laws and some new laws desired. For this reason, it will be advisable for each Union to appoint a legislative committee.

All funds for the Temple should be sent to Miss Cornelia Dow, Portland, Me., who was selected by Miss Willard to act as custodian for the money secured by her, to be held until there was sufficient to retire the Temple trust bonds. All money received by her will be held until drawn by order of the national officers.

Invite all organizations to attend your institute. Be broad, generous and kind. Make your program so interesting that everybody will be instructed and desire to help.

LILLIAN M. N. STEVENS

"As sweet and wholesome as her own piney woods," was Miss Willard's description of the woman who succeeds her. Mrs. Stevens was born in Dover, Maine. Her first public work was in the school room. At the age of twenty-one she married Mr. M. Stevens of Strondwater, a suburb of Portland. Her husband is in accord with her in her life work. Her only child is a woman of great promise—an ardent white ribboner—one of the superintendents of the Maine W.

Hoagland Union reports good work being done. Memorial services were held.

Bluffton Union is doing fine work. The Six-Mile Union has recently joined them.

Ossian reports their drug store giving much trouble. A gambling den is getting quite a hold on their men and boys. We are glad that a W. C. T. U. holds forth at this place, and that both of these places are being investigated. Go on, dear sisters and the victory will be yours.

Mrs. Holcombe, of Lawrence County, reports they are doing all they can. "If we all do all we can, the Lord will take care of the rest."

Life is not living just for a day; Life is not dreaming all this short way; 'Tis helping your brothers to lighten the load; 'Tis living for others and trusting in God.—Farm and Home.

Mapleton Union is planning to give "Samantha at Saratoga" some time in the near future.

Please renew your clubs at once. The MESSAGE and Signal, $1.10; to ministers, 75c.; single subscriptions, 35c.; in clubs of twelve or more, 25c. Do not forget to secure a club at your institute. Every member needs the State paper. Can a workman build a house without tools? Let us do our work well, as unto the Lord.

Many new clubs are coming in. Do not fail to secure the renewal of a single name or club. A Union can not afford it. If funds are not plenty, give a literature entertainment and put the Signal and MESSAGE into the hands of as many as possible.

Treasurers report will appear in May MESSAGE. Many counties have increased their membership. Receipts for this quarter's dues running far ahead of the corresponding quarter of last year.

MRS. A. T. WHITSON.
Treasurer.

Miss Marie C. Brehm of Chicago, recently completed a very successful tour through our State giving us forty-seven days work. Total number of evening addresses given, 44. Day meetings held, 21. Visited and spoke in school rooms, 12 times. Number new members added,

125. To some of the counties she made the second visit and is engaged again for a week or more's work, each, some time this fall. Marion and Clinton counties have already been well written up in regard to her work. We can not speak too highly of her. Morgan county adds another tribute by saying, "Miss Brehm has been a wonderful help and inspiration to our Unions." "We expect more rapid growth on account of her work." She will attend their county institute April 8-9, and will possibly return again in the fall. As a result of her work in Madison county, a new Union of fourteen members and a new Y of twenty members were added at Pendleton, the State Y secretary returning and organizing the Y later.

Mrs. Sears writes of her work in Anderson, "We cannot begin to tell the good Miss Brehm has done for our city. Her clear, concise and fearless and yet, withall, sweet christian spirit won the hearts of all." "There is a general uplift in thought in regard to temperance work. Five men stand pledged to give five dollars each to bring her back for another weeks work. Secretary Stevens of the Y. M. C. A. adds his testimony of appreciation of her address before that association. Miss Quinn, corresponding secretary of Elwood Union, writes: Miss Brehm is an orator, marshalling facts as general soldiers, and hurling them with tremendous power on her hearers. She began her week's work with a good audience and after one or two meetings spoke to full houses throughout her stay. In her address on the Telescope of Faith she urged the White Ribboners to more earnestness, especially in regard to the Scientific Temperance Instruction law. One evening she spoke with telling effect on Young People of the Bible. Voters were highly pleased with her address on "Everybody's Business."

On Sunday there was continued enthusiasm. Standing room was at a discount. Mrs. Quinn says: "Truly Miss Brehm is a woman of wonderful logical ability. No one hears her but feels that her plea for the abolition of the saloon and the house of shame and all their attending evils is founded upon truth and righteousness."

As the result of this week's work, one hundred and twenty-two signed the pledge, a new Union of fourteen members added, partial arrangements made for a Y, which has since been organized, and many new members secured for the old Union. The meetings were self-supporting throughout, money added to their treasury, and Miss Brehm engaged for another week's work when available. Elwood Union knows how to work, for it has just sent in a club for the MESSAGE, with more to follow.

On Sunday, February 27, Miss Brehm conducted a memorial service at Crown Point, Lake county, speaking three times that day. The next afternoon she spoke to women and in the evening gave an address on Franchise. She goes back to them again in the near future. Miss Brehm will be available for work in our State again in August and September. Any one desiring her services should make arrangements soon, for several weeks are already engaged.

C. T. U. Mrs. Stevens has opened her doors many times to God's homeless little ones. Within the last fifteen years nineteen children have at different times had a home with her. That speaks for the mother heart of the woman and her love of home, and one can understand why she has enlisted in white ribbon peaceful war to make homes happier in His name. We may all love and trust our national president as one endowed of God for her day and place.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

We feel so grateful for the work done in our county by Mrs. Cammack, that we are impelled to tell it to the MESSAGE. During fourteen days in which she visited six towns, she gave twelve lectures, talked in twenty-one school rooms, made fifty-two house visits and organized two new Unions, besides visiting the four old ones, and altogether increased our membership 111. May she be spared long to continue this seed-sowing, which must yield a harvest for righteousness.

ELIZABETH S. MOOR,
Otterbein, Ind. Cor. Secretary Benton Co.

Mrs. Cammack has done great good in my county. She has aroused the women as no one else has ever done. She will be gladly welcomed here again.

Yours for the work,
ELIZA F. BAKER.

Dear Sisters—Our Union has enjoyed a great feast, having with us Miss Marie Brehm. She conducted a parlor meeting January 24 in the home of our treasurer, Mrs. Heady, and gave us many words of encouragement. At night she gave a sermon at the M. E. church. It was the fourth week of revival services and at the close of the sermon five united with the church. The church was crowded, fifteen or twenty standing. We have had her with us three times and always feel she is a great benefit to our Union; we always gain members and feel strengthened. I advise all Unions to have Miss Brehm if they need stirring.

Broad Ripple.

Mrs. E. Harriet Howe, Montpelier, is now State superintendent of mothers' meetings. Please bear this in mind and address your communications concerning this department to her.

The department of non-alcoholic treatment in medicine was created, and Dr. Jesse Smith, of Wabash, made superintendent. The lady accepts the place.

Mrs. Prof. Pittenger, of Anderson, was chosen as superintendent of narcotics to fill Mrs. Calkins' place, who removed from Indiana to Michigan. [Mrs. Pittenger accepts the place and we hear she is at work already.—Ed.]

One secret of our success as workers together with God is, that each one does with their might what their hands find to do. Let us so continue. In this state there are eighteen hundred young men in the prisons. There are thousands of ruined young girls—and a great multitude of both are now on the broad road that leads to perdition. It is ours to show them their danger, and our first mission to teach the little ones where the first danger lies. It is ours to enlighten mothers, that all may join, not only in a crusade against the evils that allure our children, but to save them from such snares. Will each Union see that a county superintendent of mothers' meetings is appointed? Please report their names to me.

Let us distribute such literature as "An Appeal to Mothers," by Miss Willard; also her booklet "The Relation of Dress to Vice." There are other W. T. P. A. booklets—"Danger to our Girls," "Literature and Vice," "Predisposing Causes," "Some Legal Aspects of the Question," and many others that are vital with truth and awakening power. Hold at least one meeting each month. Use Mrs. Jessie Brown Hilton's "Suggestions for Mothers' Meetings," which I will send to each county superintendent when I get her address. Write to me often, I will gladly respond.

MRS. E. HARRIET HOWE.

I hope you all take the MESSAGE, and have seen the list of questions in the February number which will be the same I shall send out next August for report blank. Please everyone cut those out and use them as a guide to work by. Try and do something that you can answer to those questions. And don't forget the prize I have offered. Two dollar's worth of literature to the woman reporting the most work done. Every woman can ask ministers to preach a sermon on cruelty to animals, or the sin of cruelty, or she can buy literature and distribute it, or have the laws of the State of Indiana relating to cruelty published, and distributed to drivers and others who do not know them. Or if she cannot do that send me ten, fifteen, or twenty cents and I will send her some. She can give literature to teachers, both Sunday school and day school, and to doctors on vivisection, or to ministers, urging on their attention the necessity of teaching kindness to all over whom they may have any influence. Or she can circulate the bird pledge and ask women to sign it, telling them at the time, of the terrible cruelty the wearing of birds and feathers involves. Then by all means never forget the Band of Mercy work. You can try to have them organized in schools, Sunday schools, Epworth Leagues, Christian Endeavor societies or as individual societies. Talk up the work of the Mercy department at every county institute. If you have no superintendent to do it, get some woman who is interested to have a paper prepared on the work, and discuss it. Let me hear of plenty of superintendents appointed this spring and then let us work, and work earnestly.

I was rejoiced to see by our last MESSAGE that the L. T. Ls had taken up the Department of Mercy. It is just the place it is needed and may God speed the cause there, as elsewhere. Send me a shower of letters this month, dear superintendents, and let us help each other all we can.

Huntington, Ind.

MRS. LOU E. RALL.

TO PEACEFUL SISTERS.

A few days ago a copy of the New York State W. C. T. U. minutes fell into my hands. I turned to the Peace and Arbitration department and there found a very interesting report—definite returns from about 30 counties were given—and the entire report gave evidence of such enthusiasm and such excellent work done that I beg room in the MESSAGE to say to my sister workers in this department, let us do likewise.

Sarah W. Collins, New York's efficient superintendent, seems to devise many ways and means, and to be a full believer in Neal Dow's motto, "Sow knee-deep in literature," and I find that she is recommending, as I have done, that Peace superintendents will circulate the little Peace paper, The Messenger, published by Daniel Hill, Richmond, Ind. Already, I think, she and her co-workers have sent in subscriptions for more than 200 copies, and she is asking the editor to give her terms by the thousand. Shall we not emulate this well-directed zeal?

I have, through the courtesy of the editor, sent copies of The Messenger to many county presidents, and will try to reach others, but would like to speak to all, if possible, through the MESSAGE, that we may not delay the work. Let us put this paper, or similar literature, in reading rooms, railway stations, barber shops, livery stables and wherever they are likely to be read, and the seed thus scattered will not fail to bring forth fruit. "The work of righteousness is peace."

Yours in that work,
H. LAVINIA BAILY,
Superintendent Peace and Arbitration.

ANDERSON (COLORED) UNION.

Organized March 10th by Mrs. Allie Anderson. Thirteen members and one honorary. Mrs. Lizzie Wright, president; Miss Mercie Boils, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Emma Jones, recording secretary; Mrs. Terry, treasurer; all of Anderson.

L. T. T. BAND.

Read this carefully.

All counties not having a secretary of L. T. L. work be sure to appoint one at your spring conventions and report the name to me.

Kokomo Legion has paid dues for fifty-six members. Who will beat it and get the prize banner at LaFayette? Remember, the greatest amount over five dollars secures it.

The State Convention will be held at Acton Park, August 3d. Arrange your graduating classes accordingly and plan to be there.

I have reports from two Legions who will have graduates this year. Let us hear from others. We ought to have a large class. Try to make it 100.

Each local Legion, see that you have an agent for the Young Crusader, and send the name to Frank Watson, Argos, Ind., State agent.

We should be very diligent in service for this our official organ, whereby much good may be accomplished. A senior department has been added and the entire paper is valuable.

God, help us to work with all energy "For God, and Home, and Native Land"

AMANDA R. GORDON.

Dear Co-workers—The Press of Indiana has kindly and freely donated to the W. C. T. U. many columns of space, which if paid for at advertising rates would be worth thousands of dollars. We believe this to have been of unmeasurable value in carrying on our great work. How many Unions are willing to show their appreciation of this kindness by presenting the editors with yearly subscriptions to Union Signal and MESSAGE? This can be done by Unions or counties. Clinton county supplies three offices and one of the South Bend Unions supplies its editors with Union Signals. Who else will try this plan? I recommend that in cities where more than one paper is published a press superintendent for each paper be appointed by each Union. This divides up the work, gives variety to published reports and develops women. Try it. The plan works nicely in Frankfort. The following counties have reported having county press superintendents: Bartholomew, Benton, Blackford, Boone, Cass, Clay, Clinton, DeKalb, Delaware, Elkhart, Hamilton, Howard, Jay, Knox, LaPorte, Madison, Marshall, Marion, Noble, Tippecanoe, Vigo, Vermillion and Washington and there are others. Please send in your name at once. Yours for service,

FLORENCE E. VANCE,

SUPPLEMENT.

A TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF JOSEPHINE R. NICHOLS.

Gone from our side, where once she stood,
Battling with sin and wrong,
Ah! we shall miss her cheerful word,
And courage ever strong;
We follow her across the flood,
With wistful gaze and long.

We see her on the other shore,
Clad in her robes of white,
Walking with loved ones gone before,
In everlasting light;
A victor crowned, forevermore,
From out this earthly light.

No more perplexity or strife,
No more disease or pain,
Nor rude inharmonies of life,
Will mar her peace again;
No more shall sighs her bosom heave,
Nor tears her eyelids stain.

Our sister dear, with many a tear,
We yield thee up to heaven,—
The tie that bound our spirits here,
Can not, by death, be riven;
May in thy victory a share
To each of us be given.

In loving memory,
Meridian W. C. T. U.

OUR LEADER, SISTER ALD COMRADE PROMOTED.

Josephine Ralston Nichols wife of Edwin Nichols, fell asleep at the family home, No. 566 North Illinois St., Indianapolis, April 9th, 10:20 a. m., and was laid to rest in Crown Hill Cemetery, April 10th. The services were private. The State W. C. T. U. were present in a floral token which Mrs. Amanda Whitson presented for the many white ribboners who love her in the life beyond as they loved her here. It was a very pitiful little thing to do for such a great soul, and yet it was all they could do.

Mrs. Nichols was fully conscious of her condition. Made her arrangements for the time of her departure calmly, and then fell asleep a half hour before she breathed her last, and the pain racked body ceased to suffer.

Her maiden name was Josephine Ralston Davis. She was born at Maysville, Ky., 1837. Her education was obtained at the Maysville Academy, and later at the Science Hill Seminary, Cincinnati, where General Grant at one time went to school. The mother died when Josephine was a young girl, and the orphan went to live with her aunt, a Mrs. Parker, at Ripley, O. In 1855-56 she taught school at Batavia, O., and in 1857, while visiting a brother, a practicing physician at Paris, Ill., she met Edwin Nichols, whom she married in 1858. Some years later she made a local reputation through occasional contributions to newspapers, and in 1873 she appeared on the lecture platform, with two lectures that attracted much attention. The subject of one of these was "Boys" and the other "Girls," both of which have been repeated in this city and elsewhere in recent years. In 1880 she and her husband removed to Indianapolis, where they have since made their home.

Previous to coming to this city Mrs. Nichols had taken great interest in woman's suffrage and in the cause of temperance, and had spoken in public on both subjects. In her youth she had joined the Methodist church, but while living in Paris she joined the Protestant Episcopal church, and on coming to this city became a member of Christ church, in which she remained until her death. She was presiding officer of the central deanery for years, and was also president of the woman's auxiliary of the church. For several years she was president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union for Indiana, but was at last compelled to resign the position because of continuing ill health.

In 1889 she went as the delegate from the United States to represent the W. C. T. U. at Paris, France, and was made superintendent of the W. C. T. U. department at the Universal Exposition. Her work at that time gave great encouragement to the cause everywhere.

While in Paris she casually met an eminent French surgeon, who, upon learning that she was from the United States and from Indianapolis, said:

"I read some time ago of a remarkable surgical operation that was performed in that city by a Dr. Harvey; it was a very wonderful operation." "Yes," said Mrs. Nichols, "and what is more strange, I am the very person upon whom the operation was made."

After her return from Paris she delivered a lecture on her experiences there. The lecture was illustrated with stereoptican views, and Mrs. Nichols was in request from many States and delivered this lecture many times. She was elected as world's superintendent of fairs, and represented the organization not only at Paris, but at New Orleans, and in 1893 at the World's Fair at Chicago. One of the last positions held by her was in the local Council of Women of this city in 1895-'96.

Her husband and four children survive her. The children are Benjamin O. Nichols, of this city, now engaged in coffee-raising at Coatzacoalcas, Vera Cruz, Mexico; Mrs. Hannah M. Ripley, Kenton, O.; George M. and John T. Nichols, of this city, the last named being a student at Purdue University. She also has one surviving brother—Richard L. Davis, of Lima, O.

It is with hearts burdened with a sense of irreparable loss that we announce the death of our World's and National superintendent of fairs. Mrs. Josephine R. Nichols passed away April 8th, at her home in Indianapolis, after a painful illness of over a year. When the woman's crusade began Mrs. Nichols entered into the movement with all the enthusiasm of her nature, and from that time until shut in by sickness her voice and pen were ever active in white-ribbon service in America and Europe, her work for the W. C. T. U. at the New Orleans, Paris and Columbian Expositions having added immensely to the prestige of our organization throughout the world. Mrs. Nichols was one of the brightest, cheeriest personalities we ever knew. Winning in appearance, original in thought and graceful in delivery, she was one of the most popular W. C. T. U. orators in the field. Her promotion has left a gap in our ranks which it will be difficult to fill.—Union Signal.

A FRIEND GONE.

One of Hendricks County's illustrious citizens, a scholar, traveler and speaker, in the person of Addison Coffin died April 16th, at the home of his only living daughter, at Amo, after suffering with pneumonia for several days. His son Trenmore Coffin who is in business in Carson City, Nevada, could not be present in his father's last hours. Our deceased friend was born in 1822 at New Garden, North Carolina, known now as Guilford College. His remains rest in Hadley Burying Ground, near the Hadley Industrial School.

NOTHING IMPOSSIBLE FOR INDIANA EITHER.

Those who had the pleasure of attending the National W. C. T. U. Convention at St. Louis last fall will never forget the wave of enthusiasm that passed over that vast audience, when the inspiring motto, "Nothing impossible for St. Louis" was drawn from its hiding place and stretched entirely across that immense platform.

If I did not believe that Indiana has as loyal, true-hearted and enthusiastic women as St. Louis I would not send out this article to you.

In 1892, the present W. C. T. U. cottage was built on the new State Fair Grounds. Ten dollar notes were issued at that time for the payment of the same. These notes were taken by our own W. C. T. U. women, many of which have already been paid by receipts from Fair Cottage during the Fairs. Others remain unpaid and are long past due. These dear sisters have waited long and patiently and are now urging that these pledges be met at once.

This is not impossible for Indiana. I believe it can be a very pleasant affair by each county preparing and sending to the State Fair in September, a Temperance Autograph quilt, for an exhibit in a W. C. T. U. Booth in the Woman's Building. For this, secure as many names as possible for each block, charging ten cents a name. Embroider the names upon red or blue calico or upon white muslin.

Go to your business men, ask them to take an entire block, placing upon it a pretty design representing the business engaged in, securing from them the entire price of the block. If one man does not take an entire block, give it to two or three.

Each Union in the county might be responsible for one or more blocks in the quilt; one or more of which may be representative blocks, containing the name of the Union and names of all its members.

Let each block represent one dollar or more. The quilts to be exhibited in the Woman's Building and be subject to the premiums awarded by the State Fair Board for the handsomest quilt.

Aside from the premiums which may be awarded by the State Fair Board, a premium of five dollars in gold will be given to the county sending in the most money. To the county sending in the second largest amount, two dollars and a half in gold, and for the third largest amount, one dollar in gold.

Let every Union go to work with great enthusiasm and make the hearts of our patient sisters, who loaned this money, glad, by paying off all the Fair Cottage notes. It need not be a burden to any one but a profit and a pleasure. Get your quilts ready and let us make the W. C. T. U. booth the most attractive one in the Woman's Building.

There was great rejoicing at our last State Convention when our State Treasurer stated that the debt aside from the affiliated interests was entirely paid off. Let us go to our next State convention with hearts filled with praise that this is also a thing of the past. With this debt wiped out, and with the financial ability of our efficient State Fair Sup't, Mrs. Ada N. Leck, we hope not only to be able to distribute many more thousand pages of literature through the Booth and Fair Cottage, but to add to the funds of the State Treasury. We can do it, for nothing is impossible for Indiana.

The Union or county sending a quilt may use their own pleasure in regard to the kind of material used, but let each block represent one dollar or more. We hope it may be more. Let every one lift a little and the notes will all be lifted. All quilts exhibited in the W. C. T. U. booth must be quilts the proceeds of which will go to this fund.

Other fancy articles which will add to the attractiveness of the booth are very desirable, but no premium will be awarded by the W. C. T. U. for any other article except the quilts. All quilts to be sent to the State Fair Superintendent, Mrs. Ada N. Leck, 901 N. Capitol Ave., Indianapolis. All money to be sent to State Treasurer, Mrs. Amanda T. Whitson, 1745 North Meridian St., Indianapolis. Money and all articles should be sent by the first of September not October, as per mistake of former article.

Watch the MESSAGE for further notice concerning State Fair work.

Yours in loving service,
AMANDA T. WAITSON,
State Treasurer.

PORTER COUNTY.

Mrs. Cranmer was with us the fifth inst., and favored us with one evening's lecture. It was a treat we seldom enjoy and by far the best lecture ever listened to in our town from any woman. Her subject was "Christian Citizenship." We wish every Union in N. Indiana could employ her to enlighten them in the work and strengthen their forces.

ELIZABETH RICE,
Sec'y.

HEBRON W. C. T. U.

In God's Providence our sister, Mrs. Jane Simpson, has been called to mourning by the death of her husband, and as we are told to weep with those that weep as well as to rejoice with those that do rejoice, we would desire to express our love and sympathy with our sister in her sorrow. She is left with a large family but they mourn not as those that have no hope.

COMMITTEE.

CHARITY COMMITTEE.

The charity committee of the W. C. T. U. realizing more time and a suitable room were necessary to carry on their work successfully and systematically, decided to secure a room where all donations could be sent, and keep such room one day each week. The First National Bank Co. generously donated the use of a room over the bank and it was known as the "Relief Room." A committee in charge each week received and distributed articles of clothing, bedding, groceries and provisions. The committee received from charity entertainment in November $37.34; individual donations, $2.25; proceeds from music box, $4.90; provision from one firm, $5.00. A big reduction in prices on all purchases, dry goods, groceries and medicines; 500 bushels of coal from the Jewish congregation; 200 from Elks Lodge; 100 from four gentlemen and all advertising free. The Relief Room was kept open from Nov. 20th till March 1st. We have responded to every call for aid and made many calls upon the sick, and supplied every want made known to us as far as lay in our power. We still have a little coal and $12.50 on hand.

Ch. Com.

MADISON COUNTY.

Madison County spring Convention and School of Methods was held April 8th and 9th, at Anderson, at the Presbyterian church.

The afternoon of the 8th was entirely devoted to business. The evening of the 8th, devotional. A symposium by County and local Presidents. Subject, "The legal status of women." Very interesting indeed.

Our Institute opened April 9th, at 9:30 a. m.

Devotional exercises by Mrs. Pamela Wilson, of Ingals. On motion of Mrs. Kilmer, the minutes be made a special matter of business at opening of afternoon session.

Mrs. Kilmer moved that Retta Jones be chairman of our Institute. Miss Belle Mattox was made enrolling secretary, and Mrs. Kilmer, recording secretary.

Discussion, "The six essentials of a live and successful Union." 1. Promptness. Many fine speeches. 2. Live and interested members. A very lively discussion much enjoyed by all. 3. Work. All agreed on the importance of working members. 4. Workers. Very good remarks. 5. Good officers. Fully discussed. 6. Studious members. Most carefully discussed and many fine and instructive remarks.

Next, the special needs of prompt and systematic local reports. Many good points brought out and much good advice given.

Our State paper. Was proven beyond doubt that all need our organ of communication. Miss Clare Sears, our Y president, succeeded in getting a large club. So many will now be reading our MESSAGE and some the "Signal."

Noontide prayer.

Afternoon session opened at 2:15 o'clock. Devotional by Mrs. Olivia Corbett, of Alexandria.

Most interesting were the following discussions:

1. Duties of Officers and Members.
2. Rights and privileges of same.
3. A definite plan of work.
4. Our house beautiful. Our Hadley Home. Paper by Mrs. Anna Kilmer, followed by a discussion of same.
5. Practical plans for its support.
6. A department fund.
7. W. C. T. U. catechism. Anxious for information was the general cry.
8. Parliamentary law.
9. Encouraging features in our work.
10. Question Box.

The evening was devoted to a contest. Prize, a bouquet of flowers. Miss Gertrude Judd won the prize. A very instructive contest. The Principals of Prohibition most forcibly recited.

All went home feeling we had had a most pleasant and instructive Convention and Institute.

ANNA KILMER, Sec.

(It seems to me I must add this significant fact. Seven Unions in the county all represented in the Convention. One thing more, Stirring Campaign, and Nothing Impossible for Indiana, adopted. A new Union planned, a club for the MESSAGE taken, etc. Heaven will bless the working Unions.—Ed.)

LITERATURE DEPARTMENT.

DEAR SISTERS:—Your new Superintendent of Literature comes into her office late in the year and we only have six months to work before our State Convention. Still with the Lord on our side and the work of County and Local Superintendents, combined with the earnest endeavor of each member of the W. C. T. U., much can be accomplished.

I desire a complete directory of the Literature Superintendents of our State. Will each County Superintendent send me her name and address, and the names and addresses of their local Sup'ts. Please do this immediately.

For counties that have no Sup't of Literature will the County President appoint one right away. Local President appoint a local Sup't and send name and address. This is very necessary as the temperance thought can not be sown without a sower. Superintendents try to realize the importance of your branch of this great reform and go to work earnestly and prayerfully, and by no means fail to send me your name and address.

I will give a brief outline of my plan of work. Each local Sup't have a blank book wherein to keep the number of pages of literature distributed by each individual member, each member to report to their Sup't at every business meeting. Report blanks will be sent to each County Sup't in September. She will send blanks to Local Sup'ts., these to be returned to her, and a report of all to be sent to me in time for my report to the State Convention. I will send a fund card to each County and Local Sup't by which she can solicit contributions for her department, half to be kept at home and half sent to me, that I may supply you with samples of literature; half I receive will be sent to the National. Will not all Sup'ts take up this work? It will help greatly.

I am desirous that each Union have a number of copies of the Annual Leaflet. It is a W. C. T. U. educator and should be in the hands of all new members and those who are not familiar with the work. Wide awake active members in the Unions are those who read the Union Signal and the MESSAGE. Superintendents should try to get every member to take these papers. Persuade your Unions to furnish money to supply all schools with temperance literature, especially the "Physiology Journal." Persuade Sunday-school Superintendents to place temperance books in the libraries. Please answer all communications promptly. Study the plan of work with earnestness, and a personal responsibility realized, we will go onward to victory.

Questions to be answered by Literature Superintendents at the close of the year.

1. How many Union Signals taken in County?
2. How many of THE MESSAGE?
3. How many ministers furnished with the National and State organs?
4. How many Young Crusaders taken in county?
5. How many copies of State minutes?
6. How many copies of Annual Leaflets distributed?
7. Have you appointed an agent for the Woman's Temperance Publishing Association for each Union in your county?
8. Do you see to it that each Local Sup't of Literature has a catalogue of leaflets published by the W. T. P. A.
9. Do you keep temperance literature in post-offices, barber shops, depots, public libraries and all public places.
10. Do you distribute literature at County Fairs and public gatherings.
11. How many pages of literature distributed?
12. How much money expended for literature?

GEORGIANA MOSER, State Sup't.

ANOTHER COUNTY HEARD FROM.

The Wabash County W. C. T. U., under the leadership of Mrs. Baker, of N. Manchester, has just held a most profitable Normal Institute at Wabash. This was preceded by a reception given in the elegant parlor of Mrs. E. E. Kennedy. A program, consisting of short, bright talks, recitations and readings, with delightful vocal and instrumental music, was presented. The meeting was in the interest of the Franchise Department. The arguments in favor of equal suffrage were convincing and unanswerable. Mrs. Cranmer, of South Dakota, was in attendance. At the close of the exercises an elegant lunch was served. The delegates and members remained with Mrs. Kennedy till the hour for the evening lecture. This was held in the Methodist church. A large audience greeted Mrs. Cranmer and listened with delighted interest to an address on "Christian Citizenship." The W. C. T. U. of Wabash County most heartily endorse Mrs. Cranmer, and commend her to the Unions of the State. On Thursday an all day session was held. The work was practical. Good plans were suggested. Discussions were general, fully ninety-five per cent, of the members taking part. Mrs. Jenkins, of Kansas City was present and added to the pleasure and profit of the meeting. Wabash County is wide awake and her Unions are increasing in membership. A medal contest is to be held in Wabash next week.

MRS. M. H. KIDD.

DEPARTMENT OF NARCOTICS.

DEAR SISTERS:—My article in the Phalanx of April 1st, gave the Constitution for Anti-Tobacco League. For those who prefer a shorter form we would recommend the following.

PLEDGE.

We, the undersigned, do hereby promise not to use tobacco in any form and to use our influence to induce other boys to give up and abstain from its use.

By signing our names to this pledge, we constitute ourselves members of the Anti-Tobacco League.

Mrs. Cammack, with her charts, is prepared to address the children in the public schools, and to organize Leagues under the control of the teachers.

Our new anti-cigarette law will not enforce itself. Please give each member of your union a special section of town or city in which she is to see that the law is enforced. I can furnish you the Anti-Cigarette Law leaflet at ten cents a hundred. Distribute them generously to dealers and people, not only in public meetings but on the street and in business rooms.

I expect to publish a pamphlet of Narcotic Recitations for contests to sell at five cents each. It is endorsed by Mrs. Balch, and three of the State officers will contribute an article. Please send in your orders. Yours for work,

FANNIE B. CALKINS,
Sup't of Narcotics.

Portland, Ind.

PRIZES FOR SCHOOLS.

The Lafayette Union have offered a number of prizes to the schools of Tippecanoe county, as follows: The pupils of the public schools are invited to consider the following prizes, offered by the Lafayette Woman's Christian Temperance Union: For the best original essay on "Evil Effects of Alcohol on the Human System," first prize, $10; second, $5; third, $3. For the best scrap book, by any pupil below the high school grade, first prize, $5; second, $3; third, $2. For the best scrap book, made by children below the 7th grade, first prize, $4; second prize, $2; third prize, $1. These books must not be less than 10x12 inches in size, and contain 20 or more leaves, one-third space allowable for illustrations. Contents must relate wholly to temperance and narcotics. Essays and scrap books must be completed by March 30. Competent judges will award the prizes, and they will be presented at a public meeting. Further notice hereafter. Inquiries may be addressed to Mrs. L. R. Kieffer, West Lafayette, or Salisbury St.; Mrs. A. E. Woodward, Lafayette, 14th and Howell Sts.

SHALL WOMEN VOTE? WHAT THEY WILL—THEY DO.

Parke county has just demonstrated this in balloting for equal suffrage.

The local Unions at Bloomingsdale asked the town to vote and it did so. Rockwood, Tangier and Coloma promptly followed the example. The count showed the principle of equal suffrage to be elected by more than a three-fourths vote.

Some who had declared that they had no opinion on the question developed one and thus some notable conversions have been made. Others have been set to thinking on the question of a "Whole Humanity" and will no doubt at least be able to decide it has come to stay.

The record of names made by the polling clerks will be carefully preserved as it marks an epoch in the history of Parke County. A glance at the columns shows them to represent the most intelligent and enterprising people of their respective towns and naturally the advanced thought of each. Men, women and children were eligible to vote, those under 21 years of age paid one penny each for the privilege and those 21 or over, 5 cents each. The net proceeds will go to the Hadley Industrial School.

The Australian ballot system with the amendments of our late legislature, was used.

On the evening of election day in Bloomingsdale, Rev. Mattie O. Commack, gave an address on "The Legal Status of Women."

Her happy impromptu effort completely captured our people who are notably hard to please. Our Institute program was well carried out. We urge other counties to try balloting for equal suffrage. Any one wishing a sample of our ballot and election notice can have them by writing Mrs. Jennie H. Newlin, Bloomingsdale, Ind. Please enclose a stamp.

Pres. Park Co. W. C. T. U.

EXTRACT OF EXECUTIVE MINUTES.

Executive committee met in Anderson, March 8, 1 p. m. In connection with the devotions the memorial exercises held throughout the State for our beloved Miss Willard was referred to with tender heart-felt emotions, and much good had been realized by these services.

Members of the executive responded at roll call with the achievements in their counties. Many new members have been secured, L. T. Ls organized, and Y branches established and a general uplifting has been experienced over the state since state convention.

Mrs. Balch moved the adoption of the beautiful resolution following:

We praise God for the beautiful life hid in Christ and the triumphant death of our most tenderly and well beloved, Frances E. Willard. Therefore resolved, that we promise according to our several opportunities and abilities to shape our lives after the same pattern, and to do our best under God to live the glorious principles for which she gave her life, and to persuade others to accept and do the same. Then the righteousness she wrought will shine more and more until the perfect day, continually winning souls for the kingdom of our Christ. The greatness of her mind, the graces of her person, the opportunities of her life, were all made to count for the gracious Saviour who died on Calvary for every sin burdened soul. Can we do less?

Mrs. McWhirter read a most earnest appeal from our national officers to increase our membership as a worthy memorial to our leader, Miss Willard.

Moved by Miss Hadley, that a committee from this executive be appointed to prepare a suggestive or outline programme for the Frances E. Willard memorial services for the use of local and county Unions, and forward to each Union a communication setting forth the wishes of the national and state officers. Motion prevailed. The following committee was appointed by the chair: Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Geary, Mrs. Toner, Mrs. Kidd and by the suggestion of Miss Hadley, Mrs. McWhirter was added to the committee.

The following form to the General Assembly of Indiana in '99 was read.

We, the undersigned citizens of the _____ of _____ county, in the State of Indiana, pray the proposal and passage by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana at its session in the year 1899 of an amendment to Section 2, Art. 11, of the Constitution of the State of Indiana, striking out the word male therein.

Names. Address

Moved by Mrs. Tompkins, that this mid-year Executive meeting indorse the franchise petition, introduced by our State president, and cause it to be published in the next issue of the MESSAGE for educational purposes, and that each Union in the State prepare two copies—one for the Senate and one for the House—and each Union appoint two women to circulate the petition and begin the work at once.

Mrs. Balch offered the following resolution:

That in adult suffrage contest classes the second best receive, as a prize, a copy of the MESSAGE from the State W. C. T. U., and in the young people's classes Unions be urged to use the Young Crusader, as a prize, for second best.

Motion carried.

The following resolution of thanks was indorsed by the committee:

Editors of the Voice, The Indiana W. C. T. U., in its annual mid-year Executive Committee meeting, extend to you their appreciation of your efforts to purify college towns from rum and brothels, and assure you that the stir you have made will cause wise parents and guardians to make careful inquiry before sending their young people to institutions of learning, and they certainly prefer those institutions that are awake to these evils and alive to the protection of their students. We beg you to continue righteous disclosure. Let on the light.

Resolved, That Indiana Unions will not consider any one for the responsible place of Superintendent of Literature as W. T. P. A. agent who does not take the Union Signal and the MESSAGE.

Motion prevailed.

Resolved, That as many as can, consider Mrs. Whitson's Marion county plan, and add it to the State franchise plan, viz: Contestants under 20 years of age, prepare their own articles for contest, a prize of $2.00 more or less to be given to the winner. Each local contestant securing the prize, to be selected for a county contest, and the best in all the counties to be chosen for a state contest, the best articles to be sent to the National Superintendent of Franchise, to be made into leaflets.

The departments of Narcotics and Fair Work being vacant, the following persons were appointed to fill them: Mrs. Pauline Pittenger, of Anderson, superintendent of Narcotics, and Mrs. Hann, of Indianapolis, superintendent of Fair Work.

The following resolution, by Mrs. Curtis, was endorsed by the committee: Lady Henry Somerset has been so maligned and misrepresented, because not understood, therefore, we, the executive officers of the State of Indiana, now in session, do hereby express our love and sympathy and pledge to her our unswerving loyalty as our World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union leader.

By motion the department of Non-alcoholics in Medicine was created and Mrs. Dr. Jessup Smith, of Wabash, was appointed as superintendent.

The fact of the W. C. T. U. of Indiana in its corporate existence and that of the corporate organization of the Organizer Publishing Co both using the state seal of Indiana W. C. T. U. was considered, and it was decided that each have their separate seal.

The question of admitting colored children into our industrial school claimed the attention of the committee, and the vote was largely in favor of doing so.

The committee voted to invite Mrs. Bullock and her daughter into our State for September. It is possible that the time may be extended. Allen, Tippecanoe, Decatur and Martin counties have each taken a week.

Over 700 copies of the memorial number of the Union Signal for Miss Willard was ordered.

In consideration of the evils connected with college life, it was considered wise to protest against such evils in our own state institutions.

MATTIE O. CAMMACK,
Recording Secretary.

A CALL TO PRAYER APRIL 8.

The importance of the following official leads us to give it place on the editorial pages:

Frances Willard, our beloved leader, is at home with God. While we rejoice at thought of her victory and crown of glory, the shadow of an inexpressible sorrow is upon our hearts. The great work from which her strong, true hand is taken must not suffer. Instinctively, we turn our tearful faces to heaven. Believing that all hearts will respond to the call for a day of prayer, and as superintendent of the evangelistic department, I summon our white-ribboners in all the local unions to set apart Friday, April 8, 1898, as a day of special prayer and consecration.

On this Good Friday, which celebrates the supreme event of history, let us gather about the cross of the world's Redeemer in universal and united prayer for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, so sorely bereft, and in earnest consecration of ourselves to the work for which our leader gave her life, remembering that "the true cross of the Redeemer was the sin and sorrow of the world."

FROM THE NATIONAL OFFICERS.

Dear Sisters—Your general officers have taken counsel of those most competent to advise regarding a suitable memorial to the memory of our great leader—Frances E. Willard. It seems to be the best judgment of all whom we have consulted that, inasmuch as the Temple has already been erected and is so closely connected with her name and that of the W. C. T. U., we can not do better than to unite in a supreme effort to raise, by subscriptions from people of wealth, the sum necessary for its purchase. We are encouraged to make this endeavor because of letters which have come to us from all parts of the country urging the plan. Newspapers have also expressed an interest in the project and prominent individuals have visited us with the same suggestion. It surely seems as if the signs indicate that the time is ripe for such an action.

We propose to carry out Miss Willard's original plan and to enlarge upon it so far as possible. To this end a committee of representative citizens, both men and women, is to be appointed in Chicago, whose purpose it will be to secure subscriptions for Miss Willard's memorial. The sums raised will be placed in the hands of some one designated by the committee, to be held until the aggregate local sum shall be placed in the hands of Miss Dow, the custodian designated by Miss Willard herself. This money can be drawn out of the bank, where it will be placed by Miss Dow immediately upon receipt, only on the order of the general officers of the National W. C. T. U., and is to be subscribed with the distinct understanding that if, by the next National Convention, it is clearly seen that the plan of owning the Temple is not a feasible one, the money shall be used for another suitable memorial, the nature of which will be hereafter decided.

We are very desirous that such committees shall be appointed in every city, and that in smaller towns a committee for house to house visitation may be organized for the same purpose. We call upon you, therefore, to aid us in this endeavor, and, if possible, to place the matter at once in the hands of men and women of position and influence throughout your entire territory. By this method great sums have been raised to erect many costly monuments to the honored dead of our Nation, and surely none was ever more deserving of the honor than Frances Willard. But her memorial should be something other than a mere monument of marble or bronze. It should be symbolic of her life of ceaseless activity, and should express in visible, practical form, her thought and work for humanity. * * * * *

It may be well at this point to call your attention to the fact that Miss Willard distinctly stated that her work for the Temple should not extend beyond the National Convention of 1898, and that she felt that if the money should not be raised by that time, a further effort would be futile. If this was her thought how much more is it ours under the present changed conditions? If the hearts of the people are ever to be inclined towards this enterprise, it must be now when they are tender from a sense of our infinite loss. Immediate action is important. The days and even the hours are precious. We should have sent this letter immediately upon Miss Willard's death, but have been obliged to wait for advice.

We earnestly hope that, whatever may have been your previous point of vision, you will unite with us now in an heroic effort to raise the sum necessary for a suitable memorial for our beloved leader. We hold ourselves in readiness to answer questions concerning any points in this letter which may not be clearly apparent on first reading. Hoping for a cordial response, we are very sincerely yours,

LILLIAN M. N. STEVENS,
Acting President.

Corresponding Secretary.

OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE

To L. T. L. work and workers. Every graduate of an L. T. L., even if they are not meeting with an L. T. L. now, or live where there is none, is a member of the Indiana L. T. L. organization and are expected to pay a 25 cent membership fee, and unless they do pay this fee they can not vote in the annual convention of the organization. Any graduate can have his name dropped from the roll, but surely no one would ask such a discourtesy to be shown their name and memory. Every graduate wants his name to remain on the roll, and wants to pay his dues, because it is for the good of all and the support of the cause.

TREASURER.

With the assistance of Baby Squier and her mother, I gave an entertainment for the benefit of my department, Soldiers and Sailors, last Friday evening at the First Friends' church, and will be able to carry on the work of my department in our State without an appropriation. Dear MESSAGE, say to the other superintendents that they might do even better than I did if they would try something of the kind. In the interests of all,

MARION. JULIA OVERMAN.

ELKHART COUNTY GLEANINGS.

During the past month Nappanee Union has held a memorial service for Miss Willard, had three lectures by Mrs. Cammack and a parlor meeting, all of which was very inspiring. At the Willard service distributed annual leaflets and succeeded admirably in getting new members, eight regular and five honorary. During the lecture six regular and nine honorary and two at their regular meeting, making a total addition of thirty members. They are making an effort to increase their membership to one hundred as a loving tribute to Miss Willard. They feel that it means much when the men come out so nobly to assist them. They are also making a quilt which will be completed soon and hope to sell it to re-emburse their treasury. Unions in Elkhart county are selling memorial numbers of Union Signal. Mrs. Rev. M. A. Tompkins, our county president, has been to South Bend attending institute and is called to Butler the 8th and 9th, of April, Seymour the 12th, and 13th. Elkhart Union held a Young Peoples Suffrage contest. Rev. Anna Shaw speaks in the Methodist church at Elkhart, March 30. Subject: The Fate of Republics. Goshert Union is putting forth an effort to make their meetings a success especially the mothers' meetings are well attended and interesting programs are rendered. We observed Gen. Neal Dow and Frances E. Willard memorial day March 20, Rev. F. F. Kayhoe of Wells Memorial Lutheran church delivered the address. After dwelling somewhat upon the work of Neal Dow he delivered an eloquent and instructive lecture upon Miss Willard as an educator, a patriot and a friend. He brought out many pleasing and instructive points in her character, and the audience was very attentive to, and deeply interested in the discourse. Rev. Kayhoe is a very pleasant speaker.

Mrs. Rounds' address, at the mid-year meeting, was so well received that she was prevailed upon to remain for a second address, which was pronounced better than the first. Mrs. Rounds may be secured for institutes.

FOR A MONUMENT TO MISS WILLARD.

Never has this nation had a daughter who reflected such honor upon her as Frances E. Willard. Her life of entire renunciation and her marvelous talents were dedicated to the uplifting of humanity and the impress of her noble life will be felt by generations yet unborn. Should not every one interested in the betterment of the world feel that it is not only a duty, but a high privilege to give toward such a memorial? The cry of Miss Willard's heart, and her lips, the last hours of her life, was for the Temple, that in some way it might be paid for. One of the last letters she dictated after disease had fastened upon her was intended to be sent out to people of means, making an appeal for money to save the Temple. Below we give a few extracts from her pathetic letter. We trust all who read it will give something, no matter how small the sum may be, to show their appreciation of one of the noblest women that ever lived and loved and labored for humanity. Miss Willard's letter commences with a brief resume of the history of the W. C. T. U. She then says:

"The greatest enterprise upon which we are adventured is the Woman's Temple, intended not only to afford a large income with which to push the above lines of work which in the past has been greatly crippled for lack of money, but a hall where we can hold daily Gospel meetings for the reformation of intemperate men (and all other kinds of temperance and philanthropic meetings), headquarters for the World's and National W. C. T. U. and for the Woman's Temperance Publishing House. Mrs. Matilda B. Carse, the founder of the Temple and her advisers believed that by putting up a great building that would bring in a large rental, we would secure a desirable location and at the same time have money wherewith to carry on our departments of work on a large scale. When the building was well advanced the hard times struck the Temple building association and jeopardized the enterprise; but the Temple had already been completed and there was nothing for it but to go forward. * * * I say it reverently, but I doubt if any building in the world that has stood for so few years has had wafted toward it so much of tender hope, of beautiful faith, of love for humanity.

It is the only attempt yet made by women to concentrate in architectural forms the thought and purpose of home protection. From this have come those graceful and beautiful lines that endear the Temple to every eye that rests upon its harmonious outlines and symmetrical proportions. Money has come from every quarter of the globe to raise its beautiful walls. It is the shrine of the home people, to which little children have given their hoarded coins and toward which the eyes of the aged have turned with loving hope. It symbolizes a christian character, steadied and controlled no less than a christian home built and protected from within by the principles of sobriety and purity. The building is in no sense a local enterprise. In it is the great hearth fire of the Woman's Crusade and upon which converge the loving and faithful eyes of those who in all countries have been winnowed from the mass that they might be the chosen guardians of the home in this age of varied voices and many contradictions. * * * Mr. Marshall Field has extended his subscription of $50,000 until July 1, 1898, conditioned on our securing $300,000, with which to pay off the Temple trust bonds. We have already in cash and pledges over $175,000, the pledges to be paid when the entire $300,000 has been subscribed.

Knowing that faith without works is dead, I have already given the birthday fund of $3,000, presented me by White Ribbon women, and have publicly put my home in jeopardy in payment for the bonds. It is my work to ask contributions from the well-to-do who have not yet given anything, not because they were indifferent, but, as we hope, simply because our undertaking had not yet been brought to their attention.

I have consecrated this, my fifty-ninth year, to try to help clear off the $300,000 worth of Temple bonds, so as to have the record of our White Ribbon women worthy of the successors of those Crusade Mothers, whom history will hold in hallowed remembrance.

I appeal to good men and women who care for a clear brain, a steady-beating heart and an untrembling hand, that they shall help us go forward until we have gained a controlling interest in our "House Beautiful," so that, with the return of better times, we may have a larger sum with which to carry forward our lines of work and to bear the light of the crusade torch to the most distant land.

Will you, dear friend, help us in this great endeavor? Believe me, Loyally yours for God and home and humanity,

FRANCES E. WILLARD.

A memorial picture of Miss Willard has been ordered. It will be a large steel engraving and will be executed by a prominent Chicago artist, selling for $2.00. Orders should be sent to the W. T. P. A., Chicago.

The Board of Education has adopted for use in the city schools all the text books authorized by the National W. C. T. U. The scientific law is already in force in the state of Illinois.

SUPERINTENDENT

Of colored people, Mrs. Lucy Thurman, is expected in our State in April. Any Union wishing agitation in this department, or a Union organized, write to State Corresponding Secretary at once.

THE LIFE OF MISS WILLARD.

Arrangements with some publishing house handling "The Beautiful Life of Frances E. Willard" will probably be made by the State President, so that all the profits accruing from the sale of the same by our Unions shall be divided between the canvasser and the Union, and whereby all orders sent to and through the State President for this book there will be a per cent given to our State Library. Every Union is urged to elect or appoint one or more agents, who will secure all the subscriptions of our White Ribboners and their friends with the understanding that one-half or less of the per cent received be turned into the Union treasury.

LOOKED LIKE A SMALL STATE CONVENTION.

The Anderson W. and Y. extended a cordial invitation to the mid-year executive committees and the State Institute to be held at Anderson, March 8th and 9th, which was accepted and greatly enjoyed. All meetings were held in the large M. E. Church, which was elaborately decorated with palms and flowers by the Y's and Sidney Stewart, the florist. Mr. Stewart also presented a hundred Marchaeneil roses to the members of the executive and the State superintendents.

The first evening the White Ribboners were welcomed in strong, earnest words. The city was represented by its worthy mayor, Mr. Dunlap; the W. C. T. U. by Mrs. Leib, president of the Anderson Union; the churches by the Rev. Eldridge; the schools by Prof. J. W. Carr. The address of the evening was given by Mrs. Louise S. Rounds, president of the Illinois W. C. T. U., who spoke with earnestness and enthusiasm to a responsive and appreciative audience. The music was furnished by the Y. W. C. T. U. The large auditorium was crowded to its utmost capacity with an appreciative and attentive audience. The executive met early on March 9th, holding a close business session until 10 o'clock, at which time it went into the State W. C. T. U. Institute, which was in charge of Miss Mary Hadley, Superintendent of Institutes.

The program used was the same as suggested by the State Superintendent of Institutes for county institutes. The discussions were participated in by the general officers, county president, state superintendents and visitors. Mrs. Rounds, who has a national reputation as a conductor of institutes, and has charge of the W. C. T. U. Institute in the Bay View Assembly Course, was present and very helpful, speaking on many topics. Much enthusiasm prevailed. The Institute was considered a great success.

That evening a gold medal and suffrage contest was held, which was very largely attended. The medal was awarded to Mrs. W. M. Stahl, of Hartford City. The music was furnished by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra and the Y. W. C. T. U., and was said to excel that of any recent state meeting.

The Anderson press was generous and kind, every paper devoting several columns each day to the work of the W. C. T. U. and to our meetings. The hospitality of the Anderson people was cordial. To the Y's and W's the visitors were indebted for a splendid lunch each day and for many other acts of courtesy and kindness. Wabash Union extended an invitation for the next mid-year meeting.

Miss Anna Downey will attend many institutes in Indiana in April. The newspapers report her evangelistic work in the M. E. Church at Frankfort as unprecedented there. She was engaged by the Willard Union, which planned broadly for her work. The cause of Christ was greatly advanced. The collections at her meetings paid her in full and left many dollars in her treasury. The last two days she held special services for the W. C. T. U. Twenty-three new members were secured, the Unions encouraged and strengthened. Miss Downey's work has greatly helped our cause.

Read our plans, our premiums, our opportunities. Surely every Union will feel interested and strive to do much work this last half of the year. Every member may help.

The Life of Miss Willard will be sold by many subscription houses. Every family should have a copy. Let every Union appoint one or more agents and begin a canvass at once. Sell these books for the sentiment they will create for God and humanity.

A life-sized lithograph picture of Miss Willard, similar to the picture given in the March MESSAGE, can be secured now by sending to our State treasurer, Mrs. Whitson. Price, fifty cents, post paid.

Dear Little Message.

I am very anxious to have you visit my home for a whole year every time you leave the office. Thirty-five cents does not seem like a very large amount to pay for the help and pleasure I expect to receive from so many visits. Enclosed you will find the amount in full; will you please come? Please begin with March number, and address, M. A. Holloway, corresponding secretary L. T. L. Branch, Lincolnville.

The Wabash Union is still without a press reporter, but wish that the MESSAGE would speak of the great loss which the Nichols Union, of Wabash, has sustained in the death of one of their most valued honorary members—Father B. O. Spencer—known to so many of the temperance workers of the State. At the request of friends the services were, for the most part, in the hands of the W. C. T. U.

SYSTEMATIC AND PROPORTIONATE GIVING.

Dear Sister Superintendents—During the last three months I have received several letters which show an increase of interest in our very important department. Through the MESSAGE of April, I desire to urge you all to put forth your best efforts in this branch of work. Owing to the lack of money it will not be possible for me to attend all of the conventions as I should love to do. I desire that all of my superintendents shall present her work, if only by a few words at each convention and report to me. I would be willing and very glad to visit any Union in the State, if the car fare is promised and entertainment. Will lecture on our department work one evening and the next evening give my popular lecture on "Woman" to help raise the money for expenses. If several Unions would unite in this work, who are near together, we could accomplish much good.

Once again, keep your reports ready for me. I am ready and willing at all times to answer letters in regard to our work and, if I was able, would visit every Union free of charge. Let us all work together heartily "as unto the Lord." Notice change of address from Jeffersonville to Livonia, Ind.

S. M. SHELTON,
State Superintendent.

NOT A PLEASANT TASK

I find it absolutely impossible to put the full reports of the memorial services for Miss Willard in our little MESSAGE, and do not know any better way than to gather the most notable points from each. I feel sure it is the best I can do. Unions used only white decorations with one or two exceptions.

Fairmount held her services at the time of the burial services in Evanston. A review of Miss Willard's life work was given and short addresses by the County President, Mrs. Eunice Wilson, Rev. Enos Harvey and others. Let us gather up the lessons her consecration has taught us, and weave them into the warp and woof of our lives.

Adella Lindley, County Press Superintendent, writes: Francesville, Feb. 26, used the hour for its regular meeting for memorial services at the home of Mrs. Laura Wise, County President. Several papers were read. Mrs. Allie Anderson, Lawrence and others gave short addresses. These, with prayer and song service, filled the program.

Greencastle held their services March 10 in Locust street church. The clergy was well represented. Rev. Farr spoke of Miss Willard as a reformer. Miss Hattie Welsh spoke of her girlhood days, in her earliest days showing unusual originality and personality. Miss Willard's prayer was, "May I behold the good in everything but sin."

Greensburg Union held a Willard Memorial meeting. The program was excellent, representing the churches, city schools, G. A. R., W. R. C., all the C. E. and Epworth League chapters and the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Thurman, a colored woman, represented her people.

Elkhart resolved that every member wear black and white badge for thirty days. A letter of condolence was sent to headquarters. A memorial service was held in the Protestant Methodist church, and its seating capacity was taxed. Mrs. R. C. Travis was in charge. The services were considered fine.

Crown Point held memorial service Feb. 27, in the M. E. Church, in charge of Mrs. A. B. Church, who conducts the noonday meetings at Willard's Hall. Miss Brehm made the address.

Frankfort Union responded to the National call for March 20—Neal Dow's and Miss Willard's memorial service. Rev. Brown, of the Christian Church, made the address. His strong point was, a great character can be built on principle and faith in God. He spoke in the highest terms of these well-beloved leaders of the W. C. T. U. and of Frankfort Union.

Deer Creek Union observed March 20. Rev. Enos Harvey, of Fairmount, delivered a most excellent address, followed by personal recollections of Miss Willard, by Eunice Wilson, Grant county's noble leader.

Rockport Union resolved to set apart one day in each year in memoriam, that the light of Miss Willard's good works while here might guide them onward and upward.

Shelbyville W. C. T. U. and the pastors of the city united in memorial services in the evening of the day Miss Willard was buried.

Versailles combined their fourteenth anniversary and a memorial service, spending the day with Mrs. H. White, who entertained at dinner at the hotel. They enjoyed the memorial services and social hours and were strengthened in their purposes to remain steadfast in the cause our leader loved so well.

The Logansport Woman's Club, under the leadership of its president, Mrs. J. M. Barnes, passed strong resolutions of respect and admiration of the character of her who was such a remarkable leader among women.

REJOICE. INDIANA WHITE RIBBONERS,

Because of gifts to our Hadley Industrial School of a farm valued at $4,000 and a bank check for $800.

March 28, Mr. Richard F. Cox, an honored citizen of Hamilton county, made a deed of trust to Mrs. Maggie Cox, of Westfield, to 107 acre farm situated near Rochester, Ind., who is given full power to sell the same and invest the proceeds as an endowment fund for the Hadley Industrial School, the income to be applied on the expense account of the institution.

April 5, Mrs. Hannah W. Clark, of Elkhart, a highly respected citizen of that place, sent a bank check for $800 to Mrs. Ella Wright, Treasurer Hadley Industrial School Board.

These generous gifts caused great rejoicing. They came to us at a time when we were almost discouraged. The pledges were being paid slowly and obligations needed to be met and no money on hands. With grateful hearts we accept these gifts and will use them for worthy needed girls of our State.

THE STATE CENTRAL COM. ELECTED MISS OLIVE PEELE STATE Y ORGANIZER.

Miss Peelle comes of sturdy Quaker stock from the Carolinas, who were abolitionists. The mother was a crusader at Cambridge City, near where Olive was born. Her parents moved south while she was yet a little girl. She was educated in Friends' schools. While yet quite young, when visiting her brother in New York State, she determined to satisfy her longing to do hospital work as a nurse and take training for such work. This she did, and for five years has devoted herself to study and work, being a successful trained nurse. Her widowed mother and sisters reside in Richmond, this state. There she has done practical work for Christ and humanity. Her sympathies have been toward girls especially and with them she has done efficient work, helping them to gain a knowledge of Christ. Thus she entered the ranks of the W. C. T. U. with a conviction in regard to girls. Her words are: "I only seek to know and do the blessed will of my Master."

Miss Peelle was elected State Y organizer on Monday, April 18, and on the 19th organized a Y Union of ten members. Another the same week of eleven members, both of Indianapolis. In the latter she was assisted by Mrs. Leck, county president. This young life, consecrated to God and humanity, comes to the W. C. T. U. full of faith and enthusiasm. Every effort will be made to keep her in the field until the next State convention.

THE STIRRING CAMPAIGN CONTINUED BY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Recognizing the moral uplifting and financial success of the Stirring Campaign for Our Industrial School,

Resolved, That we enthusiastically re-endorse it and recommend that it be promptly and vigorously pushed throughout the State with the slight modification which occurs in the plan amended to read as follows:

STIRRING CAMPAIGN FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE HADLEY INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

The State officers ask the local Union officers to join them in a medal campaign for the benefit of the Hadley Industrial School. Martinsville held a contest and made $22 for the Armenians. We have over four hundred Unions, and every one of these Unions could hold a contest if they would.

The State will give to any county having five or a less number of Unions, whose every Union holds a contest, a week's work by one of our organizers. To any county with ten to five Unions, whose every Union holds a contest, a lecture by a State worker. To the county having over ten Unions sending in the largest amount of net proceeds, an address by one of our National officers.

Every local Union sending in $10 or over, net proceeds, can have an address by one of the State officers.

Pledge signing is to be one of the particular features of the campaign. Every local Union reporting 50 signatures or over at their contest can have one day's service by one of our evangelists.

Local Unions which will join in the stirring campaign should send in their name to our State Corresponding Secretary and the report of the contest must be sent in promptly.

We will use the W. C. T. U. system and rules, and only silver medals. They may be oratorical, suffrage, narcotic, L. T. L., matron or silver gray.

We will use the W. C. T. U. Demorest and Cooper books, that we may have variety and as good as there is.

Pledge cards, 15 cents a hundred.

Posters to advertise the contests, at the rate of 50 cents a hundred.

Order these, with the medals and books, of Mary E. Balch, the Superintendent of the Medal Department, 711 E. Eleventh st., Indianapolis. Send money with your order. Net proceeds of contests to be sent to our State Treasurer, Amanda T. Whitson, 3335 N. Meridian st., Indianapolis, Ind.

Recommended, That so far as expedient all contests held previous to the next session of Indiana Legislature be suffrage contests. Will not superintendents of contest work read carefully and act promptly? If a superintendent has not been appointed, or for any cause should be inactive, will not local and county officers see that prompt action is taken?

FORM OF PETITION.

We, the undersigned citizens of the..... of..... County, in the State of Indiana, pray the proposal and passage by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, at its session in the year 1899, of an amendment of section 2, article 11, of the constitution of the State of Indiana, striking out the word male therein.

Names.

Addresses.

LEGISLATIVE.

All counties which have chosen their legislature committees for the suffrage campaign are requested to forward the names of the committee with postoffice addresses at once to the department superintendent, Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, Elkhart, Ind. If any county has not yet chosen such a committee, appointment should be made at once.

We understand that a report of Vigo county institute and the organization of a Lucy Thurman Union has been forwarded, but as such a report has not been received by the editor in charge, she will have to ask said report to be duplicated.

HADLEY INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

General good health prevails in the home, and many bright, sweet girls gathered from different parts of the State are enjoying the early springtime amid the wild flowers and grassy meadows, enlivened by the song of the robin and other native birds.

Farm work is being pushed forward as rapidly as the weather will permit. Some new wire fencing and new gates have taken the places of the old ones.

Much of the fruit planted last year gives promise of future usefulness. We have a surplus of fresh Jersey cows which will soon be ready for the market.

The superintendent and matron remain faithful in their departments of work. It seems a time of good cheer to the many friends of this noble work as the Lord inclines the hearts of his children to lend a helping hand.

Mr. Richard F. Cox, of Hamilton county, has deeded in trust a farm of 107 acres of land, situated in Fulton county, to Mrs. Margaret E. Cox, of Westfield, to be used as an endowment fund for the home. Also Mrs. Hannah W. Clark, of Elkhart, sent us a check for $800, which has been applied to reduce our building debt, leaving a balance of less than $100 yet due on that debt. Let us all to the work with increased energy and the Lord will bless our efforts.

LUCRETIA HOBART.

1101 Virginia Avenue, Indianapolis.

WESTERN GROVE UNION, HANCOCK CO.

Our Union is alive and aggressive. Our membership is made up entirely of women whose homes are in the country and who see life from a practical standpoint and are not unmindful of the lurking places of the enemy against which we are arrayed to fight. The departments which we have taken up are headed by women with conviction; especially is this true of the superintendent of medal work, who is a woman of rare efficiency and adaptability to this special work. During the last three months she has drilled two classes from which five contests have been held, which were occasions of great interest. The subjects of the recitations covered so many lines of W. C. T. U. work that the educational feature itself was very advantageous, giving to the audience who attended a broader scope of our warfare.

DEATH OF MISS LODIE E. REED AT URBANA, OHIO.

As we go to press we learn that Miss Reed died on April 26th, after an illness of a few days. Her funeral will be conducted from the home of her sister, Mrs. John A. Barth, Central avenue, Indianapolis, on April 29th.

Miss Reed was born May 22, 1847, in Urbana, O., from which place her parents moved when she was five years old to Monticello, Ind. Her father was Judge Finch Reed. Her mother, Louisa Jane Downs, a descendant of Quaker martyrs to early persecutions in this country. She herself a Methodist. An ambitious student, she acquired a classical education.

For ten years she was a teacher at Monticello and Attica, being principal of the high school in the latter place. Being in Urbana, Ohio, at the time of the crusade, she received through it her call to temperance reform work. In 1881 she became corresponding secretary of the Indiana W. C. T. U., which office she faithfully filled for thirteen years. She also was for ten years Superintendent of Scientific Temperance Instruction Department, and led the campaign which secured the law in Indiana. For three years she was press superintendent for the National W. C. C. U. and editor of the National W. C. T. U. Bulletin. She has served as press superintendent for the Worlds W. C. T. U. Since 1895 she was one of the founders and heavy stockholders of the Organizer, editing it for more than twelve years. In these papers she ably and successfully advocated the cause of God and humanity.

She was gentle, quiet and unassuming in manner, possessing a remarkably attractive face, which was strong in its characteristics and beautiful in feature.

Miss Reed served in Indiana as Corresponding Secretary perhaps longer than any other State Union has been served by a Corresponding Secretary. At the time of her death she was editing a W. R. C. paper in Urbana, Ohio, making her home with relatives there.

DEAR MESSAGE—I have a message for you. Please say to the L. T. L. workers everywhere that God giveth the crown to the faithful and He hath said "be not weary in well doing." Then why should we? I feel that we ought to remember this passage of Scripture with the many others that are a strength in time of need. I have one legion to report that is alive and doing some good work. On last rally day there were 82 persons present and only 9 adults (or married people) and from them we had seven earnest, praiseworthy speeches. The last four legion days have numbered 262 and Lincolnville is not a very large place either. Oh, how sincerely I wish that the boys and girls everywhere (where they are not already at work) could feel how truly the world needs them.

M. A. HOLLOWAY,
County Secretary L. T. L. Branch.

KNOX COUNTY.

It has been almost a year since I was elected Superintendent of County Press Work. I have tried faithfully to do my whole duty in this matter, and now I will make my report through our dear MESSAGE. I have made a report of the different Unions in the county to one of the county papers. I have written articles about every entertainment, lecture, contest and memorial service which has been held by the Freelandville Union.

I have also furnished material for twenty-five temperance columns in one of the leading papers. May God direct us all in the way that will be peasing in his sight.

DELA WALKER,
Superintendent County Press.

Dr. John M. Hall, President of Bay View Assembly and Summer University, says that an effort will be made to secure cheap excursion rates on the railroads to accommodate those desiring to attend the W. C. T. U. Institute, held in July, which is a part of the regular Assembly course. If secured, announcement will be made in June MESSAGE.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

FROM OUR NATIONAL PRESS SUPERINTENDENT, MINNIE BARKER HORNING.

The Local Press Superintendent in a small town will have one or, at most, two papers to deal with. Her first duty is to make the acquaintance of the editor, interesting him in herself and work, letting him know to whom he may look for items concerning the work of the Union. If he is interested in reform work for his town, her task is easy; if the opposite, she must bring the work to his notice in the light of news, and if he is a thorough-going newspaper man, this appeal is a strong one, for he is bound to supply all his subscribers with reading suited to their various tastes. He must cater to all. Her second duty is to be present, or have a representative at every meeting of the Union, that if there is news she may furnish it.

Is there any special form that this news should take?

Above all things it should be brief. A lengthy article, telling who prayed and who read scripture, and what motions where made and who seconded them, will never do, but a local like this: "The W. C. T. U., at their meeting on Thursday, voted to appeal for, collect and pack garments for Cuban sufferers. Mrs. B. and C. were appointed a committee to arrange for a gospel meeting, which will be addressed by Miss A., the well known National Organizer," would be well received. There will always be some one point of public local interest discussed at a Union meeting. Our motto this year is, "Better three lines accepted than a column rejected."

What do you think of a W. C. T. U. column?

I approve of it, but I have always held that I would rather have two or three local items interspersed with other news than the stereotyped column, which by its very conspicuousness heralds its own inability to interest many readers. The third duty of the Local Superintendent, and the most important, it may be, is to report what she does; keep an account of every item and report it when it is asked for promptly and correctly. Only by this means can the sum total be placed in the hands of the National Superintendent.

The city Press Superintendent's duties differ in a measure from that of the superintendent in a small town. She, too, must call on the editors and let them know her position and reliability, but she should also know the reporters. She should be known to them as one always glad to give them news or what they call "a good story." A reporter friend on each paper is a boon to a Press Superintendent and she can also be of aid to them. In many instances her work is made easy for her by giving her points to the reporters, who will write up the stories themselves and thus each will be different and satisfactory to the several editors.

Are they not particular as to what they will use about our work?

They will report important meetings themselves, will write up distinguished workers who come to the city, and in the city an alert superintendent can simplify her work and get a great deal in the papers by keeping the reporters posted.

To look after the religious press should be the work of the Local Superintendent, unless the State Superintendent takes the responsibility herself, which is oftentimes done. The requirements of the religious press are much easier to meet than those of the dailies. The religious paper, being a weekly, will take your news, even if it has appeared in the city dailies, but it must be remodeled to suit the need.

How can we know the needs?

Let me answer in the words of a newspaper man to me: "Study your paper, learn what it uses and in what form it appears; conform as nearly as possible to its requirements. Don't try to have a regular bulletin; when you have good news, send it; when you haven't, don't. Look upon your news from an outside standpoint; eliminate your own interest in it; chronicle it as news, interesting because of its being news."

What do you consider the greatest fault of Press Superintendents?

Their lack of promptness. There is so much in having news timely. If your president is wise, she is keeping abreast of the times in the Union and is discussing and working along the lines of public interest. This makes items of the work of the Union timely. I have spoken of its brevity, now let me speak of promptness, especially with regard to the dailies. An hour's delay, yea, fifteen minutes delay, in getting your news to the office may lose for you the appearance of your article. What is news to-day is stale to-morrow, and upon your ability to "get there" in time may depend the result of your labor.

What can we do when we write and our matter does not appear?

We must not be discouraged if much that we write never sees the light. So many contingencies may arise to crowd out our matter, and if we could follow it up we would see that the editor was not to blame. Never upbraid an editor or criticize his use of your material; remember the space in his paper is his bread and butter, and he must use it according to his own convictions and abilities. What he gives us is freely given, and while what we furnish in the way of news compensates, still he must be the judge of the news value.

After all, the public is the criterion and the papers and press associations are only caterers. What the public wants it will have and is willing to pay for, and to that the editor must respond. We must labor with our intelligent reading public to reform it, more than the editors. To illustrate the trend and demand of times: In reporting the last National Republican Convention, when Mr. McKinley was nominated, 422,000 words concerning it were sent over the wires. The Democratic Convention, nominating Mr. Bryan, was interesting to the number of 384,000 words, but the Carson prize fight, that event of the greatest national importance, forced 1,036,155 words onto the wires. Was this the fault of the newspaper people? It seems to me it was the demand of the American public. Our mission, in the words of Gen. Neal Dow, is, "with God's help to change all this," and only in so striving can we be true to our highest, noblest work.

OUR INSTITUTES.

Tidings from our institutes still in progress are most encouraging. Only a few of them, as yet, have sent in a full report to the MESSAGE. We hope others will do so promptly, that we may publish from them to the limit of our space. From the counties reporting, we glean the following—Ed.:

Cass County accepted the first schedule date, March 14, and held its institute at Galveston. It had a representation of its local membership from its remotest Union at Royal Center. The program was well filled and well carried out—Miss Mary Hadley in charge as leader. Five ministers were present and took part in the discussions. Subscriptions were taken for the MESSAGE and a Signal, and a County Legislative Committee for Franchise Work arranged for. The evening address was given to a crowded house by Miss Hadley and listened to by an appreciative audience. The decorations were beautiful and the special music rendered by the young people a delight. Cass County work has been carefully planned and excellent results must continue to follow.

Park County's schedule time brought its institute in the equinoctial storm, which reduced its attendance, but no apparent reduction of enthusiasm and careful planning for future work, with our State Corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. E. Balch, in charge as leader. The subscriptions taken for the MESSAGE made the list for the county equal that of its membership.

As we call to mind Miss Willard's ideal standard—a W. C. T. U. State paper for every State, so inexpensive that it may be read by every member. We are led to believe that many counties in our State will attain this, and may Indiana be the first State to reach this much to be desired standard, which we must now feel has been left us as a benison by our beloved leader.

The evening of the suffrage contest the rain poured, but a fair audience assembled and was delighted with the bright recitations and good music given by Colma's enterprising young people.

At Delphi, Carroll County wheeled promptly in line for its institute. The local arrangements by Miss L. E. Eversole and her harmonious co-workers led to a successful session. Flora Union was not represented. This failure was reported to be on account of illness and unfavorable weather.

At the first session an impressive memorial service for our beloved Miss Willard was conducted by Miss Hadley, State Vice-President, who had been secured as institute leader. The papers and discussions were earnest and practical. A Legislative Committee for the suffrage campaign was chosen. Every member of the institute, not already a reader of the MESSAGE, became a subscriber.

At the evening session, request had been made for an address on our Industrial School for Girls. This was given by Miss Mary Hadley to an interested audience and increased interest in the work of our school was awakened.

CAMP LIFE.

The boys of our State and other States have responded to the call of the President for troops, and thousands are now in the camps. Those who have visited the camps know that parents dread the dangers of camp life for their boys as much, if not more, than the bullets of the enemy.

Let us petition Gov. Jas. A. Mount of our State concerning our State camp; President Wm. McKinley, Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., and to Major General Nelson A. Miles, War Department, Washington, D. C., urging them to issue orders forbidding the sale or use of liquor in the camp and the sale of liquor near a camp, whether State or National. Let nothing prevent you from attending to this immediately. The effort is needed. The drinking by the boys of Camp Mount has been very general; saloons running full blast just outside the camp and the boys were allowed to go at will out of the camp and to the city. Our good Gov. Mount is making an effort to better the conditions, but the pressure is great. Let such a shower of letters and petitions be sent to these officials that they dare not disregard them.

MRS. L. F. McWHIRTER, President.

APPEAL TO INDIANA UNIONS.

War is upon us. There will be sickness and distress among our soldiers in the camp. From every Union in our State let there be a committee appointed at once to secure delicacies, comfort bags and some money for literature to be sent to the camps. These should be sent prepaid to our State superintendent of work among soldiers and sailors, Mrs. Julia Overman, 1802 South Branson street, Marion, Ind.

(MRS.) L. F. McWHIRTER,
 President Indiana W. C. T. U.
 (MRS.) JULIA OVERMAN,
 State Superintendent.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Dear Sunday School Workers—May 15 is our next Temperance Sunday. The special work suggested for that day is to hold May temperance rallies. May is a good month for your temperance rallies. Please work hard to have the resolution concerning quarterly temperance lessons presented in every Sunday School in your town and county. Also present it to your county Sunday School conventions. This is to be adopted by the conventions and signed by the President and Secretary of the State Sunday School Association and sent to Mrs. Irvine. (If you send to me, I will send to her.) Mrs. Irvine will send printed copies free to any who will send postage (5 cents per 100) for the same.

RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, The evil of intemperance is alarmingly on the increase in our land; and

WHEREAS, The church has a duty to perform in keeping youth unsullied by such evil; therefore

Resolved, That it is the wish of this convention that no change shall be made in providing the quarterly temperance lessons.

(Signed) .....President.
 .....Secretary.
 Adopted by.....Convention.
 City of.....State of Indiana.
 .....No of Delegates.

This is considered very important by the World's and National Superintendents, so please do not pass it by as of little consequence.

Please work hard to form the Sunday School pledge chain. Do, oh, do let me have a good chain to report to the National this fall, and let not the report of Indiana this fall be lacking in statistics. If you will send direct to Mrs. Stella B. Irvine, St. Paul, Minn., for the pledge cards (25 cents per 100) it will expedite matters, as I do not keep them on hands. By referring to my letter in November MESSAGE, you will see the work as outlined for the year. I am sending Plan of Work leaflets and report blanks sufficient to each County Superintendent whose name I know and to each local whose address I have. Please read them carefully. Let us keep up the regular lines of work according to our Plan while doing work along the special lines.

We need to know our department. Will not each and all of you subscribe for and read the Union Signal? Then you will always get Mrs. Irvine's quarterly communications in season, which I sometimes do not get in time to get into the MESSAGE for you in season. Let us be up and doing while the day is ours. Let me hear from you. Hoping for great results, I am yours for temperance teaching in the Sunday School,

Logansport, Ind. ALICE GEARY,
 State Superintendent.

The Goshen Y Branch is in a flourishing condition. Miss Sears organized the branch the 15th of July; that quarter we gained seventeen members. Soon after the convention Miss Sears visited our Y and gave us an entertaining, instructive talk. I think that evening seven boys joined us. The first quarter we gained sixteen members; the second, nineteen members; a total of fifty-one paid-up members, of that number twelve are boys. We have been asked, "how do you gain the boys?" We endeavor to make the meetings not only interesting, but entertaining. But we attribute our success to God in answer to prayer. He hears Miss Sears and our prayers in behalf of this work.

MRS. A. P. DAUB,
 Press Superintendent.
 Goshen W. C. T. U. and Y Secretary.

Mrs. Lewis, of Fairmount, Superintendent of L. T. I., is determined that every school in the township of Fairmount, including the town schools, shall have a scientific temperance lecture. Two more country schools and she will have completed her effort.

LaFayette Union has elected Mrs. Mattie Riley Y Secretary and appointed Mesdames A. L. Green, Josephine Bennett and Ray Stinespring to arrange a series of temperance meetings. It also decided to again offer three prizes to pupils of public schools on "Scientific Temperance, or the Effect of Alcohol on the Body."

"TAXATION WITHOUT REPRESENTATION IS TYRANNY."

Send all money for suffrage work to Mrs. Hattie Brand, 1403 Ash street, Indianapolis.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE.

The unselfish efforts of our legislative committee will be appreciated when understood. Funds are needed to carry on this work for suffrage. Please solicit donations of amounts from five cents to five dollars from women and men who favor woman's enfranchisement and do not contribute largely to reform work. Such people live in every community. Let this work be systematically done, by districting the locality and making house to house calls. God will bless your efforts if you go in a Christ-like spirit. Read thoroughly the MESSAGE supplements before going. Beware of a contentious spirit. Everywhere extend a cordial invitation to attend the W. C. T. U. meetings. Never do so in an apologetic manner, because you are not quite certain about the program of the meetings. If for any reason the president of your Union is satisfied to hold meetings without a definitely arranged program it is time to pray and work for another president. Always bear in mind that the W. C. T. U. is the largest, grandest organization of reformers in the whole world. It is by far the largest organization of women in the world. Go asking for funds with which to carry on this suffrage campaign, because you believe justice demands equal rights for men and women. Senator Vest says in regard to Cuban man, "taxation without representation is tyranny." If this be true in regard to the uncivilized Malayan man, is it not true of a civilized American woman?

COLORADO SPEAKS FOR HERSELF.

Because false rumors are circulating in other States concerning the results of woman suffrage in Colorado, the friends of the cause desire to present a truthful and unprejudiced statement of facts. The signatures of men and women who have official recognition are appended to this statement, in order that the office may give weight when names are unknown. The signatures include prominent society women, as well as those distinguished in intellectual and philanthropic work. The list might be indefinitely prolonged, were more than a representative number possible.

We, citizens of the State of Colorado, desire, as lovers of truth and justice, to give our testimony to the value of equal suffrage.

We believe that the greatest good of the home, the State, and the nation is advanced through the operation of equal suffrage. The evils predicted have not come to pass. The benefits claimed for it have been secured or are in process of development. A very large proportion of Colorado women have conscientiously accepted their responsibility as citizens. In 1894, more than half the total vote for Governor was cast by women. Between 85 and 90 per cent of the women of the State voted at that time. The exact vote of the last election has not yet been estimated, but there is reason to believe that the proportional vote of women was as large as in previous years.

The vote of good women, like that of good men, is involved in the evils resulting from the abuse of our present political system; but the vote of women is noticeably more conscientious than that of men, and will be an important factor in bringing about a better order. Signed:

Denver, Col., December 18, 1896.

In an article on "The Truth About Colorado," Katherine A. G. Patterson and Helen G. Ecob, of Denver, write:

Colorado has her own problems to solve in local government, like the rest of the country, and problems take time.

Certainly no one has a right to demand that they all should have been settled in the three short years since women obtained the ballot. Neither can it be expected that there should be unanimity of opinion as to the expediency of woman's enfranchisement. Traditions and prejudices which have accumulated through centuries of practice are not overcome in three years of the most successful innovation. Accordingly one may meet in Colorado intelligent and high-minded women who accept the duties of citizenship with reluctance, and retrospectively rejoice in the days of irresponsibility. Yet the prevailing sentiment of women is in the interest of liberty. Those who object are in the minority, and it now requires in Colorado almost as great courage to oppose suffrage as is still required in the East to espouse it.

The question is often asked if the franchise brings respectable women into contact with these sisters of darkness. Distinctly and emphatically, no. We have in Colorado the Australian ballot system. Respectable women vote in their own respectable precincts, and meet at the booths their own respectable neighbors and friends, who are as courteous on that day as on every other day.

There is no moral test for the ballot in any State or country. If we could draw the line of social purity, it should cleave man suffrage as well as women suffrage. Justice, not expediency, is the ground for equal political privileges. Justice is the only ground on which women should claim the ballot, the only ground on which the State should grant it. We are no more concerned about the expediency of justice than we are about the expediency of the law of gravitation. Yet we have proved in Colorado that justice is expedient. The principal of co-operation between man and woman is the ideal in human society, and freedom for every individual is the requisite of a higher social development.

STATISTICS ON WOMEN.

Some interesting statistics have lately been compiled, showing the proportion of women among the inmates of the different State prisons. The figures are taken from the United States census of 1890. Omitting fractions, they are as follows: In the District of Columbia, women constitute 17 per cent of the prisoners; in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, 14 per cent; in New York, 13; in Louisiana, 12; in Virginia, 11; in New Jersey, 10; in Pennsylvania and Maryland, 9; in Connecticut, 8; in Alabama, New Hampshire, Ohio and South Carolina, 7; in Florida, Maine, Mississippi, New Mexico and Tennessee, 6; in Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Missouri, North Carolina and West Virginia, 5; in Arkansas and Delaware, 4; in California, Minnesota, North Dakota, Texas and Vermont, 3; in Colorado, Iowa, Montana, Nebraska and Utah, 2; in Arizona, Kansas, Nevada and South Dakota, 1; in Washington, four-fifths of 1 per cent; in Oregon and Wisconsin, two-fifths of 1 per cent; in Wyoming and Idaho, none.

A prominent Episcopal Bishop lately objected to equal suffrage on the ground that "to the vote of every criminal man you would add the vote of a criminal woman." Instead of doubling the criminal and undesirable vote, woman suffrage would increase the moral and law-abiding vote very largely, while increasing the criminal and disreputable vote very little. This is a matter not of speculation, but of statistics.

CATECHISM OF WOMEN'S RIGHTS.

Under a representative form of government, such as ours, who should make the laws?

The people.

Do the people make our laws?

No; half the people are excluded therefrom.

Who do make the laws?

Men.

Who gave them the right to make the laws?

Men gave themselves the right.

Do not the laws concern women?

They do.

Why, then, may they not take part in thus making the laws which they must obey?

Because that would make the laws more equal, and men do not want it so; but want, instead, that the laws would be as they are—all in favor of themselves.

Why are the laws so one-sided?

Because one sex alone has been making the laws.

When a husband brutally assaults his wife, who should make the laws to punish him?

The people should, but only men do.

Who make the laws concerning the property rights of husband and wife?

Men only.

Do not the wives help equally in accumulating the property?

Mostly they do, especially farmers' wives, who carry triple burdens in working, saving, and propagating at the same time, while the husbands have only the one thing to do—accumulate.

Then why should not the wives have an equal right and equal voice in making the laws concerning that property?

No reason why they should not and no reason why they cannot, except that they do not vote.

Who pay taxes?

Men and women.

Is the property of women taxed equally with that of men?

Exactly the same.

Who makes the laws governing taxation?

Only men.

Who says how tax money collected from men and women shall be used?

Men, only men.

Well, since women are taxed equally with men, do you not think they should have an equal voice in saying how that tax money shall be used?

A GROWING CAUSE.

In Washington, as well as in South Dakota, the official recount shows the equal suffrage amendment to have received a larger vote than was formerly reported. In Washington, the adverse majority this year is only 9,882. In 1889 it was 19,386. In South Dakota, in 1890, the adverse majority was 23,610. This year it is 3,285.

In four States—Kansas, Colorado, Washington and South Dakota—equal suffrage amendments have been submitted to the voters twice, at intervals of some years. In every case the vote was better the second time than the first, showing the steady gain of the cause.

The long struggle between conservatism and progress in regard to woman suffrage has been well compared to a series of wrestling bouts between an old man and a growing boy. The man can throw the boy down as yet, but it is only a question of time when the case will be reversed.

To the Senate of the General Assembly of Indiana, 1899:

We, the undersigned citizens of the..... of.....County, in the State of Indiana, pray the proposal and passage by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, at its session in the year 1899, of an amendment of Section 2, Article II, of the Constitution of the State of Indiana, striking out the word male therein.

VOTERS.

WOMEN.

Duplicate the above, addressed

To the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of Indiana, 1899.

The above are copies of the petition which is being circulated throughout the State of Indiana. We ask that every man, woman and child, who believes that justice demands the enfranchisement of women, prove their faith by helping in the work of securing names to this petition. And, as you secure names to this petition, will you also help in the work of the permanent enrollment by securing signatures to the declaration. "We believe women should vote on equal terms with men?" Have one list for men and another for women, the same as for the petition.

INDIANA ENROLLMENT.

The design of this enrollment is to put upon permanent record the names of all citizens in Indiana who believe in the enfranchisement of women. It aims to secure the autographs of all women who are ready to exercise the elective franchise and of all men who believe in equal suffrage. All signatures are copied by a typewriter into books bearing the label of the State, while the original lists are preserved. Secure signatures only from people of legal age. It is also desirable that the signatures of professional men and women be accompanied by the abbreviations which indicate their professions. Autographs are classified according to the towns, counties and congressional districts in Indiana, thus fitting the enrollment for both State and national use. That this may be done, care should be taken to secure legible autographs, and the towns in which they are obtained should be written upon the lists.

It would be of great and direct value to our cause to make the number of signatures, as soon as possible, large enough to challenge the attention of the Legislature at Indianapolis. Send all names and petitions to Mrs. Lizzie C. Hann, No. 2129 College avenue, Indianapolis.

PETTICOAT GOVERNMENT IN KANSAS.

Mr. William A. White, of Kansas, the editor of the Emporia Gazette, admits that the town he lives in has petticoat government, and maintains that it thrives on it. Writing in the August Atlantic about "A Typical Kansas Community," he says it is true that women shape the sentiment of the Kansas town, and as a result of their influence he points to Emporia, "a town of 8,000 inhabitants, without a saloon, without a strange woman, without a drunkard." The chief street corners of most towns in most States, he says (not without a little exaggeration), are occupied by dramshops. In Emporia, of the four corners made by the crossing of the two principal streets, three are occupied by banks and the other by a book store, where the boys and young men of the town find a meeting place. He draws an attractive picture of the "clean, shrewd, active young men who have been brought up in a town where the women make public sentiment, but wherein a woman has never held an administrative municipal office."

HOW TO WIN WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

To secure equal suffrage for women two things are needed:

1. To convince men and women that it is right and necessary.
2. To secure an active support in every voting precinct.

In short, to educate and to organize. How can this be done?

1. By circulating women suffrage literature where it will be read; not once only, but continuously. For this purpose every State Society should systematically introduce into every family a woman suffrage weekly newspaper, giving information and news of the movement, and place in the hands of every voter a woman suffrage leaflet. If the money otherwise spent were devoted to this specific object, a single year would leaven the whole community with woman suffrage principles.

2. By finding or creating a trustworthy friend in every voting precinct to circulate literature, and help elect suffragists to the legislature.

A continuous campaign of education and organization is needed; nothing more and nothing less. The human mind is so constituted that truth and justice and liberty are sure to win in the long run. Even the efforts of the remonstrants help, for, as Jefferson has well said: "Error is harmless when Truth is free to combat it."

PRACTICAL RESULTS.

Wherever women have had the ballot, they have used it in the interest of the home and against the saloons, the gambling houses and the haunts of infamy.

In Wyoming, women obtained full suffrage in 1869. Rev. Dr. B. F. Crary, presiding elder of the M. E. Churches in that State, wrote years ago of the equal suffrage law: "Liquor sellers and gamblers are unanimous in cursing it." Chief Justice Groesbeck, of Wyoming, wrote in 1897: "The influence of the women voters has always been on the side of temperance, morality and good government, and opposed to drunkenness, gambling and immorality." Wyoming was the first State in the Union to raise the age of protection for girls to eighteen.

Colorado granted full suffrage to women in 1893. Equal suffrage has raised the age of protection to eighteen; has equalized the property laws between husband and wife; has secured a law making fathers and mothers equal guardians of their children; has greatly increased the number of women serving on educational boards, and has more than quadrupled the number of no-license towns in Colorado.

Kansas gave municipal suffrage to women in 1887. Several years ago the Chief Justice of Kansas and all the judges of the Supreme Court united in paying tribute to the good results. All concurred in substance with Judge W. A. Johnston, who wrote: "In consequence, our elections are more orderly and fair, a higher class of officers are chosen, and we have cleaner and stronger city governments."

In 1880, Arkansas passed a law that the opening of a saloon within three miles of a church or schoolhouse might be prevented by a petition from a majority of the adult inhabitants, men and women. The liquor dealers contested the constitutionality of the law. Their attorney, in his argument before the Supreme Court, said:

"None but male persons of sound mind can vote, but their rights are destroyed, and the idiot, alien and females step in and usurp their rights in popular government. Since females, idiots, and aliens cannot vote, they should not be permitted to accomplish the same purpose by signing a petition; for the signature of an adult to a petition is the substance of a ballot in taking the popular sense of the community. It merely changes the form, and is identical in effect."

The Supreme Court, however, upheld the constitutionality of the law. Under it, the saloons have been cleared out of three fourths of the counties in Arkansas.

In Idaho, full suffrage was granted to women in 1896. William Balderston, of Boise, editor of one of Idaho's principal dailies, writes:

"An interesting result of the new law was observed during the session of the Legislature last winter. In Idaho there had been a law legalizing gambling. Up to the time of the adoption of equal suffrage it would have been impracticable to repeal it, but when a bill was introduced last winter for that purpose, it went through with a large majority. The majority for it was universally credited to the addition of the woman element to the electorate."

In Canada, five provinces give a restricted municipal suffrage to women, and the concurrent testimony of all parties is that the result is altogether in the interest of temperance and morality.

Even at the antipodes women stand for the home. Equal suffrage has been given to the women of New Zealand, and now comes the news of a movement in New Zealand to put down gambling "Sweepstakes" have been declared illegal, and a bill to legalize them has been defeated on the avowed ground that the large associations of women, whose votes would be needed at the next election, were against the bill.—Frances E. Willard.

Gentlemen of the several parties, please bear in mind that women, individually and collectively, are as deeply interested in the well-being of our State and nation as are the men individually and collectively. We have as perseveringly endured the changed conditions of the times; we have and are to-day bearing our full pro rata of the State labor; we are enumerated in the basis of political representation, yet we are denied representation; we are taxed to support the State government, yet we have no voice in regulating taxation; we are amenable to all the laws, but we have no voice in making those laws. Now, all these conditions are a direct contradiction of the spirit and text of our governmental system, which professes to derive its "just powers from the consent of the governed."

1830 Diamond street, Philadelphia,
November 28, 1898.

Dear Editor Bulletin—I am frequently asked my opinion of the action of the National Convention in regard to the Temple and I would like to answer my home State women through your columns.

The subject was given sufficient time for discussion and all delegates who wished to do so had ample time in which to express their views. The vote of 285 to 76 in favor of ceasing all further attempt to own the Temple should satisfy all doubtful ones of the wisdom of the attitude of the general officers.

The claim which has been made since the convention, that the rank and file oppose giving up the enterprise, is fully answered by Mrs. Carse's own statement that in the eleven years since the beginning of the plan, the Unions have averaged but fourteen cents per member. When we know that some of us have contributed $100 each, and many poor women and Unions have struggled to raise a like sum, proves that it never has appealed to the majority of the rank and file.

If with all the inducements which have been held out in the last eleven years, with Miss Willard and all the general officers favoring it, the W. C. T. U. has not been interested, how can any rational woman claim that the majority or even a small minority of the rank and file of the W. C. T. U. wish to keep up the hopeless struggle?

The action of the National Convention ought to settle it once and for all, and we should now turn all our energies and money to the great purpose of our organization—agitation, education and legislation against the saloon.

The dignity and fairness with which Mrs. Stevens presided through the trying discussion won the gratitude and esteem of the convention and proved that it made no mistake in selecting her as its president. Yours in the bonds of loyal service,

ANNA H. SHAW.

THE BREAKING DAY.

BY SOPHIA M. HALE.

Tune—"Webb."

The light of day is breaking,
The nation shall be free,
For women are awaking
To ask for liberty—
To plead for truth and justice,
Nor shall we plead in vain;
We seek the nation's glory
And not our selfish gain.

And deeming it our duty
To save our homes from blight,
And seeking to protect them
From error's gloomy night,
Uniting with our brothers
In one harmonious band,
We'll strive to save the nation
And bless our native land.

TO CONGRESS.

Every union should urge voters to write letters to Indiana congressmen urging them to vote for the Ellis anti-canteen bill, the Hepburn anti-prize fight bill, and against Utah's polygamous congressman, and against repeal of Alaska prohibition. White Ribboners, you can not be too busy to fail to attend to some of these things, which need immediate attention.

Equal suffrage is the inevitable result of social evolution; it may be delayed by adverse legislation, but it cannot be prevented. It must come. It will come. It is not a battle for supremacy, but for equality; simply an honest effort towards a truly representative government.

Society women should want the ballot because this reform is becoming immensely popular, and as the chariot wheels of progress roll by they don't want to be left, because good men every where are saying, "Give woman the ballot." The vigorous opposer is the fellow who hangs around the grog shop while his wife supports him. May God help us all to see our duty clearly and work while the day lasts, for the night cometh when no woman can work.—Kansas Reville.

COMMUNICATIONS.

LAFAYETTE.

Our Union meetings are of much interest and are largely attended. The superintendents are all pushing their work. The next meeting will be under the Department of Fairs and Medal Contests, led by their superintendents. The daily papers are very kind to allow us space. Not always careful to give our thought, but we are thankful for small favors. Our late Medal Contest was given by the LaFayette Union.

MRS. JOSEPHINE BENNETT,
181 North 9th Street, LaFayette.

IMPORTANT

To superintendents in the department of scientific temperance instruction and all persons interested. Wall rolls 5 cents each. Bright, up-to-date literature, in packages, at 10 cents. Order of Mrs. Adah W. White, State superintendent, Oxford, Benton county.

The Economy W. C. T. U. held memorial services in honor of our beloved Frances E. Willard, on March 20, at the M. E. church at 3 p. m. The music was furnished by the M. E. choir. The young ladies decorated the church. The addresses and poems were of a high order. A deep solemnity prevailed all the service and all seemed pleased to have the privilege of partaking. In the evening, by invitation, Mrs. Stanley delivered an address upon the life of Miss Willard at Modoc for the Christian Endeavor.

SOUTH BEND COLFAX AVE.

Colfax ave. (South Bend) W. C. T. U. can report two new members since State convention, Mrs. M. G. Huey and Mrs. Emma Hunt; also two honoraries, Rev. Will C. Coad and Chas. F. Holler. Mrs. Smith secured Mrs. Huey at convention and Mrs. Hunt since, while Mrs. Shoutz brought in the honoraries.

Mrs. Gorsuch, our Supt. of S. S. department, assisted by members of all Unions, especially Colfax, arranged a Sunday school temperance rally, preceded by pledge signing. The red, white and blue cards were secured from National superintendent and given out in 15 Sunday schools for signing March 20. Fourteen of these schools took hold of the work heartily and at the rally held at First Baptist church, April 3, fully 1,200 signed cards strung on white ribbon, making about 120 yards, decorated the church. Six Sunday schools and junior societies were represented on the program of songs and recitations, and everything was up-to-date temperance. Rev. C. D. Case made brief but excellent remarks, even speaking strongly against alcohol even as medicine.

Thirty of the unsigned pledge cards were taken by one of our public school teachers for use in her room—fifth grade. She was in your audience at Christian Endeavor at First Presbyterian Church that convention evening.

In his wonderful memorial sermon for Miss Willard, Rev. Case urged that $500 be sent from South Bend toward awakening the Temple—Willard Temple—and a fitting monument for our great and loved Miss Willard. Some of our women are setting to work determinedly and systematically to accomplish this.

Colfax Union hold a monthly Mothers' meeting, serving solid refreshments for mind and soul and light refreshments for the bodies. We always have some visitors, and trust good seed is sown.

Colfax Avenue Union is small but active. I knew you would be glad to know of even this little work done by your followers of Colfax Avenue W. C. T. U. of South Bend. MRS. M. J. WELD,
Secretary.

Cass County (Ind.) W. C. T. U. held its semi-annual convention and institute in Galveston, March 15. Miss Mary Hadley was with us all day and delivered an address in the evening, which won for our cause much sympathy and many friends. We had with us through the day and evening five ministers, who assisted and encouraged us in every way possible. The young men of Galveston favored us with some excellent music and departed themselves in such a gentlemanly manner that they won the admiration of all the visiting delegates. The young ladies deserve special mention for their untiring efforts for the success of the convention, furnishing music and assisting to serve free meals to the members of the W. C. T. U. and their families and the visitors.

Rev. Green and wife are unsurpassed in hospitality and co-operation and Galveston may congratulate herself in her pulpits representatives all around.

Our County President, Mrs. Geary, may congratulate herself for the evidences of success, in this her first convention. M. E. GOULD, Recording Secretary.

The Geneva W. C. T. U. has recently had an uplift in the presence and work of Mother Trish, Assistant State Evangelist. Mother Trish spent about two weeks here in February assisting the M. E. pastor in special meetings. Union day meetings of the Methodist Episcopal and United Brethren churches were well attended and wonderfully helpful. One Sunday afternoon was given to a temperance mass meeting. The W. C. T. U. had charge of the meeting. The church was crowded with an attentive audience, that listened for over an hour to Mother Trish's intensely interesting experience as a crusader. Mother Trish also addressed a mothers' meeting, where her true, searching words must have helped many a heart in the large audience of women who gathered to hear her. During her stay Geneva Union was strengthened by the addition of twenty-six active and fourteen honorary members, making a total membership of forty-five active and about twenty honorary members.

Memorial services were held February 27 in honor of the memory of our beloved Miss Willard. The program consisted of the usual devotional exercises, appropriate music, an address on Miss Willard's work, a paper on her life, reading of a memorial poem from the Signal and an extract from Miss Willard's last annual address. At the close, resolutions adopted by our Union were read and afterward printed in our column in the Geneva Herald.

MARY FULLER ASH,
Secretary.

Hartford City Union wants to be known as a live Union doing aggressive work. In February we decided to hold gospel temperance meetings in different churches once each month; the first one was held in Grant T. M. E. Mission Chapel. Two signed the pledge. A very active Loyal Legion has been conducted in the church for two years every Sunday afternoon and the people were prepared to take a bold stand. March 20 our second meeting was held in Grace M. E. Church.

A very impressive Willard memorial service was held in Grace church, which was largely attended. Our beloved president, Mrs. Stahl, presided at all these meetings. We hear of good results from our libraries in the jail and county poor farm. One young man told me he had read every one of Dickens' books and many magazines and papers during the five weeks he was awaiting trial. Hoping for better work in the future, I am,
COUNTY SECRETARY PRESS WORK.

The Bloomington Union is still actively at work, even though the world hears so seldom from us. We recently sent a MESSAGE club of twelve. One reason, and a very important one it is, for the success of our work, is the faithfulness of a few of our members. Another is the loyalty of the many friends, both men and women, of the city. Our treasury is kept from being empty largely by collections taken at our quarterly Union meetings and our contests. Two we held were by members of the high school and our last one by married ladies. We have been fortunate at all to have an orchestra of home talent, which cost us very little. Our city papers advertise these meetings without charge. So with a good audience we have good financial results. Besides all these things we have a faithful ministry to stand with us. We believe, though we meet discouragements, that through Christ, our leader, we will be victorious. MRS. T. J. CLARK,
President.

Wabash Union held a gospel temperance meeting in the M. E. Church while its pastor was attending Conference, the evening of March 27.

Our Superintendent of Literature, Miss Georgiana Moser, Loogootee, has sent out a leaflet. It is very suggestive to her local workers. Thank God for the young women who lend us their hearts and brains.

OUR PLANS. OUR PREMIUMS. OUR OPPORTUNITIES.

Because space in the MESSAGE is so valuable again we urge you, dear White Ribbon sisters, to read Plan of Work on page 46 of our Annual Minutes and the November MESSAGE.

Membership—The three persons sending in the three largest lists for members whose dues are paid, not including honoraries, shall each be made a life member of the State W. C. T. U.

Subscriptions to the MESSAGE—The person sending in the largest list of subscribers shall be made a life member of our State W. C. T. U. The second person sending the second largest list shall be alternate to the delegate-at-large to the National Convention next fall. The one sending the third largest list shall receive their choice of Miss Willard's books.

"Six Papers of Note"—No. 1, to be written by local or county presidents. Subject: "Financial History and Policy of the Indiana W. C. T. U." No. 2, by any local or county secretary. Subject: "History of Noted Events in Our Several Annual Meetings" No. 3, by any local or county superintendent. Subject: "Department Work." Nos. 4 and 5, Y and L. T. L. secretaries. Subject: "Y and L. T. L. Work." No. 6. Subject: "Biography of Indiana W. C. T. U. White Ribboners." No State officer or organizer can write on any of these subjects. The papers must not occupy over ten minutes' time. The time limit is August 15, at noon. All No. 1 papers must be sent by that time to the chairman of a committee of three, Mrs. Emma J. Clark, Bloomington; No. 2 papers to Mrs. Mary C. Lieb, 21 W. 12th street, Anderson; No. 3 papers to Mrs. Adah W. White, Oxford, Benton county; No. 4, the Y papers, to Miss Clara M. Sears, 106 W. 14th street, Anderson; No. 5, L. T. L. papers, to Mrs. Amanda R. Gordon, Argos, Marshall county, and No. 6 papers to Mrs. Elma Emmerson, South Whitley, Whitley county, all of Indiana.

The best paper of Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 will be given place on the State program at our annual meeting and the writer be written up in the city papers, unless there is objections. We trust these papers will then be printed in leaflet form for wider circulation. Every county should be ambitious to have at least one paper of each number written in their county. This work will certainly add to the general knowledge and intelligence of our women. The papers that can not be read at State meeting will certainly be valuable and useful in the meetings of the Unions, and for the general public.

A Roll of Honor for the counties that attempt to carry out the Plan of Work—No county will appear on the roll who fails to have a showing of 50 per cent or one-half. Every county should strive to be No. 1 on this roll.

National Delegates—The counties will be grouped as usual for choosing National Delegates, but the county in the several groups which has organized the largest number of Unions, shall choose the delegate out of their county, and the county that has the next largest number will choose the alternate.

Life Membership—Again we remind you of this plan to create a fund for organizing new territory. Is there no one who can give their attention to this? Last year we had three; we certainly should do better this year. You will read more of this on page 22 of the Annual Minutes.

Department Fund—Quarterly Meetings—Program for first quarter in the January MESSAGE, for second quarter in the March MESSAGE. See Annual Minutes, page 23.

Unions, whose every member takes the MESSAGE, are entitled to a copy of the Union Signal, free to such person as they shall designate. To save time, avoid confusion and conserve sweetness, send your subscriptions and money to the business manager, Mrs. Mary E. Sims, 3350 Central avenue, Indianapolis. The articles for the MESSAGE to Mrs. Mary E. Balch, 711 E. 11th street, Indianapolis.

Do not fail to copy petition for the Suffrage Amendment, as found in the report of the Executive Committee, and confer with Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, Elkhart, superintendent of this department, enclosing a stamp.

Mrs. Tompkins has a fine leaflet and Bible reading on Christian Citizenship which should be in the hands of every Union.

MEDAL WORKERS,

What think you of this record? Westland, Hancock county, since March 21, 1898, has held six silver contests. Net proceeds, $31.85. They write that on each occasion that the stage was decorated with our World's and State motto and our flag. Miss Ella Rule was in charge.

The general officers of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union during their councils at Chicago, considered the needs of the work and the immediate policy. They decided to send out immediately the letter prepared by Miss Willard for the wealthy people of the country, in which she solicited contributions for the retiring of the $300,000 worth of Temple Trust bonds. This plan was outlined by Miss Willard at the convention in Buffalo, and the preparation of this letter was one of the last acts of her life. The money raised was to be placed in the hands of Miss Cornelia M. Dow, who is custodian of the fund, and is to be drawn out only on order of the general officers, when enough money shall be secured to retire the bonds. It is purposed by the general officers to place the matter in the hands of some woman of influence in each large city, who shall personally interview the people of wealth.

(Miss Cornelia M. Dow, the daughter of our promoted and well respected and beloved Neal Dow, must be addressed at Portland, Me.—Ed.)

FIELD NOTES.

Mrs. Della Lindley is proving herself to be a very competent county superintendent of press work. She urges every Union to get space in their local papers, and there are plenty of them in Grant county. If it is only a few inches, accept it and keep it full, afterwards clipping out their items and preserving by the scrap-book method, which makes a splendid record of work done as well as a record of dates, events and statistics.

Eliza Baker will visit all of her Unions and build them up in the faith and duly install the Y's in their lines of work.

Fairmount and Upland are planning to observe their anniversary. Would that all Unions would do the same.

Mrs. Overman of Marion, is planning an entertainment with Mrs. Squires and baby; proceeds to be used for her own special line of work.

Fairmount has opened a reading room and the best dailies, weeklies and monthlies the country affords are found on its table.

Rutler, the baby Union of DeKalb county, only six months old, entertained the institute.

Pleasant Lake, of Steuben county, has one church with a W. C. T. U. window, and every church in Angola has a W. C. T. U. window.

Francisville had a $20 house at the institute cost.

Loogootee Union held a parlor meeting, which was well attended. Mrs. Balch and Mrs. Cammack were both present, encouraging the membership and telling of the great need for more consecrated women to stand against the liquor traffic and its attendant evils.

April 22 Mrs. Balch visited the Hindostan Union, and on that evening she addressed a large audience.

The Martin county institute was held at Loogootee. The attendance included all the ministers, the county superintendent of schools, Editor Motsinger and the Hon. Senator Houghton.

Mrs. Cammack attended nine out of the ten institutes held in the first district and great satisfaction is expressed with her work. She will give Steuben, Delaware and other counties each a week's work when she returns from the 4th district.

At Bedford Mrs. W. H. Holcombe holds a monthly union gospel temperance meeting with Epworth League, Christian Endeavor and Baptist Y. P. C.

Mrs. Mary Alexander disposed of twelve copies of Miss Willard's picture in the memorial number of the Union Signal. Some of them outside of the Union.

Clinton County reports 42 delegates and 39 visitors attended the institute; voted to renew the subscription of the Union Signal and MESSAGE for editors of four county papers, also each Union pledged itself to take as many copies of the MESSAGE as they had members in the Union. They have eight superintendents now, three last year; 74 columns furnished the press in the last six months.

Sedalia ministers both preached sermons for the Union; both read the Union Signal. This Union has sent its two dollars to the National Treasury. It made a scrap book to be placed in a railroad caboose. Held a mothers' meeting of unusual interest April 6.

An experience: A Local President said we prepared programs and served lunch and added to our membership, but the women did not come to us because of conviction, but because they had a pleasant social time. They never made good working members; they did not stand for our principles; they were not a source of strength, but of weakness. Get your members because of a conviction.

Some very valuable statistics were given at the institute in Martin County, held in Shoals. Many think our public schools could not exist except for the license money from the saloon. The superintendent giving the statistics mentioned gave the number of days of school in four townships paid for by saloon revenue. In one township this money added ten days of school, in another seven. The other townships had a still less number.

Wabash Union has appointed Mrs. Frank Searles Y secretary.

Peru has a Union of ten members and two honorary, organized by Mrs. Anna Kilmer, state superintendent of foreign speaking people. President, Mrs. Anna Kilmer; corresponding and recording secretary, Miss Mary Sharp, and treasurer, Mrs. Emma Davidson.

Wayne county institute was held at South Eighth street Friends' church, Richmond. Mrs. Clara Hoffman, of Missouri, spoke the evening of the 18th. Subject, "What Hinders?"

Mrs. Adah W. Unruh organized Unions at Scottsburg and Crothersville. The following officers were elected for Scottsburg: President, Mrs. Cammer Thomas; corresponding secretary, Miss Clara Bridgewater; recording secretary, Mrs. Gusta Wilson; treasurer, Mrs. Alice Colvin; eighteen members and six honoraries. Crothersville officers are: President, Mrs. G. M. Beldon; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jennie Hyatt; recording secretary, Miss Lucy Kelly; treasurer, Mrs. Savilla Richter; eleven members and five honoraries.

Mrs. Emma Sayler, president Clinton county, recently organized a colored Union of six members in Frankfort. It is named in honor of our National president, Lillian Stevenson. The officers are: President, Mrs. Nannie Radcliffe; vice-president, Mrs. Parker; corresponding secretary, Miss Myrtle Parker; treasurer, Mrs. Dorcas Clark.

Mrs. Belle Flowers, of 163 S. West street, Shelbyville, Ind., has returned to our State after an absence of five years in the South. The President of Texas W. C. T. U. writes that Mrs. Flowers served the Texas Union efficiently as State Superintendent of Narcotics and Non-Alcoholics in Medicine, and that she "has the ability to make things come to pass." We welcome our sister back to Indiana.

Mrs. Ellen Dayton Blair, the National L. T. L. chalk talker, will be in our State in June. Terms, $5.00 and expenses. She leaves an L. T. L. in nearly all places visited. She goes into the public schools and Sunday Schools, gives brief chalk talks free as a means of securing a crowd of children, with many of their parents, in the evening, which never fails. Many Unions will desire her services. All such, please write to Mrs. Amanda R. Gordon, Argos, Ind.

FURTHER EXTRACTS OF EXECUTIVE MINUTES OF MARCH 8 AND 9.

Editors of the Voice—The Indiana W. C. T. U., in its annual Mid-Year Executive session, extend to you their appreciation of your efforts to purifying college towns from rum and brothels, and assure you that the stir you have made will cause wise parents and guardians to make careful inquiry before sending their young people to institutions of learning; and they will certainly prefer those that are awake to these evils and alive to the protection of their students from them. We beg you to continue the righteous disclosure. Let on the light.

Moved by Miss Sears, that at our next State convention we make a change in article III of the constitution of the Y. W. C. T. U., thus breaking down sex lines and having equal rights enjoyed as in C. E., E. L. and B. Y. P. U. societies.

Approved, That local and county treasurers' books be prepared by the State.

The suggestions on "Six Papers of Note," given by the Central committee and printed in the November MESSAGE, were reviewed and the following persons were appointed as chairmen of a committee of three, she, the chairman, being instructed to select two available women to assist her in deciding upon the merits of the papers: On the papers received from the presidents, Mrs. Emma J. Clark, Bloomington; from secretaries, Mrs. Mary Leib, Anderson; for departments, Mrs. Adah White, Oxford; for L. T. L., Mrs. Amanda Gordon, Argos; for Y work, Miss Clara Sears, Anderson; the Individual, Mrs. Elma Emerson.

Recommended, That the women provide themselves with copies of back minutes for the necessary information. Back numbers may be had for the postage.

Girls may be solicited as members of the W. C. T. U. and their dues may be met by a fund provided for this purpose.

Recommended, That temperance entertainments, contests, etc., be given to provide this fund.

MATTIE O. CAMMACK,
Recording Secretary.

Mrs. Lucy Thurman, National Superintendent of Work Among Colored People, is doing most excellent work in our State. She spoke in eleven colored churches; in some of them twice. At Simpson Chapel a beautiful reception was tendered her and the State Officers after her address, by the Epworth League of that church. Rev. Scissle and wife and Lawyer Hill, President Epworth League, were most gracious hosts. Much enthusiasm prevails. Great good was accomplished.

Rockport Union is about prepared to open a reading room—a counter attraction to those who frequent saloons and other vile places. This place is also to serve as headquarters, for the Union it is to have an abiding place.

Shelbyville W's and Y's held a most delightful parlor meeting in the home of Mrs. Handy, and this sister was presented with some pieces of fine cut-glass.

"Is Alcohol a Stimulant?" was the subject discussed at a parlor meeting held by the Greensburg Union. All the physicians in the city were invited. After an interesting program, refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

LADY HENRY SOMERSET, WORLD'S W. C. T. U. PRESIDENT.

Isabel, Lady Henry Somerset, was born in 1851. She is the eldest daughter of Earl and Countess Somers of Eastnor Castle, Ledbury, in Herefordshire, England. Three miles from the grand old market town of Ledbury is Eastnor Castle, beautiful for situation, majestic in character and historic in surroundings. In sight is the Herefordshire Beacons, the highest point on the Malvern Range, one of the strongest hill fortresses in Britain. For ages the same summit of this hill has been used for beacon-fires, whose heats have charred its ranges. At the approach of the Spanish Armada,

Twelve countries saw the blaze
On Malvern's lonely heights, and Eastnor Castle is the home of one who to-day stands as a beacon-light, not only for England, but for the world.

Having no brothers, Lady Henry Somerset succeeded to the inheritance of the vast estate of her father. The family has been long owners in County Kent, certainly as far back as the thirteenth century, and it numbers many illustrious men and women.

Born thus to an inheritance of culture, refinement and wealth, married in 1872 to Lord Somerset, second son of the Duke of Beaufort, receiving the crown of motherhood in 1874 by the birth of her only child, Lady Henry Somerset seemed to have all that the world can give. Her life was passed in the gayest of England's most aristocratic society, and with it she seemed content until 1885. What heavenly breezes swept her soul then we do not know, but the result is manifest. Amid all of life's gayety, she had felt deep spiritual longings, and now these spoke to her soul imperatively; she listened to this heavenly voice, turned her back upon London and its gayeties and went to Eastnor Castle, there to spend several months with her Bible and God. She came forth from this possessions in the east of London as well as in the beautiful hills of Kent that we have described, her tenants in the city numbering nearly one hundred thousand. Over these she felt her heart stirring like that of a mother, and she, who had been the light of the West End drawing-rooms, now went to the London missions to seek and save those that were lost. Lady Henry became one of the chief supporters of the great work undertaken by Rev. Hugh Price Hughes in St. James Hall. She went to him and offered to receive into her country home some of the destitute souls in the slums of Soho; she gave fetes to probably ten thousand poor people at a time; so Eastnor Castle had new visitors.

Mrs. Hannah Whitall Smith seems to have been the connecting link between Lady Henry Somerset and the British Women's Temperance Association. (Mrs. Smith went to Ledbury to give a series of Bible Readings. Here they met and communed concerning the things of the Kingdom and each discovered in the other a kindred spirit.) When God led Lady Henry into this wide sphere, He touched her lips with a coal from off the altar of inspiration. There is something fresh and unhackneyed about her expressions. She comes into the philanthropies from another sphere and has learned none of the accustomed phrases. She takes broad views of the situation (and does not shrink from bringing temperance into politics by laying the responsibility upon the voters.) As editor of the Woman's Signal, as administrator, and as leader of the British Women's Temperance Association, she is wielding an immense influence on the side of right and truth. Lady Henry stands to-day in the foreground of modern reform, a radical of radicals, an orator among orators, all her varied gifts of mind and personality set apart—"not to be ministered unto, but to minister." "Few women," says Miss Willard, "have wrought so much good in space so brief; we are but at the beginning of the story, and if life and health are spared for twenty years, it will be written that while the men of England had their Shaftesbury, its women had their Somerset."

Upon her first visit to this country in 1891, to attend the World's Convention in Boston, she made for herself an enduring place in the hearts of American white-ribboners, and each succeeding visit has intensified their love and admiration. They love her first of all for her own sake—for her sweet graciousness and her beautiful consecration to a holy cause—and they love her for her sisterly ministrations to their Chieftain at a most critical time. Indeed, the names of Frances Willard and Lady Henry Somerset will ever be linked together in the thought of the World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union as its two great leaders.

CANTEENS.

The mother who has a boy in the National camps now has reason for being much concerned in regard to the liquor selling near the camps. At best camp life is not conducive to good morals. It is time now for every mother, whose boy is in camp, and every W. C. T. U. Union, to write a letter and send petitions to President McKinley, Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., and to Major-General Nelson A. Miles, War Department, Washington, D. C., urging them to issue orders forbidding the sale or use of liquor in the camps, or the sale of liquor near the camps. Let nothing prevent you from attending to this immediately. Many Unions in Indiana can send one thousand names. Try it. For the sake of humanity our Government must be made to realize that it must not favor the liquor power.

Some member of every Union should be given opportunity at the next meeting to read extracts from a letter written by our National Superintendent of Legislation, Mrs. Margaret Ellis, as given on the first page in Union Signal of May 19th. This should also be published in every newspaper, read in the prayer meetings, missionary meetings, etc. It should be proclaimed aloud.

THIS IS THE CLOSING of the third quarter of our year, and there is great need of each officers' faithful efforts. Each local treasurer should either see personally or send a note to every member whose dues are still unpaid. If this is done our membership will show a big increase. Benton County has fifty new members that have paid dues. A few in each Union will increase the total for the County. If for any reason the treasurer cannot attend to the collecting of the dues, the President should appoint some one for that work.

HADLEY INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL—Our Hadley Industrial School is in great need of money. We owe nearly one thousand dollars, which is greatly needed now.

Unions that are interested in this school should send a donation of money to the treasurer, Mrs. Ella B. Wright, Greensburg, Ind.

The gift of the farm is for an endowment fund. When the farm is sold the money is to be invested for the school, the income only to be used. This is a practical and appreciated plan. The $800 received was immediately paid on the debt on the building, leaving about $60 yet due on that. Besides this we owe about $900. Do please help us pay this very soon.

Could you see the workings of the school, know the worthy needy girls there, surely you would help.

FOURTH OF JULY—Wherever possible County Unions should arrange for a big Fourth of July celebration, extending invitations to all Sunday Schools, Young Peoples' Societies, etc. A program, consisting of representative speakers from the different organizations, including one on temperance, with excellent music, if well advertised, will be well attended. Such an occasion will afford a splendid opportunity for distribution of literature. At 15 cents per hundred, who can't afford to buy one hundred leaflets to distribute?

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

Dear Sisters—I am encouraged at the progress of our work. In attending Institutes and making short trips out into the field, I find a wide-spread desire among the Unions to push on the battle, realizing that, notwithstanding our Chieftain has fallen, the conflict wages, and there is need of a united, persistent effort to go on if we will eventually become victors. The Liquor Traffic is a mighty and determined foe, with unlimited financial backing. It has acknowledged that it has nothing in this country to fear except the W. C. T. U. Well it may fear the united efforts of the motherhood and sisterhood of the land. Our greatest need is more faith in God and the efforts of more consecrated Christian women. Frequently women tell me they have not been invited to join the W. C. T. U. Every Union should have an annual crusade for membership, at which time every woman in the community should be invited to join. Our Hadley Industrial School is in great need of funds for immediate necessities. From many Unions let there be sent some money right away. This School must be cared for.

Every County should begin now to plan for a State or National worker for September. Give an entertainment, secure some money, engage a worker who will also add to your treasury. Thus plan largely for your work and you will receive benefits accordingly.

Urge the Suffrage Petition work. It will require constant effort from now until January 1, 1899, to secure the signatures needed to accomplish our aim. Every member should help.

The President of the American Anti-Saloon League, the Hon. Hiram Price, sent a letter of appeal to the President in behalf of the army and navy boys who are furnished with free drinks by the saloonkeepers of New York.

Mr. Price thinks this action of the liquor sellers is a "sham show of generosity to popularize their miserable business." He hopes that Mr. McKinley will take action against it.

This subject needs to be agitated everywhere until the American manhood is aroused sufficiently to stand for the good health and morals of our army and navy.

Faithfully,
L. F. McWHIRTER

interval of solitude the daughter of a King. The duty lying nearest her was the welfare of a large tenantry. At the very threshold of her care for these people she was confronted with the drink problem. This made her a temperance woman and worker. In 1885, in the little village of Ledbury, at her castle gates, she signed the pledge with forty of her tenants. She had large

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

The MESSAGE comes to you each month laden with good will and hearty cheer. Please send it items of interest. The MESSAGE ought to be read by every White Ribboner in our State, and will be, if we work for it.

FRANCHISE.

The old proverb, "No excellence without great labor," will apply with wonderful force in the Franchise Department work throughout the State of Indiana. No Superintendent of that department. I exhort those lovely and noble women, who have been entrusted with this gospel as County Superintendents, to do their most valiant work this present year. Make the Suffrage sentiment grow amazingly this whole year by holding Franchise Contests, by using the press, by taking men and women by the hand and talking Woman's Ballot; and, above all, by circulating "The Petition." The County Superintendent has already selected her two helpers in each Union, I have no doubt, and these women must have begun the work by this time.

Lest there should be one who is not yet at work, and does not know just how to begin, I will ask them to look in the first column on the third page of the April MESSAGE and note "The following form to the General Assembly in '99." It is thus: "We, the undersigned citizens of ..... (then fill in with your own town) County ....., in the State of Indiana, pray the proposal and passage by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, at its session in the year 1899, of an amendment to section 2, article 11, of the constitution of the State of Indiana, striking out the word male therein."

Copy this petition and get all the signers possible. Get the name of every man in your county if you can. Make heroic efforts. Let us roll up the greatest number of names that ever was sent to a General Assembly in any state. If we begin now it will not be hard work to get the women, too. Let us keep in mind from day to day that "nothing succeeds like success," and success comes through persistent labor. Let us be in earnest prayer every day to God, that only can give victory for the enfranchisement of the women of the State of Indiana, for the putting away of the liquor traffic from our State and Nation, and the coming of His Kingdom into all our hearts and homes.

M. A. TOMPKINS,
State Superintendent Franchise.

FORM OF PETITION.

No. 1. To the Senate of the General Assembly of Indiana, 1899.

No. 2. To the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of Indiana, 1899.

We, the undersigned citizens of the..... of..... County, in the State of Indiana, pray the proposal and passage by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, at its session in the year 1899, of an amendment to section 2, article 11, of the constitution of the State of Indiana, striking out the word male therein.

Copy this petition form twice, address one to the Senate and the other to the House of Representatives. Ask each person to sign both. These are two distinct bodies and a petition is needed for each.

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT.

Dear White Ribbon Sisters—I trust that many of you (according to promise) have interviewed your legislative representatives regarding the necessity of a food inspector. You remember this bill passed the Senate at the last term, and we must keep agitating until our law-makers recognize its importance and our sincerity of purpose. Let them know that our National and State chemists assert that the adulteration of food is well nigh universal in every State where there is no pure food law; that as W. C. T. U. workers we recognize the relation of pure food to temperate habits of living, and vice versa. Hence, as a part of our work from a scientific standpoint, they must not deprive us of this aid in the building up in our children of healthful physiques, one of the strongest weapons with which to combat the forces of the saloon. The day has already arrived when we will be classed as back numbers unless we show our comprehension of the results of scientific research as one of the fundamental laws of correct living. This knowledge will not only attract to us cultured companionship, but those in quest of knowledge as well. We are also asking that there be incorporated in the curriculum of the public schools some of the more practical phases of life, as is being done in Massachusetts and a few of the other States and all the leading foreign countries.

We are full of praise for the better class of foreign laborers, simply because no lad is allowed to grow up without taking a course in manual labor, no girl without learning to sew, cook and other duties that are sure to come to her during life.

Will you not kindly report to me at your earliest opportunity what encouragement you have received from the members of our coming legislature, as everything along this line of work depends upon an appropriation from it? Yours to serve,

MARY A. MOODY,

Superintendent Department of Household Economics.

COMMUNICATIONS.

GRANT COUNTY—Spring Convention and Institute was held at Deer Creek, May 4th. Miss Mary Hadley, leader of Institute. Miss Hadley said that Grant county's convention had the largest day session she had attended, even larger than Marion county's. There were 105 voting delegates and 9 honoraries present, besides many visitors. Convention was called to order by the President. Devotional conducted by Ida Winslow. Press Reporters and Committee on Courtesies were appointed.

Miss Hadley was introduced to the convention and given the usual salute. She responded with good tidings of the work and said that interest in our work is increasing. Organization is the keynote of our work now. How can we best build it up? Miss Hadley suggested many ways by which we may reach out and gather material for this great building. Miss Sears, State Y Secretary, was present and participated in the discussion. She urged the Unions to interest the young ladies in the Y. W. C. T. U. work. "Our Literature" was also discussed by Miss Hadley and others.

Divisions of Plan of Work: Subjects—L. T. L., Ida Winslow, "Feed My Lambs."

Life Membership Plan, Ora Winslow. She suggested plans for making money to carry on the work, closing her paper by saying, "Go ye into all the world and preach my Gospel."

Red Letter Days, Institute Work and The Stirring Campaign were all discussed, especially The Stirring Campaign. Miss Hadley wished that the campaign be pushed in the interest of Suffrage this year.

Recitation, Ethel Coggeshall.

Bible Reading, Mary Hadley.

Introduction of Fraternal Delegates. Mr. Frazier, Pastor of the Christian church of Marion, an honorary member, was introduced.

Afternoon Devotional, Mary Baldwin.

Organization of Women. Miss Hadley spoke quite freely of the different clubs and society circles of women. The discussion was by the executive body, opened by Eunice Wilson. They all admitted that while some of them belonged to different clubs and organizations, that the principal one, and the one that laid nearest the heart, was the organization of the W. C. T. U.

An interesting paper on Narcotic and Scientific Temperance was read by Rachel Lewis, of Fairmount.

"A Few Things Accomplished. What Next?" Louisa Rush. There is a wonderful change in the lines of work in the past forty years. She wondered if the women have actually crowded out the men. Of the societies and churches that are composed of both sexes, three-fourths are women. Some things that have been accomplished: Scientific Temperance Law, Raising the Age of Consent, We Have Gained the Respect of the World, Every Nation Has Opened Its Doors to the W. C. T. U., We Have Made the Saloon-Keeper Tremble. What next? That we devote greater energy to gain more power at the ballot box. And the one thing needful is a baptism of the Holy Ghost.

Two nice willow rocking chairs, all trimmed in white ribbon and bows, were presented to Eunice Wilson (our President) and her husband by the members of the Grant County W. C. T. U. Miss Hadley made the presentation speech.

Shall Indiana Have Equal Suffrage in this Century? was ably discussed by honorary members. Miss Hadley recommends a Legislative Committee, appointed in the different local Unions, to help to push the Suffrage Campaign work to its utmost.

"Stray Leaves of Current Events," by Emma McManaman, was interesting.

Introduction of Babies being a special feature of the Grant County Convention, two babies were introduced. Miss Hadley said that she knew that Grant county was bound to be ahead. We surprised Miss Hadley. We had a Baby Union without a name, but had been promised one at this convention. So a committee was appointed; they retired, then returned with the name Hadley. Miss Hadley thanked them and promised the baby a new dress of her very best production.

Recitation, Shurlon Shugart.

After a few appropriate remarks by the President, Miss Hadley and Miss Sears, our convention adjourned.

Evening address by Miss Hadley on "The Attitude of the Church Toward the Saloon." The Goliath of Rum is in the field with a challenge. Whereshall we find a sling and a David to go out to meet him?

Two splendid recitations were given by Mr. Alfred Hogston and Miss Nellie Shugart. Music furnished by Miss Edna Coggeshall and others. RENA P. SMITH, Recording Secretary.

HOWARD COUNTY INSTITUTE was held at Sims, April 12 and 13, Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, of Elkhart, leader. All the Unions of the county were well represented. Mrs. Lida Outland, County President, did all possible to make it interesting for all present.

The morning bible reading by Mrs. M. A. Tompkins was on Christian Citizenship.

Devotional exercises, Tuesday afternoon, were conducted by Mrs. Hendry, of Kokomo.

In the evening, Mrs. Tompkins' lecture on "Law and Habit" was well received by a full house.

Devotion, Wednesday morning, was led by Mrs. Hopkins.

Papers on the "Organizations of Women," "Preventive and Educational Measures," "Curfew Law," "No License Ballot vs. Gold Cure," "Industrial Training and Rescue Work," "Stray Leaves of Current Events," etc., were all interesting and edifying, each paper being well discussed.

The afternoon session was devoted to receiving reports of officers and superintendents, showing a good amount of work done throughout the county.

Memorial service was conducted by Mrs. Louie Kightlinger, of Greentown.

The evening's program consisted of a Franchise Contest for silver medal, Miss Turner carrying off the prize, the contest being conducted by Mrs. Amy P. Rindge, County Superintendent of Franchise.

The Phlox Quartet added much enthusiasm to the convention. Mr. Pendleton and Mr. Ellis also contributed interesting recitations.

MRS. AMY P. RINDGE,

County Recording Secretary.

DEKALB COUNTY INSTITUTE was held at Butler, April 8th and 9th, Mrs. M. O. Cammack, leader. The Institute opened by devotional exercises, led by Mrs. Ehlers, of Auburn, followed by a welcome address by Mrs. Eva Kenestruck, of Butler. Responded to by several members of the Institute. Miss Laura Keeran, of Auburn, gave an interesting history of the organization. Indiana Plan of Work was discussed by many. Mrs. Addie Sewell spoke on Red Letter Days, emphasizing the benefits from their observance. "Shall Indiana Have Equal Suffrage in this Century" was ably discussed. Rev. Fred Thomas led in the discussion. Lecture in the evening by Mrs. Cammack, which was interesting and instructive.

The Semi-Annual County Convention was held on the day following. Twelve departments reported much work accomplished. An excellent program was carried out. All of which reflects great credit upon the County President and her efficient corps of officers.

WESTERN GROVE—Superintendent of the Hadley Home is a woman of intense persistency. She has in the last two months, through arduous toil, self-sacrificing devotion and untiring perseverance, succeeded in placing in the Hadley school, two little girls, aged respectively 9 and 7, the eldest of a family of seven children. She appealed for help to the Township Trustee for clothing for the children, who responded in part, the Union supplying what was lacking. Then she showed her magnanimity by taking these children into her own home while their clothes were being made up by members of the Union, and then accompanied them to the school.

At our last meeting we appointed a committee to investigate whether the provisions of the Cigarette law are violated in our community.

A Temperance sermon was preached by a member of the Union, and one is arranged for in the future on Systematic Giving. The pastor of Western Grove preached a very impressive sermon on the life of Frances Willard.

Our meetings are held once a month; business meetings once a quarter. With the multitudinous cares incident upon a busy country woman's life, it seems impossible to get together oftener. This is but a report in part of the work of the last three months, but space in the dear little MESSAGE forbids further account.

ELKHART COUNTY—Press Superintendent, Mrs. A. P. Daub, writes: "Miss Anna Downey, Superintendent of Christian Citizenship of the National W. C. T. U., was present at a three days' Institute in Goshen, at which large and enthusiastic audiences were present. Miss Downey is a very talented and eloquent speaker, and many were the hearts she awakened to a higher and more noble purpose in life. Members of the Goshen Union put forth a great effort to have this Institute an entertaining as well as an educational feature, and the sessions throughout were interspersed with good vocal selections suitable for the occasion. Among the numbers rendered was the beautiful solo, "Gambling for Gold," dedicated to the W. C. T. U. of America by C. H. Addison, and should be sung in every home.

Middlebury Union held a Silver Medal contest on the evening of the anniversary of their organization. Mrs. Lantz secured the medal. Rev. B. F. Stultz, chairman for the Prohibitionists of Elkhart county, was present and was so much impressed that he gave an urgent invitation to repeat the program at Vistula, which they did April 16th, they had their second Silver Medal contest. Eight gentlemen were the contestants. H. O. Eldridge won the prize with an original oration, "On the Fence," which was very fine.

The liquor element is getting desperate and doing their best to throw discredit on our efforts to "sow beside all waters." It has been reported that there are more drunken men in Middlebury since the closing of the saloon than in a long time before. This is the work of the emissaries of Satan, but we must not only "stand, but withstand," having on "the whole armor of God," and we shall come off conquerors.

CRAWFORD COUNTY OFFICERS—President, Miss Cora J. Parr; Corresponding and Recording Secretary, Miss Sarah Roberts; Treasurer, Miss Susan Roberts, all of Alton.

TIPPECANOE COUNTY held a two day's convention and Christian Citizenship Institute at LaFayette. Two National workers, Miss Anna Downey and Mrs. Lucy Thurman, also the State President, Mrs. McWhirter, were present.

The morning sessions were devoted to county convention work; the afternoon and evening to the Institute. Miss Downey delivered able addresses on the evening of April 13th, in the new West Side M. E. Church, the 14th and 15th in Trinity M. E. Church. Her addresses were scholarly efforts, logical throughout and well delivered. She shows herself to be at home on the platform, and has a good strong voice which can be heard in all parts of any auditorium. Trinity Church adjourned its prayer meeting and love feast, in deference to Miss Downey.

The day sessions were held in Willard Hall, the use of which was donated by the LaFayette Temperance Society. A good program had been prepared in advance, and Mrs. S. D. Curtiss, the County President, presided.

Mrs. Thurman spoke Sunday evening at Willard Hall to a full house; Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings she spoke in the colored churches. Wednesday evening she held a meeting for the women. Much interest is manifested among the colored people, and new members added to the Union. The colored people gave her a reception Friday evening at the home of Prof. Anderson. Mrs. Thurman will always be cordially welcomed by the people of LaFayette. Mrs. McWhirter's presence was a stimulus to the convention.

VIGO COUNTY held its Institute at Terre Haute in the Central Presbyterian church. Miss Mary Hadley leader. The Institute was well attended, considering that the Southern Indiana Teachers' Association was in session in the city at the same time. Space will not permit me to give the names of the writers of all papers. Some of our best ministers and lawyers were on the program. Rev. William Torrance, D. D., pastor of Central Presbyterian church, very ably led a discussion on Woman's Suffrage. Attorney Reichman read a fine paper on Sabbath Observance. Rev. Mountain, of Trinity M. E. Church, was to read a paper, but on account of the illness of his little daughter, was not able to be there.

Saturday afternoon the Semi-Annual Convention was held, led by the County President, Mrs. S. E. Joice.

The Suffrage contest was well attended. Music was rendered by children. The first prize was awarded to Mrs. Belle Murphy, a member of the West Side Union. The second to Miss Amy Mosier, a member of the Mary Hadley Y.

Miss Hadley remained over Sunday and completed the organization of a W. C. T. U. Union, which had been commenced by the county officers a few weeks before at the Allen A. M. E. church. The new Union starts out with thirteen members, with Mrs. Margaret E. Hill as President; Miss Emma Archer, Secretary, and Mrs. M. E. Canitup, Treasurer.

WELLS COUNTY INSTITUTE was held at Bluffton. Although it occupied but one day, it is safe to say that much good was accomplished. Miss Hadley was assisted by Mother Trish, of Warsaw, and the two loyal laborers handled their subjects intelligently and forcibly. The meeting was a grand one, and the Bluffton Union was increased by thirteen members. Among these were four honorary members—one was the pastor of the M. E. Church, and one the pastor of the Reformed Church. Good papers and reports of department work were read, and the interest increased at every session. The one day's work made us hungry for more, and we hope to appropriate our full quota of time in the spring of '99. The citizens here are becoming acquainted with our work, and grant us their presence and approval. We are certainly "marching on," and hope to report large gains at our next annual convention.

Mrs. D. T. SMITH,
County Cor.-Sec., Wells County.

LETTER FROM OUR VALIANT STATE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY, MRS. BALCH—Institutes. Section four. Counties on the B. & O. S. W. railroad and those south of it in Indiana.

Mrs. Cammack and myself left home April 20 via Greencastle. Up to date, May 25, we have conducted institutes at Mitchell, Shoals, Petersburg, Princeton, Mt. Vernon, Hillsboro, Rockport, Tobinsport, Alton and New Albany, and Mrs. Cammack visited Knox County Institute, held at Freelandville. Four counties did not receive the institute and one changed schedule dates. We occupied these days organizing and visiting Unions. We have added to our roll of Unions, Winslow, Black's Chapel, Tobinsport and Rome, and Petersburg had an L. T. L. of 74 members organized during our visit there. At each institute, with one or two exceptions, members have been added, but I will not give the figures; we will wait and see how many pay dues. We have visited high schools and normals, and 21 students at different points signed a total abstinence pledge—several of them the triple pledge.

Mrs. Cammack has spoken in 12, and I have spoken in 10 churches on the Sabbath days. No one of these church audiences had less than 25 men present, some of them four times that number. At every institute a few men took part with papers and discussion—doctors, lawyers, teachers, ministers and ex-members of our legislature. The members of the Unions turned out well and entered into the work of the program with a relish and earnestness.

Four clubs for the Union Signal and MESSAGE have been sent in, 150 Willard buttons sold and several pictures.

At Tobinsport the prohibition brothers put out a small poster to advertise our meeting, paying for it. At New Albany, Rev. Parsons lettered a bulletin and put it at the church door, outside, that all the passers-by might be invited to come in.

We have held six Silver and two Gold Contests, as the program calls for. Total receipts, $54.90 and by far the best audiences. Only for complimentaries a much larger amount would have been received. The Suffrage Contest at Rockport consisted of readings, original papers and recitations, the audience voting on the weight of argument. The result and effect were most satisfactory.

The petition for woman's full enfranchisement, written out in proper form, has been left at each place visited and a woman chosen to have the work in charge. The majority of every audience, where the vote was taken, was in favor of woman's ballot.

Three counties have Presidents by appointment, who will do their best to secure three Unions in time for the Fall Convention, when county officers will be elected. These counties are Pike, Perry and Floyd and each have two Unions already. The new Unions have W. C. T. U. agents, who take the Union Signal and MESSAGE.

Public schools are doing temperance work. Sunday schools and young people's church societies are teaching our principles and the leaven which woman hid in the three measures of meal. Church, State and society is leavening the whole lump. The outlook is hopeful.

MARY E. BALCH.

HADLEY INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

"At no time since the establishment of this home, has the outlook been as promising for its success as at present." This is the language of those living near the institution. This is as it should be. Noble gifts have recently been made. That of Mr. Richard F. Cox, of Hamilton county, deeding to Mrs. Margaret E. Cox a farm in trust, to be sold and proceeds to be invested and kept as an endowment fund. The income only to be used in paying the Superintendent and her assistants at the Home. This is a noble idea, and will be carried out to the letter. But it will take time to change the investment, and in the meantime very little, if any, income will be realized from it.

A donation of forty-four fruit trees of fine varieties of peach, pear, plum and apple, from Albertson & Hobbs, of the Bridgeport Nursery, was received in April. The trees were carefully planted, and are making a good start in growth. These added to those of last spring's planting, give promise of much good fruit in the future. The farm is yielding a surplus, but it is consumed in repairing fences, replacing worn out farming implements, paying farm hands, and keeping up table expenses for a family of eighteen. There is evidence that honesty and economy in management go hand in hand. We now have fifteen girls in the home; the eldest being thirteen, the youngest six years of age. Their health and contentment seem first-class. It has not been thought necessary to call a physician into the home for nearly two years, no violent case of sickness having occurred. Beyond this I have no knowledge, not being associated with the workers of the Home before the time mentioned. Now dear patient sisters, let us find a blessing in giving this noble cause our united efforts in placing it on a higher plane. And as finance seems to be the medium of lifting all noble enterprises to completeness, let us not falter in this foundation principle.

Your prayers and good wishes we feel sure of, but we do need some of your money. Two of our worthy creditors have been obliged to mortgage their property to carry debts incurred for us. We have wiped out, through the help of Mrs. Hannah Clark, of Elkhart, nearly all the debt to the man who put up the building. The salaries of Superintendent and Matron have not been paid for several months. They have made no complaint, but have worked hard and earned their money. The W. C. T. U. of Indiana has been honored above other women by placing this home under their control. Let us not lack in our devotion to its interests.

LUCRETIA HOBART,
President of Board.

LETTER FROM DR. JOHN M. HALL, the popular Summer Assemblyman—Mrs. Louise Rounds, President of the Illinois Union, will conduct the W. C. T. U. Institute at Bay View, Mich. She has had charge of this department of the Bay View work for five or six years, and in this time has built up there a department that is second to none in this country. Her program is always made up on most practical lines and the participants are representatives of the White Ribboners from Indiana and the adjoining states. The dates of the Institutes will be July 21st to 30th. Summer tourist tickets will be on sale at all Indiana points, and expenses at Bay View are $4.00 per week for table board, with furnished rooms at from $2.00 per week and upwards. Bay View is the site of the well-known Bay View Assembly and Summer University, whose programs and school work have a reputation throughout the country. These are all in session at the time of the W. C. T. U. Institute. Detailed information about Bay View and all its summer work can be had by applying to J. M. Hall, Flint, Mich., or, after June 15th, Bay View, Mich.

Sincerely,
J. M. HALL,
President Bay View Assembly.

HO! FOR INDIANA SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN!

We are glad to note the great interest manifested in Indiana's campaign for woman's suffrage by our membership and others. Legislative committees have been chosen in many of the counties, and they are being districted for a vigorous and thorough canvass for signatures to our petition. Will counties, which have not chosen such a committee, do so at once and forward the names to our State Superintendent of the Department, Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, of Elkhart? Such committee to be composed of a County Superintendent of Franchise and one superintendent and an associate from each local Union. Local Unions should make their appointments promptly. Said committee to have power to add to this committee, if necessary, until the committee is sufficiently large and so located as to get a poll of all voters and adult non-voters in the county. See elsewhere in this issue form of petition and plan for signatures, etc.

Much depends upon the use of literature. If we sow our State "knee deep in literature," we can hope for such results as came to Maine in its campaign for prohibition as planned and prosecuted by gallant Neal Dow.

We recommend an energetic use, by local Unions, of the May Responsive Readings on Franchise by the National Superintendent of the Department, Miss Brehm.

As a matter of economy in postage, this copy of Responsive Reading is sent out by the State Treasurer with her blanks to the County Treasurers to forward to the Local Treasurers. Let no Local Treasurer fail to see that this Responsive Reading reaches the first meeting of the local Union, after its reception, where it should be read and considered. The proclamation it contains from the Wyoming Legislature should be given a prominent place in local and county papers. If the program for your next Union meeting is full and can not be held in abeyance, we will suggest a special meeting of the Union be called in the interest of the business, proposed in this communication, that there may be no delay in the progress of our work.

On behalf of the work,
STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF FRANCHISE
DEPARTMENT AND STATE OFFICERS.

BLANKS have been sent to all County Treasurers and to local Treasurers where there is no county organization. Do not fail to notify me if you do not receive them by the 10th, which gives time for you to receive them from the County Treasurer if she has received them from me.

A. T. WHITSON,
State Treasurer.

PROVIDE SUFFRAGE LITERATURE. AGITATE AND EDUCATE.

BLACKFORD COUNTY INSTITUTE was held in Grace M. E. Church, Hartford City, April 19 and 20. Mrs. Howe was in attendance and conducted a very excellent Mothers' Meeting, and the institute was very generally enjoyed and approved. Home workers present and the program carried out.

BENTON COUNTY secured Mrs. Ada L. Squiers for two weeks' work. She gave entertainments in five of their Unions. This is a very successful way to replenish the treasury, as Mrs. Squiers gives a very liberal per cent to the Union employing her, and her entertainments take well. It is one of the "do everything" ways to teach our principles. You can write Mrs. Squiers at her home in Martinsville for terms and dates. Give yourself time, as Mrs. Squiers is very busy.

ALLEN COUNTY INSTITUTE—Through the enterprise and good management of the growing membership of Fort Wayne, Miss Hadley was called to the county for work previous to the institute. A good program had been prepared, which enlisted many of the members, who were ably co-operated with by the ministers and other leading citizens. By the forenoon session of the last day the interest had so increased that Allen County wheeled promptly into line and a co-organization was effected. We hope to be favored with the names of the county officers soon.

Names were taken for an organization at the A. M. E. Church, where Miss Hadley spoke on the Sabbath previous.

Superintendent Johnson, of the Institute for Feeble Minded, extended a cordial invitation to the W. C. T. U. Institute to hold its closing session in the auditorium of that institution and visit the same, which it did (much to the enjoyment and profit of the members), holding a short business session in the interest of Department Work and adjourning with a Chautauqua salute to Miss Hadley, who took the train for Bluffton, the point for Wells County Institute.

We learn that many F. E. Willard memorial buttons were donated by our White Ribboners at Allen County Institute, accessions to the membership secured and a large club for the MESSAGE taken.

FULTON COUNTY held its institute on schedule dates and used the regular program, Rev. Mattie O. Cammack in charge. Excellent papers were prepared and read by the members of the Unions at Kewanna and Rochester on the subjects named on the program, followed by discussion. Mrs. C. B. Carlton, Corresponding Secretary, reporting. Memorial services for Miss Willard were held in connection with the institute.

JAY COUNTY INSTITUTE, May 5, M. E. Church, Portland. The attendance was good, and home workers were faithful in the performance of duty. The Temple and Hospital were both considered and steps taken to assist them financially. Memorial services for Miss Willard had a place on the program. Report signed by Sarah Mason, Secretary.

MRS. ELLEN D. BLAIR, National Organizer and Chalk-Talker, will be in our State in June. Her plan is to illustrate moral lessons with stories and drawings in color, as well as in black and white. The evils of intemperance and tobacco using, especially the deadly cigarette, are pictured. In addition to this, Mrs. Blair uses free-hand drawing to aid her in impressing the audience in what is considered the most effective way, viz., through the eye to the brain and the soul. She uses manilla paper and crayons. Where she has spoken, people are greatly pleased. She interests everybody and reaches the children. She almost always aroused interest so she can organize an L. T. L. We need her in Indiana. If you desire to secure her services right away, you can do so by applying to Mrs. Balch, 711 East 11th Street, Indianapolis. Engage her and get the children to sell tickets. Try it.

BAY VIEW, MICHIGAN—J. M. Hall, President of the Bay View Assembly, writes that it is still too early for railroads to promise the date of their first low-priced excursion from the south. He says: "I will do all I can to get this excursion started in time so that the White Ribboners from Indiana can reach Bay View so as to participate in the W. C. T. U. Institute. Last year excursion tickets from Indianapolis were very cheap, within reach of almost every person. Those contemplating an outing, we earnestly urge you to consider this delightful summer resort, which combines both pleasure and profit. Many rooms are furnished for light house-keeping which can be rented, thus greatly reducing expenses of board. Last year a good restaurant and grocery were located on the grounds and food already prepared was delivered at the door of the cottager."

By beginning at once to make preparations for this pleasure trip, we hope that many will thereby become a part of the White Ribbon army moving northward to enjoy the splendid W. C. T. U. Institute at Bay View and to become better equipped as workers to help storm the fortifications of the greatest foe that has ever attacked our civilization. My dear sisters, let us be just as active, brave and ready to help wage this peaceful war against our deadly enemy as are our brave boys who have so recently enlisted in the war against the Dons.

AMANDA T. WHITSON.

FT. WAYNE temporarily organized a Union with 50 names. At the Willard Memorial service, held under the auspices of the Young People's Christian Union, 23 more names were secured. They will take Mrs. Bullock and her daughter the first week in September. They are utilizing and receiving recognition from press and pulpit. Sermons are to be preached in the different churches from Sabbath to Sabbath, these women attending in a body.

FIELD NOTES.

MRS. CAMMACK spent Sunday at Petersburg, speaking both morning and evening.

A LAWYER, a doctor and two ministers assisted in the Elkhart County Institute.

CHURUBUSCO UNION has driven every saloon out and is standing guard that none return.

FRANCESVILLE had a most excellent suffrage contest one night of the Institute, which more than covered all expense of the Institute, besides being very educational. Prejudice is giving way.

AT ONE INSTITUTE one minister was at every session encouraging and helpful, and the other minister enjoyed his wheel and cigar and remained away.

DAVISS COUNTY officers: Mrs. Laura Jackson, President, Washington; Mrs. Fannie Wright, Corresponding Secretary, Washington; Miss Lizzie Perkins, Recording Secretary, Montgomery; Mrs. Ella Feagans, Treasurer, Washington.

FRANKFORT—Willard Union reported at the County Convention twenty-seven paid up members and twenty-seven subscribers to the MESSAGE.

SOUTH BEND INSTITUTE—Two business men took part on the program, and a young lady lawyer had a most excellent paper on the legal phase of the Sunday question.

MICHIGAN CITY INSTITUTE—A public school teacher had a most excellent paper on "The Advantage of the Curfew." She took great pains to write to towns and cities that have the ordinance, and get outline information of its advantages.

OTTERBEIN received three new members at the last meeting. Benton County engages Miss Brehm for a week in September, being determined to have a doubled membership by next State Convention.

THE W. C. T. U. will have a day at Winona Park this year. Mrs. Louise S. Rounds, President of Illinois W. C. T. U., has been engaged for an address. We must do all we can to make the day a success. Urge our members to attend that day especially.

ACTON PARK management generously gives the W. C. T. U. several days on the program of the Assembly. The Loyal Temperance Legion is called to meet there in State Convention. Mrs. Trego, of Ohio, and others have been engaged. Let us loyally support our W. C. T. U. work at this place.

WABASH UNION has circulated petitions for enforcement of our anti-cigarette law and to forbid the sale of liquors in all government buildings. These were endorsed by four churches, four Missionary Societies, four Young People's Societies, one Odd Fellows' Lodge and other societies and organizations.

AN ICE CREAM SOCIAL was an enjoyable and profitable event for the Eaton Union.

SISTER EMMA W. MOORE, Press Superintendent of Kokomo Union, reports having 854 lines in the home papers from September until April 19. If all superintendents worked that way the people would soon be interested in the W. C. T. U. Their interest is according to their information.

DELAWARE COUNTY INSTITUTE will be held at Eaton, June 8 and 9. Mrs. Cammack will be present and remain one week in the county.

RECENTLY, when Mrs. M. O. Cammack was at LaPorte, Mrs. J. W. Ridgeway held a beautiful reception in her honor, over one hundred persons being present.

READ CAREFULLY Mrs. Tompkins' letter on Franchise found on the second page.

WABASH UNION is working for one hundred paid members before the State Convention. Will Indianapolis, Meridian, Greensburg and LaFayette Central be willing for Wabash to secure first place for membership?

FRANKFORT AND SOUTH BEND supply their editors with our papers, and the State Superintendent of Literature wishes every Union would do likewise.

Frankfort Willard Union voted to send the MESSAGE to all new members who paid dues by a certain time. Other Unions might try that plan with profit.

DAYTON gets a stirring up. Seeds planted for a Union. Mother's Club organized. A meeting in the interest of the children, and several addresses given in the interest of our cause by the ever busy County President, Mrs. Sarah D. Curtiss, of LaFayette.

A GRAND GOLD CONTEST will be held August 9, at the State Christian Endeavor meeting at Bethany Park, under the direction of Mrs. Balch.

MARENGO UNION OFFICERS—President, Mrs. Dr. Felger; Secretary, Miss Mary Mitchell; Treasurer, Mrs. Flavia Goldman.

SEDALIA UNION reports that Mrs. Evaline Sellers, Superintendent of the Sunday School department, has an honor roll to be placed in the Sunday School. One of the honoraries is Superintendent of this Sunday School, and will furnish a supply of the Young Crusader for his pupils. A social at the "Hall," a Mother's meeting at Mrs. Ella Sheppard's March 10, and a temperance sermon by the pastor of the M. E. Church.

WILLARD UNION, Frankfort, is six months old, began with seventeen, has twenty-seven paid up members now, takes twenty-seven copies of the MESSAGE and ten Union Signals; has raised $150 for the work. Every member is pledged to systematic giving.

BESURE and arrange to spend a week or two at Bay View, Michigan, in July. The climate is fine, scenery good, water from flowing wells is excellent. The pleasures of fishing, boating, etc., can be enjoyed at little expense.

VALPARAISO UNION rejoices over a curfew law. Every Union, where there is no such law, should agitate the subject until the citizens are aroused sufficiently to demand it.

LOOGOOTEE UNION reported $60 in the treasury and all bills paid. $45 of this is deposited in the bank to pay Mrs. Bullock and Miss Bullock for their work in September. Teachers' day this Union gave a reception in the opera house and entertained about one hundred teachers, all the Normal school, and the W. C. T. U. membership, making in all about two hundred. A short program on Scientific Temperance was much enjoyed. Literature was distributed.

AN L. T. L. of twenty members was organized March 29 at Frankfort by Mrs. Hattie Barricklow, President of the Willard Union. Mrs. Kathryn Parlman was made leader, with Mrs. Barricklow and Mrs. Anna Campbell assistants. Its meetings are held Tuesdays at the home of Mrs. Barricklow. New members have been received at nearly every meeting, until now there are about thirty-seven who belong. A friendly rivalry, started by the children themselves, arose between the boys' and girls' classes as to which should give the largest collections. This in nowise discouraged the Treasurer. This L. T. L. is the second organized in Frankfort.

CASS COUNTY—We are on the mountain top! Miss Downey came, saw and conquered. A very successful three-days' Christian Citizenship Institute was held in Logansport, April 17, 18 and 19, under the auspices of Cass County W. C. T. U.

On Sunday morning Miss Downey preached a powerful sermon in Broadway M. E. Church and in the afternoon conducted a Young People's Mass Meeting in the First Presbyterian Church, at which the topic, "Temperance and Christian Citizenship. Work for Young People's Church Societies," was ably discussed. In the evening the same large church was filled, and from the announcement of her theme to the close this earnest preacher of righteousness held her audience enraptured. Two ministers dismissed their congregations to attend.

The remainder of the sessions were held in Broadway M. E. Church. Monday and Tuesday afternoons a splendid program was carried out. "Legislative Achievements of the W. C. T. U." was given by Mrs. Stevenson and Dr. Lida Leisure, of Logansport, and Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Gould, of Royal Centre. Our L. T. L. worker, Mrs. Warne, of Logansport, showed her love for the children's work in her able paper on the "L. T. L.," and Mrs. Campbell, of Galveston, was fine in "The Problem of the Individual." All the papers and talks were very good. Rev. H. C. Neal, of Royal Centre, Revs. Semans and Coolbaugh gave addresses. Other ministers took part in the discussions. A good attendance, and Miss Downey to conduct and give practical talks, insured a great institute.

On Monday evening Miss Downey gave her famous lecture on "Ben Hadad." To give you an idea how well it was received, I will quote from a prominent minister's words to me: "It is the finest lecture I ever heard, and the people of Logansport owe the W. C. T. U. a debt of gratitude for bringing Miss Downey here."

On Tuesday night the closing lecture was received with the same interest and appreciation that greeted the "Apostle of Christian Citizenship" on former evenings. To those who have had the services of Miss Downey I have nothing to say, for they know the inspiration she is to a Union and a community. To those who have not, I want to say do not fail to secure her if possible.

Financially, we are ahead in the county and locals, too, the collections paying our expenses. Logansport Central and West Side Unions gained twenty-four members and eight honoraries. The W. C. T. U. is held in higher esteem, because our principles are better known. "The atmosphere is purer," as one said, and the influence of the faithful, earnest efforts of this noble woman, whom we love, will long be felt in Logansport.

ALICE G. GEARY.

MIAMI COUNTY held its Institute at Bunker Hill. Mrs. Ridgway, the County President, came with other delegates from Amboy and were met with a good delegation from Peru. The five ministers in attendance assisted ably in the discussions and gave a radical endorsement of the ballot for women and a no-license ballot for the rum traffic.

Much interest was manifested at the evening meeting which was addressed by Miss Hadley, Superintendent of Institutes. Excellent music was furnished by the Bunker Hill Quartette. Six new members were added. One had been added during the day session, making seven accessions, with about as many subscriptions to the MESSAGE, which subscription list was expected to develop into a club of twelve.

The time did not admit of a full discussion of all the subjects on program, which were so well presented by those to whom they were assigned. We hope that a two days' session may be the order for next year.

THE BRITISH WOMEN have again chosen Lady Henry Somerset as their National President by a large vote. Out of 603 votes cast for President, 530 were for Lady Henry who, in a most beautiful speech, gave herself once more to the work for which she has done so much in the past.

WABASH COUNTY—President Mrs. Kidd writes: "We have held our Institute. Miss Mary Hadley leader. We were greatly pleased with her work. The program as published in the MESSAGE was carried out. There were additions of both regular and honorary members; also subscriptions to our papers. Wabash County is awake and intends to earn a week's work by State Organizer."

by Power,
But by My Spirit"

INDIANAPOLIS, JULY, 1898.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION, 35c. PER YEAR

Next National Convention will be held at St. Paul, Minnesota, Nov. 11-16.

Indiana State Convention will be held at LaFayette, Oct. 7-11.

W. C. T. U. Days at Acton, August 3, 4 and 5.

Bay View Institute, July 21 to 30.

HO! FOR ACTON, AUGUST 3.

Graduates' motto for '98: "No Compromise with Sin."

RALLYING CRY.
Rah! Rah! Rah!!
We clover blossoms are a-field.
Why? Saloons must die!
Hear their knell.
Indiana L. T. L.

Every county and local leader and every graduate ought to be present at this fourth annual convention of the Loyal Temperance Legion of Indiana. This will be a good opportunity to distinguish ourselves, and make the public feel that we are banded against sin and that we mean to conquer. Let us sacrifice for this one thing, and come together prayerfully and thoughtfully and work earnestly for the advancing of God's kingdom. Where can you find a better field?

Mrs. Blair has organized new Legions at Odell, Bourbon and Kentland. May God's blessing rest upon these and much good result therefrom.

The following is the program for the State Convention, as near as it can be given at present:

Meeting of the executive, 10 A. M. The afternoon will be for the public and will consist of papers, recitations and songs, and class exercises by graduates of '98. The evening session will be filled by short addresses from the State W. C. T. U. officers and the L. T. L. President's address.

There is no reason why this convention should not be the best of all. Remember every county and local leader and the State officers are members of the executive and should be present at the first meeting.

While our nation is engaged in a war for humanity in one of its phases, let us who are in the war against alcohol, the destroyer of both soul and body, be not slothful but fervent in spirit. The saloons are not closing.

Dear local leaders, please be prompt to notify me of your graduates. Have your classes ready by Aug. 3, and try to have them all attend the meeting at Acton and arrange to be there yourself. This year's convention must exceed any previous one in both numbers and interest. Please aid me all you can.

Miss Jessie Ackerman, in a letter to the Young Crusader, suggests an L. T. L. week in which to work for new members, each member to try to get one. Miss Wintringer, editor of the Young Crusader, suggests the week in which Anna Gordon's birthday occurs, and as we celebrate that day (July 21) as picnic day, it will just be the time for Indiana. Shall we have a good report this fall? Please let me hear immediately the possible number of graduates.

Lovingly and faithfully,
AMANDA R. GORDON.

BAY VIEW W. C. T. U. INSTITUTE.

The W. C. T. U. Institute is one of Bay View's most thoroughly directed departments. It is out of ruts, alive and awake to to-day's needs. Mrs. Louise S. Rounds, President of the Illinois Union, and a practical leader for practical temperance workers, has for five years conducted the institute. W. C. T. U. workers say there is nothing in this country its equal. Its sessions occupy July 21 to 30, inclusive, and there will participate some of the best workers from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan. Mrs. Rounds always has the best.

Miss Mary Hadley, Bloomingdale, is on the Bay View program, also our State President is called a third time, having been on the program last year. The following are her subjects: "The Hidden Path of Alcohol Revealed" (illustrated by charts), "How Indiana Secured an Anti-Cigarette Law," "The Economics of the Liquor Traffic."

Mrs. Whitson, our Treasurer, and other Indiana women will be in attendance. Tourist tickets on sale over all railroads.

A CONFERENCE WITH THE WORKERS.

GETTING ACQUAINTED.

Unions in the extreme north part of the State are not acquainted with those in the south part. It would be profitable to become acquainted by letter writing; better still, get to know each other in a way by having your Unions and counties represented in the councils of the State. In view of this, have every Union in the State plan to send its full quota of delegates and every county its President to our annual meeting.

Teach the children. The good book says, "teach a child the way he should go." It does not say scold, compel or nag—teach. Mothers better copy after the great Teacher.

Why did you become a soldier, Baron Tilling? "Ah, there you show how you have read my heart. But it was not I, not Frederick Tilling, now thirty-nine years old—the man who has seen three campaigns—who chose the profession. It was the ten or twelve years old Fritz, whose babyhood was spent among wooden cavalry and leaden soldiers. I was the boy whose father, a general, decorated with many orders, and whose uncle, a lady-killer of a lieutenant, were always asking, 'Youngster, what are you going to be?' Of course the boy always answered, 'a real soldier, with a real sabre and a live horse.'"

It will not do for our town. One failure is all many workers can stand. A second failure brings them where the devil can hold them captive. They say "you can't do it" to any and all propositions. "It will not do for our town." The cheerful, brave "I will try," will put many difficulties to rout and insure success.

Mrs. Allie Anderson reports a Y for Star City and the Union revived, while she finds nothing at Winnamac to encourage us. One loyal soul pays her dues until such time as they can have a Union.

The ones and twos. Scripture says, "one shall chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight." If our scattered ones and twos could have this spirit, we could smile complacently where the world can see only defeat for us. Some of our ones and twos do have this power.

There is one way to have every paid member know just what is being done and the part allotted to them, and that is for each one to take the MESSAGE. Each paid member brings 30 cents into the local treasury. If the Union will use 25 cents of that for the MESSAGE for the women, the question is solved. What will the Local Union do to get its money? Well, 25 cents is a very small sum, but a woman genuinely in earnest about our cause, as she will be when she is read up, will put the Union in a way to get all the money necessary.

Honorary membership is very much neglected. We think it possible for almost every woman to bring her husband to occupy this place of distinction and helpfulness. We urge special effort in this direction.

Quarterly blanks. It is past the time for this quarter and past the time for beginning now with a view to winning the prize for the best reports. Secretaries who use a lead pencil know of a surety they will stand no chance, and over any portion of the blank to write "the same as last quarter" can not count for completeness, and the essentials in winning the prize are neatness, completeness and promptness.

W. T. P. A. agents. We do so aspire to have Indiana the one State whose every Union has its W. T. P. A. agent. Why? It would be one strong element of success. We make success. Dear co-workers, let me repeat it—we make success.

New officers. We think many Unions have new officers. It would be a small matter to instruct the Secretary to write the full names of your officers on a postal card and address the card to the State Secretary, 711 E. 11th street, Indianapolis. Will you do it?

We shall never appreciate our membership in the White Ribbon army until we consider what it means to be a unit in the Local, County, State, National and World's Union.

A word of great moment to each Local Union: If you want to be reported in the next Union Signal, send me soon a postal card item. Address State Reporter, 711 E. 11th street, Indianapolis.

Pictures in the State Minutes. Many words of approval have come for putting them in this year. Whose picture shall go in next year? Have you some noted worker in your Union you would like to have thus honored? Let us hear from you if you are willing to meet the expense.

A model Union has annual programs well advertised for its regular meetings; holds the Quarterly Department Meeting; requires written reports from each local department each quarter; has a Y Branch and an L. T. L.; every member takes the MESSAGE, and reads it, as well as the Union Signal; uses the local record book, W. C. T. U. forms for orders and receipts; has a large honorary membership roll; members pledged to systematic giving, and get their money in that way and not by doubtful methods. Believes in and uses the power of the platform, having an occasional State and National speaker; a live medal worker, who takes an admission fee at each contest, and educates the people in general that it is their duty to help in the support of this reform. One whose rule on conduct is gleaned from the thirteenth chapter of 1st Corinthians.

We each one of us want to be of use in our Father's vineyard. We pray for some little place and part, and would be deeply grieved to be told He had no use for us at all. Dear sister, God can't use a discouraged worker. He may want to, but they can not be of any use. They hinder others. The Word says, "Be of good courage."

Mrs. Blair is to visit our State again next fall, and Unions should write early for dates. Miss Belle Kearney, of Mississippi, is desirous of a route for September, and that is the month Mrs. Bullock and her daughter will be with us. If any county wants these renowned workers, better speak in time, and be sure and do not change your minds after saying you want them, because it's almost as serious as when lovers break their plighted troth. What has been done can be done again. Some Unions find a way to have these speakers, pay them and have some money left in their treasury.

Are you a member of an Assembly Union? If so, can't you seek out another, a comrade and so help swell the roll, and pay your dues in advance? The Program Committee will feel so much more hopeful if these memberships are coming in. Read the Constitution about summer assemblies in the Annual Minutes and you will better understand the situation. You will find it in the Secretary's Report. We got no program from Winona; have been looking for it for some time.

SELF-INSPECTION.

These warm days may shut some of us in, but we will have the more time to think out what manner of temperance and prohibition workers we are. God depends on us; we can't furnish a substitute, and we can't deceive anyone or fool anyone. We need to be wise, strong and true. If the stamp is imperfect or blurred, so will be the impression. Many of us make poor impressions.

The Mary F. Thomas and the Frances E. Willard W. C. T. U. observed Union Memorial Services at Rhoda Temple yesterday (Sunday) at 3:30 P. M., in honor of the life and work of Miss Lodie Reed. The Temple was decorated for the occasion. Miss Mattie Hodgkin and Miss Ruby Davis conducted the music. Mrs. Ellen Davis, President of the Frances E. Willard Union, presided. Mrs. Libbie Candler read the 91st Psalm, and Mrs. Lydia Manly offered prayer. The chairman offered some appropriate remarks as an introduction to what was to follow. Miss Mary Dennis was the first speaker. She gave an excellent address, speaking of Miss Reed as being a dear friend of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Dennis, who for so many years was known as a W. C. T. U. worker. She spoke of her personal knowledge of the beautiful and highly valuable character and work done by Miss Reed.

Mrs. Caroline C. Hodgkin was the next speaker. She gave a history of the work done by Miss Reed in securing the Scientific Instruction Law for Indiana, and her work as a writer and editor.

Dr. Rachel Baily Hill, a resident of Richmond, but a member of the Spiceland W. C. T. U. Union, spoke of some of the work done by Miss Reed for the uplifting of humanity and read a select poem.

Rev. Ella Davis, President of the Mary F. Thomas W. C. T. U., spoke next and gave an account of the manner and magnetism of Miss Reed in pushing her plans of work in a modest, quiet way in convention; generally successful, because of her way of bringing about such measures as she desired to accomplish.

Several persons gave short talks, and all felt it was well to honor and speak in praise of the work done by one of our number, who has passed from labor to reward. After a song, Rev. Daniel Hill pronounced the benediction.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

TEACHERS INSTITUTES

Will be held in every county during the summer. At each of these there should be a competent instructor to speak on Scientific Temperance, who should suggest helpful books of reference for the teachers. Our Unions should urge the County Superintendents of Public Schools to employ such an instructor. The taxpayers have a great interest in the schools and will, in many places, desire to have such instruction given to the teachers.

LETTER FROM STATE ORGANIZER.

The last "school of methods," no institute has been held. I think I like the old name best—"school of methods"—for the institute is to the W. C. T. U. woman what the teachers' institute is to the public school teacher—a place to learn how to do our chosen work; a short school, where with note-book and pencil we may catch the many excellent, helpful suggestions that fill the meeting during the two days' session. Our women are learning to "each one teach her neighbor," as has been intended from the beginning. After our trip across the southern part of the State, as related by Mrs. Balch, I had a week at home and then attended the Delaware County Institute. Most excellent arrangement had been made by Mrs. Lydia Carmichael, the very competent County President. All whose names were placed upon the program were not present, but our women are learning to be minute women, so the program was well carried out. Revs. Harvey and Davis, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, were present and gave excellent help each day. Eight young men made up the choir for the evening meetings, and the singing was worthy of the excellent attention it received.

Think of it! One father has four sons, members of the choir, and all Prohibitionists, too.

After the Institute, two days were spent at Eaton and two at Muncie, where meetings were held with the Unions and a few new members secured. Women grow heavy-hearted sometimes when their work is not appreciated and no visible results appear. Nevertheless, it is our duty to sow; God will take care of the results.

Decatur County arranged for a one-day meeting at Westport, and the result was a Union of fifteen members organized. The following day we held a meeting with the women at Clarksburg, in the afternoon, and spoke to a full house at night.

John R. Lamb, of Good View, arranged for a two days' meeting at Cedar, Randolph County. Mrs. Whitson, on her way to visit her sister at Carlos, in the same county, stopped over at Modoc, and we were just ready to get into the carriage for Cedar, so she went with us and found many old acquaintances and worked diligently for membership, and was largely instrumental in organizing the promising Union at Cedar of twenty-eight regular members and six honoraries. Dinner in the grove each day and the social features were very enjoyable. If we had more men like Brother Lamb, our work would prosper at a much greater rate. Mr. Lamb says he has learned that it takes time, effort and money to make things move. Every farmer knows that without seed sowing, no crop. It is also true of our work.

On the way to New Pittsburg, passing through Winchester, I remembered the new Friends' Church, and having about four hours to wait, spent the time calling on members and visiting the new church, in company with Mrs. Ward, sister to Caroline Edgerton, who graciously showed me around and gave me a most bountiful dinner.

Mrs. Alice Shook, of New Pittsburg, is the moving spirit of that place. She is the mother of Mrs. Lydia Green, wife of Rev. G. W. Green, pastor of the M. E. Church at Galveston. Perhaps Lydia received the vision first and then carried the burden for her own household, and by prayer and work she is now gratified by knowing her mother, three sisters and a brother are all members of the Union, and the father will be by and by. She sends her mother the MESSAGE and her sister the Physiology Journal, and they have done their work.

A meeting was held with the women on Tuesday and a Union effected with nineteen regular members and two honoraries. At the evening meetings the house was filled to the utmost. We are grateful that there are yet congregations that are not gospel-hardened.

After spending two days in the city with the general officers, I reached Marion on the evening of the 24th of June, with the blessed thought, "home for a month," but before I could get indoors a card was handed me from our County President, Mrs. Wilson, saying: "Come to the picnic at Back Creek, the 25th, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, who are going to leave our county." So away to the picnic I go.

MATTIE O. CAMMACK.

ANTI-NARCOTIC DEPARTMENT.

The tobacco manufacturers are resorting to every device to attract the young. Not content with the harm being done by the cigarette, they now make a chewing gum containing tobacco. This is called "gum-bacco," and is being sold and given away to children. Desiring to ascertain exactly what this gum contains, I wrote to the city chemist of Chicago for his analysis and reproduce his letter, which is as follows:

"We procured and analyzed several packages of gum-bacco, and find that it contains ordinary chewing gum containing fine-cut chewing tobacco. Nicotine, the active principle of tobacco, is a virulent poison, and produces evil effects in those who use tobacco in any great amount. On account of their susceptibility, tobacco affects the child quicker than the adult. The effect of gum-bacco on the user undoubtedly would be to cultivate a taste for tobacco, consequently the sale to children, in the interest of their health, should be rigidly prohibited, as is in most intelligent communities, the sale of cigarettes to the young.

(Signed) W. S. MAHARY."

Please do not stop working upon the petitions for the Terry bill pending in Congress. The bill is in the hands of a subcommittee, of which Mr. Ray, of New York, is chairman. He is holding the bill. Why he does not pass it is one of the conundrums of congressional affairs. People all over the United States are watching him, particularly his New York constituency, from whom he received five hundred letters in one week. We must work for this bill until every member of Congress is pledged to support it; and there is no legitimate reason why they should not make this pledge, as the bill is only an interstate commerce law, and would not do away with one cigarette, but would make it possible for States to forbid the importation.

MRS. E. B. INGALLS.

Superintendent Department Anti-Narcotics, Nat. W. C. T. U., St. Louis, Mo.

We need to be fully awake to the significance of the recent examinations for military service. The number of rejections of men by the examining board owing to heart weakness and impairment of the blood circulation is three times more than it was in '61, and the bulk of them are young men who have indulged in cigarette smoking. Upon us rests the responsibility of teaching people the evil effects of narcotics.

The use of cocaine is on the increase among the colored people.

There has recently been put on the market a new chewing gum, made from gum and tobacco. It is called gum-bacco and is put up in attractive looking packages, the outer cover being in purple and bears the warning, "do not swallow the saliva." This is being sold and given in samples to the children. Let us be on the lookout for its appearance.

The Terry Bill is yet pending. Will all Unions that have not sent petitions write me at once for them? Let me hear from you often; your successes or discouragements, if you have any. Mrs. McWhirter writes me that she considers this a very important department. Let us work faithfully to enforce existing law. Circulate literature, remembering we can not legislate ahead of public opinion.

Steuben County has just been organized, with Mrs. Jane Drenning County Superintendent. May the time soon come when each county in the State will be ready for aggressive work.

Very truly,

MRS. PAULINE PITTENGER,

Anderson, Ind.

State Supt. of Anti-Narcotics.

Y. W. C. T. U. NOTES.

The work has been on the steady increase ever since the mid-year executive held in Anderson in March. Still keep before you, dear friends, the 500 Y's for Indiana by October 1, 1898.

Francisville has a splendid Y Union, organized by Mrs. Allie Anderson, with sixteen paid members. It was the privilege of the State Y Secretary to visit the Union, and as the result of this effort six new members were added.

Elwood has a splendid Y of eighteen paid members, organized March 22d by State Y Secretary, and is growing in interest and numbers all the time. Also Pendleton has a Y, but no dues paid yet. Terre Haute reports three paid Ys doing fine work. Martinsville, 9 paid members; Anderson, 24; Goshen Y, 63 paid members; Central Union, Indianapolis, 2. The reports have not come in from Shelbyville, five branches in Benton county, Vincennes, Mt. Vernon, nor the new colored Y Union of Indianapolis. To the new Unions I will urge you to do all in your power to pay your dues by Sept. 15, so that you will belong to the State and county work.

How many Y Almanacs for '99 shall I order for Indiana? Mrs. Barnes must be notified by Aug. 1. Price, 25 cents per book. Drop me a card at once.

How many Ys and Y Unions will be represented at Acton camp-ground Aug. 3, Y evening for the contest? Come, it will do you good. The L. T. Ls will share our evening program. Let us link the work together and pray for a blessing.

Let each paid Y in the State get one new member to pay before the 15th of September. Who will be first to respond? Who will help on the 500?

Miss Olive Peele has been made an organizer for the Y. W. C. T. U. work of our State. Either send for her or the State Y Secretary and let us help you on. Pray each noon for Y work, speak to every person on the temperance question, and invite them to join the Y ranks and God will bless every effort.

Lovingly and prayerfully,

CLARA M. SEARS.

State Y Secretary and Organizer, 106 W. 14th street, Anderson.

COMMUNICATIONS.

A few words of cheer for all are here presented. The Anderson W. C. T. U. reports through Mrs. S. B. Hefler, County Superintendent of Mothers' Meetings, Mrs. Manning Local Superintendent, six meetings. These are held monthly.

In November, Mrs. Meredith, of this city, a minister of the Friends' Church, gave them an address. Mrs. Luella F. McWhirter, State President, gave them an address in December. Social Purity books are circulated and literature distributed. In March, the day after the Mid Year Executive Meeting, the Mothers' Meeting was addressed by State Superintendent Mothers' Meetings, Mrs. E. H. Howe. Mrs. Rounds, State President of Illinois, also gave an address. This meeting gave us quite an uplift in many ways.

We select a subject for discussion at each meeting, having our programs made out six months in advance. We now intend to have an attendant to care for the little ones who can not be left at home, so that their mothers can bring them and attend the meetings.

Galveston W. C. T. U. held a Mothers' Meeting the 4th inst. under the local leadership of Mrs. Lydia C. Green.

Mrs. Jennie Hiatt, of Amboy, writes: "I think I need not tell you that I will not be at the institute when I tell you that I have had rheumatic fever; am unable to walk, except on crutches; can only sit up part of the time, yet I have held a Mothers' Meeting. The sisters came to my home."

From Bloomington, Mary E. Dodds reports a Mothers' Meeting held for the colored people in their own church.

Mrs. Ida Parks, County Superintendent, reports one meeting held at Martinsville. Papers were read, followed by discussions, also program of singing, recitations, etc.

From North Manchester, Nellie Baker reports a Mothers' Meeting where four new members were added to the Union. "I got most of my helps from the New Crusade. Mothers say they learn truths they never heard of before."

Mrs. Lida Outland, of Sycamore, reports Mothers' Meetings. "All the Unions in our county have Local Superintendents of Mothers' Meetings."

Mrs. S. C. Kilmer reports from Frankfort: "Have been holding Mothers' Meetings for the past three years, not as often as I would like, but try to have one each month. We give out literature and we use the New Crusade. Two meetings are appointed for March. Miss Annie Downey is with us, holding revival meetings. She is helping us; pleads with the mothers to teach their children."

Mrs. Charlotte Harper, County Superintendent Mothers' Meetings, Sims, Howard County, writes: "We have held seven Mothers' Meetings, one bible reading on that line and one sermon; 615 pages of literature relating to our work distributed."

It is to be hoped that all will note the addition to this report, "and one sermon," and see if this heaven-ordained work can not more often be presented from the pulpit.

Mrs. Mary McClaine reports from New Albany: "We hold Mothers' Meetings monthly. We have regular prepared programs for each meeting, with topics for discussion. We meet at private houses. We use leaflets for Social Purity and Mothers' Meetings, also the New Crusade. It is our aim to teach the young mothers."

Some of these reports are from Local Superintendents, from whom I gladly hear. If I find an address for this department, I write to them and so find the place where the work is growing. God bless the work and all the workers. In the interest of this department have visited Albany; held one evening meeting and one Parlor Meeting in that place. Visited the Local Superintendent of this branch in Muncie. In many places the Union needs reviving. Branch or department work can not thrive while the Union languishes. I have held Mothers' Meetings in Millgrove, Hartford City and Montpelier.

MRS. E. HARRIET HOWE.

Montpelier, Ind.

PATIENCE, PUSH, PERSISTENCE.

These words have as much in them for a reformer as grace, grit and gumption. I am not sure, as I scan them, but they mean about the same thing. Grace certainly covers the virtue of patience; no one will push much unless they have grit, and the reformer who has no persistence certainly has little gumption. If we can fix the words where they will avail us, the object of this writing will have been accomplished. The war is long, the enemy cruel, the way rough. We need to continually encourage ourselves and bestir each other to renewed effort.

REPORT OF HENDRICKS COUNTY ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE W. C. T. U.

The Hendricks County W. C. T. U. met in annual convention in Amo, June 2, 1898, and was opened by the President, Mattie H. Chandler, who read a Scripture lesson and led in prayer. All but one of the six Unions were represented, and the reports showed a slight decrease in members and interest in some, while others are alive and at work. Reports from Superintendents of the different departments showed that they had given some attention to their work.

The same officers were re-elected, as follows: President, Mattie H. Chandler; Recording Secretary, Effie Robbins; Corresponding Secretary, Amanda Hunt; Treasurer, Minnie Hunt. Two new departments of work were added to the eight already had, viz., Soldiers and Sailors and Railroad. After a song by a group of little girls from the Industrial School at Hadley, the convention adjourned to a shady lawn near the church to partake of the basket dinner, which by previous agreement the ladies had taken with them.

The devotional exercises, at the opening of the afternoon session, were conducted by Rhoda McClain, of Avon Union. The literary program consisted of recitations by two little girls from Industrial School, and by a little girl from Amo, and of papers on "Sabbath Observance," "Organizations of Women," "Narcotics," and "What Aggressive Work Should Hendricks County W. C. T. U. do Against Her Saloons?" interspersed with songs by girls from the School and others. After an interesting talk by the Matron of the School, the convention adjourned.

The evening meeting was addressed by the State President, Mrs. McWhirter. Mrs. Cammack will spend a week in the county soon.

AMANDA E. HUNT,
Secretary.

Hope, Ind.

For the encouragement of weak, struggling Unions, I feel that I should tell something about our Union. We once had about twenty members, but one died, some lost interest, some for one cause and some another quit work, until last fall at the time of the election of officers we had but six members, some of which were not paid up. We discussed the question of disbanding, but could not conclude to do that, so we elected officers and decided to struggle on awhile longer. Since then we have held two Mothers' Meetings at which we have had interesting programs, after which refreshments were served. For these meetings we have sent out written invitations to Christian women who were not members of the Union. We have also talked to our friends and urged them to consider the matter and pray over it and then decide whether it is their duty to join the W. C. T. U. or not. In these ways we have gained seven new members and one from another Union, making in all fourteen members. We held a strawberry and ice cream festival and also observed Flower Mission Day by sending out about sixty bouquets, containing text cards tied with white ribbon bow, to the sick, bereaved and shut-ins of our town. We are now collecting literature to send to the army. Our Union also keeps a bracket in the depot supplied with literature and distributes the same wherever we see it will do good, and does a great deal of Flower Mission work the year round.

Our new members are enthusiastic and active workers, and while there is much opposition to the W. C. T. U. here, yet we expect to go steadily on, for we believe that one "walketh beside us whose form is like the Son of Man, and He leadeth us beside the still waters."

Yours in His name,
JENNIE GUFFY,
President.

THE DECATUR COUNTY INSTITUTE was held at Westport, Tuesday, June 14. Mrs. M. O. Cammack had charge of the meeting, assisted by county officers. A Union of fourteen members was organized and started out in a very encouraging manner. The visiting members were royally entertained by the ladies of Westport during their visit there.

MRS. ADDIE L. SKEEN,
Recording Secretary.

CARROLL COUNTY W. C. T. U. INSTITUTE was held in the Presbyterian Church at Delphi, March 17, 1898. Miss Hadley was with us and made both sessions very interesting and instructive. Many new features of the work were brought out and made clear. Several subscriptions were taken for the MESSAGE and one more for the Union Signal. Miss Hadley's lecture in the evening was enjoyed by a very attentive audience.

L. E. EVERSOLE,
Corresponding Secretary.

PERU UNION—We observed Flower Mission Day. Made about forty-five bouquets. Took twenty to the Wabash Railroad Hospital. The invalids were very much pleased. We were kindly welcomed and will go again. The rest of the bouquets were distributed among the sick and sorrowful. We used thirteen yards of white ribbon to tie cards to the bouquets. Though we are young we are doing the best we can. We ask the prayers of all Indiana White Ribboners.

MRS. ANNA KILMER,
President.

THE LADIES of the Bluffton W. C. T. U. observed Flower Mission Day by sending out 118 bouquets to sick and shut-ins. Previous to starting on the rounds of the city a short religious service was held, and the Recording Secretary also read a copy of a letter of greeting and thanks which she had written to Col. G.

W. Gunder, of the 160th Regiment Indiana Volunteers for not permitting the establishment of drinking booths in his regiment. The observance of Flower Mission has done more towards winning hearts to our cause than any other department of the white ribbon work. Perhaps it is because it is more energetically carried forward.

The Bluffton Union is gaining in numbers, adding a new name at almost every meeting. Our President is heart and soul in the work, and she does a vast amount of benevolent and slum work.

The souvenir papers are read at every meeting, and we also have select readings, recitations, solos and remarks for the good of the cause. All of our invited guests pronounce themselves well pleased and express astonishment, when the reports of the departments are read, at the vast amount of work which we are carrying forward in our quiet way.

On June 22d we visited the County Infirmary and held religious services with the inmates. We expect to visit the Orphans' Home in the near future. This is in its infancy, but it is a clean, well-conducted place, and the inmates appear perfectly happy and contented.

MRS. D. T. SMITH,
Recording Secretary Bluffton W. C. T. U.

THE W. C. T. U. AT BAY VIEW ASSEMBLY.

The fact that Bay View, in Northern Michigan, and on Lake Michigan, is the largest summer watering place and summer educational center in the West, and is visited by more than 15,000 people from all parts of the country every year, makes it a most important point for the W. C. T. U. to be represented. At that point has been maintained, for many years, one of the best directed and most helpful institutes in this country. It is thoroughly national, and White Ribboners say there is nothing in this country like it. Mrs. L. S. Rounds, President of the Illinois Union, and a practical leader for practical temperance workers, has long been at the head. Among the Indiana women who will participate in its ten days' program, beginning July 21, will be Mrs. Luella McWhirter, Miss Mary Hadley, Mrs. Anna O. Eldredge and others. Two days in the great Assembly program our work is made especially prominent.

On the institute's anniversary, July 22, Mrs. Leonora Lake, the eloquent Vice-President of the National Catholic Union, gives the principal address. Sunday, July 24, a Frances E. Willard Memorial Service of unusual interest is to occur. Seven concise addresses are to be given on Miss Willard as "The Teacher," "The Lecturer," "The Philanthropist," "The Organizer," "The Church Member," "The Woman," "The Best Gift to American Life."

The Summer University here embraces seven thoroughly organized and equipped schools, with forty picked instructors, and had last year over 900 students from twenty States. It opens on July 13. A week later the great Assembly opens, and among the stars will be Maude Ballington Booth, Gen. O. O. Howard, William Jennings Bryan and a long list of celebrities.

Low priced summer tourist tickets are everywhere on sale to Bay View at one-third less than the regular rate. When you can not buy to Bay View, call for Petoskey tickets—they are all the same, as the places touch.

Bay View is one of the most beautiful places in all the world, and its rich privileges make it a delightful place to go. It is a place of moderate expenses. Full information about the place, the season expenses, etc., are in the Bay View Magazine for June. It will be sent by dropping a card to J. W. Hall, Bay View, Mich.

Again I would remind the President of every Local Union in Marion County to appoint a Legislative Committee (if they have not already done so) at their next regular meeting, and commence at once to circulate the suffrage petition, as given by our State Superintendent of Franchise in the April and June numbers of the MESSAGE. Dear sisters, this is work we all can do. How thankful we should be for the opportunity. Let us spare no time or labor, but work unceasingly for the enfranchisement of the women of the State of Indiana.

Yours for earnest work,
ADA B. LECK,
President Marion County.

P. S.—Mrs. Moorman, President West Indianapolis Union, rejoices in the arrival of a little White Ribbon daughter.

W. C. T. U. DAYS at Acton, Aug. 3, 4 and 5. August 3, L. T. L. and Y day, in charge of the secretaries of these branches. The morning opens with a memorial service for Miss Willard, in charge of our State President. At 2 p. m. the Grand March of the children, and a hearty invitation is extended to the children everywhere to join in this march. Cheap rates on the cars. Admission free into the grounds for all under 15 years for this day. It is suggested that our L. T. L. delegates lend a hand and bring a box lunch. Dress comfortably for a day's outing and not cumber yourselves with too much baggage. Children, come, bringing your flags and banners, and swell your protest against licensed rum and long until all Indiana wakes up from its wicked indifference and stops its complicity in this God-condemned traffic. August 4 and 5, the program will have a wealth of thought and oratory to offer the public and compel recognition. Our State officers, Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, Elkhart; Mrs. Ada New, Greenfield; Mrs. Ella B. Wright, Greensburg, and many others State workers will be in attendance. The evening address will be given by Mrs. R. J. Trego, of Ohio, a woman of national place and fame. The W. C. T. U. Symposium and the debate on "Woman's Ballot" will have more than passing interest and weight. The W. C. T. U. sisters who wish to economize can have a place to spread a cot, if they bring their pillows and blankets. The full program will be out July 1, and will be sent to all having places on the program and to others. Anyone wishing a copy and not receiving it, address the State Secretary and she will see that they get one. Good hotel accommodations on the grounds.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE.

RED LETTER DAYS.

All have their due weight of importance, but Indiana, at the present time, has most at stake on August 6, Literature and Franchise Day. We have the life of Mother Wallace to remind us of the good fight she made for human rights and our duty to do likewise. Every Union in the State should plan to celebrate this day in some novel way. Begin now to think it out. Advertise and so insure success. Our August MESSAGE will surely take on that color and be considered our Suffrage Number. Unions could have extra copies for distribution by ordering in time. A Suffrage Contest by elderly persons—silver greys or matrons—is the very thing. Serve cake and cream at the close, and be sure to have the petitions where the visitors can sign. Call your occasion the Mother Wallace Contest. Allow the women to read an article, write a paper or give a recitation, and in that case have audience vote by ballot on weight of argument, and use judges when the class all give recitations. Provide Mother Wallace souvenirs. Head your memoranda with "Petition Work and Mother Wallace Day," August 6.

COUNTY CONVENTIONS.

I have learned that to be on time one must begin on time. The annual County Convention, when the officers are elected and the annual reports made, should come in time to get reports to the State in time for it to report to the National. Then we must consider dates—State Convention, October 7 to 11. The books close two weeks before that, which means every county should hold its annual County Convention before September 15. From August 15 to September 15 should be convention month. If you want a State worker, call in time or you may be delayed in getting the one you want. Make your plans early, and let no organized county fail in this constitutional requirement. County and Local Executive Committees should begin at once to look up the records and see if they are falling behind or advancing. By looking over the Treasurer's report you will see just how many you paid dues for last year. Then, by consulting your local record book you will see how many have been sent in for the three-quarters of the year. Only one remains; the years go so fast. You will see at once what must be done to have a good record this fourth quarter, and you need to begin now, vigilant and watchful.

NO CANTEENS AT CAMP ALGER.

Extracts from an article in the Voice.

"Camp Alger, near Falls Church, Va., June 11. (Staff Correspondence to the Voice.)—For about a month from 22,000 to 24,000 volunteer troops have been encamped on these hills without a canteen. While the news from the southern canteen camps teem with accounts of drunken brawls and occasional murders, Camp Alger is on prohibition territory, under the Virginia local option law. The Good Templars are strong here and jealously watch its enforcement." This article in the Voice gives facts in connection with the camp before the canteen was prohibited and after. Prohibition is necessary not only to save the life of the soldier, but the life and honor of the nation as well.

Read the papers with a view to writing letters to the various canteen camps protesting in as strong language as you can against this guilty complicity in our country's peril. If this nation will allow canteens in camp and will not use prohibition with her soldiers, mothers better meet and refuse to allow their sons to go to their country's call. If a country cannot save her defenders from unnecessary death and danger, she does not deserve defenders. Agitate on this line, for the occasion is at every door. Let us have prohibition for our soldier boys. Make Uncle Sam understand it is the demand of the mothers. On good authority, at some camps men drink beer until stupidly or fighting drunk, as the temperament may be.

CHAIRMEN OF LOCAL COMMITTEES

For our annual convention at LaFayette: Railroad, Mrs. Ray L. Stinespring, West Side; Entertainment, Mrs. J. B. Lucese, 118 North 8th street; Reception, Mrs. Addie Borum, Odell; Sunday Services, Mrs. Sarah D. Curtiss, 240 South Grant street; Press and Music, Mrs. J. I. Kinsey, Corner Union and 20th streets; Finance, Mrs. Alta E. W. Latta; Ushers and Pages, Mrs. Wm. Levering, Corner 8th and Union streets; Bus Lines, Mrs. J. B. Lucese, 118 North 8th street; Decoration, Miss May Turpie, North 21st street; Courtesies, Mrs. Sarah M. Stevens, West Side.

Dear co-workers, having met with the County Executive Committee Wednesday morning, June 29, I must say to you, your sisters at LaFayette are planning a splendid convention for you. If the convention is lacking in anything, it will be on our part—not theirs.

STANDING COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS—You will find it on page 10 of the Minutes. Commit your resolutions to its chairman.

FIELD NOTES.

Mrs. LUELLA F. McWHIRTER, the State President, has been invited to act as a patroness at a reception to be tendered to Mr. and Mrs. John G. Woolley, on their 25th wedding anniversary, at Prohibition Park, Staten Island, on July 4th.

COATSVILLE UNION is encouraged and will do good work.

WEST INDIANAPOLIS Union went to the County Poor Farm on Flower Mission Day, and gladdened the hearts of many with their words of cheer and their offerings.

MAPLETON UNION visited the German Orphans' Home on Flower Mission Day.

DEARBORN COUNTY President is planning broadly for the work there.

WHAT is your Union doing toward educating the young in temperance and fitting them for future work? How many High School graduates this year in your community are members of the Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union? Where are we to get our reinforcements? Consider well these questions.

AT NO PREVIOUS time in the history of the Indiana Unions has there been so large a subscription list to the Union Signal. This, no doubt, accounts for our increased strength.

THE MESSAGE—Every member of a Union should read the MESSAGE. Without the information it contains our Unions cannot know the plans and purposes of the State workers. If your Union is not doing aggressive work, if the members are somewhat indifferent, it is because they do not read the Union Signal and the MESSAGE. A Christian woman who faithfully reads these papers will be interested in the work of her Union, the State, the National and the World's Unions.

EVERY LOYAL TEMPERANCE LEGION should send as many of its members as possible to Acton in August. The Unions should co-operate in helping to make arrangements for the L. T. Ls to go.

AN ANTI-RUM CONGRESS will be held at Prohibition Park, Staten Island, July 3-6.

THE MANAGEMENT at Acton Park has been very generous and kind to us. This year we were offered as much time on the Assembly program as we could use. Now let every White Ribboner who lives within fifty miles of Acton arrange, if possible, to attend on the W. C. T. U. days. Those who live within driving distance get privileges to go in with buggies and carriages. Take the girls and boys and the young people.

THE PRESIDENTS of Unions in the northern part of the State will no doubt urge their members to attend Bay View W. C. T. U. Institute, July 21-30. Those who attend will get tourists tickets, which are sold at about half regular fare. Expense at Bay View need not exceed one dollar per day.

MISS GEORGIANA MOSER, State Superintendent of Literature, will attend the Bay View W. C. T. U. Institute.

THE NEW L. T. L. at Frankfort made 176 button-hole bouquets for Memorial Day and pinned them on members of the G. A. R.

Mrs. HANNAH VAN SICKLE, of Frankfort, will move to Rochester. We congratulate the Rochester Union on their prospective gain of a valient worker.

JEFFERSON UNION is flourishing. Mrs. Ada Van Sickle is an excellent President.

FRANKFORT WILLARD UNION has divided into two sections for thirty days' work for new members. The victorious section to be entertained by the other section. This Union circulated a petition against drinking in or near the national camp.

Mrs. ELLEN D. BLAIR, the National Chalk Talker, has been for several weeks in our State. She has created much interest and enthusiasm for the work among the children. We are glad that she came and hope that she may come to us again.

Mrs. CAMMACK is engaged for almost all the time until September.

Mrs. J. H. STANLEY, of Liberty, President of Union County, recently collected $31 for The Temple. This earnest sister has arranged a Suffrage Contest for the county, to be held August 20, at which time Mr. John G. Woolley is engaged for an address. We are delighted to know this. We wish every community could have Mr. Woolley.

MANY UNIONS are circulating the suffrage petitions. This work ought to be done by every Union, and the co-operation of all interested persons should be solicited. Let everybody interested carry a petition wherever they go.

THE MARTIN COUNTY UNIONS observed Flower Mission Day at the County Poor Farm. The event was highly spoken of in the county papers.

THE SHOALS Referendum says: Miss Georgiana Moser, of Loogootee, is a brave young reformer, and her speech at the Poor Farm to the inmates would do credit to Mary A. Livermore.

OFFICERS of HADLEY UNION, Grant County, are Mrs. Ella Doherty, President, and Mrs. Iva Van Cannon, Secretary.

Mrs. E. S. ROSS, of Wabash, writes that she is much encouraged in regard to the work of her Union, which now numbers 91 paying members, with the intention of having 100 before State Convention.

LA PORTE UNION—New members: Mrs. E. R. Hart, Mrs. Elsie Couplin, Mrs. Dora Benton, Mrs. John Filds, Mrs. Dora Banta, Mrs. Fannie S. DeGarmo.

A SUFFRAGE MEDAL FREE—Any medal worker or Union, using Cooper or W. C. T. U. books and medals, who will hold six Suffrage Contests by September 1, can have the sixth medal free. The net proceeds of Contest No. 1 must go to Hadley Industrial School; of Contest No. 2, to our State fund for organization; the proceeds of the remaining four to be used as the worker or Union may determine. Neither one of the contests can be free, nor depend on a collection, but a door fee of not over ten cents, nor under five, be taken. Those wishing to secure this free medal please report to me at once. I make this offer for the good of our cause. I wish every Union in the State would get this free medal. Every Union can which will do the work. Address Mary E. Balch, 711 E. 11th street, Indianapolis, Ind.

A QUESTION sometimes asked, now answered: Whose duty is it to look after renewals of the MESSAGE and Union Signal, and, as well, take new subscriptions? Your Superintendent of Literature (if you have one) should do this work. Your President, whose duty it is to have a general supervision, should inquire of her helper, the Superintendent of Literature, as to how this work is progressing and urge its faithful performance. If you have no Superintendent of Literature, better get one at once. When every member of a Union reads the MESSAGE (her own copy) that Union receives from the State a copy of the Union Signal free of cost to them.

YOU WILL REGRET It if you forget that the county having organized the most Unions this year will have a right, in the group in which it finds itself, to select the National delegate, and the county in the group having organized the next greatest number chooses the alternate.

AN ITEM of great interest to every county—Having carried out fifty per cent of the Plan of Work gives you a place on the roll of honor. Are you satisfied to just get on, or do you wish to strive for first place?

THE EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY meeting of the Mary F. Thomas W. C. T. U. was held at the home of the President, Ella J. Davis, and was in every way a red letter occasion. Names on program, Rev. Frances Jenkins, the mother of Mrs. Davis, and L. C. Moffit.

AT RHODA TEMPLE, June 12, this subject claimed the attention of those who gather there weekly: "License, its Moral Effect on the Country: How Long Will it Continue?" given in the form of a paper Mollie Hodgkin recited "Angel of Buena Vista."

RICHMOND—Frances Willard Union has lost six members by death this year—Mesdames Swayne, Nixon, Miles, Mather, Albert, and a new member, Mrs. Chrisman. Memorial services were held for them in Rhoda Temple, Ellen J. Davis presiding.

FRANKFORT UNION gave Mrs. Blair work for four days because other Unions changed their minds. They write very complimentary of her services, and heartily recommend her to other Unions. Will Unions read Article 6, Section 55, of the by-laws of the State Constitution, and see what is involved in engaging a speaker and then changing their minds?

BETHANY PARK.—The date for grand gold contest is changed from the 9th to 10th of August, at 2 p. m., and while the judges are out Mrs. Parsons, of New Albany Union, will read a paper of more than common interest to womankind.

HOBART, LAKE COUNTY, has a Union. I learned this from the Hobart Advertiser. How much it does help our cause when the local papers are friendly! Mesdames Merrill and Church, from Crown Point, visited this Union and gave two addresses of great interest. They were well received.

HARLAN, ALLEN COUNTY, has a new Union; Mrs. M. A. Omo, President; Rev. Mrs. Oberhulser, Secretary; Rev. Mrs. Sim Merman, Treasurer. Allen County takes its place as an organized county again with Mrs. Omo as its leader. Because of poor health she has been out of the field for a time.

THE INSTITUTE at Decatur County, in charge of Mrs. Cammack, resulted in a Union at West Point; Mrs. Victoria Lungersbill, President, and Mrs. Bertha McCulla, Treasurer. They failed to send Secretary's name. Mrs. Cammack made a visit to Randolph County and organized Unions at Cedar and New Pittsburg. The one at Cedar is a very strong Union of 34 members, quite a number paying their dues down and taking the MESSAGE.

KEWANNA UNION has sent $5 to the Temple. The Good Health Publishing Co., of Battle Creek, Mich., is lending a hand in making the Temple fund, by giving half of the sales of its magazine.

CURFEW—Read carefully this statement of a city official:

Mrs. Ellen B. Wright, Greensburg, Ind.:

DEAR MADAM—In reply to your request as to the effects for good or bad, in our city, of the curfew law, I can truly say that the law has been of great value. In my judgment our citizens are all convinced that this is true. At least the city officers all know it, and in Greensburg the curfew law has come to stay.

Respectfully,

C. F. NORTHERN, Mayor.

SOLDIER BOYS in camp will appreciate some good literature. Those that are sick will ever remember the kindness of interested people. Now is our opportunity to do something practical and helpful by sending comfort-bags and some money for literature to our State Superintendent of Soldiers and Sailors, Mrs. Julia Overman, 1802 S. Branson St., Marion, Ind.

To make comfort-bags, use cretonne or other strong cloth; make the bags 12x14 inches, with a drawing string (strong) in the top to open and close. Put in it buttons, needles, thread, scissors, knife, bandages, small bunch of white cotton, court plaster, comb, brush, pencil, paper, envelopes, leaflets, testament, gospel hymns, pledge card (asking to return it signed), copy of Union Signal and MESSAGE, a motherly letter, telling who sent it. Make letters home-like and interesting, but not too preachy. This is an ideal bag. Of course, all articles mentioned need not be placed in it. Use your own good sense and send what you can.

DELAWARE COUNTY INSTITUTE was held at Eaton, with Mrs. Mattie O. Cammack, of Marion, in charge. After organization, Mrs. Cammack gave a talk on the W. C. T. U. literature. She recommended that each member take the Union Signal and MESSAGE. The afternoon session was opened by Mrs. Bond, of Muncie. The program was then taken up and L. T. L. work was considered by Mrs. Carmichael; Normal Institutes, Mrs. Cammack; Red Letter Days, Mrs. Fisher. The parliamentary drill conducted by Mrs. Cammack was very instructive and interesting.

The evening session consisted of music furnished by a male double quartette, prohibition chorus and a welcome by Rev. Harvey and a response by Mrs. Cammack. The main feature of the evening was a lecture on "Echoes from the World's Work." Was very interesting. 48 counties organized, reports received, 35 representatives at the wonderful gathering.

The Thursday session was opened by Mrs. White, of Muncie, conducting a bible reading on Christian Citizenship. The subject of "Equal Suffrage" was discussed by Rev. John Davis and Mrs. Cammack. Mr. Davis arrayed the objections generally given against suffrage and met them in an extended argument. The following reasons were given: The desire to say yes or no to anything regarding their happiness; that it is a logical conclusion; that it is the sense of our Constitution; that taxation without representation is tyranny. This should come to pass from the motive impelling the desire. Rev. Harvey followed with a ten minutes' talk. At the close of these talks the institute pinned the white ribbon on Brothers Davis and Harvey.

Mrs. Froeman read a report on Sabbath Observance, followed by discussion by the institute.

Mrs. Cammack makes a distinction between a day of rest and the Lord's Day.

Mrs. Modlin, of Shideler, gave a short talk and asked to be re-instated in the Union.

The afternoon session was opened by Mrs. Barley, conducting devotional exercises. "Organization of Woman Literary Societies," by Mrs. Carmichael. After this, speeches followed on aid societies, etc. Mrs. White, of Muncie, read a very interesting paper on the "Curfew Law." Mrs. Fisher read an extract from High Joe, a very strong temperance book published by the Busy World Publishers, Madison, Wis. John Davis gave a talk on "Gold Cure," "License Law," etc. Mrs. Cammack gave a talk on "Narcotic Poisons."

The closing of the session was a very interesting question drawer.

SECTION FOUR of Institute work completed our visit to Scott, Jackson and Ohio Counties, which was very pleasant. The Unions at Crothersville and Scottsburg will no doubt prove themselves tried soldiers. Rising Sun is not willing to enlist; they prefer looking on the battle from afar. Dearborn County Institute was well attended by the Unions of the county. Aurora and Manchester have new Unions, and a country church has a temperance committee that we hope to see develop into a Union. North Vernon has a small Union. A summary of the eight weeks' trip: Section Four had 25 counties; we visited 22 of them, organized 9 Unions, held 15 two-day institutes; house to house visits, 31; 11 towns visited outside of holding the institutes. A poor way of measuring the work, and yet we have no other. 97 MESSAGE subscriptions secured, 17 for the Union Signal. I regret that I did not make a note of the words of appreciation for our little paper. If a woman is interested in W. C. T. U. work and reads the MESSAGE, she is convinced the paper is just what we need.

CHAIRMEN OF COMMITTEES for passing judgment on the six papers of note:

No. 1. "Indiana's Financial Policy," by W. C. T. U. Presidents. Papers sent to Mrs. J. W. Clark, Bloomington.

No. 2. "Noted Events at our Annual Meetings," by W. C. T. U. Secretaries. Papers sent to Mrs. Mary C. Lieb, 23 West 12th street, Anderson.

No. 3. "General Department Work," by Superintendents. Papers to be sent to Mrs. Adah W. White, Oxford.

No. 4. "Y Work," by Y Secretaries. Papers sent to Miss Clara M. Sears, 106 W. 14th street, Anderson.

No. 5. "L. T. L's," by L. T. L. Secretaries. Papers sent to Mrs. Amanda R. Gordon, Argos.

No. 6. "Indiana Women," by any W. C. T. U. woman. Papers to be sent to Mrs. Elma Emmerson, South Whitley.

Limit of time, noon August 15. The best paper of each number to have a place on the State program.

DEPARTMENT FUND PLAN.—How many prayers have we offered this year asking for means to push our department work, forgetting that the answers to these prayers are wrapped up in the department fund plan? How many Unions have determined to carry out this plan?

INDIANAPOLIS, AUGUST, 1898.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION, 35c. PER YEAR

EXTRACTS FROM A PAPER WRITTEN BY THE PRESIDENT, MRS. MARIANA W.
CHAPMAN, OF NEW YORK STATE.

And here we strike the keynote of the thought which must come to the women of every country before their enfranchisement can be secured. Women must care and increasingly they do. Thought of the national welfare belongs to an advanced motherhood. A woman unfit to vote is a woman unfit to be a mother. How shall she teach what does not enter her perceptions or her interests? If intelligent in outside matters she sees easily that society surrounds her daughters with a protection not extended to her sons, whose young manhood may be lured into gilded halls aflame with gilded vice. Happy are they if strong in the precious security that comes from the absorption of a mother's moral strength in early life! Who is worthy of motherhood if she throw not the whole of her best possessions into the impressible nature of the dear young hearts about her, which are the most sacred links that bind her to the Father's work? Verily, "if ye have not done unto the least of these, ye have not done it unto Me."

But when the nursery work is done and the mother heart follows these tall young men and women across the threshold to the outer world, the law steps in and says, "Hold! you have nothing to do in these arrangements; your opinions shall not count here, you shall be of no authority in the State." One alarmist says: "It might bring a union of Church and State," and cites the strong influence of a Catholic priesthood; but no class of women in America is taught to hold a higher standard of purity than the women of the Catholic Church.

We will venture to say that they will increase the from injury as the woman of the household. No class appeals to us so strongly as the great army of wage earning girls, who need all the help their older sisters can throw about them, and for whom we could do more as an enfranchised power.

We should ask it then, not only for the sake of preserving social purity throughout this working world, but in the name of justice, one of the highest and holiest attributes of a perfect life.

WOMAN'S RIGHT TO VOTE.

If it is admitted that all political power is vested in the people in this country the whole argument is in favor of the woman.

When our fathers came out of the struggle for independence from the mother country, they had learned that governments derived their just powers from the consent of the governed. Women are governed and should give their consent. The bill of rights in nearly all states said the same thing. They say that "all political power inheres in the people." If women are people it follows that political power inheres in them. These truths of the Declaration of Independence and the bill of rights grant woman's claim to the right of suffrage in advance, and it ought not to be necessary to argue this question at all, because from the day our fathers made it, the words of the Declaration of Independence have been held up as self-evident truths. Admit the justice of this and there is no reason for saying that women are not entitled to these rights.

Our fathers didn't say that governments derived their just powers from the male sex; they did not say from the consent of the black or white; from the educated or uneducated; from the men who fight; but they made the broad declaration that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, or by the consent of the people—or the suffrage—the right to vote. This suffrage is the expressed assent of the public, through the ballot which registers opinions.

The essence of suffrage is rational choice. Then it follows that every person capable of rational choice is rightfully entitled to vote. The alien is excepted because he still holds allegiance to his native country. But when the alien has taken an oath to our government and renounced all allegiance to any foreign government, he receives all the rights of citizenship. The minor is excepted, but when he reaches the years of discretion, he is entitled, not only to buy and sell, but to take his part in the responsibility of government, and vote also. The idiot and lunatic are excepted because they are incapable of rational choice. The criminal is also excepted, because he has proven himself unworthy of the trust by making the public safety insecure while he is at large. None of these cases violate the principle or the sentiment of the Declaration of Independence. But when woman is disfranchised simply because she is a woman, that principle is violated, because it implies that woman does not possess the faculty of a rational choice. There can be no argument against self-evident truth. Every day the objections against woman suffrage grow fewer, and the question of equal rights has taken its place in the politics of this country, and it cannot be settled until it is settled on the immutable principles of the Declaration of Independence.

There are many who withhold their consent to woman suffrage on the plea that they are not fully persuaded that it will prove helpful to the settlement of the problems before this nation. This does not in anywise alter the fact that it is just to put the ballot into the hands of women. Men have had the ballot for a long time and have yet a great many questions to settle with which they have wrestled for years. It is just as reasonable to argue that men ought not to have the suffrage because they have not settled the liquor question, the tariff question, etc.

Professor Drummond in the introduction of his interesting book, "The Ascent of Man," refers to two great principles underlying and running through all life in the world. He calls these principles "the struggle for life," and "the struggle for the life of others." He further suggests that the struggle for life is the masculine element and the struggle for the life of others is the feminine element in the world. He says: "The first, obeying the law of self-preservation, devotes its energies to feed itself, and develops the active virtues of strength and courage, the other lays the basis for the passive virtues, sympathy and love." One begets competition, self-assertion, war; the other, unselfishness, desires the good of others and pleads for peace. One is Individualism, the other, Altruism. We have seen the development of the centralization of power, and the spirit of greed in business and in the politics of this nation.

The liquor curse, against which are aimed all the weapons of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union (the greatest organization in the world), has for its foundation and the reason of its being, appetite and greed. Appetite calls for the drink, and greed licenses and perpetuates the saloon. According to Professor Drummond these are masculine elements. The "struggle for the life of others" or the feminine element, would banish that which destroys and debauches life.

God has placed man and woman side by side in the establishment of the home. In the ideal home man and woman consult and confer together for its best interests. This republic cannot exist without homes; therefore the home ought to be considered in government. So long as the first concern of a country is for its homes it matters little what it seeks besides. Woman's plea is that her voice may be heard and heeded in government on behalf of home, and for this reason she demands the ballot, the only thing that counts as "voice" in government.

OBITUARY.

On Wednesday, June 29th, occurred the death of Mrs. Dr. Rhoda Russell, of Riley. She was the first W. C. T. U. President of Vigo County. The minister who officiated at her burial, spoke of her as the Frances Willard of temperance in her own county. Mrs. Russell held Miss Willard in high esteem and tried in her intercourse with the world to be like her—self-forgetful, loving and faithful, and all who were closely connected with her knew her efforts were not in vain. She was very welcome and helpful on the State executive committee when permitted to work with them, and will be remembered long by those who worked with her. Mrs. Russell's last words were "How Beautiful." The columns of our little MESSAGE are too small to write the story of this courageous life. She has heard the words, "Well done good and faithful servant."

The tired hands are folded now, for rest,
The weary eyes are closed, to sights of woe
And we who mourn—believe it best
If hearts cry out, we can not have it so.

SAID AN ACTIVE, intelligent, Christian man, "While our W. C. T. U. was working, holding its public gospel temperance meetings, you saw very few of our young men going in and out of our saloons. Now it is quite common." Dear Sisters, will you ever grow weary in well doing? If such things can be said of your Unions, God forgive our faithless ones when we let our Unions die.

MRS. ZERELDA WALLACE.

proportion of that church whose heads are not muddled with liquor or clouded with tobacco smoke, and will, therefore, help to make a clearer thinking, wiser and more prudent majority.

But the majority of women in this country is of other faiths and not likely to be governed by clerical influence in their political views. Women who are self supporting can easily perceive the disadvantage involved in their disfranchisement. The wage earning woman needs more power to protect herself from unjust discrimination, to demand equal pay for equal work, to choose lawmakers who will make her as safe

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

ATTENTION, Y's!

Let the members of the Y. W. C. T. U. Unions who have said they would write a paper on "Y Work," remember and send them to Clara M. Sears, 106 W. 14th street, Anderson, by noon August 15th. The best paper is to have a place on the program Y evening at the State Convention.

Again I urge the payment of dues. Which Union will send me the first report by September 15th, that they have a paid-up membership? Be thinking of who you will send to LaFayette October 7-11th to the Convention to represent your Union at the Y. W. C. T. U. Conference. The time, Church and hour will be announced later. We want every County Superintendent of Y work, if re-elected, to be present, or her successor, so we may plan more effective work among young people for next year. Bring an itemized report of work done in your Union and County. Let as many County Presidents as possible be in our Y Conference. We need you, and you will be welcome.

We want to hold a Y Conference of the workers who will be at Acton August 3, for an hour. Dana Y talks of re-organizing, thus helping on the 500. Is there not another who can do likewise? Who will help? What County will furnish a new Y? Do you try to increase your honorary membership? A mother not long ago was much surprised to learn that young men can belong to a Y organization. Spread your work, girls; push it, and talk it, but above all live it, like the modest Christian temperance woman God intended you to be.

Hold your election of officers before September 15, 1898, if possible, so when you send me names on the annual blank, September 1st, which must be returned by the 15th, we will have the right names for a directory. Please attend to all these matters at once, and oblige your loving and prayerful co-worker.

CLARA M. SEARS,

106 W. 14th St., Anderson. State Y Sec'y and Organizer.

FRANCHISE DEPARTMENT.

Your superintendent kindly requests you to be enthusiastic in reporting this department work, by the 20th of September. I believe you who have given it your attention have made a good record. Be sure and let it appear in the report of your State superintendent. Please give the name of the county and local workers, also their full address, and the county in which the work has been done. 1. How many franchise petitions circulated in your county? 2. How many articles furnished for the press? 3. How many contests held? 4. How many lectures and public meetings? 5. How many pages of literature distributed? 6. How many medals given? 7. How many Conferences participated in? 8. How many parlor meetings held? 9. How many new W. C. T. U. members secured? 10. Can you see improved franchise sentiment this year? Report any other franchise work done, and please remember to send it to me without your receiving a report blank, as I shall not be at home in time to prepare them and send to you.

Yours for a telling work for franchise in Indiana this year of 1898,
M. A. TOMPKINS,
329 South Main street, Elkhart, Ind., State Superintendent.

Mrs. Tompkins writes me from North Dakota, where she is stopping and says, do urge the women to accept the medal offer and get a free medal, and I do urge it by extending the time to September 15th.

M. E. BALCH.

The shadows are lengthening and time for work is growing shorter day by day. In the meantime I hope you are all garnering the items which will give us a good report this year.

No W. C. T. U. can exist long without working. If it does work, it has something to report that will be of interest outside, and there should be a Press Superintendent to give it to the papers.

The world is judging our organization, not by what it does, but only by that much of it that it knows about. It is interested in W. C. T. U. work in proportion to its knowledge.

You all know that the ballot for women is at present the goal of our ambition, and the Press Superintendents have their part in this work. I most earnestly urge each Superintendent to write suffrage articles, also invite well known friends of the cause to write them. Give the "suffrage twist" to your notes at every opportunity.

There are many ways in which we can use the press for Christian Temperance. Do you see and feel the need of a Curfew ordinance or any reform? Agitate. Is some great evil being harbored and nurtured in your community? Protest. Is the anti-Cigarette law or other laws being violated? Demand that they be enforced. Use the newspapers. Gain the attention of the reading public, and something is almost sure to be done.

Remember I am still ready and willing to answer all inquiries concerning the work of this department, and I hope the women will write me. Those Superintendents who have not as yet sent in their names are requested to do so as soon as possible, as I desire to not miss anyone when I send out my blanks. We want a full report this year. Yours for service,

FLORENCE E. VANCE.

State Superintendent Press.

Much of the success of non-alcoholic medication depends upon the education of the laity. The medical profession is rapidly awakening to the fact that alcoholic stimulants are not a necessity in the treatment of disease, and many of the younger members permit the use of it, rather than prescribe it, simply because of the importunities of the family or friends, who have grown up in the belief that in every sudden illness or accident, a little brandy or whiskey must be given while waiting for the physician, and a little more added to the doctor's treatment to keep up the strength of the patient. There are good honest Christian people who think they are not doing justice to their growing families if they do not keep on hands a bottle of whiskey to be ready for emergencies. So you see, dear sisters, there is a wide field open for us in which much good can be done among ourselves and neighbors, and now that we have taken up this department in our State, let every member of every Union feel that she has a part in the work, and do something, if but to read and hand out one leaflet. We are late in beginning our work this year, but I sincerely hope we can at least get ready for systematic work and then accomplish something before the end of another year. Will all those County Presidents, who have not already done so, appoint a Superintendent of Non-Alcoholic Medication for your county and report the same to me?

Very truly,

L. F. JESSUP SMITH,

State Superintendent Non-Alcoholics.

SCIENTIFIC TEMPERANCE DEPARTMENT.

On July 20th, I sent out the yearly blanks to County Superintendents, enclosing blanks for locals. Will you please observe the following in regard to them? 1. Be careful to give the name of your County. 2. Local Superintendents please send your report to your own County Superintendent, not to me, unless you are the only Superintendent in your County. 3. Can all County Superintendents not send me a complete list on a separate slip, of the names of their assistants for this year? 4. Please be prompt. My State report must be made out by September 1st. Send in time so your work may be counted. From the year's record already made we shall certainly have a good report.

ADA W. WHITE,

State Superintendent.

WORK AMONG FOREIGNERS.

I do pray that we may have more superintendents for this department of our White Ribbon work. Will the County presidents kindly help a little? Will you not endeavor to have a superintendent for this department in your county? Will you please send me the name and address of your superintendent of this department if you have one? The foreigners need our sympathy and our help, for they have a hearty welcome in the saloon. If each County in Indiana would help in this work, I really believe much good could be accomplished. Send to me for the literature you need, and thus help to save these people from the curse of strong drink. MRS. ANNA KILMER, Peru, Ind. State Supt. Work Among Foreigners.

INDIANA'S SONG.

(Tune—"Annie Laurie.")

Indiana's heard the bugle,
O, army tried and true!
She is marching, she is coming
To pledge her faith anew;
To pledge her vows anew,
To win or die with you!
You may count on Indiana
'Till stars fade from the blue.

Where your snowy flag is floating
And white stars dot the way,
You may count on Indiana
In th' thickest of the fray.
In th' thickest of the fray
Her "W's" lead the way.
Where your Emblems White are gleaming
The "W's" lead the fray.

You may count on Indiana!
Her "Y's" are in the van!
They are loyal, brave and bonnie;
Go vanquish them, who can!
Go vanquish them, who can!
Her "Y's" are in the van.
Oh they're loyal, brave and bonnie!
The "Y's" are in the van.

You may count on Indiana!
Her children are a-field!
Yes; the "L. Y. Ls." are coming;
Their clarion call has pealed;
Their clarion call has pealed.
Not one brigade will yield
Oh, the "L. Y. Ls." are coming;
The children are a-field.

MARY A. LEAVITT.

Vernon, Ind.

I wish to inform your readers how our Union is progressing. Last week we held an "Independence Day" meeting, and our ladies decided to adopt for next year a genuine old fashioned 4th of July celebration.

Miss Cox, the Friends' pastor, read "The New Independence Day," by John F. Cowan in the July 30th Signal. Our ladies are enthusiastic and patriotic.

Through the kindness of Mrs. John Ridgway, this Union has three large beautiful rooms nicely furnished. This Union has already paid $500 toward the Temple debt. Our President is a lady of ability, both socially and religiously.

I have visited the "Temple" many times, and the W. C. T. U. in the East, West, North and South, and having now joined this Union, I am sure that they are doing very good work. Respectfully,

ROSETTA OTWELL CROSS

La Porte, Ind.

CHAIRMEN OF LOCAL COMMITTEES.

For our annual convention at LaFayette: Railroad, Mrs. Ray L. Stinespring, West Side; Entertainment, Mrs. J. B. Sucece, 118 North 8th street; Reception, Miss Addie Borum, Odell; Sunday Services, Mrs. Sarah D. Curtiss, 240 South Grant street; Press and Music, Mrs. J. F. Kinsey, Corner Union and 20th streets; Finance, Mrs. Alta E. W. Latta; Ushers and Pages, Mrs. William Levering, Corner 8th and Union streets; Bus Lines, Mrs. J. B. Sucece, 118 North 8th street; Decoration, Miss May Turpie, North 21st street; Courtesies, Mrs. Sarah M. Stevens, West Side.

Dear co-workers, having met with the County Executive Committee Wednesday morning, June 29, I must say to you, your sisters at LaFayette are planning a splendid convention for you. If the convention is lacking in anything, it will be on our part—not theirs.

The pastors of the Friends' and M. E. Churches, of Plainfield, assisted by ladies of the local W. C. T. U., circulated petitions for Sunday closing of grocery stores and succeeded in obtaining such a long list of names of persons in favor of it, that proprietors of the stores have agreed to close.

Wolcott is still holding on, and will take up regular meetings again. Mrs. Lottie Taylor has been a faithful President.

MONROVIA is arranging for a Suffrage contest.

MRS. MARY DAVIS, White County Corresponding Secretary, writes that five times in succession has our town, Idaville, said we will not have a saloon—that's prohibition. To July 1st by membership of new Unions, if all pay dues, we have added 435 regular members and 61 honoraries.

NEEDY GIRLS.

Mrs. White—"When I came into Church this morning, I was surprised to find that Mary Rose had left Mrs. Marley's. We have been so busy I have not been in town for several weeks, but felt the child was in good hands. Can you tell me anything about her going?"

"Oh, yes, Mrs. Miner, our Union sent her to our Hadley School."

"To school, Mrs. White; why who pays the bills? At Marley's she would learn to work and earn her clothes, for I bargained for $15 a year for the child. I was doing as I would have done by my own."

"Come in, Mrs. Miner, and rest while we talk this over. Take time, if you are in a hurry."

"Thank you, I believe I will. I am anxious to understand this, for Marley's people are vexed that Mary left them. I know you don't like Sunday calls or visits, but I'll stop a minute."

"Excuse me, Mrs. Miner, I must ask some questions to be the better able to tell my story. How did Mary Rose come to your guardianship?"

"Why, Mr. Rose's people were our near neighbors. When the mother died the father broke up the home and went West, leaving Mary with me until he could send for her. I did not really need her help, and Marley's were wanting a girl, so I made that bargain for the child, not knowing how much one could expect of the father. Fifteen dollars would go a right smart piece toward dressing her. Mary is large for her age, strong, handy and trusty, and well worth that much."

"Mrs. Miner, as the world goes, it is too true, that what girls eat and wear and can do is often of more consequence than the girl herself. Marley's is no place for any child; no saloon can be. They may learn to work, but as well learn much else. It was this that led our Union to write to the father, get his consent and signature to the proper papers which admitted her to this school. Who pays the bills, you ask? Our Union furnishes medicine, if needed, school books and clothing; the school furnishes the rest, and the child has a chance now to grow up pure, healthy and useful, a girl of good principles, and we trust, a Christian. Our Union did as they would like some one to do for all such helpless needy girls."

COMMUNICATIONS.

Our Union is actively engaged in work we think necessary to our community. Well attended at our weekly meetings; have a lively L. T. L. Mothers' and Parlor meetings very interesting, and now actively engaged in passing of the Curfew Law we have petitioned for, and circulating anti-canteen petitions; have ten departments at work. The press has a very generous showing in four daily papers, all of very large circulation. One paper gives weekly two to three columns to temperance matter; chiefly alcoholic and narcotic work. Have an active Vigilance Committee and a good Finance Committee. Had a fine patriotic entertainment from which we realized a nice sum; have splendid talent and good workers, but are not systematized in our work sufficiently to see immediate results. 1,600 pages of literature, stamped with W. C. T. U. stamp, distributed. MRS. LIZZIE C. DRAKE, Press Reporter.

SARAH ALFORD.

We, the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Zionsville, Ind., feel deeply our loss in the death of our sister, Mrs. Sarah Alford.

Aunt Sallie, as she was familiarly known, was always loyal and faithful to our cause. Although unable to attend the meetings for some years because of advanced age, care in the afflicted home of her daughter, and her own last illness, covering several months, she never forgot the interests of our Union.

May her many virtues long be remembered, and her loving example be engraved on the tablet of our memories, that we may learn to imitate them.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to the friends, and to the daughter especially, who must bear a double sorrow, her husband being buried at the same time. PRESS REPORTER.

L. T. L. BRANCH.

Please remember that the year is about to close and reports must be made. Make a strong effort to collect dues to the amount of 10 cents a member and send to me as soon as possible. Try for one of the prizes. Three dollars secures for your Legion one copy one year of the Young Crusader; five dollars, two copies, and the greatest amount over five, a banner to be presented at the LaFayette convention. When you receive your report blanks be ready to return to me promptly a good report. By your co-operation, I hope to be able to present a good report of work done during the year. Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord. AMANDA R. GORDON.

Argos, Indiana.

WILLARD UNION RECEPTION.

In response to neat invitations issued by the members of Willard W. C. T. U., Frankfort's representative women to the number of more than one hundred and fifty were received in the parlors of the M. E. Church, which had been prettily decorated for the occasion. Mrs. Barricklow, in a few well chosen words, introduced Rev. Mattie O. Cammack, of Marion, who gave a most pleasing address, which was a revelation to many of those present concerning the marvelous work, growth and scope of the W. C. T. U. She ended her remarks with an earnest appeal to the mothers and daughters to enlist in this great work. At the conclusion of her address delicious refreshments consisting of lemon sherbet and crescents were served. Gobin's mandolin orchestra was present and discoursed some of their sweetest music, which added greatly to the pleasure of the most enjoyable affair.

DEPARTMENT OF UNFERMENTED WINE.

Dear County Presidents and co-workers in our Lord's Vineyard, I appeal to you for help in my department. So few Counties have Superintendents that I ask you to bring the subject before local Unions in your County Conventions. In order that you may do so with least trouble to yourselves, I send this to our paper, and ask that you cause the article to be read in your conventions at some time. Hoping by this to reach the local workers in this important department of W. C. T. U. work in Indiana.

Dear co-workers, while one church, one denomination, uses alcoholic wine at the table of our Lord, shall we not work as well as pray that this stumbling block be removed from the church of God and our dear Lord roomed in the house of his friends? May our dear Lord help us to do our whole duty at all times and places. It is said that two-thirds of the churches use unfermented wine, but it is also stated that sixty thousand gallons of alcoholic wine are dispensed in the churches of our country.

I will send to County Presidents blanks to be filled and returned to me, hoping some good work has been done.

For two years I have sent out leaflets carefully prepared by the National Superintendent of this Department, and by myself as Superintendent, have thought best to let our MESSAGE do this work for me.

Praying for cheering news, I am,

Yours for the work,

MRS. J. R. WOOD.

711 East 11th St., Indianapolis, Ind.

THE LOOGOOTE UNION is a small one of 27 paid members. Still I want to tell you a few of the things we have done this spring. We gave two entertainments, clearing over sixty dollars, forty-five of which we have in the bank to defray expenses of a week's work by Mrs. Bullock. We gave a reception to 125 Normal students, with music and a program in scientific temperance. We had Mrs. Cammack and Mrs. Balch two days. We sent $21.55 to the Temple Memorial fund and $10 to the Hadley Home. We have Union Gospel Temperance meetings the first Sunday in every month, Mothers' Meetings the fourth Saturday and our business meeting the second Saturday in every month.

Martin County celebrated Flower Mission Day at the Poor Farm, and served supper to the inmates. A program had been arranged and all were given bouquets tied with text card, white ribbon and tiny flag. The farm is nine miles in the country and seven carriages of W. C. T. U. members attended.

We celebrated our anniversary this year by giving a Red, White and Blue Dime Social. Space is given us every week in our county paper. We have a Superintendent of Box Literature—Miss Susie McClosky—who is an earnest little helper, and sees that literature is placed in depot, postoffice and every barber-shop once a week. We are trying to win people to our W. C. T. U. by making every one of our meetings interesting. We have ordered through the Superintendent of Literature $32.58 worth of literature. We are planning a chrysanthemum fair for October, the proceeds to be used to send the School Physiology Journal to every teacher in the county, and to offer a prize for the best essay on temperance.

Yours in the work,

GEORGIANA MOSER,

Corresponding Secretary Loogootee Union.

MISS BELLE KEARNEY.

To be well born is a great heritage of good. Besides being of fine cultured family, the father and mother of Miss Kearney have long known that uplift of soul and spirit that comes from the friendship of God. Miss Kearney was born near Vernon, Madison County, Mississippi. She was educated in her native State, and taught school successfully for six years.

In 1889 she heard the call of God to the work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. This blessed organization represented principles that aroused her fullest allegiance and most intense zeal—principles for the establishment of which she was willing to consecrate every talent of heart, brain and soul.

The women of the Mississippi W. C. T. U. appreciated at once the value of the services pledged by this enthusiastic young woman to such a degree that she was immediately appointed State Superintendent of the Y work and the L. T. L's. She courageously began her work, going upon the platform with the ease that comes from the sense of a supreme need, and the faith that God had sent her as His messenger to quicken thought and enlist helpers.

Two years after enlisting in the service of her State W. C. T. U., Miss Kearney was made National Organizer by the National Convention of the W. C. T. U. during its session in Boston. Since then she has traveled a wide extent of country.

Miss Kearney is looked upon as one of the leaders of philanthropic thought in her own home land, the South. She has become identified with the great heart of the Nation's endeavor after sober homes, nobler thought, purer living and justice to women.—Mrs. Mary McGee Snell, Columbus, Miss., in Young Women, Chicago, March, 1896.

We hope to have Miss Kearney with us at the time of our State Convention, and we can do so if we can secure a few dates before or after our meeting. Miss Kearney's terms are $10, or $5 and collections, paying her own expenses. These terms depend on having several dates in one State. Miss Kearney would be fine at County Conventions. Write the Secretary at once, and she will plan the route to economize time and money. Bring this before the first meeting of your Union. Do not delay. SECRETARY OF 13.

JULY 4TH AT BLOOMINGDALE.

The editorial staff of the MESSAGE has requested an account of our splendid meeting, which account I know must be much more brief than we feel inclined to make it.

After the oppressive heat of almost a week, July 4th dawned with a temperature which was all that could be desired for a grove meeting and picnic, as were also the beautiful grove and inspiring scenery of the place of meeting.

The themes for the day were Woman's Suffrage and Christian Patriotism.

The program—composed of home talent—was well carried out, and no county knows better than Parke how to appreciate her own people.

Bloomington band boys played with a will, and the special music, consisting mainly of Suffrage songs, had no uncertain sound.

It was cause of general remark that on the grounds there were no tobacco sales, and that such beverages as are termed "the lighter drinks," were not allowed. No chance game found admittance, and not an oath was heard; a drunken man would have been an anomaly.

Our White Ribboners who toiled so persistently through the hot days in arranging for the meeting (in one instance driving 44 miles for a speaker), could but take a grain of comfort in knowing that our Nation's natal day had not been dishonored by such immoralities as often find a place.

Signatures were secured to our Suffrage petition. Also, there were accessions to membership and subscriptions to our State paper, the MESSAGE. But the day was too short to accomplish what might have been done in these lines.

One of our prominent citizens, who became a convert to Woman's Suffrage at the moot election which we held about a year ago, was ready to speak for Woman's ballot when we came to make up our July 4th program. And so the cause moves on. It is here a little and there a little.

But it is impossible to estimate the sentiment made along advance lines of thought by efforts here and there over the State, which often have small beginning but which must be carried forward by the few on whom conviction has gotten a hold which must be worked out.

May we be importunate in our petitions to the God of nations, that conviction along the line of its needs may come to the people and work to the end that our prayers may be answered. MARY HADLEY.

FIELD NOTES.

AT MONTICELLO, Mrs. Balch and Mrs. Anderson held a Union Gospel Temperance meeting in the M. E. Church, July 24th. The Sunday Gospel Temperance meeting has a strong influence for good over our young people. Why not every Union consider this, and hold such meetings?

NOBLE COUNTY—Secretary Mrs. Ruth Probst writes, our county is gaining in strength; we all love our new County President, Mrs. Laura Teal.

MORGAN COUNTY—Fourth with its Suffrage Contest in charge of Mrs. Ada L. Squier, was a most flattering success. Mrs. Millie Turney, Brooklyn, received the medal. Pearl Turney and baby Squiers entertained the audience while the judges were out. Martinsville has three Prohibition Ministers and they took part in the exercises. Brooklyn singers furnished patriotic songs and Monrovia Ladies' Quartette sang morning and evening. Four of the six Unions in the county were represented in this class. Amboy Union gave a Gold Contest with a class of boys, and with a 5 cent admission fee took in $11.35.

MRS. ADA L. SQUIERS, Martinsville, hopes to have members of their Union take a tent at Camp Acton and spend the three W. C. T. U. days there.

READ this letter at your next Union meeting. Before the September paper comes you will have received the last quarter's blank, and you must make out the report and send it in, and your membership for the year will be counted. Will you not do your very best to have a gain in members? Your membership decides your number of delegates to the State Convention—one delegate for every twenty paid members—your President and the delegate-at-large. Then the MESSAGE—won't you be ambitious to have every member take it? Nothing short of such a support will satisfy. The fact that Wooley speaks to the Convention October 7, Friday night, seems to promise large attendance from all points comparatively near.

CHALMERS UNION born to great things with eleven members; three honorary. Mrs. A. Willson, President; Mrs. Nellie T. Mereshon, Secretary; Mrs. Rachel Geiger, Treasurer.

MRS. M. L. HOBBS, Ireland, writes they will hold a grand Gold Contest one night of their County teachers' institute—that is a splendid effort.

THE STATEMENT that Mrs. Blair organized an L. T. L. at Odell, is incorrect. Mrs. Blair visited the organization there, and that work must go to the credit of Miss Addie Borum.

MRS. BARRICKLOW, President of Willard Union, Frankfort, is at Urbana, Ill., at the bedside of her father. She has been there for several weeks.

MATTIE O. CAMMACK spends several days in the Willard Union, speaking in the Presbyterian and other Churches; holding parlor meetings, etc. A reception is planned for the evening of her arrival. Mrs. Cammack's dates are: Steuben County, August 8 to 20; DeKalb County, August 20 to 26; Nappanee, August 27 to 29; Hendricks County, August 30 to September 5; Johnson County, September 5 to 11; Martin County, September 12 to 18.

A NEW UNION at Reynolds; Mrs. N. A. Murray, President; Mrs. Jennie Stine, Secretary; Mrs. Virginia Lawson, Treasurer; Miss Mary Dalzell, Superintendent of Literature. Every member takes the MESSAGE.

A NEW State Superintendent came to the Indiana White Ribboners on the night of the 14th of July—Frances Albirtie Boyer, Frankfort. Weighed eight pounds; has dark hair and bright eyes; born to His service. Praise the Lord.

CHALMERS UNION comes into line again with the following officers: President, Mrs. Adelia Smith; Secretary, Miss Mary McCabe; Treasurer, Mrs. Lizzie Price; Superintendent of Literature and W. T. P. A. Agent, Mrs. Josie Pettit.

THE RESOLUTION asking that no change be made in the quarterly temperance lessons was adopted by the five hundred delegates in attendance at Indiana State Sunday School Convention, held in Greenfield, June 7-9. This action places Indiana in the front list, if we will only follow it up with reports. If you have received no blank, please send for one at once. September 11 is Temperance Sunday. Push the Pledge Chain. Reports must come in September. Let them be full and Indiana will make a good showing.

ALICE G. GEARY,
Superintendent.

730 North St., Logansport, Ind.

MRS. JENNIE RIDGEWAY takes her Medal Class into the country, and the Church would not hold the people who come to hear. We could hold a contest in every country church and school house if we willed to do so.

ONE STEP at a time. In conversation with several gentlemen at different times, each representing different occupations, they confessed to knowing that a license ballot is wrong, and that they believed one for prohibition was right. Such men are not confined to any special locality; they are everywhere. Let us see to it that they take the next step and vote for the right.

MONTGOMERY UNION meets at night, and on June 19 had a most encouraging meeting. Four of the honorary members were present. Two of these brothers declared themselves as voting Prohibition in the future. This Union has strong plans for the future. Some of its members have had sickness and death.

SIMS will engage in Suffrage contests. Mrs. Hannah Harper is in charge of the work.

OUR WORLD'S PRESIDENT.

Our Unions are receiving letters from some of our world's workers and are being asked to publish these letters in their county papers. We use the press to advance our cause, and not to air our differences of opinion. Our World's President must be judged by her deeds and her words. Publish those as you will, but to publish other people's judgment of those deeds and words might be a great injustice to one we should wish to honor for the sake of our cause. If our World's President is at fault, will it advance the cause to publish in every paper of the land? Would it not be more consistent with the spirit of our organization to deal with the charges in the convention?

Scripture instructs, if you have aught against your brother, see him; if he will not listen, go to the church and there consider it. If the writers of these letters have seen the offending parties, to no purpose, then let them come to the convention, that we may have the love we bear each other and our cause, to permeate our judgment, otherwise we shall engender strife and thwart justice.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

Dear Sisters—The State Convention will be held at LaFayette, October 7 to 11. Every Union is urged to send its full quota of delegates—the President, one delegate at large, and one delegate for every twenty paid members.

Now is the time to elect your delegates. If the money is not already in the treasury to pay the expenses of your delegates, please give immediate attention to a plan for securing it.

No Union can afford to fail in being represented at the State Convention. We need the representatives and each Union needs to have its voice in the planning of the State work.

Each delegate is requested to bring a copy of the White Ribbon Hymnal with her to the Convention. We must sing our sentiments into the minds of the masses.

DEPARTMENTS.

That our State Superintendents may be able to make good reports to the National Superintendents, will each local Superintendent faithfully report all the work done by the Union in her department? Where special work has been done by a Union, and there is no Superintendent, will the President of the Union make a full report of it to the State Superintendent?

COUNTY CONVENTIONS

Every member of every Union should feel it her duty to attend the County Convention, thus by her presence and prayers, if in no other way, help to make it a success. Make a great effort, to attend your County Convention. Our cause will not win unless we do our whole duty. The saloon keeper and his patrons may well smile when they see a few women straggling into a Church to attend a County Convention. Invite the men to attend; urge the men to attend; put the right minded physicians on the program to tell the evil effects of alcohol, of cigarette smoking, and the use of tobacco. Advertise the fact that certain prominent men will take part on the program, then each member should consider herself appointed to invite everybody she meets. Do your best to make your County Convention the very best ever held.

Sisters, there never has been a time in the history of our work when there was greater need for persistent work than now. The enemy never has been so defiant. Will you do your best? We can never hope for victory until our own membership will stand bravely in the front, regardless of preferment.

Yours in loving service,
LUELLA F. McWHIRTER.

L. T. L. BRANCH.

The 4th annual meeting of the L. T. L. of Indiana was held at Acton Camp Ground August 3d. A large delegation of young people came from Greensburg, Indianapolis, Pendleton and other points adjacent. The march through the grounds with flags, and each local Legion giving at intervals its "yell," was a very inspiring and patriotic scene. Indiana may feel proud of her young people who are enlisted in the battle for home. Miss Anna A. Gordan, World's Secretary, sent the following message: "Love to Loyal Legioners fighting for God, home and country." We had a message also from the National Secretary, Mrs. Helen G. Rice. This year gave us 13 graduates, as follows: South Bend, Emma Entzian; Pendleton, Mrs. Estella Spear, Mamie Leightner; Lincolnville, John Porter, Shirley Harden, Numan Harden, Florence Owen, Fred. A. Harvey, Edna White, Dana Jackson, Ethel Owen, Della Hummer. Lincolnville, having the largest class, receives the banner. The outlook for next year's convention is good, as there is prospect of a number of large classes who want the banner.

The officers elected to serve the coming year are: President, James Gipe, Indianapolis; 1st Vice-President, Carl Cammack, Marion; 2d Vice-President, Lottie Benner, Argos; Corresponding Secretary, Mamie Leightner, Pendleton; Recording Secretary, Fred. Carter, Westfield; Treasurer, Ina Boyer, Frankfort.

Superintendents of Departments—Mary Driver, Dunkirk, Flower Mission; George Wines, Frankfort, Mercy; Emma Weimer, Argos, Medal Contest; Jesse Straw, North Manchester, Narcotics; Fred. Carter, Westfield, Narcotics; B. F. Watson, Argos, Agent Young Crusader.

Mr. Fred. Carter, the Recording Secretary, has proven himself so capable and has been so faithful, not having missed one convention, that he was unanimously re-elected to serve his fifth year.

O! the L. T. L's are coming,
The children are a-field,
We are marching, we are coming,
Our clarion call has pealed.

Our clarion call has pealed,
Not one brigade shall yield.
O! the L. T. L's are coming,
The children are a-field.

Adjourned to meet July, '99, the place not being decided upon.

The report blanks have been sent out. Please see to it that they are filled and returned to me before September 15th. And let us have a good report of dues paid. Remember, there is to be a banner presented at LaFayette for the greatest amount over $5. One Legion is already entitled to it, if none exceeds it. Let us arrange for a good conference at LaFayette and plan for good work in the coming year.

A. R. GORDON.

SYSTEMATIC AND PROPORTIONATE GIVING DEPARTMENT.

As superintendent of this work, I take this opportunity to urge all of my local superintendents to be prompt and enthusiastic in reporting this department work by September 20th. I will not repeat the questions, for I have sent out the report blanks to all of you and you know what is required of you. If there have been superintendents appointed in any Union for this department who have not received a report blank, it is because your name has not been sent to me.

Write to me and I will send report blank at once. There has been a gain in our department work this year. We want a full report without fail. So "Let us then be up and doing,

With a heart for any fate,
Still achieving, still pursuing—
Learn to labor and to wait."

Yours for service,

S. M. SHELTON,

State Superintendent.

Livonia.

DEPARTMENT PEACE AND ARBITRATION.

In vain did I scan the pages of the last MESSAGE, hoping to find some report of something done somewhere in the State in our especial line of work.

The excitement and enthusiasm attendant upon the contest with Spain has in measure neutralized our interest in peace, while on the other hand many of us, as we read of the wounds and sickness and privations from which our "bravest and best" are suffering; and above all, as we read of the terrible temptations to every phase of evil which beset them, must feel more intensely than ever before how pressing the need of bringing these evils of war to the notice of those who may have influence in the direction of national affairs.

Our National Superintendent is already asking for an early report from our State, and what have we to tell? Dear sister, please do something. Arrange and hold a Parlor Meeting in advocacy of peace. Write an article for your local paper, ask your pastor to preach a peace sermon, distribute literature or talk with your neighbor in favor of the Christ-like way of settling difficulties.

Some of these things can yet be done in time to report them to me by the 15th of September, that I may summarize and report to our National Superintendent before October 1. Please report:

1. Number of meetings held.
2. Peace articles written.
3. Number pages Peace literature distributed, and any other helpful item in connection with our work.

As I write, press reports give hope of an early cessation of our present war. In that hope let us renew our effort for ultimate and abiding peace.

H. LAVINIA BAILY,

Superintendent.

the purchase of Temple Trust Bonds, as had been the understanding of the Temple trustees and our constituency, and this we count in the $67,000 of stock not available for retiring bonds.

The Temple status to-day is therefore as follows: The building is erected on leased ground, owned by Mr. Marshall Field, for which an annual rental of $40,000 must be paid for 188 years without possibility of re-valuation.

Six hundred thousand dollars of building bonds were issued as lien upon the building and are held by the Field Museum of Chicago. These could be purchased only at par value.

Three hundred thousand dollars of stock is held by the American Trust and Savings Bank as security for the $300,000 Temple Trust Bonds.

Two hundred and eighty-four thousand seven hundred dollars of stock is owned by capitalists in Chicago, of which amount Mr. Field owns $118,400.

Fifteen thousand three hundred dollars is held by Mrs. Matilda B. Carse for the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

To secure the entire Temple, which would still stand upon leased ground, and so could not in reality be owned, we would require, in addition to the $15,300 of stock now held, $300,000 to retire the Temple Trust Bonds, plus $600,000 building bonds, plus $217,700 stock as above mentioned ($284,700 minus $67,000 equals $217,700.) To meet this large total of $1,117,700 we have, at the most generous estimate, only the sum of $142,500 given above, thus leaving a balance of $975,200 to be raised.*

From reports received from States and foreign lands, the General Officers have reason to hope that $15,000 additional might be raised before November 1. Our women have done their utmost, and stern reality forces us to face the conclusion that the money will not come from the rich people of the nation. If this $15,000 were raised, there would still remain $142,500 deficit on the Temple Trust Bonds, to say nothing of the other large sums which must be raised before the Temple could be owned.

Interviews with business and professional men and women have clearly revealed the fact that there is no lack of interest throughout the nation in a proposed memorial to Miss Willard, and no lack of appreciation of her matchless character and marvelous work, but that the Temple does not appeal to the public as a fitting memorial. No large sums have been received from the outside public, but white ribbon women have generously responded during the eleven years since the beginning of the enterprise. About $250,000 has been raised for the Temple almost entirely by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. This money, with the exception of the $20,000 held by Miss Dow, has been placed in the hands of the Temple directors and Temple trustees, and up to October, 1897, of this amount there had been, according to Mrs. Carse's statement, expended as follows:

This statement brings the matter down to the present date, and answers the question why a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union has been called in the interim of the National Conventions. Your General Officers, while appreciating the brave spirit and indomitable efforts of Mrs. Carse, have become convinced, not alone of the hopelessness of the attempt to own the Temple, but of the lack of understanding regarding the situation that exists among our own women, as well as on the part of the general public.

In so crucial a time they do not feel warranted in taking a decisive step in regard to the Temple without the wisdom and counsel of the Executive Committee. They are anxious that some plan should be devised at once, which shall determine the action of our organization during the months intervening before the memorial Convention in St. Paul, in order that that Convention, the most sorrowful in our history as a society, may be free from anything out of harmony with its tender and sacred character. They are sure that, in laying this matter thus before the Executive Committee and in trying to formulate a plan for united action, they are following out what would be, if she were with us, Miss Willard's own wish. She frequently expressed herself as being unfavorable toward so great a financial undertaking as the Temple has proved itself to be. She said again and again to personal friends that her work for the Temple should not extend beyond this year; that the matter must be settled at the next Convention.

They are fully aware that the National Convention itself is the final court of appeal upon this and all other matters; nevertheless, they believe that the Executive Committee may be able to suggest a policy which shall unite all dissenting voices and bring all together in the union we so greatly desire. Although fully persuaded that it is an utter impossibility for us ever to own the Temple, they still hope that such an arrangement may be entered upon as shall make it possible to pay, in part at least, the most needy bondholders and to retain Willard Hall on a long lease, which, without doubt, could be renewed at its expiration. Bear in mind the fact that, even though the million and a quarter, which the Temple cost, were to be raised, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union could not own Willard Hall, since it stands on leased ground. If favorable terms could be secured, it would be far more economical, and fully as effective in the end, for the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union to lease Willard Hall and pay rent for National Headquarters in the Temple, which we have done since its completion, as it would be for us to go on in this hopeless effort to own the entire building.

We believe the statement of the General Officers will appeal to our great constituency, and we pray that such divine wisdom may be given as will enable us to plan wisely for the best interests of our great organization.

Adopted by the Executive Committee and ordered sent out as its official statement, July 15, 1898.

RESOLUTIONS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF NATIONAL WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION, PASSED JULY 16, 1898.

WHEREAS, After eleven years of heroic effort on behalf of the Temple enterprise, an affiliated interest of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, we find ourselves forced to face the facts set forth in the official statement of the General Officers of our organization; be it therefore regretfully

Resolved, First, That it is the sense of the executive committee that the appeal of the General Officers sent out in March last should be at once withdrawn, and that all efforts on the part of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union to raise money with a view to owning the Temple be discontinued, and we recommend that no further call to local unions or efforts by them be made to own or pay for the Temple.

Resolved, Second, That while we are not legally bound, we regard it as a sacred trust to purchase, before the next convention, the Temple trust bonds so far as available funds make possible. Therefore we recommend, provided the permission of the donors be secured, that all money now in the hands of the Temple Trustees and Miss Cornelia Dow, with all money forwarded to her for this purpose before November 1, 1898, be used to purchase these bonds. To such bondholders as do not dispose of their Temple trust bonds before November 1, 1898, we recommend that they may be exchanged for their collateral security or Temple stock.

Resolved, Third, That our sincere appreciation be extended to Mrs. Matilda B. Carse, the founder of the Temple, for the brave effort she has made to secure for the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union the building which she has always believed would be a source of a large revenue for the carrying on of the work, and that we are convinced that but for the untoward circumstances which it was impossible for any one to foresee, the status of the building would be very different to-day.

Resolved, Fourth, That a copy of the official statement of the General Officers on the Temple question, which, by action of the Executive Committee, has been made its statement, and a copy of the resolutions adopted, be sent to each one named in the official roster of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and that they be published in the first issue of the Union Signal.

Resolved, Fifth, That the General Officers be made a committee to confer with Mr. Marshall Field in regard to securing the lease of Willard Hall for the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

INDIANA SPEAKS.

Let us reason together, that we may be more closely knit together in love in seeming defeat; there can be no defeat to those who love the Lord, for all things work together for good. Having had the wish and example of our dear Miss Willard in regard to the Temple, and the year she expected to give to the work so rapidly passing away, we should have seen hopeful indications of raising the money, but the amount in the custodian's hands is pitifully small; hence the action of our Executive Committee, which action is simply a reminder of this fact—the crisis is upon us. Remember Mrs. Carse may be like Moses, called and led of God, and yet not permitted to see the promised land—in Mrs. Carse's case, the Temple—paid for. Israel was at fault and provoked Moses. It is possible the W. C. T. U. has been at fault in its slowness, its judgment and speech; and Mrs. Carse, in her determination to succeed, impatient. So trying to human nature is defeat. The action of the Convention must be final; every vote for the Temple should represent cash. No woman can justly vote for some other one to pay for the Temple without she states just how much she can help. And when the vote is taken and the several amounts counted, if we have the money no woman in the Convention will oppose the Temple. If we do not have the money—and the judgment of the majority says we had better stop now and give the project up—shall we not do so in the name of the Lord?

The amount of money raised from now on to the time of the Convention, is the measure of our faith and love for the ownership of the Temple. If God be for us, who can be against us?

OUR CRUSADE

Began against the saloon. It has lasted twenty-five years. As an organization we must begin a second crusade on the Christian voter. If civilization, education and gospel have not already prepared a majority of the American voters to denounce the traffic in rum, they have been a failure. If men can tell the truth, the majority see the evil of the business as well as that of the habit. Seeing this, many such men vote license. Voting license is not a Christian act. Bring the pressure of our organization down on that point until that sentiment is as widely believed as that Christian men cannot drink or sell, and the battle is won to this extent. Law and Gospel and Education, the great trinity of righteousness, will harmonize; then it will simply take time. To-day Christian men consent with license ballots to have rum made and sold under law or by law. A crusade at this point will wake up the churches to make their resolutions more than words on paper. Count me for the second crusade.

MARY E. BALCH.

LOCAL UNIONS.

This is a matter for every Union to consider. If every member of the Union will take the MESSAGE the State will furnish the Union with one copy of the Union Signal free. When members think they cannot afford to take the MESSAGE after paying their membership fee, would it not be wise for the Union to take it for them? In organizing new Unions we allow each one to get 25 cents credit on their dues if they will take the MESSAGE at once. Thirty cents of each one's dues belong to the Union, and if they agree to use it that way, it means very soon every member will read our State organ and will become more and more established in our principles and manner of working. It means the success of the paper and an intelligent membership. Unions cannot make a better investment of that amount of money. This will very likely come before the convention as a recommendation to Unions.

MRS. HELEN L. BULLOCK and her daughter, of New York, are expected with us at our State Convention.

THE TEMPLE.

The following official statement has been sent out from the Press Department of the National W. C. T. U.:

The National Woman's Christian Temperance Union is in no way legally bound to the Temple or any of its entanglements. It is now supposed that most of the Temple trust bonds are held by capitalists as are the other Temple bonds. No doubt some of them are held by poor people, and it is the desire of the National officers to relieve them as far as the funds, which have been sent to Miss Dow, will admit.

Miss Gordon, who offered the resolutions of the Executive Committee, favoring giving up the Temple, was for 21 years Miss Willard's private secretary and constant companion and devoted friend. She more than any other knew Miss Willard's inmost thought regarding the Temple and all other W. C. T. U. interests. Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, Miss Willard's successor, was for twenty-four years Miss Willard's constant friend. There was never a shadow came between their friendship. Mrs. Stevens' chief delight in the National work seemed to be to do that which would most help Miss Willard. When the National constitution was changed so as to provide for a vice-president-at-large, to act in place of the president when the latter should be prevented from acting, Miss Willard nominated Mrs. Stevens, and she repeated this nomination each year. When Miss Willard was ill in New York, Mrs. Stevens was summoned to her side. No one conversant with facts can deny that Miss Gordon and Mrs. Stevens have acted conscientiously in the Temple matter, and no one can ever doubt their love and loyalty to Miss Willard.

The Temple is only an affiliated interest of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union. It is not an integral part of its work, as are its forty departments under the heads of Organization, Preventive, Educational, Evangelistic, Social and Legal. The building has never brought in revenue to the Society; on the contrary more than $200,000, mostly from White Ribboners, has been spent in floating the enterprise, while the National W. C. T. U. has paid, and is paying to-day, regular rent for its offices in the Temple, and the Central W. C. T. U. of Chicago has paid, and is paying to-day, rent for Willard Hall, in which are held, under the auspices of that Union, the noontide meetings. Hence, in having to give up the Temple, the W. C. T. U. had nothing to lose, but much to gain by enlightening the White Ribboners, so that they would understand the exact situation, in order that their money, representing so much self-sacrifice, should be in the future rightly applied toward the building up of our work.

The action taken by the National Executive Committee, July 15th, when they voted to give up all hope and effort to own the Temple, is meeting with the approval of the leading officers and workers. Lady Henry Somerset, President, Miss Agnes Slack and Miss Anna Gordon, Secretaries, and Mrs. Sannerson, the general officers of the World's W. C. T. U., all heartily endorse the action of the Executive Committee. At the Executive Committee in Chicago, as has been stated, eighteen were in favor of giving up the Temple and four opposed. Since that time all of the absent members of the National Executive Committee have been heard from save five, and all of those heard from agree that the Committee did right in its meetings July 15th. The National Superintendents, so far as heard from, with one exception, approve the action of the Executive Committee, as do also Mrs. J. K. Barney, round-the-world missionary, Mrs. Mary Livermore, and Mrs. Hannah J. Bailey, Superintendent of Peace and Arbitration.

The statement herewith appended, has been sent to every local Union in the Nation, accompanied by a letter from the General Officers of the National W. C. T. U., of which the following is the closing paragraph:

"We are sure that we need not remind you that there is in the hearts of the General Officers and the other members of the executive committee only kindness and love toward those who have been most active and zealous in the Temple enterprise. We have no criticisms or recriminations, but only praise for their zeal and loyalty. At the same time we feel that the time has come when the facts of the case should be made known throughout the entire country, in order that in the light of those facts the history of the next few months may be made. If it be considered that we have lost sight of God as a power in this movement, we must venture to remind you that it seems to us that we have caught a new vision of God in his justice and righteousness, and if it be considered that it is a lack of faith which induces us to take the stand we have taken, we must answer also that we have faith enough to believe that the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will exist and go forward conquering and to conquer, though it be stripped of every outside interest.

"May God give to us all wisdom and light and enable us to do his will."

STATEMENT OF THE GENERAL OFFICERS OF THE NATIONAL WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION.

Your General Officers find, on examining the records of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, that the first reference to the Temple, an affiliated interest of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, was made in a brief sentence in Miss Willard's address at the Minneapolis Convention in 1886, in which she states that but for the riots Mrs. Carse would have already undertaken the enterprise.

In the Convention of 1887, at Nashville, Tenn., they find the following record: "Mr. Hall was followed by Mrs. Carse, who presented the cause of the Temperance Temple, after which large amounts were subscribed for the enterprise."

In the minutes of the executive committee meeting of November 21, 1887, they find the following record: "Mrs. Hobbs and Mrs. Carse were granted hearings, and addressed the committee on the Temperance Temple. Owing to the pressure of business, Mrs. Rounds moved that this be referred to the General Officers, with a definite understanding that the erection of the Temple upon leased ground cannot be indorsed. Carried."

In the President's annual address of that year the following sentences occur: "Mrs. Matilda B. Carse will tell you of her plans and show you a picture of the wonderful Temple which she has seen in visions on the mount of faith and prayer. She promises not to build until she has $500,000 in the bank, so we are safe from anything chimerical. She does not ask us to assume legal responsibility, so we cannot complain."

In the report of the resolutions committee of 1887, the following resolution appears as No. 12: "Temperance Temple. Resolved, That we cordially endorse the grand plan of the Temperance Temple, as presented by its founder, and pledge to this great enterprise our hearty co-operation with money and influence." After full discussion this resolution was referred to the executive committee, by whom it was again referred to the post executive. In the post executive committee the following was offered by Mrs. Hoffman: "Resolved, That we regard with admiration and amazement the colossal plans of our earnest and devoted sister, Mrs. Matilda B. Carse, of Chicago, for the building of a Temperance Temple in that city as a home and source of financial revenue to the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and that, while we assume no legal responsibility whatever, we do give to Mrs. Carse our sympathy, our prayers, and pledge ourselves not to hinder or embarrass her in the prosecution of her plans, provided she shall legally obligate herself not to begin the work until $500,000 shall be secured." Adopted.

After the Nashville Convention the whole enterprise seems to have become involved in misunderstanding in the minds of many of the women of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The building was erected upon leased ground, after only $61,000 of stock had been subscribed by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Subsequently, all but $15,300 of the $61,000 was used for the issuing of the $300,000 Temple Trust Bonds, and the accrued interest on the stock purchased, which bonds stand as a mortgage upon $300,000 worth of stock now held in escrow by the American Trust and Savings Bank, as collateral for the Temple trust bonds. While these bonds were issued by Mrs. Carse upon her own responsibility, the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union practically endorsed her action at the next convention.

Previous to the Convention of 1897, a committee of inquiry into the status of the affiliated interests of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union was, at the request of Miss Willard, appointed by the General Officers. This committee consisted of Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, Vice-President-at-Large; Miss Elizabeth Preston, President of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of North Dakota, and Miss Margaret Hilles, President of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Delaware. Miss Hilles found it impossible to serve, but Mrs. Stevens and Miss Preston met at Chicago during the latter part of October, and, together with the other affiliated interests, thoroughly investigated the financial standing of the Temple.

The report of this committee was given by Mrs. Stevens at the Buffalo Convention, and was of a discouraging nature concerning the probability of the final ownership of the Temple by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Miss Willard bravely threw herself into the breach, pledging to give her fifty-ninth year to an effort to retire the Temple Trust Bonds, saying: "I shall not come around making any soft words to the Local Unions nor the White Ribboners. They have done enough. Turn we now to the Gentiles. I shall only try to help get enough to retire the $300,000 Temple Trust Bonds, thus holding the balance of votes, but shall not try to own the whole Temple. The White Ribboners shall not be disturbed. They have done nobly. They have become weary. I do not wonder that they are a little discouraged, and what I would like to do is to lift the burden." Miss Cornelia Dow, daughter of Gen. Neal Dow, of Portland, Me., was nominated by Miss Willard, and appointed by the Convention, as custodian of this fund.

The Convention endorsed Miss Willard's plan of going to the people of wealth with an appeal for the money necessary to retire the Temple Trust Bonds, and a resolution to that effect was carried. During the weeks intervening between the Buffalo Convention and the beginning of Miss Willard's illness in New York, she did all that she could in the way of interviewing people in Chicago and elsewhere, but without marked results. One of her last acts was to prepare the letter, since widely circulated, which was to be sent to men and women of wealth throughout the Nation, telling the purpose of the Temple and what it stood for in her thought. This letter, though prepared some weeks before her death, was not published until after that sad event. Her fifty-ninth year came all too soon to a close, and the work which was to have occupied its months was left only just begun.

After her "going away" the general officers of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, as soon as they could at all rally from the shock of their great loss, took up the burden her tired hands had laid down, pledging themselves to send out her letter, and by every other means in their power to further the enterprise. They were encouraged by letters, which came to them from all over the Nation, to believe that not only her original plan of retiring the Temple Trust Bonds might be carried out, but that through the impulse of public sympathy and sorrow the Temple itself might be paid for. Acting upon this thought, they issued a call for the formation of citizens' committees in every State, whose work it should be to raise money for the Temple as a memorial building to our departed leader. March 20th was set apart as a special memorial day, and they asked that the collections taken on that day might be forwarded to Miss Cornelia Dow. In nearly every State this work was taken up; committees were appointed in large cities, and in some places almost a house-to-house visitation was made. The ultimate date set before the women for the raising of this money was July 1, 1898, since Mrs. Carse had repeatedly stated in the Union Signal and elsewhere that at that time the offer of $50,000 made by Mr. Marshall Field would expire. In addition to the work of the General Officers, the Temple Trustees have continued their endeavor and made a supreme effort toward raising the required amount.

On July 1, your General Officers held a meeting to consider the present status of the enterprise, and found that through their own efforts, combined with those of the Temple Trustees, the results are as follows:

Mrs. Carse claims, through reductions on Temple Trust Bonds (many bondholders having generously promised to donate thirty cents on the dollar, and a few have given their bonds), $90,000.

Cash now in the hands of the Temple Trustees, $20,000.

Cash now in the hands of Miss Dow, custodian of the Willard fund, $20,000.

Conditional cash pledges, $12,500.

This leaves, provided the conditional pledges are met, a deficit of $157,500 before the Temple Trust Bonds of $300,000 can be released.

Stock donated, not available for bonds, $67,000.

Mrs. Stevens and Miss Gordon, on July 1, had an interview with Mr. Marshall Field, who owns the ground upon which the building stands, and is also the largest stockholder in the Temple corporation. They learned from him that his promised gift of $50,000 is not in cash, but is a part of the stock still remaining in his hands; that it cannot apply on the $300,000 for

MOTHERS' MEETINGS.

Will all County Superintendents of this department kindly send in a full report of all work done, number of meetings held, number of local Superintendents and their names, the amount of literature distributed in both local and county work? Have you had addresses from local, county or State Superintendents, or others, in the interests of this department? How many copies of the New Crusade are taken? Please give all items of interest. ELKHART UNION held a W. C. T. U. and L. R. C. picnic. Invitations were extended to husbands and friends. All spent an enjoyable time. Rev. Among the places she has visited were Acton Park, North Manchester and North Dakota, where very profitable as well as pleasant programs had been arranged for her.

NAPPANEE has had Rev. I. S. Wade with them, giving evangelistic temperance lectures. It was a success, quite a number donning the blue ribbon.

GOSHEN is preparing for our county convention, to be held in early September. Our Y's will give an interesting program August 23, interspersed throughout with appropriate music and recitations. While some of our Unions are not doing much yet, we all hope to be inspired at our convention and begin the year with new-born energy.

HADLEY INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.
TRUSTEES.

Miss Lucretia Hobart, President, 1101 Virginia ave., Indianapolis; Mrs. Phebe R. Curryer, Corresponding Secretary, 1320 College ave., Indianapolis; Mrs. Mattie Chandler, Recording Secretary, Friendswood, Ind.; Mrs. Mary J. Flick, Vice-President, Lawrence, Ind.; Mrs. Ella B. Wright, Treasurer, Greensburg, Ind.; Mrs. Louise Wardner, LaPorte, Ind.; Mrs. Kate Mendenhall, Amo, Ind.; Mrs. G. E. Stanton, 441 Cherry street, Indianapolis; Mrs. Annie Johnston, Fairmount, Ind.

It is now four years since the Hadley Home opened its doors to receive its children. All this time the struggle for existence has kept up with a steady gain in its favor. In the march of events, new conditions arise and must be met. It has been demonstrated by experiment that we can never fully protect our girls from vicious associations until we have a teacher in the Home, and stop their attendance at the village school. We must trust the W. C. T. U. workers, under God's guidance, to make it possible for us to have a school in the Home, by providing the necessary funds to carry it forward. We must prove ourselves worthy of the trust we have undertaken. Benevolent men and women have laid their offerings at our feet, because they had faith that we could work out some of their high ideals. Let us not disappoint them. There are now 17 girls in the Home, and three more expected. Do you know we have no bath-room?

The old debts have nearly all been cancelled. Less than $100 will finish them. Our Superintendent and Matron have rendered ten months' service since they were paid. The farm has added its products. $97 has been received from sale of cattle, $53 from sale of hogs, leaving 16 head of cattle and 30 head of hogs on the farm. The large barn is completely filled with clover, hay and oats. The corn crop gives fair promise and the garden and poultry are supplying the table with healthful food. While the projectors of this enterprise are living and are helping to push it forward, is the time for stress to be put on effort to raise the money and make the improvements that are necessary for the comfort and health of the inmates. Relieve the officers, and bless the children. Less than this argues lack of ability to appreciate an opportunity for great possibilities. Those who have done so much will do more, if every Union in Indiana will show a willing hand and send a liberal contribution.

LUCRETIA HOBART,
President.

MRS. McWHIRTER filled the following engagements: South Bend, the First Baptist church, Sunday, August 28th, 10:30 A. M.; South Bend, Picnic and Temperance Convention at Springbook Park, Tuesday, August 30th, presiding and addressed the morning session; Lucerne, Picnic, August 31st and will be at Angola, Steuben County Convention, September 1st; Muncie, Mothers' Meeting, September 8th; Albany, Delaware County Convention, September 9th; Lapel, Madison County Convention, September 13th; Logansport, Cass County Convention, September 16th.

MRS. LOUISE S. ROUNDS, President of Illinois W. C. T. U., has consented to attend some of our County Conventions. No braver, more valient temperance orator can be secured to present our cause to the people than Mrs. Rounds. Those who desire her services will receive a speedy reply by addressing her at 1116, The Temple, Chicago, Ill.

LINDLEY AND PHLOX UNIONS are holding contests about every two or three weeks. Many gold medals will be the result.

MISS MARIE BREHM, National Superintendent of Franchise, who has done efficient work in Indiana, will be available for work after the State Convention.

DEAR SISTERS OF THE W. C. T. U.:

I have sent out blanks to every Superintendent of Social Purity in the State, to be returned to me by September 15. But a comparatively few Unions have Superintendents, while nearly every Union does some work along this line. If you have done any Rescue work, legislative, given out literature, held public meetings, etc., will not the Corresponding Secretary or President please report to me? Have you a Curfew law? Is it enforced? What is its effects?

Any Superintendent who fails to receive a blank will please write me at once. FRANCES G. BOYER,
State Superintendent.

THE DEKALB COUNTY CONVENTION was held at Garrett, August 20. We were highly favored by having Mrs. Mattie Cammack with us. Her practical talks during the day and her address in the evening were much appreciated. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. C. B. Jones, Garrett; Vice-President, Miss Laura Keeran, Auburn; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Blanche Stewart, Garrett; Recording Secretary, Mrs. E. J. Baker, St. Joe; Treasurer, Mrs. Silvers, Auburn. Superintendents—Jail and Prison, Mrs. Quince, Auburn; Evangelistic, Mrs. C. B. Jones, Garrett; Medal Contest, Mrs. Ada Sewell, Waterloo; Purity, Mrs. May Ehlers, Auburn; Flower Mission, Mrs. Lacky, Auburn; Sunday School, Mrs. O. A. Lang, Waterloo; Literature, Mrs. I. D. Daily, Butler; Mercy and Help, Miss Keeran, Auburn; Press, Mrs. M. A. Stafford, St. Joe.

O. A. LANG,
Secretary pro tem.

FRANKFORT had a day of the great Redmen's Pow-wow. Mrs. Hattie Barricklow, President of the Willard Union, heard that beer was being illegally sold on the fair ground. The policeman to whom she reported told her that before anything could be done against it, she must prove the fact of the sale of the beer by buying some. This she did, after which the officer ordered that no more beer be sold. So far as known the order was obeyed.

RAILROAD RATES to LaFayette—One and one-third fare for the round trip will be granted to all those desiring to attend the Indiana W. C. T. U. State Convention, to be held at LaFayette, October 7-11.

PLEASANT LAKE UNION.

List of new members for this year: Mrs. Ortesie Gilbert, Mrs. Lizzie Fegley, Mrs. Minnie Robertson, Mrs. Hannah Gilbert, Mrs. Estella Fisk, Mrs. Sarah Lacy, Mrs. Carrie Huffman, Mrs. Susie Long, Mrs. Emma Mountz, Miss Stella Fisk, Miss Lillie Fisk, Miss Clara Fisk, Miss Edith Lacy, Miss Nora Gilmore. ## STEBUEN COUNTY.

President Mrs. Willinar, who has been a member of the W. C. T. U. two and one-half years, has proven herself a general in ability. She is not only capable of planning work, but has the force to push to completion her plans. Through her effort we have been able to have Mrs. Mattie Cammack, our State Organizer, in our county nearly two weeks. She first came to Ashley August 8th. She lectured one evening, attended a reception given her by the ladies and spoke at a Mothers' Meeting. Only those who have heard her helpful words to mothers can know the inspiration. She gives mothers to be all God intended them to be, true, helpful mothers in the largest sense of the word. She spent two days at Hudson, attended a temperance entertainment, lectured one evening, held a day meeting and organized a society with twelve members, five women and seven girls. She then went to Fremont, where she spoke two evenings and held a day meeting. She spoke at Nevad Mills Sunday afternoon and at Ray Monday afternoon and evening. Tuesday, the 15th, she went to Hamilton, where she conducted four meetings and organized a contest class. She went to Pleasant Lake (Mrs. Willinar's home) the 18th to finish her work. The local W. C. T. U. gave her a reception at the Baptist church, serving light refreshments to all in attendance. The young people furnished good music and Mrs. Cammack gave one of her sparkling half-hour talks. Friday, the 19th, there was a picnic in the Lake Wood Park, a beautiful grove of oaks on the banks of the lake. There were a number of delegates from the different Unions of the county. After a bountiful basket dinner and an hour of social talk, the President called the meeting to order. Our local Union is blessed with a number of young married women and girls who are good singers. Their fresh, young voices opened the program and furnished the music. Mrs. Willinar led in the devotional. Miss Clara Fisk rendered a fine solo, and also gave an excellent recitation, "Our Babies," in her expressive manner. Mrs. Cammack gave us a fine address, taking for her subject the parable of the Good Samaritan. Judging from the excellent attention paid her, we believe good seed was sown that will bring forth, we hope, an hundred fold at the harvest. After singing "God be with you till we meet again," we went to our homes, greatly encouraged to push on the work of the W. C. T. U.

The large barn is completely filled with clover, hay and oats. The corn crop gives fair promise and the garden and poultry are supplying the table with healthful food. While the projectors of this enterprise are living and are helping to push it forward, is the time for stress to be put on effort to raise the money and make the improvements that are necessary for the comfort and health of the inmates. Relieve the officers, and bless the children. Less than this argues lack of ability to appreciate an opportunity for great possibilities. Those who have done so much will do more, if every Union in Indiana will show a willing hand and send a liberal contribution.

LUCRETIA HOBART,
President.

MRS. McWHIRTER filled the following engagements: South Bend, the First Baptist church, Sunday, August 28th, 10:30 A. M.; South Bend, Picnic and Temperance Convention at Springbook Park, Tuesday, August 30th, presiding and addressed the morning session; Lucerne, Picnic, August 31st and will be at Angola, Steuben County Convention, September 1st; Muncie, Mothers' Meeting, September 8th; Albany, Delaware County Convention, September 9th; Lapel, Madison County Convention, September 13th; Logansport, Cass County Convention, September 16th.

MRS. LOUISE S. ROUNDS, President of Illinois W. C. T. U., has consented to attend some of our County Conventions. No braver, more valient temperance orator can be secured to present our cause to the people than Mrs. Rounds. Those who desire her services will receive a speedy reply by addressing her at 1116, The Temple, Chicago, Ill.

LINDLEY AND PHLOX UNIONS are holding contests about every two or three weeks. Many gold medals will be the result.

MISS MARIE BREHM, National Superintendent of Franchise, who has done efficient work in Indiana, will be available for work after the State Convention.

DEAR SISTERS OF THE W. C. T. U.:

I have sent out blanks to every Superintendent of Social Purity in the State, to be returned to me by September 15. But a comparatively few Unions have Superintendents, while nearly every Union does some work along this line. If you have done any Rescue work, legislative, given out literature, held public meetings, etc., will not the Corresponding Secretary or President please report to me? Have you a Curfew law? Is it enforced? What is its effects?

Any Superintendent who fails to receive a blank will please write me at once. FRANCES G. BOYER,
State Superintendent.

THE DEKALB COUNTY CONVENTION was held at Garrett, August 20. We were highly favored by having Mrs. Mattie Cammack with us. Her practical talks during the day and her address in the evening were much appreciated. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. C. B. Jones, Garrett; Vice-President, Miss Laura Keeran, Auburn; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Blanche Stewart, Garrett; Recording Secretary, Mrs. E. J. Baker, St. Joe; Treasurer, Mrs. Silvers, Auburn. Superintendents—Jail and Prison, Mrs. Quince, Auburn; Evangelistic, Mrs. C. B. Jones, Garrett; Medal Contest, Mrs. Ada Sewell, Waterloo; Purity, Mrs. May Ehlers, Auburn; Flower Mission, Mrs. Lacky, Auburn; Sunday School, Mrs. O. A. Lang, Waterloo; Literature, Mrs. I. D. Daily, Butler; Mercy and Help, Miss Keeran, Auburn; Press, Mrs. M. A. Stafford, St. Joe.

O. A. LANG,
Secretary pro tem.

FRANKFORT had a day of the great Redmen's Pow-wow. Mrs. Hattie Barricklow, President of the Willard Union, heard that beer was being illegally sold on the fair ground. The policeman to whom she reported told her that before anything could be done against it, she must prove the fact of the sale of the beer by buying some. This she did, after which the officer ordered that no more beer be sold. So far as known the order was obeyed.

RAILROAD RATES to LaFayette—One and one-third fare for the round trip will be granted to all those desiring to attend the Indiana W. C. T. U. State Convention, to be held at LaFayette, October 7-11.

PLEASANT LAKE UNION.

List of new members for this year: Mrs. Ortesie Gilbert, Mrs. Lizzie Fegley, Mrs. Minnie Robertson, Mrs. Hannah Gilbert, Mrs. Estella Fisk, Mrs. Sarah Lacy, Mrs. Carrie Huffman, Mrs. Susie Long, Mrs. Emma Mountz, Miss Stella Fisk, Miss Lillie Fisk, Miss Clara Fisk, Miss Edith Lacy, Miss Nora Gilmore. Honorary members—Rev. S. L. Roberts, Mr. L. I. Maston, Mr. J. O. Matson.

STEUBEN COUNTY.

President Mrs. Willinar, who has been a member of the W. C. T. U. two and one-half years, has proven herself a general in ability. She is not only capable of planning work, but has the force to push to completion her plans. Through her effort we have been able to have Mrs. Mattie Cammack, our State Organizer, in our county nearly two weeks. She first came to Ashley August 8th. She lectured one evening, attended a reception given her by the ladies and spoke at a Mothers' Meeting. Only those who have heard her helpful words to mothers can know the inspiration. She gives mothers to be all God intended them to be, true, helpful mothers in the largest sense of the word. She spent two days at Hudson, attended a temperance entertainment, lectured one evening, held a day meeting and organized a society with twelve members, five women and seven girls. She then went to Fremont, where she spoke two evenings and held a day meeting. She spoke at Nevad Mills Sunday afternoon and at Ray Monday afternoon and evening. Tuesday, the 15th, she went to Hamilton, where she conducted four meetings and organized a contest class. She went to Pleasant Lake (Mrs. Willinar's home) the 18th to finish her work. The local W. C. T. U. gave her a reception at the Baptist church, serving light refreshments to all in attendance. The young people furnished good music and Mrs. Cammack gave one of her sparkling half-hour talks. Friday, the 19th, there was a picnic in the Lake Wood Park, a beautiful grove of oaks on the banks of the lake. There were a number of delegates from the different Unions of the county. After a bountiful basket dinner and an hour of social talk, the President called the meeting to order. Our local Union is blessed with a number of young married women and girls who are good singers. Their fresh, young voices opened the program and furnished the music. Mrs. Willinar led in the devotional. Miss Clara Fisk rendered a fine solo, and also gave an excellent recitation, "Our Babies," in her expressive manner. Mrs. Cammack gave us a fine address, taking for her subject the parable of the Good Samaritan. Judging from the excellent attention paid her, we believe good seed was sown that will bring forth, we hope, an hundred fold at the harvest. After singing "God be with you till we meet again," we went to our homes, greatly encouraged to push on the work of the W. C. T. U.

LAKE COUNTY holds its convention at Hobart, September 15th and 16th.

HOAGLAND.

Our Union is not very large, but what workers we have are very persevering. During the month of June the Rev. Johnson, of Fort Wayne, gave us a splendid lecture. Also the evening of July 25th the "Boy Orator of Indiana," Rev. Rockwood, delivered an address. We hope the seed sown at these meetings may be the means of converting many for the temperance work. We celebrated Mother Wallace Day on August 3d. Most of the time was spent in reading the Bible references, which illustrated her life and character, and in prayer and praise. A most enjoyable time was had and we were inspired to do better work in the future. We intend to have a patriotic entertainment and social in the near future. Yours in W. C. T. U. work,

BELLE GRESLEY.

ITEMS OF SPECIAL IMPORTANCE.

Recommend (by the Convention at Logansport) for the relief of the Local Committee wherever our annual convention is entertained. We need a convention fund, therefore

Resolved, That each local Union be asked annually during the fourth quarter of the year to give fifty cents for a convention fund, money to be sent to the State Treasurer to be applied on the deficit. Any surplus must remain in the treasury for future conventions.

To be applied on the deficit refers to any deficit the local committee may have for convention expenses. This is apparent, for the action was taken for the relief of the local committee.

In some unaccountable way Wolcott failed to get its credit and Chalmers received more than its share. Wolcott reorganized and has a fine Union of twelve members and three honorary, getting one new member at its first meeting. President, Mrs. O. Wilson; Secretary, Mrs. Nellie T. Mershan; Treasurer, Mrs. Rachel Geigar.

NEW ALBANY, through the efforts of the W. C. T. U., has a curfew law.

CLINTON COUNTY will hold its annual convention the latter part of September at Jefferson.

FRANKFORT UNION has called the State Secretary Y Branch to organize a Y branch for their Union.

FRANKFORT UNION has an L. T. L. nine years old. They spent July 21st in the woods in commemoration of Miss Anna Gordon's birthday. They made an imposing appearance on our streets with the carriages decorated with the national colors and the children singing "Saloons, saloons must go." Three of our L. T. L. girls wear the white ribbon.

FRANKFORT UNION is circulating a petition to present the managers of the County Fair, asking that all intoxicating liquors and immoral shows be prohibited from the grounds.

FRANKFORT UNION is planning to hold a Suffrage Contest before the State Convention. They expect to send ten dollars Stirring Campaign Fund and secure a free lecture by one of the State officers. Mrs. Atlanta Bobo is the Contest Superintendent.

CHAIRMEN OF LOCAL COMMITTEES

Sucece, 118 North 8th street; Reception, Miss Addie Borum, Odell; Sunday Services, Mrs. Sarah D. Curtiss, 240 South Grant street; Press and Music, Mrs. J. F. Sucece, 118 North 8th street; Decoration, Miss May Turpie, North 21st street; Courtesies, Mrs. Sarah M. Stevens, West Side.

CONVENTION BADGES

Will be on sale at LaFayette. They will prove a very desirable souvenir for every delegate. Price 5c.

LUNCH, DINNER AND SUPPER at LaFayette Convention: Dinner, 15 cents; Supper, 10 cents, served in the Convention Church. Delegates can not all be near the church and there are several steep hills in and about the city, but this arrangement will relieve any delegate of long walks and insures prompt attendance, that we may work on program hours.

BUS LINES.

Bus lines will take you to your homes and return you to the depot for 12½ cents each way, 25 cents round trip. This means you are to ride both ways and not try to save something for the cause by walking one way. You need not fear to reach the city in the night. If you send in your names early you will receive a card with the name of your hostess, and this card shown to the bussman insures you safe conveyance. We trust Unions will elect delegates in good time, sending names to the Chairman of Entertainment Committee.

PARKE COUNTY Convention September 9th. Have a Suffrage Contest, and use home talent.

MADISON COUNTY Convention September 13 and 14; Mrs. McWhirter with them.

CASS COUNTY, 15 and 16, and Mrs. McWhirter engaged.

MISS HADLEY, our Vice-President, is very much occupied with looking after the memorials which are to be placed in the building as per contract, and will not be available for any field work for some time.

MRS. BLAIR has changed her plans, and cannot come into the State before the last week in October. Unions taking Mrs. Blair will be notified in time to advertise.

I have sent to every County President and County Superintendent of jail and prison, blanks, and ask a prompt reply. Answer questions as numbered. It is very important that all work done shall be reported, not only that we may be represented aright, but that we may provoke others to good works. I must have my reports early in September, to make a full report to National Superintendent. God bless you every one in this labor of love, and inspire you with renewed zeal in seeking to save the lost. ELLEN K. DENNY, State Supt. Jail and Prison and Work Among Miners.

WORK AMONG COLORED PEOPLE.

In order to have work done in this department reported at our coming State Convention, and a printed record of the same in our State Minutes, answers to the following questions must be sent me not later than the 20th of this month:

UNIONS.

1. Give names of colored Unions.
2. Number of paid members. Number of enrolled and honorary members.
3. Number of departmennts taken up. State briefly work done in each.
4. Number of regular Union meetings held.
5. Are colored Unions represented in county executive meetings and on county convention programs?
6. Are officers and members subscribers to the MESSAGE, Union Signal or other temperance papers?

WORK AMONG CHILDREN.

1. In Sunday Schools.
2. In contests.
3. In temperance recitations and songs.
4. In L. T. L. work, either local, county or State.

MEETINGS.

1. Number held by Mrs. Thurman or other of our National or State speakers.
2. Mothers' Meetings—number held and interest shown.
3. What effort has been made in your community to have colored people attend and participate in prohibition meetings?

LITERATURE.

Have you circulated the MESSAGE, Union Signal, W. T. P. A., or Mary Wood Allen publications, or other temperance or purity literature?

MARY E. SIMS,

3346 Central Ave., Indianapolis, Ind. State Superintendent.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

We shall hold our usual Memorial Services at the State Convention. If Unions would send the names of their promoted comrades, and the name of some one who would speak in memoriam, we would try to give very limited time to all. Send to the State Corresponding Secretary, 711 E. 11th Street, Indianapolis.

NATIONAL DELEGATES.

The County having organized the most Unions of any other in the group, will choose the National delegate. And the County the next largest in the group, the alternate. This is a matter that should be canvassed in the County Conventions, that the available woman might be found. One who can represent us and tell the story when she returns.

COUNTY PRESIDENTS.

If there is one thing necessary for a County President to do it is to be in her place at the Executive Committee meeting at the Convention, October 6, 1 P. M., in the Convention Church, Columbia Avenue and Seventh Street, LaFayette. Women, will you see to it that your County President goes to this meeting? No money ever expended will bring larger returns.

Mrs. Sarah Curtiss, 240 South Grant Street, is Chairman of Committee on Resolutions for 1898.

Boone County holds its Convention September 8, at Lebanon. Home workers.

Mrs. Bullock, Elmira, New York, gives a week to Allen County, beginning September 17, at Ft. Wayne; also a week at Loogootee, beginning September 26.

Grant County holds her Convention at Marion, September 21 and 22. Mrs. Bullock and her daughter are expected for the 21st.

A NEW UNION.

Mrs. Retta Jones writes: "A new Union organized at Frankton, the result of Mother Trish's visit there, and the untiring efforts of Mrs. Luther Lee, of that city. I have been very sick, and at the date for organization I was unable to go; but I am thankful Madison County is full of capable women, and when their President cannot go, they go for her and do the work better than she could. So Madames Wright, Knight and Hoffman, of Lapel, drove to Frankton and organized. I visited the Union last Wednesday and found twelve wide awake women present." The Union was organized with 16 members. Officers of the Union: President, Mrs. McDaniels; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Jessie Rummel; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Lemon; Treasurer, Mrs. John Pitzer; all of Frankton. The County Convention is at Lapel.

Wells County Convention at Bluffton or Poneto. Date, September 13—one day. Mother Trish will be with them, and that means a stirring time.

MEDAL DEPARTMENT.

You have all reported if you have returned certificates for every medal sent out. As State Superintendent, I make out my report to the State and the National from these certificates. Do not fail to send every one in.

NATIONAL SECRETARY.

A letter from the National Secretary to-day says: "Do tell every local Secretary to report all the work done; and soon now the blanks will be in your hands; gather up the fragments, that nothing be lost." Dear local Secretaries, what a burden of responsibility lies on your shoulders. Do not fail us; we depend on you.

Mrs. Balch's dates for September: Dearborn County, 9 to 13; Milan, Ripley County, 13; Jennings, 14; Floyd, 15; Clarke, 16; Harrison, 17, 18 and 19; Crawford, 20; Perry, 21; Spencer, 22; Pike, 23.

Marion County has a Gold Medal Contest at her County Convention, September 21, in charge of Mrs. Mary Bogart, Indianapolis, County Superintendent.

Miss Marie Brehm, Illinois, is at Oxford, September 5, on "Christian Citizenship Work." September 10 they hold a Woman's Suffrage Contest. Miss Brehm speaks for the Y's at State Convention, and will be with us on Sunday. She will be given some time Monday to speak on her department—"Woman's Enfranchisement." Miss Brehm is National Superintendent of this work.

WHITE RIBBON HYMNALS.

It will be safe to bring your Hymnal to the Convention with you, name and address written on the fly leaf; it is the only way we can have a good supply of books that all may sing. If a Union has a number of copies, some delegate could be responsible for their care, and let us have our own songs to sing.

Mrs. Wyeth, of Terre Haute, called at the home of the Secretary, Monday, 29th. Reported some excellent Mothers' meetings at Terre Haute. Spoke in glowing terms of their County President, Mrs. Joyce.

Mrs. Julia Overman, of Marion, paid us a visit recently, and gave Grant County a good record.

by Power,
But by My Spirit"

OUR CHIEFTAIN'S ORDERS.

By Mrs. S. L. OBERHOLTZER
[Set to music by Mr. O. H. Hawley.]

"Beautiful with God," she said,
Our Chieftain brave and true,
And passed an open gateway,
From whence the light shines through.
Still, from the heights supernal,
Obscured from mortal view,
She sends us marching orders,
"Press on and on and on,
Till the blights of human homes
Are all dissolved and gone."

The myths of heaven and distance
Have faded quite away.
Our Chieftain gone, though present,
Is with us day by day,
Cheering us on to service
And prompting our delay.
We hear the marching orders,
"Press on and on and on,
Till the blights of human homes
Are all dissolved and gone."

Drilled by a length of service
We needs must understand
Our wise and gracious Chieftain,
And feel the memory wand
That strengthens feeble effort,
And gives us faith to stand
And heed the marching orders,
"Press on and on and on,
Till the blights of human homes
Are all dissolved and gone."

She sends us marching orders,
We follow them from choice.
We hear the marching orders,
We know the sweet, sweet voice.
We heed the marching orders,
Go forward and rejoice.
We're under marching orders,
"Press on and on and on,
Till the blights of human homes
Are all dissolved and gone."

1905 Tioga St., Philadelphia, Pa.

This song was taken from the Union Signal. Our Treasurer suggests that Unions send at once for the music, and let us sing it at our State Convention.—Ed.

National Convention—St. Paul, Minn., November 11-16.

Indiana State Convention—LaFayette, October 7-11.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Will meet promptly at 1:30 P. M., Thursday, October 6th, in St. Paul M. E. church. Delegates arriving at LaFayette at noon or after, are requested to go directly to the church. All such delegates should be provided with a lunch, so that they need not seek their places of entertainment until after the adjournment of the Executive.
LUELLA F. McWHIRTER

The names of all delegates to the State Convention should be sent immediately to Mrs. J. B. Sucece, 118 North 8th street, LaFayette.

OMNIBUS LINES

Will take delegates to places of entertainment and return to the depot for 25 cents, round trip. Delegates and visitors need not fear reaching LaFayette in the night. The name of each delegate, with her address, should be sent to Chairman of Entertainment Committee immediately.

White Ribboners, urge the Y delegates and young women everywhere to attend a part, if not all, of the State Convention. We need the efforts, interest and unselfish enthusiasm of the young women in our work. The LaFayette Convention will be large and enthusiastic. Pray earnestly and constantly from this day that its deliberations may be guided by Our Father. Especially would I ask you to pray that each delegate and visitor may receive a fresh baptism of the power of the Holy Ghost.

Let us re-kindle the Crusade fire, and count ourselves a Gideons band, marching on toward the overthrow of the liquor power, determined to march on to victory. When Prohibition is coming, the faint hearted take new courage.

Great victories have been won; there are other battles to be fought, and victory will be to the valiant and brave

Put on the armor of the Lord, and hold high our banner for God and Home and Every Land.

County Presidents' Evening will again be an interesting feature of our State Convention. Every County President will represent her County by telling about the most important work accomplished by her Union during the year.

KNOX COUNTY is systematically at work with the Suffrage petitions. They are putting workers in every voting precinct, and ask for other counties to give their plans. Eighty per cent of the men visited sign the petitions. Mrs. E. Y. Chancellor, Suffrage Superintendent, Vincennes, Knox County.

HOWARD COUNTY

Just closed one of the best Conventions we have ever had. Mrs. K. L. Stevenson came to us in the place of Mrs. Rounds, whom we expected, but because of ill health could not be present, and I cannot say anything but praise for her. She did excellently. She pleased the people as well, if not better, than anyone we have ever had here. We had Union services at Grace M. E. Church (the largest Church in the city) and it was simply packed. Her sermon on "We Would See Jesus," 12th Chapter of John, was soul inspiring; a sermon of burning words which will never be forgotten by those who heard her.

Her subject at night, "The W. C. T. U. of the Twentieth Century," was par excellent. She held that audience spell-bound. If you want something grand get Katharine Lente Stevenson. Our collections paid our expenses.

I am so glad that she is to be at our State Convention. God grant that we may have a good Convention.

LIDA OUTLAND.

Kokomo, Ind.

The record books for the County and Local Unions are now ready. Will Unions and counties please order at their earliest convenience? These books will be exceedingly helpful to you in keeping a true record of your work. No county can afford to be without a county record book and no Local Union can afford to be without a Local Union record book. The county books are only 35 cents; the local books but 15 cents.

Any Union not having received blanks, notify your County Treasurer at once. Any County Treasurer not having received blanks, notify your State Treasurer, and others will be sent.

If receipts have not been received by those sending money, please notify the State Treasurer and duplicates will be sent. If any Local Union has not received receipts from the County Treasurer, notify her and she will send duplicates.

The County Record Book is only 35 cents. Do not fail to get one.

The Local Record Book but 15 cents. You cannot afford to be without it.

Do not fail to be at the State Convention and secure the prize offered.

Several Unions have reported that they were planning to hold the Willard reception September 28th. Cannot every Union celebrate Miss Willard's birthday in this way? Try it and report your success through the MESSAGE. Make your article short and to the point.

RAILROAD RATES TO STATE CONVENTION

Purchase regular first-class ticket to LaFayette, requesting railroad agent to furnish a certificate stating that such ticket has been bought. The certificate, when properly signed by the Secretary at the Convention, will entitle the holder to a ticket for return journey at one-third the first-class limited fare. See ticket agent early and request him to be supplied with certificate.

LAFAYETTE CONVENTION.

Free entertainment, except noon lunch, will be provided for all delegates attending the State Convention at LaFayette. Special rates have been secured at the following hotels for all visitors: St. Nicholas, two in room, 50 cents each per day; two in room with meals, $1.50 each per day; single meals, 50 cents. Bramble House, single meals, 35 cents; two in a room with meals, $1.00 each per day. There are several good restaurants convenient to the Convention Church, where meals can be secured. All members who can attend as visitors are most cordially invited to do so, and will be heartily welcomed.

White Ribboners, urge your ministers and friends to attend our State Convention. When they are better informed upon our work they will be more interested in it.

Mr. John G. Woolley will be present on Friday and deliver one of his powerful addresses on that evening. No charge for admission. All should hear him.

LaFayette asks to have this correction made: Our lunch dinners will be 25 cents; our suppers, 15 cents, in place of dinners, 15 cents and suppers, 10 cents. Please see that your delegates understand this.

Local Unions, please remember to send in your 50 cents Convention fund to our State Treasurer.

Will Unions please remember to send to the State Treasurer the 50 cents asked to help defray Convention expenses at LaFayette?

Generous arrangements are being made by the Entertainment Committee for our State Convention. The names of all delegates and the Unions they represent should be sent immediately to the chairman of this committee, Mrs. J. B. Sucece, 118 N. 8th street, LaFayette. Be prompt about attending to sending the names. Each Union is entitled to send the President, one delegate-at-large and one delegate for every twenty paid members.

The Woman's Temperance Publishing Association of Chicago will again this year send a representative to our Convention with a large stock of publications. Every White Ribboner should have "Do Everything," by Miss Willard.

A life-size picture of that matchless woman, Miss Willard, should hang upon the wall in every temperance home in America. They can be had of Mrs. Whitson, our State Treasurer, for 50 cents each

Miss Mae Turpie, North 21st street, LaFayette, is the chairman of the Committee on Decorations. Be sure and take the banners of your local and county W. C. T. U. and L. T. L.; also handsome flags. These things will create enthusiasm and interest, and will be appreciated by the LaFayette people. To be sure, it will be trouble, but be sure and consider well before you decide not to take them.

NOTICE.

Every Union is requested to send to Mrs. L. F. McWhirter one or more copies of all programs, invitations, etc., used this year, so they may be used on a display table at the Convention. Send immediately.

MARION COUNTY

Held a two day's session; was entertained by Irvington Union, at Irvington, in their Christian Church. Thirteen Unions represented by fifty-two voting delegates. Mrs. Ada B. Leck, County President, re-elected by a strong vote; Mrs. Hattie Moorman, Vice-President. The Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Rebecca Hessong, declined to serve another year, and Mrs. May Bogart was chosen as her successor. The former Recording Secretary, Mrs. Ella Disette, and the Treasurer, Mrs. Mary A. Tarlton, were elected for another year's service on the informal ballot.

Marion County W. C. T. U. acknowledging Divine guidance in all its movements, in regular Annual Convention assembled, does hereby resolve that we return our thanks to the pastor and members of this beautiful edifice for its use, and to the citizens and Union of this attractive suburb for the cordial reception tendered us.

Resolved, That Marion County recommend to her Unions to follow out as nearly as possible the plan of work for the coming year to be given out by our State as being the best consenses of thought to direct our efforts that we have access to.

Resolved, That there is no reason for change of front in any sense, but a general cry of "go forward," hence we stand by our cardinal principles and will push them to final victory.

Resolved, That in this hour of our greatest bereavement, we must close our ranks and stand by our World's National and State Executive. Love for our beloved Frances Willard, who fell asleep in Christ, would prompt us to this policy, even if the best good of our cause did not demand it.

Resolved, That we magnify Department work, and give our voice in favor of State Superintendents furnishing blanks for the local Unions through the County Superintendents, and that we carefully and prayerfully give ourselves to win the children and the young people.

Resolved, That we should give our support and recognition to our Temperance Hospital, and appoint a County Superintendent who will push the work of local Superintendents, that our Unions, as well as the general public, may make the most of this strong force in our reform.

ALLEN COUNTY.

The W. C. T. U. of Allen county met in convention at Harlan, Sept. 1, 1898. Three Unions were represented and gave very encouraging reports, giving proof that the W. C. T. U. banner is still being upheld in Allen county. The County President, Mrs. Omo, gave an address on "The Woman's Crusade," showing the progress in the temperance work. Some excellent papers were read and discussed, namely: "The Needs of the Hour," by Mrs. Emily McIntosh. "Why the W. C. T. U. Seeks the Ballot; Upon What Principle It has a Right," by Mrs. Luce. "Twelve Reasons Why the Women Should Vote," by Mrs. Minnich. The following gentlemen spoke: Rev. Zimmerman, Rev. Peters, Rev. Oberholtzer and Dr. Omo. The following officers were re-elected: President, Mrs. Omo, Harlan; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Minnie E. Barkley, Fort Wayne; Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. D. Craig, Fort Wayne; Treasurer, Mrs. Emily McIntosh, Hoagland. The convention adjourned and all went home feeling refreshed and filled with new energy, determined to work more earnestly the coming year.

IDA J. MCINTOSH,
County Press Superintendent.

WELLS COUNTY.

The convention met in Poneto, September 13th. There are three W. C. T. Unions in the county—Bluffton, Ossian and Poneto. Mother Trish was present. The following named officers were elected: President, Miss Cora Hood, Ossian; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Laura O. Chupp, Ossian; Treasurer, Mrs. Emma Studebaker, Bluffton; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Martha Waring, Bluffton; Delegate-at-Large to State Convention, Mrs. Sarepta Worley, Ossian.

LAURA O. CHUPP,
County Corresponding Secretary.

ELKHART COUNTY

Convention opened Wednesday morning, September 14, and lasted throughout Wednesday and Thursday, Rev. Mrs. M. A. Tompkins presiding with her usual devotion through each session. The papers prepared by members of the county are deserving of special mention, for each and every paper read was full of good wholesome thoughts, and showed careful preparation on the subject chosen. We regret that space does not allow the printing in full of all the proceedings at this Convention, for we feel it is one of the best we ever had. Mrs. Luella McWhirter was with us a limited time, and encouraged as well as instructed all who were fortunate enough to hear her address.

Miss Clara Sears, State Superintendent of the Y Branch, instructed her hearers along the line of her work. Thirteen new members were added to the list, making 78 active Y members for Goshen. On hearing this report the audience arose and sang "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow," from the fullness of their hearts.

Officers and Superintendents were elected for the coming year as follows: County President, Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, Elkhart; Recording Secretary, Miss Cordelia Clark, Bristol; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Laura C. Phoenix, Middlebury; Treasurer, Mrs. Aravilla Vail, Goshen; Superintendent Special Temperance, Mrs. Mary McDonald, Nappanee; Evangelistic, Rev. M. A. Tomkins, Elkhart; Press, Mrs. A. P. Daub, Goshen; Y Branch, Mrs. Amanda Kauffman, Goshen; Assistant Y Branch, Miss Hattie Culp, Nappanee; Mothers' Meetings, Mrs. O. W. Cunningham, Goshen; Literature, Mrs. Kautz, Nappanee; Suffrage, Mrs. R. C. Travers, Elkhart.

We feel we have an able corps of Superintendents that will make a special effort to bring their respective Departments up to the standard they belong, and where every right minded Superintendent should make at least an outward show of the work they have accomplished.

The music enjoyed during the Convention, with one or two exceptions, was furnished by the members of Elkhart County and Y Branch, and was a pleasant feature of the Convention.

The following resolutions were adopted:

We, the representatives of the Elkhart County W. C. T. U. in Convention assembled, realizing that God has led us through twelve years of organized effort to exterminate the liquor traffic with all its evils and so hasten the coming of His Kingdom, whose law is written in our members, all declare the following resolutions:

Resolved, That each Union appoint a Superintendent of Scientific Temperance, and we urge special work along that line.

Resolved, That we, as members of the different Unions, seek to be informed upon all lines of work, that we may be more effective workers for the Master.

Resolved, That we work earnestly in our own local Unions to secure signatures to the Suffrage petitions to be sent to the State Legislature this coming winter, also to agitate the question of Woman's ballot.

Resolved, That we are grateful for all courtesies extended to us by the Church, musicians, the press and kind hospitality the visiting delegates received from the ladies of Goshen. MRS. A. P. DAUB.

Press Superintendent.

CASS COUNTY.

The Cass County W. C. T. U. met in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Logansport, September 16, 1898, and was opened by Mrs. J. VanBuskirk, who read a scripture lesson and led in prayer. Convention was then called to order by President Mrs. Alice Geary, and proceeded to carry out program as prepared. The program had been carefully prepared and was well carried out. All of the five Unions were represented, and the reports showed an increase in Unions and membership.

Cass County has taken up twelve different departments of work. Reports of the different departments showed they had taken an interest in their work.

An interesting feature of the Convention was the President's address and the paper prepared by Mrs. Phoebe Campbell, of Galveston, "Our Uncle Sam." Five ministers were present, which was very encouraging.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Alice Geary; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Fannie Carter; Recording Secretary, Mrs. M. E. Gould; Treasurer, Miss Anna Lott. Superintendents—Narcotics, Mrs. Butcher; L. T. L. Mrs. M. J. Paugh; Christian Citizenship, Mrs. E. L. Grable; Mothers' Meetings, Mrs. M. J. Stevenson; Press, Mrs. Jennie Rogers; Medal Work, Mrs. Warne; Sabbath School, Mrs. Ault; Parliamentary, Mrs. Mary Washburne; Evangelistic, Mrs. C. P. Wright; Literature, Mrs. Joseph Guthrie; Flower Mission, Mrs. Ida McElheney; Legislative Committee, Rev. McDonald, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Logansport.

All sessions were well attended. Our State President, Mrs. Luella F. McWhirter, was present with her words of cheer and encouragement.

Convention voted to take up Franchise this year. The evening meeting was addressed by the State President, Mrs. McWhirter. MRS. JENNIE ROGERS, Logansport, Ind. County Press Superintendent.

CLINTON COUNTY.

Clinton county met at Jefferson with five out of the seven Unions present, and in all sixty voting delegates present. The old officers were all re-elected, and all from one Union. The convention, with three dissenting votes, decided to invite the State Convention to Frankfort next year.

WELLS COUNTY.

Although for a brief period the dark clouds of war hovered over our shores and contagious diseases have swept our land, the unflinching perseverance of the brave Christian women who march under the spotless banner of purity has met with no check, and to-day they stand firm to battle for God and home and every land.

Early in the year 1898 the dark angel of death kissed to sleep the brave, true, sweet woman, Frances E. Willard, and although for a time fear was entertained that the work, which for twenty-four years she had been carrying forward, would be sadly paralyzed, her precious memory has inspired us to do our best to push forward our grand work.

Women whose timidity has prevented them from taking active part in any meeting, have come loyally to the front and enrolled themselves among the loyal workers of the White Ribbon army. Notwithstanding opposition and indifference, the membership of the Wells County W. C. T. U. has been increased by twenty-eight. We now number seventy-six.

Ossian and Poneto have each been benefited by two lectures. The Poneto Union takes the lead in the county in the establishment of a library. The Bluffton Union has done a vast amount of evangelistic, charitable, reformatory and rescue work. It is safe to affirm that never in the history of the White Ribbon work in Wells county has there been more zeal in the cause than at the present writing.

During the past year I have not been altogether idle, although I have not seen the work accomplished during the year that I had hoped would be done. During the year I have written fifty-four letters and two postals. I have written two articles for publication in the Phalanx, two for the MESSAGE, and two for the Bluffton Banner. These articles are independent of my work as Recording Secretary of the Bluffton Union.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. D. T. SMITH,
County Corresponding Secretary.

FRANKFORT W. C. T. U. RECEPTION.

The beautiful home of J. H. Fear and wife was the scene of one of the prettiest events of the season. It was an informal reception given by the Frankfort W. C. T. U. in honor of Miss Clara Sears, State Secretary of the Young Woman's branch. She presented the necessity of temperance work among young men and women and the practicability of her plans so forcibly that many of the young ladies expressed a willingness to take up the work, and hereafter there will be a Young Woman's Branch of the Frankfort W. C. T. U. After her remarks she was introduced to those present by Miss Georgia Wines, local Y Secretary.

Delicious refreshments were served in the dining-room, dainty Y's of white paper tied with white ribbon being the souvenirs. During the evening Miss Aholtz, of Missouri, favored the guests with instrumental music. Miss Sears, by her true Christian character, won many friends among the young people while in the city.—Crescent.

FRANKFORT UNION.

The Frankfort Union held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Mills, on North Main Street, Friday evening, with a large number present.

The President, Mrs. Sayler, gave her annual address, which was very inspiring to all present. She urged the members to make the coming year better than the past. Mrs. Walden gave a talk, telling of the good that has been accomplished through the W. C. T. U. here and elsewhere. The main object of the meeting was the annual election of officers. For President, Mrs. R. C. Clark; Vice-President, Mrs. Sayler; Secretary, Mrs. Chloe Fortune; Treasurer, Mrs. Walker; Vice-President for the Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Dwyer; for the Methodist Church, Mrs. Stotter; Baptist Church, Mrs. Marley; U. B. Church, Mrs. Reynolds; Christian Church, Mrs. Phillips, were elected.

ASHLEY UNION.

President, Mrs. Emma Barger; Recording Secretary, Miss Anna Gardner; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Alma Shaw; Treasurer, Mrs. Ella Belyea.

Ossian Union closed the year encouragingly. A medal contest resulted in a collection of $11.00; Miss Myrtle Cook carried off the medal. Miss Elsie Fields won second prize. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Miss Cora Hood; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Laura O. Chup; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Mary Krevson; Treasurer, Mrs. Serepta Worley. L. O. CHUPP, Corresponding Secretary.

PARKE COUNTY.

The program for the Parke County W. C. T. U. annual convention, held at Bloomingdale, Sept. 9th, was well carried out. Some of the reports especially indicated care and skill in their preparation, as well as good work done. The addresses, papers, etc., by Rev. Sallie M. Woodard, Miss Mary Cox, Rev. L. B. Woodard and Mrs. Emma Coleman were of a character to do credit to any occasion, and called forth an animated discussion. A somewhat novel feature was to have one of our brothers discuss the duty of woman in the temperance work. This was well done by Brother Woodard, and allowed our members to pleasantly retaliate in the discussion by saying, "You have pointed out our duties, now listen to a recital of your own, etc."

The following officers were elected: Miss Ida Cox, Coloma, President; Mrs. Jennie H. Newlin, Bloomingdale, Vice-President; Mrs. Lou M. Spray, Bloomingdale, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Dora Woodard, Coloma, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Lou M. Spray, Bloomingdale, Treasurer.

A Franchise Committee was appointed to continue the petition work begun at our Fourth of July meeting. The suffrage contest in the evening, conducted by Miss Mary Hadley, was a pleasant affair—good music and an interesting class of seven girls. Miss Jessie Thomas won the medal and Miss Pearl Tow a year's subscription to the MESSAGE. Net proceeds go to our Industrial School. It is planned to have the contest work continue as a part of our suffrage campaign. REPORTER.

ADDRESS BY MRS. McWHIRTER.

Mrs. Luella McWhirter, State President of the W. C. T. U. of Indiana, gave an excellent address in the W. C. T. U. rooms yesterday afternoon, which was well attended. Mrs. McWhirter is the possessor of a lovely Christian character, and is a true womanly woman in every sense of the word. Realizing herself the great responsibility that each individual is under to God and humanity, she sought by her earnest words to give her listeners a higher view of life. Especially interesting were her words to mothers. Mrs. McWhirter is the mother of two daughters and understands fully the needs of childhood. We wish all the mothers of this city could have heard her.—La-Porte Herald.

LIST OF NEW MEMBERS.

LaPorte, Mrs. Fannie DeGanno, Mrs. Fields, Mrs. Dora Benton, Mrs. E. R. Hart, Mrs. F. Ketcham, Mrs. Evelyn Churchill Kollock, Mrs. J. B. Closser, Mrs. Matilda Chase Wilson, Mrs. Mary Frances Fargher, Mrs. R. Cross, Mrs. Belle Biegie, Mrs. Dora Banta. Terre Haute, West Side, Mrs. Emma Bellenger. Bristol, Mrs. Mattie Sudborough, Miss Mary Garman, Mrs. Prudence Merritt, Mrs. Louise Corpe.

Mrs. Laura Ross, Mrs. Pearl Neligh, Mrs. Mary Rothrock, Mrs. Gant, Mrs. Everroad, Mrs. Oscar Bowman, and Miss Carrie Stout.

Will the Union to which these belong please give their name?—Ed.

W. C. T. U. DAY AT OMAHA.

The Trans-Mississippi W. C. T. U. Day occurs in connection with the Exposition at Omaha, Oct. 28th. The National Council of Women will occupy the three days previous to this date, and some of the most notable women in the country will be in attendance. The program for Temperance Day will include the names of Mrs. Beauchamp, the Recording Secretary of the National W. C. T. U.; Mrs. Louise S. Rounds, State President of Illinois; Mrs. Mary Wood Allen, of Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Matilda Carse, of Chicago. Railroads will offer not only the usual Exposition rates, but better ones at that time, as it will be the last week of the great fair, and attractions of various kinds will be crowded into each day. FRANCES M. FORD, Secretary Bureau of Education.

LOGOOTE UNION holds a Chrysanthemum show in November, for the purpose of sending the School Physiology Journal to every teacher in the county. (What is to hinder other counties from acting on this wonderfully wise example?—Ed.)

MRS. BULLOCK can give Indiana a few dates immediately after our State Convention. Write the Corresponding Secretary for dates at once.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT WORK.

Everybody has a department in this life assigned to them, and our mission is to awaken them to the understanding and responsibility of it.

The individual who does not respond by this awakening is either indifferent or malicious; either state is to be deplored in this age of enlightenment.

In trying to choose from among our many departments one that we think would accomplish the most good, we find ourselves at a loss which one to select, and thinking them over carefully, we learn we cannot afford to slight any one of them. What prompts us to do the work? is often asked. Love! Unselfish love, untiring love for humanity.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, without departments, would be like a river without tributaries. It is through them the Union increases or diminishes, according to the energy and push brought to bear on them. Therefore our greatest need is unfaltering Superintendents for these departments. They are essential to the life of the Union.

It requires great tact for a Superintendent to interest indifferent persons in some of our departments, and be able to present her way of thinking; for there is always two sides to everything, and everybody thinks their side is the best.

There are many workers who will never be much known on this side of eternity, but our cause will go onward and upward, and great will be our reward in heaven.

We have no time for vacations during the heated term of the year, for the devil, like a roaring lion, seeks souls in summer as well as in winter. He has so many ways to ply his cunning that we must constantly "Watch and Pray." Cordially yours,

Mrs. A. P. DAUB.

611 South Main Street.

[Ed.—This is one of the six papers of note, and it would have a place on our State program except for the fact that it came after the time limit had expired.]

OFFICIAL CALL FOR NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The twenty-fifth annual Convention of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet in the People's Church, St. Paul, Minn., November 11 to 16, 1898.

The basis of representation to this Convention is as follows: The General Officers of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, together with the four General Officers of each State and the State Y Secretaries, the Boards of National Superintendents, Organizers, Evangelists, Chairmen of Standing Committees, Presidents of affiliated interests, editors and publishers of the official organ of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and editors of State W. C. T. U. papers, are ex-officio members of the Convention. In addition there may be one delegate-at-large from each State and Territorial Union and one additional delegate for each five hundred paid-up members, also one delegate for each fifty dollars which shall have been paid into the National Treasury from the Loyal Temperance Legion.

It is earnestly hoped that this year the attendance may be full and representative. Since the number of delegates elected depends so largely upon the promptness with which the dues shall be paid and the proportionate amount forwarded to the National Treasurer, it is urged upon each member of every local Union to see to it that she be not in arrears and also upon each County, District and State officer to urge promptness, not upon the local Union alone, but upon their respective treasurers in forwarding the dues.

The sending out of this official call is a sadder event this year than ever before. Since the clans were summoned last year we have passed through the deep waters of a sorrow such as from the very nature of her whom we mourn could have come to but few organizations. She whom we so loved and who for so many years so grandly led our hosts has passed beyond our sight. For a season we are separated. Our faith claims that she has not left the work nor lost interest in it, and yet the human heart will claim the visible presence of the loved one; we cannot fail to "sigh for the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still." Therefore, our coming together at St. Paul will be fraught with far more of pain than of gladness, and yet, because the work still remains, because of our very love for her, let us come together in the strength of numbers, and above all in the strength of our Lord, our Leader, to do the work for which she gave her life and to which she calls us with a renewed consecration.

This will not be alone a Memorial Convention. It will be the twenty-fifth Convention since the Crusade. The sacred memories of our God-inspired origin will be about us even more closely than in former years. We shall hope that as many as possible of that brave band of heroic women who counted not life dear unto themselves so that they might save the home, will be with us at St. Paul. There will be, we trust, a Crusade atmosphere about us through all those days, hallowing our grief, strengthening our faith, uplifting our spirits, leading us as our Crusade mothers were led, to "give to the winds our fears," to go forward to a new quarter of a century of conflict, of devotion to great principles and of faith in a God of righteousness. There will be sore perplexities before us in this Convention. A record of twenty-five years makes that inevitable. Let us believe that the God who called us into being has an open door through all difficulties if only we keep our eyes fixed singly upon Him and follow where He leads.

Dear sisters, the motto which your General Officers chose at the beginning of the year has come to mean more and more to us as the months have gone by—"I will trust and not be afraid." The God of our Crusade mothers is our God to-day. Surely He has other, greater work remaining for us if but we will measure up to that work. Shall we not each one in the secret of her own heart resolve that whatever one individual can contribute of consecration, of love, of the charity that thinketh no evil, of the hope that never faileth, that believeth all things and endures as "seeing Him who is invisible," that much we will give to swell the sum total of power which shall make this Convention the most notable in our history, even while the saddest, and that shall send us forth chastened yet triumphant, to a new year of work for God and Home and Native Land?

Signed, on behalf of the National W. C. T. U.

LILLIAN M. N. STEVENS,

Acting President.

KATHARINE LENTE STEVENSON,

Corresponding Secretary.

FIELD NOTES.

CARL CAMMACK teaches in the Marion Central Loyal Temperance Legion.

Mrs. DR. VOTAW, of Marion, has made a medley of temperance pictures of temperance people and historic places in the temperance march. This picture made a part of the decoration at the Grant county convention, and was much admired.

Mrs. M. A. TOMPKINS, Mrs. Alice Geary, Mrs. Dr. Bland, of Boston, and Mrs. Stafford, of LaFayette, were in attendance at the Grant county convention.

SEVENTY-TWO THOUSAND PAGES of literature has been distributed in Grant county in the past year.

JOHNSON COUNTY is preparing for a chrysanthemum show and will serve lunch. One loyal country member has donated ten turkeys.

A LOYAL TEMPERANCE LEGION has been organized at Hadley Industrial School.

Mrs. CAMMACK's latest scientific temperance lecture is, "The Full Stature of a Perfect Man," and is well spoken of.

THE PARENTS show considerable attention to scientific temperance at Auburn, and many attended the County Institute.

IN ONE of our scientific temperance meetings a woman came forward at the close and said: "We ought to have a Union here and pledge the boys against alcohol and tobacco." Another woman standing near said: "It won't do any good; they will use it anyway." We were reminded of the Scripture: "And one said, an angel spake unto him, but others said, it thundered."

THE SUPERINTENDENT of Public Instruction of Grant county has invited the W. C. T. U. to a place on the program of the Township Institute this year, to represent the scientific temperance phase of education. They accept gladly.

ONE OF THE CITY SCHOOLS in Syracuse, N. Y., has been named the Frances E. Willard. A very fine etching of Miss Willard has been procured, framed in carved oak and will be presented to the school by the Willard Union of that city.

LOGANSPOUT WEST SIDE officers for this year are: President, Mrs. Anna Warne; Vice-President, Mrs. Austin; Recording Secretary, Mrs. M. J. Paugh; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Fannie Carter; Treasurer, Mrs. Fred. McDermott.

WE SHALL have occasion to use some suffrage matter about the middle of October. Any one having anything on this subject that will help on in our campaign, send it to the Corresponding Secretary—short articles, short papers, incidents, statistics, etc.

ELKHART CENTRAL meets every two weeks. Number of regular and special meetings, thirty; average attendance ten—a gain of three. Held four Mother's Meetings, with an average attendance of twelve—a gain of five over last year. Eleven Gospel Temperance meetings in the Churches, one of this number was held on the Island, and one was a memorial service for Miss Willard. Have given out 6,275 pages of literature. Sent in two clubs to the MESSAGE—39 copies in all. Five Union Signals taken. Red Letter days observed. August 3 a picnic at Island Park. One lecture by Miss Anna Shaw. State Normal Institute in charge of Rev. Mattie O. Cammack. Two contests, one by married ladies and one by our young people. Had our booth on the Fair grounds for a week. Carried on eight departments of work; 43 members enrolled, 37 paid dues, 12 honoraries. Lost three members by death, three by removal and two non-payment of dues. Mrs. Cammack gave us a second lecture.

A MESSAGE FROM "THE MESSAGE."

At the close of each W. C. T. U. Convention year our State paper, the MESSAGE, silently bears a message to all of our membership, whether subscribers or not. Let us help it to utterance and give thoughtful audience to the tidings it bears.

During the year it is thrown out on its own responsibility, with orders to do its work, serve the cause, and not to incur a debt to the State. If it has not served the cause faithfully and acceptably up to the measure of its ability in bearing the messages of the workers, it must be corrected.

If it has a little surplus of funds in its treasury, it may cheerfully turn this over to the State.

If it has incurred a debt, those who have been its guardians, and borne its burdens, must pay it.

During the year it is virtually an orphan, with the State Central Committee or State officers for its guardians, and dependent upon the membership who called it into being, and whom it strives to serve for support.

But at the close of each year it comes back to its own; lays its defeats or victories at the feet of its parentage; surrenders its commission or assumes the air of a young Princess and claims its just heritage.

What heritage did the State propose for it? A subscription list of 3,000 or more, or one equal to our membership. Has it received this? In some local Unions it has, but in a few Unions 50 per cent of the membership do not take it. Has it kept good faith with the State as to the amount and character of its contents?

As it compares its first issue—the typical one—with its last one of unleaded type, in answer to this question, and refers to many similar issues with supplements, it feels a sense of integrity and honor, and that thrill of happiness that comes of the "full measure pressed down and running over."

Can it continue its periodical visits and helpful messages to our members without debt with its present subscription list?

It can by the continued sacrifice of a few. But God will not bless the many in permitting this undue sacrifice which a little conscience, thought and effort on the part of each member would so easily remove.

The MESSAGE builded better than it knew when it set forth the conditions on which it might be continuously published, and said in its first issue of December, 1896: "If the paper is taken by our members generally, it will be a happy, cheerful, independent little message, borne about on its own wings, wafting good tidings to all."

Will our membership yet be entirely true to their part of the compact with the MESSAGE, and ready to say, Here am I. Send me to do my whole duty in this matter?

[The editors of the MESSAGE are in accord with the foregoing correspondence, and agree that the paper is not an orphan at the State Convention, but comes home to its Convention Mother with the plea, "I have done my best, and now what is the pleasure of the Convention concerning me for another year?"

Supposing the State will make its usual encouraging answer, let it back this encouragement up with something practical. Let those whose subscriptions expire now or will soon, come to the Convention prepared to renew, and also bring with them the subscription of their local Unions at club rates.

If they subscribed in December or later, this timely renewal will not shorten their yearly subscription, but will form a basis for the success of our work the coming year.]

by Power,
But by My Spirit"

HURRAH FOR INDIANA.

Gained 1,000 paid members since September 25, 1897. This entitles her to a place on State Benefit Night at St. Paul, and will probably secure the Banner offered by Miss Frances Willard to the State making the greatest increase in membership.

The Indiana delegation and visitors will leave INDIANAPOLIS via the BIG FOUR ROUTE, at 11:45 A. M., November 10; arrive at Chicago at 5:30 P. M. Leave Chicago at 6:30 P. M. via CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL route. Arrive at St. Paul 7:30 A. M., November 11.

THE OFFICIAL ROUTE FOR

..Indiana Delegates and Visitors..

WILL BE VIA THE BIG FOUR AND THE CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL.

An excursion rate of one-and-one-third fare for the round trip will be granted. Delegates and others attending the Convention should purchase one-way through tickets to St. Paul. The agent selling the ticket will furnish a receipt certificate, which, when signed at the Convention, will secure a return ticket from St. Paul for one-third regular fare.

The Fare for the Round Trip, from Indianapolis, upon the certificate plan, will be just $22.00.

The regular fare from Chicago to St. Paul is $11.50. The fare for the round trip from Chicago to St. Paul, upon the certificate plan, will be $15.35.

Trains leave St. Paul for Chicago, 8:10 P. M., 2:55 P. M., 6:55 P. M., 8:15 A. M.

We consider it a great advantage to arrive in St. Paul early in the morning, so that delegates may go to places of entertainment and visitors secure hotel accommodations and return to the People's Church in time for the opening of the Convention.

Returning, our Indiana people may leave St. Paul at 8:15 A. M. in order to have a daylight ride down the Mississippi and across the State of Wisconsin.

All persons interested in the W. C. T. U. who can possibly attend the St. Paul Convention, are urged to do so. At no time in the past has Indiana been entitled to so great a part in a National Convention.

We want all of our counties represented among the visitors and hope that our White Ribboners will make a special effort to go and to urge friends to go. We have selected the CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL ROUTE from Chicago to St. Paul, which passes through the principal cities.

Its Dining Car Service is strictly first-class. The route is the best patronized of any of the lines in the Northwest, passing through the principal cities of Wisconsin and Minnesota, including Milwaukee, La Crosse and Winona, traversing the celebrated Lake Region of Wisconsin and passing through 150 miles of the most picturesque scenery of the Mississippi Valley.

Those near Indianapolis will enjoy going through with the party, I am sure. All who can not meet us at Indianapolis, we will expect to meet in the CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL DEPOT, at Chicago, where all our people will be given an Indiana badge. Meet us there.

LUELLA F. McWHIRTER,
President Indiana W. C. T. U.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE W. C. T. U. OF INDIANA, HELD AT LA- FAYETTE, OCTOBER 7-11, 1898.

If any State organization has cause for thanksgiving, that one is the Indiana W. C. T. U.

The convention at LaFayette was by far the largest, best and most enthusiastic annual meeting that has ever been held in our State. There were 272 voting delegates, over one hundred more than attended the convention a year ago.

The spirit of harmony and sisterly love was everywhere apparent, and a deep spirituality seemed to pervade the very atmosphere. The magnificent new St. Paul's M. E. Church was thrown wide open freely and without reserve. Nothing was left undone by the pastor, Dr. T. J. Bassett, and the Board of Trustees that could add in any way to the comfort and convenience of delegates and visitors.

We were publicly welcomed by representatives of the Commercial Club, the Medical and Ministerial Associations. The ministers did not leave it all to their representative, for many of them attended the convention and personally extended a cordial welcome. The President and other members of the Board of Trustees of the convention church also, from the platform, gave cheery welcoming words.

We were treated in the kindest manner by the press of the city. It had nothing but good words for us and the cause we represented. All the proceedings were fully and accurately reported in the daily papers, and criticism was apparently out of order.

The exceptionally fine music was an important feature of the convention. Mr. D. E. Studebaker, of Bluffton, directed the music for the day sessions, while that of the evenings and the Sunday mass meeting was in charge of Prof. J. F. Kinsey, prohibition candidate for treasurer on the State ticket.

The State is now free from debt and has nearly $300 to begin work with this year. The remaining indebtedness of $400 on the Hadley Industrial School was raised by subscription in a surprisingly short time. With our army of new recruits, together with the renewed courage and activity among the older members and with no debt to hold us back, what may we not accomplish this year?

The suffrage petition and campaign work is to be persistently and systematically pushed. More than seven hundred new members have been gained for Indiana this year.

Mrs. McWhirter had given out the word that she could not serve as President another year. There was much rejoicing among the women when she finally yielded to their earnest solicitations and consented to allow her name to be used. She was re-elected by a splendid majority, as were also all the other officers. Miss Clara Sears was again elected as Y Secretary, and Mrs. A. R. Gordon as Secretary of the Loyal Temperance Legion. A few changes were made in the list of Superintendents and a new department added, that of Purity in Literature and Art.

The Superintendents' reports showed that there is marked advancement in all lines of the work. An interesting feature of the report given by the Superintendent of Sunday school work, was the display of a red, white and blue pledge card chain, several hundred feet in length.

An increase of more than 800 columns published in the newspapers as reported for the year, is noted in the press department.

The medal contest department has earned several hundred dollars for the work this year. Carl Rutter, of Terre Haute, received a diploma from the medal department, awarded to those that have won all the medals from the silver to the diamond. When introduced Mr. Rutter delivered an original address which was most enthusiastically received. How proud and happy his mother will be when she receives the letter of congratulation and appreciation which the Secretary of the convention was ordered to send her.

There were two "convention babies." They were Frances Alberta Boyer, of Frankfort, Marcia Moorman, of Indianapolis. Each one was carried to the platform and taken in the arms of our President, who with tender, loving words bestowed upon her the White Ribbon badge. The yellow ribbon was presented by Mrs. Gougar. One of the babies is a paid-up member of the W. C. T. U. The great mother-heart of the convention went out to these little ones so early in life dedicated to the work for God and Home and Humanity. (All children in W. C. T. U. homes ought to be.—Ed.)

Master James B. Gipe, President of the Indiana L. T. L., was presented to the convention, and spoke with earnestness and enthusiasm in regard to the needs of the work.

The evening meetings were full of intense interest.

Mr. John G. Woolley was at his best, and he was greeted by a most magnificent audience of 2,300 people. He held the attention of his hearers to the end, the enthusiasm frequently bursting forth in sounds of applause.

The Sunday mass meeting was a great success, and every seat in the church was filled. Mrs. Helen Bullock, of New York, spoke on "Methods of Work," Mrs. Gougar told of the Prohibition victory in Canada, and Miss Marie Brehm, of Illinois, in a convincing manner, explained why women were entitled to vote. Mr. Harry Maxwell, D. L. Moody's associate, the evangelist and singer, spoke of his experiences in the army camps where he has spent much time.

I wish all the women could have heard him tell of what he has seen of the great work of our organization among the soldiers and of the grateful appreciation with which the comfort bags, housewives' literature and other things were received by them.

One of the LaFayette dailies made special note of the large number of girls and young women that were seen in the convention, but I was particularly impressed by the unusually large number of young men who attended the evening and Sunday services.

A pleasant thing to remember was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Gougar to the delegates and visitors, at their elegant new home. It was estimated that there were 350 that accepted the invitation.

Our State convention has passed into history, and a new year of work opens before us. Let us go forward with renewed courage and "press on and on and on."

FLORENCE E. VANCE.

INDIANA HAS GAINED 1,000 MEMBERS— HURRAH FOR INDIANA!!!

Indiana has won and all honor to the women of the Local Unions.

Send your representative to St. Paul to help receive the prize and bring home the enthusiasm of the Convention. Let every Union send one, if possible. We must make a gain of 1,500 this year. We will then have reached the highest point in membership that Indiana ever reached. We can easily reach this number if every Local Union will begin at once. Do not say, "Our Union is small and we can do but little." "In Union there is strength." "Where two or three are gathered together in My Name, there will I be in the midst." If the W. C. T. U. work is God's work, then he will help us make the work what it should be if we do our part. He has most wonderfully blessed the work during the past year. He is ready and willing to continue His blessings.

Of the 266 Unions that paid dues last year, 168 gained in membership. Of the 76 counties that paid dues, 50 gained in membership. The four counties having the greatest membership are: Marion, 301; Grant, 236; Madison, 225, and Elkhart, 199. The four counties making the greatest gain are: Madison, 147; Wabash, 108; Elkhart, 81, and Benton, 81. The counties that have either doubled or more than doubled their membership during the year are: Allen, Benton, Dearborn, Madison, Parke, Randolph, Vigo, and Wabash. The Unions that have either doubled or more than doubled their membership are: Petersburg, Talbot, Frankfort, Willard, Moores Hill, Dillsboro, Eaton, Goshen Y, Nappanee, Middlebury, Bristol, Covington, Princeton, Sheridan, Plainfield, Pennville, Anderson Y, Wallace, Hindoostan, Morgantown, Goodland, Albion, Coloma, Bloomingdale, Milroy, Ray, Brownsville, Terre Haute W. Side, Wabash, North Manchester, Wolcott and South Whitley. Many other counties and Unions have gained, but space will not admit of the names being given.

When the State Minutes have been received by you, you will see that every debt and bill has been paid, leaving a balance in the treasury of $293.14. From this fund the State Superintendents have already received their appropriations in full. This, I believe, has never been done before so early in the year. This, my dear Sisters, has been made possible by your untiring efforts. Allow me to congratulate you upon your success. Also allow me to extend to you my warmest thanks for the ready and generous response to the card sent out for the 130 additional members necessary to give us a part in Benefit night at the National. Compare the present gain of 1,000 with the number gained before the call was made, and you will say with me that "nothing is impossible for Indiana." For your help, your prayers, your loyalty and loving kindness to me in the past, and for your confidence as shown by again calling me to this place, I thank you. As space in this issue is at a premium the regular quarterly report will not appear until next issue.

FRANCHISE PLAN OF WORK UNTIL DECEMBER 15, 1898.

My great desire and prayer to you, sister workers in this department, is for concerted action in circulating the suffrage petitions asking that the word male be stricken from the Constitution of the State of Indiana. Do not fail to secure the name of every man and woman that will sign it. We must push the work to the utmost for the coming six weeks. I have already a few petitions sent in. One long roll with only one column of names. Dear Sisters, do please have the names secured and placed below the petitions in this manner:

FORM OF PETITION.

No. 1. To the senate of the General Assembly of Indiana, 1899.

No. 2. To the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of Indiana, 1899.

We, the undersigned citizens of the.....County, in the State of Indiana, pray the proposal and passage by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, at its session in the year 1899, of an amendment of section 2, article 11, of the constitution of the State of Indiana, striking out the word male therein.

Men.

Women.

Copy this petition form twice, address one to the Senate and the other to the House of Representatives. Ask each person to sign both. These are two distinct bodies and a petition is needed for each.

Be sure and prepare two petitions, one for the House of Representatives, one for the Senate, and have each name signed to both petitions. When filled, or when you have secured all the names you can, send both petitions to me with the name of the superintendent, the town and county in which the signers live. I must prepare them for presentation to the Legislature. Do please have them in by the 15th of December. I have the correct form of petition printed and will send them to those whose names I have, and to all who will apply to me for them. You can paste them above the names you have if your petition is incorrect. We need money for this winter's legislative work at Indianapolis. How many counties will donate money for the Franchise Campaign? How many local Unions will donate to the Campaign? How many individuals will donate to the Suffrage Legislature Campaign? Please send all donations to Mrs. A. T. Whitson, State Treasurer, 3335 North Meridian street, Indianapolis.

M. A. TOMPKINS,

State Superintendent of Franchise.

SCIENTIFIC TEMPERANCE INSTRUCTION.

Plan of work outlined for 1898-9: 1. To have a Superintendent appointed in each county who shall report the work of this Department to the State Superintendent, whose duty it shall be to visit County Institutes and Associations. Confer with the County Superintendent of schools, and give a general supervision of the work in the county, together with such advice and assistance as teachers, Unions and Local Superintendents may require. She will need special literature, copies of the Scientific Temperance Law, copies of Indorsed Text Books, etc., all of which should be provided at the expense of her county.

She should obtain reports of colleges or normal schools indirectly affected by the law, and especially the public institutions, such as the State University, State Normal School, Homes, Institutes and Asylums, if any exist in her county.

She shall furnish such items to the press as she shall deem of special interest, and make arrangements if possible, for at least one lecture on the subject before the teachers of the county and its discussion in the Annual Institute.

2 A Local Superintendent in every Union and an assistant in every township where there is no Union, who shall report to her County Superintendent.

Whose duty it shall be to distribute literature, visit schools and Township Institutes, take subscriptions for the School Physiology Journal, request leaders of institutes to appoint discussions on the subject, appoint committees from Unions to visit schools, furnish notices for the local press, and endeavor to have at least one public lecture on the subject, and a lecture in every school where time will be given for it. The school-room lectures may be given by local physicians, well informed members of the Union, or the Local or County Superintendents.

3. For the Unions: Entertain teachers socially, offer prizes for essays on Scientific Temperance subjects, provide Temperance Songs and Recitations to be used in the public schools when called for.

Visit your schools in a body or by committee, when the subject is discussed. Encourage the work and your Superintendent.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

I am very much encouraged. The outlook for our department is brighter than ever before. The children are to be taught faithfully, thus sayeth the Lord side of the temperance question. November 27th is Universal Temperance Sunday. Let us bend all our energies toward the universal observance of that day. When many people of many faiths and beliefs unite and work systematically much can be accomplished. Send to Mrs. Stella B. Irvine, St. Paul, Minn., for programs. You have the plan of work which will help you. The Pledge Chain will be continued. I am looking for great things, especially from those of you whom I met at State Convention. Let me know the result of November 27.

ALICE G. GEARY.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath.—Mark II: 27.

The necessity for much work in this department is recognized by Christians everywhere, but to us of the W. C. T. U. the need comes with double force, for it is a very important part of our mission to change present conditions so as to make it easier to live a Christian life.

Sabbath desecration is seemingly on the increase, but the line is being drawn and we will not be satisfied until Indiana shall be known far and wide as a State in which the Lord's day is observed as a holy day and not a holiday.

When the women of the W. C. T. U. join forces and work shoulder to shoulder, with Jesus as their leader, they can accomplish what they wish.

Let me urge a complete organization throughout the State for this important work. Every county should have a Superintendent; and let me urge the appointment of a Superintendent for every local Union.

Will the County Superintendents please send me their names and addresses at once, and also give me the names of the local Superintendents, as far as possible, that I may know just who my helpers are?

We want every minister in the State, not only requested, but urged to preach at least one sermon upon this all important subject; and every church, mission and praying body of Christians to have a special season of prayer in behalf of a better observance of the Sabbath day.

Further plans will be given in a later issue of the MESSAGE. Let every one do her best, and God will bless our efforts.

KATIE WERT HOLLER.

557 N. Scott Street, South Bend.

FAIR WORK.

Having been elected superintendent for Fair Work for Indiana, at the last W. C. T. U. State Convention, I urge upon every county superintendent to hold one day's session for gospel temperance and prohibition work. If more days are found convenient, would advise medal contests, which are very instructive and educating to any community. Urge the appointment of a woman on your Agricultural Board, a woman who has a willing mind to work in this holy cause. When I see mothers weeping over sons who have fallen into the habit of drink in our camps from the canteen system I feel it is time for all women to work in this holy cause. I urge all county superintendents and local unions to sow literature of W. C. T. U. principles, especially our state paper The Message, The Union Signal, The Young Crusader, The Voice and The Patriot Phalanx.

QUESTIONS TO BE ANSWERED AT END OF THE YEAR

How many gospel temperance meetings? How many medal contests held? How many pages of literature distributed? Name of each kind. How many conversions at gospel temperance meetings? for there will surely be some. MRS. M. A. L. COLTON, Franklin, Johnson County Ind.

LITERATURE

Let us make a special effort this year to get every member of our Union to subscribe for the MESSAGE, if they will not get the Union to take it for them. The women must keep in touch with the State officers, and work to a plan. In clubs of twelve, subscription is 25 cents. Persuade your Unions to subscribe for the Union Signal and MESSAGE for every minister in your county, also every editor. Only 75 cents. In reply to the cry that comes to me, "How will I raise money for my work?" I have gotten up a program for a social, "Called a W. C. T. U. Conversation Party," which can be secured at the rate of thirty for ten cents, with all directions, by sending to me.

I have a new leaflet which, with a sample of the program, will be sent to every County and Local Superintendent. New Superintendents send in your names at once, so they will go to the right persons. The following is an outline of the report blanks which will be used this year:

1. How many pages of Literature?
2. " " Union Signals?
3. " " MESSAGES?
4. Which leaflets do you find are liked best, the one page, or longer ones?
5. What suggestions can you offer that will help the work in your county or Union?
6. How many Department Superintendents have ordered literature from the W. T. P. A. through you?
7. How many ministers supplied with Union Signals and MESSAGE?
8. How many editors supplied with Union Signals and MESSAGE?
9. At how many public assemblies have you distributed literature?
10. Can you suggest any way to assist the work in the State? New ideas thankfully received.

GEORGIANA MOSER.

Loogootee.

L. T. L. BRANCH.

STEBEN COUNTY Convention—An unusual degree of interest throughout, notwithstanding the sickness of Mrs. Ellars deprived us of her valuable assistance, direction, and encouragement. Our program was well carried out and the climax of our enthusiasm was reached in the wisdom and repartee of the "Minister's Hour." Good music interspersed the program, which was greatly enhanced by the fine solos given by Mrs. Stacy, of Chicago; Mrs. Dorn, of Angola, and Mrs. Figley, of Fremont. We enjoyed a good time, filled with pleasure and profitable suggestion for our work in years to follow.

MRS. SARAH R. TAYLOR,
Angola. Recording Secretary.

YOUNG WOMAN'S BRANCH.

To the Y Unions of Indiana I extend loving greetings. I rejoice with you in our gain in membership over last year, having twenty-two Unions and Branches this year and only five last. God has said, "Be not weary in well doing, for in due season ye shall reap if ye faint not."

Our National Y Secretary, Mrs. Ella Boole, says "What pays so well for the investment of time and labor as to arouse young men and women to an interest in the Temperance and Purity work? Hundreds of young women will be better women because of the Y. W. C. T. U." How true are her words. The coming year we want to help hundreds, yea, thousands to be Y's. Pray for us. Open the way for an organization. Send for literature. Work for a paid membership. Please send for an Organizer and have a Y Branch to your Union. The first quarter's blank will be sent the Unions and Branches December 1.

CLARA M. SEARS,
State Y Secretary.

COUNTIES.

ST. JOSEPH COUNTY held their annual convention in the Y. M. C. A. parlors of South Bend, September 28. Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, of Elkhart, presided, and made a most excellent address on Suffrage, besides giving many practical thoughts on our work. Her services were most heartily appreciated by the Unions.

Reports from the Secretaries and Treasurer showed the work to be in a very prosperous condition. The county has seventy-five active and thirteen honorary members. Besides regular meetings, they have had lectures, held gospel meetings, mass meetings and mothers' meetings; observed red-letter days, and Mrs. Blair has given chalk-talks in schools; Temperance Sunday one thousand leaflets were distributed in the different Sunday schools.

At the Sunday School rally held in the Baptist Church, where fourteen schools were represented, over twelve hundred signed the pledge. Cards were strung on white ribbon. This work was done by Colfax Avenue Union.

The W. C. T. U. Unions have secured the Curfew law for South Bend, the value of which has already been demonstrated.

Mrs. Weld, County Superintendent of Scientific Temperance, reported visiting schools and finding the teachers anxious to instruct their pupils in the requirements of law.

A paper on "The Progress of Temperance," was read by Mrs. Staples.

Mrs. Fassnacht gave us "A Memorial from the life of Miss Willard." Mrs. Campbell read a poem on the same subject. Mrs. Shontz gave a very interesting talk, and Mrs. Hatch, as a delegate from the Progress Club, came before the Convention to ask the co-operation of the Unions in securing a Police Matron for South Bend. By a unanimous rising vote the Unions responded to the proposition.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Daisy Shontz; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Maria Gorsuch; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Cora Sarle; Treasurer, Mrs. Katie W. Holler, all of South Bend; one officer from each Union.

This is only a partial report of the work accomplished. We must remember the thought left us by Mrs. Browning: "Measure not the work until the day's out and the labor done, then bring your gauges. If the day's work is scant, why call it scant? Affect no compromise. And, in that we have nobly striven, at least deal with us nobly, women though we be; and honor us with truth, if not with praise."

MARY P. BUGBEE.

BLACKFORD COUNTY Annual Convention was held in the M. E. Church at Millgrove. The County President and National worker, Mrs. S. M. Stahl, were present and managed the Convention splendidly. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. J. L. Smith; Corresponding Secretary, Elizabeth Rice; Recording Secretary, Jane Sampson; Treasurer, Miss Alice Keach. Mrs. Rounds gave the evening address on the subject, "The unsolved problem" and won great applause. Our county work has been much hindered on account of sickness during the entire year in the family of our president. We hope the coming year to take up department work in our unions and extend our usefulness as we have not been able to do heretofore. ELIZABETH RICE.

ELKHART COUNTY. Our delegates arrived home in safety from the State convention and we all enjoy the reports and join our voices with other counties in a long, loud hurrah for Indiana. We feel amply rewarded for all we have done and hope to continue in the work. "There is nothing impossible for Indiana." Mrs. Tompkins sent us a number of franchise petitions that are being prepared for signatures. We are contemplating our anniversary next month and fully expect to observe it royally.

Our Y branch is so elated over again capturing the State banner they feel equal to almost any emergency. We are very proud of our Y branch.

A RECOMMENDATION FROM THE HADLEY INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL BOARD, ENDORSED BY THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

We recommend the stirring campaign to meet the necessities of our Industrial School. Any county, whose every Union will hold a medal contest by the time of our Mid-Year meeting, and send the net proceeds to the Treasurer of the Board for the School, shall have an organizer enroute for a week.

Miss Hobart, President of the Hadley Industrial School Board, writes: "Everything is favorable for the success of this Home, but we must plan ahead to meet our running expenses. A school is now established in the building, the Indianapolis School Board having generously loaned us 29 desks to help furnish the school room. All the girls are in school, with Miss Cora Angell, of LaPorte, as teacher. She is a member of the Y Branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and comes well recommended. How the burden has been lifted from the Executive Committee, by the noble response of friends, at the State Convention, in providing for the debts of this School. The Lord will bless you "Inasmuch as ye did unto these little ones, ye did it unto me"

MRS. D. T. SMITH, of Bluffton, writes profuse thanks and words of appreciation for the premium given her at the State Convention for the last quarterly reports. The life sized picture of Miss Willard, framed, was the premium given to this faithful, efficient worker.

VERY SAD ACCIDENTS.

MRS. Z. H. STANLEY, of Liberty, President of Union county, buried her baby Ross, Friday, 10 A. M., from the Presbyterian church. In some unaccountable way the little fellow set fire to his clothing, and died from the effects. There are no words coined to measure the sorrow.

Our Vice-President, Miss Hadley, met with a painful experience while in the street near the postoffice, in Indianapolis, just about to take a street car. The hind wheel of a wagon which dashed by between her and the car, ran over her foot, making a very severe bruise, but breaking no bones. It means patience as well as suffering.

LINDLEY UNION met last Tuesday at the home of Miss Kate Leebrick, the new President. The interesting report of our State Convention was by the delegate, Mrs. Vessie Buroker. Afterwards lunch was served by the hostess. The collection taken was divided between the Superintendents of Mothers' Meetings and Scientific Temperance Instruction, for literature.

One woman in Grant county walked eight miles to attend the County Convention of the W. C. T. U.

Since the evenings have become cooler the meetings at the Solder's Home at Marion, are "booming," having signers to the pledge every meeting. The W. C. T. U. with the willing assistance of the ministers, have kept these meetings going during the past six years, twice a week.

President of Deer Creek Union, Grant county, cooked all night preparing dinner for Thresher next day, that she might be able to attend the State Convention next day.

While attending the convention at LaFayette Julia Averman, State Superintendent of "Work among Soldiers and Sailors," held a meeting in the "State Home" located there, and procured one hundred signatures to the pledge, and find the women there eager for a W. C. T. U. to be organized in their home.

A young woman has joined since the State Convention, also an honorary member.

Mrs. Moffit, who served as Corresponding Secretary of Wayne County Union for ten years, will move to Alexandria, where she will be welcomed into Madison County's White Ribbon sisterhood.

Our Mrs. Ellen K. Denny has visited many Unions this fall. From these sources we learn of her appreciated labors. She also attended the National Prison Congress, at Indianapolis.

Franchise Petitions. The politicians are saying if "only a few women sign, then it will be evident that only cranks want the ballot." Urge every woman to sign. Remember to have two copies of petition, one for the 'Senate' and one for the 'House of Representatives.' Have everybody to sign both—men's names in one column, women's names in another.

Mrs. Kate Riddle is the new President of Alton Union.

THE FIRST UNION after State Convention.—Where? Grant County, to be sure, at Matthews. Mrs. Cammack and others went over and organized a Union of eight members. The place is marked on the maps, New Cumberland. Officers are as follows: President, Mrs. Alice Whorton; Secretary, Mrs. Maryette Dunn; Treasurer, Mrs. Sarah Lyons.

THE DEPARTMENT OF ORGANIZATION—THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S LETTER.

We would naturally turn first to the report of the Plan of Work Committee, which we give below:—Dear Co-Workers—Will you study it and make yourselves familiar with it? Then the next in order is the additional plans given to us by our Central Committee. These should be read in our local Union meeting, and if it happened that the day was stormy and but a few members present for any cause, then read and discuss them at a second meeting. And go to work to win. As County Presidents were asked to suggest subjects for the papers of note, those subjects will be given in the December MESSAGE, and this will give County Presidents time to send in their subjects to Mrs. Mary E. Balch, 711 E. Eleventh street, Indianapolis. If there are any Unions still entitled to a free lecture on the stirring campaign Plan—if in any way they have been overlooked—we urge them to send in their claim, and it will be attended to. One lady or Union is entitled to a copy of the Thumb Nail Sketches, by Miss Willard. The letter notifying us has been mislaid. Will the party write again? Do not fail to make note of the program for the first Quarterly Department meeting for December. We suggest December 26, 27, 28 or 29, because at that time a great, round moon will shine down on old mother earth, to help the people not blessed with electric lights. However, local Union chose such dates in December as will best suit local conditions. Look in the December MESSAGE for the directory of County Presidents and Superintendents, and it should be the duty of the Recording Secretary to send to the State Corresponding Secretary, the names of any changes in the officers of the Union or county, also report if their Union has prepared a program for the year. And another very important matter is, has every old Union a local Corresponding Secretary's book? If not, send for one, 15 cents. Has every County Corresponding Secretary a Record book? If not, send for one, price 35 cents. You can not afford to do without these books, when they are prepared for you, and waiting on the shelves, unused. Treasurers have their books they order of the State Treasurer, 15 cents, local; 35 cents, county. Do not get this mixed. Secretary's get their books from the State Secretary—711 East Eleventh street, Indianapolis. Treasurers get their books from the State Treasurer—3335 North Meridian street.

We believe that every Union which prepares its own program, should send a copy to at least one of the State officers, that we may be in touch with every Union. No one can tell; it may be our last, but let it be our best year, in His service.

MARY E. BALCH.

The Central Committee offers the following, as incentives for immediate action, in addition to the Plan of Work, endorsed by the Convention:

Any person sending in at one time 24 subscriptions to the MESSAGE, with the money, shall receive a copy of Miss Willard's Do Everything Policy.

Any Union sending in a subscription list equal to its paid membership, shall receive a copy of the Union Signal for its W. T. P. A. agent, if not otherwise supplied. In that case, to any woman the Union selects.

Any county sending in a subscription list equal to its paid membership, by January 1st, shall receive a life size picture of Miss Willard.

Every Union of less than 20 members, that makes a gain of five by September 25th, 1899, when the State Treasurer's books close, shall have a place on the Honor Roll, at next State Convention.

Any Union of 20 members and over, that makes a gain of ten members by September 25, 1899, when the State Treasurer's books close, shall have place on the Honor Roll, No. 2, at the next State Convention.

Any county which organizes two Unions by the time of the Mid-Year meeting, and has paid to the State Treasurer dues for not less than five members each, shall have a State Organizer enroute for one week.

PLAN OF WORK ENDORSED BY THE CONVENTION.

1. We recommend that a program be made out by the State Officers, for the use of Unions not having their own. Program printed in the MESSAGE, and copies of the paper furnished Local Unions for the postage.

2. That the life membership plan be continued, the money to be divided as follows: $10.00 to the State. $5.00 to the county and $10.00 to the Local Union.

3. That the Department Fund plan be continued, and the money used for helping Local Superintendents. EDITOR. If we understand that the collection taken at the Quarterly Department Meeting is to be retained by the Local Union, then there is no Department Fund plan. We feel constrained to advise following the original plan, sending one-half of the money to the State, one-fourth to the county, and one-fourth to the Local Union, and all the money to be used for Department Work and nothing else. If we interpret the clause (and the money used for helping Local Superintendents), in the broadest and best sense, it accepts the original division of the money.

4. We favor County Normal Institutes on the Schedule plan, as to date, place and leader, and that we utilize as much as possible our State and Local Superintendents and evangelists in which the Institutes are held.

5. We approve of the papers of note.

6. In organizing new Unions the organizer will say if every member will now pay twenty-five cents of their dues down, and all consent to having the twenty-five cents go to pay for a copy of the MESSAGE, the State will then send a copy of the Union Signal to the women they choose to act as W. T. P. A. agents.

7. Newly organized Unions will be entitled to a copy of the minutes, the Secretaries' and Treasurer's Record Books, and such other helps as the State can provide.

8. We recommend the plan of the State Superintendent of Franchise, which is, that a chairman be appointed in each county, and a committee of three in each Local Union to make a canvass of the county by voting precincts with the following addition: the State Suffrage Committee having special supervision over unorganized counties, or those with but few members.

9. The General Officers, Organizers, and Branch Secretaries should hold a conference as early as possible in the year to avoid any confusion in the field work.

IMPORTANT.

Many Unions have not yet sent in the fifty cents for the Convention Fund. This amount is scarcely missed from the Local Unions, but it means a great deal to the Local Committee at LaFayette, who entertained us so beautifully. Let me urge you to send at once, and thus relieve them of the burden of a debt.

Blanks will be sent to the County Treasurers the last week in November. Will County Treasurers please remember to forward to the Local Treasurers at once? If blanks are not received by the Local Treasurers by the fifth of December, please write the County Treasurer for them. If County Treasurers do not receive blanks the last week in November write the State Treasurer at once.

Promptness in our work means much. Please be prompt in the collection of dues, that this quarter may go far ahead of the corresponding quarter last year.

A. T. WHITSON.

Bloomington Union is very much encouraged by the splendid year's work of Indiana W. C. T. U., as reported at our late State Convention. We expect to continue the circulation of the suffrage petition, and plan for more Department work. How will little Indiana feel at St. Paul, being entitled to so large a share in Benefit Night, and what will she do if Luella and the rest of them come marching home with the National Banner? Verily for victories already won, she ought to praise God and take fresh courage.

VICE PRESIDENT BLOOMINGTON UNION.

South Bend Colfax Avenue Union has fourteen active and six honorary members; meetings twice each month. It owns a circulating library. The departments are Scientific Temperance, Sabbath School, Mothers Meetings. The second meeting of each month is the Mothers Meeting. Light refreshments are served by a parlor caterer.

The following topics were used: Home-making and Home-keeping, Women of the Bible, Clothing for Infants, Proper Food for Children, Children's Literature, Dangers to Our Girls, Dangers to Our Boys, Proper Punishment, Training the Will, The Mothers and the Public School. Papers were written by the leaders and the subjects thoroughly discussed, Department leaflets were distributed pertaining to the various subjects. Teaching Truth, Child Confidence, Rewarded, Almost a Man, were read aloud in the Union and discussed, and Almost a Woman is being read now by the members. Good work is being done in the Sabbath School department. Mrs. Gorsuch, superintendent, aided by the church vice presidents, by their efforts twelve hundred boys and girls signed the pledge and a grand union Sunday School rally was held, where the cards were displayed, then sent to Mrs. Geary, State Superintendent Sunday Schools.

CONVENTION ECHOES.

Our city seems to be thoroughly aroused to the interest of the Woman's Christian Temperance Work, the result of the State Convention, recently held here.

A new lease of life has been given us, and persons who have seemingly been indifferent along this line, have become awakened to the large amount of good that is being done through this White Ribbon movement.

Friday evening, the 21st, a reception was held at the residence of William Levering. This was well attended, and a number of members added to the Union.

Sunday afternoon, the 23d, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union gave a fine program at Willard Hall. Addresses were made by Helen M. Gouger, Ella J. Davis, of Richmond, State Evangelist, and Mrs. Sarah D. Curtiss, County President. The subject of the speakers being the State Convention, discussing some of the features of the work, and the results of the Convention that have been most prominent, since its close. A large audience was in attendance, music was furnished by the Willard Hall Choral Club, under the direction of Prof. Kinsey, his son Carl presiding at the piano.

The past week, four of our Ministers, with their wives, have donned the White Ribbon, which gives encouragement along this line.

The LaFayette Union has plans on foot, arranging a contest for membership, and hopes soon to report the fact that she is the banner Union of the State.

We have caught the spirit of enthusiasm, and hope for long and lasting results.

MRS. J. F. KINSEY,
President LaFayette W. C. T. U.

The convention did more to break down the prejudice of this conservative city, i. e., the idea that the Women's Christian Temperance Union was a talking union, and not a doing one, than all other influences combined.

A young man called at the church, and of necessity, remained during a part of the morning session. As he came in he said to one of the ushers (myself), "the idea of a crowd of women like that attempting to fight such a gigantic evil as the rum traffic is to me absolutely ridiculous." After being in the meeting a few minutes he remarked, that "if all the women had as much sense as the presiding officer they might do something;" and when he heard the reports of the actual work done in the State, he acknowledged himself vanquished.

The entire Convention went to prove the old motto, "In union there is strength." And as one man remarked, "When it is a union of women fighting what they hate like they do the devil himself, it seems to me absolutely impregnable."

Last Sunday a little girl in a Sunday School class said they had formed a children's W. C. T. U. like that one that was at St. Paul, and they were going to each bring a penny every week to help the women fight whiskey and tobacco.

They had no suggestions from any one; but one or two of their home delegates had entertained, from whom they heard of the great work of the Union, and its need of financial help.

No one who heard Miss Brehm on Sunday afternoon will forget her keen wit, her terse illustrations, and her apparently complete comprehension of the way in which to present cold facts to prejudiced people in order to convince and not anger them.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union showed that, in all their work, they would have no common place speakers to present what they realize to be vital truths. This was seen when they selected not just a good lecturer, but the best in John G. Woolley, and the audience which greeted him proved that no matter how narrow and prejudiced "the people," may be, they like to hear a man who is not afraid to reveal their sin to them, and who tolerates absolutely no compromise with what he believes is absolute sin.

One man said of him "He came down on my democratic toes pretty hard, but after all I don't know but what may be they need bruising."

To those who attended, I believe the "County President's Night" was the crowning session. It was not only amusing, but very profitable in that it showed what a very diversified crowd of women can do, even with two minutes. Some tried to report a year's hard work, others picked out a single important movement to report as an example, while still others simply announced that the half could never be told in two minutes.

To sum up the impression of the uninitiated women who attended the Convention, we would say, in the words of Josiah Allen, "We always knew we wuz good, but we never realized how dumb good we wuz before."

Sincerely,
LELIA BASSETT.

"Not by Might Nor
By Power,
But by My Spirit"

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION, 35c. PER YEAR

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT OF OUR STATE L. T. L.

Now that the conventions are all over, their deeds recorded in the history of the W. C. T. U., it is time that we begin to make new history, and in order to do this we must do something. What member of the W. C. T. U. can look upon the history of 1898, but with a feeling of righteous pride and thankfulness? for in that year she increased her membership 1,000 or more, had a place on the National program for benefit night, and the beloved President carried home the Frances Willard banner. But stop, we are talking of our L. T. L.'s; what they did do, or rather what has been done for them, for the L. T. L.'s can not work alone. We can help our mothers very much about the home, but we can not keep house; so with our L. T. L. work, we can do much, but we can not run an L. T. L. without the mothers.

And now what we want to ask is this: As this is the time of the year when children, as well as grown up people, are making good resolutions, and thinking of the clear white page they mean to turn over on New Year's day, and cover up all the mistakes of the past year, we want every white ribboner in Indiana to resolve to do something for the L. T. L., and we want to ask, especially, that our State and county officers take a more active interest in this department than has even yet been taken. The children are ready, and waiting to be organized into Legions, if the mothers will only take the lead. We ought to have a large increase in membership to report at our State L. T. L. Convention. If we do not have, whose fault will it be? Somebody's surely.

And now a word to the children. You know we have thirty departments of work in the State; that is, our mother's have, but we can not take very many of them. There are, however, a few that we can and of one these is Proportionate and Systematic Giving, or tithing our money. There is no boy or girl who does not sometimes receive pennies, and some get nickels and dimes, and some more. Well now, let those of us who have not already done so, get a small box with a tight lid, write on it John's or Mary's (or whatever name it may be), tithe box, and that means, The Lord's box. Every tenth penny you get put in that box. You see that isn't giving very much, because you keep nine pennies and give the Lord one, but you will be surprised how money will grow, and then think what you can do with it if you want to buy badges in our L. T. L. (and all legions should have them), and when your leader says Who can bring five or ten cents to the next meeting, we want to get our badges? why every boy or girl who has been tithing his or her money, put up a hand. They don't have to wait until they ask mother; they know they can get it, because they have it in the Lord's box, and this is his work.

I wonder how many children would like to see an L. T. L. column in the MESSAGE, with Mrs. Gordon as editor? All who would, will please drop me a card, and if we get enough names, perhaps we can get the column. Of course all Legioners ought to take the Young Crusader, and many will, we think, when they get their tithe box established. Yours for the L. T. L. of Indiana.

JAMES C. GIPE.

THE MEMORIAL WHITE RIBBON NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The St. Paul Convention was held in the People's Church, with a seating capacity of over 6,000. It was situated in a beautiful part of the city and well arranged for convention purposes. Lunch was served at noon and evening in the Sunday school rooms. The convention was largely attended. The platform was most beautifully decorated. At no time in the past has there been more elaborate floral decorations at our National conventions. Upon the platform was the vacant chair, over which was draped the White Star Spangled Banner which rested during the last days of our Chieftain's life about her bed. Upon this banner were laid many tributes of flowers, which made the chair indeed a chair of bloom. Behind it and a little to the right sat the Acting President, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, with her jet black hair, her large, stately figure and her earnest, motherly face, which seemed to be a token of the great heartedness and magnificent character of the woman. By her side sat Miss Anna Gordon, and to the right and left were tables for the Secretaries and for the Treasurer. Upon a great easel was a beautifully executed picture of Miss Willard, the gift of a New York woman. Behind the pulpit and against the choir rail hung some magnificent State banners. To the right of the platform stood a white silk banner about ten feet high, which contains a painting of the Madonna. This, in former years, was the gift of Mrs. Emily D. Martin, of New York, costing $500. The galleries were decorated with bunting and State banners and underneath, suspended from one pillar to another, was the Sunday School pledge chain, thousands and thousands of cards such as were exhibited at our State convention, Indiana contributing a larger part than any other state. There was a gloom over the convention, the great magnetic leader was gone, but in the deliberations there seemed to be a determined effort on the part of each and every delegate to redouble their efforts for the advancement of the cause. This seems to have been the feeling of many workers, for at no convention has there ever been reported such an increase in membership. Seven states made an increase of over 500. Indiana made the greatest gain, which was 1,150, for which she received the Frances Willard White Ribbon Star Spangled Banner, also the old battle-scarred National membership banner and the Y banner. These things do not have a tendency to puff us up, but rather make us feel more determined than ever before that we will go on to victory and refuse to pass on these banners at the end of the year. In order to keep them we will need to do much personal work.

The Memorial service was held at the hour when Miss Willard has for years delivered her annual address. The service was beautiful and impressive. The reports of the Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer were very encouraging. The first evening of the convention was Welcome Night, and a right royal welcome was extended by the Governor of the State, the ex-Governor, the Mayor and representatives from the Commercial Club, Ministerial Association and other associations, and by the President of Minnesota W. C. T. U., young, fair haired Mrs. Scovel, who stirred the hearts of comrades, and who elicited praise from all. The responses were given by some of the brightest and best White Ribbon representatives from the East, the Pacific coast, the Southland, the Middle States, and the Northwest. The great house was filled that night, and enthusiasm ran high.

On Saturday work began in earnest, the delegations being seated under their bannerettes as States and Territories, the pages with regalia on, and all delegates with a beautiful white satin badge, upon which in silver letters were "Memorial Convention, St. Paul, Nov. 11 to 16, 1898," in the center being a picture of Frances Willard. These, the Indiana delegation wore with a white badge, upon which was printed, "Indiana, 1,050 gain." The gain, however, was 100 short of the actual fact.

The Indiana delegation sat just between the National Superintendents, and the Ohio delegation, and across the aisle from our banner was the Missouri delegation, and further away, and across the aisle sat the South Dakota and Kansas delegations. During the many days of Convention life we found these neighbors very congenial.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, of Maine; Vice President, Miss Anna Gordon, Illinois; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Susanna M. D. Fry, Illinois; Treasurer, Mrs. Helen M. Barker, North Dakota; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Clara Hoffman, Missouri; Assistant Recording Secretary, Mrs. Frances Beauchamp, Kentucky. Mrs. Katherine Lente Stevenson, the former Corresponding Secretary refused to serve and had on this account previously been elected President of the Massachusetts W. C. T. U.

The National decided, after many hours of deliberation, that it would no longer consider the Temple an affiliated interest. Many invitations were received for the next Convention and it was decided to accept the one from Seattle, Washington, because for years there has been a desire on the part of the Western coast people for a Convention and it has been promised to them. I hope that every Indiana man and woman who can arrange to go to Seattle next October will do so. In addition to the cordial invitations from the various organizations of the city of Seattle there came a telegram to the National Secretary stating that the Chamber of Commerce would present $1,500 to the National Treasury if the Convention was held at Seattle. This surely indicates a great desire on the part of the Western people to have a white ribbon convention.

L. T. L. BRANCH.

The next best thing to attending the convention is reading the minutes. Therefore send for the State Minutes and read the report of Legion work in the State. It is booming and Indiana is coming to the front to stay.

Let us renew our energies for the coming year and make it still better. ARGOS.

AMANDA R. GORDON,

State Secretary.

There is great responsibility upon the Local President. In order to keep all members of the Union interested, all must be kept busy. Many join who are willing to work, but because they are not given something definite to do they become indifferent and give their time to some other work. Local Presidents, you are the leaders; much of the responsibility of the success or failure of your Union will depend upon your ability to lead. Send for minutes of last State Convention.

Those who desire the services of our Oratorical Contest Organizer, Mrs. Ada L. Squires, of Martinsville, should write to her immediately. Mrs. Squires will organize and train oratorical classes, and hold contests. She will make house to house visits, interest the people in the W. C. T. U., add new members to Unions, and organize new Unions. Mrs. Squires, as an elocutionist, is entertaining; as a lecturer, she is earnest and convincing. She wins her audience.

Every Union should now arrange to have an Organizer, or Evangelist for one week. The Organizer makes house to house visits, holding a meeting for women, girls, or children each afternoon, and gives a public address each evening, and two public addresses on Sunday, Saturday only being reserved for rest. The Evangelists will co-operate with pastors, make house to house visits, hold special meetings upon any plan deemed practical by the Union.

These Indiana workers are especially informed upon our State work. They are earnest, effective laborers. They will revive the membership, increase the interest in your community, and add new members to your Union.

The collections at the meetings, and the honorary membership fees will usually pay all the expenses and leave a surplus in the treasury.

The following letter from our World's President was received by Mrs. Lizzie Thomas, of Evansville. The corresponding secretary received one as gracious in reply to her letter written as per instruction of the convention.

EASTNOR CASTLE, LEDBURY, Nov. 3, 1898.

My Dear Friend—I have received your letter and beg you to thank the friends of the Indiana W. C. T. U. for their loyal greeting, their kind sympathy and their loving words which you have expressed in your letter. My earnest wishes and constant prayers are for the success of the work to every land. With affectionate greeting.

Your faithful comrade,

ISABELLE SOMERSET.

Nebraska, in recent State Convention, adopted, with only one dissenting vote, Iowa's plan for supporting a State W. C. T. U. paper. The plan is, that out of every membership due, which is $1.00, that 25 cents must go to pay that member's subscription to the State paper. By this means every woman reads the paper and becomes interested. Local interest is greatly increased. As local interest increases, new members are sure to follow. Iowa has tried this plan for three years and could not be induced to return to the old way. In one of the Eastern States the subscription list to their State paper is double their membership list. One lady said the paper was only 25 cents a year, and many pay a dollar and send the paper to those they think will become interested in their work. It has proved quite successful.

Make the MESSAGE a Christmas present of your yearly subscription. The most suitable Christmas present for the MESSAGE is a fine, large club from your Union. Who will send the largest?

The following was received by the State President in April, 1897, and is published by request:

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That it is the desire of the society of the W. C. T. U. at Vincennes, Indiana, that the State President of the W. C. T. U. of the State of Indiana, formulate and prepare a petition to be signed by the legal voters of said State, and to be presented to the Honorable Body, the Legislature of the State of Indiana, at its next regular session, to convene at Indianapolis, praying that Body to take such steps as seem most expedient to have the word MALE stricken from the Constitution of the State of Indiana, thereby granting free and equal suffrage to all citizens over the age of twenty-one years, regardless of sex.

SECTION 2. That the State President send one of said petitions to every society of W. C. T. U. in this State, with instructions to have them presented to each voter in the township or county where such society is located, and if possible, have him sign the same.

SECTION 3. We further desire that the society in each county in this State select some influential man known to be favorable to the cause of equal suffrage, to present said petition to the Legislature, immediately after its next assembling.

SECTION 4. That said men be requested to meet at Indianapolis on an appointed day, during the session of said Legislature, and present said petition, and urge the consideration of the same, in the strongest possible manner. Prepared and offered by ELIZABETH J. CHANCELLOR.

April 6, 1897.

WORK AMONG FOREIGNERS.

Will the County Presidents please help me so that I can do better work? If there are foreigners in your county won't you please write me? Tell me their nationality so I can send literature and above all, will you not appoint a superintendent so the work can be better done? I do so much wish to have Unions formed among the foreigners. If it is possible to procure a column in any foreign newspaper that may be published in your county, please inform me as soon as possible and I will send you the material for said column. I pray you to give my request a place in your plan of work. God will bless you for what little help you may render in this department of our work.

MRS. ANNA KILMER,
State Superintendent.

ANTI-NARCOTIC DEPARTMENT.

I hope every Union in your State will begin at once to organize Anti-Cigarette or Anti-Tobacco Leagues in the public schools. If you find it impossible to organize during school hours, then organize at some other time, but organize we must. Read what Fred. W. Byers, Surgeon-General of Wisconsin, says: "I regret to say numbers of our young men, otherwise desirable, were rejected by the Medical Department of Wisconsin for enlistment in the late war, because of defective nutrition and impaired or diseased nervous systems, due in most cases, when investigated, to cigarette smoking." Surely it is time to enlist our boys in the anti-cigarette warfare, and I call upon all good people to help. Send two cent stamp for constitution. Send petitions by the thousands to Congress in favor of the Interstate Commerce bill. This is a bill to regulate the cigarette trade in the states, allowing states to pass laws forbidding the sale, importation and manufacture of the cigarette. Have petitions signed by organizations and individuals. Send two cent stamp for petitions and instructions. MRS. E. B. INGALLS, National Superintendent Anti-Narcotic W. C. T. U.

MERCY DEPARTMENT.

I should like every county to appoint a superintendent for the Mercy Department this year who will make a special effort for the prizes I shall offer. First, to the superintendent who organizes the largest number of Bands of Mercy, aggregating the greatest number of members, I will give $1 worth of literature. Second, to the superintendent who secures the most signatures to the Bird pledge I will give 50 cents worth of literature. I will furnish the Bird pledge to any superintendent desiring to work for the prize. Mrs. Howe, of Blackford County, secured the prize of $2 worth of literature offered last year for greatest amount of work reported. Let every one try this year.

At the end of each quarter I wish each county superintendent would send me answers to the following questions. I wish to try quarterly reports. Send in answers the last of December, March, June and September. Cut these out for future reference or keep the paper: How many bands of mercy have you organized? How many members each—children, adults? How many signatures have you secured to the bird pledge? How many pages of literature have you distributed? What kind? How many ministers have you requested to preach on the subject of cruelty to animals? How many did so and of what denominations? Have any articles been written for the press? How many? Have you done anything to create sentiment against vivisection? If so, what? State anything else of interest that has been done along the line of humane work. Keep these questions, please, and answer at the times stated. LOU. E. RALL,
Superintendent.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

The necessity of much work in this department is recognized by all, and more especially by those having sons, husbands or brothers in our encampment posts or navy. One important step in our department is petitioning President McKinley to abolish the pernicious "canteen" system from army encampment posts and navy. The canteen is supposed to keep the soldiers out of temptation of the saloons outside of the camp, but it has resulted in making it easier for the soldier to be led astray by bringing the temptation in the camp or ship.

I am much encouraged with the work that has been done in the past six months, but let us not "weary in well doing," but rather renew our energy for the coming year's work.

The following is an outline of question blanks to be used this year:

1. In your county or town how many soldiers' homes, hospitals, posts or encampments?
2. How many meetings have you held for soldiers? Sailors?
3. How many pages of literature distributed? Comfort bags, delicacies, etc.?
4. How many letters written to soldiers in the army or sailors in the navy?
5. Have you co-operated with G. A. R. or W. R. C. in observing Memorial Day?
6. How many flags have been placed on school houses?
7. How many souls have been saved among soldiers and sailors?
8. How many honorary members secured among soldiers or sailors? How many Unions formed?
9. How many boxes have been sent to the army or navy? Contents?
10. Do you take and read the Union Signal?

The battle-cry this year is, a Superintendent in each Local Union. Trusting you will all join me in making this the very best year in our work, I am yours in His name, JULIA OVERMAN,
Superintendent.

PURITY.

I am hoping, working and praying for large results in the Purity Department this year, and if each Union will make a note of what they do in this line and report, we will come to the next State Convention with a song of praise on our lips. Secure a superintendent if possible, if not, then let the secretary keep account of the work done and report to me quarterly, not forgetting to give her name and address. Mrs. Teats, National Purity Lecturer from California will be in our state for a short time on her way back from the National Convention and I would urge every Union to avail themselves of the opportunity to get a national lecturer of so fine a reputation for only half her care fare from the nearest point.

I would recommend Purity Conferences in connection with the Spring Conventions in which the various phases of the subject are presented and discussed. Mrs. Sarah D. Curtiss, 240 S. Grant street, LaFayette, field worker in this department, will be available for work at these conferences or any other time convenient. Write to her about dates or to the State Corresponding Secretary.

We need the co-operation of those outside our society to do the most effective work and the best way to obtain this is through the White Shield and White Cross Societies. The pledge of these societies and a carefully prepared course of lessons for semi-monthly study appears monthly in the New Crusade, the official organ of the Purity Department. No Union or Purity Superintendent can afford to do without it. The paper has been enlarged and the price raised to $1.00. If you send $1.00 before January 1, you will receive the paper for two years. You can obtain the manual and pledge cards for the White Cross Society of Mrs. Mable Conklin, 28 New York avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. For information concerning the White Shield work, also for pledges and manuals, write Rose Wood-Allen, Ann Arbor, Mich. Where organizations can not be effected the manuals and pledges can be used in the Sunday schools and young people's societies. If you need rescue work in your town address Mrs. Isabelle Wing-Lake, the Temple, Chicago.

QUESTIONS FOR THE QUARTERLY REPORT.

Have you done any rescue work? How many erring women have been appealed to? How many erring women have been rescued? How many visits have been made to houses of ill repute? Is the girl employed in the home, the office or the store most often led astray? What have you discovered to be the most active causes that lead girls into lives of sin? Have you a Rescue Home in your town? Is there an industry connected with the same, if so, what is it? Give name and address of matron. How many churches have adopted Rescue Work as belonging to Home Missionary Work? How many subscribers to the New Crusade? How many pages of literature given out? Have you done any White Shield or White Cross work?

FRANCES G. BOYER,

208 Aughe Street, Frankfort, Ind.

Superintendent.

ORPHANS' HOMES, HOMELESS CHILDREN.

DEAR SISTERS—I will give you an outline plan of work for this year, 1898-9, trusting that each county will recognize the department by appointing an earnest active woman for its superintendent and send her carefully written address to the State superintendent. This department has much to do this year; the field is ready for the harvest. Many dependent children are unprovided for, and as the "storms of winter" are upon us, it means much to those who know something of the needs of this class of humanity. Those counties not having homes, let them be ready for organization at once, and your State superintendent will gladly aid you in all things. County presidents, urge your unorganized neighbors (not in the W. C. T. U.) to take up this work. You may thus throw out the "life line" in counties where other departments may not so easily be recognized. A few suggestive questions as the following may aid throughout the year's work: Have you a superintendent for Orphans' Home department? If not, will you appoint one? Have you an orphans' home? If not, will you endeavor to secure one? If no home, how do you provide for dependent children? How many dependent children in your county seeking aid? Is public sentiment in favor of an orphans' home? If not, why not? Have you ever asked your ministers to preach sermons on charity, etc. Have you ever held a public meeting with the view of establishing an orphans' home? Have you ever petitioned your county commissioners for a home or suggested to them to visit homes already established as a convincing proof of the worth of such a method? Will you not strive earnestly to establish and maintain a home in your county for dependents? If you have an orphans' home, is it a success? If not, why not? Is your matron a true christian temperance woman? How many children in the home? How many owe their present condition to the liquor traffic, directly or indirectly? How many children have found permanent homes during the year ending September 1, 1898? Will you aid the home management in finding homes for their children, doing so with great wisdom? Have you ever tried to assist the home management by securing of them contributions of money, food, clothing, literature or legacies, remembering that only 25 cents per day per child is the sum granted by law for the maintenance of these children? After having done all possible, report the "much or little" to your State superintendent by September 1, 1899, and she will be truly grateful. Wabash, Ind. IDA R. BENHAM,
State Superintendent.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Willard Union, of South Bend, gave $4.30 worth of Sabbath Observance literature to be used for the advancement of this department. Do you want your county to have a share in this generous donation? If County Presidents will appoint Superintendents and send me their names at once, I will mail leaflets to each of them until the supply is exhausted—one hundred pages of literature and twenty-five Sabbath Observance pledge cards.

Through the efforts of Sabbath-loving and Sabbath-observing people all Sunday work on street contracts in South Bend was recently stopped by the police, and merchants are being prosecuted for keeping their places of business open on Sunday. This is a step in the right direction.

KATIE WERT HOLLER,
State Superintendent.

LEGISLATIVE WORK.

The following received the unanimous vote of the Convention at LaFayette: That Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, Elkhart, State Superintendent of the Franchise Department; Mrs. Amanda T. Whitson, 3335 North Meridian street, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Lizzie Hann, 2129 College avenue, Indianapolis, be made a State Suffrage Committee, empowered to employ the National Superintendent of this department, Miss Marie Brehm, to assist in the effort. This Committee shall make use of every available force to facilitate the success of the undertaking. To meet the demand for money, a legislative fund shall be secured, making it a special point to see the friends of this question outside of W. C. T. U. membership. Local suffrage workers, begin at once sending the money to the Treasurer of the Committee, Mrs. Whitson. Money paid out on order signed by Mrs. Tompkins and Mrs. Hann. We urge that the petition work be systematized as much as possible, canvassing by precincts and pushed vigorously.

Our Committee is all right—reliable, capable, diligent, persevering, wise—but we must co-operate. Some women have been appointed to certain places and duties. Will they feel their responsibility and write this Committee frequently, that they may have some idea of what is going on in the field about them? There may be men and women whose hearts are interested in this struggle. Consider yourselves appointed, circulate petitions, collect money, make donations and write the Committee. No work is as expensive as legislative work, and a W. C. T. U. treasury never has any surplus and we must not incur debt. Now will we have the faith to go and gather up the money which the Lord means we shall have for this special effort? Amen and amen.

THE MEDAL DEPARTMENT—WHAT NEXT?

A Suffrage Contest. Net proceeds, all or one-half, to go to the legislative fund to prosecute our legislative work for woman's enfranchisement. The Medal Department must distinguish itself in this respect. Which Medal Superintendent will hold the first contest? Which will send in the largest amount of money? Which will get a class of young men? These three shall each receive a valuable souvenir from the State Superintendent. To work! To work!

MARY E. BALCH,
State Superintendent Medal Work.

ORGANIZATION.

While the legislative work is absorbing and imperative, the work of organization is the very foundation of everything and must go on. Local and county workers, please correspond with the Superintendent of this department, Mary E. Balch, 711 East 11th street, Indianapolis, and we can be mutually helpful. We need to know each other's plans, and we trust there is much planning for new Unions for additional organized counties. Our organizers desire to be kept busy, and no State in the Union has women better qualified than our own. They compare well with the National workers that come into our State, and being so much more familiar with our own plans and methods, are more desirable. For 100 new Unions this year and a gain of 1,500 new members!

MARY E. BALCH,
Superintendent Department of Organization.

UNFERMENTED WINE

The securing of unfermented wine at communion in our churches by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union should be of the greatest interest to us. Dear sisters, we are banded together for the Master's work. Let us see to it that our dear Lord is not wounded in the house of his professed followers by the use of alcoholic wine at the communion table. The cup of blessing, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? Ye can not drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of devils. Christ's blood shed for the remission of sin could not contain a poison for both soul and body. So, dear co-workers, let us labor to free every church in this State from this sin. Appoint superintendents in every Union; visit the churches; talk to the pastors and members; get the sisters to prepare the cup of blessing so that no alcohol may be offered at our Lord's table. Dear local workers, we appeal to you for help in this department and hope and trust we shall not only find you willing but earnest workers for the dear Master. If the local superintendent will just think for one moment she will see that all reports for county, State and National must come from local workers. God bless our faithful women in our Union. Let me give you just an idea on work. It is true that to-day God's children are influenced by the Pauline plea as they were not in the past? Expedience will move them to remove alcoholic wine from the Lord's table when they are not convinced of the two wine theory of the Bible. These are the ones who sometimes grow careless or indifferent. Push the good work and report. God bless and keep you.

Questions, I hope, will be answered by both county and local Unions: How many sermons secured on this department of our work? At how many county conventions has this department of work been presented? Have you used the columns of your county and local papers in the work? At how many meetings, public or parlor, has the literature of this department been used? How many churches in your vicinity use unfermented wine at the Lord's table? Have you circulated the communion wine pledge at any of the churches? Have you made it a subject of prayer at your meetings?

JULIET R. WOOD.

711 East 11th Street, Indianapolis.

PEACE AND ARBITRATION.

Again I come to you in earnest appeal for your co-operation in the Department of Peace and Arbitration, not claiming that it is the most important of all our departments, but that it is of vast importance, and that this is the especial hour for agitation and education on this subject. Our work is all for God and Home and Native Land, and just now we are confronted with a growth of military spirit and military rule that can only work danger to our homes and detriment to our country. The interests then of home and country demand that by careful study of this subject we may be able to understand the real import of this military craze and may intelligently oppose it. To this end I appeal to County Presidents to see that each county has a Superintendent of Department of Peace and Arbitration and invite such Superintendents to correspond with me, that we may help one another in this line of work. The few counties in which this department is organized did creditable work the past year, but what could we not do if all were enlisted in this "peaceful war?"

How good it would be to be able to report a Peace meeting held somewhere in each number of The Message through this year. Shall we not try? Yours for that blessed time

When man to man the world o'er Shall brothers be for all that.

H. LAVINIA BAILEY,
Superintendent.

ORGANIZING UNION—It was a plan of Mrs. Balch that each Union should make an effort to organize other Unions. Remembering this, Mrs. Steckle and Mrs. Boyer, the committee, had the idea incorporated in Clinton County's Plan of Work. As a result of this plan, Clinton County has another new Union. It was organized at Manson by the Jefferson Union and begins work with seventeen members, four of whom are honoraries. Several others have signified their intention of joining the Union.

The Willard Union of Frankfort had been working in co-operation with the county Prohibition chairman toward the organization of a Union at Manson. A program had been arranged and the plan was to hold a meeting and then organize. While awaiting word from the chairman as to the time to go, it was learned that Jefferson had gone in ahead and organized and Willard was one day too late. While Mrs. Boyer is a little disappointed that Willard Union is not the mother of the new one, she is quite proud of the fact that she is its grandmother, as the Jefferson Union is her child.

PEACE AND ARBITRATION.

Mrs. Lavinia Bailey, our State Superintendent of Peace and Arbitration, writes:

I find in a recent address of Mrs. Josephine E. Butler these strong and hopeful words, which I feel like passing on to some of you who stand as watchmen on the tower.

Mrs. Butler says:

"Do you ask me, am I discouraged? No, I am not. I have never been discouraged, and never shall be. * * * Every one who puts her hand to this work, or any work of righteousness, is a fellow worker with God, bringing nearer the time when He will give us victory all along the line. But the manifestation of His power is not for the future only; it is for to-day, for to-morrow—for all the days and for all the years, if only we have faith enough to claim it."

THE PRESS.

Our department has made wonderful progress during the past year. The women are learning more and more to appreciate the great value of keeping the reading public informed in regard to the great work being carried on by our organization. The press of our State can be made one of our most powerful allies. Whether or not this be so depends largely upon our own women. For the most part the editors are willing and anxious to publish our items, often more willing than the women are to supply the material. I most earnestly entreat that no editor be permitted this year to offer in vain the use of his columns. We can not afford to refuse to accept a helping hand held out to us. It is the universal testimony that the press has helped the general work of the Union wherever it has been used; therefore no Union should be without a press superintendent. Let me urge every superintendent to keep careful account of her work, in order that she may have full credit for all that she does. Will the county superintendents please send in quarterly reports and urge their locals to do the same? Send next report to me by December 15th. The following questions are to be answered:

How many local superintendents in your county? From how many have you received systematic reports of work accomplished? How many Unions have more than one press superintendent? How many papers published in your county? How many supplied with W. C. T. U. matter? How many daily papers take our items? Weekly, religious, reform, agricultural, miscellaneous? How many columns of matter furnished? What proportion original? How many superintendents take the Union Signal? Message? How many send items to the Message? How many newspaper offices supplied with Union Signal? Message? What efforts have been made toward the purification of the press in your county? What success has attended the efforts?

Will every county superintendent please send in her name to me as soon as she is appointed? Also locals in counties where there is no county officer? I will cheerfully answer all inquiries in regard to the work of this department.

FLORENCE E. VANCE,
208 E. Walnut Street, Frankfort. Superintendent.

COMMUNICATIONS.

MAPLETON—The cosy house of Mr. and Mrs. McClintock was given to the ladies of Mapleton W. C. T. U. and their guests on the night of the 22d for a reception to new members and an echo meeting from the National. Much to our regret, through the inclemency of the weather, many were not able to attend who had expected to do so. We were proud to have with us for the evening our State President, Mrs. McWhirter, and her husband, also our State Treasurer, Mrs. Whitson.

Miss Mattie Hale had charge of the music and rendered a fine solo, which was greatly appreciated. The Indiana song was divided, the Union singing first two verses, the Ys the third, L. T. L. the last, and then giving their salute and rah and thus we worked all in.

The report of the National, given by Mrs. McWhirter, was fine, but it was when she touched on her own favorite theme that the deep thought and eloquent words aroused the hearts and minds of her hearers and rapt attention was given to every word that fell from her lips and so glad to have heard her. I did not understand this was that way, and so it is our people do not understand the great and grand teachings of the W. C. T. U., but we say come again and we will do you good.

Mrs. Whitson spoke of the great work represented at the National done in our Sunday school and spoke of the great need of pushing this work with the children. Mr. McWhirter had a pleasant word for all and we enjoyed having him with us.

Mr. Risley, pastor of Mapleton M. E. church, was then introduced to the Union as a new member and made a few impressive remarks, in which he said he greatly desired to be on the right side. Also Mr. J. A. Bailey, a Prohibitionist of several years' standing, became a member, for which we greatly rejoice. Several new names were secured for the Ys and then cream and cake were served, to which all did ample justice.

Following is an extract from the letter received by our State Corresponding Secretary from Mrs. D. L. Smith of Bluffton upon her receipt of the life sized portrait of Miss Willard as a prize for efficiency as County Corresponding Secretary. Mrs. Smith not being present at the State Convention, the prize was taken by her white ribbon sisters, who presented it to her at a meeting of the union:

BLUFFTON, Oct. 14, 1898.

It becomes my pleasant privilege to make acknowledgments to you and the remainder of the staff of officers of the W. C. T. U. of the State of Indiana for the very lovely tribute of affection which was bestowed upon me at the recent convention.

I feel that my poor effort to be faithful to my trust is not worthy of such recognition. I had no idea of competing for the prize, and was treated to a complete surprise this afternoon when the picture of our promoted leader was presented to me at the meeting of our local union. I think I can safely say it was the first time when words failed me. I can scarcely yet realize that I am the happy possessor of the copied features of the queen of women. I feel certain that I shall feel inspired to do better work when I study the face which carried a rift of sunshine into thousands of sad hearts, made sad by the rum traffic and its attendant immoralities.

SUMMARY OF THE WEEK'S WORK BY THE LOOGOOTEE W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Bullock, the National Organizer, has come and gone and we feel that much good has been done, and the results are far reaching. Six evening addresses were given, three parlor meetings were held. Two days of convention work and one address before the city public schools upon Scientific Temperance. Twenty-one new members were welcomed into the Union and a Senior L. T. L. organized, with Mary Pearl Wood as Superintendent, with a membership of seventeen. A Junior L. T. L. of 39 children under ten years of age was organized, in charge of the "Y" branch of the Union, consisting of twenty-two members, two different girls to have charge of the class each month. Printed programs have been arranged for nine months. Georgiana Moser, Superintendent of Y branch. Twenty-one boys signed the pledge, who are not members of the L. T. L. Our young people are nobly standing for temperance.

Mrs. Allie Anderson spent a few days at Atlanta. She held meetings and did effective house to house visiting. Eight members were added to the Union.

At one public meeting the collection was not taken for the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Anderson announced that if any one present desired to contribute to our cause they could do so at the close of the meeting. One envelope was received which contained a five dollar bill, and another containing one dollar. This woman certainly has power to reach the hearts of the people.

MISSES VINCENT AND CUMMINGS.

—Our newly-appointed 'round-the-world missionaries—two Australian women—are in this country, and it is their plan to give some time to your State. Their terms make it possible for the smallest and most needy Union, as well as others, to secure their services, and any Union failing to avail themselves of this great opportunity of increasing their strength and numbers will make a great mistake. They are fine speakers, consecrated workers and always do a grand work. May every blessing come to you through them.

JESSIE ACKERMAN, World's Missionary.

—Unions desiring the services of these sisters will please write immediately to our State Secretary, Mrs. Mary E. Balch, 711 East 11th street, Indianapolis, Ind.

—Miss Georgiana Moser, of Loogootee, State Superintendent of Literature, has published a very instructive and helpful leaflet containing a plan of work which should be in the hands of every literature superintendent. This same earnest worker has devised a very unique program for a Progressive Conversation Party. Copies to be placed in the hands of each guest with a pencil. Before the game begins partners are secured, which change each time the bell rings. These programs can be secured of Miss Moser at the rate of thirty for ten cents.

—Marion County Executive voted to meet the first Saturday of each month at the White Ribbon House.

—Is every member of your Union a subscriber to the Message? If not, can you not make it so by Christmas?

—South Bend, Colfax Avenue Union: President, Daisy D. Shoutz; Vice President, Emma Pridmore; Secretary, Ida Smith; Treasurer, Emma Linard.

—Mapleton Union is the first to raise $5 towards Marion county's pledge fund for Hadley.

—The Young People's Union of Carmel, Hamilton county, was organized May 3, 1898. Through the influence of this enthusiastic organization Carmel now has a curfew ordinance and bell, which is proving to be a great benefit. Is this not worth our organizing, if we do nothing more?

—Jefferson is circulating and getting signatures to the suffrage petition.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD.

Three days spent in the Home have been occupied in looking into its home-workings and superintending the placing of a force pump in the laundry room. This pump is to draw water from the outside cistern in sufficient quantities for laundry work and bath tubs until better facilities can be afforded for proper bath room. Peace and plenty continue to reign in all departments. General good health prevails among the girls and officers in charge. The day-school has added a feature of interest. The beautiful chapel has been transformed into a beautiful, commodious, modern school room equipped with desks, blackboards, boxes of word-builders, etc., as used in the public schools throughout the State. We propose to carry forward the State outline of studies, as do all the public schools of the State. There are twenty-two girls now in attendance, this being the total number in the Home, but several more are expected soon. The teacher, Miss Cora Angell, is a faithful, loyal worker.

The Board of Trustees is making earnest effort to secure a portion of the public school fund to support our school. Our present Superintendent of Public Instruction thinks we are entitled to it, while the local officers do not so understand it. So the effort must continue.

The estimated corn crop is 500 bushels, which was raised by our young-man-farmer, who is now gathering and storing it into the cribs.

And now, dear sisters, we want you to know that our burdens have been greatly lightened by your sympathy as expressed by your liberal pledges given at the State Convention. When these pledges are realized, and we are free from debt, with running expenses provided for, a new ERA will be opened to this institution.

Mrs. Hannars will speak to you through the columns of the MESSAGE. Loyally, yours for Hadley.

LUCRETIA HOBART.

Dear Sisters.

I had hoped to meet you at the State Convention, and speak with you face to face, but was disappointed. I will do the next best thing, write to you. We now have twenty-two girls in our Home. We devote Friday afternoon to sewing. Dear sisters, I believe many of you would like to help in this good work, and let me suggest to you how you may help us. First, by following the example of the Peru Union, that sent us a barrel of canned fruit. Many thanks to them for their thoughtfulness. A bolt of dark gingham to make the girls work aprons, would be appreciated very much, also a bolt of toweling. Some times when I write to Unions, it is a long time before they have a meeting and a longer time before they have any money. Cast off clothing would be very acceptable. The girls are learning to make their own clothing, and take great interest in making over clothes. We are all very well at this writing, and have a great deal to be thankful for not having had to call a physician in the two years past, that I have been here. If you decide to send us anything, please include some quilt scraps for the little girls to learn to sew on. The reason that we ask for fruit is that we think it necessary to health. We put up all the fruit that we could afford to buy. We have a fine lot of fruit trees put out, and some that we hope will soon bear.

Our good and kind President has been out for several days getting some permanent work done in the laundry, and conveniences for winter. Your sincere worker,
CLORINDA J. HANNARS,
Superintendent.

My Dear Miss Hobart:

Our teacher wishes us to write a letter to some one. I am well. Thanksgiving will soon be here and I will be glad of it. I like to go to school and I like our teacher. I think she is very nice. But sometimes she makes me stay in if I am bad. I don't like it very well. I like the children and I think they are nice. We have twenty-two girls now. I like Mrs. Hannars and Aunt Nan and Mr. Burke. I think they are nice. I like to stay at the Home. I think it is a nice place for the little girls that have no home. They are kind to them here. I go to Sunday School every Sunday and to church, and I think it is nice. I hope I will grow up to be a good lady and help get good homes for little girls. I am studying reading, writing, arithmetic and music. We have cows, horses, pigs and chickens here.

Your loving friend,

JULIA BOLTON.

(10 years old, in Second Grade.)

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of Mrs. Mary Behymer, beloved sister and treasurer of the Indianapolis North-East Union who departed this life on November 19.

As it has pleased our dear Heavenly Father to call from our midst this beloved sister, we, as a Union, tender the bereaved family our love and sympathy in this hour of sorrow and bereavement.

In the death of this sister the Union has lost a noble, earnest worker—there is a vacant place in our Union and a vacancy no one can fill. Sister Behymer was a lovely woman, always presenting a Christian life and never tired in the work for the Master.

Our Union on earth is broken, but one more tie is added to the Union in Heaven where the little white bow is changed to the white robe. We will meet her there if we are true and pure in heart. Her last words were, “I am going home.”

TILLIE MORRIS,
Secretary.

OAK RIDGE W. C. T. U.

WHEREAS, It has pleased God in His all-wise providence, to place on our dear sister, Anna Johnson, the hand of affliction in the death of her son, Earnest Johnson.

WHEREAS, We realize for her and family those pleasant meetings and kindly greetings are over until the joyous reunion on the celestial shore.

Resolved, That in this mysterious dispensation of Divine Providence, we extend to her and family our heartfelt sympathy and bow in submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, also published in the Message and our local paper.

VOL. III. No. 1.

INDIANAPOLIS, JANUARY, 1899.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION, 35c. PER YEAR

"Woman's Cause Shall Win."—White Ribbon Hymnal, Page 101.
Tune—Auld Lang Syne.

The conflict deepens o'er the land;
'Tis one of woman's might,
And she is firmly moving on
To battle for the right;
Once more her voice rings clearly out,
To lift the race from sin,
And who can fail to plainly see,
That woman's cause shall win?
The clans of liquor ne'er have met
Such wondrous foe before;
And they are busy canvassing
The prospect o'er and o'er.
Yet, view the question as they may,
Thro' whisky, beer or gin,
They must confess the truth at last,
That woman's cause shall win.
Man boasts that he controls the world
With mighty hand and brain;
But woman's heart is mightier far—
'Tis heart at last shall reign.
The one is selfish at the best:
The other is akin
To heaven itself, and that is why
That woman's cause shall win.

WOMAN'S CAUSE SHALL WIN. WOMAN'S BALLOT WOULD ABOLISH THE ARMY CANTEEN.

May you all resolve to make this our greatest year in love and labor for God and Home and Humanity.

Arise, Christian women, and ask for the ballot to protect your homes. How many names have you secured to your suffrage petition? Distribute leaflets and other literature on Franchise, agitate, educate.

The Union Signal and the MESSAGE one year, for $1.10. To ministers, the Union Signal and the MES-
SAGE, for one year, 75 cents. The MESSAGE and the
New Crusade, for one year, for 70 cents, for all subscriptions sent to Mrs. A. T. Whitson before March 1st.

Ask influential men and women to write personal letters to the members of the General Assembly from your county, urging them to support our woman's cause.

The following committee was elected at the State Convention, to have charge of the Suffrage campaign:
Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, Chairman; Mrs. A. T. Whitson, Treasurer; and Mrs. Lizzie Hann was asked to serve as Secretary. Mrs. Whitson resigned on account of pressure of other duties. Mrs. Hattie Brand was chosen to serve in her place.

Send all Suffrage petitions to Mrs. Lizzie Hann, 2129 Collage avenue, Indianapolis.

Send all money for Suffrage work to Mrs. Hattie Brand, 1403 Ash street, Indianapolis.

Miss Marie Brehm, National Superintendent of Franchise, will speak in the Friends church, Indianapolis, on Sunday, January 15th, morning and evening. Miss Brehm has won many friends in this city, and she is an earnest, forceful speaker, who has the courage of her convictions. All White Ribboners and friends of temperance in the city and suburbs are invited to be present. Go early in order to secure a good seat.

If the MESSAGE does not reach you by the 10th of each month please notify the business manager at once. It is greatly desired that every subscriber should receive every copy. Many new clubs have been sent in. Many more are needed. A large number of former subscribers have renewed, for which we are very thankful. Every member should be a subscriber.
Push the work during this month, and if possible make your list equal your membership. Some Unions have voted to take 25 cents from the local membership dues and send for the MESSAGE, thus making every member a subscriber. Can the 25 cents advance local work any faster than by using it in some other way? Every woman should be up-to-date in our entire State work.
Without the State paper she cannot be informed upon State work. Do not fail to urge the Union Signal also.
Only $1.10 for both papers,

FROM OUR L. T. L. SECRETARY.

A Happy New Year to Indiana's faithful soldiers in the battle for right against the licensed liquor traffic.
God bless and keep you. "For hereunto were ye called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving an example, that ye should follow in his steps."

Through this medium I wish to thank all those kind friends who assisted in making it possible for me as L. T. L. delegate to attend the National Convention at St. Paul. I hope to be able to transmit throughout the state the inspiration and benefit received from intercourse and interchange of thought obtained at this wonderful gathering.

Later, I will send personal letters to all, giving plans of work for the year. Let us try for the honors of a delegate to the next National, which means dues into the national treasury. AMANDA R. GORDON, Argos, Ind.

L. T. L. AT STUARTSVILLE.

Whole number enrolled 51, seniors 12, juniors 39; whole number of regular meetings 28, whole number of attendance 711, average attendance 25 $\frac{3}{8}$ . Ten public meetings held at the church the first Sunday night of each month, consisting of literary program, always having a good attendance. Collections amounting to \$2 89. We had a picnic on the 4th of July, clearing several dollars. We treated the L. T. L. children to ice cream. At the regular meeting the children are divided into three classes and three young ladies assist as teachers.

Miss Marie C. Brehm, National Superintendent of Franchise, is again in Indiana. This gifted and talented woman needs no introduction in our state, as she has for three or four years past spent weeks and months with us. Unions have engaged her services over and over again. No higher compliment can be paid to a speaker. Miss Brehm remains with us during January and February; most of that time is already taken.
Any other unions desiring to engage her, please correspond with me at once for terms and dates. Unions will not regret securing her services. Indiana would be glad to claim her as her own, but Mother National has first claim. AMANDA T. WHITSON.
3335 North Meridian street, Indianapolis, Ind.

MONTHLY LETTER FROM OUR STATE OR- GANIZER, MRS. MATTIE O. COMMACK.

I came home from the southern part of the state the 17th of September and with the exception of the time spent at National and State Conventions and a week in Wabash county, the time has been spent in Grant county. The 28th of November I packed my grip and stepped over to Wabash and was met by Mrs.
Kidd, who drove with me six miles into the country in the face of a blinding snow storm, where we presented the cause of protection for the home by woman's ballot. The audience was small, but intelligent and thoughtful, and every brother who came up to shake hands said, "It is right the women should have the ballot." After the meeting we drove back to Wabash-to be ready for next day's work.

The morning of the 29th the members of the Wabash Union began to call about 8:30, and kept coming until eleven. Each one coming at the hour most convenient for her, and many little pleasant chats were had concerning the line of work that was nearest each woman's heart.

After an early dinner we started for our next appointment at Lincolnville. They were expecting us.
The large, successful Loyal Temperance Legion, that carried off two of our state banners, did the singing for us and it was well done. Lincolnville is ready for a union and Mrs. Kidd will organize shortly. It was a cold ten mile drive back to Wabash the next morning, but we reached the south side about noon and was warmly welcomed by Mrs. King, who gave us our dinner, which was very much appreciated. A mother's meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Malott. In the evening we again presented the subject of woman's enfranchisement, which was agreeably received. Perhaps speaking in a Friend's church where most men already believed in the ballot for women, made it easy for both speaker and audience. From Wabash we went on to North Manchester, where there is more than a score of valiant White Ribboners. They have divided themselves into two sections and the section that gains the most new members is to be banqueted by the other section. Some of our appointments near Manchester failed, but the time was put in, in Manchester. The minister of the Christian church allowed us the pulpit twice and our preaching did not seem to interfere with the revival services at all. We attended a Teacher's Institute on Saturday in Manchester and presented the cause of Scientific Temperance. On the whole Wabash county is making great strides.

They hope to double their membership this year.

Grant county is wide awake, as usual. One new Union and another one forming. Marion, Central and South Side both increasing in membership and good workers. They spelled against each other, and had quite an interesting time, and each added a mite to their treasuries. South Side won the victory. They are brag spellers.

Each Union is holding Mother's Meetings, with interesting programs, after which they serve refreshments, take a silver offering, and distribute literature.
It takes the full receipt to make a perfect Mother's Meeting. Upland and south Marion have each special opportunities. South Marion has the Normal College, with its 500 students, and Upland, Taylor University, with near 200. These young people must be brought into line. The temperance and prohibition sentiment is very good at Upland, and the young prohibition preachers and the W. C. T. U. are turning the ways of the wicked up side down.

The students of the Normal College have been giving some splendid temperance theatricals, which are greatly appreciated by the public.

Clubs for the MESSAGE are being made in all the Unions, and the paper is very much liked indeed. One President wrote and said, hurrah! hurrah! for the MESSAGE. Isn't it fine? Suffrage number excellent."

The County Executive met in November and added two weeks to the two that had been given previous to our field workers, and a part of the time was spent in attending Teacher's Institute, and placing the following plan before them: Each teacher in the townships will offer a premium for the best essay on Scientific Temperance in his school. Then the W. C. T. U. will form a class in each township with the winners from each school, and give a premium for the best essay on the same subject, and then the County Superintendent of Public Instruction takes the winner from each township and gives a third premium for the best essay on the same subject. Of course, new productions are to be prepared for each contest. Teachers and Superintendent are in sympathy with the plan.

We went over to Jalapa, the Indian reservation, spoke in the public schools, and lectured at night on Scientific Temperance, and the natives were somewhat surprised. Did not know there was so much in the temperance question, and warmly invited us back.

The Suffrage petition is being circulated in the county, and few refuse to sign it.

Mrs. Wilson, our most efficient President, is eager to increase the membership of the county to 500, and we think more than likely we will do it.

Of the good things this county is doing, there is no end. Go thou and do likewise. M. O. COMMACK.

Crown Point has 3000 inhabitants, fourteen saloons, and one W. C. T. U. with twenty-four members.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

ORGANIZATION.

I am pondering over the problem each day, all the spare time I have, planning and re-planning, looking over the largeness of the field, studying the hindrances and praying for the women to have a burden on this point, too. Such a heavy burden that they will write me at once and say how can we plan to reach this town or that town? Telling me what they can do and asking if I can supplement their efforts and so accomplish the desired end—organize a union. Dear sister, as you read these few lines I pray the subject of organization will come over you like a burning fever that you cannot escape from except you organize and write me your plans and wishes. MARY E. BALCH, Superintendent of the Department of Organization.

CONTEST PREMIUMS FOR 1899.

Beginning January 1st, 1899, and closing October 1st, 1899. The county that holds the most diamond contests, a flag that no one will be ashamed to carry on any gala day. The county may go outside of its own imaginary wall of boundary lines to make the classes if they have the enterprise to do so, but the county taking the premium for most diamond contests cannot also count itself entitled to the premiums for grand gold and small gold contests.

The county holding the greatest number of grand gold contests (and the number must exceed four) shall have a free diamond medal. If there should be a tie between two or more counties we will cast lots. The county holding the greatest number of small gold contests (and the number must exceed five) shall have a free grand gold medal; and if there is a tie between two or more counties we will cast lots.

Now, in justice to the young people and in justice to the system and the best interests of the cause, do let the medal workers reach out this year and not be satisfied with always holding silver contests. We should be ambitious for our young people to graduate in this department and receive their diploma. Read carefully the conditions and go to work. Counties in grand gold and small gold work need not go outside of their county lines; and in the diamond work, if Grant county should call on Marion county for a contestant to fill the class, and Marion county representatives brought the medal home, the credit would go to Marion county.

"In love preferring one another," must be the spirit and motto of our service.

MARY E. BALCH,
State Superintendent.

SYSTEMATIC AND PROPORTIONATE GIVING.

As I have just returned home from a trip to the northern part of the State, taken after the State Convention at LaFayette, I hasten to send a greeting to you at the beginning of this, another year's work. I would say to all of my local and county superintendents, Let us never weary in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap if we faint not. We are doing well when we are trying to extend God's plan of finance. Truly, it is the only plan that "works well." Can we not create a great enthusiasm in regard to our department work this year in all the counties in the State? I desire that all of you seek to gain the promise of every minister you meet that he will preach a sermon on this subject in his pulpit. Each of you can do this, and I believe if the ministers present the matter to their people great good will be accomplished for our Master, because when the people adopt this rule of giving, Christian work will not be so hindered on account of finances. By January, at least, I expect to have some new tracts on our work ready for you, which I trust will be very helpful. Now, please keep an exact account of literature distributed, meetings held, and sermons and addresses on the work, so you can give good reports. I wish all the county superintendents would require quarterly reports from the local superintendents. I believe by so doing our department work would show greater advancement, because the work would thus be kept well in hand all the year. Will be glad to hear from all of you telling me about your plans for work this year. S. M. SHELTON, State Superintendent.

HEALTH, HEREDITY, PHYSICAL CULTURE.

Our aim in this department is to educate the people in this scientific phase of our W. C. T. U. work. To this end I urge each superintendent to ask ministers to preach on some text from the Bible that pertains to the preservation of the body in order to do God's work. A good text is found in Romans 12:1. You will find ministers glad to do it. They will become interested, and may be induced through this means to become members. See that your ministers and teachers have literature on this subject. See that some one presents the subject to Teachers' Institutes.

Let every superintendent send me her name and address, that I may know who she is, in order to help her in this department. I will send programs and printed matter to anyone interested enough to urge her Union to hold at least one meeting this year in this department. Questions to be answered: 1. How many such meetings held? 2. How many sermons preached? 3. How many Teachers' Institutes addressed? 4. To how many W. C. T. U. county conventions presented some phase of this subject? I will send more plans through these columns later on. Subscribe for the MESSAGE and you will find them. CLARA AGNES BOYD.

Rockville, Ind.

NON-ALCOHOLIC MEDICATION.

I should like every county to appoint a Superintendent for the Department of non-Alcoholic Medication, and report the same to me as soon as she is appointed. This being a new department in our State it will require some little effort on the part of every one to get the work under headway in each locality. Let every Union hold at least one meeting during the year in the interest of non-Alcoholic Medication, read papers, distribute literature, etc. We must educate our own people. When the names and addresses of Superintendents are sent to me I will communicate with each one as to methods of work. I would be glad to have Corresponding Secretaries or County Presidents report any work done in counties where there are no Superintendents of this department.

Hoping to hear from every county in the State early in the year, I am truly yours,

LOUISA F. J. SMITH,
State Superintendent.
Wabash, Ind.

NARCOTICS.

The year we have entered so prayerfully, so hopefully and so zealously, is now well under way. Are we standing firm, or are we encouraged or discouraged, as circumstances seem favorable or unfavorable? Surely the fight we have entered is a good one, and is worth many prayers, many tears, and much work.

I hope this year that we can get our work more thoroughly organized. This we can do easily if each one does her part. Blanks for quarterly reports have been sent to all whose names have been reported to me. Let each County Superintendent get from the local Unions each quarter some form of report that she can use in reporting to me. If we carefully follow this plan our State report next year will be fuller and show more clearly what Indiana has done.

I have constitutions for anti-Cigarette Leagues, which could be used in public schools. Write me for them and let us have many new leagues before next May.

Public opinion is much in advance of that of three years ago before the new law was introduced. Let us not loose ground, but keep the good work moving by circulating literature. MRS. PAULINE PITTINGER.

INSTITUTES FOR 1899.

The very gratifying results reached in our Institute work the past year should encourage us to plan liberally for the work of 1899. The convenience and economy of the Schedule Plan, which has been re-endorsed by the State, make it possible for every county to hold an Institute at very moderate expense and have the service of one or more State or National workers in addition to the able—though sometimes latent—local talent, which should without fail be utilized or developed.

A program of topics will appear in the next issue of the MESSAGE, together with a schedule of dates, places, workers and other details necessary to the success of the work. While we wait for it, how many will assist in preparing it by writing to the Superintendent and proposing subjects to be discussed, or new and helpful methods of presentation or other features to be carried out? Everybody is invited to do so, and especially county presidents and other county or local superintendents of Institute work. Now, let there be a landslide of subjects and suggestions for the advancement of the work—so great that we may not be able to include on the program or even to formally acknowledge a tithe of them. They will nevertheless be very gratefully received and carefully considered, and will help on the noble cause we all so much desire to promote.

Hoping to hear from you, please address me at Bloomingdale, Box 63. Also write the Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. M. E. Balch, at once that you are preparing to hold your Institute according to the plan adopted by the State, that she may place you in the schedule of dates, etc. Address her at 711 East 11th street, Indianapolis. Yours in service,

MARY HADLEY,
Superintendent.

PLAN FOR PRIZE ESSAY CONTESTS IN THE SCIENTIFIC TEMPERANCE WORK.

Will you not please urge upon the attention of your Unions the necessity for and the benefit to be derived from prize essay contests on Scientific Temperance subjects?

Holidays are over. Fewer public and school entertainments are taken part in by the pupils than at any other season. The long stretch of unbroken work gives an excellent opportunity to work up these contests.

The plan is for each Union to offer a prize, perhaps a first and second, for the best essay upon an assigned subject, having them read in public or submitted to private judges. Where it is possible to have a public reading of the essays, more than the expenses can usually be made by charging a small admittance fee. Then let the county offer a prize and the different Unions send their prize winners to contest in this, also. A most excellent entertainment can be arranged by interspersing music or adding a few good declamations if the class is small.

The following is offered as a suggestive outline for an essay, which, together with the rules, can be changed to suit the Union or Superintendent having the work in charge. Ask your teacher to make them known in the schools and have them printed in your local papers:

Subject—"The Evil Effects of Alcohol and Narcotics."

1. Their nature.
2. Their manufacture and sale.
3. (a) Their effects on the human body.
(b) Their effects on the human mind.
(c) Their effects on the moral character.
4. Their effects on the home and society.
5. The cost of caring for its victims.

Rules for Prize Essay Contests—Writers must not be under 12 or over 17 years of age, and must observe the following:

1. Write on but one side of the paper.
2. Essay must not contain over 500 words.
3. Enclose a certificate from your teacher that the work is your own.
4. Pay your own postage.
5. Cut out and save these rules if you wish to take part in the contest.
6. Contest closes April 1. All essays must be in by this time.
7. Prizes will be awarded May 1.

ADAH W. WHITE,
State Superintendent.

A county president writes: It looks like we are commanding respect when the Y. P. S. C. E. sends a committee to us to ask what they can do to aid us; when the Epworth League asks us to lead the temperance quarterly meeting; when the president of the missionary society asks us to prepare and present a temperance program; when the Methodist ladies of a neighboring town ask us to come over and talk on temperance or the woman question for the benefit of their church. All this has happened within one week.

FROM THE PRESIDENT, MISS HOBART.

I send you greetings from your own little ones in the Hadley Industrial School. Twenty-two bright faces with loving hearts, gave me hearty welcome to the Home Saturday evening, the 17th inst.

These children will not know until Christmas eve all that my visit meant to them, for two noble Christian women of Indianapolis sent a bushel basket as full as it could be packed, to the Union Station, for me to safely conduct to the Home, that on Xmas eve the children may realize that the Christian spirit still lives on the earth.

Before the MESSAGE reaches you, these children will be in possession of their gifts. The basket contained thirty dolls, thirty handkerchiefs, three bolts of hair ribbon, picture cards, and candy enough for all.

Miss Margaret Day's Sunday School class of First Baptist Church, of Indianapolis, will send the Youth's Companion for one year to our girls. The girls of said class, each dressed one doll and gave it her own name. The girl receiving this doll will write an acknowledgment of its receipt, and extend thanks for the same. The teacher and young farmer will present each girl with a new gingham apron, that there may be a sort of uniform appearance in the school.

Mrs. Frances Potter carried to the Union Station two large pictures, which were given by our late Josephine R. Nichols, and have just now reached their destination.

The morning devotional meeting, led by Mrs. Hannars, is quite interesting. The girls, teacher, and farmer each get some thought or passage from the Bible-reading, and repeat it at the close of the reading. They have learned many passages, and are storing their minds with precious truths.

The Christmas tree festivities will occur on Saturday evening, and on Monday the day school will recite pieces and sing Christmas songs.

The officers here are striving to impress the girls with the high ideas of usefulness, and purity of word, thought and deed. No coarse jokes or slang phrases are heard here. Each month we hope to introduce to you some one of our girls. The one whose picture we present to you is Amanda Knowlton, from Rockport. She is a sweet singer, and is taking music lessons on the piano, and is doing fair work in the sixth grade in day school, also takes part in domestic duties. Her father is dead, her mother too poor to care for her. Miss Lola Partridge, a noble woman, herself a cripple from rheumatism, her hands drawn out of shape, she walking only by the use of crutches, but her stout heart prompted her to undertake the rescue of this bright little singer. She must have written very many letters, and finally succeeded in placing her in our Home.

Dear sisters, we must make this school a power for good. Is not this a greater cause than rearing temples of brick and stone? We are here rearing temples for the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. L. H.

[We regret the non-appearance of the picture of Amanda Knowlton in this issue of the MESSAGE.—Ed.]

A LETTER FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT.

We are glad for the opportunity of speaking to you again through the MESSAGE. Since my last letter another little girl has been admitted to our home, Bertha Swartzell, from Terre Haute, aged eight years. We had a very pleasant thanksgiving. Our teacher, Miss Angell, had a nice and interesting program prepared. Many of the friends and neighbors were invited in to enjoy the exercises. A few days before Thanksgiving, we received a box from South Bend, from the Chapin Park Union (Mrs. Fassnacht, President.) It contained ready made clothing, which fit our girls nicely, also candies, hoods, handkerchiefs, pictures, hair ribbons and nice story books, which the children greatly enjoyed. We extend our sincere thanks to the dear sisters who contributed all the nice and useful articles which gave our children so much enjoyment. We know they will be rewarded. "For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love which ye have showed toward His name." Heb. 6-10. Our children are all very well at this writing. We are anticipating a merry Christmas. Presents have already begin to come in for the children from parents, unions and friends. We are truly grateful that so many good people are interested in our dear children. This rainy and sleety morning we rejoice that they do not have to go out in the mud to school.

We recently visited our beloved President of the Amo Union, Mrs. Kate Mendenhall, who is quite ill at this time. She has been confined to her bed for about three weeks. She is our resident trustee and has been a very earnest christian worker for temperance. She has done much in contest work. At her last contest held a few weeks since, she was only able to direct the work, but it was pronounced a success. She has been a valuable instrument in the hands of God for the promotion of righteousness, and the advancement of His kingdom. Our prayers are that God may restore her again if it be His will. She has been a faithful friend to our Home, always interested in our dear children. Yours in loving service,

CLARENCE J. HANNARS.

Amanda J. Knowlton, the subject of this sketch, was born July 6, 1885, in Spencer county, Ind., near Rockport. Her father died when she was 5 years old, leaving his family helpless and dependent. She is now in her 14th year, and is a bright and promising child. Mr. J. H. Parker, County Treasurer of Spencer county, noticed her intelligence and winning ways, and became interested in her as an orphan. Endorsed by the Rockport W. C. T. U., he sent her to the Hadley Industrial School. She was thus literally rescued from the streets a homeless waif, and her future established. She is studious in school, very industrious, and much is hoped for her as she advances toward womanhood.

A LETTER FROM A GOOD GIRL.

Dear Mrs. Wardner:

I thought perhaps that you would like to know how the girls and the Home are getting along. All the girls are well, and we are still going to school. We have got the piano in the school room. Our teacher, Miss Angell, gives us music lessons. She is very nice to us.

We are having a force pump put in the laundry, and I think that it will be nice.

Christmas will soon be here, and we are going to have a Christmas tree and Christmas exercises. I hope that you can come and hear us recite our pieces.

Miss Hobart is here now, and we like to have her come. She is going home this morning, and we will probably not see her again this winter.

We have twenty-two girls. They are all very nice. Three have come since you were here last. Amelia went away the fourth of December. She was a good girl and we were sorry to see her go. She is very sick now, and was before she went away. If she had stayed here dear aunt Nan would have had her well by this time.

Our nice windmill broke about two or three weeks ago, during a hard wind storm. The wheel and the fan blew to pieces.

I think that we received a lovely box of things from the Chapin Park Union, at South Bend, for Thanksgiving. It was so kind for them to remember us. There were clothes, fruit, and a great many more nice things that were very useful to us. We had a very nice time Thanksgiving. In the morning Miss Angell and her sister and Mrs. Hannars and Mr. Burke went to church. We had scripture verses to say at the dinner table, and after dinner we had exercises, and some of our neighbors came to hear us recite them. We had a very nice program. After the exercises were over we had some nice candy that one of the South Bend Unions sent us. I think I will close now with love, and wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, I remain your little friend,

AMANDA KNOWLTON.

AN ENCOURAGING LETTER FROM THE TREASURER OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

Of course you saw in the last MESSAGE the notice of my election as Treasurer of the Hadley Industrial School Board. I certainly feel that this is a great honor conferred upon me. I appreciate the confidence the women of the state have in me to do the work in this capacity. I do feel my weakness and inability, but knowing that I have so many good loyal workers all over the state that will help in every way to make the Home a success, I feel then I am strong to do all that is for me to do. Many have been prompt in paying the amount pledged at Lafayette State Convention. Our dear State Treasurer was the first to send in pledge of $5.00.

FIELD NOTES.

—Mrs. Haymond, Francesville, has an L. T. L. of thirty-two members, and Britty Grant has a Y of twenty-seven members. If every Union in the State could make as good a showing as that, according to last year's minutes, we would have nearly six thousand L. T. L's., and nearly five thousand Y's. I mean by this, why will not each and every Union work for an L. T. L. and Y branch? M. E. B.

—Bath Union has gained five new members.

—Mt. Vernon held a "Due T." December 30th. Collecting dues was one feature of the T.

—The Misses Vincent and Cummins, of Australia, sailed for England December 21st, and Indiana Unions missed another opportunity.

—Greensburg Union has four sections of twenty members each, which entitles the sections each to have a delegate to the next State convention; and they are planning even now to make the money to pay the delegates expenses, and any woman who goes will be qualified, for each section will take a copy of the MESSAGE for each member. Is there a Union in the State with better forethought?

—Carroll county officers: President, Mrs. Clara Dunkin; Corresponding and Recording Secretary, Mrs. Clara Callane, both of Flora; Treasurer, Mrs. R. L. Higginbotham, Delphi.

—Camden and Rockfield have a new Union.

—Muncie calls Mrs. Teats back for ten day's service in one of the churches, beginning the first week in January. How strange some churches fear to open their doors at all, others can give a week. Martinville would like Mrs. Teats again if there was time.

—Marion county has a new Y, to be known as the northeast Y. President, Miss Minta Mountjoy, 1614 Martindale avenue; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Rose Reddick; Treasurer, Miss Fannie Farmer. Six regular and five honorary members.

—Vigo county has two new Unions, the work of Miss Mary Hadley, our Vice President and organizer. Union first organized and not yet named. President, Mrs. Carrie Jones, Terre Haute; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Ida Loveall, 106 south 4th street, Terre Haute; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Alice E. Blocksom, Prairieton; Treasurer, Mrs. Teshie K. Ward, 104 south 4th street, Terre Haute. Nine regular and one honorary member.

—Collett Park Union of nineteen regular and eight honorary members. President, Mrs. O. McDaniel, 2121 north 7th street, Terre Haute; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Hester Kuhn, 1900 north 13th street; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Mattie Holliger, 1927 north 7th street; Treasurer, Mrs. Sarah J. King, 1909 north 7th street. All of Terre Haute.

—Clinton and Vigo are entitled to a week's work by an organizer, sent by the State, as they each have two Unions organized, if the Treasurer will see that their dues are paid into the State Treasury.

—The Richmond W. C. T. U. had a lecture from Prof. Hodgins in their hall, Saturday, December 17th, on Scientific Temperance Instruction, giving a history of the movement as carried on by the organization. Mr. Hodgins was listened too with marked attention.

—Wayne County Executive Committee met in Rhoda Temple, Richmond, and selected the following Superintendents: Peace and Arbitration, Mrs. C. C. Hodgins; Scientific Instruction, Mrs. C. C. Hodgins; Sunday School Work, Mrs. Ellen Davis; Mercy, Mrs. Ellen Buell; Social Purity and Rescue Work, Mrs. Libbie Chandler; Mother's Meetings and Prison Work, Eliza Morris; Railroad Work, Rena Randle; Loyal Legion, Mrs. Anna Doughty; Fair Work, Mrs. Maria Butler; Press, Mrs. Lettie Smith; Temperance Literature, Rachel Hodgins; Systematic Giving, Mrs. Mary Nichols, Economy; Flower Mission, Mrs. Mayhew, Economy; Sabbath Observance, Hannah W. Stanley, Economy; Franchise, Mrs. Mary Toms, Olive Hill. A committee of eight was chosen on County Organization.

—Martinsville Union has decided to make every member a subscriber to the MESSAGE. Their L. T. L. now numbers 165 enrolled members.

—Mrs. Hattie Steckel, Mulberry, is working on a club for the MESSAGE.

—The following resolution was adopted unanimously:

"Resolved, That we, the W. C. T. U. of Wayne county, Ind., do most earnestly protest against the admission as a member to the next congress of Brigham H. Roberts, of Utah, whom we believe to be a national law breaker and does not observe the laws of his own State, in that he has a plurality of wives. We earnestly request all our unions, the churches, and all law abiding citizens to unite in asking the congressmen of Indiana to vote against the admission of Brigham H. Roberts to the congress of our Republic."

It was stated that two hundred thousand women of the Presbyterian church have already protested against congressman Roberts, of Utah, being admitted as a member of congress.

—Mrs. Belle Flowers, of Shelbyville, who visited our State and National conventions as a delegate, spoke twice at Francesville, at Westville, Otis and Burdick on her way home, holding a parlor meeting in Valparaiso. She speaks of her audience at Burdick as being composed of her former pupils of thirty years ago. She has a campaign planned for Shelby county and we trust no one will hinder, but every one lend a helping hand.

—To my white ribbon co-laborers—happy New Year greeting. More and more the thought comes to me—oh, the sin of licensed rum! The sin of legalized saloons? Whose sin? This is the point upon which to focus our prayers, our efforts and our ballots. Any prayer short of this will fall to the ground; any effort will be for naught; any ballot will rise up in judgment against the voter. How can the President of these United States send his message out to the people and forget to mention the sin of licensed rum?

Dear sisters, dwell on this point, whose sin? in your prayers, in your thoughts, daily, hourly. And be sure you can answer, not my sin—by consent or assent, not by silence or cowardice. Praise God. Not my sin.

Mrs. Teats in Indiana is winning friends and golden words of praise for her services. Some points are wishing her back a second time very much, but it is too late now. Unions were so slow in the beginning that Mrs. Teats felt she must be assured of no idle time and has gone to the state of Pennsylvania in time for beginning work there and that puts a limit to her stay here. Mrs. Teats spends a week in the revival work in one of the churches in Muncie, beginning December 30th, from there goes to North Manchester for three days, Nappanee a week, to Churubusco and out of the state. She has already added eighty to our membership roll.

CRAWFORD COUNTY.

The Marengo Union has made a new start, elected a new set of officers and is getting down to work in earnest. They have held two Silver Medal Contests since October. Mrs. Flavia Goldman is the new President. Mrs. Etta Davis, Marengo, is County Superintendent of Fair Work. I know one of your beautiful letters would encourage and help them wonderfully.

Mrs. Katie Riddle is President of the Alton Union. Her little baby daughter, Katie Lee, was taken from her arms to the arms of the loving Father, on Saturday last. The little darling died of scarlet fever. She has the Comforter.

All our schools are closed and the Board of Health will not allow public meetings of any kind until after the holidays.

Our County Superintendent of Franchise is Mrs. Rosa Brooks, Alton. We have not many County Superintendents yet, but will send in names as we appoint them. We want to organize at English soon. The members of Marengo Union are anxious, and will help us all they can. Pray for Crawford County, and for us all. May we do and be just what our Lord wants us to do and be.

CORA J. PARR.

Henry County W. C. T. U. met in convention Sept. 20, in Friends' Church, New Castle. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Dr. Lizzie E. Holloway, Spiceland; Vice-President, Emma Hedges, New Castle; Corresponding and Recording Secretary, Mary M. Hosier, Greensboro; Treasurer, Mattie E. Charles, Spiceland. Attendance not large, but interesting and profitable. A good program was carried out. Ella Davis, of Richmond, State Superintendent of Evangelistic Work, was with us. Her presence and help were appreciated.

The Henry County W. C. T. U. Executive Committee met at Clear Spring Friends' Church, Dec. 2, 1898. Superintendents were appointed for seventeen departments of work. A very good degree of interest was manifested. We started out with the new year with increased energy, and join in the sentiment that this shall be our best year's work. MARY M. HOSIER.

Francisville Y has 27 members. Mrs. Grant is President. Weekly meetings are held.

OBITUARY.

WHEREAS, By the permissive providence of God, our beloved ex-Secretary, Mrs. Elmina Lace and family, have been bereft of a lovely daughter just budding into maidenhood; taken by angel companions to bloom in the clime of Heaven, where no adversity chills the development of life and joy. Sharing with the family in this thought, we offer our heartfelt sympathy and prayer as condolence.

The material for the MESSAGE is already in the hands of the printer, but I must slip this in to tell you that your earnest efforts during the past quarter has not been without its reward, as we can report a gain of 121 members over the corresponding quarter last year. It is the largest membership report for a similar quarter for years.

MARY WOOD-ALLEN, M. D., Editor.

Invaluable for the use of Mothers' Meetings, Child Culture Circles, Mothers' Clubs, etc.

The best magazine for parent and teacher, dealing with the mental, moral and physical nature of the child. A most complete course of study now running. Sample copy 10 cents.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 23rd, 1898.

Dear Dr. Wood-Allen—Please find enclosed one dollar subscription for the New Crusade. I read the New Crusade every month with the greatest interest. I am the mother of six children, all under ten years of age, and I am spending my life to teach them how to live. I want them to glorify God in the use of all the gifts that he has trusted them with. I find much that helps me in your paper. I realize that the training of a child embraces so much. The home influence, the food, the dress, the sleeping room, the reading, the playing, etc. There is no end to it. I go on in close touch with the Good Shepherd, expecting to receive my reward in the holy and noble lives of my children by and by. You are engaged in a grand work. Clean hearts, clean hands, and clean lives for our children. I have learned much, I have still to learn. I tell others of the New Crusade, especially young mothers. Long before I was a mother I devoured all the literature I could lay my hands on that would help to fit me for this great work, even before a serious thought of marriage entered my mind. I have been studying the subject for years, yet I am always learning more. I do not see how those mothers manage who have never looked into it at all. I have to be on the "look-out" all the time; danger is everywhere. With prayer for your success, Yours sincerely,

Mrs. W. A. McI.

To all who send 70 cents to this office before March 1, 1899, we will send the MESSAGE and the New Crusade one year.

VOL. III. No. 2.

INDIANAPOLIS, FEBRUARY, 1899.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION, 35c. PER YEAR

SENATOR ORRIN Z. HUBBELL.

Senator Orrin Z. Hubbell who so kindly and generously espoused the woman's cause in asking the ballot at the hands of the Legislature of Indiana in 1899, prepared the resolutions for both Senate and House and offered to introduce it in to the Senate, which he did, and has rendered much valuable legal help without price or pay. Senator Hubbell is the descendant of the sturdy Danes. The history of his ancestors is remarkable and well worth your perusal, but I have space only for a few most important things concerning himself. He was graduated in the high school of Butler, Ind., in 1873, and at 14 began a regular classical course and graduated from Indiana University in 1877, all this time depending upon his own resources, always choosing elevating and choice reading and associations. He began the study of law and editing a newspaper at the same time. He turned aside for a while to engage as the Superintendent of the Monroeville public schools. In 1882 he located in Elkhart and graduated from the law department of Notre Dame. He continues in the practice of his profession in Elkhart and has built up a valuable clientage. His legal ability is not excelled by any lawyer of his age in the state. Having a genius for politics he is not allowed to remain in private life. In November of 1888 he was first elected State Senator by the Republican party. He was selected as a member of the judiciary committee at both sessions of the legislature of which he was a member, because of his sagacity and dispatch in that line. He deserves the approval of all impartial men and women and should secure the unstinted encomiums of the public press.

Senator Hubbell has a wife and two lovely children, a girl and a boy, and as fine a residence home as the city of Elkhart affords. Mrs. Hubbell and family are members in the Protestant Episcopal Church.

LEGISLATURE NOTES.

Article Sixteen, Section Two, of the Indiana State Constitution, reads: "If two or more amendments shall be submitted at the same time, they shall be submitted in such manner that the electors shall vote for or against each of such amendments separately; and while such an amendment or amendments which shall have been agreed upon by one General Assembly shall be waiting the action of the succeeding General Assembly, or of the electors, no additional amendment shall be proposed. The General Assembly of 1897 agreed upon two amendments to the constitution, which await the attention of the present General Assembly. Under the section quoted above to propose another amendment is not considered legal. On January 13, 1899, Senator O. Z. Hubbell, of Elkhart, introduced in the Senate a joint resolution to amend Article Two, Section Two of the State Constitution, so as to allow women to vote on equal terms with men. The same resolution was introduced in the House, at the same hour by Representative Quincy A. Blankenship, of Martinsville, Morgan County. The Senate Resolution was referred to the Senate Committee on Revision of the Constitution, and subsequently referred to the next General Assembly for consideration. The House Resolution was referred to the Judiciary Committee, and at the present writing has not been considered by the House. While there is considerable sentiment in the House in favor of the resolution it may be ruled out, owing to the two amendments that are pending. It was thought wise to introduce the resolution asking for equal suffrage during this session of the Legislature so as to bring the attention of the people to the question, and if possible to secure the right of way for this important amendment before the next General Assembly. The interest and advance of the cause has been so great in both House and Senate as to alarm the Anti-Suffragists of Boston, Mass., who, fearing that the General Assembly might grant the women of Indiana the right to vote at once, sent every member a remonstrance. No surer signs of strength of our cause have come to us than this one of active opposition. Both Committees invited our National Superintendent of Franchise, Miss Brehm, to speak before them on behalf of the resolution, and she had a respectful hearing before each committee.

A JOINT RESOLUTION TO AMEND SECTION TWO OF ARTICLE TWO OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

SECTION 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the following proposed amendment to the Constitution of said State be and the same is now agreed to and referred to the General Assembly of said State to be chosen at the next general election:

Amend Section 2 of Article 2 of said Constitution to read as follows:

SEC. 2 In all elections not otherwise provided for by this Constitution every citizen of the United States, without distinction of sex, of the age of twenty-one years and upward, who shall have resided in the State during the six months, and in the township sixty days, and in the ward or precinct thirty days, immediately preceding such election and every person of foreign birth, without distinction of sex, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who shall have resided in the United States one year, and shall have resided in this State during the six months, and in the township sixty days, and in the ward or precinct thirty days, immediately preceding such election, and shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, conformably to the laws of the United States on the subject of naturalization shall be entitled to vote in the township or precinct where he may reside if he shall have been duly registered according to law.

Mr. President—Your committee on the Revision of the Constitution, to which was referred Senate Joint Resolution Number 2, being an amendment to the Constitution, introduced by Senator Hubbell, has had the same under consideration, and begs leave to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation, that, inasmuch as there are now pending two amendments to the Constitution, and that Section two of Article sixteen of said Constitution provides that no amendment shall be proposed while others are pending, that they believe that the principle involved in this resolution is such that the people of the State should have the opportunity of voting on the same; that this session of the General Assembly cannot constitutionally act upon said resolution; that in order to show the attitude of the Senate on the subject-matter of said joint resolution, this resolution be commended to the Sixty-Second General Assembly for its favorable consideration.

Joss,
Chairman.

Many thanks are due from the membership of Indiana W. C. T. U. to Senator O. Z. Hubbell, of Elkhart, because he kindly offered to prepare the joint bills for both Senate and House, and introduced the Senate bill and received no pay whatever. Representative Blankenship introduced our bill in the House and championed it in his own forceful, energetic manner. I would think it a fine tribute to their generosity if the White Ribbon women of Indiana kept their desks in flowers during this term of the Legislature.

When Senator Hubbell called attention to the petitions that were on the desks of the Senators the men all rushed to their feet holding out their petitions towards the Lieut. Governor, who didn't seem to understand what they were. He cried out, what does this mean? I must take some account of this. Some members said one thing and some another, but Senator Chas. P. Drummond, of Plymouth, shouted "The women of my county want to vote." Only a few days before he had taken sides against women's rights generally.

January 26. The Senate passed a resolution recommending the amendment to the constitution of Indiana, giving the women the right to vote on equal terms with men.

HON. QUINCY A. BLANKENSHIP.

Hon. Q. A. Blankenship was born on a farm in Morgan county, November 15, 1851. He is a man of remarkable intellectual power, and possesses a college education. He is a son of Rev. Perry Blankenship, a pillar of strength in the Christian church, and a veteran in the civil war. His mother was a woman of great strength of character and to his parents no doubt he owes his high ideals of christian citizenship. Mr. Blankenship has always been a firm believer in the principles of the Republican party, is broad in his sympathies, with a warm loving heart, and an enthusiastic devotion to all that is good, true and noble. He is a consistent member of the Christian church. He is now serving his second term in the Legislature. In his domestic life Mr. Blankenship has no superiors. He was married some sixteen years ago to Miss Fannie Miller, of Martinsville, who has proven to be a gentle, sweet spirited wife, whose devotion and encouragement have urged her husband on toward the highest goal. Mrs. Blankenship is Secretary of the Morgan County W. C. T. U. She is an earnest White Ribboner. Their daughter Gale, is blooming into womanhood, the idol of her father.

Mr. Blankenship is a resident of Martinsville, a member of the bar, and appreciated by all who know him.

The desks of Hon. Q. A. Blankenship and Senator O. Z. Hubbell are being kept bountifully supplied with flowers by the Unions of Morgan and Elkhart Counties in appreciation of the brave championship of human rights by these able legislators, who are dealing deadly blows to that monster prejudice, which is fast receding before the greater civilization of the twentieth century. Also Speaker Littleton and Lieut. Governor Haggard were recipients of compliments and flowers from our White Ribboners.

LICENSE CIGARETTE LAW.

Senator Gochenour, representing Fulton and Wabash counties, introduced a license cigarette bill which provides that license not to exceed $25.00 shall be charged retail dealers, and that a license not to exceed $50.00 shall be charged wholesale dealers. The ex-State Senator who was here during the last Legislature in the interest of the American Tobacco Trust, I am informed is here now. We are told that for his services against the W. C. T. U. prohibitory cigarette bill during the last Legislature he received $1,500, and was boarded at a first class hotel. Notwithstanding that, and the use of much money, the petitions and letters sent to members of the General Assembly by the W. C. T. U. and others, he could not defeat our bill entirely. It suffered much, however, was three times printed wrong, and the very last was copied wrong for Governor Mount's signature. We found out the mistake and through the efforts of Senators Gill and Goar the services of the Attorney General was secured, and he compelled a correct copy to be made from the Senate Record and to be presented to the Governor for signature. A license law is what the monopoly wants. Shall it have it, or will our good citizens demand that such a measure shall not be passed? Letters and petitions from voters avail much. Immediate action is necessary.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

Two of our National Superintendents have said that Indiana had the best superintendents of their departments in the nation. Others have said that the Indiana Superintendents sent in the most definite reports. Hurrah for Indiana!! When our local and county superintendents report QUARTERLY to the State Superintendents then our State Superintendents will show the National that greater work is being done in Indiana than has ever been reported, for the half has never been told.

MRS. M. A. TOMPKINS.

THE STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF FRANCHISE.

Who is at present in Indianapolis watching after and working to further the interests of the "Joint Resolution" to amend the Constitution of the State of Indiana granting women the right to vote, is a graduate of Coldwater, Mich., High School. She also took a classical course in Hillsdale College, was afterwards a High School teacher in Coldwater, and other places for several terms. Took up the millinery business twenty-five years since as a means of support and past time, and in which she is at present successfully engaged. Ever since leaving college she has continued to study, taking a six years course in the Chautauqua Literary Circle for which she holds a diploma and several seals. The theological course of nine years has been completed and a diploma is held by your superintendent for the same. She is an ordained minister of the Christian Church and a worker. Within the past two months the Eel River Christian Conference has purchased a neat little brick chapel on River Side, Elkhart, city. Meetings have resulted in organizing a Christian Church there, all through the earnest work of the same woman that now asks your co-operation in making the franchise department a success through the State.

A GREAT STEP FORWARD.

The Newton County W. C. T. U. Convention Nov. 9, 1898, seconded by the Goodland Union, voted to invite the State Board of Superintendents, Associates, Secretaries of the Branches, Musical Director and Organizers to hold a conference, a two days' session in Goodland in June, 1899 (or May, if preferred) upon the same terms that the State Convention and Executive Committee are always offered, i. e., a place in which to hold the meeting, entertainment and collection both evenings.

MRS. E. D. HARDY,
Goodland.

It has been decided best to present this invitation through the MESSAGE, but to leave further plans until the mid-year executive meeting, which I hope will be well attended by the superintendents. A vote will be taken, and if we decide to hold this conference in June all arrangements as to program, etc., will be made there. Let us try to make this year the greatest success ever known in the annals of our department work.

GEORGIANA MOSER,
Secretary State Board of Superintendents.

MISS MARIE C. BREHM, National Superintendent of Franchise.

Miss Brehm possesses rare executive ability and is an earnest, forceful speaker. Perhaps what most impresses the listener in her addresses is her honesty, her fearlessness, her fair-mindedness, while those who know her well in private life will bear cheerful testimony to her truthfulness, to her tender heart, and withal, to a sweet and gracious womanhood.

PRESS WORKER.

A plan has been suggested to me for helping the work of our department, which I heartily endorse, and if it is faithfully carried out by all the press superintendents in the state, we shall be able to present an object lesson which will illustrate, in a measure, the wonderful possibilities of this department.

The plan is this: Each local superintendent to clip from the newspapers all material published that they write or are instrumental in having written; paste this upon a piece of paper in the form of a column, and at the end of each quarter, December 15, March 15, June 15 and September 15, each local superintendent to send her clippings thus pasted in column form to the County Superintendent, who will paste all together in column form and measure by the feet, then send the full amount from her county to the State Superintendent, who in turn will paste all together and measure.

At the mid-year executive meeting, the amount received by me up to that time will be displayed, and the full amount for the year will be exhibited at the State Convention.

An idea in connection with this is to paste each clipping even to the left margin of a sheet of legal cap paper, and write the name of the paper from which it was taken and the date of issue to the right of column.

Dear sisters, continue to write the suffrage articles. Many of you have done nobly in this line, but "be not weary in well doing"—spread the sentiment far and wide. Also tell the women and tell everybody to be awake, for a new danger confronts us. An effort is being made to fasten a license cigarette law upon Indiana. The bill has already been introduced and unless the most determined efforts are put forth against it, it will pass. Do your best in every way to create sentiment against it. It must not pass.

Our National Superintendent, Mrs. Horning, calls attention to the fact that the Red Letter days are good occasions to send articles to the press and bring before the public special lines of work, and expresses the opinion that if we, as press superintendents, give early attention to these days, we will not only instruct the public, but we may be the means of causing the day to be more generally observed by the Unions.

The first of these now before us is our new Memorial day, February 17, the heavenly birthday of our dear Miss Willard. Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens' birthday, March 1, has been added to the list. It is suggested that as much as possible concerning the life and plans of our new leader be brought out through the press. We want the people to know her thoroughly and well, as we know her, that they may appreciate her.

FLORENCE E. VANCE,
State Sup't Press Dept.

908 E. Walnut street, Frankfort.

OUR FAIR DEPARTMENT

Is a large department, and should be properly worked this year. In all the counties where fairs are held, or G. A. R. meetings, or Fourth of July celebrations, or any large public gathering, let the county superintendent and assistants have a medal contest, and a gospel meeting. Try to get a place at Chataqua assemblies and other gatherings wherever you can, to present to the W. C. T. U. work. Scatter our literature everywhere. It will do good and not be wasted. A banner will be presented at the next National convention to the State securing the largest number of active and honorary members by the superintendents of the Fair department. You have a rare opportunity to secure a large number of honorary members, as so many men attend these holiday gatherings. Be ye wise as serpents and harmless as doves. The National has pledge cards arranged for this department with blank spaces for name, date, town, county, and State; also for membership fee. Dear sisters, let us strive for the Banner for our department. Fairs are places where a great deal of work can be done at small cost. Any one wanting more information in their work, send for Leaflet 202 to Mrs. H. T. Guild, National Superintendent, 902 West Broadway, Sedalia, Mo. Pledge cards 25 cents per 100. They are beautiful. The earth is the Lord, and the fullness thereof. Psalm 24:1 and Isaiah 41:10.

M. A. L. COLTON,
Superintendent.

Y. W. C. T. U.

Perhaps you do not all know that Indiana Ys received a Banner at the National Convention at St. Paul for having made the greatest gain in membership of any State in the United States. Now the question confronting us is, shall we keep it? How, by doubling our membership. Let us put our mark up to 1,000 by next fall. Begin right away; get your member and the money, then they will count. March 1st Y send out the blank for the second quarter report. Just think, half the year will have passed, and have you been faithful in petition work? Have you sent letters to your representatives, etc.? About sixty-three Ys paid dues the first quarter from Martinsville, Idaville, Carmel, LaPorte, Shelbyville, Francesville, New Albany, Goshen and Anderson; only nine out of the twenty-two responded. Let all the rest, with those who have sent, help to swell the number in March; make it at least 100 paid. Keep our Banner from trailing in the dust; lift it high.

In December the Anderson Y engaged Mrs. Ellen K. Denny for two days work. Saturday afternoon addressed a parlor meeting at Mrs. W. W. Leibe's home. Saturday evening the colored W. C. T. U. Sabbath morning the Baptist Church conducted a service in the jail at the Y. M. C. A. and preached at Madison Avenue M. E. Church. We were blessed in having Mrs. Denny with us. People were generally awakened to their duty. Six joined our Y in two weeks; thus the good work goes on. Preparations are in progress for the week. Miss Brehm will be in Anderson beginning the 5th of February. Anderson Y has sustained a loss in removal from our city to Indianapolis of Mr. George Treher and sister, Miss Mollie, to No. 2155 North Illinois street, but are glad to say our loss will be the gain of one of the Y Unions in Indianapolis. Let us be prayerful and faithful is the wish of your co-worker and friend.

CLARA M. SEARS,
106 W. 14th Street, Anderson, Ind. State Y Secretary.

L. T. L.

Let our motto this year be: "On to the front!" Indiana is grouped in the front ranks, but not at the front. Let us not be satisfied with fourth or fifth place, but make our standard that of the highest possible to attain. There are several things we must do to occupy advanced ground. If possible I wish that each county secretary would arrange to hold two conferences this year, one in the spring in connection with the Institute work, and in September at the county convention. Call together all your local secretaries and any who may be interested. Study methods, and give interchange of thought and experience. I believe these will be very helpful. If desired, I will attend these conferences, giving all the assistance possible.

MRS. AMANDA R. GORDON,
State Secretary.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

The mid-year meeting of the State Executive Committee will be held at Wabash March 29th and 30th.

The members of the committee are the General Officers, County Presidents and Branch Secretaries, all of whom are expected to be present.

MARY E. BALCH, LUELLA F. McWHIRTER,
Secretary. President W. C. T. U. of Indiana.

MRS. WHITSON SAYS.

I hope every Treasurer, County or Local, who receives this paper, and every one should be a subscriber at once if she is not, for you cannot afford to be without it, will compare her own report this quarter with that of the December report last year and note your gain. Please also note how many dues were sent in during the second quarter last year, and if possible make a gain in every Union during the coming quarter.

Will County Treasurers make a special note of this and lend your aid to every Union in your county by a personal visit if possible? If your can not do that, write them a helpful letter, urge personal work from every one. Urge promptness in sending reports by the 15th of March, that your reports to the State Treasurer may not be delayed. The personal letters I have received from so many of the County and Local Treasurers have been very helpful encouragement and highly appreciated. The outlook throughout the State as gleaned from these letters is indeed very promising. Many Unions and counties have not yet secured the Treasurer's record books. Let me assure you, dear sisters, that these record books do not take the place of the Treasurer's books you already have. They are only to be used once a quarter, to record the reports sent to the County and to the State. Every Union in the County should have one, and keep a correct record of every cent received and every cent paid out. The books are exact duplicates of the blanks sent out. Price of County books, 35 cents; Local books, 15 cents. Send to me for them. All orders will be filled promptly. With many desires for a glad, happy and prosperous year, I am yours most loyally, AMANDA T. WHITSON.

LET EVERY UNION HOLD PUBLIC SERVICES ON FEBRUARY 17.

DEPARTMENT OF NORMAL INSTITUTES.

Its plan for holding a two day's and two night's meeting in every one of the ninety-two counties of the State.

See Section four of Plan of Work, on page 55 of our annual minutes of 1898. It was adopted by the annual convention without a dissenting vote. To make this plan a success has been the purpose, the studied effort and prayerful care of the Superintendent and Secretary, aided by the other State officers, and we submit the following:

The first thing to perplex us is how to get the money. To do this hold a Loyal Temperance Legion Medal Contest the first evening, charging ten cents admission, not allowing the local committee to give over ten complimentary tickets. These ten complimentary tickets do not have reference to the class or the three judges; they are always admitted free. Very young children may take part, as young as eight years, if they can commit the recitations. We will use the National Educator numbers 1, 2 and 3. Do not understand it to be necessary to make your class from an L. T. L. Only a few counties have an L. T. L. The thought is to increase interest in this branch. The second evening we will take a collection. If the proceeds of the contest the first night and the collection the second night do not amount to ($10.00) ten dollars, the County Treasurer shall make it that amount, and be prepared to do so at the close of the Institute.

The State worker in charge of the Institute will act as treasurer and take charge of contest receipts and collection, and receipt to the County Treasurer for any amount called for to make receipts equal the ten dollars. If the receipts of the contest and collection are more than ten dollars the department will be allowed to take the surplus for these reasons. There are thirty-two counties in which the department will have to be responsible for the Institute, and the sixty counties which will consent to the plan will be doing W. C. T. U. Missionary work in the broadest sense, and it will be a living example of a State in which every county is working in Union for the best good of all. It will surely result in Indiana's holding for another year the beautiful banner won at St. Paul.

It is the judgment of those who have had most experience, that to bring about the best results at each Institute, the leader must have an assistant. This has been provided for in the planning. The leader and her assistant must take their section and continue in the field until the section is finished, without going home or resting; three institutes a week—to economize in money, time and wear and tear of physical and mental health. Institutes can, without disturbing this order, secure their State President or any other state worker they may wish to have present, and we trust they will do so. State Evangelists and Superintendents will read the program and note the sections and the dates of Institutes in February MESSAGE, and to see how many Institutes they can attend. The usual uniform program has been provided for all. This program can be adjusted to every county and will insure systematic instruction for the entire White Ribbon Force, something greatly to be desired.

The plan insures an Institute in every county, with two specialists, if you will allow the term, with the necessary literature and outline programs furnished, with a reasonable chance of not having to take one cent from any county treasury.

Because county seats afford the best railroad connections, and they need the work badly, we will hold the Institute in county seats unless the county makes special request otherwise, as a very few have done. The towns selected by special request must not be out of line of travel to the next county seat.

Who pays for the medal? The treasurer of the Institute, from the proceeds of the contest. Is the price of the medal included in the ten dollars? It is.

County Presidents should call an Executive Committee meeting as soon as the February MESSAGE is in the women's hands, and make the necessary arrangements—securing a local committee. The chairman of this committee should correspond at once with the State Secretary, Mrs. Mary E. Balch, 711 E. 11th street, Indianapolis, who will arrange about the contest and answer any questions concerning trains and other details. They should correspond as well with the Department Superintendent, Miss Mary Hadley, Bloomington, Ind., in regard to filling and carrying out the program.

The County Executive Committee will be wise in providing for wide advertisement in local and county papers, etc., and in making choice of persons to write papers and lead in the discussion of subjects on the program. Also in securing a local choir—better call it a Union Choir from the several churches for the evening meetings, and some one for the day meetings to preside at the instrument and lead in the singing. Do not fail to provide to meet any shortage in the ten dollars specified. The thirty-two counties, not asked to make good the amount of ten dollars, will be asked to provide entertainment and a place for the meetings. We have not considered that church in any county would be any expense, but free to this work and we believe they will be. In these counties we shall hold contests with ten cents admission and take a collection, treating them as the other counties are treated in every particular, except in asking them to be responsible for any shortage in funds. Many of these counties may be liberal where they have at least one Union, but where they do not have any, our returns in the way of silver may be small. We trust the seed sowing will be beautiful. If any friendly eye in any one of these towns where we wish to hold our Institutes will move the hand to write and offer help at once, it will be blessed of the Lord.

THE QUARTERLY DEPARTMENT FUND PLAN.

First introduced at the Mid-Year executive at Greensburg. Approved at South Bend Convention. Also endorsed at the mid-year meeting at Anderson, and the annual meeting at LaFayette. What about the plan? Well, it necessitates a quarterly department meeting open to the public. These meetings to be held some time in December, March, June and September. Programs to be printed in the MESSAGE in November, February, May and August. We give the program this month for March 24. If any local Union thinks they can make more of a success of the meeting by using some other day they may feel free to make the change.

LIST OF MISSIONARY COUNTIES.

Brown, Carroll, Clark, Fayette, Floyd, Fountain, Franklin, Gibson, Harrison, Jackson, Jasper, Jefferson, Jennings, Koscinko, LaGrange, Montgomery, Ohio, Grange, Owen, Perry, Pike, Putnam, Ripley, Scott, Spencer, Starke, Sullivan, Switzerland, Tipton, Vermillion, Warren and Warrick. Dear Sisters, there is wisdom in all this planning, even to the saving of a cent, if you will be patient to understand before condemning.

With all of our desire for a plan which will be just to all counties, and generous to those not organized for our work, it may yet be found imperfect.

But before any county decides it has good and sufficient reasons for being excused from helping carry out this plan, will that county feel that it is in a spirit of love we ask? That it be sure it is not a species of selfishness that causes it to see barriers in the way of working for the good of all, for selfishness will be sure to work for the disadvantage of all, and especially for that county which looks upon the field narrowly.

May all with one accord make a long pull and a strong pull for the Institutes of 1899, and by the blessing of God may we rejoice together in such a victory as has never before come to this department of our work.

FIELD NOTES.

Where will the next State Convention be held?

The state gavel has not been seen since the Logansport Convention.

Every local Superintendent should report quarterly to the County Superintendents and every County Superintendent should report quarterly to the State Superintendent.

Read the Press Superintendent's plan on another page. Study it well. According to this plan, what local Press Superintendent will send in the most printed words to her County Superintendent by March 5th?

The World's W. C. T. U. Convention will be held in Edinburgh, June, 1900. Those attending the Paris Exposition can stop en route.

Our National W. C. T. U. Convention will be held at Seattle next October. Begin to plan now to make the trip to the Pacific coast and attend the Convention. All visitors will be entertained.

The membership of the Indiana W. C. T. U. is steadily gaining. Eighty-nine Unions reported an increase in paid members during the last quarter. Never before have so many Unions prepared annual programs. More literature is being read.

The Atlanta Union is still alive, with its face to the foe. We are glad to get the MESSAGE and learn what is being done in our State. In our work here we do not see the results that we desire, but feel that our work is not in vain. Sentiment in favor of the cause it represents is increasing, new members are joining our ranks. In four months our number has increased from six to thirty-six.

Mrs. Teats, national lecturer on Purity, was with us December 29th and 30th. This talented and brilliant woman aroused a line of new thought with quite a number that cannot fail to bear good fruit. Eleven new members were added.

MRS. LOUISA M. CAMPBELL.

Upland Union, Grant County, is pushing to the front. We are having special programs at our regular meetings, on the different departments of work. Our attendance is good. We are gaining in membership steadily. Our new calendar, with which every member is provided, giving the place and date of each meeting, contains fifty-four names, a gain of seventeen over the previous year. We had with us in the fall Rev. Greene, who delivered his lecture on "The Young Man and Maiden of the Twentieth Century" to a crowded house.

A few weeks ago our own Mrs. Cammack met with the "Joint Teachers Institute" at this place and presented the S. T. I. work in a very able manner. She remained with us over Sunday, preaching in the Friends Church in the morning and delivering a lecture in the M. E. Church in the evening. We had appropriate observance of Temperance Sunday, and distributed sixteen hundred pages of literature in the Sunday schools. At our next regular meeting had "Thoughts on Temperance Sunday" expressed by each member present. We hope a great amount of good was accomplished. We have one saloon and one billiard room that we are trying hard to get rid of, and have petitioned our councilmen to do all in their power to help. They responded by raising the license to the limit of the law, but we are not going to rest till our town is free.

MRS. ETTA AYRES,
Press Superintendent.

KEWANNA.

Miss Hadley has been with us a week. Her work has been well done. She presented the scientific temperance to sixteen schools (or all in the township.)

The work was well planned. Every teacher was expecting her. No time was lost. The work received a hearty endorsement by pupils and teachers. The principal of the High School was kind and helpful in arranging the work in the Town School. In some of the rooms he did not limit the time. He requested the teachers to review the pupils on the work. Our School Board and Township Trustee, when called upon by our W. C. T. U. Committee to assist in the work in a financial way, responded by each paying a third of expenses. The Union paid a third. This work was not an effort for new members, but the work was presented in all three of the churches, and the result has been thirteen new members. Among them one minister, two teachers (one of whom is also a minister), one musician, which will help us very much, the marshal of the town, and other honorary members who will be just as helpful. We have taken in almost enough funds to pay our part of the expenses. I do think the MESSAGE is such a helpful paper. My husband used to say to me: "I have to drink so much water to get a little tea." So it is with many of our papers; we have to read so much to get what we want, but the MESSAGE is tea unsteeped.

MRS. JESSIE TONER.

LAPORTE UNION ENTERTAINS THE TEACHERS.

The W. C. T. U. rooms were prettily decorated Saturday evening, the occasion being the reception given by the W. C. T. U. ladies for the teachers of the city schools. A large number of the teachers responded and a delightful program was carried out, after which dainty refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Lucerne Union, Cass county, reports six new members at one meeting. Union in prosperous condition.

Frankfort Willard Union has rented a choice room for their meetings and for the L. T. L. Have named it Willard Hall. "Saint Frances" picture hangs over the President's chair; to the right is the face of noble Josephine Nichols. The room is nicely furnished; it contains a splendid piano. Willard Hall was dedicated by a reception to the members and their husbands. An oyster supper was given a few evenings ago in the hall. Several gentlemen, unsolicited, made handsome donations to the Union.

Hamilton County President writes: "The MESSAGE is brim full of the things we want to know."

INDIANAPOLIS WILLARD UNION OFFICERS.

President, Mrs. N. E. Woodruff, 2118 North Senate avenue; Vice-President, Mrs. S. C. Hartzog, corner Capitol avenue and Sixteenth street; Recording Secretary, Mrs. G. E. Smith, 1607 Hall Place; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Ella Trask Rose, 1615 North Meridian street; Treasurer, Mrs. E. K. Morris, 1805 North Delaware street.

By the united efforts of the W. C. T. U. and good men, two saloons were kept out of Wawaka. Remonstrances did it.

Ossian Union begins the year 1899 full of hope and good cheer. A strong effort was made some weeks ago to locate a saloon once more in our little city. A building was bought ostensibly for another and honorable business and it was then discovered that a resident of our town had made application for license to open a drinking and gambling den in the same. A remonstrance was drawn up and then there was some hustling, as the time for work was short. But everybody aided in the work, and as the applicant learned what was being done, and how well and thoroughly it was done, he did not make his appearance at the time appointed. Our local has done other good work. Much help (considering our strength and means) has been given the poor. A Superintendent of Social Purity (Mrs. T. B. Hunter) has been appointed; Mrs. J. P. Metts is Superintendent of Jail Work, Mrs. A. S. Ellzy, Superintendent of Narcotics and Mrs. Lizzie Swain, Superintendent of Sabbath Observance.

Seven new members were added to our local. Mrs. Serepta Worley has been made our local President for the ensuing year.

LAURA O. CHUPP,
Press Reporter.

Hoagland has had a great temperance revival. Mother Trish was there eleven days. Sleighing was fine. Some evenings the church was literally packed with people. Eleven members were added to the Union. Many signed the pledge. One mothers' meeting was held. Much house to house visiting was done. Everybody interested.

Many of you have received extra copies of the MESSAGE of January issue. The same are to be given to some friend whom you wish to become interested in the suffrage work. Do not fail to give it out.

Mr. George J. Marott, the proprietor of the largest shoe store in the State, is located on East Washington street, Indianapolis. He offers to give to the Marion County W. C. T. U. five per cent of his gross receipts on February 8th. Every Marion County Union ought to canvass its neighborhood and secure pledges from friends of temperance to make at least one purchase at Marott's on that day. Show your interest by your works.

Mrs. Henrietta E. White, of Versailles Union, writes that the Union was organized February, 1884. Each year, on the anniversary, an indoor picnic is held at the home of one of the members. Each member takes a well filled basket of good things for dinner. The hostess provides coffee and cream. The day is greatly enjoyed by all.

All of our unions, large and small, are expected to hold an anniversary meeting on February 17th, commemorating our dear Miss Willard's Heavenly birthday. The program sent out by the National Officers, with suggestive helps, will be very helpful. Let this be a time for special prayers for renewed consecration to the work for God and Home and Humanity. We need more earnest Christian women and men to help us. Let there be a special effort made to secure members, regular and honorary.

HOAGLAND.

The year 1898 surely closed a very successful year for our W. C. T. U. Mother Trish was with us eleven nights in December; had one Mother's meeting and made several house to house visits. Through her untiring efforts we gained twelve members, four honoraries, and twenty-three signed the pledge. We feel that much good seed was sown, and pray that it may all bring forth fruit an hundred fold. Since our number has increased much we trust our success may increase accordingly for the year 1899.

IDA J. MCINTOSH,
County Corresponding Secretary.

Mrs. Mary C. Woody, the former president of the North Carolina W. C. T. U., while sojourning in Boone county, our state, is greatly assisting in getting our W. C. T. U. work there on an aggressive basis. We extend to her our cordial appreciation of her efficient, loving service.

Lebanon and Thorntown have each held a colored concert. We are rejoiced because our Unions are using their influence toward developing the great musical talents of the colored people. In many communities temperance jubilee singers might be secured. After some practice these would become very helpful to our cause by singing our sentiments. We need these people, and they in turn need the W. C. T. U. Where ever possible, I hope the Unions will also organize oratorical contest classes among the colored boys and girls.

THE NEW CRUSADE.

Monthly. $1.00 per Year. Ann Arbor, Mich.
MARY WOOD-ALLEN, M. D., Editor.

Invaluable for the use of Mothers' Meetings, Child Culture Circles, Mothers' Clubs, etc.

The best magazine for parent and teacher, dealing with the mental, moral and physical nature of the child. A most complete course of study now running. Sample copy 10 cents.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 23rd, 1898.

Dear Dr. Wood-Allen—Please find enclosed one dollar, subscription for the New Crusade. I read the New Crusade every month with the greatest interest. I am the mother of six children, all under ten years of age, and I am spending my life to teach them how to live. I want them to glorify God in the use of all the gifts that he has trusted them with. I find much that helps me in your paper. I realize that the training of a child embraces so much. The home influence, the food, the dress, the sleeping room, the reading, the playing, etc. There is no end to it. I go on in close touch with the Good Shepherd, expecting to receive my reward in the holy and noble lives of my children by and by. You are engaged in a grand work. Clean hearts, clean hands, and clean lives for our children. I have learned much, I have still to learn. I tell others of the New Crusade, especially young mothers. Long before I was a mother I devoured all the literature I could lay my hands on that would help to fit me for this great work, even before a serious thought of marriage entered my mind. I have been studying the subject for years, yet I am always learning more. I do not see how those mothers manage who have never looked into it at all. I have to be on the "look-out" all the time; danger is everywhere. With prayer for your success, Yours sincerely,

MRS. W. A. MCL.

To all who send 70 cents to this office before March 1, 1899, we will send the MESSAGE and the New Crusade one year.

INDIANAPOLIS, MARCH, 1899.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION, 35c. PER YEAR

MID-YEAR MEETING.

The Mid-Year Executive Meeting will be held at Wabash, March 29-30, in the Presbyterian church. Every County President is expected to answer to roll call at 10:30 o'clock A. M., on the 29th. A Superintendent's conference will be held at the time of the executive committee meeting, beginning at 10:30 o'clock A. M., March 29, in the Presbyterian church. All persons attending the Mid-Year meeting should go from the station to the Presbyterian church.

At the Mid-Year Conference on March 30, all State Superintendents, Organizers and Evangelists will be expected to make a report of the work accomplished since last September.

The generous hospitality of the Wabash Union is extended to all the above mentioned. Send your name and the time of your arrival at Wabash immediately to Mrs. Harriet F. Kidd, Wabash, so that you may be assigned entertainment.

On account of the legislative matter and Institute plans in the last MESSAGE, much material was left set in type and not used until this issue, thus crowding out some very important and interesting communications from State Officers, State Superintendents, County Presidents and from the Local Unions. This I regret more than I can express. Each sister will, I hope, consider the circumstances and deal kindly with the editor.

A COMPLIMENT.

Mrs. Herr, the State Treasurer of the Connecticut W. C. T. U. says that she eagerly reads the Indiana MESSAGE, and that she gets more practical plans for work from it than from any other State paper in the nation.

TO THE COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES.

Please urge your County Presidents to attend the Mid-Year Meeting at Wabash, March 29-30; sickness being the only cause sufficient for absence. Your county can not attain to its best unless your leader fully understands the policy and plan of the State and National. Tell her that your county must be represented, for her to go and her expenses will be met by the county. If she can not attend, please send some one to represent the county.

The Local Unions that are honored with the membership of a State Superintendent of Department will confer a great favor on them and on the State by urging them to attend the Mid-Year Meeting. If possible, donate something toward their railroad fare. We need them at the conference, and they need to be there.

LUELLA F. McWHIRTER,
President Indiana W. C. T. U.

LETTER FROM A STATE ORGANIZER.

My delay in giving an account of field work, as per your request, has seemed unavoidable on account of pressure of correspondence, preparation for Institutes, etc. I see you have gotten very much of it in a most interesting way through the local correspondence.

A few changes in the conditions of the work are quite noticeable.

1. More doors are opening. Church doors swing wide.
2. More ministers are proclaiming a no-license gospel; especially young ministers.
3. Prejudice is softening and people are more willing to think and listen.
4. Our W. C. T. U. members are planning their work more thoughtfully and intelligently, and are reaching better results.

Going unannounced, one minister (an able one whose congregation liked to hear him preach), gave me his pulpit for the Sabbath evening service. At the close of the service he quietly but publicly gave his name for membership in the W. C. T. U. Other leading members did likewise.

Another minister in a large city, about two hundred miles from the one just named, having a similar intelligent charge, freely gave his pulpit Sabbath evening, not claiming that it was for our cause merely, but for his cause as a minister of the gospel, for the cause recognized by the Christian church the world over, and for Christ's cause as touching aggressive work against the drink demon, the most formidable enemy of Christianity.

At the close of the service he spoke a few words in that knowledge and acceptance of the truth which makes men free, and twenty-three gave their names for membership in our organization, including the minister and members of his official board. Others joined the ranks at the time of the organization of a Union the day following.

At another church where a revival service was in progress (and where with some of our W. C. T. U. members, I had attended a few meetings), I was invited by the minister to occupy his pulpit on Sabbath morning, he going to a neighboring charge.

The service was on gospel temperance lines. At its close a man who had been voting a license ticket decided that a Christian could not vote for license.

At another church where the service was a Bible Reading on Christian Citizenship, a voter who has a family of a wife and three bright little boys, and who believes in christianity at the ballot box as well as in the prayer meeting, handed me a dollar, saying he did it not as a compensation for service but to emphasize his appreciation for the twenty Prohibition votes which he was sure had been made.

Scientific Temperance Instruction, where taken up by Local or County Unions and workers have been called, has been courteously and appreciatively received by teachers and school officials (the latter in some cases defraying the larger part of the expense.)

Teachers are asking for the best literature on the subject. The presentation in the public schools has been eagerly received by the pupils, and strange as it may seem, the pupils of the high school, who have been most touched and blighted by the deadly cigarette and other evil habits, have been most enthusiastic in their applause where these evils have been arraigned and painted black in the presentation.

It remains for our membership to say to what extent it will supplement our Indiana laws for Scientific Temperance Instruction and against the cigarette.

Cordially yours for entering all doors,

MARY HADLEY.

The State Treasurer's blanks were sent out February 28. Let every W. C. T. U. woman assist the Treasurers, both Local and County, in making this quarter's receipts larger than any other corresponding quarter for years. In what way, do you ask? By not waiting for her to call upon you for her dues, but by sending to her yours and one other that has been secured through your efforts. Strive to make the report your Union and county show a greater gain than any other and you will reap your reward in a greatly increased membership. I regret this paper does not go to every treasurer in the State. Send reports to me that I may receive them by the 25th of March.

Yours for a greatly increased membership this quarter.

A. T. WHITSON,
Treasurer.

FIELD NOTES.

March 31, opening date for Institutes.

Let all members be present at the first meeting.

A most interesting part of the program to be given at the meeting. See program in the February MESSAGE.

Preserve February MESSAGE for schedule of dates, detail of Institute plan, Franchise, etc.

County Presidents, preserve report blanks for Institute sent you by State Superintendent, and report promptly and fully.

The Mid-Year impetus given to our work through the Institutes has been great, especially in counties where the County President has had the zeal and tact to secure a good attendance for her members; and to have every Local Union represented on the program. We predict that many counties this year will surpass their former good record.

Every County Executive should be ambitious to be on the Institute roll of honor for a full attendance throughout the session. This roll is to be exhibited at the State Convention.

That zeal for our work and that faith which hopeth all things, endureth all things, believeth all things, will lead to such a wise planning that even the house cleaning will be gotten out of the way of the Institute.

Keep in mind the date for your Institute and plan accordingly.

Let us preempt the entire State for our work, through the Institutes this spring. A little energy and timely planning on the part of all, and especially county and local officers, will secure this most desirable result.

Many women feel that they can not do much W. C. T. U. work. These, as well as all officers and Superintendents of Local Unions, should attend their County Institute. Your presence will be helpful. Just now resolve to do this much for the cause. Invite your husband to attend also.

ANNIVERSARY MEETINGS.

February 17th, the anniversary of our loved leader Frances E. Willard's Heavenly birthday, was very generally observed by the Unions in our State.

Marion county held an all day Union meeting in the First Baptist church, Indianapolis. The power of the spirit of God was manifest in the hearts of the people. Many lives were reconsecrated to the great work for humanity.

New London Union had a good audience and excellent program. Three honorary members were secured. The Union is encouraged.

Peru Union held an interesting meeting and gained three new members.

Thorntown Union held an inspiring meeting.

Montpelier Union's meeting was helpful to the membership. A club for the MESSAGE will be sent in.

Shelbyville Y held an unusually interesting meeting at the home of its President, Mrs. Van Pelt. Mrs. Belle Flowers read an original poem. The program was excellent and the audience very appreciative.

The Y's are marching on.—EDITOR.

Mrs. Daisy Shouts, President St. Joseph county, assisted by her Executive, organized a Y at South Bend with ten members, with Miss Andrews, of 418 South Carroll street, as President.

Peru Union had a splendid meeting. Gained three new members.

Mrs. Mary J. Thomas, of Modoc, gave a reception to the Union. Fifty-six present. The program was so entertaining they received invitations to hold a meeting at another place.

The Camden Union was organized December 22, 1898. Consists of four active and three honorary members, and is struggling to live and accomplish something.

MRS. J. O. ENGLEMAN.

Your MESSAGE is immense.—President Kansas W. C. T. U.

Lochiel has ten honorary members.

Manson Union sends the Union Signal and MESSAGE to all the ministers there.

South Bend Central presented our State Superintendent of Sabbath Observance with three dollars for her Department.

Hartford City sent thirty-five names for the MESSAGE, and more to follow. Paid membership, twenty-nine. Who comes next?

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

All Iowa Unions pay $1.00 membership fee, which includes a subscription to the State paper.

Mrs. Kate Mendenhall, President of Amo Union and a member of the Hadley Industrial School Board, is a great sufferer. The MESSAGE extends sympathy and love.

Please accept our thanks for the February number of the MESSAGE. We consider it the handsomest number we have ever received. By order of the Greensburg Union.

Thorntown Union rejoices because of the enlistment of Mrs. L. J. Thomas, a most promising worker for her people in the colored department. She is a speaker, a musician with youth and position to help her.

From Decatur we learn of much good being accomplished by the efforts of Mrs. Teats. Rev. Mrs. Pearse writes that the interest was intense, and the Union feels encouraged to go forward.

Write us your objections to the paper, if you have any, that we may overcome them. If you have none, will you not join the club and help make our paper the banner paper of the United States? Try to make your subscription list equal to your membership.

Westfield Union mourns the loss of Mrs. Miriam Spray, Mrs. Martha B. Stanley and Morris Jessup, the husband of Mrs. Rachel Jessup. Appropriate resolutions have been received and will appear in the next issue of the MESSAGE.

Mrs. Ella Brown, the President of the Kansas W. C. T. U., writes that the MESSAGE is fine and buys some copies to put into the hands of women in seven of her districts.

At the recent State Convention of the Massachusetts Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the following recommendation was adopted: "That the membership fee be $1.00 per annum, this to include a subscription to 'Our Message'—the Bay State official organ.

For use on the Sample Table at the Mid-Year Meeting, Unions are asked to donate a copy of their annual program, and also copies of all printed matter used during this year. Send immediately to Mrs. L. F. McWhirter, 2312 College avenue, Indianapolis.

Mrs. Ada L. Squires, of Martinsville, has spent some time in Posey county, where she and baby Squires won laurels for themselves and for the W. C. T. U. New members were added to the Unions, and the workers greatly encouraged. The County Executive has invited her to return for one month's work, at as early a date as possible. Mrs. Squires is an earnest, faithful worker who is greatly appreciated by the Unions securing her services.

Miss Marie C. Brehm, our National Superintendent of Franchise, who, with the assistance of Mrs. Tompkins, our State Superintendent, so ably conducted our Legislative work, is still with us and is meeting with excellent success everywhere. She remains in Indiana until the 16th, then returns to Chicago. A full write-up of her work will be given in April issue of the MESSAGE.

A call by our State Superintendent of Sabbath Observance, Mrs. Katie W. Holler, is sent out for special work and prayer in behalf of the Christian Sabbath for the week following Easter week, April 9th to 16th. All Local Unions are requested to hold special meetings during the week, and to ask the ministers to preach a sermon upon the subject.

Hartford City Union has issued a beautiful program. Gospel meetings are held at the poor farm and libraries are kept there and at the county jail. Flowers are sent on the holidays for the prisoners' table. Thanksgiving day, roses; Christmas, holly and roses; New Year's day, carnations.

Frankfort Union secured Miss Marie C. Brehm for three day's service. She spoke morning and evening in the M. E. Church, Sunday, February 19. She preached a most beautiful and logical sermon in the morning, her subject being "A Great Conception of God." Even the most prejudiced pronounced it grand. In the evening she chose "Woman" as her subject, using bible arguments, and Woman's Enfranchisement was presented as only Miss Brehm can present it.

Our week day meetings were all and more than we expected, on account of the inclement weather, and while the meetings were not as successful as we had hoped, yet we know much good seed has been sown, and many were led to see the "Woman question" from a different standpoint.

The Frankfort Union aims to procure only first-class speakers. Miss Brehm has spoken in all the large churches in our city, and they are open to her whenever she returns.

INDIANA L. T. L. GRADUATES, ATTENTION.

This is the month for the payment of State L. T. L. graduates' dues, 25 cents. Please be prompt. We started in this year with an empty treasury and unless there is a generous response from the graduates we will have no money for our State Convention. Where there are a number of graduates, will not some one person be responsible for collecting and sending in the dues?

INA BOYER,
Frankfort. State Treasurer.

Y. W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Amanda S. Kauffman, Secretary of Goshen Y, writes: We try not to get into a rut, we vary our programs as much as possible. Sometimes the program is musical with recitations, sometimes we devote the evening to select readings and discussions. At other times we ask the Y's to save clippings from our daily papers in regard to the liquor traffic, which are read and commented upon. Frequently much of the evening is given to a good social time. We earn the dues by serving light refreshments, for which a small sum is charged. We hold our meetings regularly every two weeks on Friday evening and also on Saturday evening. The afternoon meetings are made especially interesting to the younger members.

This year the local unions have arranged the best programs ever used in our State. In design some of them are very unique and attractive.

The invitation extended by the Wabash Union to the Mid-Year Executive is most cordial. It includes the State Superintendents and is extended with a heartiness that is much appreciated.

The President of the United States is authorized under the law to "make and publish regulations for the government of the army." President Hayes issued this order in 1881: "In view of the well-known fact that the sale of intoxicating liquors in the army of the United States is the cause of much demoralization among both officers and men, and that it gives rise to a large proportion of the cases before general and garrison courts-martial, involving great expense and serious injury to the service, it is therefore directed that the Secretary of War take suitable steps, as far as practicable consistently with vested rights, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage at the camps, forts and other posts of the army." What President Hayes did President McKinley could do—if he would.

Every County W. C. T. U. is requested to have a county song not to exceed three verses. The same to be reported at the mid year meeting.

How many life members have you in your Union?

The Union that reports to the State President the largest gain of "paid up" honorary members by June 15th, will receive a life sized picture of Miss Willard.

Some counties have held four executive committee meetings since the State Convention. Others haven't held one. No person should be satisfied to hold the office of County President and not secure the co-operation of the County Executive Committee.

If a County President is enthusiastic and energetic, anxious to push organization, it is surely very discouraging to have a majority on her Executive Committee who object to all her plans and never propose any themselves. If a member of a committee does not offer an aggressive plan and some one else does, it is the very easiest thing possible to "object and do nothing." Oh, for the women who will put into execution some of the faith they profess to have!

NOTES FROM MORGAN COUNTY.

Mrs. Teats was at Martinsville Thursday and Friday before Christmas. It was an unfavorable time to plan for her, but we have made up our minds to take advantage of the opportunity of having every special worker offered us whenever it is at all possible.

She strikes hard at evil in all places, especially in high places, and her address on "Pitching Tents," was in its full meaning. Pitching tents toward Sodom was as strong in word painting and argument as the subject suggests.

We hope to have Mrs. Teats with us again, and would be glad to have her for a number of days through our county.

Contest at Centerton New Year's eve.

L. T. L. organized at Centerton New Year's day

Centerton has no Union, but this is the second contest Mrs. Squiers has held there, she having in view all the while the organization of an L. T. L.

The class was composed of the following young ladies: Myrtle Garret, Emma Sliger, Maggie Winkler, Maud Richardson, Esty Sargent and Clara Robinson. The medal was awarded to Miss Garret, who is a school teacher. Miss Maud Richardson received second honor. Mrs. Lora Swain, of Martinsville, who is Morgan county's efficient L. T. L. Superintendent, attended the contest, and next morning she and Mrs. Squiers organized an L. T. L. of twenty-one members. This was considered a fine start for so small a place.

Centerton has a church house, but no church organization, and the Sunday school is the only religious organization there.

The L. T. L. was organized immediately after the Sunday school, and almost the entire school remained. The parents and older people evinced much interest, and the Sunday School Superintendent said: "I believe this is going to be a grand thing for Centerton, and I can see what a great help it will be for our Sunday school."

Miss Eva McKan, an earnest, capable young lady who is a member of the Brooklyn Union, is the Superintendent. Miss Maud Richardson was appointed president, the other officers were appointed from among the larger members and either Mrs. Swain or Mrs. Squiers will be with them on pledge signing day to assist with the election of officers and to get them fully started. The way is opening for several other legions in this county and we desire to announce to other counties that Morgan proposes to keep the L. T. L. banner received at State convention for organization.

Martinsville Union will make every member a subscriber to the MESSAGE.

Martinsville L. T. L. organized last summer with 22 members, now has 166 enrolled. We have a number of large boys in the legion.

You seem to find room in the MESSAGE for so many good things I wish to enter a plea for one more—report of work done by Local and County Unions. These will come up to the Unions and to Conventions in due time, no doubt, but is it not well for us to provoke one another to good works by reporting, very briefly of course, meetings held, a lecture given, a sermon preached, or some such service, as we go on with the work through the year? I know of a few good meetings held this year on the subject of Peace. I hope several have been held that I do not know of. Who will report in this Department? And, please, will not every County Superintendent of this Department in the State send me on postal card her name and address by the 14th of February? Address until that time, at 120 South Sixteenth street, Richmond, Ind.

H. LAVINIA BAILY,
Supt. Dept. Peace and Arbitration.

ATTENTION, METHODISTS!

The Epworth Herald of January 28 is a Prohibition special containing much valuable information, such as every voter ought to have. Nineteen pages are devoted to the presentation of arguments, facts and figures favoring prohibition. Charts are also given. The army canteen responsibility is put where it belongs. Hon. John G. Woolley's Prohibition Projectiles in it are most convincing and should be read by every Christian.

This issue will be sent out at the rate of $1.00 per hundred copies until supply is exhausted. Let nothing prevent you from getting several hundred copies into the hands of the Leaguers and church members. This is an opportunity. Don't fail to act promptly before supply is exhausted. Address Curtis & Jennings, 57 Washington street, Chicago, Ill.

HADLEY INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

AMANDA KNOWLTON,
 Whose letter was in the January MESSAGE.

The boundary line of Indiana is not so formidable but that her inhabitants may escape to other parts of our domain, and view her from a distance. The writer is spending the winter months with a sister in the active town of Danville, Ill., and from the push and up-to-dateness of this place, it might be taken for a suburb of Chicago.

The coming of the daily mail is a matter of interest, as it keeps one in close touch with the Hadley Home, which is the center and circumference of my present thoughts. The bright, sweet letters from the girls, telling of their good resolutions for the coming year, are indeed inspiring. Here is a specimen of the resolutions as expressed by almost every child in the home.

Annie Seely says, "I am resolved not to whisper or laugh in school. I will not idle my time away, but study every minute."

"I will mind my teacher and all the officers in the Home who have charge of me." "I will not fuss." "I have resolved to obey the golden rule."

This dear girl seems to appreciate her present home in a high degree. She is tall and slender in form, with black eyes and intelligent face. Father dead and mother unable to support her, and she was placed in a Catholic home at Cincinnati, O. She often tells the other girls of the happy change she made in coming to Hadley. She enjoys the freedom of its broad acres, as a field of action where she can come in communion with nature, and nature's God. The birds and flowers, as well as the domestic animals and fowls on the farm, are her friends. The girls all feel they have an ownership in every little calf and pig that comes to the Home, and the dear little chickens are "too-cute-for-anything," and the first ripe strawberry brings joy unbounded. These girls have the most and the best mothers of any children I ever heard of. Over four thousand mothers to love them and provide for them, and the best mothers in all our fair State. For who can stand for higher or broader principles than the W. C. T. U. women of Indiana? This is not an institution of a day. It is born to live and send out women from its doors of high ideals and useful habits to take part in the world's work.

There is no estimating the difference it may make in the world to have the course in life of many girls changed from a low to a high plan of living and thinking, and this is the work we have undertaken. It means much time given, and prayerful thought on the part of those who are striving to carry forward this initial work. We must look into the far-beyond, and plan for larger accommodations, and more girls. We are already nearly full.

It will mean a little more self-denial; a farther donation and enlarged views. But is there not joy in taking a hand in the building of an institution that is to stand, and increase in usefulness as long as the organization of the W. C. T. U. of Indiana shall exist?

LUCRETIA HOBART,
 President Board.

A LETTER.

Perhaps it would be of interest to you to hear about our Christmas from the tallest but not the oldest girl in the home. My name is Grace Griffin. I came from Princeton, Ind., and I am thirteen years old. On Christmas Eve we saw our Christmas tree. It was a large cedar tree and its boughs were laden with gifts from Old Santa Claus; it seems as if he could not forget us. I think he just emptied his sack at our door. We were surprised when we saw our tree and we all had a nice time examining our presents. Some of our neighbors came to spend the evening with us. We passed the evening in happiness, marching, speaking pieces and singing. It seemed as if the little Christ child was peeping in to share our fun and that his radiant smile shown down upon us. After having a nice time we retired for the night to dream sweet dreams about the Babe in the manger and to see the brightness of His glory, and to hear the tramp of Santa's reindeer as he climbed down the chimney, and on tip toe he distributed the handkerchiefs and then with a chuckle glided away to wait until it was time for him to come again. On Christmas Day we had devotional exercises, and thanked God for giving us such sweet slumber and for sparing our lives to celebrate the birth of the "Son of Man." We went to Sunday School and church in the morning and received a treat of candy and nuts from our teachers. After eating our dinner we ate candy and nuts, and some spent the time in reading, writing and other things. After enjoying our Christmas dinner on Monday we had our exercises in the chapel. It was decorated with cedar and with drawings on the board. A little Christmas tree was on the platform.

Many people came to hear us. We went in marching and singing and took our seats. We had a long program. We sang first and then repeated Paul's prayer. Eph. 3d chapter.

Seven little girls had a dialogue. After each said her part she lighted a candle and put on the Xmas tree and then all marched around it singing "Love lights all the rest."

On the tree were a great many dolls that looked like little fairies trying to hide their sweet little faces from the glow of the candles, and from us. On the tree were strings of popcorn candy and a great many other things. Some of we girls received bundles from our parents. We received a large box from the Class "Aloha," First Baptist Sunday School, Indianapolis, containing handkerchiefs, ribbons, dolls and candy.

We received a box of nuts from Mr. Parker, a kind gentleman of Rockport. We think he must be interested in all of us. We received blotters from the Park School, LaPorte; pin-cushions from Mrs. Robinson, of Indianapolis, and handkerchiefs from Miss Mary A. Townsend, of Richmond. Almost all the Unions that had a girl here sent candy. Mr. Bailes, a kind old gentleman of Hadley, sent us candy.

We appreciate all of our Christmas presents very much, and thank you very much for remembering us so kindly. We feel that you are interested in us and trying to help us. We hope to grow up to be good women and help to make the world better. By the guiding hand of the One who dwells and reigns above, we will try to be a credit to those who love and do so much for us.

We appreciate our home very much and thank all the ladies of the W. C. T. U. for spending their time and strength for us. I will close hoping you had a Merry Christmas and a happy New Year. We think you did, for when we give anything it always brings happiness. "It is more blessed to give than receive."

Your loving little friend,
 GRACE GRIFFIN.

Since our last writing we have received the pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Addison Hadley, the donors of our Home; also the picture of Mrs. Melinda Ridgeway from LaPorte. Hamilton County remembered us with a box of clothing, gingham, toweling, books and dolls, sent by Mrs. Maggie Cox. Many thanks to them. Our children are all in their usual health. Our school is prospering under the management of Miss Angell. We still have twenty-two girls in the Home.

CLORINDA J. HANNARS,
 Superintendent.

LEGISLATIVE.

The support given the Resolution to amend the Constitution so as to grant the right of suffrage to women by the Senate and its recommendation for the favorable consideration by the next General Assembly is in strange contrast to the action of the Speaker of the House of Representatives who ruled the Resolution out of order, and refused to allow the committee to make a report.

The liquor men dictated the Committee on Temperance Legislation in the Indiana House of Representatives. A bill restricting saloons to the business part of all cities of over 8,000 population was introduced and referred to said committee. The majority report was against it. The three temperance men on committee submitted a minority report in favor of the bill, which caused some lively debate, and carried.
Now if the Senators are sufficiently urged by letters, petitions, etc., from their constituents it will carry in the Senate and become a law.

THE MID-YEAR CONFERENCE.

The Mid-year Meeting was held at Wabash, March 29 and 30, in the Presbyterian church. The State Superintendents and the State Executive Committee each held an all day meeting on Wednesday, the 29th.

In the evening of the 29th the Mid-year Conference was cordially welcomed on behalf of the city by the Mayor, Hon. J. E. McHenry; the churches, by Dr. Chas. Little, pastor of the Presbyterian church; the schools, by the Superintendent, Prof. W. M. Harrison; the W. C. T. U., by Mrs. A. L. Rokbock.

In an earnest, beautiful manner, Mrs. Elma Emerson, President of Whitley county, responded on behalf of the White Ribboners. In an enthusiastic manner Master James Gipe, President of the Indiana Loyal Temperance Legion, responded on behalf of the Legioners.

On Thursday morning, March 30, at 10:00 o'clock, the first Mid-year Conference of the Indiana W. C. T. U. was called to order. Devotional services, led by Mrs. Anna O. Eldridge.

A symposium on Our Departments, was conducted by the Superintendents, twenty-two of whom were present and in an earnest, effective manner presented their departments.

In the afternoon The Field was represented by the Organizers; The Message, by the business manager, Mrs. A. T. Whitson; The Loyal Temperance Legion, by the State President, Master James B. Gipe.

The Young Women, by the State Secretary of the Young Woman's Branch, Miss Clara Sears; The Hadley Industrial School, by the Superintendent, Mrs. Clarinda Hannars. Two of the little girls from the school were present, and in their sweet, childish manner sang songs. The Outlook, by the State Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Mary E. Balch; Our Finances, by the State Treasurer, Mrs. A. T. Whitson; An address, Our Cause, by the State President, Mrs. Luella F. McWhirter.

Thursday evening, March 30, a suffrage oratorical contest was held. The speakers represented Clinton, Grant, Howard and Wabash Counties. The gold medal was awarded to Mrs. Julia Overman of Grant County.

Much interest and enthusiasm was manifested at the conference.

The hospitality of the Wabash people was cordial and kind.

MID YEAR CONFERENCE NOTES.

The progress of the work generally, over the State as reported at the Conference, is most encouraging.

Many new Loyal Temperance Legions have been organized. Their motto: "Tremble King Alcohol, we Shall Grow Up," clearly indicates what may be expected in another decade of years.

The young women are being gathered into the Y's and the Y branches. They are under wise leadership and are working enthusiastically. A steady gain of membership is increasing our momentum as a State, which will hasten the coming of our victory for God, Home and Native Land.

Realizing the great need of a fund for organization, it has been decided to devote all money received for life membership, to such a fund.

With a desire to help organization, Mrs. Margaret Ross, of Wabash, took a life membership in the State Union.

Through the efforts of Mrs. M. O. Cammack, our State Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Mary E. Balch was made a life member of the State Union.

A chorus composed of members of the colored Union of Wabash, rendered excellent selections on welcome night, which were much appreciated.

A resolution was passed asking congress to expel Representative Roberts, the Mormon. Every White Ribboner is expected to cause at least five letters to be written by men to our congressmen asking that this important work be done. Mormonism must not have an entering wedge into the councils of our government.

A very large bouquet of white carnations and Marshall Neil roses, tied with white and yellow ribbon, was presented to the President, Mrs. McWhirter, by the Colored Union of Wabash.

Westfield holds a parlor meeting once a month at the home of one of the Superintendents. A Superintendent reads a paper on her department.

Churubusco Union gained nineteen members as the result of Mrs. Mary E. Teats' visit.

Montgomery has an L. T. L. President, Miss Arlie Rudolph; Secretary, Georgie Brown; Organist, Bertha Price. Four crusaders taken.

FIELD NOTES.

Peru has a new Y.

Work for active and honorary members at every W. C. T. U. Institute.

Organize a Loyal Temperance Legion if you have but eight or ten boys and girls.

Miss Adella Lindley, member of Fairmount Union died February 2d after an illness of but a few days. She was County Press Superintendent, an earnest, efficient christian worker.

Before the lecture at every W. C. T. U. Institute have a chorus of children's voicessing, "Saloons Must Go." Primary Sunday school children ought to be taught to sing. Saloons Must Go with music, can be obtained for 15 cents per hundred at the Woman's Temperance Publishing Association, The Temple, Chicago.

Waterloo Union recently held a parlor meeting at the home of Mrs. P. Morrell, to which each member was requested to bring a guest and listen to a condensed report of the St. Paul convention by our delegate, Mrs. Hannah Willenar, who responded in an interesting and instructive manner. Light refreshments were served and two new names added to the roll.

Mrs. Hannah Williams, of Pleasant Lake, President of Steuben county, who attended the National convention at St. Paul as a delegate, visited the Ashley Union and gave a grand report of the convention. We almost felt that we had been there after hearing it. Miss Emma Fisk, also of Pleasant Lake, gave A Plain Talk, that convinced some who had not believed in woman's ballot, that it was after all womanly to want to vote. The day was a very cold and stormy one, yet their love and zeal in this great cause for humanity gave them the courage to drive sixteen miles. May God bless the brave women all over our land who are facing storm and danger, that they may hasten the coming of His Kingdom on Earth.

ALMA SHAW.

Muncie Union had quite a revival this winter. Mrs. Teats, the National lecturer, was with us. This good, pure spiritual woman did us so much good. She aroused a line of thought which cannot help but bear fruit. By her untiring zeal and effort twenty-four names were added to our roll and seven honorary members. May God's richest blessings follow her.

Look for some earnest work from the county seat of Delaware.

E. S. WHITE,

Press Superintendent.

Sedalia Union has not been represented for some time in the MESSAGE. We will take the pleasure in letting its many readers know what work we have done. Much has been done for Flower Mission work. We can say we do more in this department than any other.

We have not held an oratorical contest since July, but will soon make arrangements for one.

Miss Marie C. Brehm gave us two splendid lectures. If she could have been with us for one week our town would have become converted. We know she opened the eyes of some of the people who are studying the matter more closely than ever before. We gained two members, one active and one honorary. Our County President, Mrs. Emma Saylor, visited our Union December 15, 1898. We wish her to come oftener to cheer us up. There are five MESSAGES taken in our Union.

MRS. O. S. MILLER.

The Union Signal says: The program of the mid-year Conference of the W. C. T. U. of the State of Indiana merits special mention. The exquisite pearl color deckle edge cover has an up to date style and on the little over folder are the familiar words "For God and Home and Native Land," printed in a handsome shade of blue as is the rest of the cover. One of the finest half tones of Lady Henry Somerset, like the one used in "Thumb Nail Sketches," makes an attractive frontispiece. On the last page of the enameled paper on which the entire program is printed, is a good cut of the W. C. T. U. Hadley Industrial School. The meetings were held at the Presbyterian church, Wabash, Ind., March 29 and 30. The evening exercises must have been especially fine if one may judge from the list of speakers and the themes they treated.

The Eunice P. Wilson W. C. T. U. of Upland held a meeting in the M. E. church, February 17th. The entertainment consisted of music, solos, recitations, select readings, etc. It was held in memory of our beloved leader, Frances E. Willard. The Union attended the meeting in a body. After the program was over solicitors went out in the audience for new members and several names were received. Then a collection was taken which amounted to over $4 00. The entertainment was a grand success. Several of our members were detained at home on account of sickness. We hope to do more work in the coming year than has ever been done in any previous year. The Union has greatly increased in membership, most of the new members being young ladies.

Worthington secured Mrs. Ada L. Squires for a weeks' work. An oratorical contest was held. Arthur Loder of the high school, won the medal. The voice drill and pantomime of the children's class was considered fine. After organizing a Loyal Temperance Legion it was difficult to find a leader. Mrs. Squires knows no such word as fail, so the bright, winsome and devoted Miss Myra Willis consented to act as leader. The Legion organized with 52 boys and girls. It now numbers 80 and its outlook is bright.

The contestants, except the winner, will hold another contest. Arrangements were made to take them to a church in the country and have them repeat their selections. An admission fee of ten cents will be charged.

Mrs. Squires won the universal commendation of the Union and citizens.

Collette Park W. C. T. U. of Terre Haute, secured for one week Mrs. Ellen K. Denny, National Organizer. Meetings were held at Maple Avenue M. E. Church. Each night multitudes heard the gospel of prohibition from a Bible standpoint and were greatly strengthened in their endeavors "for God and home and every land." Much good seed was sown. Mrs. Denny is a strong speaker, a woman thoroughly consecrated to the temperance work, and her strong pleadings for the homes of our land made a lasting impression. She also demonstrated that she can preach, as she occupied the pulpit with great acceptability on Sunday morning and evening, to the delight of the people. May she long be spared for her God given work. Five regular and three honorary members were added to the Union.

Guilford W. C. T. U. held services in memory of Frances E. Willard, February 6 instead of February 17th, that being the most convenient time, all things considered. Despite the blinding snow storm which was raging, there was a good crowd and a splendid and appropriate program was rendered. A paper read by our aged and honored honorary member, R. C. Hansell, and a recitation by Miss Harriet Lazenby, are deserving of especial mention. Also the quartet, "The Unseen City," by Mrs. J. W. Bobo, Miss Hattie Moody, Dr. W. A. Schooley and V. F. Stegner, and solo, "The Great Judgment Morning," by Dr. F. Ward. All did exceedingly well.

Our great leader has gone to her home in glory, but the Captain of our leader still liveth and will lead the White Ribbon host on to final victory.

Dear co-workers, let us be strong in the Lord and in the power of his might; above all, taking the shield of faith and the helmet of salvation, praying always, putting on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil, that we may crush out the demon rum from our fair land.

STATE ORATORICAL CONTEST PREMIUMS FOR 1899.

Beginning January 1, 1899, and ending October 1, 1899. This offer was first published in December, 1898.

The county that holds the most diamond contests will receive a flag that no one will be ashamed to carry. The county can go outside of its own imaginary county lines for contestants, if they have the enterprise to do so—that is, Grant County might get a contestant from Marion County and the contestant from Marion County might win the medal, and then it would be credited to Marion and not Grant County, as the motto and spirit of our work must be in love preferring one another. These contests must exceed three, and if there should be a tie between any two or more counties we will cast lots to decide which one gets the flag.

The county holding the greatest number of grand gold contests (and the number must exceed four) shall have a free diamond medal. The county holding the greatest number of small gold contests (and the number must exceed five) may have a free grand gold medal, and in either case we will settle a tie by casting lots.

The National Superintendent will give a gold medal to any local worker what holds the greatest number of contests.

MARY E. BALCH,
State Superintendent.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

Each Superintendent of a State Department should steadily labor through the County and Local Union officers to secure in each County and Local Union a Superintendent with whom she may be in constant correspondence and co-operation for the advancement of the interests of her department.

THE PRESS.

How many of you noticed the outline program for a Press Meeting on page nine of the Union Signal, of January 26? How many will try to arrange for a meeting, using this program? I would like for each Union to be able to report one. One part of the program is a paper on the subject, "How the Woman's Christian Union Utilizes the Press." Every County and Local Press Superintendent is urged to write this paper, whether they have the meeting or not, (but have the meeting if you can), and the best one will be printed in the MESSAGE, and we hope it will afterward be published in many other papers over the State. A well known State worker has consented to act as judge. She prefers not to know the name or address of any contestant, until the decision is made, therefore, the papers are to be sent to me. Place a distinguishing mark or an assumed name on the manuscript, enclosing another piece of paper containing the real name of the writer and the mark or assumed name. The points to be considered, are neatness, conciseness and practical knowledge of the work manifested. For helps, read department leaflets. "The Press as an Evangelist" and "The Press for Christian Temperance" are both good. Also read annual reports of State and National Superintendents of this department. The papers must be all in by June 1, and as space in the MESSAGE is at a premium, they must be limited to 400 words.

The State Superintendent of Purity is making a specialty of securing curfew legislation in cities and towns. Let the Press workers help by writing articles in favor of the law. In some places curfew laws were the direct result of newspaper agitation, begun by the W. C. T. U. FLORENCE E. VANCE, 908 E. Walnut street, Frankfort. Superintendent.

SYSTEMATIC AND PROPORTIONATE GIVING.

During January and February I wrote to each Local and County Superintendent of my department, and sent each one some leaflets. If there is a County or Local Superintendent who has not received a MESSAGE from me, it is because her name has not been sent to me and if she will write I will gladly send her leaflets. Now, dear sisters, as you read this letter in the MESSAGE, if your Union has not taken up this department will you send me the name of some member of your Union who believes in this plan of giving? Just send it on a postal and the kindness will be appreciated greatly. There is one thing I would like to mention, which is a great hindrance to my work and I suppose it is to all State Superintendents—namely: The failure of some of our White Ribbon sisters to answer the postals and letters which are sent in regard to our work. Remember that these letters and postals are sent for the good of the cause, not for personal interests; that they represent time, strength and money. The State Superintendents are busy women, and with all their duties are striving to build up their special departments of the Lord's work. Remember all this, and when you receive these requests for information in regard to the work answer them as you would like to be answered, were the conditions reversed. Every once in awhile some Local Superintendent writes, telling me she "was appointed months ago and I have not written to her." It is the place of the Secretary of each Union to notify me of the appointments; if they do not I have no way of knowing about them. So far, this year has been one of progress in this department. An unusual interest has been manifested. Now may each one of you strive to do "great things for God and humanity" in the days which the Lord shall give you upon earth. S. M. SHELTON, Livonia, Ind. State Superintendent.

PURITY.

Since impurity is found in all classes and persons of all ages, I have a word for the children, the young women and young men, also the older ones. I have received a leaflet published by the N. Purity Association, Chicago, which I think is splendid, and will ask the editor to insert it in the MESSAGE.

JUNIOR GUARD OF HONOR—A PURITY ORGANIZATION FOR BOYS.

This organization is known as the Junior Guard of Honor. Its motto is "Truth, Purity and Manliness." Its aim is to teach boys some important facts about themselves, which perhaps they might never otherwise learn in the right way, and so make them happier boys and better, truer men in all their after life.

Any boy ten years of age or over may become a member by signing the articles of obligation with a witness, filling in the blanks for date, address and age, and sending them with a 25 cent membership fee. In return he will receive a certificate of membership and a little book of thirty pages in paper cover, entitled "A Father's advice; or a Book for Every Boy," written by Dr. E. P. Miller, an eminent doctor in New York City.

It explains something about the physical life of boys which every boy who has grown to years of understanding should know of himself. It is very interesting and gives its warning in such a clean, pure-hearted way that every boy who reads it and tries to live out the motto will in all his after life, when he becomes a man and understands its meaning better, have great reason to be thankful he ever joined the Junior League of Honor. Be sure you do not miss it.

After you have read the book, if you then conclude that you do not wish to join the order, you may keep the book, return the certificate of membership with a note to that effect, and your 25 cents will be cheerfully returned to you. Is not this a fair offer?

The Junior League makes no difference in politics or religion, so that all may join in its fellowship. There are no dues or fees.

Books furnished free to all who wish to get new members.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP.

Earnestly desiring the influence of my life to count for the greatest possible good, and wishing to be in fellowship with boys of my own age who are striving to live true, pure, manly lives, that they may become true, pure, manly men, I hereby offer my name for membership in the Junior Guard of Honor.

In order that I may be a worthy comrade, I promise that, so far as lies in my power, I will keep the following obligation:

Article I. I will treat all women and girls with courtesy and respect.

Article II. I will use my influence against all indecent language and coarse jests.

Article III. I will read the book, "A Father's Advice," and will strive with all my might to avoid doing anything I should be ashamed to have known to my father or mother.

Article IV. I will endeavor to spread these principles.

I will strive in all things to live out the motto of the order, "Truth, Purity, Manliness." For the faithful observance of which I pledge myself.

I am.....years old and enclose 25 cents membership fee.

Fill out the blank and send with 25 cents to N. Purity Association, Chicago.

This work can be very successfully taken up in the Sunday school and L. T. L. Let the Superintendent of Purity visit the Sunday school teacher who has a class of boys and the boy's teacher in the L. T. L., and ask her to present it to her class. Where they are not able to pay the 25 cents let the teacher furnish a copy of the book and the boys read it in turn. Of course she will not miss an opportunity of presenting it individually to other boys. A word to the Y's: The White Shield work is especially a branch of the Purity work for young women. It is well understood where they stand on the alcohol and tobacco question, but the single standard of purity is not so well defined as some. The pledge may be added to the abstinence pledge, presenting the White Shield pledge to the young ladies and the White Cross pledge to the young men. You can not measure the good that may be done in this way. Courses of study are prepared, which can be used in the meetings, which can not fail to be a benefit to every Y.

Some Y's in other States have already taken up the work and report it as very helpful and necessary. The W. C. T. U. will carry out the suggestions for White Shield and White Cross work as given in the December MESSAGE. Last year only three Unions reported curfew laws. Let me urge you to work for this law wherever it is possible. Wherever this has been done there has been a marked decrease in arrests of youths.

Read carefully the State laws relating to purity and you will see that there need not be a house of ill-repute if the laws were enforced. Let us bring such a pressure of public sentiment against these public officials will be obliged to enforce these laws.

Send to Mrs. J. Tyler Jobson, 18 E. Main street, Richmond, Va., for White Shield supplies. Will each County President send me the name and address of her County Superintendent of Purity.

FRANCES G. BOYER, State Superintendent Purity.

WORK AMONG COLORED PEOPLE.

Thorntown, Boone county, sends in a fine report of the work started among the colored people there. Mrs. Mattie R. Barker, the County Superintendent, reports temperance sermon preached by Rev. J. L. Thomas, pastor of the A. M. E. church. His wife, formerly President of a W. C. T. U., was the winner of silver medal in the contest held in the above church. The two next best, Mrs. Orra Mitchell and Mrs. Ida Woodson, were each given a Frances Willard button and knot of white ribbon. The contest was a very successful one and request was made that it be repeated. The County Superintendent has made a number of house to house visits, given out pledge cards and tracts. She asks for literature for carrying on the work. Her County President, Mrs. Crist, sends a very encouraging letter also. We shall expect a fine report for colored work from Boone county.

Mrs. Henrietta Woodring, Superintendent of this department for Marion County, made an excellent report to the County Convention, March 21st. She has made several visits to colored churches, urging the women to take up the work. Her own Union, the Lucy Thurman, has since last report paid dues of seven members, have eighteen enrolled. Gospel temperance meetings held, three; cottage meetings, five; Mothers' meetings, ten; Bible readings, twenty; pages of literature given out, five hundred; temperance sermons preached, five; signatures to pledge, four. Mrs. Woodring has held regular services at the work house with good results, many asking an interest in the prayers.

The Flower Mission Department, of which Mrs. A. M. Brown is Superintendent, reports visits to the sick, fifty-nine; garments given, sixty-seven; pairs of stockings, eleven; baskets of fruit to sick, eight; floral design and bouquets to sick, thirteen. For more than two years Mrs. Woodring has been identified with our work, and her interest and efficiency continues to increase. At the Memorial meeting held February 17th, she made an earnest appeal to the W. C. T. U. to come to the rescue of her people.

Mrs. Anna Jay, Superintendent of Grant County, reports one lecture delivered to colored people by Mrs. Mattie O. Cammack, also sixteen hundred pages of literature distributed. Mrs. Jay is planning for much active work for her department for the next six months.

I hope in the May MESSAGE to announce good news for this department. Lookout for it; meantime will you not, all over the state, write me, briefly, how you are progressing? MARY E. L. SIMS, State Superintendent.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

It is our duty to work for the closing of post-offices on the Sabbath by local petition, that the more than 150,000 employees may have their day of rest and in every way impress upon the Christians and others the necessity of not only observing the day for themselves, but in handing it down to their posterity as it was given to us—a holy day for rest and worship. Responsive readings for the use of Local Unions can be had of the State Superintendent at ten cents per 100. They will be a valuable addition to the program of the week. Forty different leaflets are now published on this department of W. C. T. U. work and can be had of me at 10, 15 and 30 cents per 100. Let us educate, mould and lead this sentiment to the utmost of our ability and do what we can to promote the work of this important department. Will ministers in Indiana, who preach special sermons on Sabbath Observance and secure signatures to the following pledge, please report the same to the State Superintendent of Sabbath Observance?

PLEDGE.

With a firm reliance upon God, I hereby make my DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE against KING GREED, whose Sunday work I pledge my sacred honor never to do.

(Signed).....

MRS. KATIE WERT HOLLER, State Supt. Sabbath Observance.

South Bend.

MERCY.

I again make an urgent appeal to you to have a Superintendent appointed for the Mercy department in each of your Unions, and make an earnest effort to have every woman within our own ranks carry out consistently the principles of kindness and mercy. Let us crystalize into our lives the resolution which was passed at our last State convention:

"Resolved, That it is the spirit of this Convention that the wearing of birds or their plumage is inconsistent with the Christian principle of kindness and mercy and that this same principle should be inculcated in the minds of the children of our White Ribbon women."

I hope yet to attend a convention where the badge of cruelty will not be carried aloft on the bonnets of my sisters, and I ask you one and all to help me to hasten the coming of His Kingdom here upon earth.

Do not forget the prizes I have offered this year, $1.00 worth of literature to the Superintendent who organizes the most bands of Mercy, aggregating the largest number of members. $1.50 worth of literature to the Superintendent who secures the most signatures to the Bird pledge. Here it is. If you want a printed one, send to me: "We, whose names are hereunto affixed, hereby express our disapproval of the practice of wearing the bodies, wings or feathers of birds, as a part of our clothing or head gear and we call upon all right minded women to use their influence against it."

Another point I wish to emphasize. Superintendents, please send me a report of what you have done by March 15th. We will thus have a quarterly report. Let us try that plan. Just write me a letter, telling all you have done.

THE DUMB BRUTES.

Blest are they whom the creatures bless!
And yet that wealth of tenderness
In look, in gesture, in caress,
By which our hearts they touch,
Might well the thoughtful spirit grieve,
Believing as we must believe
How little they from man receive,
To whom they give so much.

LOU E. RALL,

Huntington, Ind. State Superintendent.

HADLEY INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

From experience I have learned that persons never tire of hearing about their children, unless the report be unfavorable. I assure you this is not the case at present. Your children are all well and better contented than the average child in its home. The officers in charge are faithful and loyal to their trust. But what about our girls who are knocking at our doors for admission and needing a home and mother's heart to sympathize with them in their childish trouble? Must we turn a deaf ear to their cry? Our Superintendent writes that a few things must be furnished before she can make other girls comfortable in the home. More blankets and ticks are demanded. Also a large heating stove for the dining room. The present one is unfit for use, and the dining-room has been abandoned, crowding all into the kitchen, which is full and overflowing.

During one week we received three applications for admission into our Home. One Union writes, "There is a little girl in our town eleven years of age, whose mother died three years ago. The father has been keeping house and has this little girl with him; but we notice she is much of the time on the street; and her father has given his consent for us to place her in 'our home,' and we would like to get her in just as soon as possible. Our Union is willing to do its part by her. Please send admission blank, etc."

Now sisters, here is an opportunity to help this little one to a protected home.

"No man having put his hand to the plow and looking back, is fit for the Kingdom of God." (Luke 9:62) Dear sisters, we have said: send her on, believing you will stand by us and extend a helping hand.

Allow me to make a suggestion to our sisters who are raising poultry. It has been said that the income from a good smart hen is not less than $2.50 per year. Who of you can refuse this work; at least half the profits from one hen? And now to those who do not raise poultry. You will not refuse us one month's "pin money" out of the twelve months of the year.

We promise to watch the markets (this would be a good time to buy the stove), and make the best possible use of your offerings to this cause.

LUCHETIA HOBART.

A LETTER.

Perhaps a few words concerning the girls and school of the "Industrial Home" will be of interest to you.

We now have twenty-four girls at the Home, two having been added to our number during the past few weeks; one, Bertha Townsend, from Marion, the other, Lucile Clemens, from Greensboro.

We feel the girls are doing very well. They are all bright, intelligent and most of them are quite studious.

The first six grades are represented in the school and the regular outline of work is followed.

Every Friday afternoon is devoted to sewing, such as piecing quilt-blocks, hemming towels and napkins, mending, making garments, etc. The girls do very well in sewing and it is really surprising to see how well some of the smallest girls can sew.

Three of the girls take music lessons and learn quite rapidly.

February 17th we recognize as a "Frances Willard Day," celebrating the first anniversary of her birth into the "Heavenly World," by a temperance program, consisting of an essay on the life of Miss Willard, temperance recitations, songs and several patriotic pieces; one being red, white and blue march and drill.

Miss Hobart made us quite a visit during the past month. We also enjoyed visits from Mrs. Socwell, of Indianapolis, our Corresponding Secretary; and Mrs. Hessong, of Broad Ripple, our Treasurer.

We are very grateful to the LaPorte Union for a barrel of lovely canned fruit, also for a large box of quilt pieces, both of which we appreciate very much.

CORA L. ANGELL,

Teacher of the Hadly Industrial School.

PROMOTED.

Kate E. Mendenhall of Amo, Ind., President of Amo Union and highly honored trustee of the W. C. T. U. Industrial School for Girls, after a long and very painful illness on the evening of March 19th, 1899, put off the mortal and was clothed upon with her house from Heaven. Her life was truly a living epistle known and read of all who knew her.

Her interest in the Industrial School never abated, saying ever after her close was near that she loved those little girls as well as her own children. And while some in her Union would sometimes seem to waver in the good work she, with her solid judgment was steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord. Many can now and others will rise up and call her blessed.

EXTRACTS FROM EXECUTIVE MINUTES.

Executive Committee met in the First Presbyterian Church in Wabash, Ind., March 29 and 30. After devotions and roll call, the business of the session was begun.

Moved and carried, that Miss Belle Kearny, of Mississippi, be brought into the State for such time as pledges can be secured, beginning the work at the time of the State Convention.

Organization was introduced and life membership recommended and urged as a means of providing a fund for the work in unorganized counties.

Moved and carried, that we recommend another Oratorical Medal Contest campaign or any other educational entertainment for the benefit of the Industrial School, fixing the limit of time September 15, so as to have the work accomplished given in our annual report.

By motion of Mrs. Outland, it was directed that all money intended for the Industrial School be sent directly to the Treasurer of the Board of the School, except the transfer of real estate, which shall pass through the hands of the State W. C. T. U. Treasurer.

By motion, the committee directed the Superintendent to make a monthly itemized account of the finances of the Home to the Treasurer of the Board.

By motion of Mrs. Paxton, recommended that each County President give or pledge 50 cents to aid in keeping the public school teacher two months more in the Home.

Moved that we ask all W. C. T. U. and Prohibition speakers to give at least two free speeches per month in behalf of our cause, and that a roster of the same be printed in our State paper when space will admit.

Resolved, That the members of the Mid-Year Executive Committee of the W. C. T. U. petition the House to expel Mr. B. H. Roberts in the interest of public morality, because he is not only an avowed polygamist, but also a covenant breaker, having married all his polygamous wives since the Edmunds anti-polygamy law of 1883, or since the congressional anti-polygamy law of 1862, so that these marriages are in open defiance of law as well as in defiance of the sense of morality of the American people.

Moved by Mrs. Balch, that the 50 cent fund for the expense of State Convention be collected and sent to the State Treasurer before State Convention. Motion prevailed.

It was also recommended that the amount be sent with the dues in the last quarter.

M. O. CAMMACK,
Recording Secretary.

ENCOURAGEMENT.

For those who sometimes feel discouraged now that so many societies are springing up with large membership, I can but wish all such could attend some of these large gatherings. At the National Councils' Tribunal which closed on the 21st of February, one of the most prominent women of the east commenced her report on Social Purity by saying, "The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the most wonderful reform organization ever known, as respects breadth of plan in its work, specialized education and economy of force in leadership. Missionary spreading of its propaganda and its development of the average adult and untrained womanhood in the direction of social service. The author of the above is not a member of a W. C. T. U., and so it was with many who were prominent workers in the Council, but no two women were shown so much consecutive courtesy during that eight day's session, as was our National President and Miss Gordan. Finally the next meeting of the National Executive of the Council was left unspecified until it was positively known whether or not it would conflict with the annual national meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. No meeting of the Council called out so large a body of people as the Memorial services of Miss Willard, who was the first President of the Council. Many White Ribboners were scattered through the entire session of the Council as delegates and committee women. And when the resolution against the canteen was read, it was unanimously endorsed, and when Mrs. Stevens asked that the Council's appeal go forth to the Illinois legislature in behalf of Miss Willard's statue being placed in statuary hall in Washington, a telegram was forwarded immediately. Whether the representatives of this twelve hundred and fifty of said membership turned the balance in our favor will perhaps never be known—any way the Illinois legislator could not feel comfortable in knowing he would not be criticized by this vast array of womanhood outside of the White Ribbon host.

These and many minor incidents in mixing with so-called outsiders are convincing evidence that we not only have the respect and confidence of this vast organization, which is destined to become the largest organized body of women in the world, but co-workers as well. So I can say I never felt more encouraged. I never experienced such a baptism of inspiration and enthusiasm from attending any meeting. So let us push on with our hearts filled with gratitude to our Heavenly father, that in some way and some how He led us to don the little white ribbon in His name.

MARY A. MOODY.

LETTER FROM OUR STATE ORGANIZER, MRS. M. O. CAMMACK.

Early in January I accepted an invitation to Huntington County. Mrs. Lou Rall is County President now. Miss Mary Mohler has served them long and faithfully, but is quite willing that some one else may try their hand at it awhile.

Our first place was at Warren. Mrs. Lydia Worly was at the depot to meet us. How it always gladdens our hearts to see a woman on the platform, labled with the white ribbon and a smile of welcome. Mrs. Rall met us there. We held two woman's meetings, two night meetings, secured five subscriptions to MESSAGE and four new members.

Mrs. Dr. Wall, who has been a devout white ribboner, was sick a bed and could not attend any of our meetings. We pray her zeal for the work will return with her strength. We were to have held a meeting at Kelso on our way to Huntington, but religious services prevented an appointment, and we pressed on to Huntington through an all day rain. Mrs. Rall suffered some inconvenience from a 14 mile wet trip, but your organizer is so weather beaten it had no perceptible effect upon her. Huntington Union is reaching up and out, having a good program, and is making a strong effort to educate the women on the various lines of work.

Two meetings with women were held and two lectures at night, also, these to small but appreciative audiences. Six new members and five subscriptions to MESSAGE were gained. We visited the high school, where we were given the privilege of speaking on one of our themes—scientific temperance. Teachers expressed their gratitude for our call. Andrews was our next point. Here we met Brother Johnnie Cain, pastor of M. E. Church, who is a brave man; he is neither afraid of a woman nor the temperance work and freely opened his church for our meetings. Allowed us to preach at 11 o'clock on Sabbath and lecture in the evening from our scientific temperance charts. He made an extra effort to have the young people present and we had them. We were so drawn out by the earnest expectant faces before us, that we talked an hour and half, and then, some said "why did you stop so soon?"

Brother Cain does not think that a temperance meeting sets the cause of religion back twenty years. God give us more such men. From Andrews we went to Grant County, where we did some public school work under the direction of John Stewart, who is a member of Friends Church and a member of the quarterly meetings temperance committee. He helps and encourages the temperance speakers.

Sunday, January 15, spoke in M. E. Church at Jonesboro. The pastor was sick and his wife had preached in the morning, so you see it was a woman's day.

January 21, by telegram, was sent to Randolph County. Reached Ridgeville Saturday evening and found we could make no connection for Winchester, the place we hoped to reach for Sabbath, so we went to Mrs. Dr. Forguher's and found her the same earnest, true W. C. T. U. woman of former years.

Her time and attention is now greatly devoted to an aged mother who is in her home. Mrs. Farquher has been greatly afflicted by rheumatism. However, she hurried about, made arrangements for a talk to the Junior C. E. at the Baptist Church on Sabbath, followed by a meeting with the women, and a lecture at the M. E. Church in the evening. Our work in this county was for Woman's Suffrage, and as we went into the county unannounced it consumed time and drew on our faith and patience to get our work in.

BENTON COUNTY.

Dear MESSAGE, how we do appreciate you. You are here ready to tell us just what you want done and what is being done in Indiana. Would that you visited every Indiana W. C. T. U., for a woman who is interested wants you, and what a mighty army for good we would be if all were so interested.

Benton County held spring institute at Lochiel, February 22, 23, 24. Mrs. McWhirter spoke on Wednesday night to a full house in her sweet, convincing manner. Her words sank deep, for many were moved to join our ranks. We are arranging for Normal Institute in April and will have Miss Sears two weeks in June and hope that many girls may be interested in our work. Benton County is moving on, sending a club of 15 for the MESSAGE.

MRS. C. B. MADDOX,
Otterbein, Ind. Superintendent.

HANCOCK COUNTY INSTITUTE

At Greenfield the State workers were met at station by White Ribboners, including the County President, Mrs. Ada New. At the Christian Church we were royally welcomed by the beautiful decorations and complete arrangements for the Institute. Program had been well filled by local and county workers, including ministers, educators and other leading citizens. The papers and addresses on the different topics were followed by discussion, which awakened much enthusiasm from the opening meeting till the close of the session.

Contest had been arranged for in the minutest detail, including excellent music. The class was greeted with a crowded and appreciative house. The medal was won by Miss Ruth Seicrest.

There were eighteen accessions to the membership—six W's, nine Y's and three honoraries.

One subscription to Union Signal, twenty-four for MESSAGE, with a prospect of a subscription list to equal the county membership.

Western Grove is the banner Local Union in its subscription to the State paper, its list being equal to its membership.

TIPPECANOE.

Tippecanoe County observed Railroad Day, March 5 by a sermon by Dr. T. J. Bassett in St. Paul's church to railroad men in the morning, and by Dr. C. B. Wilcox in Willard hall in the afternoon. To both of these services the different railroad orders and shopmen, as well as street car men, were invited to attend in a body, both these sessions being largely attended. At Willard Hall the music was an especial feature, Prof. Kinsey's choral club doing excellent service, and Harry Gast gave two selections on twelve beer bottles tied with white ribbons, showing a good use for beer bottles. Miss Myrtle Kinsey and Prof. Bollers, of Pittsburg, Pa., sang a duet which was fine and heartily applauded and altogether it was a success. Mrs. Josephine Bennett, County Superintendent of Railroad work, had the hearty co-operation of Mrs. Addie Socese, State Superintendent, and Mrs. J. F. Kinsey and Mrs. Alice Gast, President and Local Superintendent of LaFayette Union—all working for the success of the meeting.

GLEANINGS FROM ELKHART COUNTY.

All the Unions in Elkhart county observed Frances E. Willard's Heavenly birthday. Not so much of her death as her useful life was spoken of. The meetings were full of interest and very profitable, a great many visitors being present. The collections were a financial success, each Union having some left in their treasury after sending the $2.00 asked for to the National. March 1st, we observed Mrs. Lillian Stevens' birthday. The program consisted of appropriate readings concerning her life and an attempt to get better acquainted with our National President. An earnest effort was made to double our subscription list for the Union Signal. The greatest effort of our county is the financial department. We make and sell quilts, also give W. C. T. U. entertainments.

Goshen Union gave an entertainment, preparing an excellent program, consisting of recitations, solos and pantomimes. A mandolin orchestra and chorus was also part of the program. Considering the weather, we had a good attendance.

Some departments do better work than others and some Superintendents do better work than others. I presume it is like Christianity, we must be thoroughly converted and understand our duty before we feel the necessity of keeping everlastingly at it. Goshen Union has taken up a new department. Two poor little girls escaped the reform school through the kindness of the W. C. T. U., the ladies appearing in court, asking the judge for the girls and finding them good homes.

We feel we have done our full duty and when we see the pleasure and joy manifested by the worse than orphan children who were thrust unmercifully into the cold world by their unnatural parents, we are amply repaid.

We met in the parlors of Rev. Mrs. M. A. Tompkins for our Executive Committee meeting.

We will entertain an Institute April 21 and 22.

The three departments to receive special attention this year are Suffrage, Organization and Increase of Membership.

Nappanee Union will entertain the County Convention in September, when the following subjects will be discussed: Is the Saloon necessary? Moral Courage; Are the members of the W. C. T. U. doing their duty? Objection to Mothers Meetings; Value of the Press. Forty scientific arguments against the use of alcohol. Ten scientific arguments against the use of tobacco. Advancement of the enfranchisement of women State and National papers.

It was suggested everybody attending Institutes and Conventions bring their lunch in order that everyone desiring could attend every session and thereby be benefited from the excellent papers and earnest discussions that follows them.

Most cordially yours,

MRS. A. P. DAUB,
Elkhart County Superintendent of Press Work. Goshen, Ind.

GRANT COUNTY HEADS THE ROLL.

Its membership is steadily increasing and its list of Unions grows longer. It has given our Recording Secretary and Organizer over a month's work and did not consider the fifteen dollars a week, too much to pay. Deer Creek Union is so large its regular meetings take on the appearance of a convention.

MISS MARIE BREHM'S SOJOURN IN INDIANA.

The Indiana W. C. T. U. is again to be congratulated upon bringing into the State the gifted speaker Miss Marie C. Brehm, National Superintendent of Franchise. The nine weeks spent in our State in the interest of her department might have been lengthened into several more weeks had not other engagements called her elsewhere. Her work in the legislature was highly gratifying to all. Many members of the legislature have said that her speeches before the committees were the most forceful of any they heard during the session and that the Indiana W. C. T. U. was fortunate in securing such a fine helper to present their cause to the legislators of this state.

The popularity of Miss Brehm as a lecturer was proven by the crowded houses that often greeted her. At the Friends Church in Indianapolis, she was greeted with good and appreciative audiences, many saying, "we must have her soon for an entire week's work." Speaking of her work a Nappanee paper says: "In her speech she presented a very forceful argument in favor of Woman's Suffrage. She exploded the fallacious conclusion that the home and its sacred influence were in great danger in case woman was given the ballot which would bring her in touch with corrupt politics." Center Union writes, "Those who failed to hear Miss Brehm at their place missed a fine treat." Richmond reported fine meetings and a masterly presentation of her subjects. Friendswood says—everybody is delighted with her. Nine new members added and a chorus club organized. At Pendleton she occupied the pulpit during revival meetings. All were gratified. Miss Brehm spent the coldest week of the winter at Anderson, and despite the severity of the weather was greeted with good and appreciative audiences. A well filled house greeted her Sunday morning. In the evening the seating capacity of the church was tested. In the afternoon she spoke to the young men of the Y. M. C. A., this being the second call she has received from them. The large reception given on Friday at the home of Mrs. Leib, in honor of Miss Brehm, was an enjoyable occasion and of unusual interest.

The week's work in Elwood was certainly a banner week. Much enthusiasm throughout. One hundred new members, including honoraries, gained. A chorus club organized. The Courier says: "Miss Brehm is a wonderful talker and has no peers." Her pleas were ably made and her subjects admirably handled. Rallies were held each afternoon and largely attended by these earnest women. Her utterances were classic and of the highest order. Subjects all practical, and dealt with in a business-like manner. At no time common-place and uninteresting. Houses packed each evening. Towards the close of the week many were turned away. Nothing was left undone to make these meetings a success.

At Frankfort our speaker was greeted with large audiences; only words of praise were heard of her. The Press said, "She is an attractive speaker and wins her admirers by her clean-cut, convincing arguments." While in Clinton County she spoke at Camden, Jefferson, Mulberry and Sedalia. All were greatly pleased with her. From a Frankton paper I quote the following: "Miss Brehm is an able exponent of the franchise subject. Her lecture is strong in logic. She awakened a dormant sentiment at this place, the result of which is likely to do the cause much good. A few speakers like Miss Brehm will do the W. C. T. U. organization great good." Atlanta Press: "Miss Brehm is a clear, forcible speaker, a conscientious christian and an ardent advocate of woman suffrage. Her lecture abounded in wit, humor and pathos.

Franklin well pleased and hopes to have her again. Greensburg reports meetings a success. Special seats were reserved for ministers, teachers and editors.

At Shelbyville the weather was very inclement in the morning, yet there was a good audience. In the evening she spoke to a large audience. People so well pleased they want her as soon as available, for an entire week.

Shoals starts out with renewed energy since Miss Brehm's visit. Meetings at Loggootee were quite enthusiastic and showed their appreciation by an extra money donation. Mt. Vernon so well pleased, they have engaged her for ten days or two weeks' work when available. Martinsville, Monrovia and Centerton, as usual, are profuse in their appreciation of her work in Morgan county. A new Union was organized at Centerton. In regard to her work many ministers have said, "You can occupy my pulpit at any time." During her stay in the State about 200 members have been added to our list and Miss Brehm has added many ardent friends and admirers to her already long list. That she may live long and continue in this noble work, coming back as often as possible, is the desire of the Indiana W. C. T. U.

A LETTER FROM PRESIDENT OF LEBANON UNION TO MRS. McWHIRTER.

You will pardon my seeming neglect of your favor when you learn of the serious illness in my home. My husband, my sister and myself, all very low with lagrippe and pneumonia. I am not able to be up yet. I am so sorry to have kept you waiting, but I have not been idle.

I called a meeting. Our Union met with me and we approved and indorsed the "Schedule Plan and dates" and will do everything in our power to help the good work along. We need help here badly. So many saloons, pool tables, bowling alleys, etc.

Our Union was organized in September, 1898, with only six members. We went bravely to work and in three months we doubled our membership, every member a devoted Christian woman. We canvassed the city and succeeded in having the curfew law passed and we see that it is not violated. We held one public meeting, a mothers' meeting, which gave general satisfaction and was highly spoken of in the daily and county papers. We were gradually gaining a foothold when the epidemic, lagrippe, came upon the city like a cyclone.

It fastened its grip upon every member of my household and I was very low when the W. C. T. U. meeting was due. They held one meeting and I was not present.

Then for over two months they met at my home every two weeks. We held interesting meetings. Although I was not able to sit up or take charge, I tried to do what I could. The prayers and songs were so helpful and uplifting and we all loved each other so. We worked in harmony and were so very anxious to do good that some of my friends and neighbors were constrained to join our Union.

I am not able to hold a pen to write. Pardon my long letter, my heart is so full of this work and the need is so great in our city.

In all good work we are ready to help.

URSHA DARNELL.

STATE SUPERINTENDENTS, NOTICE.

It was the voice of the Board of Superintendents at the mid-year executive meeting at Wabash that we accept the invitation to hold a two days Conference in Goodland, June 20 and 21, 1899.

The program will appear in the next issue of the "Message." All Superintendents of Departments, Secretaries of Branches, Organizers, Musical Directors and State Officers are requested to be present. The time will be given to a presentation and discussion of our work. It is very important that the Board of Superintendents be better organized and we hope the Superintendents will feel the importance of the meeting and, if possible, be present.

BATTLE HYMN OF THE W. C. T. U.

The light of truth is breaking,
On the mountain tops it gleams;
Let it flash along our valleys,
Let it glitter on our streams,
Till all our land awakens
In its flush of golden beams.
Our God is marching on.

CHORUS—Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Our God is marching on—

With a purpose strong and steady,
In the great Jehova's name,
We rise to snatch our kindred
From the depths of woe and shame,
And the jubilee of freedom
To the slaves of sin proclaim.
Our God is marching on—CHORUS.

From morning's early watches
Till the setting of the sun,
We will never flag nor falter
In the work we have begun
Till the forts have all surrendered
And the victory is won.
Our God is marching on.—CHORUS.

In Alaska the age of protection for girls has been raised from 14 to 16 years of age.

Arkansas Legislature has passed a scientific temperance education law. Mrs. Mildred Dorsey, President of the W. C. T. U. of Arkansas championed the bill—speaking for it before the committees and as head of the forces of the State, doing much for it.

Secretary Long, of the Navy, has abolished by his general order, the sale or issuance of any kind of intoxicating liquors to the enlisted men. This victory came not as the result of influence or political pressure, but is a triumph of the cause on its merits.

Local Unions of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in many of the States are celebrating their 25th anniversaries as a great number have already reached their quarter century mile post. The next National Convention to be held at Seattle, Washington, will be October 20-25. The commemoration also of twenty-five years as a National organization. Special notice will be given to this feature of the meeting.

Mrs. Hannah J. Baily, Superintendent of Department of Peace and Arbitration, and the officers of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the presidents of all the states have sent letters to the members of the Peace Conference voicing their appreciation of the peace sentiments as expressed by Nicholas II, Czar of Russia, and praying that effectual means may be found whereby universal peace may be brought about and thereafter maintained throughout the world. A program for peace meetings was given in the Union Signal, and Unions are urged all over the country to hold peace meetings on or as near May 18th as possible.

Both days of the Union County Institute, held at Liberty, the ministers, teachers and business men were all invited to dinner. About two hundred and fifty people dined with the institute each day. An excellent paper on "How to Use the Press to Promote Reform" was read by Editor E. E. Moore, of College Corner Chronicle. Editor C. W. Stevens, of the Liberty Herald, followed with strong words. The Liberty Review said:

"During the Temperance Congress last week Liberty was visited by a large number of the best people of Union and adjoining counties. Our visitors were cordially entertained and expressed their appreciation of Liberty hospitality in many ways."

We are rejoiced over the following notable victories achieved during the past few weeks:

First is the action of the Illinois legislature in appropriating $9,000 for a statue of Francis E. Willard, LL. D., to be placed in Statuary Hall of the National Capitol, Washington, D. C. The 38th Congress "authorized the President to invite each and all the States to provide and furnish statues of marble or bronze, not to exceed two in number, of the State's illustrious deceased citizens;" and as Illinois has but one statue (General Shields) it left the way open for the placing of Miss Willard's with those likewise honored by sister States. This is a recognition of women in helping to make this country what it is, and it is eminently fitted that our peerless leader should be the first woman to be so honored, and her gracious presence amid those silent heroes will make even that historic hall seem homelike and pave the way for woman, not only to stand amid the statues of the great and powerful of our country, but to sit in council as well as in national legislative halls.

Chief of greatest of the victories of 1899, is the overthrow of the "army canteen." This too, in spite of all the political influence that the liquor traffic has been able to bring to bear; in spite of its power to intimidate and corrupt officials; in spite of its timidity of a time-serving administration and the services of a prostituted press, the congress of the United States has legislated it out of existence. No such outrage has ever been perpetrated by one high in authority as the attempt of Attorney-General Griggs and Secretary of War Alger to annul this law against the canteen. The passage of the law by Congress was at the expressed desire of the people. Now two men in high positions give such interpretation to it as would allow the canteen to remain by substituting civilians to act as bartenders instead of soldiers. For shame! Will the President of the United States allow such unprecedented proceedings, or will he stand by the action of Congress? He had the authority as Commander in Chief of the Army to abolish the canteen, but refused to do so. Will he now express himself? Why don't he stand for the protection of the young manhood of this nation that goes out under the stars and stripes?

Medical professors in the universities and practicing physicians in Germany are pushing the study of the alcohol problem with a determined hand. They are finally thoroughly aroused upon the subject, are organizing societies, instituting courses of lectures and public discussions on the subject, and producing a most valuable series of scientific addresses in the interests of total abstinence. The Internationale Monatschriftzer Bekaempfung der Trinksitten, their official organ, now enters upon its eighth year of scholarly work. It is an international German monthly to overcome the drink customs. Die Freiheit, another monthly to overcome the tyranny of drink, is also published by their Alkolgeguerbund (Anti-Alcohol League) in Basle.

Recently, during the second annual convention of the German Medical Total Abstinence Society, which met in Braunschwig, a petition was sent by the assembled physicians to the Prussian Minister of Public Instruction demanding in all schools temperance teaching by means of tables of statistics and of drawing to show the effect of alcohol upon the human system and in self interest the practice of total abstinence during the school period. Discussions regarding the best methods of imparting instructions formed a valuable part of the conventional program. The Trueper Institution near Jena, in Germany has adopted total abstinence.

Prof. Dr. Ford, of Zurich Institution, of Zurich, presides over this Association of eighty German abstaining physicians.

A new German total abstinence journal has just been launched in Lutzenburg, Holstein. It is the organ of the German Teachers Abstinence Association and is called Die Enthaltamkeit.

TO WHITE RIBBONERS.

The anti-polygamy fight should be begun at once, by seeking to convert two thirds of Congress to the avowed purpose of exclusion before Congress meets, and before the members are converted to the other side. Will you see that your Congressmen are called upon by individuals and deputations while they are at home, beginning at the earliest possible moment?

Will you also use your influence to have societies, churches, clubs, public meetings and Unions to adopt as early as possible the following or a similar resolution:

"Resolved that we hereby authorize the presiding officer of this meeting to appeal to President McKinley, in our behalf, to carry the anti-canteen law into full force and effect in accordance with its natural meaning, and the intent of Congress, by issuing an order as commander-in-chief of the Army, suppressing all liquor selling in the army, at least until the opinion of the Attorney General shall be finally tested in the courts."

We believe that you will bring these matters to the personal attention of your members. It is an opportunity to do great things by a comparatively small effort.

Hoping for triumphant success in these and all lines of our work, we remain, Yours cordially,

LILLIAN M. N. STEVENS Pres. N. W. C. T. U.
SUSANNA M. D. FRY, Cor. Sec.

NEED FOR LITERATURE.

To Be Read in Each Local Union.

During the three years of my superintendency of work among colored people in Indiana W. C. T. U. I have, in reply to the many requests sent for literature, always referred those making the requests to the liberal and varied supply of general literature kept at our National Headquarters, directing that such leaflets etc., be selected as were best suited to the several needs.

It will be observed by reference to our W. T. P. A. catalogue, that for this department there are no special leaflets published. After having, for some time, given the subject careful consideration and having consulted a number of our workers, it became clear to my mind that the first and greatest need of the department was literature applying especially to it.

Mrs. Thurman our National Superintendent, wrote, in reply to my letter to her concerning the matter, that on account of her time being so wholly occupied with field work, that it would be impossible, at present, to give any time to the subject. Being thus left to my own resources I have, myself, prepared three leaflets.

The first, "Our Common Foe," is an appeal to our women and is intended to help them to realize their obligation to the colored people and to consider what added strength our cause may receive by securing their co-operation.

The second, "Suggestive Hints to Workers," is simply what its title indicates.

The third, "Mrs. Lucy Thurman, Our Pioneer in Work Among Colored People," has upon its cover, the picture of our national superintendent and contains a brief biographical sketch of her life and labors in the W. C. T. U. By request of the editor of the Union Signal this sketch in part was recently published in that paper.

The leaflet, however, contains a fuller account of Mrs. Thurman's work in the south, and other items of interest, than could be given in the Signal.

I have sent out requests to a number of our White Ribboners in the State asking for names and addresses of representative colored people, and the replies have been very encouraging, still comparatively few localities can be reached in this way. That as wide a circulation as possible be given these leaflets and other literature which I may wish to send out I ask our White Ribbon women and other friends of the cause kindly to send to me names and addresses of any persons to whom they wish samples sent.

No charge is made for them, and all requests will receive immediate response until the supply and funds for mailing them are exhausted. However, a two cent stamp for samples, or ten cents for one hundred of each of the three leaflets, enclosed in your letter will help along the work and will carefully be reported by me at the close of the year.

By the action of the late Mid Year State Executive Committee I shall be able this year to send out blanks for reports. I trust our workers will carefully note every item of work done, so that when reporting time comes nothing will be forgotten.

This is the most encouraging year I have had in this work, I know that God is leading the women of our state who have hearkened to His call to this field. Lack of space forbids giving extracts from letters received, but sisters, keep right on. I hope that others may write me of what they have done, or purpose doing, giving me names of county and local superintendents.

Organize unions if you can. The women, as a rule, desire this, but if you can not do so continue to sow the seed remembering that she, "That goeth forth with weeping bearing precious seed will doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing her sheaves with her."

3346 Central Ave., Indianapolis.

Department of Parliamentary Usage.

The plan in this department has been the study of the "Subsidiary Questions"—but so many inquiries come as to the necessary things to be taught and the best method of teaching especially new members, that very definite answers are required. So it is well to return and lay again the foundation of first principles, as what is meant by Parliamentary Usage, the necessity and manner of obtaining the floor; the proper form of making a motion; the rights and privileges of debate; the proper manner of adjourning about amendments; the main question or principal motion; the different forms and limitations of voting; what constitutes a quorum, etc.

Parliamentary Usages are so connected, that following out one line a great deal is learned about others. It might be well to make a specialty of the "Privileged Questions," the more advanced report taking up Organization, Committees and Resolutions. Some write asking what a drill is. It is any form of the study the superintendent or leader chooses. She may consider herself a teacher and the members of the Union a class and ask them any set of ten, twenty or thirty questions selected, and if they do not know the answers tell them, and have the members repeat them until all—not one or two women, but all—can answer promptly. Then proceed to the next set or lesson. Ten or fifteen minutes exercise of this kind at every meeting of the Union would be well spent and show great results in this department.

Another kind of drill for those who are more advanced is to practice on a motion and carry it through as many usages as possible.

Every Union should have for reference "Robert's Rules of Order," because it is the adopted authority of the W. C. T. U. and also a more simplified or easier work for study.

I have recommended Mrs. Lillian Cole-Bethel's Compendium or Question book for study (there may be others quite as good) and advise beginning on page 11, the first two questions, then skip to 14th question on page 12, continuing through pages 13, 14 and 15, then pages 32, 33, and on 35 concerning the main question, then about voting on pages 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43 and 49 and 50. Of course these questions are only a foundation but any women thoroughly understanding these will know what is being done, and what to do, in whatever meeting they are, and are fully prepared for more advanced causes, and will wish to continue the study.

The report blanks have not yet been sent in to all the counties but will be soon, and in case any Union should fail to get one the questions to be answered are given here, the local making a report to the county and the county to me. If the county is unorganized the local should report directly to me. 1. How many Unions in your county? 2. How many practice Parliamentary Laws? 3. How many drills have been conducted in your Unions? 4. How many at your County Conventions? 5. Do the women practice Parliamentary Laws? 6. What helps do you use? 7. Name of County Superintendent or Local if county is unorganized.

Goodland, Ind. E. D. HARDY, State Sup't.

Press.

The plan of saving clipping from the newspapers and pasting them in column form, is being received with much favor by the press superintendents, and they are responding loyally to the call for this work. We were glad to be able to show more than 76 feet of printed matter at the mid-year meeting as the result of the first six weeks' work since the plan was published in the MESSAGE. I hope to have many hundred feet to take to the State Convention and to send to the National at Seattle, and earnestly desire that every county in Indiana be represented in this rather unique display. Will the president of each local Union see that a press superintendent is appointed who will attend to this work in her Union?

There is one honor that Indiana failed to secure at the last National Convention, and that was the silver star, awarded to the State press superintendent showing the best report. We have been urged to work for it this year. Shall we not make an extra effort to win it? I am told the prize was given for greatest amount of work done and correctness in detail in reporting. Let me again urge the superintendents to keep careful record of their work so as to be able to report the number of columns furnished the press. Some otherwise good reports, lack the answer to this question and count for nought in the general summing up of the amount of work. If there is any estimating to be done please do not leave it to the State Superintendent, but give in figures the exact or approximate number. I am glad to state that the work of this department shows a good increase over that of last year and is still growing.

908 E. Walnut St. FLORENCE E. VANCE, State Sup't.

Christian Citizenship.

I was appointed State Superintendent of this department last October. The work being entirely new to me, my not being very strong physically, and other providential hindrances, made it impossible for me to do as much as I had anticipated. Realizing the fact that nothing could be accomplished without education on the subject, my first thought was to learn where I should find literature adapted to this department, and as I was from time to time referred to the next, I began to think I was Samantha Allen in Washington. She wrote to the National Superintendent of the department and her reply was that she also was new in the work, and had not arranged any plans for the work. My next best thing was to gather all information I could from other sources and depend upon my own judgment for the balance. Have now written seventy letters to county presidents and others. Have distributed sixty pages of literature, and given one address. I give the temperance news every two weeks in the Current Event department of Progress Club, of South Bend. In this way I reach an influential class of women who never contact with W. C. T. U. work. Am now on the program for a talk on temperance before said club in May. My idea is to quietly and unostentatiously weave temperance in wherever I can, and reach, if possible, people of influence, that our work may have a wider scope. Have sent instructions, such as I had gathered, to nine local superintendents.

On March 17th was agreeably surprised on receiving plans for work from National Superintendent, which am now sending out to county superintendents. Two lectures have been given and one reception. 460 pages of literature have been distributed. Nine counties have been heard from and all are making a beginning. Received five dollars State appropriation; also forty cents from Miss Brooks, of Loogootee Union. Have spent for stationery and leaflets $2.10. Realizing the fact that people need education on this subject, am trying to be judicious with this small amount, not using it for letter heads, etc., but using it in literature where I think it will be of more value.

May the Lord open the way to touch the hearts of these grand and good women, whom I am trying to reach.

M. ALMIRA L. STAPLES, State Sup't.

Work Among Miners.

"At no period in our history has the necessity for Christian temperance work among miners been more apparent than in the closing years of this century of social regeneration." If there is not a superintendent in every county of this department, I urge the appointment of one. If you have mines in your vicinity procure the names of all the workmen from the superintendent and then visit each home systematically.

1. How many miners employed?
2. How many homes visited by your workers?
3. How many of the men, women and children are Christians?
4. How many conversions this year?
5. How many miners' wives are members of the W. C. T. U.
6. How many miners and their children are in Sunday schools.
7. Have you a mercy band.
8. How many children in industrial school and L. T. L.
9. Have you a night school.
10. How many Bibles have been distributed?
11. How many pages of literature have been distributed?
12. How many scrap books to miners' children?
13. How many temperance meetings held?
14. How many signed the pledge?
15. How many saloons are in reach of your miners?
16. How many appeals to the mining companies for aid in your work and what result?

Questions to be answered in counties where there are no miners

1. To how many men do you send literature?
2. How often do you send?
3. How many pages have you sent?
4. How much money have you expended?
5. How many letters have you sent to the men.
6. How many replies have you received?
7. What other work have you done for miners?

Will not every local superintendent do her best in carrying out these plans, as they are the questions your State Superintendent has to report to the National Superintendent.

ELLEN K. DENNY, State Sud't., work among miners.

Equal Suffrage.

The address, given at Franklin on Thursday evening, March 2nd by Miss Marie C. Brehm, national superintendent of franchise on equal suffrage, was unusually good.

"In the beginning," she said, "God created the heavens and the earth and all that in them is," and said it is good. "Then he created man," and for the first time said, "It is not good for man to be alone; I will make him an helpmeet." "Women are taxed," said she, while not entitled to representation. And the oft repeated excuse for denying the ballot to women, that "Female suffrage would require women to take up arms in national conflict," was proven by Miss Brehm to be no bar to the ballot for; all men over forty-five years of age, and all men who are incapable through physical disability of taking up arms are exempted. She also made it plain that equal responsibility of parents in the care of children required equal rights to the ballot box. The plea that "if women voted bad women would be entitled to the ballot, and that there are more bad women than bad men," was also refuted by her. She proved that morality of women not only equals but exceeds that of men, as the number of men in prisons and saloons, the two lowest institutions, is much greater than that of women, while in the church, the very highest institution on earth, the women outnumber the men, the per cent of women being about three-fourths. It was also proved by her, very conclusively, that women are not lacking in intellectual requirements necessary to eligibility at the ballot box, from the vast number of girls and young women graduated every year from our schools and colleges. The well worn excuse that "women would vote just as their husbands did anyhow," was said by Miss Brehm not even believed by the men themselves to be true; "for," said she, "if the men believed it, they would every one of them pack up their grips at once go as quickly as possible to Washington, D. C., to intercede for an amendment to the constitution of the U. S., giving national suffrage to women." Another reason why Christians should advocate suffrage, she urged, was because state and national liquor leagues and brewers associations at all their conventions passed resolutions in favor of discouraging female suffrage, as they greatly fear the effect of woman's ballot on their business."

Co. Corres. Secy., W. C. T. U.

Report of Department of Household Evils.

I believe it safe to say that we all make our bow with grateful hearts; not to the Legislature that is to come, but to the one that is come and just retired, for all the reform legislation it has done. Our pure food law, as the result of their deliberations is without doubt second only to the one of the great State of New York. And now Sisters feel at perfect liberty to forward a sample of any food you have cause to suspect, to the Secretary of the State Board of Health, Dr. J. N. Hurty, State Home, Indianapolis, Ind.

I ask him to reply through the papers. This breaking up food adulteration is a co-operative work and each one of us share in the responsibility, if the law becomes effective. At our coming State convention I desire a report from every county, whether the penal and benevolent institutions have papered walls, painted, kalsomined or white-washed; whether or not they have wood carpets or the kind that harbors germs, microbes, etc. Such places should have as few draperies as possible and be supplied with modern bathing facilities. We have secured the promise from the powers that be, to plant fruit trees and vines in every available bit of ground belonging to our public institutions, as it is the testimony of physicians that more fruit should be used in their daily rations. Yours for health,

MARY A. MOODY.

Elwood Brehm W. C. T. U.

Miss Marie C. Brehm, our National Superintendent of Franchise, was with us a week beginning February 12th. She spoke in the M. E. church. We held Parlor meetings each afternoon.

February 17th we celebrated the Heavenly birthday of Francis E. Willard in a pleasing and effectual manner.

Miss Brehm is a woman of remarkable intellectual power and possesses wonderful executive ability, and is a forceful speaker. This was the second time Miss Brehm has been here. The first time, a year ago, and through her enthusiastic and energetic powers good seed was sown and the Brehm W. C. T. U. was organized, also the Ys.

We all wear Miss Brehm's pictures for badge pins showing to which Union we belong. We have done a good work in all departments, taken up by us, in the one year we have been organized, many having been added to our number.

We have a flourishing L. T. L.

We gave a reception for our new members, had a nice program and served refreshments. We also participated in a surprise given on the wife of one of our ministers. We had prayer, gospel songs, temperance recitations, and also served refreshments.

The Franchise petition was presented and all signed but two.

A great deal of interest was manifested by a number taking the pledge.

At our last regular meeting we had Bible reading. Subject, "Walking with God."

We are now joining in the effort to banish the use of liquor from the Soldiers' Homes.

Our subject is to abolish the entire liquor traffic, and we earnestly urge for an increase of interest along this line, and pray that we all may work diligently to this end.

MARY C. GIRTON.

Mrs. Ida Enbanks, treasurer of Gilford Union, of Dearborn County, writes: "We are few in number but strong in heart and we intend to do all in our power to make our Union a success. We held an open meeting last week with a good attendance and much good seed sown."

MARTIN COUNTY'S ODE.

(Tune: "Marching Through Georgia.")

Old Martin's heard the clarion call,
Her legion's so strong and brave;
She's working hard with might and main
The precious soul to save;
With solid front and banners gay,
The pinnacle she'll win,
Marching on to Victory.

(Chorus)

Hurrah! Hurrah! 'Tis Martin county's call;
Hurrah! Hurrah! For the bravest band of all.
We're fighting Satan's strongest hold,
Success is in the air;
Marching on to Victory!

Old Martin's aim is for the top,
Nor pause will she a jot;
But struggle on and upward where
The battle's raging hot;
Her emblem white is glistening
And beckons all to come,—
Marching on to Victory!

(Chorus)

When the glad last day has come to all,
You'll find her at the front;
With motto, blazoned on her brow,
"How well you stood the brunt!"
Her good work will be everywhere
In plainest evidence,—
Marching on to Victory!

(Chorus)

—ARTHUR CHARLES O'BRIAN.

The Temperance Women, of Dillsboro, seeing the urgent need of work in their town decided to circulate a remonstrance against Jacob Gerster, who had advertised preparatory to making application for license. It was in the month of February and the weather and roads could not have been worse. But the women, brave souls, buckled on the armor of faith and with the Heavenly Father as their guide started forth. They were successful, getting a majority of the voters of Clay township to sign. We have one saloon less today.

A short time ago a very interesting Peace meeting was held at the home of Robert Denny. The program consisted of short quotations from current press opinions on the subject, followed by selections from the MESSENGER and general discussion. Appropriate songs were also rendered.

The South Bend Willard Memorial Y gave a reception at the Y. M. C. A. last evening to members and their friends, and about 200 young people were present. After a fine program of music and recitations the young ladies served coffee and cake and a social time was enjoyed. More than a dozen new members were secured.

Mrs. Lenard, of South Bend, writes: "Our Institute is a success in every particular. Music fine, both instrumental and vocal. New members added. All Unions in the county have raised their membership fees to $1.00. Twenty-five cents of this is for the State paper. They hope every county in the State will do likewise."

Mrs. Burton, of South Bend, writes that their Institute was fine. The contest was greatly enjoyed. Miss Slick won the medal. She reports the new Y. as quite a success. The second open meeting will be held on the 9th. About 300 present at their first and 8 or 10 new members secured. 10 or 15 have promised to join at their next meeting.

Mrs. M. A. Holloway, of Lincolnville, writes: "I do not like to miss even one number of the dear MESSAGE, so please book me for one year's subscription, beginning with the April number and I will remit soon. I am the only White Ribbon in this place and you can not bend an old tree, but I am training the children and the day is not far off when there will be a Union here."

Our National Officers and Mrs. Hannah J. Bailey, National Superintendent of Peace and Arbitration, request that so far as possible every Union hold a Peace meeting in May. The Union Signal of April 27th contains a program which can be adapted to local conditions. Now is the time to take advantage of public interest in this subject and give the people a good bit of education while the iron is hot.

Mrs. Anderman, of Hartford City, writes: I read your letter in which you urge each member to subscribe for the MESSAGE. The President and Superintendent of Literature followed with a few words of earnest appeal, in a few minutes 12 names were added to our club of 19, making 31 copies for our Union. One of our members who moved seven miles in the country nearly two years ago sent her report. She said she still wore the white ribbon on her breast and in her heart. She had distributed 800 pages of literature, sent 25 bouquets with a card, verse and knot of white ribbon, had a S. S. class in her own home and had fitted up a room in a detached building with a gas stove and comfortable bed in which she let men sleep who were walking through the country. The Union instructed the Secretary to send her a note of loving sympathy.

Westfield Union is in a flourishing condition under the efficient leadership of Mrs. M. E. Cox. At the business meetings, held the second Thursday in each month, reports of superintendents show much good work being done. The loss of two of our best workers who have been recently called to their Heavenly home will be much felt by our Union, and those remaining feel the need of more earnest effort in carrying forward the work so zealously done by the missing ones. At our literary meetings held the fourth Thursday of each month, the subject of the meeting is usually presented in an original paper followed by select readings, general discussions, and recitations by little folks who are already showing a deep interest in W. C. T. U. work. These exercises are plentifully interspersed with good selections of music from our "White Ribbon Hymnal."

South Bend Central Union is doing excellent work. The dues have been raised from eighty cents to $1.00. Each and every member will now receive the MESSAGE. The Union has a membership contest which holds good to September 15th, of this year. The one securing the largest number of new members by September 15th, will be sent as delegates to the State convention and expenses paid. By this method I think we will double our membership. Once a month we give a coffee social for the benefit of South Bend Rescue Home for Friendless Women; established in November, 1898, by the persistent efforts of Mrs. Fairchild and others. We invite the public to these meeting socials through the columns of the Press. Both of the leading papers of the City publish the notices free of charge. W. T. P. A. leaflets are distributed which are graciously received; also secure new members. With the money secured in this way we have already bought a large drugget, writing desk and a dresser and placed them in the home. A few weeks ago our County President, Mrs. Shonts, assisted by the County Executive organized a Y. W. C. T. U. with 10 or more members. Its officers are President, Miss Andrews; Vice-President, Miss Cora Case; Rec. Secretary, Miss Nettie Ward; Cor. Secretary, Miss Agnes Butts; Treasurer, Miss Cool; Loyally, Mrs. Cora Wert-Siever.

TREASURER'S REPORT FOR JANUARY, FEBRUARY AND MARCH.

DEAR SISTERS—I am glad to submit to you through the columns of THE MESSAGE, the second quarterly report of your work for this year. I do this with greater pleasure than usual, for in comparing this report with the December report, I find there is so much for encouragement. The first quarter 62 counties and 167 unions reported. The second quarter 36 counties and 192 unions. The first quarter 36 counties and 89 unions appeared on the Honor roll. The second quarter 42 counties and 132 unions. Of this number 24 counties and 37 unions have appeared on the Honor roll both quarters. Shall we not make this quarter exceed the last? I am sure, with a little extra effort in His name, we can do it. The work of the institutes has resulted in many additions to our already increasing membership. To those counties where institutes have not yet been held, let me urge the appointment of one or more persons whose special duty it is to solicit new members. Collect the dues at once, if it is at all convenient, as it will be much easier to do now than later on. By earnest and prayerful effort the list upon the Honor roll will be greatly increased.

The quarterly blanks will be sent to the county treasurers the last week in this month. Let me again ask the Local treasurers to be prompt in sending reports to the county treasurer by the 21st and will county treasurers please not hold reports longer than the 22nd before sending to the State treasurer that not a single report may be late this quarter.

I respectfully submit the following report:

SUNDAY SCHOOL DEPARTMENT.

June 18th is our next Temperance Sunday—The subject of the lesson is "The New Life in Christ", Col. 3:1-15. Golden text, "Let the peace of God rule in your hearts."

This a splendid lesson and I trust each superintendent will strive to secure the very best results from the study of it.

To this end we recommend:

1. That an effort be made to introduce Bible Temperance in normal class work in the Sunday-school. An excellent book to recommend is "Bible Temperance Studies," by Griffith, price 75 cents. Send to W. T. P. A., Chicago, Ill.

2. That temperance secretaries be appointed in every Sunday school, and an effort be made to secure complete statistics.

3. That work be inaugurated in the Home department of the Sunday school by the introduction of the family temperance pledge and temperance literature, and that members of the Sunday school be influenced to secure signatures of parents to the family temperance pledge.

4. That special effort be made to increase the pledge membership in the Sunday schools, and the national Sunday school pledge chain continued.

5. That Union teachers meetings be held for the study of the temperance lesson. These occasions may be made most helpful. Local superintendents and temperance secretaries will arrange for them. A reception to the Sunday school teachers and officers with a talk on the temperance lesson will be a pleasant change. All this will tend to unify the Sunday school workers and bring about systematic temperance work.

6. That Sunday school work be emphasized in all W. C. T. U. conventions and presented at institutes and schools of methods. Let conference of Sunday school workers be a feature of every W. C. T. U. convention.

Try the plan of securing co-workers as found in the Plan of Work. We want the Plan of Work Leaflet to reach every union. Will every county and local superintendent please send me her name and address at once if she has not already done so. Will presidents of unions who have not taken up this department kindly send me their name and address, that I may try to convince them of the need of this most important line of work.

Some send to me for supplies which I do not keep on hand, I then forward the order to the National Superintendent. If you do not receive them in due time kindly let me know.

Thanking those who so promptly reported, and asking that all will try to realize the importance of reporting on time, I close with expectations of good and great work being accomplished in the next few months. Note my change of residence.

Yours,

ALICE G. GEARY, State Sup't

At the national convention in St. Paul, a resolution was adopted that June 10, Mr. Demorest's birthday, be set apart as a memorial medal contest day of Mr. and Mrs. W. Jennings Demorest, and that on this day medal contests be held by all local unions.

It will be seen in the program that while the judges are making their decision opportunity is given for signing the pledge and canvassing the audience for new members. We want three-thousand young women to join us on this day; shall we work for it? While this is being done local superintendents can give a brief outline of the work.

The songs are found in the "White Ribbon Hymnal," with the exception of the "White Ribbon Star Spangled Banner." This can be had by sending to the W. T. P. A., price fifteen cents per hundred. The flag drill is in a book of drills, marches, etc., and may be procured of the National Superintendent, price ten cents. We advise recitations on the one line that Mr. Demorest worked for and gave so largely to viz., Prohibition.

For books, medals and instructions write the State superintendent.

OUR BADGE.

It is only a knot of ribbon white,
As white and pure as the snow;
It shines and gleams like a beacon light
In the world's dark valley of woe.

It is worn o'er many a loyal heart,
O'er hearts that are good and true,
To help the sinner away from the dark,
And give them a life anew.

All over the earth, from south to north,
From the east to the golden west,
It whispers of woman's sterling worth
As it trembles on her breast.

It tells of a purpose staunch and firm,
Of a purpose holy and pure;
It tells of a victory that shall come
If the strong hearts still endure.

It is only a bow of ribbon white,
But it shines in every land;
It shines as an emblem of the right
In the woman's Christian band.

On the rich and poor, on the young and old,
This badge of love we see,
And its snowy sheen is the key of gold
That shall unlock liberty.

It silently speaks of the sweetest praise
That ever a poet sung;
It is ushering in the better days,
And the victory sure to come.

THE ARMY CANTEN.

Congress abolished the canteen. The law is as plain as the intent, to which the clearest expression was given when the subject was under discussion. The text of the law is as follows:

Sec. 17. That no officer or private soldier shall be detailed to sell intoxicating drinks, as a bartender or otherwise, in any post exchange or canteen, nor shall any other person be required or allowed to sell such liquors in any encampment or fort or on any premises used for military purposes by the United States, and the Secretary of War is hereby directed to issue such general order as may be necessary to carry the provisions of this section into full force and effect.

Sec. 18. That all laws or parts of laws which conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

United States Attorney General Griggs interprets this action of Congress as not intended to modify or affect in any way the sale of intoxicating drinks in the post exchanges or canteens, but to forbid soldiers to sell; civilians, however, may serve as bartenders.

In regard to this decision of Attorney General Griggs, Rev. Dr. A. B. Leonard, senior secretary of the missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church writes:

No such outrage has ever been perpetrated by one high in authority as the practical annulling of the anti-canteen law by Attorney-General Griggs and Secretary of War Alger. They must presume at once upon the willingness of President McKinley to support, and the stupidity and servility of the people to silently acquiesce in, the high-handed act of nullification they have for the time being consummated. But they have counted without their host, so far as the people are concerned; and unless the President countermands the order that continues the sale of intoxicating liquors with only a change of bartenders in post exchanges, he may find, when it is too late, that he has counted without his host also. He sorely tried the patience of many of his best friends by permitting the canteen to go on doing its deadly work before the law prohibiting it was passed by Congress, when, as everybody knows, he could have abolished it with a single sentence; but now to permit the will of the people as expressed by Congress to be defeated by the Attorney General's opinion and the Secretary of War's order is to reach a point where patience ceases to be a virtue.

Chicago has a butcher for every 205 and a saloon for every 35 families.

The saloons are well attended by men; the churches are poorly attended by men.

Either President McKinley does not want the army canteen abolished, or he is afraid to abolish it.

Saloon men fight the opponents of the saloon unitedly. Church men often fight each other, instead of fighting the saloon.

The Indiana Supreme court has given a decision upholding the Sunday law against the demands of baseball clubs for Sunday games.

Our War secretary, Mr. Alger, makes haste to adopt Grigg's decision and the evil spirits of the canteen are let loose again! These two men are Cabinet officers for whom President McKinley (for whose election some of us strove so zealously) is directly responsible; will he not as "commander-in-chief" lay hands on them? What can be done?—The Rev. Dr. Theodore L. Cuyler, in "The Evangelist."

Saloon men vote solidly and persistently with and for the saloon. Church men vote scatteringly and fluctuatingly for "temperance and good government."

Saloon men compel candidates for office to pledge themselves to their support before they will vote for them. Church men say, "He is a good man; we will trust him."

Six of the National Soldiers' Homes spent over $234,000 for liquor in their canteens last year. Shame on a government that places temptation before its old soldiers and takes their money for liquor.

After all there may be a Providence in this struggle to banish the canteen. The contest is forcing people to take sides. It is showing the power of the liquor element. It is revealing its relation to politics.

In his "American Notes," page 121, Rudyard Kipling, the English author whose stories and poems are read by all the English-speaking world tells how, in a concert hall in the city of Buffalo, he saw two young men get two girls drunk and then lead them reeling down a dark street: Mr. Kipling has not been a total abstainer nor have his writings commended temperance, but of that scene he writes:

"Then, recanting previous opinions. I became a Prohibitionist. Better it is that a man should go without his beer in public places, and content himself with the narrow-mindedness of the majority; better it is to poison the inside with very vile temperance drinks, and to buy lager furtively at back doors, than to bring temptation to the lips of young fools such as the four I had seen. I understand now why the preachers rage against drink. I have said 'There is no harm in it, taken moderately,' and yet my own demand for beer helped directly to send these two girls reeling down the dark street to—God alone knows to what end. If liquor is worth drinking, it is worth taking a little trouble to come at—such trouble as a man will undergo to compass his own desires. It is not good that we should let it lie before the eyes of children, and I have been a fool in writing to the contrary."

LOYAL TEMPERANCE LEGION.

National rallying cry: "Pro-hi-bi-tion! Saloons must go."

State rallying cry:

Rah! Rah! Rah! We clover blossoms are a-field.

Why? Saloons must die.

Hear their knell. Indiana L. T. L.

At Prohibition Park, Staten Island, on July 11, 12 and 13, will be held the New York State convention of the Senior Loyal Temperance Legion, and an Interstate Loyal Temperance Legion conference. Several hundred graduates of the L. T. L. training school are expected to attend as delegates, and delegates are expected from Indiana, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Vermont, Virginia, etc. There will be addresses by the Rev. Charles Wesley Burns, of Philadelphia, Mrs. G. R. Alden (Pansy) and others. Commencement exercises will be held, with the presentation of diplomas.

Prohibition Conference.

The workers, state officers, district committeemen, and evangelists of the Prohibition party closed a two days session May 18, held at Indianapolis. There were present about 200 of the active promoters and friends of the movement. The first day's session was opened with a general report from the state officers. The state chairman said that every district had begun active work with a paid evangelist whose business it is to secure a larger circulation of Prohibition party papers, to hold public meetings, to enroll the names and post office addresses of all Prohibitionists and to organize every county, township and precinct in their respective territories.

The State Treasurer reported no debts and a small balance in the treasury. Among the topics subsequently discussed were, "How the County Chairman can best help the District Evangelist," and "How to induce people to take a Prohibition paper." Other like practical topics occupied the time of the Conference.

On Wednesday evening, 91 people enjoyed the banquet at which the following toasts were given, "Religious Leadership in Politics," by Dr. Jabez Hall, Irvington. "Good Citizenship," C. T. Cumbach, Indianapolis. "Prohibition Lyre," Charles M. Fillmore, Peru. "Expansion of Beer," L. J. Beauchamp, Ohio. "Woman's Way," Martha L. Gipe, Indianapolis. "The Outlook," J. Bushell, Terre Haute. The banquet closed at the usual wee small hour. A session of the State Committee was held the next evening and the conference adjourned, having planned a larger and more aggressive work than ever before undertaken in this state.

Books Ordered Out to Make Room for a Canteen.

A few weeks ago Mr Joshua L. Baily, the president of the National Temperance Society, ordered a library of 100 books to be sent to the soldiers' barracks, at St. Augustine, Fla., to be put in the large room that had formerly been used as a canteen, but when Congress passed the law, was closed, and had been fitted up for a library and reading room. Now Mr. Baily has received word from St. Augustine that as Mr. Alger has ordered the canteen to be opened, the books must go out to make room for the bottles!!!

The above article is taken from the Union Signal of May 18, last page. I hope every press superintendent will see that it is published in as many papers as possible. In unions where there is no press superintendent, let the President make it her business to see that it is done.

FLORENCE E. VANCE.

Picture; A Mother and Her Boy.

A fond, a true, a loving mother and her darling boy! It is a picture worthy of an Angelo's brush, nay of an angel's hand. A soul committed to her keeping to train for time and prepare for eternity! Tender, pliant, plastic, the young soul is but clay in her hands, and she, more than any one else in the world, may mould the character and shape the destiny of that soul, whether for success or failure, for weal or woe, both here and hereafter.

And yet the mother has a rival—a dangerous, determined, relentless rival. And that rival is the saloon. It stands on every street corner in our cities, attracting, beckoning, drawing your boys into its hellish precincts, and there with fiendish delight and remorseless conscience undoing all that mother has done for the upbuilding of that boy's character, counteracting her influence, annulling her commands, turning his steps hellward instead of heavenward.

Important Decision in Indianapolis.

The case of Zimri C. Lewis against Fred Kissel, the keeper of the largest beer-garden in this city. Mr. Lewis, who lives opposite the beer-garden, made his complaint upon the ground of nuisance, which has already been successfully used several times in other cases by Col. Eli F. Ritter, who is Mr. Lewis's lawyer in this case. The defendant applied for a change of venue, taking the case from the Indianapolis courts, and also for a change of judge, finding the one in the court to which it was taken unsatisfactory. The liquor-dealers have taken great interest in the case, and their associations have backed Mr. Kissel with influence and money. Yet the decision as entered to-day annuls the license, gives the complainant damages, and perpetually enjoins the defendant from keeping a beer garden in or about the place he now occupies. The Standard, a liquor paper published in this city, said, speaking of the decision, that "If it stands it is a most damaging blow to the saloon interests of the state of Indiana and of the whole nation." An interesting feature of the case is that if it is appealed by the defeated party the higher courts will be called to pass upon the question of the constitutionality of license laws.

The International Epworth League Convention Meets in Indianapolis July 20 to 23—Prohibition.

As the Epworth Leaguers meet only once in three years and as thirty thousand were at Toronto at the last convention those in charge look for 50,000 visitors. Saturday night, July 22, three rousing temperance rallies will be the order. These themes will be considered: Total Abstinence and the Pledge; Economics of the Drink Traffic; The Saloon in Politics; and Restrictive and Prohibition Legislation.

ATTENTION!

The W. C. T. U. of Marion County will hold a Re-union Picnic at Bethany Park, June 19. Round trip on train from Indianapolis, 30 cents. Everybody invited, especially Unions in other counties. A good program is being prepared. Children 15 cents.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

EVANGELISTIC.

Mrs. Ella J. Davis State Superintendent of Evangelistic department requests that all unions shall carefully consider the following suggestions of Miss Greenwood, National Superintendent;

Our Foundation Stones.

Our sure, only reliance is upon the Holy Spirit and the Word of God; The earnest invitation to a personal Christ; the duty of total abstinence; the presentation, as in former days, of the pledge; the convention evangelistic hour from 11 to 12 A. M. The noontide prayer.

Rescue Work.

This has been the mission of the Evangelistic department from the beginning. Let us push this special work everywhere. By meetings in halls, school houses, depots, prisons and jails, camp and out-door services, let us seek to "rescue the perishing." To this door of opportunity the pierced hands ever point.

Christian Endeavor and Epworth League Societies.

These societies present an open door for temperance work among our youth in the churches. Seek opportunity to present the subject of Gospel Temperance at the regular meetings of these societies, and at their conventions. Our cause, represented with power and tact, cannot but win these young soldiers of the Cross.

The Bible and Our Public Schools.

We deeply sympathize with the increasing desire that the Bible should be restored to our public schools, that the children from our homes may study its history, literature and poetry, which surpass all others in sublimity and interest, and be educated by the moral teaching of the Sermon on the Mount, parable of the Good Samaritan, and kindred passages. I therefore recommend that our local unions and evangelistic superintendents seek by letter, mass meeting and personal influence, to arouse public sentiment until this result is secured.

Hints and Helps.

Believing that this little book, "Hints and Helps," in the hands of each local superintendent will result in greater spirituality and harmony, I urge all presidents, state and county superintendents and organizers to assist in its distribution. State, county and local superintendents should present it at W. C. T. U. meetings and all conventions, taking orders for the same. The names and P. O. order can then be forwarded and a copy will be sent to each address. The price is ten cents and postage, or twelve cents.

Almshouses.

The department of "Work in Almshouses," having been merged into the evangelistic, let our local superintendents plan frequent visits to these institutions—establish libraries, and frequent Sabbath services; co-operate with state board of corrections and charities, and by every means better the condition of the unfortunate and out-cast, by carrying light into their darkness, and Christ's peace to their hearts.

Many of these institutions are in remote country places and no work is done in them unless by the W. C. T. U. Frequent Sunday services, distribution of magazines and other good reading, of flowers, picture cards, wall rolls, carpet rags, and quilt pieces; above all, the personal visit, with its word of cheer and prayer, will carry sunshine to darkened hearts, and merit the Master's "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these, my brethren, even these least, ye did it unto me."

How to Report.

The results of our work is not known because of the lack of statistical reports. Only a dozen states, last year, gave figures. From five states alone were reported 27,333 gospel meetings, 10,044 visits in homes, 50,451 services in jails, 2,335 in churches, 906,858 pages of literature distributed. If these figures could be multiplied by over forty states, what an inspiring record of our evangelistic work would be given. But the majority say "many," "hundreds," "much work," "bushels of literature," etc. Let each local superintendent keep careful record, send quarterly to her county superintendent, and she to the state superintendent, and thus we may present to the national convention a report full of inspiration and cheer. The following report blank may assist local superintendents in keeping monthly records:

Number of gospel temperance meetings held. how many in churches; how many in prisons and jails; how many in penitentiaries; how many in almshouses; how many in halls; how many in cottages; how many mother's meetings; how many in school houses; how many on ships or in forts; how many out door services; how many visits made by union; how many conversions; how many Bible readings in union; how many signatures to pledge; how many pages temperance literature distributed.

Work Among Foreigners.

If any of the local superintendents have done my work, will they please report to the county superintendents, so I may have the reports. I do urge you, dear county presidents, to give my department a little thought and time. Just think what a vast amount of influence the Foreigners have on the issues of the day. Over 72,000 are casting their votes in Indiana. Please answer the following questions:

How many local superintendents have you?
How many foreigners are there in your county?
What appropriation have you for the work?
Have you had any lectures among them?
How many churches have you tried to interest?
How many leaflets sent out?
How many pages sent or given out?
How do your foreigners vote on the saloon question?
Don't you think they would change their vote if they had more knowledge of the evils?
Was the work presented at your institute?
How many ministers have you talked with?
Is the department doing good?
Please report to me any work done, be it ever so little. Please report by Sept. 25.

ANNA KILMER, State Superintendent.
129 East Sixth street, Peru.

Jail and Prison.

I have received reports from several counties of good work done in county jails. There is a great need of systematic work being done along gospel lines in every county prison in the state. The work of the followers of Christ is to save the lost. There is only one way, and that is for a loving disciple of Jesus to carry the gospel to every creature. The work of the W. C. T. U. is to enter every open door and rescue the lost by personal effort. The "Jail and Prison" department presents an open door to rescue thousands of lost men. I shall expect a report from every superintendent. Will you answer the following questions:

Do you find your county behind in the work?
What use have you made of the press?
Have you secured the assistance of pastors and other Christian workers?
Are your visits kindly received by officials?
What literature have you used and how much?
Do you use pledges? How many signatures have you obtained?
How often do you visit the county jail?
Do you co-operate with the superintendent of flower mission in observance of flower mission day?
Do you observe prison Sunday by special sermon and literature?

Have you provided a library?
Are there separate apartments for women?
Have you found men, women and children in the same corridors or cells in county jails?
Have you made the fact public through the press and reported same to State Board of Charities?

Do you write to the men sent to the penitentiaries from your county?

Are you endeavoring to secure a woman in your county to be appointed a special officer to care for women and children while in jail.

ELLEN K. DENNY
State Supt. Jail and Prison.

Non-Alcoholic Medication.

The popular idea that alcohol is useful as medicine, is one of the greatest hindrances to the success of the temperance cause. This hindrance it is now in the power of the W. C. T. U. to remove, if we are only willing to use the means at our disposal. The department of non-alcoholic medication brings before our organization weighty arguments against the medical use of alcohol. These arguments are culled from the writings of some of the most distinguished physicians of the century, and are stated in plain untechnical language such as anyone of ordinary intelligence can readily understand. (See plan of work for full list of helps.)

Physicians who do not use alcohol express amazement at the indifference of the W. C. T. U.,

to the medical aspect of the temperance question. Sisters, shall we cease our indifference, and begin a systematic campaign against alcohol in the medicine chests of America? We can rout our enemy from this hiding-place, if we use the means at hand. We can begin by studying the leaflets and pamphlets of this department, familiarizing ourselves with the arguments against alcohol, especially the table of comparative death-rates showing how many more deaths result under alcoholic treatment than under non-alcoholic. (See, "Is Alcohol Useful, or Necessary as Medicine?") We can bring people to the meetings of our unions where this subject is presented; we can talk to our neighbors of what we have learned; we can distribute department leaflets from house to house; we can furnish matter to the press; we can write brief, kindly letters to physicians, enclosing department leaflets, asking their opinion on them; and we can pray for God's blessing upon the spoken or printed word of truth on this matter.

Free copies of "Plan of Work," of "Doctors and Alcohol," and of "Patent Medicines" will be given to all who will send postage. Those desiring leaflets for distribution can obtain the following from me:

"Is Alcohol Useful or Necessary as Medicine?" 50c per 100 postpaid; "Safe Remedies in Illness," compiled from writings of eminent physicians, 85c per 100 postpaid; "Doctors and Alcohol," a brief report of discussion by New York Medical Society 1898, 10c per 100 postpaid. Unions ordering 100 of each, of first two, will receive 200 of third free. "The Danger and Harmfulness of Patent Medicines," 60c per 100 postpaid; "Railroad Emergencies," 25c per 100. In "Plan of Work" is given a list of topics for discussion and also a list of questions to be answered in making out report.

Now, dear sisters, if the medical use of alcohol does not have an overturning in your state this year, whose fault will it be? If the W. C. T. U. does not do this work, will it ever be done? May God help you to go to work earnestly against this gigantic evil.

Yours most cordially,

MARTHA M. ALLEN, Nat. Sup't.

INSTITUTE WORK.

Notes of Institute Work in the Second W. C. T. U. District.

The corresponding secretary of Clinton county reported 199 members.

Many, many feet of news items had been gathered by Mrs. Vance, State Superintendent of press and formed a part of the decorations at the Frankfort institute.

Dr. Tharp of the Christian church, Crawfordsville, addressed his prayer meeting of 400 members and all other temperance people who attended the first night of the convention, on "Temperance."

Newton county institute was held in Kentland, where we spent Sunday, speaking in the Presbyterian and M. E. churches. The contest was very fine, and the choir rendered beautiful music.

Lafayette has a Willard Hall. On the wall is a blank application for liquor license, and a blank license, that those who run may read the connection between the rum business and the government.

In the county convention of Tippecanoe, a superintendent of L. T. L. work was appointed and Mrs. Lulu Bartholomew superintendent of Sunday-school work and Mrs. Ama Vaughn of Sabbath observance.

The rain did not interfere with the good institute we held in Westfield. The members came in closed carriages and buggies long distances, which showed their sincerity in the work and their support of their county president.

A new union organized in Tipton with 12 regular members and 3 honorary members. Mrs. Nettie Huffer, president; Rev. Bills of M. E. church; Rev. Cole, of Christian church and Rev. Huffer, of Presbyterian church all honorary members.

In the Boon county institute we were favored by the presence of chairman Crist, Revs. Cook, Wood and Ledbetter of Frankfort. The evening of the contest a most entertaining flag drill by 75 children was given. They also sang "Saloons must Go."

Mrs. Horner still leads the forces in White county. A good institute at Wolcott. Idaville was represented by seven young women. Mrs. Wilson, president of Wolcott, does not lessen in energy nor zeal for the cause, and her following is very strong.

Warren county failing to make arrangements for the two days' work, Benton county willingly and readily prepared for us, and two extra days work were given to the workers. The public school was visited, many calls made, and two night meetings held.

At LaFayette the institute was not very well attended owing to a bazaar of nations for benefit of Home hospital at which many of our women were assisting. Many good papers and talks were given. Dr. Bassett, our loyal friend, delivered a fine lecture the first night. Mrs. C. gave "A Modern Parable" the second night. Mrs. Sarah Curtis was tireless in her efforts to make the institute a success.

Every Local Superintendent should report by June 15. Give statistics. Always report in Figures.

Fountain is an unorganized county having but one union at Covington. Members all present. Two young ladies drove five miles to attend the institute and one lady came from Attica. Mrs. Cammack lectured twice on Sunday. She was asked to spend a week in the county in June.

The White Ribboners of Jasper county met us at the train and conducted us to the church where all things were made ready for our coming. A good contest and considerable interest was shown in the work. Jasper is an unorganized county and had not a union in it. We organized a union of 10 regular members and one honorary.

The 17th we went to Boswell, Benton county, where Miss Eliza Baker with her fine staff of officers had all things in readiness. That night we were warmly welcomed by Rev. Kraft for the churches, Prof. C. H. Kellogg for the public schools, by H. C. Harris for the citizens, and by Mrs. Loftus for the W. C. T. U. The program was rendered throughout, nothing omitted. The contest on Tuesday night proved that much time and patience had been given the class by Mrs. Bettie Smith.

Madison county members are up to date. Sold a large number of the annual reports and secured a good number of subscriptions to The Message and Union Signal. Mrs. Kilmer, of Peru, state superintendent of work among foreigners was present and presented her department most enthusiastically. Elwood supports a large L. T. L., and has an evening class of Seniors. Also has an organization of Y's of over 100. Surely our state Y secretary, Miss Sears' own county speaks well for her work.

In Miami county our first institute was held in the beautiful First Baptist church at Peru. A delightful reception was given the first evening. Many young people attended, who became interested in our work. A Y. was organized a few days later. The boys brigade attended in a body. Mrs. McWhirter and others gave short addresses. Good contest the second night. Day meetings well attended. Sunday afternoon Mrs. Brand spoke to Junior League in M. E. church in the evening to Baptist young people. Everything was well planned and executed.

MATTIE O. CAMMACK.
HATTIE BRAND.

Delaware County.

An institute was held in the First Christian church, Muncie, with fairly good audiences, especially in the evenings. On Wednesday evening a chorus of 50 children's voices sang "Saloons must go;" they came upon the platform headed by a boy keeping time with his drum, and sang perfectly. A contest of recitations followed, Jennie Thorpe receiving the prize. The music of the White Ribbon Trio, composed of Misses Jennie Thorpe, Sylvia Patterson and Lillian Hunt, was greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Brand had charge of the work Wednesday, and especially interesting were her talks on mothers' meetings and evangelical work. In the evening she gave a vivid description of the W. C. T. U. convention in London.

Mrs. Cammack had charge of the work Thursday, and I wish I could write all the good things she said and did. Twelve delegates were present from Eaton, and five from Albany.

I think we had a most enjoyable time, and there was more enthusiasm and a better attendance than ever before. So we are encouraged to go on, and when the next institute meets we will be better prepared. We hope to add names to our enrollment until it reaches the 100 mark. Pray for the success of Muncie Union.

D. R. NELSON,
County Sup't Press Work.

Putnam County.

Greencastle Union, though weak in members is not inactive. For a few months we felt compelled to suspend our meetings, as several active members were to spend the winter elsewhere, and others were unable to attend during cold weather. During this time we were not idle. Some literature has been distributed. One dear saint, alone, having at her own expense, distributed near $20 worth. Another, with the aid of her husband, did about the same. Other work has been done quietly "as unto the Lord" in such ways as seemed possible.

Jail work has been faithfully and successfully carried on throughout the year. Also flower mission, visiting the poor, mothers' meetings, etc., as occasion offered.

The union received new inspirations through the coming of our institute workers, Misses Hadley and Newlin. The first meeting was held May 10, in the Christian church. A small, but very appreciative audience greeted the ladies. Mayor Birch gave the address of welcome. Miss Hadley replied in her earnest, convincing manner setting forth some reasons for uniting with the W. C. T. U. and stating a few of the things the organization is doing. Her remarks were well received, as the increasing audiences at each succeeding meeting attested.

The second session was well attended and proved interesting and instructive. Mrs. McWhirter addressed those present, in her usual forcible and interesting manner. Miss Newlin presented the subject of "reform legislation," showing what had been accomplished along this line through the efforts of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. W. H. Hickman spoke earnestly in regard to mothers' meetings.

The evening session was opened by Mrs. Flora Walker. Prof. Ditto, Miss Harleman and Rev. W. H. Wise presented different subjects, which were discussed; Miss Hadley having charge.

In all the meetings the exercises were interspersed with solos, duets, etc. by children or students of the university.

Ten members were added to the local Union, a deeper interest awakened among the people generally, and fresh courage infused into the workers.

MRS. A. T. RILEY, Press Supt.

Clay County.

The institute was held in Trinity M. E. church, Terre Haute, conducted by Misses Hadley and Newlin. After opening exercises, testimonies in regard to the curfew law from mayors and marshals were read. It was stated that in one city the curfew extended to the mothers.

A number of excellent papers on various topics were read, including a very interesting letter from a man in a Wisconsin woods camp, thanking the W. C. T. U. for the good literature sent by them. "Spare my boy" was sung by small children in a touching way.

Discussing "The church and the saloon," Rev. Berry says much good is resulting from temperance agitation in Terre Haute, which has 230 saloons and 35 churches. He thinks a visit to the saloons on Saturday helps him to preach better on Sunday.

Plainfield, Greencastle and Brazil.

Plainfield institute was well attended from first to last. The gross receipts of the contest were $18. The Fairfield singers were a delight and received much applause. On the last evening there was a Peace Demonstration in which the resolutions in harmony with the Czar's plan, were voted on by all present, the men voting merely as a matter of sentiment. Four subscriptions to the Signal were taken, and four for the Message. Names were left with Susannah Hadley for further additions.

A pleasant welcome was given at Greencastle. The attendance at the first meeting was small, but increased. Participation in the DePauw University Chapel services served to further advertise the meetings, and at the last meeting there was a good house, including many students from the college. This was one of the best institutes held at any point. There were 10 accessions to membership, including ministers and college students. Mrs. McWhirter attended the afternoon meeting and gave valuable service.

Attendance at Brazil small, at the first meeting, on account of rain. The afternoon meetings were well attended. The evening peace meeting was addressed by Miss Mell Newlin, of Bloomington. The audience was very appreciative. In order to make the next point we had to leave Brazil before the last evening's session.

MARY HADLEY.

Receipts for the Message and Signal for this week's institute work $23.85. Besides these each of the leaders left a club, almost completed to be sent in at an early date. Great victory reported in all departments for the entire week. Mrs. Cammack's work for the Message and Signal amounted to $18.70.

Section One.

Commencing March 31 and ending May 5 12 institutes and 3 blanks (Kosciusko, Starke and Lagrange) Total cash receipts $124.09. Total expenses $85.32. Surplus to assist in missionary counties $38.77. Members added 46; 9 honorary and 9 Y's. Subscriptions taken for the Message and sent in by leader 90, for Union Signal 21. Miles traveled 725. 480 White Ribbon women, more or less instructed in methods, encouraged and built up, as the voice was unanimous in favor of the plan of holding institutes.

Last year's minutes give the total membership of these counties to be 799, hence this effort reached over half of the membership. The attendance at evening meetings was larger, at some points chairs were brought in and every seat taken. At only two institutes did we have small evening audiences. The local press gave space freely to advertise and report the event. The papers prepared were exceptionally good. There was not over a half dozen failures in the entire section where persons were given a subject and did not respond. Special music was prepared in harmony with the occasion and of fine quality. Eleven contests. One oratorical, one suffrage, one matrons and eight L. T. L. Five contests took a collection, total amount $22.72. Six had an admission fee, total amount $54.60. No county failed in its financial obligation. Two Pulaski and Fulton contributed to the missionary fund. Every county used the outline program but one—Steuben. There are many indications of a gratifying aftermath from our institutes. For general arousement we have nothing else to take their place.

MARY E. BALCH.

Bourbon, Marshall county had its meeting in the Presbyterian church. Two of its three unions well represented. Mud and sickness hindered the absent one. Attendance small in the day, but full houses at night. A twenty dollar house at ten cents each, at contest and the collection, very small less than two dollars. The program works out well and holds the interest to the end.

Rochester, Fulton county held its institute in Grace M. E. church. Its two unions well represented and the subject of organization at their county meeting brought out a strong resolution for a worker in the county soon. The permanent enrollment plan for suffrage was endorsed and it was taken in Marshall and Kosciusko counties and a worker secured. The contest of 4 boys and 4 girls exceedingly interesting. Fred Keeh received the medal. Receipts at contest $10.30. Local workers were well prepared to take part on the program. Mrs. Denny gave a very able address on the second evening. The women of the unions expressed themselves as well pleased with plan, program and results. Day attendance small, evenings better.

Marion County.

This institute was held May 5 and 6, opening with Bible reading by Rev. Rhoda Smith. Miss Hadley followed with a summary of the work she had been conducting through the state with the assistance of Misses Sears and Newlin.

Rev. Dr. Tevis and other ministers of the city gave encouraging talks, emphasizing the importance of enlisting the young people to fill the places of the veterans as they fall by the way; 13 unions were represented, and all agreed that the important work must be among the young people in L. T. L. and Y branches.

How to complete the institute work by May 1st, so the meetings will not conflict with the annual house cleaning is a problem staring us in the face. Do not tear up all at once, and take a rest between times, might become a happy solution of the question; but the tenement dweller and those who have to repair and remodel are worthy of consideration. It is hoped that at our annual gathering next fall valuable suggestions will be offered regarding this important branch of our work. It is without doubt the best plan for reaching the public, and our own as well, and all should feel an individual responsibility in perfecting it. Let us work to this end in the name of our blessed Redeemer.

MARY A. MOODY, Press Reporter.

Wells County.

The fifth semi-annual county convention was held at Ossian, May 19 and 20. Mrs. Cammack, assisted by Mrs. Brand, had charge of the institute work, and so well did they work up the enthusiasm that Ossian Union was increased by seven active and two honorary members. Five Ys were also decorated with the badge, and an L. T. L. of 13 members was organized.

On Friday evening a silver medal contest was held, eight lassies and one lad being competitors. Receipts at the door $13.60. The pastors of the different churches came in and gave good talks; two of them are wearing the white ribbon.

The institute work was a success. Good talks and good papers were furnished on all the topics.

The convention was also a success. Reports, papers, singing, a recitation and a select reading served to fill every moment of the time. About 50 members were present, and a large number of visitors were also in attendance.

All the sessions were so well conducted that good results will doubtless follow. Mrs. Cammack and Mrs. Brand are admirably fitted for the work assigned them.

Thus the good work in Wells county moves on, and as we steadily increase in membership, we feel that if other counties push the work as we do, Indiana will retain the star-spangled banner. We hope to organize one or two unions before the state convention.

Mrs. D. T. SMITH, Press Reporter.

Huntington County.

The eighth semi-annual convention of Huntington county W. C. T. U. was held in Huntington, and the attendance was encouraging. A deep interest was manifested during the entire series. Mrs. Cammack and Mrs. Brand won the way into the hearts of all their hearers. The topics assigned were well prepared, and much useful knowledge was to be gathered from the discussions. The L. T. L. contest was a great success, the contestants being evenly matched, and the music of a high order. Pearl Cline, of Huntington, won the medal.

The county convention was one of the best for many years in this county, both as to attendance and interest manifested. Mrs. Cammack gave a most excellent lecture on the second evening, and all enjoyed the discourse very much.

Vermillion County.

A very interesting and successful institute was held at the M. E. church, Dana, May 17 and 18, with Misses Hadley and Newlin as leaders. The subjects on the program were taken up and well discussed. We were much encouraged by the hearty co-operation of the ministers. Also the Ys were very enthusiastic. A successful contest was given the evening of the 17th, with a class of five. The silver medal was awarded to Nellie Kendall, with Otis Burnett a close second. A drill by 76 children was much appreciated.

Mrs. LUTE ANDREWS, Secretary.

National W. C. T. U. Convention, Seattle, Wash., October 20 to 27.

Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens and Miss Anna Gordon will be the guests of the Indiana W. C. T. U. convention at Marion.

The State Loyal Temperance Legion convention will be held in connection with our State W. C. T. U. convention at Marion. Miss Anna Gordon, Secretary of the World's Loyal Temperance Legion, will be present.

At the county institutes hundreds of new members were secured. It will be a great mistake for the officers of the Union to fail to secure their interest and co-operation immediately. Let me urge you to do this faithfully. Collect their dues without delay, and strive to impress them with our great need of their efforts For God and Home and Humanity.

The first woman's convention ever held in Bermuda was that of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in Hamilton. Delegates and visitors were present from six unions all of which have been organized during the last six months by Mrs. Addie Northam Fields, an organizer of the worlds W. C. T. U. Mrs. Field held 154 meetings during their stay there and will leave them well prepared to carry on aggressive work.

The Union Signal of May 25 says: "For every missionary landed in Africa there are landed 70,000 casks of rum, 10,000 casks of gin and 15 tons of gunpowder. This is how the dark continent is being civilized and 'Christianized!' This statement is directly in keeping with that made in this issue by Mrs. Long, viz., that the cargo of the vessel which carried some of the first missionaries to Africa consisted of gunpowder and whiskey.

The conferences of the national W. C. T. U. at Chautauqua N. Y. are in charge of the National Corresponding Secretary Mrs. Susanna M. D. Fry and will be held from August 2 to 7 inclusive. August 4th is temperance day. Mrs. J. K. Barney of Providence R. I. one of the W. C. T. U. Round the World Missionaries is the speaker of that day her subject being "Round the World with the White-Ribbon." The topics to be discussed in the conferences are "The hygienic basis of total abstinence the ethical basis of prohibition. "What next in temperance reform?" This touches the legal outlook and Mrs. Margaret Dye Ellis will lead the subject. "Mother and daughter," which topic will be taken by Mrs. Fry with illustrations from her new book now in press "A Paradise Valley Girl."

A bill drawn by Miss Emma Strawn, an attorney at law at Lacon, Ill., and which was endorsed by the Federation of Women's Clubs of that district, provides as follows:

"That it shall be unlawful for any publisher, tradesman, manufacturer, public entertainer, manager of theatre, variety show or circus, to use any drawing, lithograph, engraving, daguerreotype, photograph or likeness of the face, form or figure of woman as an advertising medium, in either a suggestive, immoral or immodest manner. That upon all manufacturers of or dealers in liquor, beers, malt and tobacco, in whatever shape produced, these restrictions shall be absolute, they being debarred the use of any likeness of the face, form or figure of woman for advertising purposes in any manner or method whatever.

It is a mighty step in advance when a great railroad corporation feels the need of an order like the following: San Francisco, Cal., June 1.—One of the most sweeping orders ever issued by a railroad company in this country concerning the behavior and well being of its employees became effective today along the entire Southern Pacific system. It forbids the sale of liquor at restaurants connected with the depots where such restaurants are rented from the railroad companies. As nearly every restaurant along the road is rented from the railroad company the order has a very wide scope. The main purpose of the innovation is to prevent the trainmen from drinking while on duty. At the same time the order will cut off a large portion of the revenue of the railroad company, for at the many stations along the road rents for restaurants have largely increased after the proprietors have obtained licenses to sell liquors.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

To be Read in Every Union.

Last year Indiana made an increase of 1,150 members (not including honoraries) the greatest increase in membership of any State in the Nation, and thus won the beautiful White Ribbon star-spangled banner offered by Miss Willard. In order to keep this banner next year, we must again make the greatest increase of any State in the Nation. We are now several hundred members ahead of where we were this time last year; but unless there is a persistent effort made by the unions, we will not make sufficient increase to again claim the banner. Several other States are working hard for the banner. In reading their State papers, I notice that they are telling about our victories, and urging their members to greater effort. Mrs. K. L. Stevenson, president of Massachusetts, and Mrs. Ella Brown, president of Kansas, both say that they expect to take the banner away from Indiana at Seattle. Will we let them do it? No! No!! No!!! Five thousand times No! It can not be done if you, each one, secure one new member.

For EVERY TEN new members secured by a Union after July 15 whose dues are received by our State Treasurer at the close of this quarter, a FREE LECTURE or address will be given by a State Organizer en route soon after the State convention. This offer is for EVERY TEN new members whose dues are paid. Will you help? Will you go out now and invite some neighbor or friend in your church to join your union?

Upon the efforts of the earnest White Ribboners will depend our success. We can only keep the banner by increasing our membership. May God help every mother and sister to realize that wherever the W. C. T. U. is strong and active it is easier to keep a right influence over the boys and girls of their own homes. Loyally,

LUELLA F. McWHIRTER.

CALL FOR STATE CONVENTION.

MEMBERS OF THE WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION OF INDIANA:—

You are hereby notified that our twenty-sixth annual convention will be held at Marion, Grant county, October 6 to 10. The convention will be held in the M. E. church.

The annual meeting is composed of the general officers of the State Union, superintendents of departments, chairmen of standing committees, State organizers, president and one delegate at large of each auxiliary Union, and one additional delegate for every twenty paid members thereof. Ex-officio members of the convention must vote in person.

The members of the Executive Committee are requested to be in Marion October 5, in time for afternoon meeting commencing at 1 o'clock. It is imperative that every member be present at this first meeting of our executive board. Each county president will be expected to respond to her name by giving the number of W.s, Y.s and L. T. L.s organized during the year, and the increase in membership in each of the unions.

Come with thanksgiving for what God has helped us to accomplish during the year, and a prayer that this convention may indeed be the best that we have ever held in Indiana.

LUELLA F. McWHIRTER,
President W. C. T. U. of Indiana.

AN EVENTFUL TRIP TO SEATTLE.

After a nine weeks of 500 miles travel in the far-western states Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens President and Miss Anna A. Gordon Vice-President of the National W. C. T. U. have returned to Chicago.

Conferences and public meetings were held by them in thirteen states each speaking 110 times.

Many Loyal Temperance Legions were organized and new members were added to the local unions at every point visited.

The original itinerary was followed to the letter and many new ones added.

Much interest was aroused in the next National Convention to be held in Seattle, Wash. Oct. 20-25 by this trip. The officers will remain in Chicago a time for officers meetings, planning the convention program, the summer Institution work and other important matters. Mrs. Stevens goes then to her home in Portland, Maine and Miss. Gordon to Prohibition Park to attend the Senior L. T. L. Convention of New York state.

In August they attend a tree planting under the auspices of the state union at Danville Vermont the birthplace of Miss Willard's father. Mrs. Stevens has engagements to speak at Old Orchard, Ocean Park and Greenacre, she has accepted invitations to deliver addresses at Iowa and Ohio State W. C. T. U. convention later.

ACTON PARK ASSEMBLY.

The Acton Park Assembly has given the State W. C. T. U. three days on their program; the dates are August 1, 2 and 3. August 1 is to be known as Children's Day. We are anxious that this should be a red-letter day, and trust that Unions within 40 or 50 miles of Acton will make a special effort to have a good number of children present. If you have an L T L, we expect them; if you have none, we hope you will gather the boys and girls from the Sunday schools and bring them; it may be the means of starting an L T L in your community.

We will have a grand march around the grounds; our State President will head the procession with the White Ribbon star-spangled banner won at the National convention. Every county and local president who can possibly be there is urged to bring W C T U or L T L banners; every child that can come to Acton August 1 is requested to bring a flag 2½ feet long by 1½ wide, and which can be bought at $1 for 50.

Admission to the grounds will be free to children. The Big Four railroad will carry two children up to 15 years of age for one fare. Persons not living on the Big Four road, but are in driving distance are requested to fix up big wagons, like we once did for our Fourth of July celebrations, and come. All are requested to bring dinners, and we will spend one glorious day in the woods with the boys and girls. They are the hope of not only our State but Nation.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

State Superintendents' Conference.

The first State conference of the Board of Superintendents was held in the Methodist church, Goodland, June 20 and 21, the president of the Board, Mrs. Ellen K. Denny, presiding. Mrs. McWhirter, State President, was present, and after devotional services led by Mrs. Mattie O. Cammack, she and other State officers present were invited to seats on the platform.

Committees were appointed, Courtesies, Mrs. Hardy and Peck, of Goodland; Finance, Mrs. Kilmer, of Peru; Press, Mrs. Moody, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Mugg, of Goodland; Time-keeper, Miss Clara Agnes Boyd. Fifteen superintendents were present.

The day was spent hearing from these superintendents on their special department work. In the evening we met at the church, and the public was introduced to our State President, Mrs. McWhirter, who delightfully entertained them with stirring, earnest words, speaking especially of the work and scope of the W. C. T. U., after which she introduced the superintendents, one by one, explaining their duties and commending each for her loyalty to her special department.

On Wednesday we were again called to order by Mrs. Denny, President of the State Board of Superintendents, and after devotional exercises, the conference continued with the department work. Reports and discussions followed in quick succession through the day.

Mrs. McWhirter was obliged to leave before the close of the session, and her parting words of admonition and encouragement were such that must have touched and inspired all loyal hearts present.

A committee on program for the unions of the state on "lines of study" was appointed consisting of the general officers, branch Secretaries, Miss Moser, Mrs. Shelt and Mrs. Geary.

The different departments were ably represented and discussed in so far as those on program were present. We would especially notice the department of Sabbath Observance as presented by our sister, Mrs. Katie Wert-Holler. Her charts, one of the light-house, silently, but eloquently spoke to us, and in her words of explanation seemed so encouraging she said, "with the word of God as a resting stone for the foundation, we build the tower of Sabbath Observance. Each section of stone represents a line of work, and the light in the dome is typical of the truth we wish to have spread over land and sea."

The nation that obeys God's laws shall prosper, and so long as these principles remain the American flag may wave as the emblem of Liberty and Justice. Space will not permit me to tell fully of this department, but suffice it to say that when Mrs. Kilmer, of Peru, requested that all those present who could sign the "Sabbath Observance" pledge as it was read in their hearing should say so, there was almost a unanimous vote in favor of it. Mrs. Holler explained one other chart, that of a drawing made by a convict on the walls of his cell the p. m. before he was executed. It told us the silent lesson of despair which must have filled his soul. The first step was some form of Sabbath desecration.

The afternoon session closed with the reading of the resolutions.

"We your committee on resolutions for the Superintendents of the State of Indiana here assembled do offer the following:

1st. Resolved we stand for peace and against war, against the seating of Mormon Roberts in the National House of Representatives, against the interpretation by Attorney General Griggs of the Anti Canteen Law and for the continuance of the peaceful war we wage against the liquor traffic and every form of intemperance.

2nd. Resolved that each county Superintendent should be urged to visit each local union in her county each quarter.

3rd. Resolved that we stand for the enfranchisement of women and renew our efforts to secure the passage of a law to that effect in Indiana and push each department of our state work more vigorously.

4th. Resolved that we extend to Mrs. Hardy and the Goodland union and all White Ribbon workers grateful thanks for the invitation to Goodland, and to the ladies who have so delightfully entertained us, for the use of the church and to the singers who so kindly entertained us, and to all who contributed to our conference.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. M. A. TOMPKINS, Chairman.
Mrs. C. A. MARSHALL.
Mrs. S. M. SHELTON.
Mrs. S. MUGG.
Mrs. ANNA KILMER.

The evening contest could only be seen and heard to be enjoyed. The contestants were: Mrs. S. M. Shelt, Miss Clara Boyd, Mrs. Anna Killmer, Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, Mrs. Mattie Cammack. The medal was awarded to Mrs. Shelt of Livonia. Mrs. Balch, the superintendent of contest work, also gave a recitation which was appreciated by the audience. Conference adjourned to meet one year hence, place to be decided at the State Convention. Yours,
Mrs. S. Mugg, Sec'y.

A Plea from the State Y. Secretary.

Dear MESSAGE and Y. W. C. T. U. girls. We have entered upon the last quarter of the year which closes Sept. 15th 99. Will we keep the National Y. banner in our State another year, dear girls? The increase over last year, to this date, is very encouraging, but will we stop now, or double our paid membership in the local unions and make our gain of 700 new Y's for Indiana. Then like Japan we can be proud of 1,000 Y's.

Treasurers prepare a membership box and take to each meeting. Ask those who have a friend that they wish to deposit their name and dues to do so during the evening by dividing the union like you do for a membership contest, calling the divisions No. 1 and No. 2. The benefit of the membership box is the name of the member the money, and the number of the division who secured it is wrapped around the money. The box is opened at the last meeting in August and a special program is prepared for the first meeting in September appointment of delegates for State convention, election of officers, etc. You have done noble work, but, put your might strength and whole heart into the last long struggle for the gain of 700. Praying for and loving you always, I am yours for Temperance work.

CLARA M. SEARS.

State Y. Secretary.

Narcotics.

The counties having superintendents of Narcotics have sent excellent reports this quarter, much better than those of any previous quarter.

Will the counties having no superintendent please urge the appointment of one at once, even if they must do as one county (a very efficient one, too,) have a superintendent who, as she expresses it herself, is "Jenny of all trades."

If in need of literature send to me or to the Temple for samples.

MRS. PAULINE PITTINGER, Supt.
Anderson.

Island Park.

Island Park on Sylvan Lake, located at Rome City, Indiana, is a delightful spot for an outing, brief vacation, recreation, health improvement, Summer School advantages, etc. The choice of the most beautiful, pleasing, restful scenery; a body of water unexcelled for purity and charm in situation; islands, shores, forests, —all, natures artistically planned handwork; climatic conditions tempered by the cool invigorating lake breeze, free from chill in morn and evening, and invigorating temperature for the hours of recreation, study and entertainment; opportunities to quench thirst from almost perennial springs, pure fountains, and mineral flowing aqueducts; bathing unexcelled, clean, pebbly beaches; the most modern "swimming holes"—on the 20th Century plan—where pleasure, safety and convenience are always on duty. Finding a place where rowing, sailing and pleasure excursions by yacht or steamer have a charm unexcelled, without sea-sickness or danger from boisterous waves. Locating the most delightful fishing grounds to be found in the North West. Choosing a summer home of cottages, hotels and sanitariums where the best people of the land find it a pleasure to resort.

Being located on the Grand Rapids & Indiana Railway, only 36 miles north of the prominent railway center, Fort Wayne, it is central and easy of access, and is the one spot on earth where the "Hoosier," the "Buckeye" and the "Michigander" can meet and feel perfectly at home in all their Tri-state gatherings.

Sylvan Lake is a charming body of water, about five miles in length and from one to three-fourth miles in width. The shores are pleasingly irregular; sometimes they almost clasp hands and are spanned by well constructed bridges, under which the steamers ply their way—from the several landings at the islands dotted here and there in the detour of their hourly trips up and down the lake.

In the widest part of the lake is the Island Park, a lovely tract of ground about fifteen acres in extent. Here the artistic landscape gardener has shown his best taste in retaining nature's rare charm.

Perhaps at no time in the past has there been a broader or better outlook for the Indiana W. C. T. U. than during this year. The Summer Assemblies are inviting us and offering us more time on their programs than ever before. Island Park Assembly management has invited us to help make Tri-state W. C. T. U. Days there, by inviting Michigan Ohio and Indiana White Ribboners to arrange the program. This means much to all concerned. We need to come in contact with our sisters from other states. All White Ribboners and friends of temperance are urged to attend these Tri-state W. C. T. U. meetings. The attendance on these two days this year will determine what favors will be granted to us another year. Let us do our best to make the program and the attendance such a success that we will be invited again next year. The G. R. and I. railroad makes low round trip rates. Reduced rates on all the railroads. Hotel rates $1.00 per day or $5.00 per week.

Our association together and a discussion of plans and purposes will be most helpful to all who will avail themselves of such opportunity.

Mrs. Mary E. Balch, our State Corresponding Secretary will be at Island Park in charge of W. C. T. U. headquarters during the time of the Assembly.

LOYAL TEMPERANCE LEGION BRANCH.

General Secretary—Mrs. HELEN G. RICE, Boston, Mass.

Secretary for Indiana—Mrs. A. R. Gordon, Argos.

This Department aims, by a regular course of study, scientific, ethical and governmental, to make our boys and girls intelligent total abstainers; to develop by thorough organization, business methods and practical helpfulness an army of disciplined temperance workers and enthusiastic temperance givers; to identify its members, through their payment of dues and consequent representation in National and State conventions, and through their drill in department work with W. C. T. U., present and future.

Organize! Organize! Organize Legions!

Every town should have one, and where the population will warrant, there should be three, four, or as many as possible. Organize the girls and boys. Fort Wayne has five Legions and is going to organize another. They will all unite in a picnic July 21st.

We are nearing the close of another year when reports must be made, dues paid, and conventions attended. Why cannot Indiana have a delegate to the National this year without "doubling up" with some other state? I am sure the reports this year will show an enrollment of nearly 2,000 members. We ought to receive dues enough from these to entitle us to a representative. Let us do it. Do not forget that your graduating exercises are to be a local affair and that the receipts from this entertainment is to pay your L. T. L. delegate's expense to the State L. T. L. convention which will be held in connection with the State W. C. T. U. convention at Marion, Oct. 6-10. Each union ought to plan to send as one delegate the L. T. L. leader, for this will be her convention. You will receive report blanks and a letter from me in July.

Elwood has two Legions, and I think Mrs. Donaldson, county superintendent, is going to try for the county banner.

Fort Wayne has 300 members enrolled in the five Legions and a new one to be organized. Mrs. Ridenour, county and city superintendent, is full of energy. God will bless her efforts. Sisters, Indiana will be at the head in the next decade if we miss not this opportunity.

"Christ for the world we sing,
The world to Christ we bring."

We must do it! The easiest way is to save the young people. "But watch thou in all things endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry."—Timothy 4-5.

AMANDA R. GORDON.
State Branch Sec.

The railroad rates to Seattle to the National W. C. T. U. convention have been announced at $61 for the round trip from Chicago, tickets good from Oct. 18 until Nov. 19. Please consider this and let every one who can take advantage of this opportunity to attend the National convention and visit the great Northwest and the Pacific coast arrange to go.

Every union ought to elect a Loyal Temperance Legion superintendent. Send for L. T. L. teachers literature and urge her to immediately organize the boys and girls.

INSTITUTES.

Rejoicing Over the Sheaves.

The series closed June 17, 1899. Never before have victories so great come to Indiana W. C. T. U. through her institutes, from the standpoint of general interest and participation in the work. Accessions to membership, subscriptions to our papers, literature distributed, per cent of members reached, and others interested.

Visions of the wonderful possibilities of this work have been coming to us in such a way that we have been encouraged to work out a plan in detail which, by June 17 had materialized beyond expectation.

Six workers holding institutes on the same dates in different sections, the State being thus divided for that purpose, with a view to economy and convenience in travel. The workers have gone out by twos, according to the apostolic plan, and that our institute plan might be carried out in full.

All organized counties but two accepted their schedule dates. Seventy-seven institutes were held, 85 counties entered, an organization, either county or localeffected. The other counties may yet hold sessions before their fall convention. As space will not allow a full account of the work, below is a summary of results:

Deficit for institute work (not including organization).	$6 31

This small deficit, together with $29 86 for printing and ending out programs and letters of instruction, literature etc., has been met by Sunday collections and by the State appropriation of $5 for the department.

The scope of the work has covered almost the entire State. Twenty-six organizations have been effected, including county and local Unions, L. T. L. and Y branches. The L. T. L. members are not counted in the summary.

This unprecedented work in organization in the institute field covers an average of about five weeks work by the six workers continuously in the field. Some of us in our large southern missionary field have not come to any point where we did not hold an institute or organize a Union.

This great work in organization which together with the accessions and institutes has brought over 600 members to our ranks has not been covered by the institute receipts, but at a valuation of about $100 for service, it will if properly cared for, in a short time bring many hundreds of dollars to the different treasurers in addition to the increase of vitality and working force of the membership of the state.

The arduous and gratuitous work of our Corresponding Secretary cannot be too much appreciated. But we are sure Mrs. Balch would have felt happier if all the other workers who wrought so faithfully and well through storm and heat as well as in pleasant weather could have been compensated in full for service. This it seems could have been done if the dear women could have thought best to carry out the contest rules and ask the small admission at the door instead of taking a collection.

Results show that about 60 per cent more has been realized from door fees than from collections. This failure causes a small deficit for medals and a 40 per cent deficit to three of the workers. This shortage comes to the section in which the girls worked, bringing in so many Y's and helping to secure a total of 300 members (not counting the L. T. L's.) But "We learn wisdom with years" even in finance which has developed much better for this year than formerly although many more missionary counties have been reached and organized.

The outline program prepared for the state has been used in all of the counties but one. The workers in all sections report much interest taken in the discussion of Indiana's plan of work and the general topics have been ably discussed and views advanced much to our liking and way of thinking by ministers and other educators. From one county, or town rather, has there been a report of church doors closed against the Institute. Many ministers especially the younger, stronger class are thoroughly in sympathy with our work and recognize it as part of their own. They have readily given their names as honorary members and emphasized their interest by many brave, true words. Many teachers and a few editors and school superintendents whom we have been able to see have also become members. A few notable converts from the foregoing classes have publically announced their conversion to the no license doctrine through light that has come to them through our evening meetings. Also a few public declarations of conversion to the equal suffrage and peace and arbitration ideas. In many towns where we have held institutes or organized, the ministers en masse have become members, some of them saying that they would have been glad to have done this sooner if they had been invited. Let us see to it dear coworkers that none of us plead this excuse in the future and that our honoraries, especially the ministers, are furnished with the Signal and Message and duly considered in all of our work. That the cause calls for very much more service from them is evident. As we review the field another year we find there is marked growth. This can only continue as the field is tended. This cultivation we believe will go on; and so we paraphrase our thought:

Though not at once we reach the goal,
We'll struggle on;
Though not at once we win the race,
We'll strive to win.
What we do will not be lost,
Every effort 's worth its cost;
It gives warmth to thaw the frost,
So we'll struggle on.

MARY HADLEY, Sup't.

Farmland.

Mrs. S. J. Jackson of Cedar union writes.

We feel that it is very little we are doing, but we know that we are working in a good cause so we are determined to press on, God being our helper. We know the temperance work is God's work. We had a very interesting convention June 16, 17. In the morning we had a contest for the Silver Medal. This work was conducted by Mr. John R. Lamb, who is a whole souled temperance worker. After the contest we were entertained with short speeches by Thos. Wright and others. At noon we enjoyed a basket dinner.

The afternoon program was in charge of the W. C. T. U., which consisted of recitations, select readings and an address by Mrs. Hattie Brand, of Indianapolis. The next morning, after a gold medal contest, Mr. Masters, of Muncie, made an address. In the afternoon Mr. Ratliff, of Marion, spoke ably on Prohibition from a Bible standpoint.

Allen County.

An institute was held in the Fort Wayne city council chamber, conducted by Mrs. Cammack, Mrs. Brand, and our State president, Mrs. L. F. McWhirter. Attendance was not large during the day sessions, but much interest was manifested. Some of the superintendents' reports showed a great deal of work being done. Several ministers and physicians took part in the lively and instructive discussions on the subject, "Christian Living," and "The responsibility of men and women for the existence of the saloon." The evening of the first day an L. T. L. contest was held under the direction of Mrs. J. K. Carpenter, which was participated in by five girls. The institute closed with an eloquent address by Mrs. McWhirter; subject, "Work for young women, and scientific temperance instruction in the public schools." May success crown all the efforts put forth in these helpful gatherings.

COUNTY PRESS SUPERINTENDENT.

Washington County

W. C. T. U. Normal institute convened in the Wier memorial church, Salem, Ind., May 31, and June 1. Mrs. M. E. Balch in charge and Mrs. Fanny B. Ellis of Hardinsburg, Secretary. The discussions of subjects in the program were animated and participated in by many ladies and to their views were added those of Marshal Medlock, Rev. Wood, Sutherland, Telle, Mathes and Mahan. Both sessions were interesting and well attended. Lunch was served Wednesday by ladies of the Presbyterian and Christian churches, Thursday by the Baptist and Methodist ladies.

The medal contest attracted a large crowd to the church. Music was furnished by the Salem quartette. A union was organized, having received the names of 13 ladies and 8 honoraries. Too much cannot be said in praise of the ladies of the different churches, and the untiring efforts of our beloved president, Mrs. Mary Overman who planned and worked for the institute. Every detail was carefully looked after and nothing left undone that should have been done in the way of providing comfortable and most hospitable entertainment for the many present. And it is with grateful hearts to Him, whose hand has guided, whose spirit has quickened, and whose power over the hearts of men has led the W. C. T. U. of Washington county to move forward to higher grounds the past year.

FANNY B. ELLIS,
Sup't, Press Work.

Edwardsport.

Our W. C. T. U. institute and convention was conducted June 5th and 6th by Miss Hadley and Miss Newlin, assisted by our Ex-County President and National Evangelist Mrs. Ellen Denney. It was well attended and all felt that we had gained much that would be profitable to us in our work. There being no contest prepared we were highly entertained by a lecture by Miss Newlin, recitation by Miss Huldah Reeve and singing by choir. Our union awoke with renewal of its covenant and by persistent effort of those dear consecrated women seven new members were added to our band, also three honorary members. Our union adopted the new plan of paying one dollar per member and sending 25c of that for subscription to Message.

An L. T. L. was reorganized with Huldah Reeve as superintendent. The army canteen law was read and a motion to send a petition to President McKinley to have the canteen law enforced until the decision of the Supreme Court is given. After the convention work we had memorial services for our co-worker and member of Freelandville union, Mrs. Lena Chambers. After a lecture at 6:30 P. M. by Mrs. Denny and recitation by Miss Newlin, the audience accompanied the sisters to the train. FLORA SLINKARD,
Cor. Sec.

Petersburg.

On the morning of the 16th of June we had a very pleasant drive from Jasper to Petersburg. It was 22 miles and over muddy roads a part of the way, but it was cool enough for winter wraps, so we did not get tired, hot nor dusty. We were delighted with the abundance of wild roses and daisies along the way and were obliged to gather some of them. The attendance at Petersburg was quite small, but notwithstanding this we had a very pleasant institute. I have written this little statement in case there should be no report.

Shoals.

The Shoals institute was attended by quite a number of girls who came from Loogootee, also several W's. You know they have a nice Y. at Loogootee, and the girls helped a great deal with the music and also took part in the program. Thursday night was Y. evening, Miss Georgia Mosier presided. Three girls and three young men joined the Y's. The Loogootee union has provided journals on Scientific temperance for every public school teacher in Martin Co. The pupils were asked to write essays on scientific temperance. As a result they received 40 essays. Ten of the best were awarded prizes. Then they were asked to speak in the contest on Wednesday night. It made a very interesting contest. Mrs. and Miss Mosier and Miss White, of Loogootee came with us to Washington and gave able assistance in this institute. The attendance here was quite small in the day session, at night we had a very good and attentive audience. The ministers here gave us some very interesting talks.

Posey County.

The institute at Cynthiana, June 7 and 8, was a great success. The secretary and treasurer having moved away the burden of the work fell upon two members, Mrs. Julia Wilkinson, President and Mrs. Hattie Marvel, Superintendent of medal work. The entire delegation of the county was entertained at the noon hour at the beautiful home of the President.

The L. T. L. came from Stewartsville in a body and took part on the program. Also a number of their W's. There were seven delegates and the white ribbon choir from Mt. Vernon. We secured several members for their W. Also organized a Y. which will work in connection with the W. C. T. U.

Parliamentary Usage—Miss Iva M. Wade.
Parlor Meetings—Miss Flora Bell Malcome.
S. S. Work—Miss Olive Cleveland.
Flower Mission—Miss Etta Kipp.
Medal Work—Miss Dora Martin.
Literature—Miss Cora Lowe.
Leader—Miss Ora Wasson.

If you could see the faces of those girls you would know that Y. will live.

MRS. EVA M. EVERTSON,
Co. Pres,

Knox County

held the annual election of W. C. T. U. in June and report the following:

President, Mrs. Arrie F. Polk, Freelandville.
Vice-President and Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Nellie Virtue-Chambers, Westphalia.
Treasurer, Mrs. J. T. McJimsey, Vincennes.
Recording Secretary, Mrs. Alice Bierhaus, Vincennes.

Our institute held at Edwardsport was a grand success. Misses Hadley and Newlin were present. NELLIE VIRTUE-CHAMBERS,
Cor. Sec.

Cynthiana.

Mrs. Denney was at Edwardsport and of course gave valuable assistance. We had a very nice institute there. Organized an L. T. L. At Cynthiana we had a very good institute. There were only two members there but I think they are equal to at least half a dozen. The attendance here was good. Mrs. Everson from Mt. Vernon came and brought her Y. girls and boys who gave us good music. The Cynthiana people also furnished good music. The Stewartville L. T. L. had a nice exercise one afternoon. People came to the institute from the country and surrounding towns. We had very fine discussions by ministers and teachers. Organized a Y. of 9 members. We received a very hearty welcome at Cynthiana, Mrs. Everson and nearly all of her young people came to the train to meet us. Mrs. Wilkinson, the one White Ribbon woman in town (the other lives in the country), entertained 25 or more for dinner. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and roses, with a large picture of Frances Willard in a white frame on a white easel decorated with smilax.

The Jasper institute held a very good medal contest. The medal was won by Miss Maud

Clark. The institute was attended by an able representation of Mrs. Hobbs' union at Hillsboro, and also from the Birch Creek and other unions, but the local attendance was quite limited, as compared with that which came from long distances over muddy roads.

At Princeton our audiences were very nice but not very large. The members attended all of the sessions but there were not so many from outside. A very hard rain just at the time of one of the evening meetings, made the audience small. A list of 16 for the MESSAGE. 11 new members and 2 honoraries. MELL NEWLIN, MARY HADLEY.

Newburg.

Mrs. Balch and Mrs. Anderson came to Newburg, June 15, for the purpose of holding a Normal institute. Mrs. Anderson having received urgent solicitation to come to the help of the union at Mineral Springs, only remained until noon of the following day. Mrs. Balch in connection with Newburg union held a day meeting and gave a very interesting address at night, after which she gave one of her humorous recitations which pleased the audience very much, and we have reason to believe set them to thinking along lines hitherto overlooked. A good program encouraged and interested many present. Our cause has been benefitted. Three gifted singers contributed solos. Mrs. Durille Porter of Washington, D. C., Miss Nelson from Evansville, and Mrs. Olmstead wife of Rev. Olmstead of Newburg. Four new members were added to Newburg union.

MRS. MAGGIE DILLINGHAM.

FIELD NOTES.

Miss. Ella Coulter is leader of the Aurora Y branch.

New Albany has four Loyal Temperance Legions.

Marion extends a cordial welcome to the State convention.

Upland will head the roll as the largest union in Grant county.

A conference of White Ribboners will be held by a State officer at each Assembly.

The Vincennes union has asked the ministers to preach on Sunday desecration and Mormonism.

We regret to know of the continued ill health of Mrs. Harriet F. Kidd, president of Wabash county.

Provision should be made by the county executive for sending the county president to the State Convention.

Mrs. Hattie Stickle of Mulberry one of Clinton county's truest White Ribboners, is in the hospital at Frankfort.

Miss. Mary Hadley presented our cause before the students of the Shoals Normal school. Much interest was manifested.

The Greenfield Boy's Brigade Band of 30 members will help to make W. C. T. U. childrens day at Acton Park a success.

Now is the time for unions to provide for the expenses of their President and the other delegates to the State Convention.

Are there places where the screens are not allowed before the doors and windows of saloons? What is the law in regard to this?

On W. C. T. U. day at Bethany Park July 24 there will be a good program throughout the day; gold medal contest in the afternoon.

Brazil union under the wise leadership of Mrs. Dora Keith their greatly loved president has divided into sections and is doing aggressive work.

It is estimated that 10,000 people attended the temperance rally at Eaton on July 4th. Rev. Aaron Worthy and Mrs. Ellen K. Denny were on the program.

Mapleton union will hold a lawyers' suffrage contest at Harrison Hall cor. 111 and 30th streets on the evening of July 31 in observance of Mother Wallace's birthday.

Mrs. Everson of Posey county writes: We have had Mrs. Squires for two weeks recently and want to engage her for at least seven weeks more before the State Convention.

Lady Henry Somerset was re-elected, with much enthusiasm, president of the British Woman's Temperance Association by the Annual Council, in session in London during the week beginning May 15.

At the county institutes hundreds of new members were secured. It will be a great mistake for the officers of the unions to fail to secure their interest and immediate co-operation. Be sure and collect the dues.

Wabash has fixed her dates for her fall convention Sept. 5 and 6, and will have a gold medal contest the second evening and a good speaker the first. It is just the wise thing for each county executive to go and do likewise. By taking time better planning could be done—hence better execution.

Our State president and treasurer, whose official duties and untiring work on the paper allowed them to attend only an occasional session of the institutes, found many ways to encourage and promote the work which could not have developed to its splendid proportions without their efficient help.

There was large attendance July 4 at Morocco,

Valley Mills and Mulberry. Mrs. McWhirterspoke at Morocco. Dr. Basset and Mrs. McWhirter at Mulberry. There was a gold medal contest and speakers at Valley Mills.

Bridgeport union observed Flower Mission day at the Boy's Reform School, Plainfield, and presented Mrs. A. B. Leck, county president, with a beautiful bouquet of flowers with the text card attached with a white ribbon.

The W. C. T. U. of Upland went before the city council and requested that it be made impossible for gambling places to be kept open and for pool tables to be used. This they did by making the license so high that it could not profitably be paid.

The Richmond unions had Miss Anna Downey for a lecture on June 9th the next day they observed as Flower Mission day by visiting City Hospital, Old Ladies Home, Home for the Friendless, Orphans Home and County jail. Beautiful bouquets with Scripture text cards tied on with white ribbon were distributed in every place Flower Mission day.

James Gipe, our State president of the Loyal Temperance Legion is attending the New York State L. T. L. convention at Staten Island. The day following the close of that convention will be held an Inter-state L. T. L. conference at which James will represent Indiana in the discussion of "what would be the advantage of a National L. T. L. organization."

The Atlanta union has 33 active, and 11 honorary members. Meetings are held every week. The departments of medal contest, Literature, Purity, Press, Flower Mission, Sunday School, Franchise and L. T. L. work are taken up. Loyal Legion with 20 names has just been organized and hope to have many more. Temperance sentiment is growing in our town.

The presidents of Unions are urged to have a conference with the Treasurer and look over the list of paid membership with her. If there are any whose dues have not been paid, please remind them that unless we can collect the dues of those whose names are on the lists, as well as get new members, we may have to pass the White Ribbon Star-spangled banner on to another State. Much depends upon the collection of dues. Will you help?

By a very original unique plan Mrs. Ada L. Squires arranges for giving elocution lessons to a class desiring to hold a medal contest and also to give lessons in voice drill to a large number of young people for a contest program. She wonderfully interests many people in a community and always succeeds in organizing an L. T. L. a W. or a Y. Recently she did excellent work at New Harmony, organized instructed the workers and helped to overcome many obstacles. She is expected to return to Posey county for much more work.

Indianapolis Willard Union observed Flower Mission day at the Colored Orphan's Home with an interesting program arranged by the President, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. A. B. Leck, County President, spoke on Jennie Casseday and there were recitations and songs. In response to the call in the Evening News for Christian papers, Bibles, etc., for the workhouse, Willard Union sent 150 papers, 1 Bible, and 1 Testament. Rev. G. M. Smith, pastor of Hall Place M. E. church is now an honorary member of Willard Union. Willard Union is planning to give a lawn fete some time this month.

Mrs. Sue Ratliff, Treasurer of Deer Creek union, writes: Dear Mrs. McWhirter—I write you in behalf of the Deer Creek Local W. C. T. U. that you may know we appreciate and wish to co-operate with you in the department of organization. Your appeal in the MESSAGE was read in our last union and each heart responded with that zeal and earnestness that is pleasing to behold. One woman, Mrs. Dr. Pownel, of Roseburg, almost immediately responded, saying, "I want to give a dollar," and another one, Mrs. Mary Coggeshall, of South Marion, with tears gave another dollar. The one that would have been paid in dues had not the angel of death removed her dear daughter, Edna, to a higher life. We thought how true, "They that sow in tears, shall reap with joy." Added to this is an offering of $3.00 from our treasurer, making it five.

Camden W. C. T. U. held a silver medal contest, June 29th. There were six contestants, all girls, their ages ranging from 12 to 15. Fern Huston received the medal. Her recitation was, "Five Smooth Stones" and was well rendered. We had a very interesting program. "How beautiful to be with God," "For God and Home and Native Land" and "Saloons must go" were sung, and a solo by a little girl, "A Wonderful House." Our Methodist minister's wife and two ministers were out to our contest. We have a wall pocket in the depot and keep literature in it. We have purchased ten White Ribbon hymnals, some National leaflets and take three Union Signals. ELLA BOYD, President.

A LONG ROAD.

Our National Convention meets in Seattle—a long road; will Indiana White Ribboners consider this and begin to plan how to make a full delegation. Canvass the field and find the women who can go paying their own expenses or otherwise. Every group of counties should come to the convention with plans matured and money in hand for the delegates. Every county should consider that at least $5.00 should be forth-coming to make our delegation a success. Our cause demands that each state send her full quota. The time between our State convention and the National is short. We can not get ready after the State convention. Now do not lap this aside it should have your best thought, your prompt action. MARY E. BALCH.

ORGANIZATION.

How It was Done at Huntingburg.

"We look along the shining way
To see the angels, faces;
They come to us in darkest days,
And in the bleakest places."

The day we left Princeton for Huntingburg the weather was sultry and oppressively warm. We had been led to believe that Huntingburg with its Brewery, its many saloons and its large foreign population was proof against organization for temperance, but it must be remembered that Dubois county has a valiant leader as president, Mrs. M. L. Hobbs, who is proof against surrender, and she had thought out and sought out, and set in order those who would stand for the cause and had written us about them. So after a beautiful welcome at the home of Mrs. Malona Glezen, we were enabled to promptly get our bearings and enter upon the work. Through some failure in announcement a small though attentive audience greeted us at the first meeting, at the close of which about one-half present gave their names for membership. The afternoon of the day following was appointed for organization. House to house calls to be made in the meantime. The drizzling rain and occasional showers did not allow this part of the work to be completed. But at the appointed time we met for organization which resulted in a union of 15 members. This is a courageous union whose members received the whole gospel of temperance gladly. May many be added to its ranks.

At Jasper we were welcomed and entertained at the beautiful and romantic home of Miss Lottie Doane who gives personal supervision over all its appointments, teaches school, holding a state license and a high position in her profession and who by the way is the only representative of the White Ribbon idea in all that rum-cursed capital of Dubois county. That Miss Doane is intelligent, cultured, and a girl of independence and principle goes without saying.

An Appeal for Hadley Industrial School.

DEAR FRIENDS OF THE HADLEY SCHOOL:

My words to you are few, but full of earnest pleading. Your Board of managers is burdened to know how so properly provide for the dear girls committed to its care. There are now 26 bright, sweet girls in the Home, and 8 others seeking admission. We cannot take the responsibility of refusing them, and can only admit them, trusting to your help.

We have not means sufficient to run the institution. We have no solicitor in the field, but believe this to be the benevolent work of the W. C. T. U. of the State, and that they should support their own children. We are a body strong in faith and numbers, and an average of 50 cts per member per year would afford a sufficient fund for operating expenses, and put the Home in good shape to accommodate 50 girls. Our out buildings are in wretched condition, and are a bad example of shiftlessness to these girls in training. We have recently sold some hogs and cows from the farm, and had planned to use the funds in bettering the condition of things generally; but the insurance men have notified us that our fire insurance on the buildings has expired. We shall at once renew, which will sweep the treasury. I hope you all realize that this Home can never be self-sustaining and fulfill its destiny. It rests with our State organization whether this Home shall flourish or fail.

We are planning an excursion to the Home during the week of the State Fair, when there will be reduced railroad rates. We hope all friends of the school will visit it, and inspect its workings and needs; also that they will be eager to share in its support and receive the blessing of the faithful. LUCRETIA HOBERT.

Just as we go to press we learn of the severe illness of Miss Marie C. Brehm. We are glad, however, to inform her many friends that she is rapidly recovering.

An excellent leaflet on "Tobacco," by Elder D. E. Scoles of Washburn, Mo., ought to be on the table in the sitting-room of every home in our State. Enclose 2 cents each for a few copies. Price $1.60 per hundred.

The out of State Speakers at our State convention will be Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens National President W. C. T. U., Miss Anna Gordon National Vice President W. C. T. U. and Honorable John G. Woolley.

The note telling Mr. Hunt of this distinction emphasizes the highest esteem and keen appreciation which the League entertains for her labors in behalf of scientific temperance education in the schools of her own and other countries. ## TO PUGET SOUND AND THE PACIFIC COAST

From Chicago and Return for $61.50.

The National Woman's Christian Temperance Union Convention will be held at Seattle, Wash., October 20-25. This will be a splendid time of the year to make a trip to the Pacific coast, and we hope many White Ribboners and their friends will avail themselves of this splendid opportunity to visit Puget Sound and the Pacific coast region. In order that our Indiana delegates and visitors may make this long trip in one party, we have succeeded, after much effort, in arranging for tickets to be issued, without additional expense, which will take our party to Seattle over the very best lines through the great Northwestern country and returning through the heart of the Rockies. The party will go and return over the following lines:

The Chicago division of the Big Four to Chicago, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul to St. Paul and the Northern Pacific through from St. Paul to Seattle. Returning via Northern Pacific to Portland, Ore., the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company line and Oregon Short Line to Ogden; from there via Denver & Rio Grande through Pueblo, Colorado Springs (Pike's Peak) to Denver. From Denver to Chicago via Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway; from Chicago to Indianapolis over the Big Four line.

Tickets on sale October 14-16 going, good until November 16. Tickets can be purchased of the home ticket agents for one fare for round trip. Stop-over privileges will be granted wherever desired.

Pullman sleeper rate $14 for double lower berth from Chicago to Seattle. We hope to have fifteen or more to go in our party; if so a sleeper will be chartered, which will greatly reduce the expense, making it perhaps as low as $10 for double berth.

The party will spend the Sabbath in St. Paul, Minn. The sleeper will remain at our disposal while there without additional expense.

Please consider the great possibilities of such a trip and arrange to join our party.

The announcement of the lines over which our party will go we are assured is sufficient to cause many friends of the W. C. T. U. to accept an invitation to join our party.

Our party will go from Indianapolis to Chicago over the Big Four, from there we will take the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul line to St. Paul. At St. Paul we take the Northern Pacific. The excellent equipment and splendid service of the Northern Pacific makes it the choice of the Northern lines running through to the coast. It passes through the greatest cities of the North region, Fargo, Bismarck, Helena, Spokane and Tacoma before reaching Seattle; Puget Sound and vicinity present many attractions. The return trip will give opportunity for seeing an entirely different and equally interesting part of the great West. From Seattle our party will go down over the Northern Pacific to Portland, the largest of the North coast cities. From there over the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company and the Oregon Short Line across the States of Oregon, Idaho and Utah to Ogden. From Ogden to Denver we will cross the States of Utah and Colorado over the Rio Grande Western and the Denver & Rio Grande, thus passing through the most picturesque region of the Rockies, with their famous scenery and resorts, through Pueblo, Colorado Springs, Manitou and Pike's Peak near by. From Denver over the Chicago & Rock Island across some of the richest and most beautiful country of homes in America to Chicago, and from there to Indianapolis over the Big Four line.

Persons desiring further information in regard to the trip address Mrs. Luella F. McWhirter, President Indiana W. C. T. U., 2312 College avenue, Indianapolis, Ind.

MOTHERHOOD AS A PROFESSION.

Lack of Proper Training for It the Cause of Most of the Illness Among Children.

"Ideal motherhood is the work not of instinct, but of enlightened knowledge conscientiously acquired and carefully digested," writes Helen Watterson Moody, of "The True Meaning of Motherhood," in the May Ladies' Home Journal. "If maternity is an instinct, motherhood is a profession; and yet many a girl undertakes it with less understanding of its duties and less anxiety for their discharge than she gives to the selection of the tailor who is to make her new gowns, or the costumes of the bridesmaids in her wedding procession. It is quite the fashion, nowadays, in well-to-do families, to provide the daughters with some special training by means of which they could earn their own bread and butter if the family fortunes should suddenly fail. It is held to be altogether wise and proper to educate a daughter for a possible profession in a remote contingency, yet while nineteen out of twenty of our girls marry and become mothers, no training whatever for the real profession of their lives is thought to be necessary. Any practicing physician will tell you that four-fifths of the illness among children could be avoided by proper knowledge and care on the part of the mothers, and yet the girls feel that they must take up college settlement work, and scientific whist and the banjo to get a little excitement into their lack-lustre lives until the great excitement of marriage comes."

The International Epworth League Convention and the Canteen.

The topics for each of three monster temperance meetings held on Saturday night were, "Total Abstinence and Pledge Signing," "Economics of Prohibition," "The Saloon in Politics" and "Restrictive and Prohibitory Legislation." In each meeting strong Prohibition arguments and statements of principles met with tumultuous applause, showing that the rank and file of the Methodist young people are far in advance of their leaders on the temperance question. From the demonstration at English Opera House when the Rev. Dr. Ceane, of Boston, had finished his powerful address it was very evident that these young people expect and will demand leadership that denounces the licensed liquor traffic by pen, voice and vote.

The Rev. Dr. D. D. Thompson of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, said:

"Whatever we may think of the motive which inspired it, we will be wise to recognize the fact that the recent decision of the Attorney General of the United States nullifying the law of Congress prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor in any post exchange or canteen of the United States army shows that the liquor traffic has invaded the White House and occupies two seats at the President's council board—that of the Secretary of War and that of the Attorney General."

The Rev. R. J. Cook, of Chattanooga, said: "The baneful influence of the liquor traffic on the military power of a nation is pointed out by the military leaders of England and America—Wolseley, Kitchener, Miles, Shafter, and every leader of note in great movements. These men, who make history for a nation, stand for prohibitive laws, and they all condemn the canteen. The people and the Congress of the United States condemn the canteen. And the only reason given by the highest legal authority in Washington for continuing the canteen is that, contrary to the genius, the meaning, the structure, and usage of the English language for a thousand years, the words 'no other person' mean 'every other person.' Thank God, when we have to root up and destroy the English language in order to establish the liquor traffic, the last ditch is in sight. Some day another Lincoln will sit in Washington and write another bill of emancipation for the millions of his countrymen."

The Rev. J. O. Knott, of Washington, D. C., did not hesitate to mention President McKinley as responsible for the canteen scandal, saying:

"A glance at the temperance situation shows it was never more critical. To appearances the liquor power has the better of the fight. The saloon exults over the Methodist chief magistrate's attitude to the army canteen law."

From the Western Christian Advocate, the official organ of the Methodist church for Indiana, we quote:

"Dr. Crane's topic—'The Saloon in Politics'—led him into the midst of things. His striking appearance, dramatic action, ringing utterances, earnest boldness, made him as effective as Woolley; and yet there was the kindly glow of Christian charity even in his most radical sentences."

"Say what you will of impotency in army management, imperfect sanitary arrangements, poor medical attendance, and unwholesome disease-producing food, we believe the debauching, demoralizing deadly drink sold in the Government camp saloons did more to bring on the diseases that killed the soldiers than exposure and climate combined."

"The story of our soldier dead is bad. The story of the soldier left alive is little better, if at all. From a village in my native State of Illinois seventeen young men went to the Spanish War. One returned a corpse, sixteen returned confirmed drunks. Had my son been one of them, I would have prayed for him to be the corpse. The canteen, which works such wreck and ruin, was abolished by Congress. That righteous act is nullified by a creature of the President. Conferences, Synods, Assemblies, and bishops have appealed to the President to execute this righteous law. To all our prayers, petitions, and letters, 'William the Silent' makes no reply. A body of women who went to see him on the subject were refused an audience. Another 'Etheldreda the Unready' has arisen."

ANTI-CANTEEN LAW.

The text of the Anti-Canteen law as passed by Congress reads as follows:

SEC. 17. That no officer or private soldier shall be detailed to sell intoxicating drinks, as a bartender or otherwise, in any post exchange or canteen, nor shall any other person be required or allowed to sell such liquors in any encampment or fort or on any premises used for military purposes by the United States, and the Secretary of War is hereby directed to issue such general order as may be necessary to carry the provisions of this section into full force and effect.

SEC. 18. That all laws or parts of laws which conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

United States Attorney General Griggs (member of President McKinley's cabinet), interprets the above law to mean that it only restricts soldiers from serving as bartenders. The canteens (beer saloons) are open now in all army camps, etc., just the same as before Congress passed the law. This is outrageous. Let every Christian cry out against toleration of such unprecedented opposition to the will of the people and an action of Congress. Christian sentiment of the country demands the suppression of the canteen. Let every one interested circulate the following petition and when many names have been secured send it to Rev. Wilbur F. Crafts, secretary Reform Bureau, Washington, D. C.

To the Honorable William McKinley, President of the United States of America, we appeal to you as President to carry the Anti-Canteen law into full force and effect in accordance with its natural meaning and the intent of Congress, by issuing an order as Commander-in-Chief of the army for the total suppression of army saloons, at least until the Attorney General's opinion has been finally tested in the courts.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

Special Notice to Department Workers.

Blanks were to be provided for the reports if there was money to pay for them. There is no money now and no way of knowing what amount will come in. It is not safe to print them unless we take the chances of incurring debt. Then there is a system of blanks that the state should consider before we begin the printing of blanks. Indiana in every particular must have the best systems and methods in the running of all the machinery of her organization. If the local county superintendents will consult the back numbers of the MESSAGE for this year they will find their questions to answer in reporting to their state superintendents. There can be no blanks this year. MARY E. BALCH.

CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP.

Through the MESSAGE I wish to insist upon every county President in the State that has not yet responded to the letters written by the State Superintendent of Christian Citizenship Department requesting them to appoint a county Superintendent for this department, to send name of person appointed to me. I have written two letters to almost every county President and to some have sent the third letter, but a number have not acknowledged one letter.

Dear sisters, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is one of the most systematic organizations of our time; but one defective wheel will cause the clock to stop. Hence we must have assistance all along the line or we can accomplish but little, if we accomplish anything.

Superintendents who have been appointed kindly report to me, just what your local Superintendents, with your assistance are doing. Local Superintendents who have no county Superintendent report to me. Can I hear from every Superintendent before September 15.

How many pages of literature have you distributed?

How many Christian organizations have given or promised one meeting to this subject?

How many addresses?

How many sermons?

How many prayer meetings?

How many Bible readings?

How many Christian Citizenship parlor meetings?

How many protests against gambling?

Is each local Superintendent supplied by her own Union with Christian Citizenship literature?

How many public meetings?

Report any other work done.

As this is a comparatively new department the main feature is to educate.

Mrs. M. ALMIRA STAPLES,
South Bend. State Superintendent.

Narcotics.

Dear White Ribboners of Indiana: I wish I could reach every local union in the state to tell them the need of work in every town. Do not think all has been done by the resolutions passed in ministerial meetings for some of the churches that have passed the most stringent laws are using the sweet wine of commerce at our Lord's table.

Are we doing our duty when one church still uses alcoholic wine at this precious memorial service, instituted by the one who died for us? Christ our passover. Dear sisters, this month I send out blanks to the few county Superintendents and to the county Presidents where there are no superintendents. Hoping to hear some report of work done in this department, I remain,
Your faithful co-worker.

July 26. J. R. WOOD,
1706 N. Delaware st. Indianapolis Ind.

FRANCHISE LETTER.

To All Superintendents.

The leaders of the spring institutes of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Indiana kindly consented to carry and deliver at each Institute, to be given to the county franchise superintendent, my package of enrollment blanks and instructions, and to endeavor that the former superintendent or a new one appointed should receive them. I have received reports or the names of superintendents of seventy one counties and have sent each woman a letter and some franchise literature to encourage them in the arduous labor of securing an abundance of names to the permanent enrollment petitions.

That is the most important work just now and I urge that the counties be districted and local superintendents set to work in each district. We greatly desire to receive five or six thousand names both of men and women, from each county. Brazil had the largest petition and the most names last year. What county will have the most names this year? I have not received the names of all of the superintendents from all the counties and I ask each county Superintendent to whom I have not written this year to send me her name and P. O. address just as soon as she sees this article in the MESSAGE, for you may be sure that I have not received your name. I have the report blanks ready and am only waiting for your name that I may forward them to you. Yours for thousands of names to the enrollment petitions,
M. A. TOMPKINS, Elkhart,
State Sup't. of Franchise.

County Fairs.

Let me urge local unions to hold fairs. Where there are no county fairs, erect booths in the way most convenient to them, or the best that is in their limits; decorate their booths with United States flags, have mottoes, with temperance texts, from the Holy Scripture, Miss. Willard's picture, the whole world has heard of her and would like to see her face. Have a fair number of Union Signal to distribute free. Also take subscriptions to Union Signal and MESSAGE, and have Miss Willard's books for sale. Have a check stand for parcels, wraps and even babies so that their mothers may get the most good out of your fair. Send to Mrs. H. T. Guild Sedalia Missouri for Pledge cards gotten up for fair work. They are red. You are to string them and hang up with blue and white ribbon. They cost 25 cents per hundred. Have Temperance drinks, ice-water, lemonade, tea and coffee, especially if you hold your fair out of doors. Have a gospel temperance meeting if for only half an hour. If you wish to fill your treasury have a medal contest or a contest in oratory on Prohibition, or some phase of total abstinence for the individual. Prohibition for the Nation, total abstinence for the individual. Our national Superintendent offers a Banner to our department for the largest increase in membership. Let Indiana take the banner, and we will, if all strive and all strive together.

Questions to be answered at the end of the year which will be on or before the 15th of September.

2. Special features of the work done.
3. Number of places where the W. C. T. U. was represented.

4. Amount of money raised.

5. Number of pages of literature distributed.

6. Number of buildings owned by W. C. T. U. on fair or Chautauqua grounds.

7. Number of new members secured by Superintendents.

8. Did the W. C. T. U., prevent the sale of intoxicants on city parks or fair grounds, or any other holiday gatherings?

Report all from last year not previously reported.

How many gospel temperance meetings?

How many conversions at gospel temperance meetings?

Let me urge all Fair workers to strive for the well done of our Master in whose name, and under whose banner we work.

Yours most cordially for success,
M. A. L. COLTON,
Superintendent State and County Fair Work.

Work Among Colored People.

It is with keen disappointment that I must say to our State workers that I am informed by our State officers that there is no money to pay for the printing of blanks for me to send to you to fill out and return. I have been so hopeful for a generous and comprehensive response from our entire State. To the special points with which I have been in regular correspondence I can secure data for my report, but in many places where some work, not considered worthy of a special letter, but which would show that our women are thinking, I fear I shall lose, will not each of you come to the rescue and write me at least a postcard telling me if the interests of this department have been, in any way considered, and if so please specify.

Mrs. Lottie Seales, Wabash county's efficient superintendent, has been in active service. She writes: "We are very proud and hopeful of the colored union; they are trying so hard to do good work." She reports an excellent meeting recently held, where two fine papers were read. The devotion at the beginning of the meeting were especially impressive. With the assistance of the county L. T. L. secretary, Mrs. Holloway, an L. T. L., was on July 14 organized with eighteen members and two good women as leaders. A very successful contest has recently been held, of which Viola Daniels was the winner of a medal. Townsend colored union deserves congratulation.

Wednesday, August 2, was made memorable at Acton Assembly by the able and impressive service rendered by our colored sisters. I give it as reported by the Indianapolis News:

"To-day is the second day of the W. C. T. U. meetings.

Mrs. Mary E. Sims, State Superintendent of the W. C. T. U., spoke this morning on 'Work Among the Colored People.' Mrs. Thomas, of Thorntown, gave an address on 'The Needs of Our People' and a temperance recitation, 'The Old Man's Story.' Mrs. Sissle, a teacher in the Indianapolis schools, talked on 'How to Conduct a Contest.' Mrs. Lucy Tappan Philipps, of Tennessee, spoke of her fifteen years' experience in her work in the South. These three speakers are colored women. They gave excellent addresses. Mrs. Philipps sang 'One Sweetly Solemn Thought,' and 'Swing Low, Sweet Chariot.' She was educated at Flsk University in Nashville and was a trained singer in the jubilee company of that university. Both she and her husband are persons of superior intellect and education."

Lack of funds for postage will restrict my writing of special letters to you individually, for my appropriation has a good while ago been exhausted. Will you not each consider this a personal letter and write me, remembering that it is for "these little ones which believe in Christ."

Sincerely,

MARY E. L. SIMS,
State Superintendent.

Mothers' Meetings.

I hope to receive a report for the year and in time for my report to the State from each superintendent of mothers' meetings. Some unions have no superintendent and yet have done work in this department. Will the President please see that such work by her union is reported.

Mothers' meetings include mothers' clubs, child culture circles, parents' institutes, any meeting.

1. Number of mothers' meetings held.
2. What is the average attendance?
3. Do you hold your mothers' meetings separate from the regular W. C. T. U. meeting?
4. Have you circulating library for mothers?
5. How many subscribers to the New Crusade?
6. How many subscribers to Pro-View Questions?
7. Have you a regular course of study? What is it?
8. Have you a yearly program planned?
9. How many mothers' meetings in connection with the schools?

All reports of Scientific Temperance Instruction superintendents should report promptly to Mrs. Pleasant Bond, 1634 Park ave., Indianapolis.

Mrs. Cammack is employed for a week's work each in Howard and Wells counties. She will also attend the institute in Bartholomew county.

Has your union paid for as many members as was paid at this time last year? How many new members will you have added at the close of the year?

Will unions whose clubs to the MESSAGE expired with June, July or August issue and have not already sent in the names, remember to secure the renewals and send in at once.

Willard memorial Y. has taken up a regular course of study on department work and Leaders, State and National under the direction of the President Miss Clementine Andrews.

Have you renewed your subscription to the MESSAGE and Union Signal. If not do so at once that you may not miss a single issue. The papers are not sent after the time has expired.

The Garvin Concert Company highly entertained a Mapleton audience August 2. They are engaged for the Old Settlers' meeting to be held in Broad-Ripple Park, August 16. Everybody should hear it.

Wells county President will visit every union in her county. She will organize a new union this week. Will every other county President do likewise before state convention? Will every county officer do the same. Try it and report success.

The Marion White Ribboners are planning for our annual convention. Chairman of the entertainment committee is Mrs. Julia Overman, 1802 south Branson street, Marion. Chairman of evangelistic committee, Mrs. Sarah C. Leuferty, 625 west 4th street, Marion.

The untiring efforts of the Superintendent of Sabbath observance in St. Joseph county, have resulted in enabling them to raise enough money to purchase and distribute 28,000 pages of Sabbath observance literature. Places of business are being closed on Sunday and all ball games have been stopped within the city limits.

The Gibson County Institute was held in the First Presbyterian Church. The President, Mrs. J. E. Jenkins, had done well her part in the preparation for the institute. Misses Hadley and Newlin understood the work they were to do and did it well. The attendance was not so large as we would have liked to have seen, but better than last year. The sessions were both interesting and instructive. The L. T. L. contest on the evening of June 10 was well attended and the recitations good. Miss Helen Upstill received the medal. Mrs. E. D. McCurdy.

Martinsville L. T. L. under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Squires gave a most beautiful entertainment for the benefit of the Hadley Industrial School which crowded the Opera House with an enthusiastic audience. The crowd was so great that many people were turned away unable to secure admission. The newspaper reports indicate that there is much interest manifested in Martinsville in the L. T. L. and in our Hadley Training School.

New Garden quarterly meeting of Friends (Wayne county) has made arrangements for a series of Sunday gospel temperance meetings and have engaged our State President to speak Sunday the 13th, morning and evening at Williamsburg. Saturday evening she speaks at the beautiful little Quaker town of Fountain City.

Delaware, Wells, Blackford, Elkhart and Noble counties have engaged Mrs. McWhirter, State President, for county conventions.

The Wells county W. C. T. U. convention will be held at Keystone, September 7 and 8, beginning at 9:30 A. M. on Thursday. An interesting and instructive program has been arranged, one prominent feature being the presentation of department work more fully than has generally been done. Mrs. L. F. McWhirter is expected there. It will certainly be a good meeting. Let as many as possible attend the same.

LAURA O. CRUPP,
Wells county Cor. Sec.

The Friends' Quarterly Meeting Temperance Committee of Marion has lately met and organized for the years work. These are a few of the good things they have planned to do: Visit Teachers Institutes, and public Schools and encourage the teaching of scientific temperance, carry the campaign into the untrodden fields of the county, pay more attention to the circulation of temperance literature and have a good temperance lecture at every Quarterly meeting. We would that more churches had planned likewise.

A fine all day meeting was held in McManan's grove Grant Co., Sunday July 23. Mrs. Cammack, spoke in the morning and a grand gold medal contest was held in the afternoon. It was conducted by Mrs. Angie Kilgore. Miss Rodena Miller received the medal. The platform was large and beautifully decorated. The carpet, organ, pictures and flowers, presented a very home-like appearance. The point Isabel union has been organized four years, and has held 28 contests. This is their first grand gold contest. Mr. and Mrs. Kilgore deserve much praise and encouragement for their earnest persistent work.

Mrs. Mary E. Balch, State Corresponding Secretary, visited the local union and L. T. L. of Atlanta; also spoke at night in the M. E. Church. Her words and presence were helpful and inspiring. She expressed herself as pleased with the work being done. On the 25th the L. T. L. was entertained at the home of their leader, Mrs. W. O. Peirce. The attendance was large. A nice musical and literary program was rendered. Clippings from Union Signal were also read by the children. Two more active members are added to our number. We are hopeful and pressing forward in the name of Him who has promised to lead to certain victory.

LOUISA M. CAMPBELL.

The Pike county W. C. T. U. Institute was held in Petersburg, Miss Hadley and Miss Newlin were in charge. Our institute was a success but owing to other things it was not well attended.

Mrs. Balch surprised us on the second morning by her appearance. Miss Ada Snouden was awarded the medal in the L. T. L. contest.

On the second evening Miss Newlin gave us a splendid address on War and Twentieth Century Civilization. All of the talks by Miss Hadley and Miss Newlin were very much enjoyed as were the excellent papers that were read during the day sessions. A few members were added to the Union and we think this Institute has proven an inspiration to the White Ribboners and they have arranged to have a good program once a month.

The suffrage contest recently held by the Mapleton Union in Harrison's Hall was quite a success; contestants all gentlemen. A large and appreciative audience greeted them. The drill given by twelve little children deserves special mention. The contestants won great applause. The medal was awarded to Mr. Bailey. Baby Squires and Mrs. Squires happened in, to the delight of everybody, their recitations being encored. Tickets 15 cents, including cream and cake. Receipts large. The Treasurer and everybody else delighted. This is the second successful suffrage contest held by the Mapleton Union in the past few weeks, the first being a matron's contest. A debate on the same subject is being arranged to take place in the near future. Prominent men in the community to take part in it. We believe in agitation.

Encourage the girls to organize under the banner for God and home and native land. In every community there could be a Y. W. C. T. U. if only some of the women had been convinced of the great influence and power of girlhood. Arouse ye women! Unless we secure the influence of the girlhood we can not hope to have it said of us, "She hath done what she could." Our secretary of Y. work, Miss Clara Sears, of Anderson, is one of God's own. She is one of the truest, noblest and most energetic workers in our state. Please do engage her for one week's work among the young people of your town. She will go to you from now until the time of the state convention, for expenses and $5 per week. If she wins your daughter to Christ and to the Y. W. C. T. U. you will think her services can not be estimated by commercial values. Write to her today so you may be able to secure her.

DEAR MESSAGE—You were a little late this time dear friend, but oh so welcome, for I am always needing your help and I am sure to get it when you come.

We can almost shout with joy to think our own Anna Gordon is coming so close to us and so soon. We are all impatient to hear the dear voice that keeps saying "Let the little children come, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Our L. T. L. is now starting on its seventh year and we have sent 24 graduates out into the world to battle for the right—"For God and Home and Native Land." Please tell our sister workers to watch for their laurels—Wabash co. is fully awake now and wants to see that banner. Three new L. T. L.'s. have been organized in less than two weeks. One at Laketon and two at Wabash (one white and one colored.) Two more are planned and will be completed soon.

Let the glad cry go out over all the land, more legions "the children properly trained are the hope of our country"

M. A. HOLLOWAY,
Co. L. T. L. Branch Sec. and Co. Organizer.

State Convention.

By action of the mid-year executive local unions are requested to forward the 50 cents for local committee expenses where State convention is held to county Treasurer when dues are forwarded. The county Treasurer to forward to the State Treasurer; all money sent after the State convention to be retained by State Treasurer for the next convention. Will every local union please comply with this request and be prompt. This action was taken because in the past the local committee has been so hampered for lack of funds. Marion has kindly invited us to hold our convention in their beautiful city. Now let every union show its appreciation by sending the 50 cents. This is only a little thing for a union to do, but the little from all over the State will mean much to our Marion sisters. Let me emphasize it. Send all dues received and be sure to send on time. AMANDA T. WHITSON, State Treasurer.

A LETTER.

MY DEAR SISTERS—Just a few words for you to consider before you meet in state convention. There is nothing in your work that demands more immediate attention than your Industrial School at Hadley. While we are delaying our duty in suitably sustaining it, worthy children, in whose interest the work was planned, are knocking at its doors and those admitted are growing to womanhood without proper training because of lack of means. Who is responsible for this work? The Board? A few, while the majority of our membership wonder whenever they will be relieved of the burden of its support? Women when are you relieved of the care of your daughters? I will answer the question. When they are trained and educated and fitted to go out into society, a credit to their parents and home and a blessing to the world! You dear W. C. T. U. are the foster parents of these children committed to our care. They are a sacred trust and woe to us if we neglect it.

The work of the school has in a large measure been done by four members of the board. One member Mrs. Kate Mendenhall, was for a long time laid aside by illness and death has since ended her earthly work. The other members are so far removed from the Home that they have been unable to meet with the board and consequently have borne but little of the burden.

When the time comes for electing the members on the board you will begin to think of some woman you know who is a good W. C. T. U. and whom you would like to put there. If it were a place of honor merely, that would be allowable, but experience teaches that the honor is of little consideration. Work and hard work, is what is needed and in selecting members this is the matter to be regarded. Those who are best acquainted with the business are agreed that the members of the board should be as near as practicable to the Home. We ask and earnestly beg all who can, to visit and become acquainted with the children and management. The board should be near enough to confer and advise with each other regarding the details of the many things that can not be satisfactorily done by correspondence. Women, please lay aside all personal friendships and consider the good of your wards, remembering that you, and not the Board alone, are accountable for the character of the institution you have created and are morally bound to sustain.

FRANCES O. POTTER.

Notice to Delegates to State Convention.

Seven years ago we entertained the State convention and had much experience which was of untold value to us now. We had a most pleasant convention and gained far more from the visit of our comrades than we gave out in the way of entertainment and we feel sure that it will be so again. We hope to meet all who come to us with warm hearts and open doors and make their stay pleasant and profitable. It is only as we work in harmony and are mutually helpful to each other that our great enemy can be overcome.

Now dear sisters, we think if a little of this experience which we gained when we prepared for our annual gathering before be handed to those who anticipate coming to our state convention and is heeded it will be of unlimited help to our committee on entertainment. First, be sure to learn just how many state dues have been paid that you make no mistake in the number of state delegates to which you are entitled. Second, in sending in the names of the delegates, send in names of alternates also. Third, if you have friends with whom you desire to stay during the convention please state it and also give the name of the friend. Thus you see that we will be ready to direct you to the place and will not secure the place for other delegates. Fourth, if you have a preference as to the delegate with whom you wish to be entertained please state it also. Fifth, in sending in the names of delegates please give their church connection for we learned when we canvassed for entertainment before that some found it more congenial to entertain their own church people. Sixth, when you receive your card of entertainment be sure that you inform your hostess on what train you will reach Marion so she will be prepared to meet you. Seventh, appoint your delegate early and send in as soon as appointed. Read this notice again and don't neither lose nor forget it.

Your comrade in the work,

MATTIE O. CAMME.

Number unions that gained last quarter, 102; number unions that gained this quarter, 106.

Most loyally yours for a greater gain next year,

AMANDA T. WHITSON, Treasurer.

DEAR SISTERS—The third quarter closed in June and the report was ready for the July MESSAGE, but gave place to the report of the Institute work. I hope every member of the W. C. T. U. has read the Institute report very carefully and taken special notice of the many new members enrolled, although we have made a gain of 170 paid members this quarter over the corresponding quarter last year, and we are greatly pleased, yet are we satisfied? Have we done all that could have been done in the collection of dues, both from the old members as well as the new? I have waited with unusual anxiety during the past quarter for the reports to come in, especially from the counties and unions where so many new members were added during the Institutes. Let every officer who reads this report make inquiry and ascertain if every member's dues in your union, new or old, has been collected. If not, special effort should be made at once to assist the Treasurer. Dear local President, much depends upon you as well as the Treasurer. If for any reason your Treasurer can not collect the dues, please appoint some one to assist her. Many a time for the lack of this assistance valuable members have been lost to the union. Jesse Ackerman, our round-the-world missionary, says "the greatest need of every union is a good Treasurer, and urges upon all local unions the importance of securing the best woman in the community as a Treasurer, and next to provide some sort of entertainment for the new members, to interest them." As the national convention comes so much earlier than usual this fall, it will be absolutely necessary for every local and county Treasurer to be very prompt in remitting. Will local Treasurers please remit to county Treasurer by the 15th of September that your county Treasurer can send her report to the State Treasurer by the 20th. Blanks will be sent to county Treasurers the last week in this month. Please forward at once to the local Treasurers. I am glad to announce that more unions and more counties have gained in membership during the quarter just closed than during the other quarters of the year. Can we not make this quarter go far ahead of the last? I believe Indiana is equal to the occasion. Let everybody work that victory may be ours.

Yours in loyal service,
A. T. WHITSON, Treasurer.

These will constitute the program committee for next year. Membership entitles you to a vote and your membership money helps to meet the expenses of the program.

Mr. Allan Balch the husband of our own Mary E. Balch, was called home after a severe illness of a few weeks. Mr. Balch was a civil engineer. In former years he did much of the railroad and bridge building in the Middle States. He was a man of splendid ability. In recent years he has been in ill health. He was a friend to our cause and to our workers. The love and sympathy of our membership has been extended to our beloved comrade in her bereavement.

Don't send my boy where your girl can't go,
And say, "There's no danger for boys you know,
Because they all have their wild oats to sow;"
There is no more excuse for my boy to be low
Than your girl. Then please don't tell him so.

Don't send my boy where your girl can't go,

Indiana W. C. T. U. convention Marion Oct. 6-10.

National W. C. T. U. convention Seattle Washington October 20-25.

Each union is expected to send 50cts to Mrs. Julia Overman, Marion, to help on conventions expenses. This should be done immediately.

The State Loyal Temperance Legion Convention will be held at Marion October 6-7 in connection with the State W. C. T. U. convention.

The out of State Speakers at our State convention will be Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens National President W. C. T. U., Miss Anna Gordon National Vice President W. C. T. U. and Honorable John G. Woolley.

At Marion the buss lines grant a return trip for 25cts. to delegates. St. cars run to many parts of the city.

Visitors at convention can secure board at $1.00 per day lodging and three meals.

All dues received before Sept. 25th will be counted in this year.

T. Whitson, Treasurer.

Have you collected all the dues?

Has your Union secured the four additional members asked for?

National Treasures books close nearly a month earlier.

Read Special Offer for September Only.

To the union sending twelve names and $3 for THE MESSAGE during September we will give three free subscriptions; to a union sending twenty-four names, $6, six free subscriptions will be given; to the union whose every member is a subscriber a free subscription to the Union Signal. (Signed) AMANDA T. WHITSON

Delegates to the State convention ask your home ticket agent to have certificates on hand so when you buy your ticket to Marion and pay full fare he can give you a certificate which will entitle you to return at one third regular fare.

Each union is entitled to representation in the annual convention by the president, one delegate at large and one delegate for every twenty regular members whose dues have been paid.

Special rates will be made at hotels and boarding houses at Marion for visiting delegates to our State convention. Be sure and take your son or daughter. A few days in that convention will be of far more value to them than the same number of days in High School or College. How can you expect interest and enthusiasm to be manifested in the cause by those who have only seen a few steady W. C. T. U. workers in their home community. Youth is energetic and enthusiastic and needs to feel the inspiration of a great convention.

Pullman sleeper rate $14 for double lower berth accommodating two persons from Chicago to Seattle. We hope to have fifteen or more to go in our party; so that a sleeper may be chartered, which will greatly reduce the expense, making it perhaps as low as $10 for double berth. Those desiring to join the party should write for sleeper reservations so that a car may be chartered.

The party will leave Indianapolis at 4:15 P. M. Oct. 13th via the Big Four for Chicago. From Chicago the party will leave the Chicago Milwaukee and St. Paul station at 10:15 P. M. Oct. 13th arriving at St. Paul at 11:50 A. M. Oct. 14. A stop-over of several hours will be made at St. Paul giving time for visiting the Twin Cities of the North-west and Minnehaha Falls. The Sabbath will be spent in Fargo, South Dakota. The sleeper will remain at the disposal of the party during these stops without additional expense. Apply to your local agents for rates which can be secured at the one fare for the round trip plus $2.00 from all points. Stop-over privileges allowed west of St. Paul and Missouri river on application to conductors. Indiana delegates and their friends starting from Indianapolis can secure tickets by applying at the Big Four ticket office No. 1 E. Wash. st. Persons who go to Chicago to join our party and have some hours to wait are requested to meet at the Windsor European Hotel, which contains no bar and is where Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens and Miss Anna Gordon stop when in Chicago. It is situated in the center of the city at 145-153 Dearborn st.

Rates for rooms are from 75cts. to $1.50 per day.

The excellent equipment and splendid service of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul and the Northern Pacific makes them the choice of the Northern lines running through to the coast. Passing through the greatest cities of the North region St. Paul, Fargo, Bismarck, Helena, Spokane and Tacoma before reaching Seattle; Puget Sound and vicinity present many attractions. The return trip will give opportunity for seeing an entirely different and equally interesting part of the great West. From Seattle our party will go down over the Northern Pacific to Portland, the largest of the North coast cities. From there over the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company and the Oregon Short Line across the States of Oregon, Idaho and Utah to Ogden. From Ogden to Denver we will cross the States of Utah and Colorado over the Denver & Rio Grande, thus passing through the most picturesque region of the Rockies, with their famous scenery and resorts, through Pueblo, Colorado Springs, Manitou and Pike's Peak near by. From Denver over the Chicago & Rock Island and across some of the richest and most beautiful country of homes in America to Chicago, and from there to Indianapolis over the Big Four line.

Persons desiring further information in regard to the trip address Mrs. Luella F. McWhirter, President Indiana W. C. T. U., 2312 College avenue, Indianapolis, Ind.

Call To Prayer.

Every union is requested to observe a day of prayer for the State convention. On account of the victories of the past and the momentum gained in our work we will this year need special guidance and wisdom in planning for the future. Let us pray for deeper consecration and for a great spiritual uplift such as has never before been experienced in our annual convention. LAELLA F. McWHIRTER, Pres. Ind. W. C. T. U.

The many L. T. L's. of Columbus held a grand picnic at a park June 10th. They used chartered street cars which came from various parts of the city to a central point where they were filled to their fullest capacity with 1200 happy boys and girls. On the sides of the cars were stretched streamers bearing the motto "Saloons Must Go" which not only attracted attention but unconsciously stirred up the biggest kind of a sensation. By the time the cars had reached the park employees of the St. Railway Co. had received instructions to remove the objectionable streamers and hold them as the company would not permit them to be on the cars on the return trip. When interviewed by Mrs. Burt who had made the contract with the Supt. that gentleman said there had been such a storm of protest raised by the business men against the use of the streamers "Saloons Must Go" that the company had decided not to permit their use on the return trip. The saloon keepers were the "business men." The company was so terrorized by them that notwithstanding the contract it would not yield to justice.

The boys and girls improvised banners putting the motto on them which they flaunted from the windows on the return trip and shouted the mottoes and rally cries most vigorously.

A letter from Mrs. Burt to Mrs. Whitson says that nothing has ever aroused our city as that did. The ministers called an indignation meeting at once and from that they began agitation. The W. C. T. U. is growing rapidly and we have taken up Legion work. An Indiana city with 1,000 Loyal Temperance Legioners would consider that it had been doing Legion work.

All members of the State executive committee and others who arrive in Marion on Thursday are expected to take lunch with them and go to the First M. E. Church.

TO PUGET SOUND AND THE PACIFIC COAST

From Indianapolis and Return $66.00.

From Chicago and Return for $61.50.

The National Woman's Christian Temperance Union Convention will be held at Seattle, Wash., October 20-25. This will be a splendid time of the year to make a trip to the Pacific coast, and we hope many White Ribboners and their friends will avail themselves of this splendid opportunity to visit Puget Sound and the Pacific coast region. In order that our Indiana delegates and visitors may make this long trip in one party, we have succeeded, after much effort, in arranging for tickets to be issued, without additional expense, which will take our party to Seattle over the very best lines through the great Northwestern country and returning through the heart of the Rockies. The party will go and return over the following lines:

The Chicago division of the Big Four to Chicago, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul to St. Paul and the Northern Pacific through from St. Paul to Seattle. Returning via Northern Pacific to Portland, Ore., the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company line and Oregon Short Line to Ogden; from there via Denver & Rio Grande through Pueblo, Colorado Springs (Pike's Peak) to Denver. From Denver to Chicago via Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway; from Chicago to Indianapolis over the Big Four line.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

Attention, Superintendents!

DEAR SUPERINTENDENTS—If you remember the band of Superintendents that gathered at the executive asked that their reports be printed previous to State convention and that extra copies be brought to State convention for free distribution. If this be done it will be necessary for your reports to be in the hands of the Secretary more than five days before the opening of the convention. Now, a word to the wise is sufficient, and I am sure our Superintendents are of the wise.

Let county and local Superintendents bear in mind that the State constitution says all reports must be in the hands of the Recording Secretary five days previous to State convention, and if there is a little "hurrying up" all along the line, reports I am sure will come in nicely.

Now do not send in reports to your Secretary as they come from the counties expecting her to compile them (or the printer), but have them in perfect readiness for the annual report, and then "all things shall work together for good." Yours kindly,
MATTIE O. CAMMACK,
State Recording Secretary.

Press Superintendents.

The people of Indiana are eager and anxious to learn more of the work of the W. C. T. U. and of the progress it is making. The newspapers of the State stand ready with their open columns to help educate the public along all our lines of work. But we must do our part. Now is the time to appoint press Superintendents for next year. Let every union consider this of utmost importance. Many strong temperance adherents tell us that they received the first "arrest of thought" through reading some article, item or even sentence pointed with a temperance truth. Many a woman will read with interest the W. C. T. U. items reports, etc., when she would not think of attending a meeting of the union. The more she reads and hears of the plans and achievements of this great body of women, the greater becomes her respect for the organization itself, and thus gradually creeps in a desire to become "one with it" and "lend a hand."

Keep all knowledge of your work from the newspapers and the public will soon conclude that you have died or gone out of business. Keep your work before the people and you will do good and prosper.

Report blanks have been sent to all the county Superintendents and to local Superintendents where there is no county Superintendent. If any one has been overlooked please notify me at once. Will Presidents of local unions without press Superintendents but where items concerning the W. C. T. U. have appeared (institute write-ups for instance) in the papers, and kindly report to me the number of columns or approximate number published.

The silver star is to be awarded this year for the greatest amount of work accomplished in proportion to the workers. I have been told that Indiana stands a very good chance of securing the prize if she will only report her work. Let us do our best to win it. Faithfully,

1. Name and address of county Superintendent.
2. How many local Superintendents in your county?
3. From how many have you received systematic reports of work accomplished?
4. How many papers published in your county?
5. How many supplied with W. C. T. U. matter?
6. How many daily papers take our items? Also weekly, religious, reform, agricultural and miscellaneous.
7. How many columns of matter furnished? What proportion original?
8. How many press Superintendents take the Union Signal? How many MESSAGE?
9. How many send items to MESSAGE? To Union Signal reporter?
10. How many newspaper offices supplied with Union Signal? MESSAGE?
11. Have you made an effort to carry out the plans adopted for this department this year?
12. Give the efforts used by your Superintendents in public or parlor meetings, by program or otherwise to present our work.

Please in addition to the above report send me a concise account of the work done in your county in this department, omitting nothing that will aid in any way in correctly presenting the status of press work in your county. All reports, blanks and clippings must be in my hands by September 15.

FLORENCE E. VANCE,
908 E. Walnut St., Frankfort. Sup't.

Sunday-School Department.

DEAR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS—Do you want your name and the work done in your county to appear in the State and National report? Then report to me if possible by the 12th of September. Local Superintendents will report direct to me where there is no county Superintendent. County and local Presidents who have no Superintendents of this department please report all work done in and by your union. I very much desire the name and address of every local and county Superintendent before I make my report. Will you help me in this? Send or bring your pledge chain to the State convention (for I now live in the "convention city"). Get it to me early that we may have it to decorate the church.

ITEMS OF REPORT.

1. Total membership of Sunday-schools.
2. Number who have signed the pledge during the year.

3. Total number of pledged members in the Sunday-schools.
  4. Number of family pledges placed in homes.
  5. Number Sunday-schools having pledge rolls of honor.
  6. Number pages temperance literature used. (Include in this papers taken, books in Sabbath-school, libraries added during the year, and all temperance literature circulated).

- Let this be the best report of our department. Yours with that hope,
ALICE G. GEARY,
1319 W. 11th St., Marion. State Superintendent.

Having been so recently appointed to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Ada White, it will be impossible to make the last quarterly report. I have heard from but two of the county Superintendents and will reserve the items they gave for the annual report. Will the county Superintendents please secure their reports from the local Superintendents as early as possible, so that all reports may be made to me by the middle of September. Those wishing blanks send request to me at 1634 Park avenue, Indianapolis.

MARTHA W. BOND.

Evangelistic.

DEAR SISTERS—Trusting that you have kept a careful record of the evangelistic work done during the year. I send the following questions that a suitable report maybe presented to our State convention and printed in our annual minutes.

Has your union emphasized the following lines of work outlined for 1899:

Have crusade meetings been held?
Have the foundations of our work been prominent in public meetings? Those outlined were our sure and only reliance upon the Holy Spirit and the Word of God; the earnest invitation to a personal Christ; the duty of total abstinence; the presentation of the pledge; the convention evangelistic hour from 11 to 12 A. M.; the noontide prayer.

Has rescue work been prominent?
How many temperance addresses have been given before conventions, or regular meetings, of Christian Endeavor and Epworth League societies?

Did your union observe Sunday, March 5, as evangelistic and woman's Sunday?

How many services were held and with what result?
Have you made effort to restore the Bible to the public schools?

What work has been done in almshouses?
Number of gospel temperance meetings held?
How many in churches?
How many in prisons and jails?
How many in penitentiaries?
How many in almshouses?
How many in halls?
How many in cottages?
How many mothers' meetings?
How many in school houses?
How many on ships or in forts?
How many out-door services?
How many visits made by union?
How many conversions?
How many Bible readings in union?
How many signatures to pledge?
How many pages temperance literature distributed?

Please report any evangelistic work done by your union, not included in the above questions.

Please do not in any case give an indefinite answer to a question. For instance, it will not do to answer a question in such words as "some," "not many," "a few," etc. We must have figures. If you are not able to be exact, please give approximate figures. We are sure you will do all in your power to make these reports a success.

MRS. ELLA J. DAVIS,
Richmond, Ind. State Superintendent.

Mothers' Contest.

The Eunice P. Wilson Union, Upland, held a very entertaining and instructive entertainment at the United Brethren Church, Saturday evening, August 12. There were seven contestants, all of which rendered their parts without fault, bringing out that caused effect the license system was getting on our government, the enormous number of our dear boys it was taking to hell every day, and the destruction of our homes, which would otherwise be bright and happy. May God speed the day when saloons will be no more in our land and strong drink will be a thing of the past. The quartet rendered some very fine music for the occasion, which was excellent. The parts were rendered so well it was difficult for the judges to determine who the medal should be awarded to, but after some delay it was given to Mrs. Leora Carder. A collection was taken and the congregation was solicited for new members.

HATTIE E. KIST.

State Convention Notes.

Tickets will be sold for Hon. John G. Woolley's lecture on Saturday.

Please send copies of all the programs and other printing used during the year to Mrs. McWhirter for use on the sample literature table at convention.

Every union should urge its President to attend the State convention. We need their presence, and, in order to be fitted for aggressive leadership, they need the inspiration of the convention.

An admission of 25 cents will be charged to the lecture on Saturday evening by Hon. John G. Woolley. A special trolley car will be run from Anderson to Marion to accommodate the people who desire to attend this lecture.

County and local press Superintendents will please announce through the columns of the papers items of interest in regard to the State and National conventions. Extend invitations to all people interested to attend both conventions.

The banners and decorations belonging to your union and your L. T. L. would greatly help to decorate our convention church at Marion. Will you please mark them and bring them with you for the use of the committee. Chairman Mrs. H. A. Davis, 611 South Washington street, Marion.

All county Presidents are expected to be in attendance at the executive committee meeting at convention church in Marion, at 1 P. M., Thursday, October 5. The church will be open all day, so immediately upon your arrival go there with your baggage and take a box of lunch with you for noon. Adjournment will be in time for all to go to places of entertainment.

Annual Convention Marion.

For years in the past we have not been so favored with distinguished guests at a State convention as we are to be at Marion.

Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens our National President and Miss Anna. A. Gordon, our National Vice-president are to be with us. Miss Gordon will address our L. T. L. convention. Hon. John G. Woolley will speak on "Y Night" to young people.

No White Ribboner who can possibly attend can afford to miss this great convention.

And not only are the doors of the homes of Marion open, but they are taken entirely off their hinges and stored away during convention week. But dear sisters, there are a few things we want to impress upon your minds—be sure and learn just how many delegates you are entitled to and send names early; also names of alternates. When cards of entertainment are received notify your hostess at once. When you arrive in the "Queen City of the gas belt" if not met at the station go directly to the First M. E. Church, where you will be received "with open arms" and directed to your homes. Be prompt in sending to JULIA OVERMAN, 1802 South Branson Street.

Hadley Industrial School.

About twenty-five miles to the southwest of Indianapolis a traveler over the St. Louis division of the Big Four Railroad will notice a large beautiful building, standing on an eminence overlooking farms of native beauty, which show thrift in management. This building is the product and property of the W. C. T. U. of Indiana and is known as Hadley Industrial School for Girls. This building is a monument to the energy of the loyal temperance women who constructed it, and we hope is but the beginning of greater undertakings. As my words are to the owners of this home, you will pardon me for being plain in speech.

Your votes at State convention elect women throughout the State as a board of managers to run this institution. They are not acquainted with the work and do not know what responsibilities they are assuming. They visit the home and see the possibilities that are open to it. Begin to study its needs and receive letters from all parts of our State, claiming admission for the class of girls for whom this house was builded. And alas! their burdens are more than they are able to bear. So much to do, so little to do it with. A critical period in the existence of this school is now at hand. Shall we go forward or beat a retreat? I pause for your answer. It is the old problem of finance that is ever presenting its knotty side to us.

I need hardly remind you that Finance is the foundation of every enterprise. It is the basis on which rests the management of all governments. The great public school system of our nation stands on the rock of Finance. Our churches, libraries and benevolent institutions are dependent on it, and can we expect to be an exception to it to this universal rule? This is a period of great benevolence and many munificent gifts have been received and applied as economically as possible. We hope these unexpected gifts may continue to flow in upon us, that we may enlarge our accommodations so that none need be turned away, and that better service may be given these adopted children. But my dear sister, this is not enough. We should have a sum at command sufficient for running expenses. Our officers should be paid promptly that their interest may not slacken. Repairs are constantly needed. The exposed parts of the windows and door frames; also the gutters around the building need to be repainted. Out buildings are in bad shape and other things might be mentioned which need attention before cold weather approaches. Some plan should be formulated to supply the needed funds. If we could have a sum equal in amount to $1 per member, we could clothe, educate and train our girls in a creditable manner. This sum might be obtained by contest work or any other plan adopted by the State executive. But decisive measures should be at once adopted. Our school is failing to stand as well as other institutions of similar character do. It is not in as good condition as your board of managers would like it to be; nor can we make it so without funds with which to do it. We now have thirty girls and perhaps three others may be admitted and then we must close the doors to others unless speedy relief comes to us. I have received letters from unions and individuals asking what the plan for systematic giving is, that they may do their part in supporting this school. I have not been able to answer them.

Let us pull together and strive for better methods of work and management. Sincerely yours,
LUCRETIA HOBART.

DEAR SISTERS OF THE STATE OF INDIANA—I hope you read with much interest the reports of Hadley Industrial School and know just what we are doing. You will see in this issue Martinsville Union sent in $21.75 from contest plan, the first money received since this plan was adopted at Wabash mid-year executive meeting. I do hope we may hear from other unions following. Quite a number of pledges that were given at Lafayette have not been paid; also century pledges. I do hope I may hear from you soon with a donation for our home, which we are so much interested in. Let us feel in our heart that these girls are our own and will do by them as we do those in our homes. May the Lord bless every effort being made for the success of the work we so much love.

A Fire.

On the morning of August 22d two of the little girls had occasion to arise earlier than usual and casting their eyes in the direction of the cottage discovered it to be on fire. Mrs. Hannars and Mr. Gudger were soon on the spot and with three buckets of water succeeded in extinguishing it on the ground floor; as it was confined to the narrow limits of a closet where it originated, but it had gained access to the roof and spread with rapidity. And as the hour was so early it was not seen by the neighbors until it was beyond control. It was occupied as a wash house and place of storage for small tools used in the garden and on the farm. The cellar was a fine one, being cemented with side troughs for holding the milk. It was well filled with milk, butter and milk utensils at time of burning.

Quite a number of things were rescued from the building, but attention must soon be directed to the well filled barn, hay-stack and two strawstacks, which were in near proximity. Mr. Gudger got on the barn and neighbors by this time were coming in and they took positions on the straw and haystacks and in this position fought the fire. As the burning cinders alighted they threw them off, or stamped them out, thus saving them from the flames. There was a small insurance on the cottage and to-day members of the board are to meet the officers of the company for adjustment. I feel sure they will press their claim and get all that is possible out of it. The loss of this building will necessitate the building of a laundry and milk-cellar, at as early a date as possible as no adequate room for either laundry or milk; is in existence in the dwelling-house.

L. HOBART.

Hadley Industrial School, Attention!

We are living in a time of phenomenal benevolence when men and women are seeing that eleemosynary institutions live to do good and that when they have a surplus of this world's goods the best thing to do with it is to give it where it may be a perpetual blessing.

Last year the known value of these benefactions exceeded the grand sum of $45,000,000 and now during the first half of the present year benefactions amounting to $37,500,000 have been given in amounts not less than $5,000.

The most noteworthy gift ever given to the cause of education was that of Mrs. Leland Stanford who on May 31 last deeded to Stanford university the bulk of all her wealth consisting of stocks and real estate. This property had a face and possibly a future value of $38,000,000 and a present cash market value of at least $15,000,000.

Our people are quick to see that institutions will live when they are gone. And they wish to place their funds where they will swell the tide of intelligence, usefulness and happiness of others.

Now, in order to turn the attention of men like Uncle Addison Hadley, Mr. Carmack and others to our home, we must show our own interest in it by evening up to the help of those who have begun this work. Let no woman of the W. C. T. U. feel that she is a worker unless her testimony comes in cash.

The Methodists of the South intend to raise a thank-offering for the new century of $1,500,000. What will Indiana do for Hadley?

C. H. VAWTER.

DEAR WHITE RIBBONS—May we have space to tell something of the work in Bartholomew county. We have printed programs for one meeting during each month of the year. Those unions who have two meetings in a month supply the other programs. We have the same programs used in every union in the county, so our work is universal.

In the spring we held a very interesting and instructive Normal Institute at Columbus. Two members were added at Institute. Professor A. J. Bigney of Moores Hill College was secured by the county W. C. T. U. to present the subject of Scientific Temperance at our annual county teachers' Institute. He is excellent in science and a fine instructor. His work was enthusiastically received and created much interest among the teachers.

The W. C. T. U. was well represented at our farmers' fair. This fair is held during three days of each year. The W. C. T. U. had a rest room there. It was beautifully decorated with bunting and banners. In large letters at the top of the front were the words "Rest Room," beneath which hung suspended a large banner bearing the words "Woman's Christian Temperance Union, for God, Home and Humanity;" under this hung another banner bearing the words "Saloons Must Go." In another place hung a banner of flags which spelled the word "Welcome."

Our room contained a couch, chairs, seats, plenty of cushions and a stand. At the back of the room was a banner containing the words "For God and Home and Native Land." We also had ice water part of the time, but water becoming scarce we could not get it all the time. We had wash basin, soap and towels, comb and clothes brush. We distributed 3,412 pages of literature. We also checked baskets and made some money for our work.

As they always have a program for each day during these fairs, we were given charge of children's hour and temperance hour. During the children's hour we held a medal contest, interspersed by other recitations and music. Ray Markland of Columbus won the medal. During temperance hour we had an address by Rev. Paul Grider, pastor of Hope Moravian Church.

We are now arranging to hold our county convention of the W. C. T. U. on September 14 at Columbus. Yours in the work,
MRS. JENNIE GUFFEY, County President.

Clinton County Song.

THE TEMPERANCE VICTORY 1900.

Tune—"Marching Through Georgia."

Who'll win the temperance banner in the year of noughty nought,
We're sure we think some union in Clinton county ought,
But which one of the earnest eight and what the battle fought,
That shall give us the victory.

CHORUS—You'll see, you'll see, the W. C. T. U.
Will show the world what womanhood can do,
With God and home and native land kept ever in our view,
God will give us the victory.

Shall Frankfort, Manson, Rossville or Farmer's Chapel win—
Or Mulberry or Lillian S. or Jefferson be in,
Or Sedalia be the one to down the greatest sin,
That shall give us the victory.

'Tis not the one who on fame's scroll
Shall write her name above,
'Tis not the one to win applause is ever on the move,
But 'tis the one whose battles all are fought in faith and love,
To whom God gives the victory.

Then let us work in faith and love and the saloon will go;
Our home and land the great destroyer never more shall know,
And we shall have a peaceful earth—a heaven here below,
When God gives us the victory.

Indiana's Plan of Reporting.

Read at Henry County Institute.

The plan formulated by the officers of the Indiana Woman's Christian Temperance Union is ideal but none the less practical. It is so simple yet so perfect in all its details that it seems a little child might comprehend. Yet we need all the parts to work in harmony. In a piece of machinery if one wheel fails to do its work it throws the other parts out of balance and imperfect work is done. This plan has a reflex action. The State Superintendent is dependent on the county and local Superintendent and the local Superintendent is dependent on the county and State. Neither can do and get her work done properly without the other. It is the same with the Secretaries and Treasurers. If any one officer fails to report or delays reporting after the specified time the higher officers come up lame in their reports. Only by each member doing just what she is elected to do in the specified time can this beautiful system be carried out. Each local officer and Superintendent should keep an itemized account of all work done, with the date, in a book provided for that purpose. Nothing should be considered too insignificant to report. The grand total of our work is made up of the little things done by the individual members. Only a few can be leaders and do the greater things, and they could do but little if the details were not planned and carried out by the people never heard of outside of their own counties. Suppose a splendid meeting were planned and carried to a successful issue and then not reported, it would only accomplish half its mission. It needs to be written about and talked about that people may be stirred up and thought arrested. It is just as important to report the handing out of a tract as it is that of the splendid meeting, and it may prove the greater thing in its far-reaching results. For we know not which will prosper, this or that, or whether both shall be alike fruitful. Officers, especially the corresponding secretary and the treasurer should be provided with the books which the State has prepared for their respective offices. As these books contain questions which correspond with those on the quarterly report blank. If they are well kept the quarterly report can be made out and forwarded without trouble or delay. So many reports are forwarded to the superior officer and only partially made out. This comes in part from the fact that the necessary information has not been kept on record and in part from neglect to answer all the questions in some way. All should be answered if only by a "0" or, "I don't know," but if the record is well kept the one reporting will know and not have to try to refresh her memory or guess at the answer.

We can not emphasize too strongly the necessity of promptness in reporting. For instance take the close of the present quarter and the treasurers report. The books of the state treasurer close Sept. 25. Reports or money sent in after that date can not be counted in this year's work and sent to the National in time to help us save the banner for Indiana and you know that is the goal Indiana's officers are striving for and the membership should not be one whit behind its leaders in the effort to increase.

Only an average of three or four to each union above the membership of last year will bring Indiana gloriously to the front. Thus the treasurer should be instant in season and out of season, (if it ever is out of season to collect membership fees that are due) hoping thereby to make the desired increase ready to report on time. What applies to the Treasurer applies equally to the Secretaries and Superintendents, each one reporting on the proper blanks that are always furnished by the 15th of December, March, June and September that the county officer may have ten days to get her report into the State. Some workers never give themselves any margin of time for unexpected emergencies, and when these come their report is sent out too late. In the face of all that have been said I have repeatedly known of unions that waited until State convention to send in their dues, and then were not satisfied that they were not portorted.
MARY PAINTER, Spiceland.

FIELD NOTES.

Make your list equal to your membership.

Do your county officers take THE MESSAGE?

Monon union will soon hold a matrons' contest.

Miss Grace Chandler is the newly-elected President of the Peru Y.

Hon. John G. Woolley spoke to 3,000 people at the temperance rally in Union county.

Have you renewed your subscription to THE MESSAGE? If not please do so at once.

Make special effort to have THE MESSAGE go to every local officer, including the Superintendents.

Has any union failed to collect all the dues? Then do so and remit to the State Treasurer at once.

Indianapolis, Mapleton and West Indianapolis unions are actively engaged in a membership contest.

One dollar ($1) honorary membership fee will pay for four subscriptions to THE MESSAGE. Two dollars will pay for eight and $3 for an entire club of twelve.

The membership contest given by the Peru Y was a magnificent success, thirteen active and seven honorary members gained. Every one jubilant over their success.

We call especial attention to our latest offer to the unions sending in a club of twelve for THE MESSAGE. This offer holds good for the month of September only.

Mrs. Sayers, President Clinton county, is bereaved by the death of her loved sister. The White Ribboners extend to her and the family their deepest sympathies.

County Treasurers, please urge every union in your county to pay dues this quarter. Will not every local Treasurer respond to this call and help the county Treasurer make this her best quarterly report.

Blanks were sent to the county Treasurers August 26 and should be in the hands of the local Treasurers by the first of September. If local Treasurers have not received theirs please write for them at once.

Fairmount reports a membership contest held with very gratifying results. Seventeen active and seven honorary members were added to their union. Reception to the new members to be given in the new future.

One of the district Superintendents of Kansas has been appealing to her district workers to attend the school meetings and elect officers who do not use tobacco, and will hire teachers that neither drink nor use tobacco.

Has any union failed to secure the four new members asked for? If so can you not as a union set apart the next two or three days for this special work and send dues to your county Treasurer by the 15th of September.

To assist in securing the September club, sample copies of THE MESSAGE have been sent into every union. Three free subscriptions to be given for a club of twelve and $3. This offer is for September only. No union can afford to miss securing the club.

To MY WHITE RIBBON SISTERS and co-workers who have written me their remembrance and sympathy in my recent sorrow, I return thanks and pray God's blessing on them I have found the promises sure and sufficient in his name.

MARY E. BALCH.

Send THE MESSAGE into the homes of those whom you wish to become interested. One State has almost double the number of subscribers to their State paper that they have members, believing it to be the best literature they can secure for distribution.

Miss Mary Hadly gave an entertaining lecture at Sedalia August 29. She was greeted with a large audience, the church being decorated with beautiful flowers. She gave an interesting talk on what the W. C. T. U. did throughout the world; also gave a brief talk on the actual cost of the saloons. Miss Hadly is a bright and intelligent lady. We wish her success and hope to have her with us again in the near future.

A parlor meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held recently at the residence of Mrs. C. F. Fassnacht, President of the Chapin Park Union, South Bend, and was largely attended. A very interesting program was rendered. A paper on Christian citizenship was read by Mrs. Alex Staples. She stated concisely the duty of every true citizen and argued that the church should stand back of the temperance cause and that the ballot should be used to put men into power who will be an honor to their office. A paper on narcotics by Mrs. Emil Ryer stating the harmful influence of the cigarette habit and the harmful effects of nicotine was read. Both papers were carefully prepared and were well received. A recitation by Miss Nellie Hardy, a song by Mrs. Wilde accompanied on the guitar by Mrs. Barry and a piano solo by Mrs. Frank Freyermith completed the program. Judging from the hearty applause each number was well received. Mrs. Barry rendered guitar solos during the evening. After the program a social time was indulged in and dainty refreshments were served.

The President of the Farmers' Chapel Union is also Superintendent of the Sunday-school at that place. The combination works fine.

Angola union is determined that a saloon shall not be granted admission to Angola, which is the only county seat town where there is not a saloon or a saloon drug store.

Miss Kate Lebrick of Sims, Grant county, writes they will work for the four new members asked for, besides the paid membership, equaling the paid membership of last year.

Upland union held a very successful suffrage contest August 12. This union paid dues for twelve more members last quarter than during the corresponding quarter last year.

Poplar Bluff Mission has a temperance Mayor who fought his fight under the bow of White Ribbon. He was solicited to remove it but refused saying that if elected he expected to do his duty.

Mrs. Ada L. Squires organized a Y union at Monrovia with fourteen members. She attended the Posey county convention and will remain for work in that county until the time for the State convention.

White county convention was held at Chalmers. Mrs. S. D. Curtis of Lafayette gave valuable assistance during the convention. Chalmers union held a contest and will send delegates to the State convention.

On page 18 of the State minutes please notice that three premiums have been offered for the first, second and third largest club for THE MESSAGE. Now look up the club list already sent. Take advantage of the special September offer and secure one of these prizes.

Delaware, Blackford and Wells counties will hold the incountry conventions on the 6th, 7th and 8th of this month. We are assured that many new members will be added to their unions. Grant county also secures her for the convention to be held in Upland, September 21.

Laketon, a newly organized union of thirteen members, reports work going on nicely. They are having a tussle with a saloon and believe they will come off victorious. They also report a fully organized L. T. L. doing good work. Has your union an L. T. L.? If not, why not? Children can be trained for voters much more easily than grown-up voters can be changed.

Clinton county is to have Miss Hadley for a week's work. Clinton county convention will be held September 21 at Rossville. The county President has requested all the delegates to provide themselves with the noon lunch so the ladies may have the full benefit of the convention, and not stay at home to cook the dinner. Our beloved State President, Mrs. L. F. McWhirter, will be with us.

EMMA SAYLER.

Miss Mary Hadley is in Clinton county for a week's work. She reports a new union of sixteen members organized at Kirklint, and sends a club for THE MESSAGE equal to their membership. Several names given for a union in another place, but on account of another engagement could not stay to organize. Frankfort Union decided to take up the membership contest work. Miss Hadley spoke one evening at Sedalia, adding several new members.

The ladies of the Edwardsport and Freelandville unions had a meeting and picnic at Westphalia. The following county officers were present: Mrs. Arrie F. Polk, President; Mrs. J. T. McJamsey, Treasurer and Mrs. Nellie Virtue, Corresponding Secretary. We had talks from the members and an experience meeting on the subject "Why I Became a White Ribboner." Miss Hilda Reeves gave us a splendid recitation. After the meeting a bountiful supper was spread, even to ice tea and ice cream. We secured one new member and several signers to the pledge. Knox county is arranging to have a booth at the fair and distribute literature and check parcels. NELLIE VIRTUE CHAMBERS, Co. Cor. Sec.

The saintly Miss Frances Ridley Havergal literally lived and moved in the Word of God. It was her constant solace, delight and inspiration. It is related of her that on the last day of her life she asked a friend to read to her the forty-second chapter of Isaiah. When the friend read the sixth verse, "I the Lord have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee," Miss Havergal stopped her. "Called — held — kept — used," she whispered. "Well I will just go home on that." And she did "go home on that," as on a celestial chariot, and the home-going was a triumph, with an abundant entrance into the city of God. What word of God have you to go home on?

The W. C. T. U. of Frankfort held a special meeting in the interest of the franchise department and the following program was rendered: Song; Bible lesson and talk from notes of Mrs. Hoffman's address at Battle Ground, Mrs. Stevenson; prayer, Mrs. Boyer; paper, Franchise, Mrs. Frank Hinds; selection, "Giving the Ballot to the Mothers," W. C. T. U. ladies' chorus; reading, "Why I Want to Vote," Mrs. Clara Fortune; piano solo, Mrs. Florence Vance; paper, "Enfranchisement of Indiana Women," Mrs. Barricklow; responsive reading, Franchise, Mrs. Barricklow and Mrs. Condon; selection, "When Mothers Vote as Well as Pray," W. C. T. U. ladies' chorus; prayer, Mrs. Emma Saylor. Honorary members and general public invited.

Resolution.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God to sadly bereave the family of Sister Workman, superintendent of "Flower Mission Work" of South-East, W. C. T. U., by suddenly calling their loved one home to the Father's home above.

Resolved, That we extend them the most hearty sympathy of our W. C. T. U. Union, with the assurance that we mourn with them in their loss, and as a sister can help a sister, we feel the weight of their sorrow.

Mrs. E. W. LOOMIS, President.
Mrs. T. N. BRYAN, Secretary.

The W. C. T. U. of Henry county held a Normal Institute at Greensboro, August 11. Though off of schedule time, the meeting was none the less interesting and instructive. The attendance was very good when we take into consideration the fact that the county fair was being held a few miles away. Many voters were present all day and listened earnestly to the discussion of plans and methods relating to our work, as well as to the papers and talks on subjects relating to the welfare of the people at large. Among other subjects woman's responsibility for the saloon and man's responsibility for the saloon were very thoroughly discussed, and many truths were uttered that we hope may bring forth fruit. Mrs. McWhirter was with us all day and evening and aided much by her larger knowledge of people and events, to the interest and instruction of the day. At night Mrs. McWhirter gave one of her rousing addresses to an interested audience. Taken altogether it was a day Greensboro will long remember.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Belle D'e Bruler President Hillsboro Union and Treasurer Dubois county, died Saturday morning August 26 after a years great suffering.

On March 2 '99 Death visited Freelandville Union and called from our midst one of our most faithful members Mrs. Lena Chambers. At the time of her death she was corresponding secretary of the Local Union and Superintendent of Purity of the county. She was one of pure mind and lived to help make others better and while we mourn her loss, Heaven has gained another angel at the throne and we are left to emulate her goodness.

In the death of Mrs. Inez H. Kessinger, wife of Hon. Clarence B. Kessinger, Vincennes lost one of her ablest workers, not only in the W. C. T. U., but in church and charity work as well. Mrs. Kessinger at the time of her death was president of the Vincennes union. She was a woman of fine intellectual powers, always cheerful and ever ready to do good deeds. She was loyal to the cause of Temperance and everything that is right. Long will her sweet, sunny life be as a beacon light to those left behind. She made many a heart beat gladder and helped lift many a burden and was ready when her summons came to go home to heaven.

The Jeffersonville union has been bereaved during the past year by the promotion of three efficient members.

Our mother in Israel, Mrs. Elizabeth G. Zineck, fell asleep in Jesus suddenly, on her 87th birthday, September 13 1898.

Mrs. Rhoda Cade Hughbanks, was promoted in the prime of life, her life here was one of active christian services, she was called higher January 5th. 1899.

Mrs. Emily L. Bass, after months of intense suffering, received her promotion July 20, 1899. She was our treasurer for fifteen years, an eager worker, keenly conscientious, faithful in all things—even unto death. "They shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels".

A Plea for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Only two pennies a week, dear sisters,
Scarcely two pennies a week
'Twill cost you to join us, sisters dear,
Then come and go with us, you need not fear.

Will you help us to build this beautiful temple,
Of gold and silver and precious stones?
No wood, no hay, no stubble have we,
But Christ the Rock, who made us free.

For a foundation we have the prophets of old,
Building material, precious stones, silver and gold;
We want no wood or hay or stubble,
They only deceive us—they are a mere bubble.

We want noble women whose hearts are strong,
Who are willing to push this great work along;
We want noble men who are willing to send
This temperance gospel to this great world's end.

We want all who will to come and go along,
And help us to swell this temperance throng;
We want old and young and all we would seek,
Because it will only cost you two pennies a week.

Sectarian names among us are unknown,
Because in this "Union" our hearts beat as one;
We are banded together to work for God
And point fallen humanity to the heavenly road.

We care not for color or shade or hue,
We want men and women with hearts strong and true
Who will lift the temperance banner high
Until its echo shall reach the sky.

We will carry this work from shore to shore,
From State to State, from door to door,
From nation to nation, this wide world o'er,
Until the saloon shall be no more.

O ministers of God we call your attention,
And ask you to be with us in every convention;
Go tell it, go sing it, go spread it abroad,
That temperance reform is a message of God.

We plead with the Mayor and city officials
To help us to banish this curse from our land—
It's destroying the lives of the cream of this nation
While grief-stricken fathers and mothers go down to their graves.

And many fair daughters are ensnared therein
To lead a life of shame and sin.

You ask what we've done? The work is so great I'm sure
I can't tell.
Many things have been done and done so well,
That my heart doth rejoice and my soul is made glad at the thought
Of the good work these noble women have wrought.

They are traveling now all over this land,
And the good work they are doing surely is grand;
They are forming unions and L. T. L.'s
And all the churches are ringing their bells
To sound the glad tidings throughout this land,
Of this woman's Christian temperance land.

In the Signal and MESSAGE you may learn what we are doing,
Also the sin of intemperance that whisky is brewing;
But the most important of all you know
Will be in the end—the saloon must go.
Wawasee, Ind. —By Mrs. JOSEPHINE WOODS.

ANNUAL CONVENTION.

The Marion Convention was the largest State meeting of the W. C. T. U. ever held in the United States. Our National President, Mrs. L. M. W. Stevens, is the authority for this statement. She also said it was the largest convention she had ever seen outside of the National. There were three hundred and ninety-two delegates entitled to votes, one hundred and twenty more than voted last year. The number might have been very much larger. Those whose names had not been recorded on the credential blanks up to the time of the reading of the report of the credentials committee, were debarred from voting by the decision of the convention. While the M. E. church in which the convention was held, was the largest building to be had, it was wholly inadequate to contain the crowds that wished to attend, and at times there was scarcely room for the delegates. Once at the beginning of a session, a number of women were noticed standing in the aisles, and the Chairman requested that all delegates be seated. The reply came quickly; "Madam President, we can't until we get somewhere to sit." Matters were helped by sending several county delegations to the choir loft.

It is impossible to put into "cold type" the wonderful enthusiasm and holy zeal for the cause that was manifested. It is simply indescribable. The decorations were said to be the most beautiful and tastefully arranged ever seen at an Indiana convention. Flags and banners were everywhere, while potted plants and palms added a touch of summer green. A floral design representing a white bow stood on one of the tables on the platforms. Several charts showing the work of the Sabbath-observance department had been placed on exhibition by the Superintendent, Mrs. Hattie Holler. Seven hundred and seventy-seven feet of newspaper clippings which had been collected by the press workers and sent to the State superintendent, were festooned around the walls, and the Sunday School pledge card chain containing many hundreds of cards was used in the same manner. The motto of the Board of State Superintendents was a prominent feature of the decorations. It was a strip of muslin on which was artistically painted in letters large enough to be easily read from the farthest corner: "Make a Chain; for the land is full of Bloody Crimes." Underneath was a chain of six links, each link was of a different color, representing the six main divisions of the departments. An expression of tenderness and love might have been noticed in the faces of the women as their eyes rested on the beautiful white ribbon star spangled banner, which means so much to them. Two other national banners were also to be seen. As it is usual at our convention, the music was very fine. Our Mrs. Studebaker won fresh laurels for herself, and the tender sweetness with which she sang was an inspiration to the weary workers.

The newspapers were very kind. They published detailed reports of the convention, and condensed reports of officers and superintendents. They had much to say in praise of our beautiful President and her many good qualities of mind and heart. The other officers were also recognized as women of more than ordinary mental force and moral courage.

The hearty cordial welcome extended by Mrs. Cammack on behalf of the four hundred white ribboners of Grant county and the churches of Marion was greatly appreciated. The President's address was a masterly production, and we would that every Christian woman and man too could have heard it. The Treasurer's report showed a balance in the treasury of $335.92. An increase of nine hundred and forty-six members has been made this year, insuring Indiana a place on benefit night at the national. A telegram from the National Treasurer announced that Indiana is ahead in the contest for the banner, but that twenty-one more members were needed to secure it. Twenty-two members were pledged in a few moments by the delegates and their dues paid. Miss Anna Gordon arrived Friday morning, and was in the convention much of the time. She captured the hearts of the people by storm. Everyone loves Anna Gordon. Her address on Friday evening was of great interest, as she told of the purpose and plans of the L. T. L., and what it has accomplished. She made a touching appeal to help save the children.

The annual address of James Gipe the State President of the L. T. L., would have done credit to a much older person. He is a boy of whom Indiana white ribboners are justly proud. He was presented by Mrs. Balch, Superintendent of the Medal Contest department, with a diploma for having won all the four medals in the W. C. T. U. course. To illustrate the relationship between the W. C. T. U. and the L. T. L., Anna Gordon proposed the idea of a "living picture." The State President and her son; the State President of the L. T. L. and his mother, all delegates, were called to stand together on the platform. Some one placed dear Anna Gordon in the middle and then the picture was complete. At the close of the meeting the large audience pressed forward to take the hand of Miss Gordon and the others. The L. T. L. convention Saturday morning was full of interest. Miss Gordon explained more fully the L. T. L. work, and spoke eloquently for the encouragement of the young people. Allen county received the L. T. L. banners. Fort Wayne has five legions with a membership of three hundred and fifty-five. Mrs. Drake of that city spoke of the work of the anti-cigarette League, and Mrs. Haupt, of Wabash, told of the L. T. L. chain; which is a petition against the use of the face and figure of any woman for the purpose of advertising tobacco, cigarettes, etc. "Baby" Squiers, recited very effectively, and Mrs. Studebaker, entertained the convention with song. Kokomo received the L. T. L. banner for having paid the most dues.

Nearly all of the ministers of the city were introduced to the W. C. T. U. convention, most of them being on the platform at one time. They all responded with such hearty words of sympathy and encouragement as made the heart glad. H. S. Bonsib, was also introduced. The Grant county Superintendent of the schools, Mr. Alex Thomas, is a noble young man and an honorary member of the W. C. T. U. Think what this means. He also greeted the convention from the platform.

The plan of work committee recommended the following plan for the maintenance of the Hadley Industrial School: A committee to be appointed by the chair to make estimates of the funds needed for next year, make assessments on unions in ratio of membership and send the proceeds to the Hadley Home Board quarterly. Also endorsed the stirring campaign. The report was adopted. Between $300 and $400 were raised by subscriptions in a short time, toward the new building at Hadley, to replace the one recently destroyed by fire.

The officers were all re-elected by splendid majorities, and Miss Clara Sears was again chosen to lead the Ys. Mrs. K. F. A. Straw was elected L. T. L. Secretary. The majorities for the officers were nearly all larger than the entire vote at last convention. The National President, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, arrived during the election of officers. She was escorted to the platform and introduced to the convention by Mrs. Eunice Wilson, President of Grant County, who presided during the election of officers. Tippecanoe county delegation presented Mrs. Stevens and Miss Gordon with roses, also the general officers of the State. Mrs. Holler was also presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses by Mrs. Travis on behalf of the county Superintendents of the Sabbath Observance department. Wonderful progress has been made along nearly all lines of department work this year. Too much cannot be said in appreciation of the work of Miss Clara Sears in her devotion to the Y. work. She has planned largely and systematically in a way that must bring success. The program on Y. night was said to be the best ever arranged and carried out by young women. The church could not contain the crowds that came to hear Hon. John G. Wooley, and an overflow meeting was arranged for in the Christian Temple across the street. Mr. Wooley's speech was in subject very much the same as the one he delivered at the La Fayette convention, but was none the less interesting. He raised a laugh at the very beginning by addressing his audience as "Fellow citizens—and women." He was frequently interrupted by enthusiastic applause. On Sunday, all the pulpits of the city were filled by white ribboners. The convention church was not half large enough to contain the crowds who desired to hear Mrs. Stevens on Sunday afternoon, and after every available foot of space inside had been occupied, a large crowd remained outside. Miss Gordon was called on to address the overflow meeting at the Christian Temple. Mrs. Stevens took for her subject, the success of prohibition in Maine, and was listened to with almost breathless attention. At the close of her address she made an earnest appeal for members. Miss Georgiana Moser was called to the platform and pleaded earnestly with young women to enlist in this great work. One hundred new members were secured for Grant county. The white ribbon bows were tied by Miss Anna Gordon, and pinned on by Mrs. Stevens, making them doubly precious to the recipient.

Marion is a wide open saloon town, but one Sunday all the saloons were closed by order of the Mayor. This was done out of respect for the city's guests. Mrs. S. D. Curtis addressed the members of the Y. M. C. A. on the subject of purity. Her talk was much appreciated by the young men, and quite a number of them signed the white cross pledge. An effort was made to add a new department to the already long list, to be called the department of Conventional Dress, but it was defeated. The motion to amend the constitution so that State Superintendents may become a part of the executive committee was lost by a vote of eight for, and one hundred and thirty-nine against. Indiana delegates to the National Convention are authorized to invite the National to Indianapolis in 1900.

Monday night was given to the State Superintendents, who furnished the program. Each superintendent was given the opportunity to speak for her department, and each wore on her shoulder a beautiful bow of ribbon of the color of her division. All had seats on the platform. Mrs. Elizabeth Stanley, made the address for the Legal division. It was full of "sparkling wit and keenest sarcasm," but solid truth all the way. Mrs. Stanley seems to possess a peculiar knack of being able to reach peoples' pockets and keep them good natured at the same time. She was twice given the opportunity to exercise her talent in this line. In many ways has this convention been among the best. May its influence go on and on stimulating to greater and better endeavor.

FLORENCE E. VANCE.

DEAR MESSAGE—To you I send our message of joy. Pt. Isabelle union through the efforts of our treasurer, Mrs. Salyers, has gained ten new members, thus helping keep that banner in Indiana and giving us a free lecture from one of the state workers. While we are rejoiced that so many women have joined our ranks, we still have room for more. Would like some plan to get the young women in the union. We feel the need of them and we think they would be better fitted for the duties of life if they would unite with us, helping fight the monster evils.

Mrs. EMMA J. McMANAMAN.

Convention Notes.

Four hundred delegates badges provided and not one to spare!

Mrs. Denny was detained in Colorado by the illness of her daughter.

The Recording Secretary has a fine reputation as an organizer and lecturer.

Our National President and Vice-president were a great inspiration to our convention.

No convention ever had more pleasant, smiling faced delegates than the Marion convention.

Our Superintendents of departments excel each in her own especial field, and we are all justly proud of them.

The convention did not arrange to bring any foreign workers into the field but to depend on our own workers.

The Vice-president is a very helpful person and is greatly esteemed by the membership, but is best known in her department the Normal Institutes.

The evening meetings were so largely attended that overflow meetings were an absolute necessity. They were held in the Christian Temple across the way.

Mrs. M. A. Tompkins was greatly missed in the convention. She will join Indiana at South Dakota where she has been resting, and go on with the delegates to Seattle.

We predict that Mrs. Eunice Wilson, Fairmount, Grant county, who presided during the election will some day be president of Indiana, she is greatly admired by the women.

No convention ever was blessed with more efficient local committees than the Marion convention. They have the hearty appreciation and thanks of every Indiana White Ribboner.

One-thousand copies of our minutes ordered for next year. The workers and local unions should order at once. Fifteen cents a copy if sent by mail, ten cents if you pay express charges.

Miss Georgiana Moser, Loogootee, our successful literature superintendent will enter the State matrimony October 19th. The sad part of it is that she is to make her home in the far west Mrs. Ella Angers Upton will take her place.

Rapid writing and over hours seldom improves penmanship but the secretaries are still retained to blot their paper and answer correspondence by return mail as heretofore. They are growing in years if not in grace and proficiency and some day will be superannuated.

It is probable the treasurer has a life term if she will accept, for the women feel so secure in the thought of no debt to harass them while she has the care of their funds that they will not think of a change. And all love and respect her for her ability and faithfulness.

Indiana has a president that stands second to none in the nation. She not only presides and walks at the head of the procession but leads in advanced thought and plans and has the confidence of her followers. Her recommendations for the coming year are very fine indeed.

We have an excellent corps of evangelists, led by Mrs. E. M. Houghton, of Richmond and we wish that each one of them might be kept constantly busy all the year. Correspond directly with them for dates and terms. You will find their names and post-office in the minutes.

A brother wearing a star on his coat reported to a sister with a white ribbon bow on her dress this bit of gossip: a saloonist inquired "How long is this women's business to last, if it has come to stay I must find some other place." Well my opinion is it will last until they all will find some other place, better places we trust.

Superintendents of Departments.

"No weapon that is found against thee shall prosper."

The Y Conference.

Delegates to the Y. Conference were called to order at 7:30 the morning of the 7th, State Secretary, Miss Sears, in the chair. Miss Zella Miller of Martinsville, President of the Y., acted as Secretary. Scripture reading part of the 25th Psalm, prayer Mrs. Amanda Kauffman of Goshen, minutes of Lafayette conference read and adopted, talk by State Secretary about the department of Anti-gambling, plan of work and a state program were discussed. The one Miss Sears presented was adopted for uniform work and study over the state and a thousand ordered printed and sent to president of Unions and Y. branches so each member can have one. Canteen in army or army saloon was discussed and it was recommended that every girl frown on the drinking custom and use her influence to help the boys.

Four Quarterly Y. Conferences were recommended in plan of work, to be held during the coming year, the State Secretary making the division of the state and calling such a meeting when it seems advisable, carried, twenty-two responded at roll call. Prayer by Mrs. Flowers of Shelbyville. Adjourned.

Saturday night at 7:30 those who took part on the program passed up the crowded aisle of the church and began promptly on time. Mrs. George W. Prutsman, of Anderson, was introduced and read for the Scripture lesson the 23rd Psalm, followed by prayer offered by Miss Sears. The Eureka Quartet Club of Upland furnished a selection and was heartily encored. Miss Elsie Spry of Marion, welcomed the Y's. to their beautiful homes the churches and the city. Miss Ethel McWhirter of Indianapolis our dear president's daughter, a young lady we are so fond of, responded to Miss Spry's beautiful welcome in her happy and cherry style and presented the sentiments of the guests in the city.

Miss Sears awarded the Y. banner to Goshen again, because they had made the greatest gain in membership this year. Mrs. Kauffman responded with a joyous tone because they could have their loved banner back again. Miss Abbie E. Bennett of Anderson then favored the audience with a beautiful solo, "Come Unto Me." The hour had arrived when Hon. John G. Wooley was to be introduced by the State Y. Secretary. What an honor to the Y's. of Indiana to have such a speaker and if we would profit by his counsel all the young men and boys who heard his voice would cast their first vote for prohibition and the girls and young ladies would work for prohibition. Mrs. Butterworth of Marion followed Mr. Wooley with a beautiful solo, "Father Come Home with Me Now." Mrs. McWhirter our State President was introduced and made the announcements. Again the Eureka Quartette Club furnished a selection. Musical talent in sweeter songs has never been upon a platform of a W. C. T. U. convention, than displayed on the Y. W. C. T. U. night at Marion. Benediction, Rev. H. A. Davis.

ZELLA MILLER, Sec. Pro. Tem.

The Semi-annual Convention and quarterly Institute of Washington county W. C. T. U. was held in the Baptist church at Livonia, Sept. 5th. Mrs. Mary Overman, of Salem, presided with her usual dignity and ease. Each Union in the county was represented all showing good reports. Fredericksburg Union is actively at work and good is being accomplished; their new members work like veterans. The treasurer reported good finance in the treasury. Superintendent's report showed an advance in most lines of work. Well written papers, select reading recitations and singing added much to the interest, and was received with much enthusiasm. On the evening of the fourth an old folks contest was held, three ladies and three gentlemen entertained the audience in a very creditable manner. Mrs. Mary Overman of Salem, received the medal on the recitation entitled "A Terrible Charge." The interest in the contest work is increasing, and we feel very much encouraged and hope some seed has fallen in good ground. We wish to thank the ladies of Livonia for their kind hospitality, during their convention session. The business of electing Officers and Superintendents came before us resulting as follows: Washington county Officers and Superintendents. Pres., Mrs. Mary Overman, Salem; Secty., Fanny Ellis, Hardsburg; Treas. Florence Gresham, Fredericksburg; Sabbath Observance, Ella Milton, Fredericksburg; Medal, Hattie Roll, Fredericksburg; Narcotics, Agnes Jones, Fredericksburg; Franchise, Florence Gresham, Fredericksburg; Scientific Temperance, L. D. Barnett, Hardsburg; Pres. Fanny Ellis, Hardsburg; Sunday School, G. Ragans, Hardsburg; Evangelistic, S. M. Shelt, Livonia; Temperance Literature, Jessie Wright, Livonia; Systematic given, S. M. Shelt, Livonia; Jail and Prison, Mary Overman, Salem.

FANNY B. ELLIS, Supt. Press work.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. LENA CHAMBERS, who was of modest tender nature, kindly spoken and loving disposition. Her place in the church, in union, can never be filled. She has gone to her reward.

Fourteenth annual convention of the Steuben Co. W. C. T. U. held at Pleasant Lake Sept. 12-13. Mrs. McWhirter was with us the first afternoon and evening. Our convention was well attended and much interest prevailed throughout the entire meeting.

The annual convention of the LaPorte county W. C. T. U. was held at Michigan City in the Presbyterian Church, Tuesday Sept. 19th. Thirty-four delegates were present, one minister and three honorary members besides many visitors and temperance workers not connected with the union. The county president, Mrs. Dr. Paxton of LaPorte, presided and the meeting opened with singing "While the Days are Going By." Devotion was led by Mrs. R. Pierce of Kingsbury. The forenoon was taken up with reports of officers and Superintendent. The Treasurer's report showed a balance in treasury of $12.50. Noontide prayer by Mrs. Bumgardner. Dinner and supper were served by the Michigan City ladies in the large dining room in the basement of the church and a pleasant hour was passed in social intercourse. Afternoon session opened at 1:30 o'clock with a piano solo by Miss Maggie Hamilton of Michigan City. Miss Marion Colborn also favored us with a very beautiful solo that was sweetly rendered and greatly enjoyed. After the election of officers and other business, Mrs. Ogden of Kingman, Kansas, came forward and told of the work done in the part of the country in which she lives. She said she had been county president of Kingman for seven years. Mrs. R. Pierce, of Kingsbury, also talked to us along the line of department work. We greatly regretted that the lateness of the hour compelled the speakers to cut short their very interesting remarks. The convention then adjourned to meet in the spring at LaPorte.

MRS. R. G. YOUNG,
County Supt. of Press.

Cass county convention was held at Logansport, Broadway M. E. church, Sept. 20. All the unions were represented. Good reports from most all of the superintendents. Logansport Central union made a canvass for new members and secured twelve which entitles them to a state speaker, which they expect to have at a future date. The National and State papers were represented by the county superintendent of literature and subscriptions secured. A paper on "Woman and Franchise" was read by Mrs. E. P. Potter of Star City. Plans of franchise work presented by Mrs. J. VanBuskirk. We will soon lose a very valuable member Mrs. M. E. Gould of Royal Center, our retiring president. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year; President, Mrs. E. T. Grable; Cor. Sec., Mrs. Fannie Carter; Rec. Sec., Mrs. Jennie Rogers; Treasurer, Mrs. N. J. Farose. Following are the superintendents of departments: Literature, Mrs. Guthrie; Scientific Temperance Instruction, Mrs. Martha Paugh; Christian Citizenship, Mrs. E. T. Grable; Medal Work, Mrs. Warne; Parliamentary Usage, Mrs. M. J. Stevenson; Flower Mission, Mrs. Ida McElheney; Loyal Temperance Legion, Mrs. H. S. Wilson; Non-alcoholic Medication, Dr. Taylor; Purity in Literature and Art, Mrs. Herd; Evangelistic, Mrs. C. P. Wright; Narcotics, Mrs. Butcher; Franchise Work, Mrs. E. P. Potter; Press, Mrs. Jennie Rogers. Closed with a medal contest in the evening.

MRS. JENNIE ROGERS,
Co. Press Supt.

Benton county has just closed a most successful convention, much interest was noticed among the visitors. Report of superintendents showed much effective work done. A Gold Medal contest was held with net proceeds of $9. Miss Elisa F. Baker was elected president again. The treasurer reported $43.37 money in the treasury. Miss Anna Douney was with us for five days speaking twice a day to large audiences and her deep meaning words have done a great deal of good. We hope to send our delegates to State convention with a great deal of the heaven of our convention. A club of seven-teen was secured for the MESSAGE.

MRS. ELLA M. MADDOX, Co. Press Supt.

The W. C. T. U. at Kirkland.

The visit of Miss Mary Hadley, vice-president of the State Woman's Christian Temperance Union and State organizer, to this place Monday and Tuesday of this week resulted in forming a nucleus for a local union and partial organization. The membership includes ladies from the different churches, who will perfect their organization and carry forward the work here which has elsewhere proved so effective in behalf of temperance, Sabbath observance and social purity. Mrs. Price, wife of the Presbyterian pastor, will act as temporary president and Mrs. O. H. Mann as treasurer.

Miss Hadley spoke at the M. E. church Monday night, giving a forcible and intelligent discourse on the vital issues involved in the great work of temperance and other reforms. She spoke on the economic and other phases of the temperance question and called attention to the noble work accomplished by the W. C. T. U. in securing legislation whereby scientific temperance education has been secured in all the states but three. The terrible evils resulting from the liquor traffic were depicted, but in all that was said there was no bitterness. It was really a gospel message on practical lines and it was encouraging to note that a representative audience was present and gave close attention to the speaker from beginning to close.

The twenty-sixth annual convention of the Indiana W. C. T. U. at Marion, October sixth to tenth was a remarkable convention for its length, its spiritual power, harmony and the amount of work reported, gained more and the enthusiasm which prevailed, sixty-five counties represented by two-hundred and fifty four local unions, over three-hundred and fifty enrolled delegates. The general comment as women met and conversed was, the best convention Indiana ever held. Miss Anna Gordon and Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens highly complimented us on our intelligent up-to-date women and our despatch parliamentary order. Over one hundred new members were added to the county roll. The display of the press department with its seventy-five feet of solid clippings pasted on a strip of paper, the six hundred Sunday-school pledges in a chain of red, white and blue, and the Sabbath observance charts, and the full reports from every department with a very few exceptions were most encouraging. The local committees had made the arrangements quite complete and visitor and hostess wore only smiles and kind loving words prevailed.

MARY E. BALCH.

The W. C. T. U. of Frankfort surprised one of their honorary members, Rev. E. H. Pontius of the United Brethren Church in a very agreeable way. On the last Sabbath of his pastorate for the conference year, members of the union met at their hall and attended his church in a body. Although surprised, he was greatly pleased and touched at this evidence of appreciation and good will. He delivered the sermon he had already prepared for this time, but out of deference to the White Ribboners, he gave it the "temperance twist." Nay, more than that, he poured out some straight "prohibition hot shot." Brother Pontius is a fine tenor singer and, by the way will be the musical director of the St. Joe district conference which will convene at Bourbon beginning Sept 15. He sang a beautiful solo for us entitled "Some Mother's Child" which was greatly appreciated. We recommend that more of the unions surprise their pastors in this way. Brother Pontius said that it was an inspiration to him and we know it was a blessing to us.

FLORENCE E. VANCE.

Mrs McWhirter's lecture in the evening will not soon be forgotten. She was obliged to leave early and the Executive Committee was to have finished up the business of the Committee after she was gone but just as she finished speaking an alarm of fire was sounded and the fire department rushing past the church threw such an excitement into the congregation that nothing more could be done, so the meeting broke up in confusion and we missed the collection.

The officers elected were Pres. Mrs. Julia E. Thurber, Ossian; Cor. Sec. Mrs. Mary Krewson, Ossian; Treas. Mrs. Emma Stadabaker, Bluffton; Rec. Sec. Mrs. Mary Cook, Bluffton.

L. O. Chupp, Press reporter.

Mrs. K. T. A. Straw, North Manchester, was for years L. T. L. secretary and gave the work into the hands of Mrs. A. R. Gordon, of Argos. Mrs. Straw is quite restored and the work comes back into her hands again. Mrs. Gordon was not in attendance at the convention because of sickness. It was a great disappointment to her legioners, as they depended on her for the direction and carrying out of the program.

Any one desiring the Willard Scarf Pin write to Mrs. Amanda T. Whitson, 3,335 North Meridian street, Indianapolis, who has them for sale, price fifteen cents.

By request of Mr. James Gipe, President of the Loyal Temperance Legion, our own Mrs. Mary A. Leavitt, wrote the following:—

Indiana, we are coming!
Yes, the L. T. L. are coming!
Oh, the L. T. L. are coming
With brave banners, banners, and with song!

CHORUS.

You may count on the Loyal Legions,
You may count on the Loyal Legions,
You may count on the Senior Legions!
We're an army, army true and strong!

To the breeze we'll give our colors,
To the van we'll bear our banners,
To the van we'll bear our banners
Where the battle, battle-trumpet swells.

CHORUS.

You may count on the Loyal Legions,
You may count on the Loyal Legions,
You may count on the Senior Legions,
On the valiant, Senior L. T. L's!

'Gainst the foe that is most fatal,
'Gainst our common foe we'll battle,
'Gainst our common foe we'll battle,
Till the fettered, fettered all are free!

CHORUS.

You may count on the Loyal Legions,
You may count on the Loyal Legions,
You may count on the Senior Legions,
For the coming, coming victory!

HADLEY SCHOOL.

Dear friends of the MESSAGE: Your board of managers of Hadley school came home from the convention with hearts bounding in gratitude for the loyal support pledged to this school by the state organization. We feel that this school has entered upon a new era of prosperity, and from this on will nestle near the mother heart and will not merely live but will grow and expand until it will eventually accomplish much for the betterment of morals and the overthrow of intemperance in Indiana.

This step forward has renewed the courage of the projectors and near friends of this school and given it prestige in the community. Every friend this school has should stand loyally and diligently by this work at the present time. Our ideas must enlarge with increasing numbers in our school until we fully realize that helping this school is an opportunity for the highest kind of missionary work. When we realize that systematically providing, but two or three cents per month per individual membership of this growing organization, coming from the state treasury (if it be judiciously handled) may be the means of turning the course in life of very many girls. Who can estimate the extent of this change of influence, reaching even into eternity?

Let us never falter or look back. Let our contributions never grow less until our school is richly endowed. In addition to providing for running expenses, you nobly responded to the call for funds to help in erecting a fine building for laundry and other purposes. And here let me introduce do you another benefactor of Hadley School, Mr. Charles J. Freys, of Indianapolis, who is a skilled architect. He has drawn up plans for a building which is to include laundry, drying-room, milk cellar, vegetable cellar and hired-man's room. This Christian gentleman has made the plan without charging the school one cent, and he has consented to let the contract to a competent builder who will give bond for good work. Mr. Freys will superintend the building of it without any pay, save his carfare back and forth from Indianapolis to Hadley. Can we of the organization falter while such sacrifice is shown by outside friends? The work preparatory to the erection of this building has already begun.

Mrs. Hannars who has rendered loving service to the home for three years, has gone to her aged father for rest for herself and comfort to him. Mrs. Elizabeth Parker a member of the Friends Church has taken her place and is doing efficient work. Uncle Addison Hadley has recently given the Home ten barrels of apples which will help to preserve the good health of the girls. Mrs. Reynolds, of Indianapolis, sent to the Home a bedstead and rocking chair. And a loyal loving friend to our girls has placed $100 in the hands of a member of our board to provide extra food and delicacies for them. Surely "The Lord reigneth let the earth rejoice."

A Gala Day for the W. C. T. U.

The Inter-State assembly, held at Island Park, Rome City, Ind., will long be remembered as a most enjoyable as well as a profitable time. Representatives and delegates from Michigan, Indiana and Ohio Unions, with the assistance of their prohibition brothers, organized a permanent Inter-State assembly association to meet at Rome City annually. The management of the Rome City assembly are in hearty sympathy with the work of the W. C. T. U., and will hereafter provide a national speaker, the arrangement of the program to be in the hands of the W. C. T. U. State officers. To do justice to the speakers and those who helped make this assembly a success would be impossible.

The early morning of the first day was given to recreation. At 11 a. m. Prof. Jefferies rendered "Old Man in the Model Church," "Macbeth to the Dodger," and other selections. In the afternoon there was a short session of the W. C. T. U., with music by the assembly chorus. At 2:30 Hon. A. S. Zook, of Goshen, Ind., delivered a lecture, "Shun the Corduroy Road to Inebriety." In the evening a diamond contest was conducted by Mrs. McWhirter, State President of the W. C. T. U. There were five contestants, the Misses Lodena Miller of Marion, Leila Gray of Petersburg, Lottie Wands of Indianapolis and Nellie McPharland of Terre Haute, and Mr. James Gipe, State Pres. L. T. L. of Indianapolis. The contest was very close, each participant showing marked ability as an electionist. Mr. Gipe received the medal. A mandolin orchestra, solos by Mrs. C. E. Young and Mrs. B. F. Peters, and a gramophone enlivened the evening session. Second day opening services consisted of a W. C. T. U. Conference; subject: "What has the W. C. T. U. done for me." The earnest testimonials given by the members evinced that it helps not only a woman, but her family as well.

It brings out all there is good and noble in a woman, and it has been justly said: "It is a development of the heart." The Department work was under the directorship of Mrs. McWhirter. Among the speakers were Mrs. R. C. Travis of Elkhart, Mrs. Viola D. Romans, general Secretary of the Ohio W. C. T. U., Rev. Mrs. M. A. Ehlers, of Auburn, and Mr. James Gipe of Indianapolis. Mr. Gipe is a young man of rare talent for public speaking, about fifteen years old, the son of a W. C. T. U. worker, and is a good example of what the W. C. T. U. can accomplish in the home. He presented the work of the L. T. L. in a clear concise way that would do credit to a much older person, and invited all to come to Marion to the State convention to be held in connection with the State W. C. T. U. convention, and meet Miss Anna Gordon, the life long friend of Miss Willard; among other things he said were: Help us to organize the young people, the hope of the future depends on the young people, we have 30,000 L. T. L. members in the United States. A song service was then conducted by J. L. Parks, general Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Elkhart. "Sabbath Observance," by State Supt., Mrs. Katie Wert Haller of South Bend, Mrs. Haller is one of the most efficient workers in the State. She illustrated the work with charts that had been especially prepared for this work and are very valuable to this department, they are also works of art. A request has been made for them to be placed in the W. C. T. U. booths, in the World's Fair at Paris.

Mrs. Brand of Indianapolis, a State organizer, told how she had attended twenty-five county Institutes in the interest of the largest organization of women in the world, there being 200,000 in the United States alone. Ninety-two counties organized in Indiana with a uniform program used at all the institutes, papers read and addresses made by members of the W. C. T. U., thereby bringing together our own forces. Mrs. Romans, gave a very forcible address at the afternoon session. Following are some of the good things brought to us by this earnest worker:

"It is time to get out of the book of Revelations and get into the book of Acts."

"Train the law maker while he is still a child, for it is easier to train ten children than to save one drunkard."

"If you want to work for temperance, train children."

She told how an L. T. L. chartered street cars for a picnic, 1,200 children decorated them with the mottoes: "The Saloons must go!" And rode through the city singing their temperance songs. The railroad officials ordered the mottoes removed; on investigation it was found they were removed to please the "business men," who on further investigation proved to be the Saloon keepers. But on the return trip the children sang and cheered long and loud, striking terror to the hearts of these "business men," who read the "hand writing on the wall" and understood the interpretation there of death to the Saloon.

"The W. C. T. U. needs no apologies for its existence, it is a necessity." The influence of half a million members, is felt in forty nations reaching round the world. Hundreds of fallen men and women have been helped into a better way; art and literature are purified; the press is teeming with sentiments regarding the work. Tho' the great leaders pass from us to the other world, their works will never die. The saloon tends and intends to make our innocent children steal, blasphemy, and debauch, subsisting on the manhood of our land, devouring our sons and daughters. Three fourths the work of our police is caused by the dram shop." After this address, Dr. H. J. Becker, manager of the association, entertained the audience with an excellent temperance recitation.

Rev. Aron Worth, State Prohibition Evangelist, held the audience spell-bound for two hours, with his matchless eloquence, unique utterances, striking illustrations and practical suggestions. He confidently expects to live to see the saloon wiped out. May the Lord grant His servant the thing he desires. Mr. Worth thinks the more religion a church has, the less ice cream it will take to run it. Less of the world and more of Christ in our churches and the work is done. There are four million church people in this country who vote for rum.

FIELD NOTES.

Jackson, Henry, Hamilton, Sullivan and other counties are calling for an organizer.

Poneto union, Wells county, has a temperance library which the young people enjoy and patronize.

Jonesboro union, Grant county, has been re-organized by Mrs. Cammack with Mary Eaton at its head.

Hopewell union, Jennings county, had Mrs. Cammack for five services and the union was greatly strengthened.

The unions of Clinton county have adopted the plan of making the dollar membership fee include a subscription to the MESSAGE.

The president of the Farmer's Chapel Union is also Superintendent of the Sunday-school at that place. The combination works fine.

North Vernon Union is struggling but alive. Mrs. Eves and four others are doing their best to keep the holy incense burning on the altar.

Jennie Ward Guilford and Sallie D. Lemon, Dillsboro, write of the growing interest in the work and they regret not being able to attend the State convention.

The White Ribboners of Bluffton with Mrs. Cammack visited the Teachers Institute and gave a lesson on Scientific Temperance and urged the teaching of the same.

Miss Hadley's visit was hurried by reason of other appointments, but before leaving she expressed encouragement over the prospects for successful work in Kirklin.

Miss Hadley secured forty-four new members in Clinton county, of which twenty-seven are active and seventeen honorary and took thirty subscriptions to the MESSAGE.

At a conference of the Friends church held at Phlox, Howard county, Mrs. Cammack spoke from the text, "He setteth the solitary in families," which was a purity lecture.

Zerella L. Kimberling, Winterrowd, engaged in teaching there, writes of the excellent work done for them by Mrs. Ada Squier, of Martinsville. They hope to call her back soon.

Western Grove Union reports a Y. branch of ten boys and five girls. A quartette from this branch sings for the district evangelist in his prohibition meeting. Boys greatly interested.

Jane Turner, of Kokomo, has never forgotten her first love and at present is fashioning dolls after national and literary characters and selling them for the benefit of the home mission work of Kokomo union.

WELLS CO. W. C. T. U. met in Co. Convention in the Baptist church in Bluffton, Sep. 7-8. Co. Pres. Miss Cora Hood presiding. The program was well carried out. Reports of Superintendents showed much interest was taken in the work.

Mrs. McWhirter arrived about noon on Friday. Mrs. Stahl of Hartford City was also present, 38 delegates were there. Dinner was served in the church dining room and every thing was done to make the convention both enjoyable and profitable.

We have just closed a splendid county convention at this place (Grant Co.) Our state president was with us the first day and made a splendid address in the evening. The second evening we had a Gold Medal contest and the medal was awarded to Mrs Carder of Upland.

Clinton county has a new union at Kirklin. It was organized August 28 by Miss Mary Hadley with sixteen members eleven active and five honorary. Among the honoraries are the ministers and the editor. The latter offers the free use of his columns for the advancement of the cause.

A successful temperance meeting was held in the Friends church at Farmland Sept. 18th by Miss Mary Hadley. Quite a number of the influential men and women of the town were present, there were six ministers in the audience, five different denominations were represented by them. Miss Hadley spoke from an economical standpoint. Her address was delivered in the spirit of meekness and love, which always tells.

ALICE H. SMITH.

The Western Grove Union has in the last three months held three Gold Medal contests with grand success both financially and otherwise. Emily Coffin our very efficient superintendent of Medal Contest work trains so faithfully and the good points of the contestants are so many, that the judges are often bewildered in rendering a decision. But our sister superintendent goes right on drilling and holding contests and lo! in a short time the whole class appear wearing medals.

The W. C. T. U. of Frankfort have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President Mrs. Hattie Barricklow; Vice-president, Mrs. Jennie Stevenson; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Florence Vance; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Frank Hinds; Treasurer, Mrs. Anna Campbell. The Vice-presidents from the churches are as follows: Mrs. Minnie Walker, Christian; Mrs. Frank Hinds, Presbyterian; Mrs. Dwyer, Presbyterian Chapel; Mrs. Chlora Fortune, Methodist; Miss Patient Boyd, Baptist.

The ladies of the Edwardsport and Freelandville unions had a meeting and picnic at Westphalia. The following county officers were present: Mrs. Arrie F. Polk, President; Mrs. J. T. McJamsey, Treasurer, and Mrs. Nellie Virtue, Corresponding Secretary. We had talks from the members and an experience meeting on the subject "Why I Became a White Ribboner." Miss Hilda Reeves gave us a splendid recitation. After the meeting a bountiful supper was spread even to ice tea and ice cream. We secured one new member and several signers to the pledge, Knox county is arranging to have a booth at the fair and distribute literature and check parcels. NELLIE VIRTUE CHAMBERS, Co. Cor. Sec.

Monrovia Union has just held three silver medal contests, the same class contesting at three different places, viz., Monrovia, Hazelwood, and Center Valley; the two last named places being in Hendricks County. The class consisted of six young ladies, whose names and subjects were, Miss Sadie Hubbard,—"The Losing Side;" Miss Opal Lane,—"His Last Glass;" Miss Laura Marlette,—"Down With the Traffic;" Miss Mary Yager,—"Farmer Dear's Conversion;" Miss Mabel Stayton,—"Ruin And Crime;" Miss Lillian Young,—"Jacob and de American Wimmie." At the Monrovia contest, the medal was awarded to Miss Young; at Hazelwood, to Miss Stayton, and at Center View to Miss Lane. The selections were well rendered, considering the fact that the class had the benefit of only one lesson, circumstances preventing Mrs. Squier from returning and giving the second lesson, and being present at the contest.

Lebanon union was organized Sept. 8th 1898 with only six members who went bravely to work and by persistent effort doubled their number in less than three months and obtained the curfew ordinance. In six months we had gained a foothold and are steadily climbing upward and have doubled our number twice over. I have been intensely interested in this work and every day I try to win some one to the temperance cause. I had four or six names when I saw Mrs. McWhirter at Zionsville and I told her that if shoe leather didn't wear out, I would get the ten. At noon Thursday I got the ninth and was so worn out that Mrs. Shelby one of the best little women, drove over and she and I put in one evening and one afternoon and we gained the victory, thanks to her and to our Father who always helps in time of need. Pray for us dear sisters as we do for you.

URSHA DARNALL.

Elkhart county, W. C. T. U. has kept up the procession, and though the work progresses slowly at times, yet we have many things to be thankful for. We have five unions in the county and before the close of the year we fully expect to have as many more. Rev. Mrs. M. A. Thompkins, after being our faithful President for many years, sent her resignation from far off North Dakota, where she is trying to regain her lost health. She has devoted many years to the work of temperance, and it is to be hoped that she will be returned to us. Mrs. Laura Cole Phoenix, of Middlebury, succeeds Mrs. Thompkins as President, and though some fall by the wayside from over-work and are weary, God has seen fit to send us this dear sister as our leader. She is a woman possessed of the necessary amount of courage that is required of every woman that wears the white ribbon to stand nobly by, on all and every occasion, and do the full duty towards her fellow beings. She is a woman full of enthusiasm for the work, and has the will to accomplish what she undertakes.

The members of the different unions assisted the general public in passing remonstrance papers for signatures to prevent saloons from going in at Dunlaps, Middlebury and Nappanee. Gave receptions to new members. Organized a Y. at Nappanee, which gives us two flourishing Ys. in the county and good prospects of more. We also have an L. T. L. Nappanee Union has the permission of placing a public drinking fountain on her public square, and is earnestly engaged in raising the proper funds. We have just had our thirteenth annual convention, and feel encouraged by the many excellent reports. The subjects discussed at the convention, were presented by the Superintendents of the departments and were splendidly written, being full of what the name of this organization would imply. Many thousand pages of literature have been distributed at mass meetings, and by house to house visits. The editors of the county donated space for press work, and we had more space than we could fill. All the world admires staying qualities and our women believe in their adage that "believing is doing."

MRS. A. P. DAUB.

RALLY ALL!

BY REV. T. C. NEAL.

Dedicated to the W. C. T. U.

TUNE—Sweet By-and-by.

1 To the conflict so fierce bravely go;
Fill the ranks of the great temp'rance band;
Though defiant the death dealing foe,
Rise and crush him with unsparing hand!

CHORUS.

Rally all! Rally all!
Hark! 'tis God's trumpet call, Rally all!
In the fight for the Right,
One and all, great and small, Rally all!

2 Soon the set time to conquer must come;
Now the day of deliv'rance is near;
See the faltering legions of rum,
Vainly raging, while quaking with fear!

—Chorus.

3 "Make a chain!" make a chain great and long;
Bind the monster whose crimes fill our land;
Weld each link well, that it may be strong,
All the power of our foe to withstand.

—Chorus.

4 Whisky-rings, see the hand on the wall;
See the sentence of God written there!—
"Weighed and wanting!" Ye surely shall fall,
And be chained in the pit of despair!

—Chorus.

Gross receipts for the year $1,304; net receipts $448.68, gain over last year $700.63. Females in classes nine-hundred and ninety-nine, males two-hundred and thirty-four. Eighty-two counties had medal work this year, a gain of thirty-five over last year. Six-hundred and sixty books used in the field. Premiums for the next year: work began October 7 1899 and will close October 6 1900. The county or medal worker holding four diamond contests will be entitled to a grand gold medal or a full set of Miss Willard's books free. The county or medal worker holding five grand gold contests, will be entitled to a small gold medal or a life-size picture of Miss Willard framed ready for the wall. The county or medal worker holding five small gold contests will be entitled to any silver medal free. It is a great mistake and an injustice not to give contestants opportunity to complete the course and receive their diploma. Let us try to correct that this year.

THE MESSAGE.

"Not by Might nor by Power, but by My Spirit."

VOL. III, No. 11.

INDIANANAPOLIS, IND., NOVEMBER, 1899.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION, 35c. PER YEAR.

Special Work for November.

Let the Indiana W. C. T. U. make its protest against the seating of Brigham H. Roberts, Polygamist Congressman-elect, heard. There is no time to lose as Congress assembles next month. Read the following and act without delay.

Opinion of Wilbur F. Crafts, Superintendent of The Reform Bureau:

The undersigned has been very slow to believe in the alleged revival of polygamy in Utah, but has been convinced at last by unanswerable evidence. The failure to reject or expel Brigham H. Roberts from the Fifty-sixth Congress would be taken as national permission, if not sanction of that revival. To prevent this will require a great popular uprising, because the Mormon vote important in five States and two Territories, and in National elections, will make many politicians and many papers neutral, if not hostile, and already some "good men gone wrong" and even some good women are raising the cry of "religious liberty" as a shield for Mormon cohabitation—the American parallel of Oriental temple prostitution. It is fitting that we should recall at this time that Washington's chief message to the nation was, that Christian morality is the palladium of civil liberty.

Extract from Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens' Annual Address:

The Robert's Case.

Let us by petition and in all other reasonable ways, seek to bring about the rejection or expulsion of Brigham H. Roberts from the Fifty-sixth Congress. This case is plainly legitimate work for us, coming directly under the head of purity, one of our fundamental principles. The people of the United States, through Congress, have declared their hostility to polygamy. The framer of this law, Ex-Senator Edmunds says: "If a man is a polygamist he may be lawfully and rightfully expelled from the United States Congress. Not alone would his retention be a great stain upon American morality but it would have a degrading influence upon the people of Utah." One of the Utah papers says: "Our judgment is that if Mr. Roberts is seated in Congress it will be accepted in Utah as a notice that polygamy has no special horror to the law-makers of the United States, and it will be followed by practically full restoration of conditions as they existed here."

In taking action at this critical time we are co-operating with church missionary and reform societies who feel with us that to have an avowed polygamist sit as a law-maker at Washington would be "an insult to the virtue of womanhood and to the manhood of the nation."

Other Opinions.

MR. EUGENE YOUNG, grandson of Brigham Young, who is a vigorous opponent of polygamy, said in New York, on Dec. 20, 1898, at a public meeting:

"Through his election a people 300,000 strong have turned from American liberty and American morality and have taken the initial step toward the establishment of a hierarchy foreign to our institutions and social laws in the midst of our Republic. If Mr. Roberts were merely a law-breaker, frowned upon by his own people, it would be wasting time to make any efforts against him. But if in dragging polygamy into the House of Representatives he is representing the defiant sentiment of the whole Mormon people, then we must not rest until Congress has cast him out as a warning to all covenant-breakers and all polygamist. It is because those who know the feelings of the Mormon people believe he is an embodiment of such defiance that they are warning the nation against the new Mormonism."

The New Voice: "It is more than a question of private and personal morality. Polygamy is an institution at variance with our whole social system. There reasons to feel that it has been scotched, not killed. A stand taken by the House of Representatives at this time might go far to discourage any possible hope that may still be indulged in Mormondom for its revival. To expel Mr. Roberts would inflict no stigma upon him among his own people, but the institution which is represented in his person would receive a blow that might prove its finish."

HISTORY OF THE ROBERTS CASE.

When Mr. Roberts took his so-called "plural wives" it was a crime against national law. Polygamy has been a crime in Utah since he was six years old. In 1891 he pleaded "guilty" to bigamy or unlawful cohabitation, and served a term of imprisonment.

2 Polygamists were by national law deprived of the privileges of voting and holding office, and when amnesty was offered later to those who would abandon polygamy Mr. Roberts did not avail himself of it, and should therefore be prevented from even taking his seat, as in the case of John Q. Cannon. (Congress has also unquestioned power to expel.)

3. Despite above facts, he was elected to Congress by a very unusual majority, apparently because he not only practices but also publicly defends and advocates polygomy. (See his article in May issue of official Mormon magazine, The Improvement Era. Send to Senator or Congressman for House Report 2307, 55th Congress, containing extracts from his article and discussion of whole case.)

4. His plea that he is under moral obligation to continue his relations to all the women he calls wives, while it might apply to support, certainly does not apply to criminal cohabitation.

5 Religious cohabitation of Mormons has no more claim to toleration than the religious prostitution of Hindoos or the practice of "free love" as taught by other religious bodies. Sincerity is equally the excuse of them all.

6 The testimony from Utah, from polygamists as well as from Gentiles, is absolutely conclusive that polygamy is still taught and practiced and with increasing boldness. The following extract is from the unanswered and unanswerable New York address of Mr. Eugene Young, grandson of Brigham Young:

"Why, if the Mormon people have abandoned polygamy, should President Snow say, in an interview in September: 'I believe in the revelation given to Joseph Smith on celestial marriage, and that under certain circumstances Latter Day Saints would be doing no moral or religious wrong in practicing plural marriage under divine sanction and religious regulations?'"

"Why should Angus M. Cannon, president of the powerful Salt Lake Stake in the Church, say only last year, 'We still believe in the principle of plural marriages, as we believe in the practices of the patriarchs. You can't change a people's beliefs?'"

"Why should Apostle Woodruff, youngest member of the highest church quorum, say in June, 'The belief in polygamy is as much a part of the Mormon faith to-day as it ever was,' and that the young people could not, 'deny this part of their belief without denying the prophet Joseph Smith?'"

"Why should Mrs. Freeze, a leading woman of the church, say polygamy was a divine command of God? Why should Apostle Rudger H. Clawson, as late as October, declare he had been sent to the penitentiary as a 'testimony for Jesus,' when he had been sent for polygamy? Why should Apostle Heber J. Grant, who is living in polygamy, and who was Mr. Roberts' most influential supporter during the campaign, say in an address to the Young People's Conference in Logan, Utah, on November 13, 1898, that he felt to 'sustain the principles of the Gospel even to the extent of taking more wives, if necessary?' Why should Mormon Church publications and Mormon Church meetings in Utah ring with a defense of those who 'live their religion?'"

7 In view of these and other facts, it cannot be doubted that Utah has broken the covenant to cease polygamy, by which it secured statehood, and that the election of Roberts is the proclamation of its defiant revolt.

8 The imperative control asserted by the Mormon hierarchy over the right of its members to accept public office is a practical union of Church and State, and so another element of revolt against American institutions. All of which calls for the rejection or expulsion of Brigham H. Roberts.

Resolution Passed by the National W. C. T. U.

We believe that, by allowing Brigham H. Roberts, of Utah, to retain a seat in the national house of representatives, a blow will be struck at every home in our land. We therefore call upon our representatives to see to it that the moral standing of their honorable body shall not be so impeached, and we pledge ourselves to bring all possible force to bear to prevent so great a national disgrace as would be involved in allowing the congressman-elect from Utah to retain a seat in the chief council halls of the nation.

What the National W. C. T. U. is doing.

Mrs. Margaret Dye Ellis of Meriden, Conn., is our national superintendent of Christian Citizenship and is our regular lobbyist at the national capital. The executive committee of the National W. C. T. U. decided to keep up an active lobby at Washington, this winter and to prevent if possible the seating of Brigham H. Roberts, Polygamist Congressman-elect. A number of prominent W. C. T. U. leaders are expected to go to Washington during the session of Congress to assist Mrs. Ellis in her work.

Point Isabel union was organized November 5th, 1899. There was but little temperance sentiment in the community. We began with contest work and have awarded twenty-one silver medals, seven gold medals and one grand gold medal. Our people are now interested in temperance reform as never before. Some time ago we noticed in the MESSAGE that any union gaining ten members by September 15th would be entitled to a free lecture. We secured the ten and Mrs. Hattie Brand of Indianapolis was sent to us. She was here November 11th and 12th and talked for us Saturday night, Sabbath morning and Sabbath night. The meetings grew in interest all the time and everyone was sorry to see her go. By her coming among us we gained six active members, two honorary members and thirteen Y's. We were so pleased with her that we intend to have her again this winter for a week's evangelistic temperance services.

MRS. ANGELINE KILGORE,
President Point Isabel Union.

FORM OF PETITION.

To the United States House of Representatives of the Fifty-sixth Congress:

The undersigned organizations and individuals hereby earnestly petition your honorable body to reject or expel Brigham H. Roberts, Congressman-elect from Utah, which, in electing one who is both a confessed polygamist and an open champion of polygamy, has broken the solemn covenant made with the nation as the condition of statehood, and invited a general repudiation of that covenant by its citizens.

We also petition you to pass a bill to submit a constitutional amendment disqualifying polygamists for election as Senators and Representatives in Congress and prohibiting polygamy, so putting the punishment of it under jurisdiction of national officers.

The above petition was endorsed by vote of ..... to ..... by .....

of ..... State of ..... , on .....

and the undersigned was authorized to so attest.

[Signed] ..... , Presiding.

Mrs. S. M. D. Fry, National Corresponding Secretary said: "Indiana has shot ahead and distanced us all."

The Young Crusader being a child's paper is not just the official organ the Seniors would like. They asked for and I think obtained one page in the Union Signal monthly to be known as the Senior Grade page.

The National Y. W. C. T. U., reports ten thousand members, one thousand of which were gained this year. Miss Clara Parish was reappointed as National General Secretary, and Miss Annie Rothwell Stewart, Marriand, her associate.

National Superintendents in reporting made favorable mention of the following departments in Indiana: Normal Institutes, Sunday School, Sabbath Observance, Press (the Superintendent receiving the star.) Medal, Colored, and both of our branches.

Mrs. Katie Wert Holler is our State Superintendent of Sabbath Observance. When the National Superintendent gave her report, she spoke in highest praise of Mrs. Hollers plans and methods, and said: "She is a woman who thinks, and I would be glad to see her given a more prominent place."

Indiana delegates were besieged by State President and workers who said: "Do tell me all the details of your Institute plan. We believe it is the secret of your success." How glad we are to announce to you dear members, that she who has planned and worked so faithfully along this line, and has added more new members than any other one in the State, our own Mary Hadley has been made the National Superintendent of Institute work.

When Miss Minnie B. Horning, National Press Superintendent, made her report she said that in nineteen States alone during the past year thirty thousand columns of W. C. T. U. matter had been published. Indiana's roll of clippings was exhibited and the star press badge was awarded us for the best work in this department of work. An Illinois woman arose and said: "What is the matter with Indiana?" And the great audience of nearly eighteen hundred people cried out: "Oh she's all right."

One of the pretty scenes of the convention was when our President, Mrs. Luella F. McWhirter stood on the platform with her daughter, Miss Ethel, Y. delegate, and son, Felix, of the Indiana L. T. L., and received the prize banner for the largest increase in membership of any State in the Union. After the presentation of the banner the Indiana delegates and visitors sang our State song. We had been practicing all the way from Chicago to Seattle and did our very best. It was pronounced among the best of the State songs.

The Executive Committee recommended the removal of our National Headquarters from the Temple, Chicago, to Rest Cottage, Evanston. The question was fairly discussed and when put to vote carried by a majority of over one hundred and fifty. The cottage has been restored, and the furniture placed as it was when Miss Willard made it her home. The rooms which will be used as office rooms are commodious, and while they are under the same roof are entirely separate from the home. Miss Willard bequeathed this property to her sister, Mary B. Willard, and to Anna Gordon, and the National

W. C. T. U. has recently purchased the life interest of Mary B. Willard. It was urged by the advocates of the change that there is a financial advantage; that the cottage is admirably suited for headquarters. Rest Cottage has become the Mecca of White Ribboners, and there was a strong sentiment in favor of establishing our National Headquarters at this place which is destined to be one of the historic spots in America.

Hurrah For Indiana.

Indiana gained six hundred and fifty-nine members and brought back the White Ribbon starspangled banner. But four states, Missouri-South Dakota, California and Indiana made a gain of over five hundred this year. Twenty-eight states made large gains in membership and all are eager to carry off the banner next year. It will require earnest effort on our part to retain it. Ten women in Indiana have already pledged themselves to work for a gain of one hundred in their respective counties. Dear reader how many will you secure?

Seattle W. C. T. U. National Convention.

BY MARY E. BALCH.

DEAR CO-WORKERS:—It is a great pleasure to tell the story of the twenty-sixth convention of the twenty-fifth anniversary of our organization; spoken of and written down in history as the silver anniversary; and it was observed in regard to the treasury by adding thirty life members, some of them memorial, prominent among the memorial list, was Captain Hunt. Dear sisters have you heard any one say that "the work of the W. C. T. U. was finished, its power gone?" With deep regret I must confess that some Indiana women have talked that way, and that political newspapers have predicted the death of the organization every time it has spoken out loudly and bravely against some of the glaring political sins, but praise the Lord no single soul or organization of few or many will ever die from declaring the truth. And as I sat and drank in the atmosphere of spiritual power and purpose in that earnest enthusiastic gathering, and listened with wrapt attention to the work of the past year in our various departments, and the planning for the years to come, I said, God is surely leading. The vanished hand of our earthly leader beckons us on and there is no turning back, no faltering, but a steady going forward to victory, the final overthrow of licensed rum. The stain of licensed poison for revenue will not forever soil Old Glory, and put to shame a Christian nation. With me dear sisters in your prayers say it over and over, in union there is strength, and if God is with the union or better still the union with God, their is almightiness in it, that idle words and newspaper criticisms cannot harm. The election of officers for 1900 as nothing else, perhaps showed the minds of women as one. Mrs. Stevens received of the two hundred and twenty-one votes cast two hundred and six. When this ballot was announced the convention arose and sang: "Blest be the tie that binds." I must give you Mrs. Stevens words in full, in accepting the office, and in choosing her Vice-President, and the words of the acceptance of the Vice-President:

MRS. STEVENS:—Beloved comrades, as you were writing your ballots for the one who should be your President during the next year, I thought how great was the responsibility resting upon each one. For ours is a great cause, a beautiful cause, a glorious cause, and when I heard the result of the ballot I can not tell you what a sense of responsibility came down into my heart. But I tried to look up, and I remember that twenty-five years ago, in the name of Christ I consecrated my life to the work of the Womens' Christian Temperance Union, and I can stand here and say reverently, that I have never been sorry, that I never have faltered. There have been times when I have felt that I could not go on doing all that you expected of me, and I bowed my head day after day on my desk in my home in the Pine Tree State and asked that God would help me more and more, and then I tried to look away to the hills from whence cometh our help.

I thank you. I will try to do the best that I can. I know, beloved, that with me you are thinking of her whose pictured face is before us. I cannot, beloved, be to you what she was, but I will love you as she would like to have you loved. I will do for you and for our cause, with God's help, the best and all that I can, and together, hand in hand and heart to heart, may we press forward toward the mark, toward the victory which is sure to come to our blessed cause if we are loving, hopeful, faithful. I thank you over and over again. And I am grateful too, for these beautiful flowers. I have not had time to find out where they came from, but I thank the heart who thought of them and the hands who brought them.

On motion of Mrs. Ellis, a telegram, announcing the election, was sent to the husband of the President and to her daughter Mrs. Leavitt.

THE PRESIDENT: And now it is the privilege and the constitutional right of the President to nominate the Vice-President-at-large. You will recall, dear friends, what the President said last year in nominating the Vice-President-at-large, and I stand here before you to say now, what you already know, that Anna Gordon was the best Vice-President-at-large that the National W. C. T. U. ever had. During the year she has been everything to the cause, and so much to the President. I take the greatest pleasure in nominating Miss Anna Gordon as Vice-President-at-large of the National W. C. T. U. for the ensuing year. On motion of Mrs. Benjamin, the nomination was accepted, and Miss Gordon elected by a raising vote. Convention sang, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

MISS ANNA GORDON: Dear sisters, I want to thank you for this election, and to say just a word about this beloved President of ours. A little fellow in her own state, who came as one of a surprise party on Mrs. Stevens' birthday last March, described her so well that I am going to tell it right here in the family circle of the W. C. T. U. He stood looking at her as she talked to the boys and girls who were remembering her birthday, and running home after the little occasion was over, he burst into the room and said, "Mamma, I have seen Mrs. Stevens, and, mother, she is the straightest woman in the whole world." (Applause.) I leave it to you if we are not fortunate to have as leader of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union the straightest woman in the whole world. In that she is like the pine trees of her own splendid state.

There were two hundred and sixteen votes cast for Corresponding Secretary, and Mrs. Fry received one hundred and seventy-five. For Recording Secretary, two hundred and eleven, and Mrs. Hoffman one hundred and eighty-two of those. Whole number of votes cast for Treasurer, two hundred and thirteen, Mrs. Barker receiving one hundred and ninety. Such an object lesson must have its effect. No one denies there is great difference of opinion in this body of women on some subjects, and yet they differ in love and stand united for the main issue; and in our do-everything policy, which our enemies pronounce our weakness, lies our strength because we have the adhesive quality of God's grace and love to bind the whole into a cord that cannot be broken.

The great event of the convention was moving our headquarters to Evanston, a beautiful city of about thirty thousand with trolley service to make it easy of access. A large majority of the executive and of the convention favored the change. They believe an increased interest in the work of our organization and greater results in its extension and upbuilding will follow the use of this sacred property (all of which will finally revert to the National W. C. T. U.) as a home for the society's offices. The headquarters will be located in the more modern northern part of the house, built by Mrs. Mary B. Willard which is admirably adapted for offices and has more square feet of space for this service than the rooms at present occupied by the National W. C. T. U. in Chicago. Thus under the same roof will be closely associated the ever widening work of the National and the hallowed home in the south side of the house, of the one who was its beloved leader and the originator and inspirer of so many of its plans and purposes, and this part will be kept intact as when Miss Willard lived there.

The General Officers are convinced that with good telephone and messenger service which can be well afforded under the new plan, the work will not suffer on account of the offices being removed twelve miles from Chicago. Our headquarters are a National center and visitors, whether White Ribboners or not, who desire to call on the General Officers will now have the added incentive of seeing Miss Willard's home, which has for years been a Mecca for many travelers who have paid a visit there but have not called at headquarters in Chicago for lack of time. A glance at the Rest cottage register for the last two months will readily sustain the belief that this will continue to be true.

The memorial services of the convention were conducted very impressively by Mrs. Stevens. Thirty names in the roll. Six of the thirty were honoraries, one honoray from Indiana, Mr. J. Allen Balch, of Central Union, Indianapolis. I give much space to the press report not because Indiana looks well in the report but because there is so much in getting our work before the notice of the public.

The silver star given to the state making the greatest advance in press work this year goes to Indiana. The judges wavered between Indiana and New York, both were so excellent. Indiana's superintendent has taken up the novel plan of saving the clippings, pasting them on paper, and displaying them at conventions. Seven hundred and seventy-six feet in column width were taken to their state conventions, and brought to the National. This plan will be suggested by the National superintendent for all the states this year.

Mrs. Horning showed as an object lesson the newspaper clippings made by Indiana, and in the absence of the state superintendent, presented the prize for best reports on presswork—a silver star—to Mrs. McWhirter with the hope that the state would continue to "clip on, paste on and press on."

Mrs. ROUNDS: What seems to be the matter with Indiana? (Cries of, "She's all right!")

Mrs. McWhirter accepted the star in a fitting and characteristic speech, hoping the star might guide the wise women to Indianapolis in 1900. I could tell you as good things of all the departments reporting if space would admit.

Monday night was state benefit night and California, Missouri, South Dakota and Indiana were on the platform to share in the benefit, the four states having made a gain in membership of five hundred and over. Said Mrs. McDonald president of South Dakota: When I reached Huron, S. D., on my way here, there were great preparations being made for the coming of President McKinley and his cabinet, and a gentleman said to me, "Why, you are not going away so early in the morning, President McKinley is to be here." I said, "I am going to see a president who, if with a little scratch of the pen she could put into effect that canteen law, she would do it." (Applause.) Mrs. Hoffman, president of Missouri, and Mrs. Peet, of California, were very pleasing in their remarks.

Miss Gordon then stepped to the front of the platform with the white golden-starred banner and said:

Very tenderly and lovingly and gratefully do we think to-night of Frances E. Willard as we present these beautiful prize banners, the last tangible gift she made to the Women's Christian Temperance Union, a gift in the interest of an increase in membership in our beloved organization. There are four of these banners, all copies of a banner that she dearly loved and that she named the "White Ribbon Star Spangled Banner." To-night we will present only the banner that goes to the state having made the largest increase in membership.

Miss Gordon then presented the banner to Mrs. McWhirter, of Indianapolis, whose state for the second time had made the largest gain, and who stood with her young son and daughter beside her to receive it.

Mrs. McWHIRTER: One year ago it was a great surprise to us at our state convention to know that we had made sufficient gain in membership to be entitled to the banner. When we came to St. Paul and this banner was given to us, we were not puffed up. We went home with a burden greater than we can explain to you to-night, because we realized that added responsibility had been given to us, and that in order to be worthy of the banner, we must keep up the momentum, that we must go on and not falter.

It has been said over and over again since our coming here, that we have made a success. Friends, we have not counted it as such. We know the roads we have traveled, and we know that Indiana contains a thousand open saloons. We recognize that the strongest organization to-day in the state of Indiana is that of the Liquor League; we know that the league has money, has power and has political friends, and that as such it wields an influence in the courts and in the legislature that we cannot hope to wield until we are stronger. We represent to-day five thousand women, the truest and best, I believe, of all in the whole nation, over whose hearts flutter the white ribbon; women who have come into the work because they had a conviction. We will go on and on, until there shall be no license laws in the state of Indiana.

The Indiana delegation came to the platform and sang the state song.

Dear Sisters do you read the Union Signal? Well, with its sixteen pages there is not room to tell the convention story only in the briefest manner, and in our dear little MESSAGE it must be still briefer. However, I hope there has been enough said, for you to get the step and be filled with zeal to make that march "on and on" our beloved President spoke of, until our grand Hoosier State shall be free from the rule of ruin; and not only our own State, but all the world.

HADLEY SCHOOL.

DEAR READERS—We write you with the assurance that you are anxious to hear from the dear girls in the school and other matters pertaining to their interests. The day-school opened with thirty girls in the home. There was delay in the opening, owing to disappointment in securing a teacher.

At the meeting of the board held November 1st it was decided that we could not take more girls until larger accommodations were provided. Our present capacity is strained to care for the thirty now in the school. The erection of the laundry building is being pushed by a competent force of workmen and we hope to have it completed before the winter closes in on us. Mr. Carnack spends much time in the home, looking after the workmen, seeing about building material and aiding the managers in lines of economy in all departments of work. Mrs. Bettie Parker, our new superintendent, seems to be carrying her work in a systematic way and the girls seem happy and interested in their daily routine of duties.

We are resting in the thought, that all subscriptions to the laundry building will come in at once, so that we can make entire settlement when building is finished. And please do not forget that we need running expenses.

Sincerely yours, LUCRETIA HOBART.

DEAR SISTERS—By you responding so readily at Marion convention toward the building of our laundry and milk cellar we have begun the work. Our architect assures us the building will be completed in four weeks and I will ask those giving pledges to forward same to me as soon as convenient as we want to pay all bills promptly receiving some reduction by so doing. Our girls are all delighted to know of these needed improvements being made. And can say for the board and girls many thanks to our dear women who have contributed toward this improvement. Let me hear from you soon.
Sincerely yours, REBECCA HESSONG,
Treasurer.

DERA LOYAL LEGIONERS—Having received a letter of sympathy for the illness of my father, which prevented me from attending this very important test convention, and appreciation for work done, written by Miss Ina Boyer, state treasurer, in behalf of the L. T. L. executive and Legioners of the state, I wish to express to all my gratitude for this kindness. I thank you for your loyalty to me and to the cause which is so dear to me, and congratulate you upon the return of your former efficient secretary, Mrs. Straw.

I am glad that I have been considered worthy to be used as God's instrument to carry on the work until she could feel able to resume her duties. I hope that she may feel that nothing has been lost, but something gained and that there has been some advancement. I have enjoyed and been greatly blessed by our association together. I hope to hear of increased enthusiasm and a great increase in numbers.

There are one hundred and eighty-six now studying for diplomas who will be added to your number of graduates next year. A number of these were to have finished this year, but were hindered for some reason.

We are receiving encouraging reports from Seattle. Press onward. You have a grand work before you. Continue in your loyalty, be earnest in your fight for "God and home and native land" and "Work to win."

Lovingly and faithfully,
AMANDA R. GORDON.

The Bluffton Union.

Although the Bluffton union has lost by death two of its faithful members, quite recently, we are steadily gaining in numbers and in enthusiasm. A visit to the county, paid on November 5th was attended with good results, one signer to the pledge being secured.

We expect to carry forward the work of twelve departments this year, and we are proffered a column in the Bluffton Banner to aid us in bringing our work before the people of the county.

On last Friday, two of our members drove five miles through a blustering snowstorm to attend our regular meeting. They were damp and cold when they reached the city, but their ardor in the cause had survived the chill of the storm, and they entered into the spirit of the meeting as heartily as if the June sun and the June roses were having a holiday.

We want to greatly increase the number of subscribers to the MESSAGE during the year, and we could easily make the number of subscriptions equal our membership if we could secure several more honorary members. May the good work go on,
MRS. D. T. SMITH,
Sup't. of Press.

Systematic and Proportionate Giving.

MY DEAR CO-WORKERS:—Sickness keeps me from attending the State Convention, after I had planned so long to go, but of course it was all for the best. In regard to the important work of our department, do let each and every one of the local and county workers in this branch of the work "do their level best. Angels can do no more than that." Our work has progressed well for the last year, but we must not be satisfied with that but press forward. Repeatedly I have made out the list of questions so will not take up space by sending them again. I believe you all know what they are, if you do not, send me a card and I will write a letter to you giving them again. Keep full reports and write to me from time to time, telling of the work and of your plans and desires. I have leaflets which can be furnished you at twenty-five cents for one hundred. May you all be prospered in the work, and may we come to the close of the year bringing many sheaves with us. Yours Sincerely,
S. M. SHELTON,

Livonia, Ind., Nov. 2, 1899.

FIELD NOTES.

Mrs. Jessie Butler, former President of Warren county, Indiana, now of Urbana, Illinois, was made State Superintendent of literature, recently at the State Convention. Indiana women will shine wherever they go.

Grant county had a convention jubilee at Jonesboro, November thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth. "Gather up the fragments that nothing be lost."

Greencastle, Putnam county, reports thirteen departments, and the intention of doing is permeating the entire union.

Mrs. Martha L. Gipe, President of Marion county, has organized a union at Rushville. Officers not reported yet. Mrs. Gipe has recently held a very successful mothers meeting at Fort Wayne.

A letter written November sixth, at Palace Hotel, San Francisco, California, from our President tells us of her delightful trip through Washington and Oregon, and her week's visit at Roseburg with relations where she organized a Y. and added thirty members to their Union. The Mayor of the town, one of the noted converts. We know all the friends enjoy knowing our sister and her children are enjoying the trip and advancing the cause.

Ripley county Sunman calls for James C. Gipe, L. T. L. President of Indiana, to organize a legion for them. The President of the county Mrs. Josie Thackery, writes very encouragingly of their work.

Harrison county, Elizabeth, calls for an organizer, and we hope the call will be answered with a worker very soon.

Whitley county, Churubusco, Mrs. Emma Pressler is active in medal work.

Huntington county Convention November 16th and 17th at Warren. A gold medal contest.

Randolph county, Modoc, will work for a curfew law.

Clinton county, Sedalia, has elected new officers. President, Mrs. Mattie Peaters; Vice-President, Miss Ella hoof; Corresponding and Recording Secretary, Mrs. Sorals Miller; Treasurer, Miss Laura Morford. The union was represented at the county convention at Rossville, and also at the State convention loud in praise of our President, Mrs. McWhirter. Mrs. KATE COAPSTICK.

Hendricks county, Coatsville, has a new Y. of ten members, organized by Mrs. Squiers of Martinsville, Nov. 3rd.

Report of Rossville, Clinton county W. C. T. U. Convention.

FRANKFORT, IND., NOV. 6, 1899.
Convention was held at Rossville, September 19th. Our county President, Mrs. Emma Saylor, presided with her usual grace. The new officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. Emma Saylor; Corresponding Secretary, Elizabeth Dwyer; Recording Secretary, Chlora Fortune; Treasurer, Sarah Miller, Sedalia; Evangelist, Mrs. Coudon, Frankfort; Press, Mrs. Dwyer; Mothers' Meetings, Mrs. Julia Humes; Narcotics, Mrs. Steckel; Jail and Prison, Mrs. Hinds; Franchise, Mrs. Angie Cole; Christian citizenship, Mrs. Jennie Steckel; Sabbath Observance, Lenora Carter; Medal Contest, Mrs. Morfit; Purity, Mrs. Boyeer; Y. Branch, Mrs. Condon; L. T. L., Emma Sazler; Parlor meeting, Jennie Harshman.

Reports of unions show much good work done in all departments, and Clinton county W. C. T. U. was never in as flourishing condition. Our State President was with and was helpful through the day sessions, and her lecture in the evening was a rare treat. The Rossville union, and the Ministers, and Professors of the Schools, and other friends of the cause assisted in making the convention one of the best ever held in the county. In the evening, forty children favored the audience with their music and singing. Mrs. McWhirter is a great favorite in the State. She is an excellent speaker, has a pleasing personality, and is doing a noble work for the temperance cause.

ELIZABETH DWYER, Cor. Sec'y.

Howard county held the most interesting convention this year in Kokomo that has been our pleasure to attend. While the number of White Ribboners as well as the attendance of visitors were perhaps not so great as we would have wished, yet the interest was there. We certainly appreciated having our state president, Mrs. McWhirter with us and trust she may come again. We think we awoke some spirit of interest as two ministers not only gave us some encouraging words but gave their money as honorary members. The ex-mayor, Hon. J. B. Kirkpatrick, gave us a very interesting address suggestive of how we can form popular opinion through the press, and we hope our sisters will not neglect this important avenue.

EMMA W. MOORE,
Howard County press reporter.

Allen County.

The W. C. T. U's. met in their annual convention in the M. E. Church in Hoagland, which had been very tastefully decorated for the occasion. The convention opened at 1:30 Thursday afternoon, September 14th, with Mrs. Omo, the county president, presiding. The first session we listened to reports, principally, some of which were very encouraging and gave evidence of faithful work. Especially Mrs. Loutitt's report of Mothers' meetings. Thursday evening Rev. Anislie, of Ft. Wayne, lectured to a large and appreciative audience on the subject, "Some up-to-date methods of Temperance work." Friday morning was devoted to the discussion of various lines of work, and the election of officers which resulted in the following: President, Mrs. Emily McIntosh; Recording Secretary, Mrs. M. A. Orno; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Ida J. McIntosh; Treasurer, Dr. Carina Banning. We feel that new energy was aroused, inspiration received and efforts encouraged, to press on and do more efficient work in the coming year. May God crown our efforts with success.

COUNTY PRESS SUP'T.

Sabbath Observance.

DEAR SUPERINTENDENTS:—The results of last year's work in this department are very gratifying, and I want to thank you all who labored so earnestly for the cause, not only for the assistance you gave but for the kind words and acts of cheer you so freely bestowed. In our rejoicing let us pledge anew our energies to the cause, and give of our time and talent that the Lord's day may be preserved. Nothing that we can do will be more effective than the circulation of good literature. The department has more than fifty different leaflets bearing upon various phases of the Sabbath question, and these should be distributed everywhere throughout the state. Let us print and circulate the Sabbath laws and have them published in as many papers as possible; such publications prove to be sensational news, so little do people know of their laws. The laws can be obtained from any attorney or justice for the asking. Request your minister to preach sermons and to write articles on Sabbath Observance for Saturday Editions of your daily papers. Do not be backward about pushing your work. When the people see you are in earnest they become interested. Ask young people's societies to have a Sabbath Observance committee, they will be glad to work with you, for christian young people are anxious to advance this cause.

Elkhart county's new Superintendent, Mrs. Travis, reports that her county is already organized, with a Superintendent in each local union in the county, and much work has already been done.

The following questions which should be answered quarterly will give you an idea of the lines of work we wish to advance this year:

1. Number of Superintendents, county and local.
2. How many pages of literature distributed?
3. How many items to public press? Give circulation of the papers.
4. How many public meetings held?
5. How many prayer meetings held?
6. How many mass meetings held?
7. How many sermons preached?
8. How many Sunday Schools and L. T. Ls. addressed?
9. How many signatures to Sabbath pledge?
10. How many Sunday Schools have had pledge signing?
11. How many signatures to National Sunday rest petitions?
12. How many signatures to other Sabbath Observance petitions?
13. What have you done to close Sunday saloons?
14. What have you done to stop Sunday base ball?
15. Have you done anything against Sunday excursions or Sunday newspapers?
16. Is Sabbath desecration increasing or diminishing?
17. What other Sabbath Observance work have you done?

COATESVILLE, IND., NOV. 6, 1899.

Mrs. McWhirter:—I am requested to send a report of our W. C. T. U. to the MESSAGE. We had Mrs. Ida B. Squier and little Emma with us last Friday night, Saturday and Sunday. The Baby Squier recital Saturday night was excellent. It was the best entertainment held here for years. Mrs. Squier's lecture Friday and Sunday nights were interesting and helpful. The old members were much encouraged and eleven new members were secured. A Y. W. C. T. U. of about eight members was organized. We can heartily recommend Mrs. Squier as an earnest efficient worker.

Yours,

MRS. MINNIE HUNT, Cor. Sect'y.

You read of the foundations, frame-work, sheathing, thatch, reception room, laundry, kitchen, dining room, force-pump, electrical system. Old and young are alike interested in the delightful story of the marvels of the body. You could not find a better

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

Greetings to My White Ribbon Sisters—The Indiana delegates and friends en route to the National W. C. T. U. convention at Seattle, Washington, went in a special sleeper from Chicago to Seattle via Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Northern Pacific lines. Leaving Chicago Friday evening, October 13th, that we might visit the Twin Cities, St. Paul and Minneapolis, a stop over of about ten hours was granted at St. Paul. This gave time and opportunity for seeing the cities. We visited the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis, which is splendidly equipped with facilities for the education of the sons and daughters of that State. We went out to Minnehaha Falls. In the walking and the climbing we almost wished for Hiawatha's moccasins.

Sunday was spent in the Prohibition State of North Dakota. The services in all the Protestant churches of the city were conducted by White Ribboners. Carriages were provided by the citizens of Fargo to take all delegates and their friends to and from the churches. In the afternoon a great mass meeting was held in the large opera house. We were welcomed by Mayor Johnson, Judge Pollock, the State W. C. T. U. President, Miss Elizabeth Preston, whom Judge Pollock called our "Queen Bess," the ministers, the local W. C. T. U. and others. Responses were made by our National officers and others. The audience was very large and enthusiastic. Somehow we seemed to feel strangely at home there, especially when Judge Pollock, who represents a large constituency on the judicial bench, and Mayor Johnson so strongly advocated Prohibition. What Mayor Johnson says of the condition of Fargo under Prohibition will be given to the readers of the MESSAGE in the next issue.

PROHIBITION LAWS PROHIBIT.

Placards, saying "No wines or liquors sold in North Dakota," are placed in the dining cars on the trains that pass through the State. In the dining car wines and liquors are served in all States having licensed liquor laws, except where there has been some special legislation against it. This is only in one or two States. On our long journey across Montana, Idaho and Washington we realized that there were many men who made frequent trips to the dining car. A ranchman, a Swede, who was drinking, aroused our interest and attention. He seemed to appeal to us for help from himself and several gamblers who seemed intent on keeping him under the influence of liquor.

This was evident as he boarded our train in Montana with seven hundred dollars, half or more of which had disappeared—no doubt into these gamblers' pockets. The Swede, Gus Closson, was en route to Seattle. At his request, Mrs. Thayer, of Plymouth, allowed him to put the remainder of his money into her care. Upon our arrival at Seattle, Mrs. Thayer and Mr. and Mrs. Z. H. Stanley went with Mr. Closson and deposited the money in the bank to his credit. He was penitent and felt helpless under the tyranny of the alcohol appetite. He told us of his home in far-off Sweden, his christian parents, their death, etc., of his mother's dying when he was sixteen years old, and her last request that he be a good boy. How he came to this country and learned to drink. The curse of God will surely rest upon a so-called christian nation that will not only send liquid death to heathen nations but will deal it out to landing emigrants at its very gates. God help us to wage our warfare against the liquor traffic in all of its forms!

After traveling for several days and nights with people, you feel interested in them if in any way they appeal to you. Our party was in every way congenial, loving and kind. Every heart responsive to humanity's needs and with unselfish effort trying to help work out God's great plans. How I wish that I could tell you all of the true, the beautiful and the good we found in the companionship of those short days—they were short to us, for they were freighted with hours of souls communion, which only tried spirits know. Such privileges give us a glimpse of that higher, better life in the great beyond.

LUELLA F. McWHIRTER.

HONORS TO INDIANA W. C. T. U.

The White Ribbon Star Spangled Banner for the greatest gain in membership last year of any State in the Nation.

The Silver Star awarded to the State Superintendent of the Press, making the best report of any in the Nation. This came to our own dear Mrs. Florence Vance, whose column of newspaper clippings measured 777 feet.

The National Department of W. C. T. U. Institutes was given to Indiana's State Superintendent of that department, Miss Mary Hadley, who is also our State Vice-President. By her ability, constancy and loving faithfulness, Miss Hadley has, by the co-operation of the loyal membership, enabled us to stand far ahead of all other States in Institute work. From many states inquiries regarding our Institute plan have been received during the past year, because the National officers had referred other States to Indiana.

Upon recommendation of Mrs. Varilla F. Cox, of New Jersey, the National Superintendent of Sabbath Observance, Mrs. Katie Wert Holler, of South Bend, was elected Associate Superintendent of the National Department of Sabbath Observance. This is surely a just recognition of the splendid plans and great work accomplished in this department by Mrs. Holler as Indiana's State Superintendent.

Upon the recommendation of Miss Esther Pugh, National Superintendent of Proportionate and Systematic Giving, Mrs. S. M. Shelt, our State Superintendent of the Department, was elected to serve as an Associate Superintendent of the National Department. Mrs. Shelt is a gifted woman who has furnished some of the best literature used by the department.

TO THE MEMBERSHIP.

I hope you will understand this letter and believe I write it, as I trust, with the greatest conception of love that I am capable of. I attended the Woman's Equal Suffrage Conference of their National in our city December 7th and 8th. I found I could not give my name to the local society formed here without the feeling that I had denied Christ. They were so particular to have you understand they were not a religious organization and did not so much as acknowledge God in the opening of any one of the meetings by a form of prayer. While the program was very entertaining and some of it instructive, yet there was a lack in the meeting. The first evening they had a full house and it was a large audience; the second evening a smaller audience. To my knowledge the absence of prayer on the first evening kept several home on the second one.

They explained they had one object only, woman's ballot, asking it on the ground of justice and right; and in the face of that they name over organizations, such as the W. R. C. and Red Cross, giving those societies credit for the educational work they had done. They said there was no suffrage work in Indiana, except a few local clubs, entirely ignoring the fact of our W. C. T. U. county and local workers, and the presence of our State Superintendent, Mrs. M. A. Tompkins. Dear sisters, our suffrage department has most excellent plans thought out and to some extent wrought out by our National and State workers and what we do is done in the name of God. We may expect His blessing.

I do most sincerely trust that white ribbon women will do their suffrage work in their own organization. I hope we shall not make the mistake of many excellent men whose lives have the appearance of being Christians, except when they vote. We white ribbon women claim to be Christians all the time and that will mean when we work for suffrage, too. There was a State Association formed, too. A Mrs. Julian, of this city, was made President; Mrs. Armstrong, of Kokomo, Vice-President. I regret I cannot give the name of Secretary; she is from Irvington. The Treasurer is Mrs. Alice B. Waugh, Tipton. Mrs. Catt, their National Organizer, is a very pleasant and forceful speaker. Miss Mary G. Hay is her co-worker in the field and was present in the meetings. Dear Miss Anthony is looking well and carries her age wonderfully. A Mrs. Upton, of Ohio, their Treasurer, while claiming that she was not a speaker, did some good talking in quite an original way. I have not learned how the conference regarded the success of the occasion. However, I should say it was a success. In closing I wish to emphasize that I shall do all I can for woman's ballot under the white ribbon banner. Your comrade in service,

MARY E. BALCH.

GIBSON-CAMMACK.

10:30 on Thanksgiving morning, in the bride's home, with a few relatives and friends present, among the members her father, our Mattie Cammack was married to Mr. Daniel Gibson, of Grant County. For the present they will reside in a suburb of Marion, Jonesboro, and Mrs. Gibson's mail will reach her if addressed Marion or Jonesboro. We know the one question all white ribboners are asking is, Do we lose her as a worker? We are glad we can answer no, we do not, and because this is true we all the more heartily join in our congratulations and assure Mr. Gibson that we regard him as a very fortunate man, blessed of God.

By the generous consideration of Mr. Gibson, our State W. C. T. U. will have the privilege of still claiming Mrs. Gibson as an organizer and Institute leader. This is greatly appreciated. We feel that the family circle has been enlarged by the addition of a brother. Welcome! Congratulations hearty and sincere to these two people who have renewed childhood friendships.

Mr. Gibson is a successful business man of Jonesboro. He is a prohibitionist, a "Friend," and in perfect sympathy with the W. C. T. U. work. He is also a Woman's Suffragist. He and Mrs. Cammack have known each other for years, therefore could not be deceived or make a mis-alliance. He will make a good father for her children. He has lived a clean, pure, moral life, consequently has a high appreciation of women and their work.

ATTENTION, DELEGATES!

Have you reported the National Convention to the Unions of the group of counties sending you as a delegate? If not, why not? They need the help and inspiration which your reports will give them. Unions that send delegates should insist on having full reports. A few delegates had passes, while two or three were able to pay their own expenses, but the majority expected to have their expenses paid, wholly or in part, by the counties sending them. We have heard complaints from some delegates that the Unions sending them were not paying their assessments. Sisters, this ought not so to be. The Convention of '99 was the most expensive in our history. Conventions cannot be held without delegates and it is not right to ask any woman to represent you and then fail to fall in with the State plan and pay the assessment due from each Union.

Remember the Golden Rule.

The Broad Ripple W. C. T. U. was delighted by a lecture to women only, by Mrs. Cammack October 15. Recently our County Superintendent of Narcotics read a paper on the evils of narcotics to a little audience in the home of one of our sisters, Mrs. Kirkpatrick. Our ladies gave a thank offering meeting at the home of Sister Lydia Heady's November 23, 1899, which was well attended. Nice refreshments were served after the meeting. The offering amounted to a little over seven dollars, which was sent in to the Hadley Home Fund.

LITERATURE.

"Some people are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them." I belong to the last class, as I was chosen to take Miss Moser's place without my knowledge or consent. But since the Executive Committee saw fit to confer this honor upon me, I shall try to do the best I can. Dear sisters, let us labor together to make the coming year the best that Indiana has ever seen for the distribution of literature. We can reach many people in this way that can be reached in no other. So long as the saloon is in our midst we must labor in every way possible for its overthrow. I have a leaflet on "Literature," in which you will, I think, find helpful suggestions in your work. I would like for each Union to use them and carry out the work therein planned. They can be had for forty cents per hundred. Let each County Superintendent send me her name and address at once, and if there is any way in which I can be helpful in her work I will gladly do all I can. Below you will find a list of questions to be answered in the Annual Report. They will help you in keeping an account of your work done.

1. Name of Superintendent, County or Local.
2. Number of pages of literature distributed a, new literature, b, second-hand literature.
3. Number Union Signals taken. Number MESSAGES taken.
4. How many Department Superintendents have ordered literature from the W. T. P. A. through you?
5. How many ministers supplied with the Union Signal? How many with the MESSAGE?
6. How many editors supplied with the Union Signal? How many with the MESSAGE?
7. How many public libraries or reading rooms supplied with temperance literature?
8. At how many public meetings have you distributed literature?
9. How many wall pockets in public places kept supplied with fresh, up-to-date temperance literature?
10. How much money expended for literature?
11. Make any suggestions that you think will help the work in your locality or in the state.

The County and Local report blanks are the same.

MRS. ETTA AYRES,
State Superintendent.

BRICKS WITHOUT STRAW.

"Then they cried, saying: Wherefore dost thou deal thus with thy servants? There is no straw given thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick, and behold thy servants are beaten; but the fault is thine own people."

Any comparison may be pushed to the point of absurdity, but the sole object of our text is to impress upon the mind of every woman interested in the temperance reform the vital importance of rendering all assistance possible to the thousands of loyal, devoted teachers, who are endeavoring to train up intelligent men and women with high principles and purposes and who need our most cordial and helpful support in the work they are doing against the most trying odds.

This is especially true in the efforts to give sound and intelligent scientific temperance instruction. Not every teacher has that special knowledge or training that will enable her to present this subject with force and clearness, and therefore lacking the "straw," many are at a loss to know how to proceed.

"Straw" is provided already for the use of these willing teachers in the School Physiology Journal. Every month this paper contains carefully prepared lessons for primary, intermediate and high school classes, in temperance physiology, with valuable suggestions for giving the lessons, and authoritative quotations from the most eminent scientific authorities in the world regarding the physical effects of the use of alcohol and narcotics.

To the teacher who is obliged to rely much on her own efforts in gathering material for her lessons, this paper is a constant blessing. To the teacher who is eager to supplement her own general knowledge, the Journal is no less a boon. To both it brings every month in its lessons, editorials and general articles a fresh store of the latest facts and aspects of temperance truth and thus keeps the teacher thoroughly informed as to the progress and every new phase of the question.

The Journal is attractive in form, has charming illustrations and beautiful selections of verse, short illustrative stories for the little ones and a series of historical articles for the elder pupils. There is no easier or more practical way of helping temperance reform than by placing this journal in the hands of every teacher. The cost is small, the price being sixty cents for a single subscription, fifty cents in clubs of five and forty cents in clubs of fifty. Few women could not personally send at least one copy for a year to some teacher. Almost any Union can supply the teachers of their own locality. The results are definite and encouraging. The cause of saving the next generation is urgent. We cannot justly blame teachers for failure if we have neglected to give them any assistance in our power, lest like the workers of old, they rise up and say, "the fault is thine own people." Address Mrs. Mary H. Hunt, 23 Trull Street, Boston, Mass.

As no notice has appeared in your columns of our County Convention, our President requests me to send you a few words concerning it. It was held a little while before the State Convention and I suppose my report was crowded out of sight in the busy time. Blackford County annual Convention held a two days' session in the M. E. church. Our lovely State President was with us part of the time and won all hearts. The weather was oppressively warm and both evenings there were violent thunderstorms. The papers and addresses were of the highest order. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. M. H. Stahl; Vice-President, Mrs. Anna Lee; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. A. T. Knight; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Prulson. 20 delegates and members attended the State Convention and at the next meeting the "Echoes" were full of interest. If every White Ribboner could attend but one State Convention one day in her life, and also subscribed for the MESSAGE, she would be better equipped for her work. Do you not think the visit of the State President to so many counties was felt in the attendance at State Convention? God bless her and all the workers.

L. D. ANDERMON,
Press Superintendent.

The White Ribboners of Michigan City held a meeting in the interest of the Press Department recently in the large parlor of the Congregational Church. "The Outline Program," as suggested by National Press Superintendent, Mrs. Minnie Horning, was carried out with two slight changes and the addition of good elocutionary talent.

The W. C. T. U. ladies all wore white bow neckties made of tissue paper, with the letters W. C. T. U. and the words "For God and Home and Native Land" printed on one end of the ties, and the word "press" on the other. The waiters wore newspaper caps and aprons, with the names MESSAGE, Union Signal, News and Despatch printed on the bands of the caps.

White paper napkins with the word "press" nicely printed across the corner were one of the novelties of the press lunch, and were carried away as souvenirs by the ladies.

It had been announced in the papers that a press lunch with printer's cake would be served at the close of the program. A lady who was present at the serving of the lunch asked what cheese had to do with the word press, and was told that it was pressed milk. The same question was asked about pickles and some one replied that they were pressed down with a board and heavy stone.

The room was decorated with paper fans and a large table was well filled with good literature, temperance papers and leaflets.

The program was a grand success, and the ladies received many congratulations upon their entertainment, although it received but a slight recognition from the press, probably owing to the fact that Michigan City is a whiskey town. It was remarked that had it been a cake walk it would have received at least a quarter column puff.

MRS. R. G. YOUNG,
County Press Superintendent.

To White Ribbon Sisters of Indiana—If any W. C. T. U. can use some foreign literature, let me know in what language and I will send you some sample leaflets. Do give this your prayerful consideration.

ANNA KILMER,
State Superintendent.

Lindley Union is progressive; interest is steadily increasing. On the return of our National Delegate, Mrs. Lida Autland, a delightful surprise was planned by the members of her own local Union. On the morning of November 15, many of the members going to her home each with well filled baskets. Just before being seated for dinner, a beautiful copy of God's Holy Word was presented to her by the Union, as a token of loving remembrance for her faithful work and loyalty to the cause. She has served nine years as President of our local Union, and four years as President of Howard County.

After having done full justice to the good things spread before us, all assembled to hear report of National Convention, which was listened to with eagerness for full two hours. Although the half was not told, we were comforted by the lateness of the hour to adjourn, dispersing (with baskets lighter than when we came) and with the resolve to be more faithful to the cause which we represent.

MISS MARY RUTHERFORD,
Press Superintendent.

The W. C. T. U. Huntington County Convention was held Nov. 16-17 in Warren M. E. church. Seventeen delegates and members were present, besides many visitors and temperance workers. The convention opened with Mrs. Rall, of Huntington, County President, in the chair. Mrs. Cale, President of Warren Union, led the devotional, after which the following committees were appointed: Resolutions, County, Press and Finance. President then gave her address, which was in the form of a message to the mothers and was full of many good thoughts. Noon-tide prayers were led by Mrs. Beck, of Bloomington. Afternoon was taken up with reports and papers on our work. L. T. L. was presented by Mrs. Mason. In the evening Mrs. Beck gave her lecture on "expansion," which was well received. Friday morning, after devotion led by Mrs. Worley, of Warren, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Lou Rall; Vice President, Ella Myers; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. James O'Neil; Recording Secretary, Alice Elvin; Treasurer, O. W. Whitelock; Supt. Literature, Mrs. J. W. Ray; Franchise, Pearl Rall; Jail and Prison, Mrs. Hoover; Scientific Temperance Instruction, Mrs. Mason; Evangelistic, Mrs. Worley; Mercy, Mamie Allman. Convention closed with a medal contest. Medal won by Mrs. R. E. Johnson, of Bluffton. This was the best convention ever held in the county. A small balance was left in the treasury. Warren received a number of new members and a Y organized which bids fair to be a success.

ELLA MYERS,
Press Representative.

MERCY DEPARTMENT.

I offer to any County Superintendent, where a county has one, or Local Superintendent where there is no County Superintendent, one dollar's worth of literature for organizing or causing to be organized the most bands of mercy, aggregating the largest number of members. County President, will you not see to it that a Superintendent is appointed in your county at once and urge her to try for the prize? That much literature in my line of work means a great deal to distribute in your county. Please, dear sisters, help me to bring the work of my Department up high this coming year. Let the last State Convention be indeed an inspiration which shall carry us to flood tide of success this year.

LOU E. RALL,
State Superintendent.

Martin County officers are as follows: President, Miss Susie Major, Loogootee; Treasurer, Miss Effie Williams, Shoals; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Laban Williams, Shoals; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Genevieve Webb, Loogootee.

This remarkable deed was given nine years ago to the W. C. T. U. organization of Indiana and accepted by said organization:

This indenture witnesseth, that Addison Hadley and Martha Jane Hadley, husband and wife, of Hendricks Co., State of Indiana, jointly in consideration and for the purpose of aiding and protecting and educating the class of persons hereinafter named, hereby convey and warrant to Mrs. Mary E. Haggart, Mrs. Lena M. Beck, Mrs. Alice Vining Hastings, Miss Lodie E. Reed, Miss Mary G. Hay, Miss Mary Hadley, Mrs. Josephine R. Nichols, Mrs. Caroline Hodgins and Mrs. Caroline Edgerton, trustees for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Indiana, which persons are now duly the selected trustees of said organization, and their successors who may be duly and regularly selected hereafter by said organization, of which Mary E. Haggart is now President, the following described real estate in Hendricks County, State of Indiana, to-wit: The west half of the northwest quarter of section twenty-four (24) in township fifteen (15) north, in range two (2) west. Also, the north thirty acres of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section twenty-four (24), township fifteen (15) north in range two (2) west, in all one hundred and ten acres more or less.

The above described real estate is hereby conveyed and accepted, to be used for a Home and Industrial School for needy and indigent girls, at such limitation of age as may be determined by, and designated as The Indiana Woman's Christian Temperance Union Hadley Industrial School for Girls.

The purpose and intention of the grantors in this case are to aid in the establishment of a home and school where the persons hereinbefore described may have the advantages of moral training and Christian and temperance instruction and a literary and industrial education in such pursuits as will enable them to be self-supporting, that they may be thereby prepared for useful lives, and that the cause of humanity and the religion as taught by our Savior Jesus Christ may be promoted in the world.

In harmony with the foregoing purposes, the following conditions must be regarded and observed by the grantors herein and their successors:

First: That under no circumstances or pretense shall said real estate or the rents or profits thereof be used for any other purposes than these specified herein.

Second: That no intoxicating liquors nor narcotics nor tobacco nor anything that may be intended for, or to be used for hilarious or stupefying effect upon the brain or body, shall be produced, sold or used on the premises, except for experimental or mechanical purposes.

Third: No military school instruction or drill or military parade or display, shall be permitted upon this real estate.

Fourth: That no person shall be employed or permitted to reside upon or board or lodge upon said real estate, who is guilty of profane swearing or using obscene, vulgar or vile language, or is of a disreputable character.

Fifth: That no religion shall be preached, read or taught or expounded or in any way permitted or encouraged upon said premises other than the Christian religion as taught and understood by the followers and servants of our Lord Jesus Christ as generally understood and taught at this day by Protestant Churches, nor shall any person be employed in any capacity upon said premises who does not accept and believe the essential truth of Christianity.

Sixth: That there shall be a general assembly for all the officers, inmates and employees, except such as may be excused because of sickness, once each day, at which a portion of the Holy Bible shall be read, followed by an appropriate and reasonable religious service.

Seventh: Every officer, inmate and employee and every other person or persons shall attend a school at some hour each Sabbath for instruction in the Scriptures, and any one who can attend such school but refuses to do so, shall be dismissed from employment or official position, except in the case of a pupil upon the promise of a parent, guardian, matron or the pupil not to repeat such disobedience, and an apology for such conduct.

Eighth: That no style of dress on or about the said premises that is injurious to the health of body or mind shall be worn. And last, but not least, all questions of right and wrong, moral or immoral, just or unjust, and differences of opinion, together with any and all questions that may ever come up, shall be judged and settled by the Spirit and teachings as laid down in the teaching of Christ in what is known as the Sermon on the Mount, as it appears in the Gospel of St. Mathew, 5th, 6th and 7th chapters in the New Testament as it is now printed and in most common use among Christian denominations.

In the event that said organization, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Indiana, by ceasing to exist, or the death in whole or any part of the trustees as aforesaid, and the provisions herein made for the selections of trustees, shall fail, then the court in Hendricks county, Indiana, having jurisdiction of probate business, shall select the same number of persons distinguished for religious character and capacity for such business as herein contemplated, and who shall be fully identified and in full harmony with the purposes, provisions and work contemplated by the provisions of this deed as trustees, and fill all vacancies in said number as they may occur, so that said institution and its work may be perpetuated.

If pupils should apply for admission by parent or guardian who are able and willing to pay for their education and expenses, they may be admitted subject to the terms and conditions hereinbefore expressed, if the said trustees so determine, but not to the inconvenience of the class herein first named.

In witness whereof, the said Addison Hadley and Martha J. Hadley, his wife, have hereunto set their hands and seals this the 28th day of October, 1890.

Signed, ADDISON HADLEY.
MARTHA J. HADLEY.

LETTER.

During the past month we have had presented to us a nice large, soft coal stove from Barneman & Doll, of Elkhart, Ind. Also a couch and other valuable articles for the home, amounting to $20.00, from Mr. Carmack, and yesterday a beautiful large quilt from Quaker, Ind., by the Hopewell Auxiliary of W. F. M. S., for which remembrances we feel grateful, and earnestly thank our Father above for all His rich blessings.

Very sincerely,

MRS. B. M. PARKER,
Superintendent.

TO THE SUFFRAGE WORKERS OF THE W. C. T. U. IN THE STATE OF INDIANA.

I am glad to have had the privilege of attending the Suffrage Conference of the National Women's Suffrage Association just held in Indianapolis. Glad to have seen the face and heard the voice of Miss Anthony, a woman just rounding out 80 years, over 50 of which has been spent in working to secure the ballot for women. I was glad also to learn the aim (for they have but one aim) of that Association more perfectly than I had known heretofore.

Their one aim is to secure the ballot for women without honoring God in any public way (from whom cometh every good and perfect gift) and without reorganizing our dear Frances Willard's plan of work in the suffrage department, declaring that there is no suffrage work in Indiana, while the fact is that Indiana has 85 counties in which W. C. T. U. women are at work securing names on petitions and agitating the question of woman's enfranchisement and educating the people by lectures, circulating literature and in many other ways helping to hasten the day when women's cause shall win. The work of the White Ribbon women is ignored entirely when their speakers mention every other philanthropic organization in the nation as helping to swell the suffrage sentiment and leave the Women's Christian Temperance Union out altogether, and that thing was done at the conference over and over again.

Now, women, that Association will not expect help from our ranks, but we will ever pray for them and let them work, and we will endeavor to do a greater work for God and Home and native state, while we work to secure the ballot for Indiana's women, knowing full well that only through the coming of Christ's Kingdom upon the earth can woman come into her rightful kingdom of Edenic equality with men.

M. A. TOMPKINS,
State Franchise Superintendent.

NOTICE.

Will those who have made pledges to our Industrial School for Girls through myself or others, kindly send the remittance direct to the wide-awake Treasurer, Mrs. Rebecca Hessong, Broad Ripple, Ind., who holds all pledges and will receipt you promptly? This will save expense of money orders, unnecessary correspondence, etc.

Also for information in regard to the School please address the up-to-date President of the Board, Miss Lucretia Hobart, 1101 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., who will be glad to answer all inquiries in regard to our most hopeful Institution for the dependent little girls of Indiana.

Letters addressed to me are often delayed, as they must sometimes reach me in the field by re-mail, and sometimes chase me about for a while and do not always catch me at a place where I can answer, but if you can catch me by oral questions at conventions, institutes, parlor meetings, meetings for organization, church meetings, or any other kind of meetings, public or private, ask what you will about the School and it shall be granted even to the best of my ability.

Yours in the interest of the School and for economy in time, postage stamps, money orders, etc.

MARY HADLEY.

Bloomington, Ind.

Our valued friends, Dr. and Mrs. Dashiell, have been sent from Aurora to the M. E. Church at Madison.

Mrs. Ada L. Squier is in Hendricks County at work. Every county should plan for systematic organizing work to be done.

For lack of space in this issue of the MESSAGE the Treasurer's report will not appear until the next issue. Blanks were sent to all County Treasurers the last week in November. Any County or Local Union not having received them please notify me and they will be sent at once. If possible, let me hear from every Union in your county, as I am anxious this year's report may far exceed that of last.

A. T. WHITSON,
Treasurer.

FIELD NOTES.

The recent action of a teachers' institute in raising a sum of money to be applied to the debt of the Temple was evidently taken under a serious misapprehension of the facts in the case, if the published reports are authentic.

It is only just to have it distinctly understood that for more than a year the National W. C. T. U. has had no connection with the Temple, having decided after eleven years trial, that it would be impossible to raise the money necessary for its ownership and that its possession would not be of benefit to the society. Therefore, there is a mistake on the part of any one collecting or giving money in the name of the National W. C. T. U., to be applied toward the ownership of the Temple.

It would have saved much confusion if the Young People's Christian Temperance Union, led by Miss Eva Shontz, had taken a more distinctive name, inasmuch as it is an independent organization with some plans and purposes altogether unlike our society, to which it is in no way auxiliary. We cannot too strongly urge our white ribboners to adhere to the plan of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union: the L. T. L. for the children, the Y's for the young people and the W. C. T. U. for the older ones.

Coatsville Union has been greatly blessed by Mrs. Squier's efforts. The Union now has 26 members, of whom 13 are new members. The Coatsville Y, organized by Mrs. Squier, has 16 members. May God bless the girls.

Mrs. Katie Wert Holler, of South Bend, Indiana's efficient State Superintendent of Sabbath Observance, has written a leaflet for the Department and expects to send one thousand copies into every county. To help pay for the one hundred thousand copies she is having published, she secured an advertisement for the back page of the leaflet.

Of "A Paradise Valley Girl," by Susanna M. D. Fry, the Union Signal says, "As a teacher who has loved and been loved by many girls, the author's intimate knowledge of girl life is apparent, and the beauty of the lesson is not less strong than the conviction it carries. Beautifully bound and illustrated with line drawings and full page halftones. 312 pages. Cloth binding. Price, post-paid, $1.25. Order of Susanna M. D. Fry, The Temple, Chicago.

As letters from various Unions, especially weak ones, have cheered us and urged us on so much, we thought a young and weak Union wished to help others on in the good work, therefore these facts are submitted to the public. We, the Centerton Union, though but seven months old and consisting of but six paid members, have held one public meeting. Rev. Theo. A. Doubty, of Vincennes, propounded to us facts taken from the text, "The Good Samaritan." We gave an ice cream supper July 18th, at which we cleared nine dollars to replenish our treasury. We are few in numbers, but hope to have more in the future. However, if we are unsuccessful in obtaining more members, we shall not become discouraged, but press on in the work we have commenced and wait patiently for the ones being educated to the work in the L. T. L.

PRESS SUPERINTENDENT.

Tipton Union will conduct an L. T. L. It is encouraging to know when a Union becomes sufficiently aroused to feel its need of educating the children in special temperance work.

There ought to be a W. C. T. U. Press Superintendent in every Union who would secure space in each newspaper in her town and promptly supply the editor with items. Not until this is done can we expect to have the public interested in our cause. Many do not know about our work. Some, on account of prejudice or indifference, are not interested. Let us everywhere make an effort to reach them through the columns of the newspaper. A good Press Superintendent will be responsible for fifty-two or more real W. C. T. U. addresses each year. They are silent, but very effective. Few people remember more points made by a speaker in an evening than they do from the reading of half a column on the subject in their paper.

Boone County's latest Union, at Lebanon, had a nice meeting last Thursday afternoon. I am sending them the little envelopes for the Hadley Home Thank Offering; also have sent a package to Zionsville with instructions to each. Thorntown Union has prepared a program for its meeting next week, and will attend to the matter.

We have had three good public meetings since the State Convention. Our excellent Superintendent of Mothers' Meetings, Mrs. Sarah Haller, Thorntown, has secured the co-operation of the High School Professor and all his assistant teachers to hold "Parents' and Teachers' Meetings" once a month in Thorntown. We held our first in November, in the High School building, and organized. We feel that this move will give us a leverage for our Scientific Temperance work. Mrs. Mattie Perry, of this place, is one energetic, skillful worker of this Department. She is making arrangements to place the school law in regard to temperance teaching in the hands of every teacher in the county. She distributed literature among them at our Teachers' Institute. This will be but the beginning of what she has planned to do.

Our Superintendent of Narcotics, Mrs. Anna Todd, prepared a program and secured a full house to hear it at Sugar Plains church on Sabbath afternoon. It was a very successful meeting.

Thorntown W. C. T. U. held their last week's meeting in the auditorium of the M. E. Church. A full program had been prepared and all came to time. Everything was excellent. The first paper was on "Temperance in Our Schools," the second was "Some Hindrances to Prohibition," the former by Mrs. Mattie Perry, the latter by Mrs. Sarah Haller. Both were listened to with interested attention throughout. Rev. T. J. Bassett, pastor of the church, made an earnest talk and greatly strengthened us all in the work. We feel that such meetings do good, and we find they create sentiment in our favor and increase our membership. At Thorntown an L. T. L. has been organized. We are planning for still greater things.

ORPHA G. CRIST.

Loogootee Union officers are, President, Miss Susie Major; Treasurer, Mrs. May Moser; Recording Secretary, Miss Cora Sears; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Genevieve Webb.
